and that alſo euerie of the ſaid ſearchers for the ſtipend or fee before limited from time to time, vpon lawfull requeſt to him made by anie perſon or perſons, hauing tanned lether in open market or faire to be ſold, within the limits of the ſearchers, ſhall put to his or their print, ſeale or marke, without contradiction or deniall, to euerie ſuch peece of lether ſufficientlie tanned, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie default by the ſaid ſearcher or ſearchers ſo committed iij. s. iiij. d. The one moitie thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord,and the other to the partie greeued,that will ſue for the ſame by bill,plaint or information, in anie competent court of record . In which ſute no wager of law,eſſoine,nor protection ſhall be admitted nor allowed.

Prouided alwaies,that this act,or anie thing therein conteined, be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie lord or lords,or anie other hauing libertie or liberties,faires or markets,or any of them,their heirs or ſucceſſors,or anie of them,for or concerning anie of the forfeitures expreſſed in this act, which they or anie of them lawfullie had or might haue had afore the making of this preſent act : this act or anie thing in the ſame mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Uniuerſit.

Prouided alwaies, that this act,or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the chancellors, vicechancellors, proctors,taxers, and ſcholars, their officers and miniſters,of the vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or anie of them,of,for or concerning the authoritie of ſearch of tanned lether,of anie of the forfeitures of the ſame : which they lawfullie had or might haue had before the making of this preſent act,anie thing therin conteined to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the true dieng of woollen cloth.

PRaien the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that where diuerſe perſons within this realme of England, aſwell aliens as other, vſing the myſterie or craft of diers,now of late haue vſed and exerciſed a falſe, ſleightie & deceiuable waie in dieng with brazill and ſuch other like ſubtleties,firſt inuented and found by aliens, borne out of this realme of England, to the great hurt and ſlander of woollen clothes died within this ſaid realme, which in times paſt haue in all outward parts beene noted to haue had the moſt ſubſtantiall coloured woollen clothes,of all realmes chriſtened. That it therefore maie be enacted and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueréigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no maner of perſon or perſons occupieng the ſaid craft of dieng within this realme of England,of what degrée or nation ſoeuer he be, from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God now next comming,doo take vpon him or them to die or alter, or cauſe to be died or altered anie woollen cloth or clothes, as browne, blew, pewke, tawnie or violet,or hats or caps, except the ſame woollen clothes, hats or caps be perfectlie boiled, grained or maddered vpon the woad and ſhot,with good and ſufficient corke or orchall,after a due, ſubſtantiall & ſufficient meane of workemanſhip, according to the old workemanſhip, before time vſed : vpon paine of forfeiture of xl. s. for euerie cloth, and iij. s. iiij. d. for euerie hat or cap ſo to be died or altered from the true workemanſhip,as is aforeſaid.

Brazill

And for becauſe that manie men occupieng the ſaid feat of dieng,falſlie and vntrulie doo occupie brazill in diuerſe and ſundrie coulours, to the great deceipt, hurt and hinderance of the kings léege people.

Be it therefore enacted and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons, occupieng the ſaid feat or occupation of dieng of woollen cloth or clothes, ſhall occupie anie brazill, into or within anie woollen cloth or clothes, hat or cap, within the ſaid realme : and in the ſkarlet colour occupie anie other thing than graine onelie, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie ſhillings ſterling for euerie cloth, and thrée ſhillings and foure penſe for euerie hat or cap made and died contrarie to the forme, tenor and effect of this preſent act . And the third part of the forfeiture or value thereof to be to the king our ſoueréigne lord, and the other two parts therof to be equallie diuided betwéene the ſaid perſon that ſhall be ſeizor or taker of the ſame,and the maior,bailifs,or other gouernors of the citie,towne,borough or village where anie ſuch ſeizure ſhall fortune to be,to their owne vſes.

Wardens

And that for the better reformation of the ſaid vntrue dieng of clothes, hats and caps : be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that it ſhalbe lawfull to the wardens of the myſterie or craft of diers of euerie citie,borough and towne corporat within this realme, where ſuch wardens be, and to their ſucceſſors,for the time being,and where no ſuch wardens be,to the maior, ſhirifs, bailifs, conſtables and other the kings head officers, of euerie citie, borough,towne & village, and to their ſucceſſors,to enter into all places priuileged and other, where dieng is vſed within their liberties, and within a mile compaſſe of euerie ſuch citie,borough,towne and village, where anie cloth or cloths, hat or cap,hats or caps,is or ſhall be put to dieng, died or altered into colours,as is aforeſaid, there dulie and trulie to view,inquire and ſearch,if anie default be doone, had and made contrarie to the forme,tenor and effect of this preſent act.

Search

And if anie maner of perſon or perſons, dier or other, withſtand, refuſe, or denie anie ſuch ſearch to be made, contrarie to the tenor of this preſent act, that then euerie ſuch perſon, ſo letting, refuſing,withſtanding,or denieng anie ſuch ſearch to be made in anie houſe or houſes,where dieng is vſed, at anie time héereafter, ſhall forfeit for euerie time offending,contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, fortie ſhillings . The third part of the which forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueréigne lord, and the other two parties to be equallie diuided betwéen the maior, ſhirifs, bailiffe and other officer of euerie ſuch citie, borough, or towne, and other the kings ſubiects, which ſhall ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, by writ at the common law, by bill, information, or plaint, after the cuſtome of the citie, borough, towne or port, where at anie time héereafter anie ſuch fines, forfeitures or penalties ſhall happen to fall or be: and that the defendant in anie ſuch caſe, ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, or anie protection or eſſoine, for anie defendant, be allowed in the ſame.

Prouided alwaies, that euerie ſuch perſon & perſons, as ſhall take anie aduantage of anie forfeiture, by reaſon of this act, ſhall commenſe his ſute or action for the ſaid forfeiture, within one yéere next after the ſame forfeiture, ſhall grow or be due by this act. This act to continue vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act concerning fleſh to be ſold by weight.

Chap.3.

COmplaineth to your moſt excellent highneſſe your poore ſubiects of this your realme, that where all maner of vittels before this time hath béene ſold to your ſaid ſubiects at priſes conuenient, ſo that all your ſubiects, and in eſpeciall, the poore perſons might with their craft or bodilie labor, buie ſufficient for the neceſſitie & ſuſtentation of them, their wiues and children, but now gratious lord, all vittell, and eſpeciallie béefe, mutton, porke and veale, which is the common féeding of the meane and poore perſons, are ſo ſold at ſo exceſſiue priſe, that your ſaid néedie ſubiects cannot gaine with their labor and ſalarie ſufficient to paie for their conuenient vittell and ſuſtenance. For reformation whereof it maie pleaſe your highneſſe, that it maie be enacted by your grace, and the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie perſon, which ſhall ſell by himſelfe or anie other, the carcaſes of béeues, porke, mutton or veale, or anie part or parcell therof, after the firſt daie of Auguſt now next inſuing, ſhall ſell the ſame by lawfull weight, called haberdepois, and no otherwiſe, the ſaid fleſh to be cut out in reaſonable péeces, according to the requeſt of the buier, in like faſhion as before this time hath béene vſed, without fraud or couine. And that euerie perſon, which by himſelfe or anie other, ſhall ſell any fleſh of the ſaid carcaſes, ſhall haue with him, where he ſhall make ſale of the ſaid fleſh, ſufficient beame, ſcales and weights ſealed, called haberdepois, for the true ſeruing of the buiers.

Priſes of fleſh.

And furthermore be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that after that daie no perſon nor perſons take, nor cauſe to be taken, for anie pound weight of fleſh, of the carcaſes of béefe or porke by him or them to be ſold, aboue the priſe of one halfepenie, nor for anie pound weight of fleſh of the carcaſes of mutton or veale, aboue the priſe of one halfepenie and halfe farthing, without deceipt or couine: vpon paine to forfeit for euerie pound not ſold by weight, or aboue the ſaid priſe limited, and for euerie default doone contrarie to the true meaning of this act thrée ſhillings foure penſe. The one moitie thereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint or information. In which ſute no eſſoine, wager of law, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

Prouided alwaies, that the heads, necks, inwards, purtenances, legs nor féet ſhall be counted no part of the carcaſes aforeſaid, but ſuch to be ſold for a lower priſe.

L.chancel.

And furthermore be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord priuie ſeale, and preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, and the two chéefe iuſtices of either bench, or fiue, foure or thrée of them, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, by their diſcretions, at all times héereafter for cauſes conuenient, to miniſh and abate the priſes aboue rehearſed: but in no wiſe to inhanſe the ſame. And that all iuſtices of aſſiſes in their circuit, and all iuſtices of peace, or two of them at the leaſt within their limits, and all maiors, bailifs and other head officers of euerie citie, borough, and towne corporat, aldermen, ſhirifs elected, ſtewards of franchiſes, the maiors, bailifs elected, and iurats of the ports, and all other perſons, hauing lawfull authoritie before the making of this preſent act, to ſet priſe of fleſh, and euerie of them in their limits ſhall haue full power and authoritie to ſet a lower priſe of ſuch fleſh as is aboue remembred, and to inquire of ſuch offendors, and to award like proceſſe againſt them, and ſet like fines as they maie doo in preſentments, or indictments of riot or treſpaſſe tried before them.

Calues

Prouided alwaies, that no calfe, aboue the age of eight wéeks old, be accounted for veale, but for béefe, and ſo to be ſold, as is afore rehearſed.

Prouided alwaies, that where the carcaſes of anie béeues, muttons, veale and porke, within anie parts or countries of this realme, be vttered and ſold better cheape, or after leſſe priſes, than in this preſent act is limited: that this act or anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not extend to anie ſuch countie or place, but that they ſhall and maie ſell at like priſes, and after ſuch rate, as they doo and vſed before the making of this act, vpon paine, as is afore rehearſed, anie thing in the ſame conteined notwithſtanding.

Clerke of the market

Prouided alwaies, that ſuch perſon and perſons, as now haue, or héereafter ſhall haue the authoritie of clerke of the market, or to ſet priſe of vittels within the townes and vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, and none other, ſhall haue the onelie power and authoritie to execute this preſent act from time to time, within the ſaid townes and vniuerſities, anie thing in this preſent act to the contrie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning ſowing of flax and hempe.

Chap.4.

The kings highneſſe calling to his moſt bleſſed remembrance the great number of idle people dailie increaſing throughout this his realme, ſuppoſeth that one great cauſe therof is by the continuall bringing into the ſame, the great number of wares and merchandize, made and brought out & from the parties of beyond the ſea into this realme, readie wrought by manuall occupation: amongſt the which wares one kind of merchandize in maruellous great quantitie, which is linnen cloth of diuerſe ſorts, made in diuerſe countries beyond the ſea, is dailie conueied into this realme. Which great quantitie of linnen clothes ſo brought, is conſumed and ſpent within the ſame: by reaſon whereof not onlie the ſaid ſtrange countries, where the ſaid linnen cloth is made by the policie and induſtrie of making and venting thereof, are greatlie inriched, and a maruellous great number of their people, men, women and children ſet on worke and occupation, and kept from idleneſſe, to the great furtherance & aduancement of their commonwealth: but alſo contrariwiſe the inhabitants and ſubiects of this realme, for lacke of like policie and induſtrie about the inuenting, practiſing, and putting in exerciſe like occupation, being compelled to buie all, or the moſt part of the ſaid linnen cloth continuallie ſpent and conſumed within this realme amounting to ineſtimable ſums of monie, in other regions and countries. And alſo the people of this realme, aſwell men as women, which ſhould and might be ſet on worke by exerciſing of like policie and crafts, of ſpinning, weauing, and making of linnen cloth, liue now in idlenes and ocioſitie, to the high diſpleaſure of almightie God, great diminution of the kings people, & extreme ruine, decaie, and impoueriſhment of this realme.

For reformation thereof, the kings roiall maieſtie, intending like a moſt vertuous prince, to prouide remedie in the premiſſes, nothing ſo much coueting as the increaſe of the commonwealth of this his realme, with alſo the vertuous exerciſe of his moſt louing ſubiects and people, and to auoid that moſt abhominable vice of idleneſſe out of this realme: hath by the aduiſe and aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, ordeined and enacted, that all maner perſons, of what degrée, eſtate, or condition they be of, hauing to their occupation thrée ſcore acres of errable land or paſture, or thrée ſcore acres of errable land and paſture, being apt for tillage, ſhall yéerelie for euer, after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, at their proper coſts and charges, till and ſow, or cauſe to be tilled and ſowen in ſeaſonable time one rod, that is to ſaie, the fourth part of an acre of land, being in their occupation, as is aforeſaid, with line ſeed, otherwiſe called flax ſéed or hempe ſéed, or with both, the ſaid rod to be ſowen in one place togither, or in ſeuerall places at their pleaſure: and ſo from the ſaid feaſt yéerelie ſhall till and ſow, or cauſe to be tilled and ſowen one rod for euerie fortie acres, which he or they ſhall happen to haue in occupation, as is aforeſaid, without anie fraud or couine, vpon paine to forfeit thrée ſhillings foure penſe for euerie fortie acres, which anie perſon or perſons ſhall haue in occupation, as is aforeſaid, and not till and ſow, or cauſe to be tilled and ſowen one rod, according to this act, in maner and forme afore rehearſed.

And be it alſo enacted, that all iuſtices of the peace in their ſeſſions, and maiors, ſhirifs, and bailifs, in cities, boroughs, and townes corporat, in their ſeſſions, or other courts within the limits of their commiſſions and authorities, ſhall haue power and authoritie to inquire of the offendors in this act, as well by the othes of twelue men, as otherwiſe by information by their diſcretions.

Iuſt. of p.

And if anie perſon or perſons be preſented afore them, within the limits of their authorities, or anie information giuen to them, of anie offendor of this act: that then they ſhall haue full power & authoritie vpon euerie ſuch preſentment or information, to make proceſſe againſt the offendors of this act, like as is commonlie vſed vpon indictments of treſpaſſe. And if anie be preſented, and afterward be conuicted by confeſſion or otherwiſe, that he hath offended contrarie to this act, that then he ſhall be put to no leſſe forfeiture than is aforeſaid, to the vſe of the king our ſoуereigne lord, if the offenſe be without cities, boroughs, or townes corporat. And if the offenſe be within anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, then the ſaid fine to be to the vſe of the maiors, ſhirifs or bailifs of the ſaid citie, borough or towne corporat, where the offenſe ſhall be preſented. And if anie be conuict by confeſſion, or otherwiſe by examination vpon anie information made by anie perſon or perſons againſt anie offendor or offendors of this act, that then euerie ſuch perſon ſo conuict vpon anie information, ſhall loſe ſuch forfeiture as is aboue remembred, the one halfe thereof to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to ſuch as ſhall make the information. And that for the leuieng of euerie ſuch forfeiture, aſwell the iuſtices of peace, as maiors ſhirifs and bailifs within the limits of their commiſſions and authorities, haue full power and authoritie to make ſuch proceſſe as ſhall ſeeme by their diſcretions.

Proceſſe

Prouided alwaies, that no information at the ſute of anie perſon concerning this act, ſhall be of anie effect, to put anie perſon to anſwer or loſſe of forfeiture, except the ſaid information be exhibited within one yeere next after the offenſe doone contrarie to this act. Nor that anie information or preſentment for the king to be of anie effect, to put anie perſon to anie anſwer or loſſe of anie forfeiture, by vertue of this act, except the ſaid information or preſentment for the king, be within two yeeres next after the offenſe doone and committed contrarie to this act.

For the declaration of the which ambiguitie and doubt, be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time héereafter, be indicted or appealed of or for the death of anie ſuch euill diſpoſed perſon or perſons, attempting to murder, rob, or burglarlie to breake manſion houſes, as is aboueſaid, that the perſon or perſons ſo indicted or appealed thereof, and of the ſame by verdict ſo found and tried, ſhall not forfeit or looſe anie lands, tenements, goods or chattels, for the death of anie ſuch euill diſpoſed perſon, in ſuch maner ſlaine, but ſhall be thereof, and for the ſame fullie acquited and diſcharged, in like maner as the ſame perſon or perſons ſhould be, if he or they were lawfullie acquited of the death of the ſaid euill diſpoſed perſon or perſons.

An act concerning ſale of wines.

Chap.6. BEcauſe that diuerſe merchants inhabiting within the citie of London, haue of late not onlie preſumed to bargaine and ſell in groſſe to diuerſe of the kings ſubiects great quantities of wines of Gaſcoigne, Guion, & French wines, ſome of fiue pounds the tun, ſome for more, and ſome for leſſe, and ſo after the rate of exceſſe priſes, contrarie to the forme and effect of a good and laudable ſtatute, thereof latelie made in this preſent parlement, holden vpon prorogation thereof made, into the fiftéenth daie of Ianuarie, in the thrée and twentith yeere of the kings moſt noble reigne, that is to ſaie, contrarie and aboue the priſes thereof ſet by the right honorable, the lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, lord priuie ſeale, and the two chéefe iuſtices of either bench, whereby they be fallen into the penalties limited by the ſaid ſtatute, as by due proofs thereof made, by examinations taken before the ſaid lords, and others of the kings moſt honorable counſell, is well knowne: but alſo hauing in their hands and poſſeſſions great abundance of wines by them acquired and bought to be ſold, obſtinatlie and maliciouſlie, ſince their ſaid attemptats and defaults proued, haue refuſed to bargaine and ſell to manie of the kings ſubiects, anie of their ſaid wines remaining and being in their hands, purpoſing and intending thereby, for their owne ſingular and vnreaſonable lucres and profits, to haue larger and higher priſes of their ſaid wines to to be ſet, according to their inſatiable appetites and minds. It is therefore ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie merchant and other perſon, now hauing, or which hereafter ſhall haue wines to be ſold, and refuſing to ſell or deliuer, or not ſelling anie of the ſaid wines for readie monie therefore to be paid, according to the priſe or priſes thereof then being ſet, ſhall forfeit and looſe the value of the wine ſo required to be bought.

WHere in the ſeſſions of this parlement begun at London the third daie of Nouember, in the one and twentith yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, and from thenſe adiourned vnto Weſtminſter, to the fourth daie of the ſaid moneth, there was a good and lawdable ordinance, act and prouiſion eſtabliſhed, concluded and enacted againſt killing of yoong ſucking calues, within certeine daies in the ſame act limited, and to indure for the ſpace of thrée whole yéeres, which at the firſt daie of Ianuarie laſt paſt, was ended, expired and paſſed, as in the ſame act more at large it dooth appéere. And for as much as it is now euidentlie & manifeſtlie proued & perceiued, that great benefit & commoditie hath inſued vnto the commonweale of this realme, by meane of the ſaid act, & that much more were like to inſue, if the ſame might eftſoones for a longer ſeaſon continue and be renewed: it is therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no maner of perſon or perſons, being butchers, or other, inhabiting within this relme, Wales or the marches of the ſame, ſhall from the firſt daie of Ianuarie next comming, during two whole yéeres, from thenſeforth next inſuing, kill or cauſe to be killed, anie maner yoong ſucking calfe or calues, to be ſold or put to ſale to anie perſon or perſons, whole or by retaile, which calfe or calues, héereafter to be killed, ſhall happen to fall or to be calued betwéene the ſaid firſt daie of Ianuarie and the firſt daie of Maie, in anie of the ſaid two whole yéeres, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſix ſhillings and eight penſe for euerie calfe fallen or calued betwéene the ſaid daies, and killed and put to ſale contrarie to this act, to be paid and forfeited by euerie ſuch butcher or butchers, or anie other perſon or perſons, which ſhall kill or cauſe to be killed and put to ſale anie ſuch calfe or calues ſo falling, and to be calued betwéene the ſaid firſt daie of Ianuarie and the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, during the ſaid two whole yéeres: the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, action of debt, or information in anie of the kings courts, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

Butchers

WHere in the firſt ſeſſion of this pꝛeſent parlement begun at London the third daie of Nouember,in the one and twentith yeare of the reigne of our moſt dꝛead ſouereigne loꝛd the king that now is, and from thenſe adiourned to Weſtminſter to the fourth daie of the ſame month,there was a good and pꝛofitable oꝛdinance, act and pꝛouiſion made, concerning killing of calues,right commodious foꝛ the publike weale of this realme, as by the ſame moꝛe at large it doth appeare,which act was deuiſed to the intent that calues once wained,ſhould as at time was ſuppoſed,not haue béene put to ſlaughter befoꝛe they were of conuenient yeares, and meet foꝛ béefe, whereby might haue growne the great plentie of béeues, and at meaner pꝛiſes within this realme,to the increaſe of the commonweale of the ſame: yet neuertheleſſe diuers perſons moꝛe regarding their pꝛiuat lucre and ſingular pꝛofit and gaine, than the common weale of the ſaid realme, haue vſed ſithens the making of the ſaid act, and yet doo, to kill yong beaſts called wainlings,ſtéeres,bullocks, and heifares,of one oꝛ two yéeres old, oꝛ little moꝛe: by meane whereof a great part of the benefit that elſe ſhould haue followed of the ſaid act,hath béene fruſtrate and void. It is therefoꝛe enacted oꝛdeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne loꝛd, with the aſſent of the loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall,and the commons in this pꝛeſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoꝛitie of the ſame,that no maner of perſon oꝛ perſons,being butchers oꝛ others, inhabiting within this realme,Wales,oꝛ marches of the ſame, ſhall from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming, kill, oꝛ cauſe to be killed anie maner of wainlings, bullocke, ſtéere, oꝛ heifare, being vnder the age of two yeares, to the intent to make ſale thereof to anie perſon oꝛ perſons,whole oꝛ by retaile,vpon paine of ſix ſhillings eight penſe foꝛ euerie of the ſaid wainlings,bullocks,ſtéeres,oꝛ heifares,being vnder the age of two yeares, killed and put to ſale contrarie to this act,anie ſuch wainling, bullocke, ſtéere, oꝛ heifare, vnder the age afoꝛeſaid, from and after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next inſuing, as is afoꝛeſaid, the one halfe of euerie ſuch foꝛfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſaid ſouereigne loꝛd the king, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue foꝛ the ſame by bill, action of debt, oꝛ infoꝛmation in anie of the kings courts,wherein no wager of law,eſſoine,oꝛ pꝛotection ſhall be allowed.

Pꝛouided alwaies that euerie loꝛd marcher haue the foꝛfeits,pꝛofits and aduantages onlie of euerie ſuch offendoꝛ and offendoꝛs againſt the purueieng of this act,within their ſeignioꝛies,liberties and franchiſes roiall.

Be it alſo enacted by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid,that the iuſtices of peace of euerie of the ſhires of this realme,within the limits of their commiſſions,ſhall haue full power and authoꝛitie by foꝛce and vertue of this act,at euerie of their generall ſeſſions hereafter to be holden and kept, to inquire,heare,and determine the pꝛemiſſes,as well by infoꝛmation and pꝛeſentment, as by bill oꝛ plaint,wherein no wager of law,eſſoine,oꝛ pꝛotection foꝛ the defendant,as is afoꝛeſaid,ſhall be admitted oꝛ allowed.This act to indure to the next parlement.

An

An act made to deſtroie choughs, crowes, and rookes.

Chap.10.

FOr as much as innumerable number of rookes, crowes, and choughs, doo daielie bréed and increaſe throughout this realme, which rookes, crowes, and choughs doo yearelie deſtroie, deuour and conſume a wonderfull and maruellous great quantitie of corne and graine, of all kinds, that is wit, as well in the ſowing of the ſame corne and graine, as alſo at the riping and kernelling of the ſame, and ouer that a maruellous deſtruction and decaie of the couertures of thatched houſes, barns, reeks, ſtacks, and other ſuch like, ſo that if the ſaid crowes, rookes, and choughs, ſhould be ſuffered to bréed and continue as they haue béene in certeine yeares paſt, they will vndoubtedlie be the cauſe of the great deſtruction and conſumption of a great part of the corne and graine which hereafter ſhall be ſowne throughout this realme, to the great preiudice, damage, and vndooing of the great number of all tillers, huſbands, and ſowers of the earth within the ſame. For remedie whereof, be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie perſon & perſons, as well ſpirituall as temporall, hauing, kéeping, holding and inhabiting in anie manors, meaſes, lands or tenements, in their owne manurance and occupation, of anie eſtate of inheritance, or for terme of life, or for yeres, or at will, or by copie of court roll, or otherwiſe in poſſeſſion or vſe, ſhall hereafter doo & cauſe to be doone as much as in him or them reaſonablie ſhall or maie be, to kill and vtterlie deſtroie all maner of choughs, crowes, and rookes, comming, abiding, bréeding or hanting within or vpon anie the ſaid manors, meaſes, lands, or tenements, which he or they ſhall inhabit and dwell vpon, and haue in their manurance and occupation, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of a gréeuous amerciament to be ſet and aſſeſſed as hereafter ſhall be expreſſed, that is to ſaie, that if anie offenſe be doone contrarie to this eſtatute, by anie perſon or perſons, inhabited within the limits of the léets, lawdaies, rapes, or courtbarons of any lords, hauing ſuch courts that then vpon preſentment thereof made before the ſteward of ſuch léets, lawdaies, rapes, or courts, the ſteward with two of the preſentors, by the ſteward and preſentors to be named, ſhall aſſeſſe & ſet for euery default preſented to be doone contrary to this act, ſuch amerciament as to them ſhall ſéeme reaſonable & conuenient, after the quantitie of the offenſe, the ſaid amerciament to be to the vſe of the lord or lords of the léets, lawdaies, rapes, or courts, where the ſaid offenſe ſhall be doone and preſented, to be leuied by diſtreſſe of the goods and chattels of the offendor or offendors, like as other amerciaments for common annoiances preſented in léets, hath béene accuſtomed to be leuied.

Diſtreſſe

And if the offenſe be doone contrarie to this ſtatute by anie perſon or perſons, which ſhall dwell and haue the manurance of and in ſuch manors, meaſes, lands, tenements or hereditaments, wherevnto ſuch léets, lawdaies, rapes, or courts belongen, or by reaſon whereof anie ſuch courts bin holden, that then vpon preſentment thereof had before the ſhirifs in their turns, or iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, the ſteward of the turns, with two of the preſentors to be choſen, as is aforeſaid, if the preſentment be within the turne, and the iuſtices of peace, or two of them at the leaſt, if the preſentment be before them in their ſeſſions, ſhall aſſeſſe & ſet the ſaid amerciament after the quantitie of the offenſe by their diſcretions, to be had and leuied to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king by diſtreſſe, like as other amerciaments be leuied vpon preſentments of common annoiances.

Preſentmēt.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in euerie pariſh, townſhip, hamlet, borough, or village within this realme, wherein is at leaſt ten houſholds inhabited, the tenants and inhabitants thereof, ſhall before the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next, and ſo during ten yeares next inſuing the ſaid feaſt, at their owne proper coſts, charges, and expenſes, prouide, make, or cauſe to be made one net, commonlie called a net to take choughs, crowes, and rookes, with all things requiſit or belonging to the ſame. And the ſaid net ſo made or cauſed to be made, ſhall kéepe preſerue, and renue, as often as ſhall néede. And with and after a ſharpe made with chaffe, or other thing méet for that purpoſe, ſhall laie or cauſe to be laid at ſuch time or times in the yeare, as is conuenient for deſtruction of ſuch choughs, rookes, and crowes, and in ſuch place and places as ſhall be thought expedient to take the ſaid choughs, crowes, and rookes, vpon paine to forfeit x. ſhillings, the one moitie thereof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other moitie to the lord or lords of the ſame courts, léets, lawdaies, or rapes, where anie ſuch net ſhall be lacking, & not made and put in execution according to this act, to be leuied of the ſaid tenants and inhabitants of the ſaid pariſh, townſhip, hamlet, borough, or village, where anie ſuch net ſhall be lacking, and not put in vre and execution, as is aforeſaid. And that euerie ſuch net, with all things requiſit therevnto, ſhall one time in the yeare at the leaſt, be preſent in the court baron, léet, rape, or lawdaie before the ſteward of the ſame court, léet, rape or law daie, wherevnto the ſaid tenants and inhabitants ſhall be bounden to ſue and appeare, to be viewed whether the ſame be ſufficientlie repaired or not, for the foreſaid purpoſe: ſo that by the aduiſe of the ſteward, tenants and inhabitants of the ſaid court baron, léet, rape, or lawdaie, where anie ſuch net ſhall be neceſſarie to be vſed, a ſure waie and ordinance maie be deuiſed for the repairation, continuance, and putting in execution of the ſaid net, at times and places conuenient, as is aforeſaid. And that ſuch ordinances as ſhall be deuiſed and made by the ſteward, tenants and inhabitants of and within the ſaid léets, lawdaies, rapes and courts, or by the moſt part of them, to and for the deſtruction of the ſaid rookes, crowes and choughs, ſhall ſtand good and effectuall, and be put in due execution, according to the tenor thereof.

Townſhips

Crow nets

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall inhabit and haue in his manurance and occupation anie manors,meaſes,lands,tenements, or other hereditaments,whereunto anie ſuch leets, lawdaies,rapes, or courts apperteineth, or by reaſon whereof anie ſuch courts beene holden,as the tenants and farmars, inhabiting and hauing in their manurance and occupation anie meaſes, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, holden of ſuch manors, meaſes, or other hereditaments, whereunto ſuch courts, as is aforeſaid, belongen, ſhall yearelie during the ſaid ten yeares,at ſuch daies,places,and times,as by the ſteward of ſuch leets,lawdaies,rapes,or courts,ſhall be appointed,aſſemble themſelues togither to view,viſit,and ſurueie all the ſaid manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, where they or anie of them ſhall happen to dwell or inhabit and be reſident,and thereupon ſhall agree and conclude,how and by what means it ſhall be beſt poſſible to deſtroie all the yoong breed of the ſaid choughs,crowes and rookes,for that yeare,and the ſame aſſemblie,view,and viſitation ſhall make yearelie,during the ſaid ten yeares,at moſt conuenient and apt time for the ſame,and ſhall put the ſame in due execution,ſo as the ſaid yoong breed of choughs, crowes and rookes, maie be vtterlie deſtroied, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie yeare omitting ſuch aſſemblie,indeuour and view making, according to this act twentie ſhillings,after preſentment of ſuch default had before the kings iuſtices of peace: the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to be to the preſentors of the ſaid offenſe to be leuied by diſtreſſe, like as amerciaments for common annoiances,haue beene accuſtomed to be leuied. Diſtreſſe

Iuſt.of p. And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well the iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions,and ſhirifs in their turns,as ſtewards,maiors,and bailifs elected in their leets, lawdaies, rapes, and courtbarons,to bee hereafter holden before them or anie of them, ſhall giue in charge to the tenants and inhabitants, and all other appearing before anie of them,that they ſhall dulie inquire and put in execution the effect of the premiſſes in due time, ſo that this act maie be fullie and trulie executed,and the choughs, crowes and rooks therby deſtroied in all places of this realme,according to the meaning and true intent of this eſtatute.

Farmars ſhall paie for deſtroiẽg of crowes. And ouer this it is enacted,that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon and perſons,onlie minding and willing to take and deſtroie the ſaid crowes,rooks or choughs, after requeſt thereof made vnto the owner or occupier of the ſame ground, where ſuch crowes,rooks or choughs hant or breed,to enter,take and carrie awaie all ſuch rooks or choughs, and crowes, as he ſhall take the ſame daie, in which ſuch requeſt ſhall be made from time to time, without let,impediment or impeachment by anie maner meane of the ſaid owner or occupier of the ſame.

And it is further enacted, that euerie farmar or owner , hauing in his owne manurance and occupation,anie manors,meaſes,lands,tenements,or other hereditaments,wherof the yeerelie value or rent amounteth to fiue pounds,ſhall paie & giue to euerie ſuch perſon, which by his diligence, labor & induſtrie,at his owne proper coſts,dooth take anie old crowes,rooks or choughs, within and vpon the ſaid manors,meaſes, lands or grounds of the yeerlie value aforeſaid two penſe for euerie twelue old crowes, rooks or choughs, that anie ſuch perſons ſhall take, bring and offer to anie ſuch farmar or owner,and for euerie ſix old crowes,rooks or choughs a penie,for euerie three old a halfe penie . And if anie ſuch owner or farmar refuſe to paie the ſaid monie, according as is aforeſaid, then vpon complaint and proofe thereof made to anie of the iuſtices of peace, or high conſtable, the ſaid iuſtice of peace or high conſtablè,ſhall cauſe the ſaid monie to be leuied by diſtres of the goods and chattels of euerie ſuch farmar or occupier, refuſing to paie the ſaid monie according to the tenor and effect of this act. Diſtreſſe

Pigeons Prouided alwais that no perſon or perſons by colour or authoritie of this act, ſhall take or kill anie doues or pigeons,vpon the paine limited by the lawes and cuſtoms of this realme heeretofore for ſuch offenſes vſed and accuſtomed.

An act for pauing of the high waie betweene the Strond croſſe and Charing croſſe.

Chap.11. IN moſt humble wiſe ſhew and beſeech your highneſſe,your poore ſubiects the inhabitants dwelling in the pariſhes of S.Martin in yͤ feeld neere Charing croſſe,our ladie at Strond and S.Clement Danes without temple bar of London in your countie of Middleſex, that where the common high waie betweene Charing croſſe aforeſaid, and the Strond croſſe,is verie noious and foule, and in manie places thereof verie ieopardious to all your leege people, that waies paſſing and repaſſing, as well on horſebacke as on foot, both in winter and in ſummer,by night and by daie. The verie occaſion whereof hath beene and yet is,that the landlords and owners of all the lands and tenements next adioining on both ſides of the ſaid common high waie, be and haue beene remiſſe and negligent, and alſo refuſe and will not make and ſupport the ſaid high waie with pauing, euerie of them after the portion of his ground adioining to the ſame high waies.

And forasmuch moſt gracious ſouereigne lord,as the ſaid high waie, is,and hath beene of continuance greatlie occupied , as well with your ſubiects and with their carts and carriages, repairing to and from your citie of London from diuers parts of this your realme, as with your ſubiects paſſing and repaſſing to and from the towne of Weſtminſter, about the needs of your lawes there kept in the terme ſeaſon, which waie if it were ſufficientlie paued and made after the maner of the pauement of the ſtreet betweene the ſaid Strond croſſe and Temple bar, it ſhould not onelie lie then be a great comfort to all your ſubiects therabouts dwelling, but alſo to all other your leege people, that waies paſſing and repaſſing.

Pleaſeth it therefore your highneſſe, of your moſt aboundant grace, that with the aſſent of your highneſſe, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this your preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that it be enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, their heirs and ſucceſſors, the which now be, or at anie time from henſeforth ſhall be ſeized in poſſeſſion, or in vſe of anie manour, lands, or tenements, in anie wiſe adioining to the ſaid high waies, betweene the ſaid Strond croſſe and Charing croſſe, be it on the one ſide of the ſame waie or on the other, of anie eſtate of fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life, ſhall before the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, the which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God one thouſand fiue hundred thirtie and three, ſufficientlie paue, or cauſe to be paued with pauing ſtone, the ſaid high waie along from his or their lands or tenements, adioining to the ſaid high waie, vnto the middeſt of the ſame waie, in ſuch and like forme, as the high ſtreet betweene Templebar and Strond croſſe aforeſaid, is paued, vpon paine to forfeit to your highneſſe, your heirs and ſucceſſors, for euerie yard ſquare not ſufficientlie paued by the ſaid daie limited and aſſigned, in forme before expreſſed, ſix penſe.

Eſtates in fee, &c.

Forfeit.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, hauing anie of the ſaid lands and tenements in poſſeſſion or in vſe, in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life, adioining to the ſaid high waie, their heirs and ſucceſſors, ſhall from and after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michaell, the which ſhall be in the ſaid yeare of our Lord God one thouſand fiue hundred thirtie and three, ſufficientlie mainteine the pauement of the ſaid waie againſt euerie of their lands or tenements, in ſuch and like forme as is aboue declared, vpon paine to forfeit to your highneſſe for euerie yard ſquare of the ſaid pauement, not ſufficientlie paued, repaired, and amended, as often as anie ſuch default of anie perſon ſhall be preſented before your iuſtices of the pleas, before your highneſſe to be holden, ſix penſe.

And that it be further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that your ſaid iuſtices for the time being, maie haue full power & authoritie to inquire in euerie terme to be holden after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, the which ſhall be in the ſaid yeare of our Lord God one thouſand fiue hundred, thirtie and three, by the oth of twelue men of the ſaid countie, as well of them that haue not paued, according to the prouiſion aforeſaid, as alſo of them that remiſlie or inſufficientlie ſhall hereafter mainteine the ſame pauement according to the ſaid prouiſion. And that the ſaid iuſtices maie haue power and authoritie after ſuch default before them preſented, to make proceſſe by diſtreſſe or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, againſt the ſaid offendors, their heirs and ſucceſſors, as well for making, repairing and amending of the ſaid high waie, as for the ſaid penaltie ſo forfeited.

An act that appeales in ſuch caſes as hath beene vſed to be purſued to the ſee of Rome, ſhall not be from henſefoorth had ne vſed, but within this realme.

Chap. 12.

WHere by diuers ſundrie old autentike hiſtories and chronicles, it is manifeſtly declared and expreſſed, that this realme of England is an empire, and ſo hath beene accepted in the world gouerned by one ſupreme head and king, hauing the dignitie and roiall eſtate of the imperiall crowne of the ſame, vnto whome a bodie politike, compact of all ſorts and degrees of people, diuided in terms and by names of ſpiritualtie and temporaltie, beene bounden and ought to beare next to God, a naturall and humble obedience. He being alſo inſtitute and furniſhed by the goodneſſe and ſufferance of almightie God, with plenarie, whole, and intire power, preheminence, authoritie, prerogatiue, & iuriſdiction, to render & yeeld iuſtice and finall determination to all maner of folke reſiants or ſubiects within this his realme, in all cauſes, matters, debates, & contentions, happening to occur, inſurge or begin within the limits thereof, without reſtreint or prouocation to anie foren princes or potentats of the world, the bodie ſpirituall wherof hauing power when anie cauſe of the law diuine happened to come in queſtion, or of ſpirituall learning, that it was declared, interpreted, and ſhewed by that part of the ſaid bodie politike, called the ſpiritualtie, now being vſuallie called the Engliſh church, which alwaies hath beene reputed, and alſo found of that ſort, that both for knowledge, integritie, and ſufficiencie of number, it hath beene alwaies thought, and is alſo at this hower, ſufficient and meet of it ſelfe, without the intermedling of anie exterior perſon or perſons, to declare and determine all ſuch doubts, and to adminiſter all ſuch offices and duties as to their roomes ſpirituall dooth apperteine. For the due adminiſtration wherof, and to keepe them from corruption and ſiniſter affection, the kings moſt noble progenitors, and the anteceſſors of the nobles of this realme, haue ſufficientlie endowed the ſaid church, both with honour and poſſeſſions, and the lawes temporall, for triall of propertie of lands and goods, and for the conſeruation of the people of this realme in vnitie and peace, without rauin or ſpoile, was and yet is adminiſtred, adiudged and executed by ſundrie iudges and miniſters of the other part of the ſaid bodie politike, called the temporaltie, and both their authorities and iuriſdictions doo conioine togither in the due adminiſtration of iuſtice, the one to helpe the other.

And whereas the king his moſt noble progenitors, and the nobilitie and commons of this ſaid realme, at diuers and ſundrie parlements, as well in the time of king Edward the firſt, Edward the third, Richard the ſecond, Henrie the fourth, and other noble kings of this realme, made ſundrie ordinances, lawes, ſtatutes, and prouiſions for the intire and ſure conſeruation of the prerogatiues, liberties, and preheminences of the ſaid imperiall crowne of this realme, and of the iuriſdictions ſpirituall and temporall of the ſame, to keepe it from the annoiance as well of the ſee of Rome, as from the authoritie of other forren potentates, attempting the diminution or violation thereof, as often and from time to time, as any ſuch annoiance or attempt might be knowne or eſpied. And notwithſtanding the ſaid good ſtatutes and ordinances made in the time of the kings moſt noble progenitors, in preſeruation of the authoritie and prerogatiue of the ſaid imperiall crowne, as is aforeſaid: yet neuertheleſſe ſithen the making of the ſaid good ſtatutes and ordinances, diuers and ſundrie inconueniences and dangers, not prouided for plainelie, by the ſaid former acts, ſtatutes and ordinances, haue riſen and ſprong, by reaſon of appeales ſued out of this realme to the ſee of Rome, in cauſes teſtamentarie, cauſes of matrimonie and diuorces, right of tithes, oblations and obuentions, not onelie to the great inquietation, vexation, trouble, coſts and charges of the kings highneſſe, and manie of his ſubiects and reſiants in this his realme, but alſo to the great delaie and let to the true & ſpeedie determination of the ſaid cauſes, forſomuch as the parties, appealing to the ſaid court of Rome, moſt commonlie doo the ſame for delaie of iuſtice. And forALmuch as the great diſtance of waie is ſo farre out of this realme, ſo that the neceſſarie prooues, nor the true knowledge of the cauſe, can neither there be ſo well knowne, ne the witneſſes there ſo well examined, as within this realme, ſo that the parties greeued by meanes of the ſaid appeales, be moſt times without remedie. In conſideration whereof, the kings highneſſe, his nobles and commons, conſidering the great enormities, dangers, long delaies and hurts, that as well to his highneſſe, as to his ſaid nobles, ſubiects, commons, and reſiants of this his realme, in the ſaid cauſes teſtamentarie, cauſes of matrimonie and diuorſes, tithes, oblations, and obuentions, doo dailie inſue, dooth therefore by his roiall aſſent, and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, enact, eſtabliſh and ordeine, that all cauſes teſtamentarie, cauſes of matrimonie, and diuorces, rights of tithes, oblations and obuentions, (the knowledge whereof by the goodneſſe of princes of this realme, and by the lawes and cuſtoms of the ſame apperteineth to the ſpirituall iuriſdiction of this realme) all readie commenſed, mooued, depending, being, hapning, or heereafter comming in contention, debate or queſtion within this realme, or within anie the kings dominions or marches of the ſame or elſwhere, whether they concerne the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, or anie other ſubiects or reſiants within the ſame, of what degree ſoeuer they be ſhall be from henſeforth, heard, examined, diſcuſſed, cleerelie, finallie and definitiuelie adiudged and determined within the kings iuriſdiction and authoritie, and not elſe where, in ſuch courts ſpirituall and temporall of the ſame, as the natures, conditions and qualities of the caſes and matters aforeſaid in contention, or heerafter hapning in contention, ſhall require, without hauing anie reſpect to any cuſtom, vſe or ſufferance, in hinderance, let or preiudice of the ſame, or to any other thing vſed or ſuffered to the contrarie thereof by anie other maner perſon or perſons, in anie maner of wiſe: anie forren inhibitions, appeales, ſentences, ſummons, citations, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications, reſtreints, iudgements, or anie other proceſſe or impediments, of what natures, names, qualities or conditions ſoeuer they be from the ſee of Rome, or anie other forren courts or potentats of the world, or from and out of this realme, or anie other the kings dominions or marches of the ſame, to the ſee of Rome, or to anie other forren courts or potentats, to the let or impediment thereof, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cauſes ſhall be determined within this relme.

And that it ſhall be lawfull to the king our ſoueraigne lord and to his heires and ſucceſſors, and to all other ſubiects or reſiants within this realme, or within any the kings dominions or marches of the ſame, notwithſtanding that heereafter it ſhould happen anie recommengement, excommunications, interdictions, citations, or anie other cenſures, or forren proceſſe out of anie outward parts, to be fulminat, promulged, declared, or put in execution within this ſaid realme, or anie other place or places, for anie of the cauſes before rehearſed, in preiudice, derogation, or contempt of this ſaid act, and the verie true meaning and execution thereof, maie and ſhall neuertheleſſe as well purſue, execute, haue and inioy the effects, profits, benefits and commodities of all ſuch proceſſes, ſentences, iudgements and determinations, doone or heereafter to be doone in anie of the ſaid courts ſpirituall or temporall, as the caſes ſhall require, within the limits, power and authoritie of this the kings ſaid realme and dominions, and marches of the ſame: and thoſe onelie and none other to take place, and to be firmelie obſerued and obeied within the ſame, as alſo that all the ſpirituall prelats, paſtors, miniſters, and curats within this realme & dominions of the ſame, ſhall and maie vſe, miniſter, execute and doo, or cauſe to be vſed, miniſtred, executed and doone, all ſacraments, ſacramentals, diuine ſeruices, and all other things within the ſaid realme and dominions, vnto all the ſubiects of the ſame, as catholike and chriſtian men ought to doo, anie former citations, proceſſes, inhibitions, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications or appeales, for or touching anie of the cauſes aforeſaid, from or to the ſee of Rome, or anie other forren prince or forren courts, to the let or contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons inhabiting or reſiant within this realme, or within anie the kings dominions, and marches of the ſame, or anie other perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, condition, or degree ſoeuer he or they be, at anie time hereafter, for or in anie the cauſes aforeſaid, doo attempt, moue, purchaſe, or procure, from or to the ſee of Rome, or from or to anie other forren court or courts, out of this realme, anie maner forren proceſſe, inhibitions, appeales, ſentences, ſummons, citations, ſuſpenſions, interdictions, excommunications, reſtreints, or iudgements, of what nature, kind, or qualitie ſoeuer they bee, or execute anie of the ſame proceſſe, or doo anie act or acts, to the let, impediment, hinderance, or derogation of anie proceſſe, ſentence, iudgement, or determination, had, made, doone, or hereafter to be had, doone, or made in anie courts of this realme, or the kings ſaid dominions, or marches of the ſame, for anie of the cauſes aforeſaid, contrarie to the true meaning of this preſent act, and the execution of the ſame: that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo dooing, and their fautors, comfortors, abettors, procurors, executors and counſellors, and euerie of them, being conuict of the ſame, for euerie ſuch default ſhall incurre and run in the ſame pains, penalties, and forfeitures, ordeined and prouided by the ſtatute of prouiſion, and premunire, made in the ſixteenth yeare of the reigne of the right noble prince king Richard the ſecond, againſt ſuch as attempt, procure, or make prouiſion to the ſee of Rome, or elſe where, for anie thing or things, to the derogation, or contrarie to the prerogatiue or iuriſdiction of the crowne, and dignitie of this realme.

¶ And furthermore, in eſchewing the ſaid great enormities, inquietations, delaies, charges and expenſes heereafter to be ſuſteined in purſuing of ſuch appeales and forren proceſſe, for and concerning the cauſes aforeſaid or anie of them, doo therefore by authoritie aforeſaid, ordeine and enact, that in ſuch caſes where heeretofore anie of the kings ſubiects and reſiants, haue vſed to purſue, prouoke, or procure anie appeale to the ſee of Rome, and in all other caſes of appeales, in, or for anie of the cauſes aforeſaid, they maie and ſhall from henſefoorth take, haue, and vſe their appeales within this realme and not elſewhere, in maner and forme as heereafter inſueth, and not otherwiſe, that is to ſaie: firſt, from the archdeacon or his officiall, if the matter or cauſe be there begun to the biſhop dioceſſan of the ſaid ſee, if in caſe anie of the parties be greeued. And in likewiſe, if it be commenſed before the biſhop dioceſſan or his commiſſarie, from the biſhop dioceſſan or his commiſſarie, within fifteene daies next inſuing the iudgement or ſentence thereof there giuen to the archbiſhop of the prouince of Canturburie, if it be within his prouince, and if it be within the prouince of Yorke, then to the archbiſhop of Yorke, and ſo likewiſe to all other archbiſhops in other the kings dominions, as the caſe by the order of iuſtice ſhall require, and there to be definitiuelie and finallie ordered, decreed and adiudged, according to iuſtice, without anie other appellation or prouocation to anie other perſon or perſons, court or courts. And if the matter or contention for anie of the cauſes aforeſaid, be or ſhall be commenſed by anie of the kings ſubiects or reſiants, before the archdeacon of anie archbiſhop or his commiſſarie, then the partie greeued ſhall or maie take his appeale within fifteene daies next after iudgement or ſentence there giuen, to the court of the arches or audience of the ſame archbiſhop or biſhops, and from the ſaid court of the arches or audience within fifteene daies then next inſuing, after iudgement or ſentence there giuen to the archbiſhop of the ſame prouince, there to be definitiuelie and finallie determined without anie other or further proceſſe or appeale thervpon to be had or vſed.

Conuocatiō

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie matter, cauſe and contention now depending, or that heereafter ſhall be commenſed by anie of the kings ſubiects or reſiants, for anie of the cauſes aforeſaid, before anie of the ſaid archbiſhops, that then the ſame matter or matters, contention or contentions, ſhall be before the ſame archbiſhop, where the ſaid matter, cauſe or proceſſe ſhall be ſo commenſed, definitiuelie determined, decreed or adiudged without anie other appeale, prouocation, or anie other forren proceſſe out of this realme, to be ſued, to the let or derogation of the ſaid iudgement, ſentence or decree, otherwiſe than is by this act limited and appointed. Sauing alwaies the prerogatiue of the archbiſhop and church of Canturburie, in all the foreſaid caſes of appeales, to him and to his ſucceſſors to be ſued within this realme, in ſuch and like wiſe as they haue beene accuſtomed and vſed to haue heeretofore. And in caſe anie cauſe, matter or contention now depending for the cauſes before rehearſed, or anie of them, or that heereafter ſhall come in contention for anie of the ſame cauſes, in anie of the foreſaid courts, which hath, dooth, ſhall or maie touch the king, his heires or ſucceſſors kings of this realme: that in all and euerie ſuch caſe or caſes, the partie greeued, as before is ſaid, ſhall or maie appeale from anie of the ſaid courts of this realme, where the ſaid matter now being in contention, or heereafter ſhall come in contention touching the king, his heires or ſucceſſors (as is aforeſaid) ſhall happen to be ventilat commenſed, or begun to the ſpirituall prelats and other abbats and priors of the vpper houſe, aſſembled and conuocat by the kings writ in the conuocation being or next inſuing, within the prouince or prouinces, where the ſame matter of contention is, or ſhall be begun. So that euerie ſuch appeale taken by the partie greeued, within xv. daies next after the iudgement or ſentence thervpon giuen or be giuen. And that whatſoeuer be doone or ſhalbe doone & affirmed, determined,decréed and ad iudged by the foreſaid prelats,abbats,and priours of the vpper houſe of the ſaid conuocation,as is aforeſaid,apperteining,concerning,or belonging to the king,his heirs, and ſucceſſors,in anie of theſe foreſaid cauſes of appeales, ſhall ſtand and bée taken for a finall decrée,ſentence,iudgement,definition,and determination,and the ſame matter ſo determined, neuer after to come in queſtion and debate, to be examined to anie other court or courts. And if it ſhall happen anie perſon or perſons hereafter to purſue or prouoke anie appeale, contrarie to the effect of this act,or refuſe to obeie,execute,and obſerue all things compriſed within the ſame, concerning the ſaid appeales,prouocations,and other forren proceſſes to be ſued out of this realme for anie the cauſes aforeſaid, that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo dooing, refuſing, or offending contrarie to the true meaning of this act,their procurors,fautors,aduocats, counſellers, and abettors,and euerie of them, ſhall incur into the pains, forfeitures and penalties ordeined and prouided in the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid xvj. yere of king Richard the ſecond,and with like proceſſe to be made againſt the ſaid offendors, as in the ſame ſtatute made the ſaid ſixtéenth yeare, more plainlie appeareth.

An act for reformation of exceſſe in apparell.

Chap.13.

WHere before this time diuers lawes, ordinances, and ſtatutes, haue béene with great deliberation and aduiſe prouided, eſtabliſhed and deuiſed for the neceſſarie repelling, auoiding and expelling of the inordinat exceſſe dailie more and more vſed in the ſumptuous and coſtlie araie and apparell, accuſtomablie worne in this realme, whereof hath inſued,and dailie doo chance ſuch ſundrie,high,and notable inconueniences,as be to the great manifeſt,and notorious detriment of the common weale, the ſubuertion of good and politike order in knowledge and diſtinction of people, according to their eſtates, preheminences, dignities and degrées, and to the vtter impoueriſhment and vndooing of manie inexpert and light perſons inclined to pride the mother of all vices. Which good laws notwithſtanding,the outragious exceſſe therein is rather from time to time increaſed than diminiſhed,either by occaſion of the peruerſe and froward maners and vſage of the people,or for that errors and abuſes once rooted and taken into long cuſtome,be not eaſily and at once without ſome moderation for a time relinquiſhed and reformed. In conſideration whereof, and for a reaſonable order and remedie like to be obſerued, performed, and continuallie kept,it is by the kings highneſſe,the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame enacted, eſtabliſhed, and ordeined,in maner and forme following.

Impriſon

WHere as diuers and ſundrie acts and ſtatutes haue latelie beene made and eſtabliſhed within this relme for preſeruation of the commonwealth of the ſame, amongſt which, the act for ſelling of beefe, mutton, veale, & porke by weight is ſo neceſſarie for the preſeruation of the pouertie of the ſame, that it maie in no wiſe be forborne. And foraſmuch as ſufficient authoritie is not giuen by the ſaid act to the iuſtices of peace, maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs, and other officers reherſed in the ſame act for to puniſh offendors and ſuch other as will not ſell by weight, according to the force of the ſaid act. And the butchers and other offendors perceiuing the ſame, not dreading the violation of the ſaid act, nor the puniſhments conteined in the ſame act, haue wilfullie and obſtinatlie contemned and offended the ſaid act, and will in no wiſe ſell after the ſame, to the high diſpleaſure of the kings highneſſe, in contempt of his laws, and to the great detriment of the commonwealth of this realme. Be it therfore further enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from the 20 daie of Februarie, in the yeere of our Lord God, 1533. it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie maiors, ſhirifs, conſtables, bailifs, and other gouernors of cities, boroughs, and market townes, as well within liberties as without, to whom anie complaint ſhall be made, of, or vpon anie butcher, his wife, ſeruants, or other his miniſters, refuſing to ſell the ſaid vittels by true & lawfull weight, according to the tenor of the ſaid act heeretofore made, not onlie to commit euerie ſuch butcher & other ſuch offendors to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, vntill ſuch times as they and euerie of them ſhall haue paied all the forfeits & penalties compriſed in the ſaid former act, but alſo euerie of the ſaid maiors and other officers aforeſaid, and their deputies, ſhall immediatlie ſell and vtter, or cauſe to be ſold and vttered for readie monie by true weight, all ſuch vittels ſo refuſed to be retailed and ſold by true & lawfull weight, according to the effect of the ſaid former act, deliuering alwais the monie thereof comming, vnto the owners of the ſame vittels, which owners ſhall be vtterlie & for euer excluded to haue anie action, ſute or demand againſt anie ſuch maior or other officer or their deputies, for ſelling or vttering of the ſaid vittels by true & lawfull weight in forme aforeſaid, or for anie other cauſe or thing concerning the ſame. Except onelie for the monie receiued for the ſame vittels, if it be not vpon reaſonable requeſt thereof to be made, paied or reſtored without delaie. And to the intent that the butchers from time to time maie be the more readie and able to vtter and ſell the ſaid vittels by true and lawfull weight, it is further ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie owner, graſier, farmar, bréeder, drouer and brogger of this realme, which after the ſaid daie ſhall haue anie béeues, muttons, veals or porks, fat, and kept to be ſold for mans meat, ſhall at all times whenſoeuer anie butcher or butchers or other perſon or perſons ſhall reſort to them to buie the ſame, to be killed or retailed againe by lawfull weight, make ſale of their ſaid cattels to euerie ſuch butcher or butchers as will buie the ſame to be retailed by lawfull weight as is aforeſaid, at ſuch reaſonable priſe or priſes, ſo as the ſaid butchers or others alwais may retaile the ſame againe by lawfull weight as is aforeſaid, according to the effect of the ſaid former act made for the ſelling of fleſh by weight. The ſaid butchers alwaies paieng for the ſame cattell readie monie in hand, or at ſuch daies as the owners of the ſaid cattell maie be agréed withall. And if that the ſaid owners, graſiers, farmars, bréeders, drouers and broggers, or anie of them at anie time or times after the ſaid twentith daie of Februarie, ſhall refuſe to ſet anie ſuch reaſonable priſe, and to make ſale of the ſaid cattell in forme aforeſaid, to the butcher or butchers, or to anie other perſon or perſons that will buie and kill, and retaile the ſame againe by lawfull weight (as is aforeſaid) that then euerie iuſtice of peace within the limits of his commiſſion, inhabiting next vnto the place where ſuch refuſall ſhall be made, and maiors or bailifs of other places corporated vpon complaint to be made to him or them thereof, by anie butcher or butchers, or other which would buie the ſaid cattell to ſell againe, (as is aforeſaid) ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this preſent act, to direct his or their precept vnder his or their ſeale, vnto foure, thrée, or two honeſt, diſcréet and indifferent perſons, not being farmars, tenants or ſeruants to the owners of the ſaid cattell, commanding them by the ſame, to ſet and tax the ſaid priſes indifferentlie betwéene the ſaid parties, in ſuch diſcréet wiſe as the butchers which ſhall buie the ſaid cattell to retaile and ſell againe as is aforeſaid, ſhall be no looſers in vttering the fleſh of the ſame cattell againe by lawfull weight.

Star chamber.

And if anie owner, famar, graſier, bréeder or brogger, as is aforeſaid, or anie of the ſaid foure, thrée, or two indifferent perſons, ſo to be appointed by the ſaid iuſtices, maiors or bailifs, or by anie of them at anie time after the ſaid daie, refuſe to obeie and performe the tenor of the ſaid precept, or to vtter and ſell their cattell of like nature as is aboue rehearſed, in forme aforeſaid, that then all and euerie the ſaid owners, farmars, graſiers, drouers, bréeders and broggers, and alſo the ſaid foure, thrée, or two indifferent perſons, and euerie of them, making anie ſuch refuſall or deniall, or not executing or not obeieng the ſame if it be within fortie daies, before anie of the foure termes of yéerelie exerciſing or kéeping the lawes of this realme, ſhall be commanded by anie of the ſaid iuſtices, maiors or bailifs, euerie ſuch offendor vpon paine of fortie pounds, perſonallie to appeere before the kings highneſſe, and the lords of his moſt honorable counſell in the ſtar chamber at Weſtminſter, or other place of their common aſſemblie, in the terme next inſuing the ſame fortie daies there to make fine and abide ſuch further puniſhment as ſhall be thought moſt conuenient by the diſcretion of the chancellor of England, the treaſuror of England, and other the lords of the ſaid counſell for the time being for their ſaid refuſall, or other their ſaid offenſe.

And if anie ſuch offenſe or refuſall ſhall happen to be committed, in forme aforeſaid, during the time of anie of the ſaid foure termes, then like monition, paine, and certificat ſhall be made by anie of the ſaid iuſtices, maiors, or bailifs, in forme before rehearſed, at the next terme then following.

Forfeit

And if that anie time after the aforeſaid 20 daie of Februarie, anie of the ſaid iuſtices or maiors, or bailiffs of places corporated, vpon anie complaint ſo to be made to them or to anie of them in forme aforeſaid, doo not in time and place conuenient, vpon reaſonable requeſt, award his precept vnto ſuch foure, thrée or two, as he ſhall thinke by his diſcretion to be indifferent perſons, and alſo giue monition vpon paine as is aforeſaid, and make true relation and certificat by writing vnto the kings ſaid highneſſe, and vnto his ſaid counſell in forme aforeſaid, of the ſaid refuſall, or other aforeſaid miſbehauior, of anie of the ſaid owners, farmars, graſiers, drouers, bréeders and broggers aforeſaid, and alſo of the ſaid foure, thrée or two indifferent perſons, as the truth of the caſe ſhall require, if the ſaid iuſtices, maiors or bailifs of places corporat, in time and place conuenient, be reaſonablie required ſo to doo, that then euerie the ſaid iuſtices, maiors and bailifs aforeſaid, being reaſonablie required in time and place conuenient to make his warrant, or to giue monition, or to make true relation and certificat according to the tenor of this act, and refuſing that to doo in forme as is aboue remembred, ſhall looſe and forfeit for euerie ſuch default 40 s. And if the ſaid maiors, ſhirifs, conſtables or other gouernors of cities, boroughs and other market townes, or anie of them within the limits of their authorities by themſelfe, or by ſuch other as they or anie of them ſhall héereunto limit and appoint by their precept, doo not cauſe the ſaid kinds of vittell from time to time to be retailed, vttered and ſold by lawfull weight, according to the tenor of the ſaid former act, that then euerie of the ſame maiors and other officers aforeſaid, ſhall looſe and forfeit the ſumme of fortie ſhillings for euerie time that reformation, according to the effect and tenor of this preſent act, in his or their default, is not thereof by euerie of them had and made vpon anie ſuch reaſonable complaint made in forme aforeſaid.

And that the one moitie of the forfeitures aforeſaid, ſhall be to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie vnto anie other perſon or perſons that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, information, action of debt or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to the wager of his law, nor none eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed for his defenſe in that behalfe.

London

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the maior and ſhirifs alwaies for the time being of the citie of London, ſhall cauſe all and euerie the foreſaid vittels to be vttered and ſold by lawfull weight within the ſaid citie and the liberties of the ſame, according to the tenor of the ſaid former act, and alſo of this preſent act, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit the ſumme of fortie ſhillings for euerie time that complaint therof to them or to any of them be reaſonablie made, and the ſame complaint or complaints not by them remedied and redreſſed in maner and forme aforeſaid. And that the one moitie of euerie ſuch forfeiture ſhall be to the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie to anie perſon or perſons that will ſue for the ſame in anie court of record of this realme, in like maner as is afore rehearſed.

Forfeit

¶ And foraſmuch as béefs, muttons, veales and porks, by manie occaſions fortune in ſome one yéere, or in ſome one time of the yéere, to be more ſcarſe or more deare than at an other, by meane whereof the graſiers and butchers in ſuch a due time ſhall not be able to afford the ſame at ſuch priſes and rates, as when they be in more plentie, and better cheape. Be it therefore further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, from time to time vpon anie complaints made of anie ſcarſitie or lacke of béefs, muttons, veales or porks, ſhall and maie from time to time cauſe proclamation to be made vnder the great ſeale, in ſuch parts of this realme as ſhall ſéeme to his highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors moſt conuenient, that the butchers and other which be compellable to ſell fleſh by weight at priſes limited in the ſaid act made for ſelling of fleſh by weight, ſhall and maie ſell for the time to be limited in ſuch proclamation, béefs, muttons, veales and porks by retaile without weight, as héeretofore hath béene accuſtomed, or elſe by weight at ſuch reaſonable priſes as ſhall be limited by the ſaid proclamation, and as ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, to limit, and as ſhall pleaſe the ſaid proclamation, vpon ſuch paine as ſhall be contriued in ſuch proclamations, to be loſt and leuied to the kings vſe, according to the tenor of euerie ſuch proclamation. And that as well euerie butcher and other, for ſelling of béefe, mutton, veale or porke by retaile, by vertue of ſuch proclamation, within the times to be limited in the ſame, as euerie other perſon and perſons, being bounden by authoritie of this act, to ſée the ſaid butchers ſo to doo, vpon the paines aboue ſpecified, ſhall be diſcharged and acquited by authoritie of euerie ſuch proclamation of all penalties, paines, forfeitures and loſſes which they ſhould haue ſuffered and loſt by vertue of the ſaid act made for ſelling of fleſh by weight or by vertue of this preſent act, in caſe no ſuch proclamation had béene made, anie thing in the ſaid act made for ſelling of fleſh by weight, or in this preſent act conteined, to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

Proclamation

¶ And where by an act paſſed ſithens the beginning of this preſent parlement, it was ordeined and prouided, that no perſon or perſons, butchers or other inhabiting within this realme, Wales or marches of the ſame, ſhould from the firſt daie of Januarie laſt paſt, during two whole yéeres from thenſefoorth next following, kill or cauſe to be killed any yoong ſucking calfe or calues, to be ſold or put to ſale to anie perſon or perſons whole or by retaile, which calfe or calues ſhould happen to fall or to be calued betwéene the ſaid firſt daie of Januarie, and the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, in anie of the ſaid two yéers, vpon certeine paines conteined in the ſaid act, as by the ſame act more at large is expreſſed. The king our ſouereigne lord of his moſt excellent goodneſſe, to the intent that his louing ſubiects ſhould be the better prouided of plentie of vittels againe this holie time of Eaſter next comming, and from thenſefoorth during this yéere, is therefore pleaſed and contented, that it be eſtabliſhed and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all butchers, and other ſelling fleſh by retaile, maie lawfullie from the twelfe daie of March, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God, one thouſand fiue hundred thirtie and thrée, vnto the firſt daie of Januarie next comming, kill and ſell calues by retaile by weight, according to the ſaid ſtatute made for ſelling of fleſh by weight, or els according to ſuch proclamation as ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to make for the ſame, in forme as is aboue rehearſed, if anie ſuch proclamation happen to be made, the ſaid late act made for killing of calues to indure for two yéeres, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Calues

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid act made for killing of calues, ſhall begin to take effect at the firſt daie of Januarie next comming, & from thenſefoorth ſhall indure and continue two whole yéeres next after that inſuing, anie thing conteined in this preſent act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act of proclamation to be made concerning vittels.

anie ſuch things. And yet neuertheleſſe the priſes of ſuch vittels be manie times inhanſed and raiſed by the greedie couetouſneſſe and appetites of the owners of ſuch vittels, by occaſion of ingroſſing and regrating the ſame, more than vpon anie reaſonable or iuſt ground or cauſe, to the great damage and impoueriſhing of the kings ſubiects. For remedie whereof be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that vpon euerie complaint made of anie inhanſing of priſes of ſuch vittels, without ground or cauſe reaſonable in anie part of this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, the lord chancellor of England, the lord treaſuror, the lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, the lord priuie ſeale, the lord ſteward, the lord chamberlen, and all other lords of the kings counſell, the treaſuror and controller of the kings moſt honorable houſe, the chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter, the kings iuſtices of either bench, the chancellor, chamberlens, vnder treaſuror, & the barons of the kings excheker, or vij. of them at the leaſt, whereof the lord chancellor, the lord treaſuror, the lord preſident of the kings counſell, or the lord priuie ſeale to be one, ſhall haue power and authoritie from time to time as the caſe ſhall require, to ſet and tax reaſonable priſes of all ſuch kinds of vittels aboue ſpecified, how they ſhall be ſold in groſſe or by retaile, for releeſe of the kings ſubiects. And that after ſuch priſes ſet and taxed, in forme aforeſaid, proclamation ſhall be made in the kings name vnder the great ſeale of the ſaid priſes in ſuch parts of this realme as ſhall be conuenient for the ſame.

Farmars.

¶ And be it enacted that all farmars, owners, broggers, and all other vittellers whatſoeuer, hauing or keeping anie of the kinds of vittels afore rehearſed, to the intent to ſell, ſhall ſell the ſame to ſuch the kings ſubiects as will buie them at ſuch priſes as ſhall be ſet and taxed by the ſaid proclamation, vpon the pains to be expreſſed & limited in the ſaid proclamation to be loſt, forfeited, and leuied to the kings vſe in ſuch wiſe, as by the ſame proclamation ſhall be declared.

Townes

¶ Prouided alwaie that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not be hurtfull to maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs or other officers of cities, boroughs or townes corporat, nor to anie perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, hauing authoritie to ſet priſes of ſuch vittels, or of anie of them, but that they and euerie of them maie ſet priſes thereof, as if this act had neuer beene had or made.

Vittell ſhall not be tranſported

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, vnleſſe it be by licence vnder the kings great ſeale, from henſeforth ſhall carrie or conueie, or cauſe to be caried and conueied anie corne, beefs, muttons, veals, porks, or anie other of the aboueſaid vittels, to anie the parts beyond the ſea, except onelie for the vittelling of Calis, Guiſnes, Hams, and the marches of the ſame. And except for vittelling of maiſters mariners, and merchants of ſhips paſſing the ſeas, and alſo except barrelled butter, and meale to be carried to the parties of Iſland, as hath beene accuſtomed, vpon paine of forfeiting of the value of the thing conueied and carried into the parts of beyond the ſea, contrarie to this act, the one halfe thereof to the vſe of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, writ, or information in anie of the kings courts: in which ſutes the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine for him ſhall be allowed.

Chap.3.

WHere at your parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the 23 yeere of your moſt noble reigne, amongſt other things it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no perſon or perſons, which thereafter ſhould happen to be found giltie after the lawes of this land for anie maner of petie treaſon, or for anie wilfull murder of malice prepenſed, or for robbing of anie churches, chapels or other holie places, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling place, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, his children, ſeruants then being within and put in feare and dread by the ſame, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in or neere about the high waie, or for wilfull burning of anie dwelling houſes or barnes wherein anie graine of cornes ſhall happen to be, nor anie perſon or perſons being found giltie of anie abbetment, procurement, helping, mainteining or counſelling, of or to anie ſuch petie treaſon, murders or felonies, ſhould from thenſeforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their clergie, but vtterlie be excluded thereof, and ſuffer death in ſuch maner and forme, as they ſhould haue doone for anie the cauſes or offenſes aboueſaid, if they were no clerks: ſuch as be within holie orders, that is to ſaie, of the orders of ſubdeacon or aboue, all onelie except, as more at large appeereth by the ſaid act. And foraſmuch as the ſaid act extendeth onelie to ſuch perſons as be found giltie after the due courſe of the lawes of this land, diuers and manie great arrant robbers, murderers, burglarers and felons, that doo offend and commit diuers and manie petie treaſons, robberies, burglaries and felonies contrarie to the tenor of the ſaid act, perceiuing and cleerlie vnderſtanding, that by the words of the ſame ſtatute and act, that they ſhould not loſe the benefit and aduantage of their clergie, vnleſſe that they be found giltie after the due courſe of the law, vpon their arreignment of, and vpon the ſaid felonies, robberies and other offenſes beforeſaid, ſo by them doone and committed, by reaſon whereof, diuers and manie of the ſame robbers and felons, vpon their arreignment of the ſame robberies and felonies, vpon their indictments againſt them, ſtand mute, & ſomtime chalenge peremptorie ouer the number of 20, or els will not directlie anſwer to the ſame indictments whereupon they be ſo arreigned, according to the order of the law. And for that theſe eſpeciall caſes be not expreſlie compriſed and conteined within the letter of the ſame ſtatute, it is neceſſarie & expedient, that the ſame caſe be cleerlie & definitiuelie expounded & declared by authoritie of this preſent parlement. And where alſo as diuers and manie felons and robbers that commit and doo diuers and manie great hainous robberies, and burglaries in one ſhire, and conueie the ſpoile and robberies into anie other ſhire and there be taken, indicted and arreigned vpon felonie and felonous ſtealing of the ſame goods, in the ſame other ſhire, than there, where the ſame robberies or burglaries were doone and committed, and not vpon the ſame robberie nor burglarie, for that it was not doone nor committed in the ſame ſhire, where they be ſo indicted and arreigned, and by reaſon thereof the ſame miſdemeanors, felons, robbers and burglaries haue and inioy the priuilege and aduantage of their clergie, to the great hurt and loſſe of the kings prerogatiue, and great boldneſſe of ſuch offendors.

¶ In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie perſon and perſons that is, or héereafter ſhall be indicted of petie treaſon, willfull burning of houſes, murder, robberie or burglarie or other felonie, according to the tenor and meaning of the ſame ſtatute, and therevpon arreigned, and doo ſtand mute of malice or froward mind, or chalenge peremptorie aboue the number of twentie, or els will not or doo not anſwer directlie to the ſame indictment and felonie, wherevpon he is ſo arreigned, ſhall from henſeforth looſe the benefit and priuilege of his or their clergie, in like maner and forme, as if he had directlie pleaded to the ſame petie treaſon, murder, robberie, burglarie or other felonie wherevpon he is ſo arreigned, not giltie, and therevpon had béene found giltie after the lawes of the land.

An act againſt foreſtalling and regrating of fiſh.

Chap. 4.

WHere as before this time diuers acts of parlement haue béene made by the kings moſt noble progenitors againſt foreſtallers and regrators of vittell and other marchandize in markets and faires within this realme of England, which former ſtatutes not onelie for lacke of due execution of the ſame, but alſo for lacke of condigne puniſhment in the ſaid ſtatutes conteined, be little feared or regarded, for diuers and manie of the kings ſubiects contrarie to the meaning of the ſaid eſtatutes, nothing regarding the diſpleaſure of almightie God and of the kings highneſſe, ne yet the loue and charitie that they ought to haue to their neighbors and commonwealth of this realme, for their priuat lucre and ſingular auaile, commonlie in euerie market and faire within this realme, doo foreſtall and regrat all maner of vittell, as corne, wines, fiſh and fleſh, and ſpeciallie in Sturbridge faire, Iues faire, and Elie faire, being the moſt notable faires within this realme for prouiſion of fiſh, and moſt to the reléefe of the kings ſubiects, if ſuch foreſtalling and regrating might be ſet on ſide, which is moſt vſed by the inhabitants of London, and other the kings ſubiects, that onelie before the ſaid faires reſort to the eaſt ſea ſide or ſea coaſts and there buie vpon the ſtone all maner of fiſh, as well the fiſh that commeth from Iſland, as the fiſh that is taken in the ſaid eaſt ſea or ſea coaſts néere adioining to the parties of this realme, and incontinentlie they repaire to the ſaid Sturbridge faire, and from thenſe to the ſaid other faires, and there they ſell againe the ſaid fiſh in maner at their owne priſe and pleaſure, and not onlie ſell the ſame fiſh there, but alſo they buie vp all maner of fiſh thither brought by anie perſon, as ſaltfiſh, ſtockfiſh, ling, haburden, lobfiſh, and ſuch other kinds of ſaltfiſh, and ſell the ſame againe in the ſame faire or faires, ſo that the kings ſubiects be driuen to buie all ſuch fiſh as to them is requiſit and neceſſarie, at the ſecond, third or fourth hand, by reaſon whereof a great ſcarſeneſſe and dearth dooth inſue to the kings ſubiects in all places throughout this realme, to the great diſpleaſure of almightie God and of the kings highneſſe, and to the great impoueriſhing of the kings ſubiects.

¶ Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no maner of perſon or perſons of what eſtate, degrée or condition he or they be, other than ſuch perſon or perſons as now be or héereafter ſhalbe merchant venturers to Iſland for the ſaid fiſh, or that be doggers, otherwiſe called doggermen, or ſuch as now or héereafter ſhall be fiſhermen, that actuallie labour for the taking of the ſaid fiſh in the ſaid eaſt ſea ſide, or eaſt ſea coaſt, ſhall buie anie of the kinds of the ſaid fiſh, at, or vpon the ſtone, or at the ſaid eaſt ſea ſide, or eaſt ſea coaſts, to ſell the ſame fiſh againe, or anie part thereof at anie of the ſaid faire or faires called Sturbridge faire, S.Iues faire, or Elie faire, and that no maner of perſon or perſons other than the ſaid merchant venturers, doggers, or fiſhermen, ſhall from henſeforth ſell anie ſaltfiſh, ſtockfiſh, ling, haburden, lobfiſh, or ſuch other kind of ſaltfiſh, at, or within anie of the ſaid faire or faires, whereof the kind of the ſaid fiſh is vſuallie woont to be laid vpon land at the ſaid eaſt ſea ſide.

Doles

¶ Alſo it is enacted that no maner of perſon or perſons being owner or owners of anie of the ſaid ſhip or ſhips, ne yet anie maiſter or maiſters of the ſaid ſhips, ſhall at anie time héereafter buie anie dole or doles of anie of the mariners of anie of the ſaid ſhip or ſhips called the mariners dole fiſh.

Foreſtall

¶ And alſo it is further enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons from henſeforth ſhall foreſtall and buie anie of the ſaid fiſh in comming to the ſaid faire or faires, to ſell the ſame againe in anie of the ſaid faires, except it be for the neceſſarie vittelling of the ſaid faire or faires, there to be eaten and ſpent during the time of the ſaid faires.

Proclama.

¶ It is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons at anie time héereafter ſhall buie anie ſtockfiſh, ſaltfiſh, ling, haburden, lobfiſh, or anie other kind of ſaltfiſh within the ſaid faire or faires, to ſell the ſame againe within the ſaid faire or faires, except it be for the neceſſarie vittelling of the ſaid faire or faires, to be eaten and ſpent within the ſame faires during the time of the ſaid faire and faires. Upon the paine to euerie perſon or perſons ſo offending anie of the ſaid articles before rehearſed, contrarie to the meaning of this act, to forfeit the ſame fiſh ſo bought, foreſtalled or regrated, the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to be to the partie that will ſeize or take his action or ſute for the ſame, and that it be lawfull to all and ſingular the kings ſubiects, to take the ſame fiſh ſo forfeit by the waie of ſeizure, or to ſue for the ſame by originall writ, bill, information in the kings excheker, or anie other the kings courts of record, or in the ſame court of the ſaid faire or faires, called the court of Pepowders, at his or their pleaſure, in which action or ſute the defendant or defendants ſhall not wage their law, ne yet be aided by eſſoine or protection. And that the ſteward of euerie of the ſaid faires for the time being, ſhall yéerelie cauſe this preſent eſtatute to be openlie proclamed and red at thrée ſeuerall daies within the ſame faire, that is to ſaie, at two ſeuerall dais in the beginning of the ſame faire, and at an other daie in the midſt of the ſame faire, to the intent the kings ſubiects maie be throughlie inſtructed of euerie article conteined in this eſtatute, vpon the paine of forfeiture of his ſaid office of ſtewardſhip, and to forfeit to our ſouereigne lord the king for euerie ſuch default that proclamation is not made, as is abouesaid, fortie ſhillings.

Merchants Doggermen

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it enacted, that none of the ſaid merchant venturers, doggermen or fiſhermen, ſhall at anie time héereafter buie anie fiſh at the ſtone, at the eaſt ſea ſide or ſea coaſts, to ſell the ſame fiſh againe in the ſaid faire or faires by couin or fraud, to the vſe of anie other perſon or perſons, other than for their onelie vſe or vſes, vpon like paine as is aboue reherſed. And that euerie of the kings ſubiects maie haue like aduantage by ſeizure of the ſame fiſh, or by waie of action or ſute, for the winning or gaining of the ſame as is aforeſaid.

And alſo that no maner of perſon or perſons héereafter be reputed or taken to be a merchant venturer, to take aduantage or benefit of this act, except his aduenture in the ſaid ſhip or ſhips to Iſland, ſhall amount to the ſum of 20 li. without fraud or couin.

Fiſhers

¶ Prouided alwaies that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall vnto anie perſon or perſons being fiſhers, dwelling or inhabiting in anie place or places benorth the riuer of Humber, but that they and euerie of them maie vſe their craft and ſelling of all maner of fiſh, by them or anie of them héereafter to be taken benorth the ſaid riuer of Humber aforeſaid, in like maner and forme as they or anie other their predeceſſors fiſhers haue vſed to doo héeretofore. And that the buiers of the ſame fiſh maie lawfullie ſell the ſame in anie of the ſaid faires in maner and forme as in the aboueſaid act is conteined, anie thing in the ſaid act to the contrarie made, or expreſſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for callendring of worſteds.

Chap. 5.

WHere as at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the thrée and twentith daie of Ianuarie, in the fiſt yéere of our ſouereigne lords reigne, the king that now is, there was an act and one eſtatute made, prouided and eſtabliſhed for the auoiding of deceits & falſneſſe in worſteds, as well by reaſon of drie callendring thereof with gums, oils and preſſes, as alſo by wet callendring by perſons hauing no cunning in ordering of the ſame, which act was made to indure but onlie to the parlement then next following. And foraſmuch as it is euidentlie knowen that the ſame act and eſtatute aforeſaid, is verie good and neceſſarie for the commonwealth of this realme. Wherefore the king our ſouereigne lord by the aduiſe and conſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame hath ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid act and eſtatute made in the fiſt yéere of his moſt noble reigne aforeſaid, and euerie thing therin conteined ſhall from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, continue and be good and effectuall in euerie point and article of the ſame for euer.

Norwich

¶ And furthermore be it enacted & eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, for the commonwelth of the citie of Norwich and maintenance, ſupportation & vpholding of the houſes, tenements, and inhabitations of the ſame,that no maner perſon vſing the craft and myſterie of dieng of worſteds, ſtamins or ſaies,or of anie of them,neither by themſelues or anie ſeruant,factor,deputie,or any other by his commandement or aſſignment,from the feaſt of Chriſtmas now next inſuing,ſhall vſe to callender anie worſteds,ſtamins,or ſaies, or anie other commodities made of worſted yarne, during all ſuch times as the ſame perſon ſhall vſe the myſterie or craft of dieng aforeſaid, vpon pain to forfeit for euerie peece ſo died and callendred by colour,couin,fraud,or contrarie to the true meaning and intent of this preſent act xl.s.& to be diuided in three equall parties, the one part thereof to the the king our ſoueraigne lord, and one other part to the maior for the time being, and the third part to him or them that will ſue for the ſame,by bill,action of debt,plaint,information,or otherwiſe in anie of the kings courts,wherein no eſſoine,delaie,or protection ſhall be allowed.

An act for the puniſhment of the vice of buggerie.

Chap.6.

FOr as much as there is not yet ſufficient and condigne puniſhment appointed and limited by the due courſe of the lawes of this realme, for the deteſtable and abhominable vice of buggerie committed with mankind or beaſt.It maie therefore pleaſe the kings highneſſe, with the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled,that it maie be enacted by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſame offenſe be from henſeforth adiudged felonie,and ſuch order and forme of proceſſe therin to be vſed againſt the offendors, as in caſes of felonie at the common law.And that the offendors being hereof conuict by verdict, confeſſion,or outlawrie,ſhall ſuffer ſuch pains of death & loſſes, and penalties of their goods, chattels,debts,lands,tenements,and hereditaments, as felons beene accuſtomed to doo according to the order of the common lawes of this realme.And that no perſon offending in anie ſuch offenſe, ſhall be admitted to his clergie.And that iuſtices of peace ſhall haue power and authoritie within the limits of their commiſſions and iuriſdictions,to heare and determine the ſaid offenſe, as they vſe to doo in caſes of other felonies.This act to indure till the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act againſt killing of yoong ſpawne or frie of eeles,and ſamon.

Chap.7.

FOr as much as great hurt and dailie inconuenience haue and doo inſue vnto all the kings ſubiects of this relme by the greedie appetites and inſatiable deſire,which ſundrie of them occupieng fiſhing,haue vſed,by taking,killing,and deſtroieng the yong ſpawne,frie,or breed of eeles and ſamon,as well in ſalt riuers as in freſh riuers, lakes, plaſhes, fens, and marſhes in manie parties of this realme,to the no little hinderance and derogation of the common weale of the ſame,as alſo in killing of ſamons,when they be vnſeaſonable and not wholeſome for mans bodie,called commonlie kipper ſamons.

It is therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord,the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame,that from the firſt daie of Februarie next comming,vnto the laſt daie of Iulie then next inſuing,and ſo yearelie from henſeforth during the ſpace of ten yeares,no maner of perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree,or condition ſoeuer they be,with anie maner of net,wheele,or with any deuiſe or engine made of haire,canuas,or with anie other cautell ſhall willinglie preſume to take anie frie, ſpawne, or breed of eeles,called eele fares,or eele vares,in any riuers or waters ſalt or freſh within this relme of England,or Wales,or in the marches of the ſame.And ouer this,that during the ſaid ten yeres no maner of perſon or perſons,from the firſt daie of Maie,which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1535,vnto the firſt daie of September then next following,and ſo yearelie from thenſeforth during the ſaid x. yeres,ſhall preſume willinglie to take or deſtroie in or by means of anie wheele, but, net, berd net of haire, taining,lepe,hine,crele,raw web,litter,ſter,or by anie other engine in fludgate, ſamon pipe, or at the taile of anie mill or were, or in anie ſtreets, riuers, riues, or brokes,ſalt or freſh,within the relme of England,Wales,Barwike,and the marches of the ſame, the yong frie,ſpawne,or breed of anie kind of ſamon,called lakſpinks,ſnowts,or ſamon pele.And that no maner of perſon or perſons,of what degree or condition he ſhall be of,from the feaſt of the Exaltation of the holie croſſe,to the feaſt of ſaint Martin in the winter,during the ſaid ten yeres, ſhall willinglie by anie means aforeſaid,or otherwiſe,kill or deſtroie anie ſamons, not in ſeaſon, called kipper ſamons,within anie freſh riuer or ſalt riuer, or in places where at that time ſuch ſamons haue naturally their repaire,within this realme of England, Wales, Barwike, or in the marches of the ſame. And if anie perſon or perſons,after anie of the ſaid daies limited in this preſent act,offend in anie of the points afore rehearſed,contrarie to the tenor, forme,& purport of anie part of the ſame,then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons (ſo offending) ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie time of his or their ſuch offenſe,the ſumme of fiue pounds, and the fiſh. And alſo the vnlawfull nets,and other vnlawfull engins or deuiſe,whatſoeuer they be,made, kept, or vſed for the killing, taking,or deſtroieng of the ſaid kipper ſamon,or of anie of the yong breed,ſpawne, or frie of eeles or ſamon before rehearſed,the one halfe of the ſaid forfeiture ſhall be to the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors,and the other halfe ſhall be to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill,plaint,or otherwiſe,in anie court of record within this relme,Wales,or Barwike, or the marches of the ſame.

An act concerning pauing of Holborne, and other pauements within the citie and ſuburbs of London.

Chap. 8. Complaineth to your highneſſe, and to your high court of parlement, not all onlie your ſubiects and inhabitants within the ſtreet of Holborne, but alſo all the poore cariers and other your ſubiects, being common trauellers, repairing weeklie and monthlie to your citie of London, that where the ſaid ſtreet being the common paſſage for all cariages, caried from weſt and northweſt parts of the realme, was of late time ſo well and ſubſtantiallie paued, that your ſubiects had good and ſure paſſage through the ſaid ſtreet, till now of late for lacke of renewing of the ſaid pauing by the landlords, which dwell not within the citie, the waie is ſo noious, and ſo full of ſloughs and other incumbrances, that often times many of your ſubiects riding through the ſaid ſtreet and waie, be in ieopardie of hurt, and haue almoſt periſhed. Pleaſeth it your highneſſe, and the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, to enact, by the authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular perſons, their heirs and ſucceſſors which now haue, or hereafter ſhall haue anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments betweene the bridge called Holborne bridge, and the bars at the weſt end of the ſaid ſtreet, be it on the one ſide Tenants in fee, &c of the ſtreet and other, in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life, ſhall before the feaſt of S. Michaell which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1534, ſufficientlie paue or cauſe to be paued with pauing ſtone, along from his or their lands or tenements, adioinong to the high waie, all ſuch quantitie of the ſaid ſtreet, and in ſuch places as the ſaid ſtreet at anie time before the making of this act, hath beene paued, vpon paine to forfeit to your highneſſe your heirs and ſucceſſors, for euerie yard ſquare not ſufficientlie paued by the ſaid date limited and aſſigned in forme before expreſſed vj.d. And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, hauing any of the ſaid lands and tenements in poſſeſſion or in vſe, in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life adioining to the ſaid high waie and ſtreet, their heirs and ſucceſſors ſhall from and after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, the which ſhall be in the ſaid yere of our Lord God 1534, ſufficiently mainteine the pauement of the ſaid way and ſtreet, againſt euerie their ſaid lands and tenements, in ſuch and like forme as is aboue declared, vpon paine to forfeit to your highnes for euerie yard ſquare of the ſaid pauement, not ſufficientlie paued, repaired and amended, as often as anie ſuch default of any perſon ſhalbe preſented before the maior and the aldermen of the ſame citie vj.d. And that it be further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, the ſaid maior and the aldermen for the time being maie haue full power and authoritie to inquire in euerie quarter of the yeere after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, the which ſhalbe in the yeere of our Lord 1534, by the oth of twelue men of the ſaid citie, aſwell of them that haue not paued according to the prouiſion aforeſaid, as alſo of them that remiſlie or inſufficientlie ſhall hereafter mainteine the ſame pauement, or anie other pauement within the ſaid citie and ſuburbs of the ſame. And that the ſaid maior and the aldermen maie haue power and authoritie, after euerie ſuch default before them preſented, to ſeſſe fines by their diſcretions, and the Proceſſe ſaid fines to be certified into the kings excheker, and the barons therof to make proceſſe by diſtres to be taken vpon the ſaid lands and tenements, or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, aſwell for the ſaid fines aſſeſſed, as for their penalties before limited.

Leaſees ¶ Prouided alwaies, that if the leaſees of the ſaid lands, or of other lands within the citie or ſuburbs of the ſame, doo ſufficientlie paue or repaire before their manſions or dwelling places, the ſtreets which haue vſed to be paued, that then they and euerie of them ſhall defalke, abate, and reteine in his or their owne hands, as much of the rents due to the leaſors, as they can proue, to haue expended on the ſame pauing, and the leaſor, for ſo much as that ſum doth amount to, to haue no action nor reentrie for the non paiment of the ſame, except it be otherwiſe agreed betweene them.

Southwark ¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that like order be obſerued for pauing of the ſtreets in the borough of Southwarke, as is before mentioned to be done in the citie of London. So alwaies that the reformation and puniſhment of the offenſes there ſhall reſt in the maior of the citie of London, as far onelie as is within the iuriſdiction of the ſaid citie, and the reſidue in the iuſtices of peace of the countie, where the ſame ſtreets be. And that the ſame iuſtices of peace ſhall by vertue hereof haue power to make inquirie vpon the premiſſes, and heare, determine and puniſh the defaults in maner and forme aforeſaid.

An act concerning pewterers.

Chap. 9. In their moſt lamentable wiſe ſhewen and pitiouſlie complaine vnto the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, and to this his moſt high court of parlement, the kings moſt humble, poore and obedient ſubiects, the maiſter, wardens and poore fellowſhip of the craft and myſterie of pewterers, as well of the citie of London, as of all other places within this realme of England, that where the ſaid craft or myſterie before this time hath beene one of the beſt handie crafts within this realme, which hath onelie growne & continued by meane of diuers good acts and ſtatutes made for the true exerciſe of the ſame, wherof one was made in the xix. yere of the reign of the kings moſt renowned father, whoſe ſoule God pardon, and one other was made in the fourth yeare of the kings moſt victorious reigne, concerning the crafts of pewterers and braſiers, of and for the true making, mixing, and ſelling of good and true pewter & braſen veſſels, and alſo for exerciſing and vſing of true weights and beams, to be occupied by the ſellers of anie ſuch pewter or braſen veſſels within this realme, ſo that none of the kings ſubiects, nor anie other perſon ſhould by anie ſale of anie falſe mixed braſen or pewter veſſell, or anie vntrue weights be deceiued, as by the ſaid eſtatutes more plainlie doth appeare, which good eſtatutes dulie put in execution, hath cauſed the ſaid craft to increaſe and multiplie, to the great profit and vtilitie of a great number of the kings ſubiects, and the commoditie of pewter veſſell much to be had in reputation in all ſtrange regions and countries, vntill now of late diuers euill diſpoſed perſons, being the kings ſubiects borne, which haue beene apprentiſes, and brought vp in the exerciſe of the ſaid craft of pewterers, haue now of late for their ſingular lucre, repaired into ſtrange regions and countries, and there doo exerciſe the ſaid craft of pewterers, teaching ſtrangers not onelie the cunning of mixing and forging of all maner of pewter veſſell, but alſo doo teach all things belonging to the ſaid craft of pewterers, by meane whereof there is not onelie brought dailie into this realme out of ſtrange regions to be ſold, a great number of things made of pewter, vntrulie mixed and made of tin, wherewith the kings ſubiects be dailie deceiued, and the people of ſtrange countries greatlie inſtructed in the cunning of the ſaid craft of pewterers, ſo that thereby not onelie a great number and quantitie of pewter veſſell and other things of pewter, made in diuers ſorts and faſhions, amounting to a great value, which was dailie and continuallie wont to be caried and conueied out of this realme by merchants into ſtrange regions & countries, there to be ſold and vended. Whereby the commoditie of tin made into pewter veſſell, which hath beene had in great eſtimation, as things verie neceſſarie and commodious, and the kings cuſtoms thereby much aduanced, is now like vtterlie to ceaſe and to decaie, and not to be eſteemed, as heretofore hath beene, but alſo the ſaid craft of pewterers, which at this daie ſetteth and keepeth in worke and occupation, a great number of people ſhall be vtterlie vndone, and a great multitude of the kings naturall ſubiects thereby fall into idleneſſe, to the great impoueriſhment of this realme, if ſpeedie remedie for the redreſſe of the premiſſes be not prouided. In tender conſideration whereof, and for reformation of the premiſſes, it maie pleaſe the kings highneſſe, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to ordeine and enact, that no perſon or perſons, hereafter at any time now inhabiting, or which hereafter ſhall inhabit within this realme, ſhall buie, or otherwiſe take by exchange for other wares, anie maner wares made, or hereafter to be made out of this realme, of tin, or mixt with tin, as platters, diſhes, ſaucers, pots, baſons, ewers, flagons, goblets, ſalts, ſaltſellers, ſpoones, or anie other thing made of tin or pewter, as is aforeſaid, whatſoeuer it be, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame ware, in whoſe hands ſoeuer it may be found or taken, & alſo lawfull monie currant in this realme, to the full value thereof. The one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, and the other halfe to be to the vſe of the finders of the ſame.

¶ And alſo be it enacted by authoritie aboueſaid, that no perſon nor perſons, occupieng the ſaid craft or occupation of pewterers within this realme, ſhall ſet on worke or retaine in his or their ſeruice anie perſon or perſons to be his or their apprentiſe or iourniman being ſtranger borne out of this realme, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch apprentiſe and iourniman ten pounds ſterling. And that no ſtranger borne out of this realme, ſhall occupie, exerciſe, or vſe from the feaſt of Penticoſt next comming, the ſaid craft of pewterers, ne worke any maner of veſſell or other ware aforeſaid, to be made of tin or pewter, within anie place or places of this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of ten pounds ſterling, & alſo vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame pewter or tin ſo wrought in whoſe hands ſoeuer it maie be found or taken.

Forfeit

¶ And alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon nor perſons being borne within this realme, occupieng or exerciſing the ſaid craft of pewterers, ſhall at anie time hereafter reſort into anie ſtrange regions or countries, there to vſe, teach, or exerciſe the ſaid craft of pewterers vpon paine to loſe the priuilege and benefit of an Engliſhman. And if in caſe anie of the kings ſubiects, at this preſent time being dwelling in anie ſtrange countrie or region, and there occupieng the ſaid craft of pewterers, doo not repaire into this realme within three months next after requeſt and warning to him to be giuen, by writing ſealed with the common ſeale of the wardens of the ſaid craft within the ſaid citie of London, and here in this realme continuallie from henſeforth dwell and inhabit, that then and from thenſeforth he ſhall be reputed and taken as no Engliſhman, but ſhall ſtand and be from thenſeforth out of the kings protection.

Haukers

¶ And foraſmuch as ſundrie euill diſpoſed perſons, which commonlie be called haukers, by authoritie of the kings letters patents or placards, doo not onlie go about from place to place within this realme, vſing bueng and ſelling of braſſe and pewter, and by colour and pretenſe of the ſame licences or placards, vſe vnlawfull & deceiuable weights & beams, but alſo do vſe to ſell both braſſe and pewter which is not good, nor trulie nor lawfullie mixt nor wrought, to the great deceit of the kings true liege people, contrarie to the forme and effect of the ſaid good act and ſtatute made in the ſaid fourth yeare of the kings moſt noble reigne: be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all ſuch licences and placards heretofore had, made, or granted to any ſuch perſon or perſons, contrarie to the true meaning, forme and effect of this eſtatute, ſhall be from henſeforth by authoritie of this preſent parlement, clearelie void and of none effect. And whereas in the ſaid act of parlement, concerning the craft of pewterers and braſiers, made in the ſaid fourth yeare for diuers cauſes and conſiderations in the ſame act conteined, amongſt other things it is expreſſed, that no perſon or perſons vſing the ſaid craft of pewterers or braſiers, ſhould from thenſeforth ſell or change anie pewter or braſſe, new or old, at anie place or places within this realme, but onlie in open fairs or markets, or in their owne dwelling houſes, but if they were deſired by the buiers of ſuch wares, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch default ten pounds. For as much as the ſame forfeiture is to the onlie vſe of the kings highneſſe, and that anie partie ſearching or finding the ſame, is not intituled to haue anie benefit thereby, it hath not beene knowne that anie perſon or perſons haue taken anie paine to inſearch or make anie inquirie thereof, by reaſon whereof diuers and manie euill diſpoſed perſons, vſing bueng and ſelling both of braſſe and of pewter, and not regarding the ſaid good act, neither the ſaid penaltie, dailie go about from village to village, towne to towne, and from houſe to houſe, to ſell ſuch pewter and braſſe which is not good, and alſo vſe deceiuable weights and beames, as they did before the making of the ſaid act, to the great hurt and deceit of the kings true liege people and ſubiects. Wherefore be it enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that as well the moitie of the ſaid forfeiture of x. li. limited in the ſaid ſtatute, made in the ſaid fourth yeare, as alſo the moitie of all other forfeitures before expreſſed, and euerie of them be and ſhall be to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, his heirs, and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie of the ſaid forfeitures, and euerie of them to be to the vſe of him or them, that ſhall ſeize, find, or preſent the ſaid forfeitures or anie of them, or that ſhall ſue for the ſame in anie competent court or courts within this realme, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, wherein the defendant ſhall in no wiſe be admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine to anie perſon or perſons, which ſhall be impeached to haue offended contrarie to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, ſhall be allowable. This act to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement.

Placards

An act concerning the oth of commiſſioners of ſewers.

Chap. 10.

BE it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the act laſt made for ſewers, and the commiſſion therein recited, ſhall be extended, vſed, and put in execution in the towne and marches of Calis, according to the tenour of the ſame commiſſion in like effect as it is enacted to be put in execution within this realme, & that no perſon ſhall be compelled to be ſworne or otherwiſe bound to ſit or trauell in execution of anie commiſſion of ſewers within this realme, vnleſſe that he be dwelling within the countie whereof he is or ſhall be aſſigned to be a commiſſioner, and for Calis and the ſaid marches thereof, vnleſſe that he be dwelling within the ſame towne of Calis, or marches.

Commiſſioners

¶ And becauſe that diuers perſons heretofore aſſigned to be commiſſioners haue refuſed to be ſworne, according to the ſaid former act, whereby diuers commiſſioners heretofore made, remaine hitherto without effectuall execution. Be it therefore enacted, that if anie perſon aſſigned or to be aſſigned, to be ſuch commiſſioner of ſewers, being required hereafter by ſuch perſon or perſons as haue or ſhall haue authoritie by the kings writ, or otherwiſe, to receiue or accept the oth compriſed in the ſaid former act, euerie perſon that ſo refuſeth to take the ſame oth, or vpon that requeſt made do not receiue the ſame oth, and that refuſall or contempt done in the chancerie, or returne into the chancerie with the ſaid writ, ſhall loſe and forfeit for the ſame contempt to the king our ſoureigne lord, fiue marks, and ſo to loſe from time to time fiue marks for euerie ſuch contempt, as ſhall be done or returned to the ſaid chancerie againſt any ſuch perſons, vnleſſe that he in the ſame chancerie do ſhew and allege in the ſaid terme, wherein ſuch returne ſhall be made againſt him, ſufficient and reaſonable matter and cauſe to be allowed by the lord chancellor for his excuſe and diſcharge in that behalfe.

Contempt Forfeit.

An act to auoid the deſtruction of wild fowle.

Chap. 11.

WHere before this time there hath béene within this realme great plentie of wild fowle, as ducks, malards, wigeons, teals, wild géeſe, and diuers other kinds of wild fowle, whereby not onelie the kings moſt honourable houſhold, but alſo the houſes of the noble men, and prelats of this realme, haue béene furniſhed for the neceſſarie expenſes of the ſame houſes, at conuenient priſes, but alſo all markets of the ſame realme were ſufficientlie furniſhed with wild fowle there to be ſold in ſuch wiſe, that ſuch as were méet to make prouiſion of the ſame for their houſes, might at reaſonable priſes, at the ſame markets be thereof prouided. Neuertheleſſe diuers perſons next inhabiting in the countries and places within this relme, where the ſubſtance of the ſame wild fowle hath bin accuſtomed to bréed, haue in the ſommer ſeaſon, at ſuch time as the ſaid old fowle be mouted & not repleniſhed with fethers to flie, nor the yong fowle fully feathered perfectlie to flie, by certeine nets and other engins and policies yéerelie taken a great number of the ſame fowle, in ſuch wiſe, that the brod of wildfowle is almoſt therby waſted & conſumed, and dailie is like more and more to waſt and conſume, if remedie be not therefore prouided. Be it therfore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that it ſhall not be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons héereafter, betwéene the laſt daie of Maie, and the laſt daie of Auguſt, to take or cauſe to be taken anie ſuch wildfowle, with nets or anie other engins, vpon paine of one yéeres impriſonment, & to forfeit for euerie fowle ſo taken foure penſe: the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt in anie of the kings courts, and in the which action no eſſoine nor protection ſhall be allowed, nor wager of law receiued.

Times to take wild fowles

¶ And be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all iuſtices of peace within the limits of their commiſſion, ſhall haue power and authoritie to inquire, heare and determine the offenſes aforeſaid, like as they commonlie vſe and doo in caſes of treſpaſſe.

Iuſt. of p.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that it ſhall be lawfull to any gentleman, or anie other that may diſpend fortie ſhillings by the yéere of fréehold, to hunt and take ſuch wildfowle with their ſpaniels onelie, without vſing anie net or other engins for the ſame, except it be a long bow or long bowes.

Gentleman

¶ Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that from the firſt day of March, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1534. vnto the laſt daie of Iune then next inſuing, and ſo yéerelie from thenſeforth, no maner of perſon or perſons ſhall preſume by daie or by night, willinglie to withdraw, purloine, take, deſtroie or conueie anie maner of egs of anie kind of wildfowle, from or in anie neſt, place or places, where they ſhall chance to be laid by anie kind of the ſame wildfowle vpon paine of impriſonment for one yéere, and to looſe and forfeit for euerie egge of anie crane or buſtard ſo deſtroied, purloined, withdrawen, conueied, or taken from anie neſt or place, twentie penſe, & for euerie egge of euerie bittor, heron or ſhouelard eight penſe, & for euerie egge of euerie mallard, tele or other wild fowle, one penie. The one moitie thereof to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to him will ſue for the ſame in forme aforeſaid, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed. And that all iuſtices of peace within the limits of their commiſſion, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to inquire, heare and determine the ſame in forme before rehearſed.

Egs

Iuſt. of p.

Prouided alwaies that this act extend not nor be hurtfull at anie time héereafter to anie perſon or perſons that will deſtroie anie crowes, choughs, rauens, and buſtards, or their egs, or to anie other fowle or their egs, not comeſtible, nor vſed to be eaten.

An act concerning the attaindor of Elizabeth Barton and others, which vnder colour of hypocriſie, diſſimuled ſanctitie and falſe fained miracles, traitorouſlie intend to deſtroie our ſouereigne lord the king, & to depriue him of his realme and dignitie roiall.

Chap. 12.

The lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, moſt humblie beſéechen the kings highneſſe, that for the declaration of his moſt pure and ſincere conſcience, in the diuorſe and ſeparation lawfullie had and doone betwéene his maieſtie, and the right excellent princeſſe the ladie Katharine, and for due puniſhment to be had of ſuch perſons as maliciouſlie maligning againſt the ſame, haue traitorouſlie attempted manie notable acts, intending thereby the diſturbance of the peace and tranquillitie of this realme, and for repreſſion, example and reformation of the malices and malignities, which héereafter maie be falſlie conſpired and compaſſed by ſuch euill dooers to make diuiſion within this realme, that it maie be enacted in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie.

¶ Where our ſaid ſouereigne lord, like a good and a vertuous prince being afflicted and ſore incumbred in his conſcience with the mariage, which was ſolemnized betwéene his maieſtie, and the ſaid right excellent princeſſe the ladie Katherine, late wife of the right excellent prince Arthur, naturall brother to our ſaid ſouereigne lord, to the which prince Arthur, the ſaid ladie Katherine was lawfullie married, and by him carnallie knowne, for the onelie diſcharge of his conſcience againſt almightie God, by all true waies and means inſearched, ſtudied, deuiſed, and conſulted, as well with ſundrie vniuerſities of chriſtendom, as with a great number of excellent clerks learned in diuinitie, of the validitie and inualiditie of the ſaid mariage, ſolemnized betwéene his highneſſe and the ſaid ladie Katherine, being before the ſaid mariage his ſaid brothers wife, & by him carnallie knowne. And after the determinat & plaine iudgements of the ſaid ſundrie vniuerſities & well learned men, by reaſon of inſearches in the holie ſcriptures of God, by a great aduiſe and deliberation, it was declared and ſignified vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord, that the ſaid mariage ſolemnized betwéene his highneſſe & the ſaid ladie Katherine, was prohibited and deteſted by the lawes of almightie God, our ſaid ſouereigne lord therupon purſued for a iuſt and lawfull ſeparation & diuorſe to be had, betwéene his highneſſe & the ſaid ladie Katherine from the bonds of the ſaid vnlawfull & deteſtable mariage, as to a good catholike prince beſéemeth to doo in that behalfe, to the intent that his maieſtie vnder the bonds of a lawfull mariage, conſonant and agréeable vnto the lawes of almightie God, might haue iſſue and procreation for the wealth, peace, reſt, tranquilitie, and ſuretie of this his realme and ſubiects of the ſame, which diuorſe & ſeparation is now lawfullie had, and our ſaid ſouereigne lord iuſtlie and lawfullie married to his moſt déere and intirelie beloued wife quéene Anne, and by hir hath had iſſue, and is like, God being pleaſed, to haue more, to the great comfort, reioice, and ſuretie of all his ſubiects of this realme. And albeit that our ſaid ſouereigne lord, like a good catholike king, for the onelie diſcharge of his conſcience, and for the wealth and ſuretie of this his realme, moſt prudentlie, moſt deliberatlie, moſt gentlie, moſt meekelie, and moſt charitablie procéeded in the inſearching & knowing of the validitie and inualiditie of the ſaid deteſted and vnlawfull mariage, and therein painfullie trauelled by manie yeares, not onlie to the great inquietneſſe and trouble of his mind, but alſo to his ineſtimable coſts and expenſes, yet neuertheleſſe diuers and ſundrie wilfull and inobedient ſubiects of this realme, whoſe names and offenſes ſhall appeare & be declared hereafter, being maliciouſlie fixed in a contrarie opinion againſt the pure iudgement of the kings owne conſcience, and alſo the determinations of the ſaid ſundrie vniuerſities and well learned men, well perceiuing that they, being but a few in number, could not by their ſaid wilfull and peruerſe opinions, grounded of malice, corruption, and affection, hinder ne interrupt the ſaid diuorſe and ſeparation by anie lawfull means, did therefore by falſe faigned hipocriſie, diſſembled ſanctitie, and cloked holineſſe, not onlie ſet forth, and put in the hands of a great number of the ſubiects of this realme, as well nobles and other ſpirituall and temporall perſons, that they had knowledge by reuelation from almightie God and holie ſaints, that God ſhould be diſpleaſed with our ſaid ſouereigne lord for his ſaid procéedings in the ſaid diuorſe and ſeparation of the ſaid deteſted and vnlawfull mariage, but alſo ſurmiſed amongſt other things, that God had reuealed to an holie woman, whoſe name hereafter ſhall be mentioned in this act, that in caſe his highneſſe procéeded to the accompliſhment of the ſaid diuorſe, & maried another, that then his maieſtie ſhould not be king of this realme, by the ſpace of one month after, & in the reputation of God ſhould not be king one daie, no nor one houre, with manie other falſe faigned & diſſimulat fables, tales and lies by them vnlawfullie and traitorouſlie practiſed, deuiſed, imagined and conſpired aſwell to the blaſphemie of almightie God, as againſt our ſaid ſouereigne lord, as by the particulars thereof, héereafter more at large in this preſent act, ſhall be expreſſed. That is to ſaie.

¶ Firſt, one Elizabeth Barton (now being nun profeſſed in the houſe and priorie of S. Sepulcres of Canturburie) which long afore ſhe was profeſſed nun, dwelled with one Thomas Cob, in the pariſh of Aldington in the countie of Kent, and happened to be viſited with ſickneſſe, and by occaſion thereof brought in ſuch debilitie and weakneſſe of hir braine, becauſe ſhe could not eat ne drinke by a long ſpace, that in the violence of hir infirmitie, ſhe ſéemed to be in tranſes, and ſpake and vttered manie foliſh and idle words. And one Richard Maſter clerke, being parſon of the ſaid pariſh of Aldington, in the ſaid countie of Kent, after that he had made to the late archbiſhop of Canturburie a far larger report, concerning the hypocriſie, tranſes and ſpéeches of the ſaid Elizabeth, than he could iuſtifie and abide by, and after that he was commanded by the ſaid archbiſhop to giue good attendance vpon hir, if ſhe ſhould fortune to haue anie more ſuch tranſes and ſpéeches, & to ſend him knowledge therof, to the intent to mainteine, vphold and verifie ſuch report as he had made, aſwell to the archbiſhop aforeſaid, as to other, of the wonderfull tranſes and ſpéeches of the ſaid nun: falſlie & craftilie informed the ſaid Elizabeth, that the maruellous words which ſhe ſpake in hir tranſes, afore his riding to the archbiſhop aforeſaid, procéeded of the inſpiration of the Holie ghoſt, and that ſhe was greatlie to be blamed, if ſhe would hide or diſſemble the wonderfull works of God ſhewed in hir. For afore this his ſaid information and inſtruction, ſhe ſaid conſtantlie, that ſhe could not remember, that ſhe ſpake anie ſuch notable words in hir tranſes, as were reported vnto hir by the ſaid Richard Maſter. Which Elizabeth being in this maner of wiſe often times perſuaded, procured and informed by the ſaid parſon of Aldington, tooke boldneſſe and courage to forge, faine and counterfeit ſuch maner of tranſes & craftie ſpéeches, as the ſaid perſon of Aldington told hir that ſhe vſed in hir ſickneſſe afore he went to the ſaid archbiſhop. And when the ſaid Elizabeth had vſed this maner of falſe and fained counterfeiting for a ſeaſon, & was perfect therein (ſo that the fame therof was greatlie ſpred abrode in thoſe parties of Kent) then the ſaid perſon to the intent aforeſaid, & to the intent the people ſhould giue more faith and credence vnto hir, and becauſe he would haue increaſed the deuotion of the people in comming on pilgrimage to a chapell ſet in court at ſtréet aforeſaid, within his ſaid pariſh dedicat in the honor of our ladie for his owne lucre & aduantage imagined, deuiſed, compaſſed, & declared with the aid, helps & counſell of one Edward Bocking monke profeſſed in the monaſterie in Chriſts church in Canturburie, and doctor in diuinitie, that the ſaid Elizabeth, being in the extaſie & extremitie of hir ſicknes, in a maner diſtract in a tranſe, ſhould ſaie amongſt other wonderfull words that ſhe ſhould neuer take helth of hir bodie till ſuch time as ſhe had viſited the image of our ladie, being in the ſaid chapell at court at ſtréet aforeſaid, and that our ladie had appéered vnto hir, & ſhewed hir, that if ſhe came to the ſaid chapell at the daie to hir appointed, ſhe ſhould be reſtored to hir health by miracle, where in verie deed ſhe was reſtored to hir perfect health by diet and phyſike, and by the courſe of nature, which expelled the matter being cauſe of hir ſickneſſe, in the meane time whileſt the ſaid parſon of Aldington was with the ſaid archbiſhop as is afore reherſed. And albeit the ſaid Elizabeth was thus naturallie reſtored to hir health, yet ſhe being accuſtomed and acquainted with the maner and faſhion of hir diſtract tranſes, by the counſell, conſpiracie and confederacie of the ſaid Edward Bocking and Richard Maiſter, did falſlie practiſe, vſe and ſhew vnto the people diuers and maruellous ſudden alterations of hir ſenſible parts of hir bodie, craftilie vttering in hir ſaid fained and falſe tranſes, diuers and manie vertuous and holie words, tending to the rebuke of ſinne, and in reprouing of ſuch new opinions,as then began to ſpring in this realme, which ſhe called hereſies, as ſhe was induced and taught by the ſaid Edward Bocking,and Richard maſter,vſing all the waies of falſe hypocriſie,to the intent the people ſhould giue beleefe and credit vnto hir, whereby they might be the ſooner brought into the deteſtable crimes of blaſphemie and idolatrie againſt almightie God.

And the ſaid Edward Bocking, being maliciouſlie fired in his opinion againſt the kings high-neſſe,in the ſaid deteſted matrimonie,and intending in his mind afterwards for his part, falſlie and traitorouſlie to vſe the ſaid Elizabeth as a diabolike inſtrument,to ſtir, moue, and prouoke the people of this realme,as well nobles as others, to murmure and grudge againſt the maieſtie of our ſoueraigne lord, and all his iuſt and lawfull procedings,in the ſaid diuorſe and ſeparation, as hereafter he did in verie deed,for the accompliſhment of his ſaid falſe, malicious, and traitorous intents falſelie deuiſed and conſpired with the ſaid Richard, that the ſaid Elizabeth ſhould ſhew and manifeſt hir ſelfe to the people, to be an excellent, vertuous,and an holie woman,and that all hir words and deeds ſhould appeare to the world, to proceed of a maruellous holineſſe, rebuking the common ſinnes and vices of the world,as though ſhee were taught and inſpired of the holie ſpirit of God. And not onelie mooued and counſelled the ſaid Elizabeth thus to vſe hir ſelfe, ſurmiſing to hir that ſhe ſpake ſuch things in the extaſie of hir ſickneſſe, that come by the inſpira-tion of God,but alſo counſelled and procured the ſaid Elizabeth to be brought and conueied to the ſaid chapell of our Ladie,and ſhe therein openlie in the preſence of the people (that there ſhould be aſſembled by their procurements)ſhould vſe and experiment ſuch like tranſes and alterations of hir face,and other the outward ſenſible parts of hir bodie,as ſhe vſed in the extremitie and extaſie of hir ſaid ſickneſſe.To whoſe counſels and aduertiſements,the ſaid Elizabeth agreed.Where vpon at a day by them appointed and agreed,the ſaid Edward & Richard,laboured,ſolicited and procured aboue the number of two thouſand perſons to repaire to the ſaid chapell, ſurmiſing that the ſaid Elizabeth (which as they ſaid) had maruellous and manie viſions and reuelations of God, ſhould be brought thither, and there receiue hir health by miracle of our ladie, whoſe image was in the ſaid chapell. By reaſon of which falſe, fained and deteſtable conſpiracie and hypocriſie at the daie by them appointed,there aſſembled to the ſaid chapell aboue the number of two thouſand people. At which daie alſo,the ſaid Edward Bocking and Richard Maiſter procured and cauſed the ſaid Elizabeth to repaire to the ſaid chapell, where the ſaid Elizabeth albeit ſhe at that time and long afore was reſtored to health of hir bodie, and diſcharged of hir torments and afflictions which ſhe had in the extaſie of hir ſickneſſe ; yet neuertheleſſe by the procurement and craftie counſell of the ſaid Edward Bocking and Richard Maiſter,did falſlie faine and ſhew vnto the people in the ſame cha-pell manie alterations of hir face and other outward ſenſible parts of hir bodie, and falſlie fained and ſhewed hir ſelfe in tranſes,vttering wonderous words,as ſhe was afore ſubtillie and craftilie induced and taught by the ſaid Richard and Edward to doo.And amongſt other things ſhe vttered, that it was the pleaſure of God that the ſaid Edward Bocking ſhould be hir ghoſtlie father,& that ſhe ſhould be a religious woman,as ſhe was taught by the ſaid Edward Bocking & Richard Maiſter.And within a while after the demonſtration of ſuch falſe fained and diſſimuled tranſes, ſhe appeered to the people to be ſuddenlie reuealed from hir ſickneſſe & afflictions, by the interceſſion and meanes of the image of our ladie being in the ſame chapell. By meanes of which falſe fained hypocriſie,diſſimuled and cloked ſanctitie ſo conſpired and craftilie imagined by the ſaid Edward Boc-king and Richard Maiſter,the ſaid Elizabeth was brought into a maruellous fame, credit, & good opinion of a great multitude of the people of this realme.And to increaſe the fame of the ſaid falſe fained hypocriſie,the ſaid Elizabeth afterwards by the counſell & procurement of the ſaid Edward Bocking,entred into the religion & became a nun profeſſed in the ſaid priorie of S. Sepulcres, to whom the ſaid Edw. Bocking had commonly his reſort,not without probable,vehement & violent ſuſpicion of incontinencie,pretending to be hir ghoſtlie father by Gods appointment, & by conſpiracie betwixt hir & him,cauſed hir ſtill to perſiſt & abide in the practiſing of hir ſaid falſe hypocriſie and diſſembling tranſes & rapts.And that ſhe ſhould ſurmit to the people,that when ſhe was in ſuch ſimuled alteration of hir ſenſible parts of hir bodie,that ſhe was then rapt by almightie God from the affections of this world,& told by the holy ſpirit of God manie things that ſhould follow to the world for puniſhment of ſins of the princes & the people,and that ſhe ſhould ſay,that ſhe was much prouoked and tempted,as well to the ſinne of the fleſh, as otherwiſe by hir ghoſtlie enimie the di-uell,at diuers and ſundrie times,and in diuers & ſundrie waies and faſhions,and yet neuertheleſſe, that ſhe by the grace of God was preſerued and ſtedfaſtlie reſiſted ſuch temptations,by occaſion of which counſell and procurement of the ſaid Edward Bocking, the ſaid Elizabeth by continuance of time tooke ſuch a courage vpon hir, that ſhe falſlie fained & ſaid, that ſhe had manie reuelations of almightie God & his holy ſaints,with heuenlie lights, heuenlie voices, heuenlie melodies and ioies,& ſpeciallie in a chapell of S.Giles in the ſaid nunrie,to the which chapell ſhe oftentimes reſorted to receiue viſions & reuelations,as commanded by God,as ſhe falſlie reported, & ſpeciallie by night,ſaieng that the dorture doore was made open vnto hir by Gods power, vttering the ſame,as well to the ſaid Edw.Bocking,as to diuers other perſons,by the which hir falſe fained reuelations & cloked hypocriſie,ſhe was reputed amongſt many people of this relme to be a very holy woman inſpired with God,where in very deed ſhe had neuer viſion or reuelation from God, as ſhe hath plainly & openly confeſſed hir ſelfe,& therfore hir ſtealing forth of the dorture in the night,which was once or twiſe weekelie, was not for ſpirituall buſineſſe, nor to receiue reuelations of God but for

bodilie communication and pleaſure with hir fréends, which could not haue ſo good leiſure and opportunitie with hir by daie. And for reformation of hir falſe faigned reuelations, the ſaid Edward by conſpiracie betwéene him and the ſaid Elizabeth, reuealed the ſame to the moſt reuerend father in God, William late archbiſhop of Canturbury, who by falſe & vntrue ſurmiſes, tales, & lies of the ſaid Edward & Elizabeth, was allured, brought & induced to a credit therein, and made no diligent ſearches for triall of their ſaid falſhoods & confederations, but ſuffred and admitted the ſame to the blaſphemie of almightie God, & to the great deceit of the prince & people of this relme, and for a perpetuall memorie of the ſaid faigned & diſſimuled hipocriſie & falſe reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth, the ſaid Edward Bocking, Richard Maſter, & one John Dering, a monke in the ſaid monaſterie of Chriſts church aforeſaid, made, writ, and cauſed to be written ſundrie bookes both great & ſmall, both printed and written, concerning the particularities of the ſaid falſe and feigned hipocriſie and reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth, or the defenſe or great praiſe of the ſame, ſurmounting and putting forth the ſame falſe and faigned practiſes and reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth to be iuſt and true miracles, ſhewed by almightie God in the fauour of the ſanctitie of the ſaid Elizabeth, where indéed they béene and were falſelie deuiſed, compaſſed, conſpired, written, and mainteined by the ſaid Elizabeth, Edward Bocking, Richard Maſter, and John Dering, to the onlie intent to bring the ſaid Elizabeth in the fame and credit of the people of this realme, whereby the people ſhould be the more apt and diſpoſed by hir falſe cloked hipocriſie and ſanctitie, to commit the crimes of blaſphemie and idolatrie againſt God, and alſo the ſooner induced by the falſe reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth, to murmure, grudge, and be of euill opinion againſt the maieſtie of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, to the great perill & danger of his moſt roiall perſon. And one Edward Thwaits gentleman, tranſlated & writ diuers queers and ſheets of paper, concerning the ſaid falſe faigned reuelations and miracles of the ſaid Elizabeth. And alſo one Thomas Laurence of Canturburie, being regiſter to the archdeacon of Canturburie, at the inſtance and deſire of the ſaid Edward Bocking, wrote a great booke of the ſaid falſe and fained miracles and reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth in a faire hand, readie to be a copie to the printer when the ſaid booke ſhould be put to ſtampe.

Amongſt which falſe and fained reuelations ſurmiſed by the ſaid Elizabeth, & put in writings in diuers books by the falſe conſpiracie, means and procurement of the ſaid Edward Bocking, Richard Maiſter, John Dering and other their complices, there is expreſſed, that the deuill ſhould appéere to the ſaid Elizabeth in diuers faſhions, ſomtimes like a man wantonly apparelled, ſomtimes like a bird deformed, and ſomtime otherwiſe. And that Marie Magdalen ſhould often appere to the ſaid Elizabeth, and reuealed to hir manie reuelations. And at one time ſhould deliuer to hir a letter written in heauen, part whereof was limned with golden letters, where in déed the ſame letters were written with the hand of a monke of S. Auguſtins in Canturburie, named Hawkherſt. ¶There was alſo written and conteined amongſt the ſaid falſe and fained miracles and reuelations, that when the kings highneſſe was at Calis in the enteruiew betwéene his maieſtie and the French king, & hearing maſſe in the church of our ladie at Calis, that God was ſo diſpleaſed with the kings highneſſe, that his grace ſaw not at that time at the maſſe yͤ bleſſed ſacrament in forme of bread, for it was taken awaie from the préeſt (being at maſſe) by an angell, and miniſtred vnto the ſaid Elizabeth then being there preſent and inuiſible, and ſuddenlie conueied and rapt thenſe againe by the power of God into the ſaid nunrie, where ſhe is profeſſed with manie other falſe fained fables & tales deuiſed, conſpired and defended by the ſaid Elizabeth, Edward Bocking & John Dering, written as miracles in the ſaid books for a memoriall, to ſet forth the falſe & fained hypocriſie & cloked ſanctitie of the ſaid Elizabeth to the people of this relme, as by the ſaid ſundrie books and writings thereof made, ſéene and examined by the kings moſt honorable counſell more plainlie appeareth. In which books be written ſuch termes and ſentences of reproch and ſlander againſt the kings highneſſe and the quéene, which were too ſhamefull to be written againſt the moſt vile & vngratious perſons liuing, which to heare, it would abhorre euerie true ſubiect of this realme.

¶ And after the ſaid Elizabeth, by ſuch hir falſe and feined hypocriſie and diſſembled ſanctitie, was brought into a great brute and fame of the people in ſundrie parts of this realme, then the ſaid Edward Bocking, by procurement and ſecret conſpiracie of diuers perſons vnknowne, which maligned againſt the procéedings of the kings highneſſe, for the ſeparation and diuorſe in the ſaid deteſted and vnlawfull marriage, traitorouſlie intending to put the kings highneſſe in a murmur and euill opinion of his people, for the ſame counſelled & ſtirred the ſaid Elizabeth, that ſhe ſhould aſke a petition of almightie God, to know whether God was diſpleaſed with the kings highnes, for procéeding in the ſaid diuorſe and ſeparation of the marriage betwéene his highnes and the ſaid ladie Katherine, declaring to hir manie times, that he and diuers other notable learned men of this realme, and manie of the common people of the ſame, were in firme opinions, that the kings procéedings in the ſaid diuorſe, was againſt the lawes of God. Whervpon the ſaid Elizabeth ſubtillie & craftilie conceiuing the opinion and mind of the ſaid Edward, willing to pleaſe him, reuealed and ſhewed vnto the ſaid Edward that ſhe had knowlege by reuelation from God, that God was highlie diſpleaſed with our ſaid ſoueraigne lord for yͤ ſame matter. And in caſe he deſiſted not from his procéedings in the ſaid diuorſe & ſeparation, but purſued the ſame, and maried againe, that then within one moneth after ſuch mariage, he ſhould no longer be king of this relme: and in the reputation of almightie God, ſhould not be a king one daie nor one houre, and that he ſhould die a villens death. Saieng further, that there was a root with thrée branches, and till they were plucked vp, it ſhould neuer be merie in England, interpreting the root, to be the late lord cardinall, and the firſt branch to be the king our ſouereigne lord, the ſecond the duke of Norfolke, & the third the duke of Suffolke. Which falſe feined reuelations, by the miſchéeuous and malicious counſell and conſpiracie of the ſaid Edward Bocking with the ſaid Elizabeth, were written and expreſſed in the ſaid bookes and volumes, conteining the falſe and feined reuelations and miracles of the ſaid Elizabeth, for a perpetuall memorie thereof, to the vtter reproch and perill of deſtruction of the kings perſon, his honor, fame and name, and priuilie and ſecretlie ſet forth by the ſaid Elizabeth, Edward Bocking, John Dering, and Richard Maſter, generallie to diuers and manie of the kings ſubiects, and ſpeciallie as to elect perſons, and to the reuerend father, John biſhop of Rocheſter, and John Adeſon clerke, chapleine to the ſame biſhop, & to one Henrie Gold préeſt, bachelor of diuinitie, to Hugh Rich, frier obſeruant, and late warden of the friers obſeruants of Canturburie, which beare malice & malignitie to all the kings procéedings in the ſaid diuorſe & ſeparation, becauſe it was contrarie to their peruerſe and froward opinions, intending by colour of the ſaid falſe and feined hypocriſie and reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth, not onelie to let the ſaid diuorſe and ſeparation, but alſo to bring and ſet forth ſecretlie in the heads of the people of this realme, aſwell nobles as other, that all the kings acts and procéedings in the ſame were againſt holie ſcriptures and the pleaſure of almightie God, whereby the kings highneſſe ſhould be brought in a grudge and euill opinion of his people. And the ſaid John biſhop of Rocheſter, Henrie Gold, Hugh Rich, Richard Riſbie, Richard Maſter, John Dering, at ſundrie and ſeuerall times and places ſpake with the ſaid Elizabeth, and tooke relation of hir of the ſaid falſe and feined reuelations, which ſhe feined that ſhe had of almightie God, aſwell concerning the kings highneſſe as other, after the forme and termes aboue ſpecified: and hauing knowledge thereof, the ſaid Hugh Rich, Richard Riſbie, and Henrie Gold clerke gaue ſuch firme and conſtant credit thereunto, that they traitorouſlie concealed it from the kings highneſſe, and traitorouſlie beléeued in their hearts, that the king our ſouereigne lord, after his late mariage ſolemnized betwéene his highneſſe and his ſaid moſt deare and intirelie beloued wife quéene Anne, was no longer rightfull king of this realme, in the reputation of almightie God, whereby in their hearts and wils they traitorouſlie withdrew from his highnes their naturall duties of obedience: and ſecretlie taught and mooued other perſons (to whom they reuealed the ſaid falſe and feined reuelations) that they ought and might lawfullie doo in the ſame wiſe: and practiſed the ſaid matters againſt the kings maieſtie, falſlie, maliciouſlie and traitorouſlie at ſundrie places and times with the fathers and nuns of Sion, and diuerſe monks of the Charterhouſe of London and Shene, and with diuerſe friers obſeruants of the places of Richmont, and Gréenewich and Canturburie, and to diuerſe others both ſpirituall and temporall perſons in great number, to the intent to ſow a ſecret murmur & grudge in the hearts of the kings ſubiects, againſt the maieſtie of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and all his procéedings in the ſaid diuorſe and ſeparation, intending thereby to make ſuch a diuiſion and rebelling in this realme amongſt the kings ſubiects, wherby the kings highneſſe ſhould not onelie haue béene put to perill of his life, but alſo in ieopardie to be depriued from his crowne and dignitie roiall.

¶ And for a more plaine and particular declaration of the malicious and traitorous intents of the ſaid Elizabeth, Edward Bocking, John Dering, Hugh Rich, Richard Riſbie & Henrie Gold, they concluded by a confederacie among themſelues, ech with other, to ſet forth in ſermons & preachings the reuelations to the people of this relme, againſt the kings maieſtie, whenſoeuer it ſhould pleaſe the ſaid Elizabeth to appoint them the time, when they ſhould ſo doo: and agréed with ech other ſecretlie, and ſet forth the ſaid falſe and feined reuelations to their acquaintance and fréends in this realme, intending to make a great multitude of people of this realme, by their ſecret conſpiracies, in an aptneſſe to receiue and take ſuch their ſermons and preachings, which they intended to make, as is aforeſaid, concerning the premiſſes, traitorouſlie intending thereby to put our ſaid ſouereigne lord not onelie in the perill of his life, but alſo in the ieopardie of loſſe and depriuation of his crowne and dignitie roiall of this realme from him and his lawfull ſucceſſion for euer. And in accompliſhing their falſe, traitorous & malicious intents againſt our ſaid ſouereigne lord, they cauſed the ſaid Elizabeth, at two times ſecretlie to declare the ſaid falſe and feined reuelations, to two of the popes orators & amballadors at the cities of Canturburie and London. At which time the ſaid Henrie Gold tooke vpon him to be interpretator thereof, betwéene the ſaid Elizabeth, and one of the ſaid orators named Anthonie Pulleon, and the interpretator to the other orator named Silueſter, was the foreſaid Laurence of Canturburie, to the intent the kings highnes, and all his procéedings in the ſaid diuorſe & ſeparation ſhould be brought into an euill opinion with the pope and other outward princes & potentats: and the ſaid Hugh Rich actuallie trauelled to ſundrie places in this realme, and made ſecret relation of the premiſſes, concerning the kings highneſſe, to diuerſe lords both ſpirituall and temporall, and diuerſe other perſons laie and learned, ſecular and religious. And the ſaid Henrie Gold ouer this, actuallie trauelled and made relation thereof to the ſaid ladie Katherine princeſſe dowager, to animat hir to make commotion in this realme, againſt our ſaid ſouereigne lord, ſurmiſing that the ſaid Elizabeth ſhould haue by reuelation of God, that the ſaid ladie Katherine ſhould proſper and doo well, and that hir iſſue the ladie Marie the kings daughter, ſhould proſper and reigne in this realme, and haue manie fréends to ſuſteine and mainteine hir: and the ſaid Elizabeth and Edward Bocking, John Dering and Richard Maſter likewiſe actuallie trauelled to diuerſe places in this realme, and made ſecret relations of the ſaid falſe feigned hypocriſie & reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth, and gaue knowledge héreof to diuerſe other ſundrie perſons of this realme.

¶ All which conſpiracies and confederacies of the ſaid Elizabeth, and other hir complices, aboue mentioned, was traitorouſlie & maliciouſlie deuiſed and practiſed by the ſaid Elizabeth, Edward Bocking, Iohn Dering, Richard Maſter, Henrie Gold, Hugh Rich, and Richard Riſbie, to the intent traitorouſlie to deſtroie our ſouereigne lord, and to depriue him and his lawfull ſucceſſion from the crowne and dignitie roiall of this realme, which matter hath béene practiſed and imagined amongſt them for the ſpace of manie yéers: wherof the whole circumſtance were verie long to be written in this act. And the ſaid Iohn Fiſher biſhop of Rocheſter, and one Thomas Gold, gentleman, and the ſaid Thomas Laurence, Edward Thwaits, and Iohn Adeſon chapleine to the ſaid Iohn biſhop of Rocheſter, hauing knowledge of the falſe feigned and diſſembled reuelations, traitorouſlie conſpired againſt our ſaid ſouereigne lord (as is aforeſaid) did neuertheleſſe make concealment thereof, and vttered not the ſame to our ſaid ſouereigne, nor anie his honorable counſell, againſt their duties and allegiance in that behalfe.

¶ And futhermore the ſaid Thomas Gold, for the accompliſhment of his ſaid moſt traitorous intent, hath of late béene a meſſenger from the ſaid Elizabeth, ſince ſhe was in ward in the Tower of London for the ſaid moſt falſe and traitorous offenſes, by hir and hir ſaid complices committed and doone (he then being at libertie) by his meſſage hath comforted diuerſe others to ſtand ſtiflie by hir reuelations, that they were of God: notwithſtanding that ſhe had confeſſed all hir ſaid falſehood before diuerſe of the kings counſellors, and that they were manifeſtlie proued, found and tried moſt falſe and vntrue: which thing he did onelie to raiſe and put ſedition and murmur in the people againſt the kings highneſſe, his crowne and dignitie roiall. And one Thomas Abell clerke, being of the confederacie aforeſaid, and taking ſuch firme and conſtant credit to the ſaid falſe and feigned reuelations and miracles of the ſaid nun, not onelie cauſed to be printed and ſet forth, in this realme diuerſe books againſt the ſaid diuorce & ſeparation, to the ſlander of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, but alſo animated the ſaid ladie Katherine obſtinatlie to perſiſt in hir wilfull opinion againſt the ſame diuorce and ſeparation: and after the ſaid diuorſe lawfullie had, to vſurpe and take vpon hir ſtill to be quéene, and procured diuerſe writings to be made by hir, by the name of quéene: and alſo procured and abbetted the ſeruants of the ſaid ladie Katherine againſt the kings expreſſe commandement and proclamation, to name, call, accept, and repute the ſaid ladie Katherine for quéene of this realme: to the intent to make a common diuiſion and rebellion in this realme, to the great perill and danger of our ſaid ſouereigne lord.

¶ In conſideration of all which premiſſes, and foraſmuch as the ſaid falſe feigned & diſſembled hypocriſie, cloked ſanctitie, reuelations, and feigned miracles of the ſaid Elizabeth, is plainlie confeſſed before the kings moſt honorable counſell by the ſaid offendors, and hath bin ſet forth in this realme, not onelie to the blaſphemie of almightie God, whereby a great multitude of people of this realme were not onelie induced to idolatrie, but alſo brought into a murmur and grudge amongſt themſelues, to the great perill of the deſtruction of our ſaid ſouereigne lord and his ſucceſſion, and to the ieopardie of a great common rebellion and inſurrection in this realme, to the vtter deſolation thereof, if by the goodneſſe of almightie God, and by the great trauell of the kings highneſſe and his nobles and counſellors, by great ſearches and examinations, it had not bin reuealed & knowne.

Miſpriſion of treaſon

Impriſon

¶ Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid Elizabeth Barton, Richard Maſter, Edward Bocking, Iohn Dering, Hugh Rich, Richard Riſbie, and Henrie Gold, for their ſeuerall offenſes aboue rehearſed, by them recognized and confeſſed, ſhall be conuict and attainted of high treaſon, and ſhall ſuffer ſuch execution and pains of death as in caſes of high treaſon hath béene accuſtomed, and ſhall looſe and forfeit to our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, all ſuch lands, tenements and hereditaments, as they or anie of them had of eſtate of inheritance, in vſe or poſſeſſion at the twentith daie of October laſt paſt, or anie time ſince: and alſo all ſuch their goods & chattels as they or anie other to their vſe had the ſixtéenth daie of Ianuarie laſt paſt, or any time ſince. And that alſo all ſuch benefices and ſpirituall promotions, which the ſaid Richard Maſter, and Henrie Gold, or anie of them had at the ſixtéenth daie of Ianuarie, or anie time ſince, ſhall from the ſaid ſixtéenth daie of Ianuarie be void, as though the ſame Richard and Henrie were dead of their naturall deathes. And that the ſaid Iohn biſhop of Rocheſter, Thomas Gold, Thomas Laurence, Edward Thwaits, Iohn Adeſon, and Thomas Abell, for their ſaid ſeuerall offenſes ſhall be conuict & attainted of miſpriſion & concealement of treaſon, as perſons that haue giuen ſuch credit, counſell and conſtant beléefe to the ſaid principall offendors, whereby they haue taken courage and boldneſſe to commit their ſaid deteſtable treaſons and offenſes: and that the ſaid Iohn biſhop of Rocheſter, Tho. Gold, Thomas Laurence, Edward Thwaits, Iohn Adeſon, and Thomas Abell for their ſaid ſeuerall offenſes by them committed, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of their bodies at the kings will, and looſe and forfeit to the kings highneſſe all their goods, chattels and debts, which they or anie perſons to their vſes, or by their deliuerie had the ſaid ſixtéenth daie of Ianuarie, or anie time ſince the ſaid daie. And that ſuch benefices and ſpirituall promotions as the ſaid Iohn Adeſon, and Thomas Abell, or anie of them had the ſaid ſixtéenth day of Ianuarie, ſhall from the twentith daie of March, the yéere of our Lord 1533 be void in the law, by authoritie of this act, as if the ſaid Iohn Adeſon and Thomas Abell were dead of their naturall deathes.

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that proclamation ſhall be made vnder the kings great ſeale, in all ſhires, cities, boroughs and townes corporat in this realme, aſwell within libertie as without, conteining the tenor of this act, to the intent that the cloked, falſe, and diſſimulat offenſes of the offendors may be knowne, and the people therby to take an example of dread to offend in like caſes héereafter, and that in euerie of be ſaid proclamations ſhall alſo be added and conteined, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which haue in their cuſtodie and kéeping anie books, ſcrols or writings conteining anie the falſe, feined reuelations and diſſembled miracles of the ſaid Elizabeth, or anie of them, ſhall within fortie daies next after ſuch proclamations bring or cauſe to be brought the ſaid books, ſcrols & writings vnto the lord chancellor of England, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, and lord priuie ſeale, or to one of them, vpon paine of impriſonment, and fine making to the king our ſoueraigne lord. And if anie perſon or perſons after ſuch proclamations had and made according as is aboue ſaid, knowinglie and willinglie doo reteine and kéepe anie ſuch books, eſcrols or writings, and cauſe them not to be deliuered according to the tenor of the ſaid proclamation aboue rehearſed: that then anie perſon offending the ſame, and being thereof by due examination conuict before anie of the kings counſell, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, and make fine to the king, by the diſcretion of the kings counſell, according to the merits of his offenſe.

¶ And that albeit a great number and multitude of other the kings ſubiects of this realme, aſwell ſpirituall as temporall, whoſe names be not aboue ſpeciallie mentioned, by their great negligences and follies, inclined to new fanglenes, haue ſpoken with the ſame Elizabeth, and other hir complices and conſpirators aboue ſpecified, and haue had relation and knowledge to them giuen in and vpon the feined and falſe reuelations and miracles aboue rehearſed, aſwell concerning our ſaid ſoueraigne lord as otherwiſe: and haue made concealement thereof, not vttering the ſame vnto the kings maieſtie, nor to anie his honorable counſell, as to the duties of true léege men apperteineth in that behalfe, whereby they worthilie haue deſerued to ſuffer ſuch puniſhment, paines and loſſes as perſons concealing treaſons and other high offenſes, touching the honor and ſuretie of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, ought of good reaſon equitie and law to doo. ¶ Yet neuertheleſſe the kings roiall maieſtie, at the humble ſute and contemplation of his moſt déere, entire, and welbeloued wife quéene Anne, of his moſt gratious benignitie is pleaſed and contented, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all and euerie other his ſubiects not aboue conuicted and attainted by this act, ſhall be releaſed, acquited, and cléerelie pardoned againſt his highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, of and for all maner of concealements, offenſes, treſpaſſes, communications, miſpriſions, contempts & miſdemeanors, which they or anie of them before the twentith daie of October laſt paſt committed or did concerning the ſaid falſe and feined miracles and reuelations of the ſaid Elizabeth, or anie part therof, and of all circumſtances and demeanors touching the ſame, ſo that none of his ſaid ſubiects, other than be aboue conuicted by this act, ſhall héerafter by anie meanes be impeached, challenged or troubled by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors concerning the premiſſes or anie part or circumſtance thereof: but ſhall be by this preſent act pardoned and releaſed thereof for euer.

FOraſmuch as diuers and ſundrie perſons of the kings ſubiects of this realme, to whome God of his goodnes hath diſpoſed great plentie of moueable ſubſtance, now of late within few yéers haue daily ſtudied, practiſed and inuented waies and means how they might accumulat and gather togither into few hands aſwell great multitude of farms, as great plentie of cattell, and in eſpeciall ſhéepe, putting ſuch lands as they can get, to paſture, and not to tillage: whereby they haue not onelie pulled downe churches & townes, and inhanſed the old rates of the rents of the poſſeſſions of this realme, or elſe brought it to ſuch exceſſiue fines, that no poore man is able to meddle with it, but alſo haue raiſed and inhanſed the priſes of all maner of corne, cattell, wooll, pigs, géeſe, hens, chickins, egs, & ſuch other, almoſt double aboue the priſes, which haue beene accuſtomed: by reaſon whereof a marueilous multitude and number of the people of this realme be not able to prouide meat, drinke and clothes neceſſarie for themſelues, their wiues and children, but be ſo diſcouraged with miſerie and pouertie, that they fall dailie to theft, robberie, and other inconuenience, or pitifullie die for hunger and cold. And as it is thought by the kings moſt humble and louing ſubiects, one of the greateſt occaſions that moueth and prouoketh thoſe gréedie and couetous people ſo to accumulat and kéepe in their hands ſuch great portions and parts of the grounds and lands of this realme from the occupieng of the poore huſband men, and ſo to vſe it in paſture and not in tillage, is onelie the great profit that commeth of ſhéepe, which now be come into a few perſons hands of this realme, in reſpect of the whole number of the kings ſubiects, that ſome haue 24000, ſome 20000, ſome 10000, ſome 6000, ſome 5000, and ſome more, & ſome leſſe, by the which, a good ſhéepe for vittell, that was accuſtomed to be ſold for two ſhillings foure penſe or thrée ſhillings at the moſt, is now ſold for ſix ſhillings, or fiue ſhillings, or foure ſhillings at the leaſt: and a ſtone of clothing wooll, that in ſome ſhire of this realme was accuſtomed to be ſold for xviij.d. or xx.d. is now ſold for iiij.s. or iij.s. iiij.d. at the leaſt: and in ſome countries, where it hath bin ſold for ij.s. iiij.d. or ij.s. viij.d. or iij.s. at the moſt, it is now ſold for v.s. or iiij.s. viij.d. at the leaſt: and ſo arraiſed in euerie part of this realme. Which things thus vſed, be pꝛincipallie to the high diſpleaſure of almightie God, to the decaie of the hoſpitalitie of this realme, to the diminiſhing of the kings people, and to the let of the clothmaking, whereby manie pooꝛe people haue béene accuſtomed to be ſet on woꝛke: and in concluſion, if remedie be not found, it maie turne to the vtter deſtruction and deſolation of this realme, which God defend. It maie therefoꝛe pleaſe the kings highneſſe, of his moſt gratious and godlie diſpoſition, and the loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, of their goodnes and charitie, with the aſſent of the commons in this pꝛeſent parlement aſſembled, to oꝛdeine and enact, by authoꝛitie of the ſame, that no perſon noꝛ perſons from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Loꝛd God 1535, ſhall kéepe, occupie, oꝛ haue in his poſſeſſion in his owne pꝛoper lands, noꝛ in the poſſeſſion, lands noꝛ grounds of anie other, which he ſhall haue oꝛ occupie in farme, noꝛ otherwiſe, haue of his owne pꝛoper chattell, in vſe, poſſeſſion, oꝛ pꝛopertie by anie maner of meanes, fraud, craft oꝛ couine, aboue the number of two thouſand ſhéepe at one time, within anie part of this realme, of all ſoꝛts and kinds, vpon paine to looſe and foꝛfeit foꝛ euerie ſhéepe that anie perſon oꝛ perſons ſhall haue oꝛ kéepe aboue the number limited by this act, two ſhillings and foure penſe: the one halfe to the king our ſouereigne loꝛd, and the other halfe to ſuch perſon as will ſue foꝛ the ſame, by oꝛiginall writ of debt, bill, plaint oꝛ infoꝛmation in anie court of recoꝛd, in which ſute the defendant ſhall not wage his law, noꝛ haue anie eſſoine oꝛ protection allowed.

Executoꝛ

¶ Pꝛouided alſo, that if anie perſon hauing ſhéepe of his owne, happen to be made executoꝛ, oꝛ to be adminiſtratoꝛ to anie perſon which had ſhéepe at his death, oꝛ happen to be married to anie perſon, which ſhall happen to haue ſhéepe at the time of the marriage: by reaſon whereof the perſon, ſo being executoꝛ oꝛ adminiſtratoꝛ, oꝛ being ſo married, ſhall happen by ſuch meanes to be aduanced, and haue aboue the ſaid number of two thouſand, that then in euerie ſuch caſe, the perſon ſo aduanced to looſe no penaltie foꝛ hauing aboue the number of two thouſand ſhéepe by ſuch meanes, ſo that within one yéere next after ſuch aduancement, the perſon ſo aduanced from time to time, as often as anie ſuch caſe ſhall happen, doo put to ſale, oꝛ otherwiſe diſpoſe ſo manie of the ſaid ſhéepe, ſo to him aduanced, oꝛ elſe of his owne ſhéepe that he had befoꝛe, ſo that aboue one yéere he ſhall not kéepe, haue oꝛ occupie by anie ſuch meanes, oꝛ otherwiſe by anie fraud oꝛ couine, anie moꝛe number of them, than is befoꝛe limited by this act, vpon paine befoꝛe rehearſed.

Deuiſe to childꝛen

Pꝛouided alſo, that if anie perſon by his laſt will and teſtament, giue to anie child within age, anie number of ſhéepe, and appoint them by his ſaid will, to be kept by his executoꝛs, oꝛ by anie other perſon, vnto ſuch time as the ſaid child ſhall come to a certeine age limited by his will, that then in euerie ſuch caſe, after the death of the teſtatoꝛ, the ſaid ſhéepe ſo being in the poſſeſſion and occupation of the executoꝛs, oꝛ of anie other perſon, to the vſe of anie ſuch child within age, foꝛ that time onlie that the ſaid child ſhall be within the age, that he ſhall be limited to haue the ſaid ſhéepe by the will of the teſtatoꝛ, ſhall not be accounted againſt the ſaid executoꝛs, noꝛ anie perſon ſo hauing the ſaid ſhéepe, foꝛ the intent afoꝛeſaid, of the number of the ſhéepe pꝛohibited by this act: anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶ And it is further enacted, that the iuſtices of the peace of euerie ſhire, ſhall haue power ⁊ authoꝛitie to inquire of the offendoꝛs of this act, aſwell by the othes of twelue men, as by infoꝛmation of anie of the kings ſubiects, and to make ſuch like pꝛoceſſe vpon euerie ſuch pꝛeſentment oꝛ infoꝛmation concerning this act, as they vſing commonlie to doo vpon pꝛeſentments befoꝛe them of treſpaſſe; and that no perſon being conuict by confeſſion oꝛ otherwiſe, that he hath doone oꝛ attempted contrarie to this act, ſhall be put to anie leſſe fine than after the rates of the foꝛfeitures afoꝛe limited by this act.

So that the ſame houſholder at no one time ſhall haue or kéepe for the expenſes of his houſhold, or by colour of the ſame, ouer and aboue the number to him limited by this act, anie number of ſhéepe mo than ſhall ſuffiſe for the onelie expenſes of his houſhold for one yéere, without fraud or couin, anie thing in this preſent act mentioned or expreſſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Expenſes of houſes

¶ Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner perſon or perſons, of what degrée ſo euer he or they be, being lord or lords, owner or owners, farmar or farmars, of or in anie libertie of foldcourſes, within anie towne, tithing, village, or hamlet, within anie of the counties of Norfolke & Suffolke, from and after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God next comming, ſhall take in farme for terme of yéeres, or otherwiſe anie quillets of lands or paſtures, that is to ſaie, anie number of acres of land or paſture, apperteining to anie other perſon or perſons, lieng and being within the limit, extent, or precinct of the ſaid libertie of the ſaid foldcourſes: but that they ſhall permit and ſuffer the ſaid perſons, hauing or being for the time owner or owners, leaſée or leaſées of the ſaid quillets, to manure and paſture the ſaid quillets. And alſo to ſuffer the ſhéepe of the ſaid owner or owners, farmar or farmars of the ſaid quillets, after the rate of the ſame quillets to go with the flocke of the owner, farmar, or occupier of the ſaid libertie or liberties of the ſaid foldcourſes, paieng the cuſtomarie charges for the kéeping and féeding of the ſame, after the rate and vſe of the countrie there commonlie vſed, without anie interruption therein to be made by the ſaid owner or owners, farmar or farmars, or occupiers of the ſaid liberties, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie time that anie ſuch perſon, hauing anie ſuch quillet that ſhall be ſo letted or diſturbed of féeding, kéeping, or paſturing anie of his ſhéepe, ſo to be fed and kept after the rate of his ſaid quillet, for euerie ſuch ſhéepe thrée ſhillings foure penſe.

¶ Prouided alwaie that this act or branch concerning quillets, or anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not in anie wiſe be auaileable to anie tenant, owner or occupier of anie ſuch quillet or quillets, to claime, haue, or vſe héereafter anie ſuch paſture or féeding of his ſhéepe, or with anie ſuch foldcourſes, but onelie where the tenants, owners, and occupiers of anie ſuch quillets haue had or might haue had héeretofore, or of right & dutie vſed to haue paſture and féeding in the ſaid foldcourſes, by reaſon of their tenures and occupations of the ſame quillet and quillets, and none otherwiſe. And where they haue not vſed, nor ought to haue anie ſhéepe fed or kept within anie ſuch foldcourſes, by reaſon of the ſaid tenures that the owners or occupiers of ſuch foldcourſes, maie take ſuch quillets, lieng within their foldcourſes, in farme agréeing with the owners or occupiers of the ſaid quillets for the ſame.

¶ And for as much as the number of the hundred of ſhéepe in euerie countrie be not like, in ſome countrie to the great hundred where ſix ſcore is accounted for the hundred, and ſome countrie but onelie fiue ſcore, it is eft declared by this preſent act, that the number of two thouſand ſhéepe, limited to euerie perſon by this act, ſhall be accounted ten hundred for euerie thouſand, after the number of the great hundred, and not after the leſſe hundred, ſo that euerie thouſand ſhall conteine twelue hundred after the leſſe number of the hundred.

¶ It is alſo further prouided by the authoritie aforeſaid, that lambs vnder the age of one whole yéere, and as much as ſhall be from the time of the falling of them vnto the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt in anie yéere to come, ſhall not be adiudged, ne taken for ſhéepe prohibited by this eſtatute, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Lambs

¶ It is alſo further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner perſon after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, ſhall receiue and take in farme for terme of life, yéeres, or

And that no maner perſon ſhall haue or occupie anie ſuch holds,ſo newlie taken to the number of two, as is before expreſſed, except he or they be dwelling within the ſame pariſhes,where ſuch holds be, vpon the paine of forfeiture for euerie weeke, that he or they ſhall haue, occupie, or take anie profits of ſuch holds contrarie to this act three ſhillings foure penſe. The one moitie of which forfeiture to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts,by bill,plaint,information,or other wiſe within one yeere next after ſuch contempt and offenſe committed and doone, in the which none eſſoine,protection, ne wager of law ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Continuance

¶ It is alſo further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſtatutes made in the fourth yéere of the noble prince king Henrie the eight,& in the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, concerning the decaie of townes, and maintenance of tillage and huſbandrie, ſhall be good and effectuall in euerie thing according to the true purport and intent of the ſame,anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Spirituall perſons

¶ Prouided alſo that it maie be lawfull to all ſpirituall perſons and euerie of them, to kéepe ſuch and as manie ſheepe vpon their owne lands, and after ſuch forme and maner and none otherwiſe, as they might haue doone afore the making of this act, anie thing mentioned in the ſame to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for puniſhment of hereſie.

Chap.14.

IN moſt humble wiſe lamentablie ſheweth vnto your highneſſe, your moſt humble, louing and obedient ſubiects, the commons of this your realme, that where the clergie of the ſame,in the ſecond yéere of king Henrie the fourth, one of your moſt noble progenitors, vpon their ſuggeſtion did impetrat and obteine by authoritie of parlement holden in the ſaid ſecond yeere, that it ſhould be lawfull for euerie ordinarie to conuent, arreſt, and impriſon anie perſon or perſons,whom they thought defamed or ſuſpect of hereſie, and them to keepe in their priſons till they were purged thereof, or abiured, or committed to laie power to be burned, after the determination of the holie church and canonicall ſanctions, as in an act made at the parlement holden in the ſaid ſecond yéere of king Henrie the fourth amongſt other things more at large doth appéere: For as much as the ſaid act doth not in anie part thereof declare anie certeine caſes of hereſie, contrarie to the determination of holie ſcripture, or the canonicall ſanctions therein expreſſed,whereby your moſt louing and obedient ſubiects might be learned to eſchew the dangers and paines in the ſaid act compriſed, and to abhor and deteſt that fowle and deteſtable crime of hereſie. And alſo bicauſe thoſe words canonicall ſanctions, and ſuch other like conteined in the ſaid act, are ſo generall, that vnneth the moſt expert and beſt learned man of this your realme, diligentlie lieng in wait vpon himſelfe, can eſchew and auoid the penaltie and dangers of the ſame act and canonicall ſanctions, if he ſhould be examined vpon ſuch captious interrogatories, as is and hath béene accuſtomed to be miniſtred by the ordinaries of this realme,in caſes where they will ſuſpect anie perſon or perſons of hereſie. And ouer this for as much as it ſtandeth not with the right order of iuſtice nor good equitie, that anie perſon ſhould be conuict,and put to the loſſe of his life,good name,or goods, vnleſſe it were by due accuſation and witneſſe, or by preſentment, verdict, confeſſion, or proces of outlawrie : and alſo by the lawes of your realme,for treaſons committed to the perill of your moſt roiall maieſtie, vpon whoſe ſuretie dependeth the whole wealth of this realme, no perſon can ne maie be put to death but by preſentment,verdict,confeſſion,or proces of outlawrie,as is aforeſaid. Wherefore it is not reaſonable, that anie ordinarie by anie ſuſpection conceiued of his owne fantaſie, without due accuſation or preſentment,ſhould put anie ſubiect of this realme in the infamie and ſlander of hereſie, to the perill of life,loſſe of name and goods. And that alſo there be manie hereſies and paines, and puniſhment for hereſies declared and ordeined, in, and by the canonicall ſanctions, and by the lawes and ordinances made by the popes or biſhops of Rome, and by their authorities, for holding, doing, preaching,or ſpeaking of things contrarie to the ſaid canonicall ſanctions,lawes, and ordinances, which be but humane,being méere repugnant and contrarious to the prerogatiue of your imperiall crowne, regall iuriſdiction, lawes, ſtatutes, and ordinances of this your realme: by reaſon whereof your people of the ſame, obſeruing, mainteining, defending, and due executing of your ſaid lawes,ſtatutes,and prerogatiue roiall,by authoritie of that act, made in the ſaid ſecond yéere of king Henrie the fourth maie be brought into ſlander of hereſie, to their great infamie and danger,and perill of their liues.

¶ In conſideration whereof it maie pleaſe your highnes, by the aſſent of your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame,to adnull,abrogate,fruſtrate, & make void the ſaid act, made in the ſaid ſecond yéere of king

Repeale hereſie

Henrie the fourth and euerie thing therein conteined. And neuertheleſſe for as much as the moſt fowle and deteſtable crime of hereſie,ſhould not héereafter grow & increaſe, but vtterlie be abhorred,deteſted,& eradicat,ne that anie heretiks ſhould be fauored,but that they ſhould haue condigne & ſufficient puniſhment.And for the repres of heretiks,& ſuch erronious opinions in time comming be it eſtabliſhed, ordeined,and enacted,by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that the ſtatute made in the fift yéere of your noble progenitor king Richard the ſecond, and the ſtatute made in the ſecond yéere of king Henrie the fift, concerning puniſhment and reformation of heretikes and lollards, and euerie prouiſion therein conteined, not being repugnant to this act: ſhall be and ſtand in their force, ſtrength, and effect.

Continuation

¶ Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted for ſpéedie preſentment to be had of hereſies, that ſuch perſon and perſons, as haue in vſe or in poſſeſſion to their owne vſe, in fée ſimple, fée taile, for terme of their owne liues, or of anie other perſons life, lands, and tenements, to the cléere yéerelie value of fortie ſhillings, ſhall be impaneled, and haue power and authoritie to inquire and preſent hereſies. And that euerie preſentment made by ſuch perſons, ſhall be as good and effectuall and be put in execution to all intents, in like maner and forme as if euerie the preſentors had had lands and tenements, to the yéerelie value of a hundred ſhillings, according to the tenor of this act of king Henrie the fift, anie thing in the ſaid act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Iurors liuings

¶ Prouided alſo and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that ſhirifs in their turnes, and all other hauing turnes, and ſtewards in their léets, rapes, and wapentakes, ſhall haue power and authoritie to inquire of heretikes like as they inquire of common anoiſances, and that euerie preſentment made in anie turne, léet, rape, or wapentake concerning hereſies, ſhall be certified to the ordinarie, in ſuch maner and forme as preſentments afore anie iuſtice aſſigned by the ſaid act of king Henrie the fift, are limited and appointed by the ſame act to be certified: and like proces ſhall be had, made, and executed, vpon euerie ſuch preſentment to be made in anie turne, léet, rape, or wapentake, as is limited in the ſaid act of king Henrie the fift vpon preſentments taken afore the iuſtices aſſigned by the ſame act to inquire of hereſies.

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it enacted, that no maner of licence or authoritie, or other thing or things be héereafter had or obteined of the biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, to preach in anie part of this realme, or to doo anie thing in the ſame contrarie to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, or the kings prerogatiue roiall, vpon the paines limited in the ſaid laws and ſtatutes of this realme: anie thing conteined in the preamble of the ſaid eſtatute of king Richard the ſecond, or in anie the ſtatutes before rehearſed, or in anie ſtatutes of this realme to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie perſon and perſons being preſented or indicted of anie hereſie, or dulie accuſed or detected thereof by two lawfull witneſſes at the leaſt, to anie ordinaries of this realme, hauing power to examine hereſies, ſhall and maie after euerie ſuch accuſation or preſentment, and none otherwiſe, nor by anie other meanes be cited, conuented, arreſted, taken, or apprehended by anie the ſaid ordinaries, or anie other the kings miniſters and ſubiects who ſo euer. And after they ſhall be ſo taken and apprehended, ſhall be committed to the ordinaries, to anſwer in open court, and in an open place to their ſuch accuſation and preſentments. And if they ſhall happen to be lawfullie conuict of the hereſie, whereof they are ſo accuſed or preſented: that then they ſhall abiure if they will refuſe and renounce their ſaid hereſies, whereof they ſhall be ſo accuſed or preſented, as is aforeſaid, and doo ſuch reaſonable penance for their offenſes, as ſhall be limited by the diſcretion of the ſaid ordinaries. And if they after their lawfull conuiction, refuſe to abiure, or after abiuration fall in relapſe, and be dulie accuſed or preſented, and conuict thereof, as is aforeſaid, that then in ſuch caſes they ſhall be committed to laie power, to be burned in open places for example of other, as hath béene accuſtomed, the kings writ, De hæretico comburendo, firſt had and obteined for the ſame.

¶ And where the great number of the kings ſubiects, hauing little or no learning nor knowledge of letters, haue béene put in opinion, that by diuers lawes, decrées, ordinances, and conſtitutions héeretofore made by the biſhop of Rome, called the pope, and his predeceſſors, or by their authorities for the aduancement of their worldlie glorie and ambition, euerie man, that in anie thing ſpeaketh or dooth againſt the ſaid pretenſed power, or authoritie of the ſame biſhop of Rome, or anie the ſaid lawes, decrées, ordinances, and conſtitutions ſtandeth in danger, and is impeachable of hereſie: which effect or matter, nor anie ſuch lawes, decrees, ordinances, or conſtitutions, not approued and confirmed by holie ſcripture, was neuer commonlie accepted or confirmed to be anie law of God or man within this realme. Wherefore be it enacted and ordeined by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no maner ſpeaking, dooing, communication, or holding againſt the ſaid biſhop of Rome, or his pretenſed power or authoritie, made or giuen by humane lawes or policies, and not by holie ſcripture: nor anie ſpeaking, dooing, communication or holding againſt anie lawes, called ſpirituall lawes, made by authoritie of the ſée of Rome, by the policie of men, which be repugnant, or contrariant to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, or the kings prerogatiue roiall, ſhall be déemed, reputed, accepted, or taken to be hereſie. Nor that anie ſubiect or reſiant of this realme ſhall be for anie ſuch ſpeaking, dooing, communication, or holding, impeached, vexed, or troubled for anie point or matter of the ſaid deteſtable crime of hereſie: anie whatſoeuer canon lawes, decrées, ordinances, conſtitutions, or other thing héeretofore made, or being, or héereafter to be made to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act concerning printers and binders of books.

Chap. 15.

WHere as by the prouiſion of a ſtatute made in the firſt yéere of the reigne of king Richard the third, it was prouided in the ſame act, that all ſtrangers repairing into this realme, might lawfullie bring into the ſaid realme printed and written books to ſell at their libertie and pleaſure, by force of which prouiſion there hath comen into this realme ſithen the making of the ſame, a maruellous number of printed books, and dailie dooth. And the cauſe of the making of the ſame prouiſion ſéemeth to be, for that there were but few books and few printers within this realme at that time, which could well exerciſe and occupie the ſaid ſcience and craft of printing: neuertheleſſe, ſithen the making of the ſaid prouiſion, manie of this realme, being the kings naturall ſubiects, haue giuen them ſo diligentlie to learne and exerciſe the ſaid craft of printing, that at this daie there be within this realme a great number cunning and expert in the ſaid ſcience or craft of printing, as able to exerciſe the ſaid craft in all points, as anie ſtranger in anie other realme or countrie. And furthermore where there be a great number of the kings ſubiects within this realme, which liue by the craft and myſterie of binding of books, and that there be a great multitude well expert in the ſame: yet all this notwithſtanding there are diuers perſons, that bring from beyond the ſea great plentie of printed books, not onelie in the latin toong, but alſo in our maternall Engliſh toong, ſome bound in bords, ſome in lether, and ſome in parchment, and them ſell by retaile, whereby manie of the kings ſubiects, being binders of books, and hauing none other facultie wherewith to get their liuing, be deſtitute of worke, and like to be vndoone: except ſome reformation herein be had. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid prouiſo, made the firſt Repeale yéere of the ſaid king Richard the third, from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our lord God next comming, ſhall be void and of none effect.

Buy books to ſell. ¶ And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, reſiant or inhabitant within this realme, after the ſaid feaſt of Chriſtmas next comming, ſhall buie to ſell againe anie printed books brought from anie parts out of the kings obeizance, readie bounden in bords, lether, or parchment, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for euerie booke bound out of the ſaid kings obeizance, and brought into this realme, and bought by anie perſon or perſons within the ſame to ſell againe contrarie to this act, ſix ſhillings eight penſe.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons inhabitant or reſiant within this realme, after the ſaid feaſt of Chriſtmas, ſhall buie within this realme, of anie ſtranger borne out of the kings obedience other than of denizens, anie maner of printed books Retaile brought from anie the parties beyond the ſea, except onelie by ingroſſe and not by retaile, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſix ſhillings eight penſe for euerie booke ſo bought by retaile, contrarie to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, the ſaid forfeitures to be alwaies leuied of the buiers of anie ſuch books, contrarie to this act: the one halfe of all the ſaid forfeitures to be to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other moitie to be to the partie that will ſeize or ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts, be it by bill, plaint, or information, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor no protection ne eſſoine ſhall be vnto him allowed.

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the ſaid printers, or ſellers of printed books, inhabited within this realme at anie time héereafter happen in ſuch wiſe to inhanſe and increaſe the priſes of anie ſuch printed bookes in ſale or binding, at too high Priſes of books and vnreaſonable priſes, in ſuch wiſe as complaint be made thereof vnto the kings highnes, or vnto the lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, or anie of the chéefe iuſtices of the one bench or of the other: that then the ſame lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, and two chéefe iuſtices, or two of anie of them, ſhall haue power and authoritie to inquire thereof as well by the oths of twelue honeſt and diſcreet perſons, as otherwiſe by due examination by their diſcretions. And after the ſame inhanſing and increaſing of the ſaid priſes of the ſaid books and binding, ſhall ſo be found by the ſaid twelue men, or otherwiſe by examination of the ſaid chancellor, lord treaſuror, and iuſtices, or two of them: that then the ſame lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, and iuſtices, or two of them at the leaſt, from time to time, ſhall haue power and authoritie to reforme and redreſſe ſuch inhanſing of the priſes of printed books, from time to time by their diſcretions, and to limit priſes, as well of the books as for the binding of them: and ouer that the offendor or offendors thereof, being conuict Forfeit by the examination of the ſame lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, and two iuſtices, or two of them, or otherwiſe, ſhall loſe and forfeit, for euerie booke by them ſold, whereof the priſe ſhall be inhanſed, for the booke or binding thereof thrée ſhillings foure penſe, the one halfe thereof ſhall be to the kings highnes, and the other halfe vnto the parties gréeued, that will complaine vpon the ſame, in maner and forme before rehearſed.

An act that euerie iudge of the high courts and certeine other, maie haue one chaplen beneficed with cure.

Chap. 16.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the one and twentith yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, it was amongſt other things ordeined and prouided, that certeine honorable perſons, as well ſpirituall as temporall, ſhall haue chaplens beneficed with cure, to ſerue them in their honorable houſes, which chaplens ſhall not incur the danger of anie penaltie or forfeiture, made or declared in the ſame parlement for non reſidence vpon their ſaid benefices, or for obteining licences or diſpenſations of pluralitées. In the which act no prouiſion was made for anie of the kings iudges of his high courts, commonlie called the kings benches and the common place, except onelie for the chéefe iudge of the kings bench, nor for the chancellor, nor the chéefe baron of the kings excheker, nor for anie other inferior perſons, being of the kings moſt honorable counſell, as by the ſaid act maie appéere. Wherfore it is ordeined & enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that as well euerie iudge of the ſaid high courts, and euerie of the chancellor and the chéefe baron of the ſaid excheker, the kings generall atturnie, and generall ſolicitor, which for the time is, be, or ſhall be, ſhall and maie from henſeforth at his libertie reteine, and haue ſingularlie to euerie of them in his houſe, or attendant to his perſon, one chaplen, hauing one benefice with cure of ſoules, which maie be abſent from his ſaid benefice, and non reſident vpon the ſame: the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid one and twentith yéere, or anie other ſtatute, act, or ordinance made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning ſhooting in croſbowes and handguns.

Chap. 17.

WHere before this time diuers and ſundrie good ſtatutes and prouiſions haue béene made and ordeined, for the auoiding and eſchewing of ſhooting in croſbowes and handguns, which ſaid wholſome ſtatutes and prouiſions notwithſtanding manie wilfull and light diſpoſed perſons from time to time haue attempted the breach or violation of the ſame ſtatutes. In conſideration whereof be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate or degrée he or they be: except he or they be in their owne right, or in the right of his or their wiues, to his or their owne vſes, or anie other to the vſe of anie ſuch perſon or perſons, haue lands, tenements, fées, annuities, or offices to the yéerelie value of an hundred pounds, from the firſt daie of Iune next comming, ſhall ſhot in anie handgun or croſbow, or vſe or kéepe in his or their houſes, or elſwhere, anie croſbow or handgun, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time that he or they offend contrarie to this act ten pounds. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon, that may vſe and keepe anie croſbow or handgun, or that maie ſhot in the ſame (notwithſtanding this act) to ſeize and take euerie ſuch croſbow and handgun or anie of them, from the kéeping or poſſeſſion of euerie ſuch offendor, and the ſame to kéepe or reteine to his or their owne vſe.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no lords or owners of anie léets, beare or mainteine anie of their tenants, or ſeruants within the precinct or iuriſdiction of their léets, to doo or offend contrarie to this act, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time ſo offending ten pounds. The one moitie of all the ſame forfeitures to be to the kings highnes, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other moitie to the partie that will purſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information in anie of the kings courts, in which ſute no eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed, nor the defendant receiued to wage his law.

¶ Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to the iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, and to all ſtewards and bailifs in their ſeuerall leets, to inquire, heare, & determine euerie ſuch offenſe héereafter to be committed or done contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute: ſo that alwaie no leſſe fine than ten pounds be aſſeſſed vpon euerie ſuch preſentment and conuiction according to the due courſe of the law. The ſame fine ſo by the iuſtices of peace, vpon euerie preſentment or conuiction made before them, to be paid and leuied onelie to the kings vſe. And the moitie of euerie fine to be aſſeſſed by the ſtewards or bailifs of euerie léet, vpon euerie preſentment and conuiction before them to be made, to be paid and leuied to the vſe of the owner of the ſame léet by diſtreſſe or action of debt: and the other moitie of the ſame fine to be to the partie, that will purſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts, by bill, plaint, information, or action of debt, in which no eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed, nor the defendant ſhall be receiued to the wager of his law.

¶ Prouided alwaie, if that anie offendor contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute by anie maner of proceſſe or meane firſt againſt him conceiued or preſented, ſhall be compelled or conſtreined to paie or content anie ſuch forfeiture or penaltie, as is aforeſaid, for his ſaid offenſe contrarie to this act: that then euerie ſuch offendor, after paiment or ſatiſfaction made therof, ſhall be cleerelie acquited and diſcharged againſt euerie other perſon for the ſame forfeiture or penaltie in euerie ſute, proceſſe or preſentment againſt him to be purſued for the recouerie of the ſaid penaltie.

¶ Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all licences, letters, placards, giuen or granted, or héereafter before the ſaid firſt daie of Iune next comming to be giuen, had, or granted to anie perſon or perſons by the kings highnes: for the ſhooting in croſſebowes or handguns,or for the vſing or keeping of the ſame,contrarie to the forme of this act,ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

Repeale ¶ Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all former ſtatutes made & prouided of,and for the auoiding and reſtraint of ſhooting in croſbowes or handguns, or of and for anie of them,or for the vſing & keeping of the ſame,be from henſeforth vtterlie void,and of none effect.

Sutes ¶ Prouided alwaie,that euerie proces,ſute,or information, conceiued, commenſed, and now depending for anie offenſe doone contrarie to the forme of anie eſtatute made or prouided for the ſhooting in croſbowes and handguns not repealed,and for the keeping of the ſame,ſhall be good and effectuall to the parties that haue commenſed the ſame, in ſuch forme, effect, degree, or condition, as if this act had neuer beene made.

¶ Prouided alwaie that this act or anie thing therein conteined be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons now being, or that heereafter ſhall be appointed by the kings highnes to keepe,receiue,or take anie croſbowes or handguns, that ſhall be forfeit, or taken within the precinct or libertie of the kings forreſts,parks,or chaſes: but he or they may lawfullie keepe and reteine the ſame croſbowes or handguns from time to time,vnto ſuch time as the further pleaſure of the kings highnes in that behalfe be to euerie ſuch perſon ſhewed and declared.

Gunmakers ¶ Prouided alwaie,that this act extend not to the makers of croſbowes or handguns:but that they maie lawfullie keepe croſbowes & handguns in their houſes, and ſhoot in croſbowes or handguns onelie for prouing and aſſaieng of them.

Sea coaſts ¶ Prouided alwaies that in all walled townes within ſeuen miles of the ſea, & other townes or holds ſtanding vpon the ſea coſts,or vpon anie of the Engliſh marches or againſt Scotland, it ſhall be lawfull to euerie man dwelling in ſuch townes or holds, to keepe in their houſes, being within the ſame townes or holds,croſbowes and handguns, for the onlie defenſe of the ſaid towns, holds,and houſes,and as well to exerciſe and vſe them in,and for the defenſe of the ſaid townes and houſes,being in the ſaid townes, as for to carie them to their ſhips,there to keepe and exerciſe them for defenſe of their ſhips,and for their goods in the ſame ſhips, and for none other cauſe, anie thing compriſed or expreſſed in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alſo,that if anie perſon or perſons hereafter in anie part doo offend,or doo contrarie to the purueie and remedie of this act,wherevpon there is cauſe of action for the ſame giuen to the king,his heirs or ſucceſſors,or to anie other perſon or perſons that will ſue by vertue of this act,for the puniſhment of the ſaid offenſe or forfeits,that if the king our ſoueraigne lord,his heires or ſucceſſors,within one yeere next immediatlie after ſuch offenſes & forfeits had and made,doo not purſue their action or actions ſo giuen by the ſaid act, or cauſe of examination vpon ſuch defaults and offenſes to be had & made before their counſell, or other preſentments thereof to be had according to the meaning of the ſame act. And euerie other perſon,which heereafter maie haue action or actions,vpon this ſtatute within halfe a yeere next,& immediatlie after ſuch offenſes & forfeits had and made,doo not commenſe their ſutes,information,or preſentments,of and vpon the ſaid forfeits,by action or otherwiſe,as of & vpon ſuch forfeits as be declared and expreſſed in this preſent act, that then as well the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, after one yeere next after ſuch offenſes and forfeits had and made,if no ſute in his or their name be taken by action or otherwiſe, as is before expreſſed,before the ſame yeere ended & determined,as euerie other perſon after halfe a yeere next after like offenſes & forfeits had & made in forme aforeſaid, if non ſute thervpon be taken by none of them in forme aboue declared, be vtterlie excluded & barred of their ſaid ſutes, actions,& examinations to them giuen by vertue of this ſaid act. And the parties & euerie of them ſo offending,be of all ſuch offenſes and forfeits cleerelie diſcharged and quit, anie thing in this act compriſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding,and as though this act had neuer beene had nor made.

¶ Prouided alſo that this act or anie thing therein conteined, extend not or be preiudiciall to anie merchants,the which haue or ſhall haue anie croſbowes or handguns to ſell within this realme, and to none other vſe. Prouided alwaie,that no maner of perſon run in anie danger, or take hurt by reaſon of anie penaltie or forfeiture conteined in this act, till ſuch time as proclamation be made of the ſame act: nor by the ſpace of twentie daies next after the ſaid proclamation be made within the countie,where the partie that ſhall or maie offend contrarie to this act dwelleth.

¶ Prouided alſo that if anie maner of perſon bring or cauſe to be brought with him into his lodging or in anie other mans houſe,anie croſbow or handgun: that then the penaltie and forfeiture,if anie ſuch be or heereafter ſhall be forfeited by reaſon of this act, to run and be onelie vpon the bringer of the ſaid croſbow and handgun,and not to the owner of the ſame lodging or houſe,if the ſaid owner of the ſaid lodging cauſe the bringer thereof to take and recarrie awaie the ſaid croſbow or handgun againe with him at his departing, anie thing in this act made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alwaie,that this act concerning croſbowes and handguns, ne anie thing therein conteined,extend or in anie wiſe be hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, to whom it ſhall pleaſe the king our ſoueraigne lord,his heires or ſucceſſors, to giue licence by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale to ſhoot in croſbowes or handguns,or in euerie of them: or to haue and keepe the ſame croſbowes and handguns in his or their houſes for the defenſe of the ſame. ¶ Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons heereafter from the firſt daie of Iune next comming, ſee or find anie perſon or perſons offending or doing contrarie to the forme and effect of this act, that then it ſhall be lawfull for euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, perceiuing, finding, or ſeeing anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending contrarie to the forme of this act, to arreſt and attach euerie ſuch offendor or offendors, and to bring or conueie the ſame offendor or offendors, to the next iuſtice of the peace of the ſame countie, where the ſaid offendor or offendors ſhall be found ſo offending. And that the ſame iuſtice of peace vpon a due examination and proofe thereof before him had or made by his diſcretion, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to ſend or commit the ſame offendor or offendors, to the next gaole, there to remaine till ſuch time as the ſaid penaltie or forfeiture ſhall be trulie contented and paid by the ſaid offendor. The one moitie of the ſame penaltie to be paid to the kings highnes, and the other moitie thereof to the firſt bringer or conueier of the ſaid offendor to the ſame iuſtice of peace.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie ſeruant or perſon, that héereafter from the ſaid firſt daie of Iune, ſhall bend, beare, vſe, or aſſaie anie croſbow or handgun, by the commandement of his lord or maiſter, ſo that the ſaid ſeruant or perſon doo not ſhoot at anie fowle, déere, or other game, of what kind or nature ſo euer they be, nor alſo to anie ſuch ſeruant, perſon or perſons, that ſhall after the ſaid firſt daie of Iune, beare, or conueie anie croſbow or handgun, to anie place or places by the commandement of his lord or maiſter, that maie ſhoot by the authoritie of this act, ſo that the ſaid ſeruant or other perſon, ſo bringing or conueieng the ſaid croſbow or handgun, haue readie to ſhew to euerie perſon, requiring the ſight thereof, one licence in writing ſealed or ſubſcribed by his ſaid lord or maiſters hand, to carie and conueie the ſame croſbow or handgun, to the intent to be amended, repaired, or aſſaied, as is aforeſaid.

¶ Prouided alſo, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, be hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie gunners being in the kings wages, onelie for ſhooting in handguns, bearing or kéeping of the ſame handguns in their houſes, ſo alwaies that they with the ſame doo not ſhoot vnto anie beaſt or fowle vpon the paines before expreſſed.

¶ Prouided alwaie that it ſhall be lawfull for the inhabitants of the countries of Northumberland, Dureſme, Weſtmerland, and Cumberland, to kéepe in their houſes, croſbowes, and handguns, and ſhoot in the ſame for defenſe of their perſons, goods, and houſes againſt théeues, Scots, and other the kings enimies, and for clenſing and ſkouring of the ſame onelie, and for none other purpoſe, this act or anie thing compriſed within the ſame notwithſtanding.

An act concerning clothiers, or makers of woollen clothes within the ſhire of Worceſter.

Sheweth vnto the king our ſouereigne lord, and to the lords ſpirituall and temporall, Chap. 18. and to the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, the citizens, burgeſes, and inhabitants of the citie of Worceſter, and of the townes of Eueſham, Droitwich, Kederminſter, and Bromiſgroue within the countie of Worceſter, that where the ſaid citie, boroughs, and townes haue béene in times paſt well and ſubſtantiallie inhabited, occupied, mainteined, and vpholden by reaſon of making of woollen clothes, ſhort clothes, and other clothes, as well whites, blewes, and browne blewes, and the poore people of the ſame citie, boroughs, and townes, and of the countrie adioining to them dailie ſet a worke, as in ſpinning, carding, breaking, and ſorting of wools, and the handicrafts there inhabiting, as weauers, fullers, ſheremen, and diers, haue béene well ſet a worke, and had ſufficient liuing by the ſame: vntill now within few yéeres paſſed, that diuers perſons inhabiting and dwelling in the hamlets, thropes, and villages, adioining to the ſaid citie, boroughs, and townes, within the ſaid ſhire for their priuat wealths, ſingular aduantages, and commodities, nothing regarding the maintenance and vpholding of the ſaid citie, boroughs, and townes, ne the commonwealth of the ſaid handicrafts, inhabiting and dwelling in the ſaid citie, boroughs, and townes, ne the poore people which had liuing by the ſame, haue not onelie ingroſſed and taken into their hands diuers and ſundrie farmes, and become farmars, graſiers and huſbandmen, but alſo doo exerciſe, vſe and occupie the myſterie of clothmaking, weauing, fulling, and ſhering within their ſaid houſes, and doo make all maner of clothes, as well broad clothes, whites, and plaine clothes within their ſaid houſes, in the countries abroad, to the great decaie, depopulation, and ruine of the ſaid citie, townes, and boroughs. For remedie wherof, and for the amendment, & good aduancement of the ſaid cities, boroughs and townes, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that after the laſt daie of September, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, no maner perſon ne perſons, of what degrée or conditions ſo euer he or they be, ſhall make or cauſe to be made within the ſaid ſhire of Worceſter anie maner of woollen clothes to be ſold, except onelie ſuch perſon or perſons, as after the ſaid laſt daie of September, ſhall be dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid citie of Worceſter, the boroughs, and townes of Eueſham, Droitwich, Kederminſter, and Bromiſgroue within the ſaid countie of Worceſter, or in anie one of them, vpon paine of forfeiture, for euerie ſuch broad cloth made after the ſaid daie by anie perſon or perſons, contrarie to the true meaning of this act fortie ſhillings.

¶ And further it is prouided by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the lords & owners of the meſes, tenements, or cottages within the ſaid citie, or anie of the townes and boroughs aforſaid, ſhall at no time héereafter limit, ſet, or let anie meſe, tenement, or cotage ſufficientlie repaired within the ſaid citie, boroughs, or townes before limited to any perſon or perſons, that hereafter ſhall inhabit in the ſaid citie, boroughs, or townes, and exerciſing anie of the ſaid myſteries or crafts, at anie higher rent, impoſition, or charge, than was giuen for the ſame at anie time within twentie yéeres next before the making of this act onelie except.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that this act be not hurtfull ne preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons for making anie clothes for their owne wearing, their children, or ſeruants wearing.

¶ Alſo prouided, that in the ſaid citie and euerie towne and borough aforeſaid, that there ſhall be one ſearch made of euerie ſuch cloth beforeſaid there made, and that they be meated both length and bredth, being wet from the mill, and before they be ſet vpon the racke and dried: and that they ſhall be ſealed with the ſeale of the ſearcher of the ſame citie, towne, or borough, which ſeale ſhall haue a ſtampe conteining the true numbers for the length and bredth of the ſame cloth being wet, in paine of forfeiting for euerie cloth put to ſale, not hauing the ſaid ſeale of the ſearcher twentie ſhillings. And the ſealer to forfeit for euerie cloth, by him ſearched and ſealed contrarie to the true meaning of this act ſix ſhillings eight penſe. The one halfe of the ſaid forfeits to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, & the other halfe to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts, by writ of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in which action or actions, the defendants or defendant ſhall not wage their law, ne anie eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed: and the ſearcher ſhall haue for the ſearching and ſealing of euerie cloth a penie, and not aboue.

An act concerning the ſubmiſſion of the clergie to the kings maieſtie.

Chap. 19.

WHere the kings humble and obedient ſubiects, the clergie of this realme of England, haue not onelie knowledged according to the truth, that the conuocations of the ſame clergie, is alwaies, hath béene, and ought to be aſſembled by the kings writ, but alſo ſubmitting themſelues to the kings maieſtie, haue promiſed In verbo ſacerdotii, that they will neuer from henſeforth preſume to attempt, alledge, claime, or put in vre, or enact, promulge, or execute anie new canons, conſtitutions, ordinance, prouinciall, or other, or by whatſoeuer other name they ſhall be called in the conuocation, vnleſſe the kings moſt roiall aſſent & licence maie to them be had, to make, promulge, and execute the ſame: and that his maieſtie do giue his moſt roiall aſſent and authoritie in that behalfe. And where diuerſe conſtitutions, ordinances, and canons prouinciall or ſynodall, which heeretofore haue béene enacted & be thought not onelie to be much preiudiciall to the kings prerogatiue roiall, and repugnant to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, but alſo ouer much onerous to his highnes and his ſubiects: the ſaid clergie hath moſt humblie beſought the kings highnes, that the ſaid conſtitutions and canons maie be committed to the examination and iudgement of his highnes, and of two and thirtie perſons of the kings ſubiects, whereof ſixtéene to be of the vpper and nether houſe of the parlement, of the temporaltie, and other ſixtéene to be of the clergie of this realme, and all the ſaid two and thirtie perſons to be choſen and appointed by the kings maieſtie. And that ſuch of the ſaid conſtitutions, and canons as ſhall be thought and determined by the ſaid two and thirtie perſons, or the more part of them, worthie to be abrogated & adnulled, ſhall be abolite and made of no value accordinglie. And ſuch other of the ſame conſtitutions and canons, as by the ſaid two and thirtie or the more part of them, ſhall be approued to ſtand with the lawes of God, & conſonant to the lawes of this realme, ſhall ſtand in their full ſtrength and power, the kings moſt roiall aſſent firſt had and obteined to the ſame. Be it therefore now enacted, by authoritie of this preſent parlement, according to the ſaid ſubmiſſion & petition of the ſaid clergie, that they ne anie of them from henſeforth ſhall preſume to attempt, allege, claime, or put in vre anie conſtitutions, or ordinances prouinciall or ſynodals, or anie other canons. Nor ſhall enact promulge, or execute anie ſuch canons, conſtitutions, or ordinance prouinciall, by what ſoeuer name or names they maie be called in their conuocations in time comming, which alwaie ſhall be aſſembled by authoritie of the kings writ, vnleſſe the ſame clergie maie haue the kings moſt roiall aſſent and licence, to make, promulge, and execute ſuch canons, conſtitutions and ordinances prouinciall or ſynodall, vpon paine of euerie one of the ſaid clergie, doing contrarie to this, and being thereof conuict, to ſuffer impriſonment, and make fine at the kings will.

¶ And for as much as ſuch canons, conſtitutions, and ordinance, as héeretofore haue béene made by the clergie of this realme, can not now at the ſeſſion of this preſent parlement, by reaſon of ſhortneſſe of time, be viewed, examined, and determined by the kings highnes, and two and thirtie perſons to be choſen and appointed, according to the petition of the ſaid clergie, in forme aboue rehearſed. Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings highnes ſhall haue power and authoritie to nominat and aſſigne at his pleaſure the ſaid two and thirtie perſons, of his ſubiects, whereof ſixteene to be of the clergie, and ſixteene to be of the temporaltie, of the vpper and nether houſe of the parlement. And if anie of the ſaid two and thirtie perſons ſo choſen, ſhall happen to die before their full determination: then his highnes to nominat other from time to time, of the ſaid two houſes of the parlement, to ſupplie the number of the ſaid two & thirtie. And that the ſame two and thirtie by his highnes ſo to be named, ſhall haue power and authoritie to view, ſerch, & examine the ſaid canons, conſtitutions, & ordinance prouinciall and ſynodall héeretofore made, & ſuch of them, as the kings highnes, and the ſaid two & thirtie or the more part of them ſhall deeme and adiudge worthie to be continued, kept, and obeied, ſhall be from thenſeforth kept, obeied, and executed within this realme, ſo that the kings moſt roiall aſſent, vnder his great ſeale, be firſt had to the ſame. And the reſidue of the ſaid canons, conſtitutions, and ordinance prouinciall, which the kings highneſſe, and the ſaid two and thirtie perſons, or the more part of them, ſhall not approue, or déeme and iudge worthie to be abolite, abrogate, and made fruſtrate, ſhall from thenſeforth be void and of none effect, and neuer be put in execution within this realme. ¶Prouided alwaie, that no canons, conſtitutions, or ordinances, ſhall be made or put in execution within this realme, by authoritie of the conuocations of the clergie, which ſhall be contrariant or repugnant to the kings prerogatiue roiall, or the cuſtoms, lawes, or ſtatutes of this realme, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

¶And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that from the feaſt of Eaſter, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1534, no maner of appeales ſhall be had, prouoked, or made, out of this realme, or out of anie the kings dominions, to the biſhop of Rome, nor to the ſee of Rome, in anie cauſes or matters happening to be in contention, and hauing their commenſement and beginning in anie of the courts within this realme, or within anie the kings dominions, of what nature, condition, or qualitie ſoeuer they be: but that all maner of appeales, of what nature or condition ſo euer they be, or what cauſe or matter ſo euer they concerne, ſhall be made and had by the parties greeued, or hauing cauſe of appeale, after ſuch maner, forme, and condition, as is limited for appeales to be had and proſecuted within this realme, in cauſes of matrimonie, tithes, oblations, and obuentions, by a ſtatute thereof made and eſtabliſhed ſithen the beginning of this preſent parlement, and according to the forme and effect of the ſaid eſtatute, anie vſage, cuſtome, preſcription, or anie thing or things to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding. And for lacke of iuſtice, at or in anie the courts of the archbiſhops of this realme, or in anie the kings dominions: it ſhall be lawfull to the parties gréeued, to appeale to the kings maieſtie, in the kings court of chancerie. And that vpon euerie ſuch appeale, a commiſſion ſhall be directed, vnder the great ſeale, to ſuch perſons as ſhall be named by the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, like as in caſe of appeale from the admerall court, to heare, and diffinitiuelie determine ſuch appeales, and the cauſes concerning the ſame. Which commiſſioners ſo by the kings highneſſe, his heires, or ſucceſſors, to be named or appointed, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, to heare, and diffinitiuelie determine euerie ſuch appeale, with the cauſes and all circumſtances concerning the ſame: and that ſuch iudgement and ſentence, as the ſaid commiſſioners ſhall make and decrée, in and vpon anie ſuch appeale, ſhall be good and effectuall, and alſo diffinitiue: and no further appeales to be had or made from the ſaid commiſſioners for the ſame.

¶And if anie perſon or perſons, at anie time after the feaſt of Eaſter, prouoke or ſue, any maner of appeales, of what nature or condition ſo euer they be, to the ſaid biſhop of Rome, or to the ſée of Rome, or doo procure or execute anie maner of proceſſe from the ſée of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, to the derogation or let of the due execution of this act, or contrarie to the ſame: that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons (ſo dooing) their aidors, counſellors, and abbettors, ſhall incur and run into the dangers, paines, and penalties, conteined and limited in the act of prouiſion and premunire, made in the ſixtéenth yéere of the kings moſt noble progenitor, king Richard the ſecond, againſt ſuch as ſue to the court of Rome, againſt the kings crowne and prerogatiue roiall.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that all maner of prouocations and appeales, héereafter to be had, made, or taken, from the iuriſdiction of anie abbats, priors, or other heads and gouernors of monaſteries, abbeies, priories, and other houſes and places exempt, in ſuch caſes as they were woont, or might, afore the making of this act, by reaſon of grants or liberties of ſuch places exempt, to haue or make immediatlie anie appeale or prouocation to the biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, or the ſée of Rome, that in all theſe caſes, euerie perſon and perſons, hauing cauſe of appeale, or prouocation, ſhall and maie take and make their appeales and prouocations, immediatlie to the kings maieſtie of this realme, into the court of chancerie, in like maner and forme as they vſed afore to doo to the ſee of Rome: which appeales and prouocations ſo made, ſhall be diffinitiuelie determined by authoritie of the kings commiſſion: in ſuch maner and forme as in this act is aboue mentioned. So that no archbiſhop nor biſhop of this realme, ſhall intermit or meddle with anie ſuch appeales, otherwiſe, or in anie other maner, than they might haue doone afore the making of this act; anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶Prouided alſo, that ſuch canons, conſtitutions, ordinances, and ſynodals prouinciall, being alreadie made, which be not contrariant nor repugnant to the lawes, ſtatutes, and cuſtoms of this realme, nor to the damage or hurt of the kings prerogatiue roiall, ſhall now ſtill be vſed and executed, as they were afore the making of this act, till ſuch time as they be viewed, ſearched, or otherwiſe ordered and determined by the ſaid two and thirtie perſons, or the more part of them, according to the tenor, forme, and effect, of this preſent act.

An act reſtreining the paiment of annates or firſt fruits to the biſhop of Rome, & of the electing and conſecrating of archbiſhops and biſhops within this realme.

Chap. 20.

Where ſithens the beginning of this preſent parlement, for repreſſe of the exaction of annats and firſt fruits of archbiſhoprikes and biſhoprikes of this realme, wrongfullie taken by the biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, and the ſée of Rome, it is ordeined & eſtabliſhed by an act among other things, that the paiments of the annats or firſt fruits, and all maner contributions for the ſame, for anie ſuch archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike, or for anie buls to be obteined from the ſée of Rome, to or for the ſaid purpoſe or intent, ſhould vtterlie ceaſe, and no ſuch to be paid for anie archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike, within this realme, otherwiſe than in the ſame act is expreſſed. And that no maner of perſon or perſons, to be named, elected, preſented, or poſtulated to anie archbiſhopriks or biſhoprike within this realme, ſhould paie the ſaid annats or firſt fruits, nor anie other maner of ſum or ſums of monie, penſions, or annuities for the ſame, or for anie other like exactions or cauſe, vpon paine to forfeit to our ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, all maner his goods and chattels for euer, and all the temporall lands and poſſeſſions of the ſaid archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike, during the time that he or they that ſhould offend contrarie to the ſaid act, ſhould haue, poſſeed, and inioy the ſaid archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike. And it was further enacted, that if anie perſon, named or preſented to the ſée of Rome, by the kings highneſſe or his heires or ſucceſſors, to be biſhop of any ſée or dioceſſe within this relme, ſhould happen to be letted, delaied, or deferred, at the ſée of Rome, from anie ſuch biſhoprike, wherevnto he ſhould be ſo preſented, by meane of reſtreint of buls of the ſaid biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, and other things requiſit to the ſame, or ſhould be denied at the ſée of Rome, vpon conuenient ſute made for anie buls requiſit for anie ſuch cauſe: that then euerie perſon ſo preſented might or ſhould be conſecrated in England by the archbiſhop, in whoſe prouince the ſaid biſhoprike ſhall be: ſo alwaies that the ſame perſon ſhould be named and preſented by the king for the time being to the ſaid archbiſhop. And if anie perſon being named and preſented (as is aforeſaid) to anie archbiſhoprike of this realme, making conuenient ſute as is aforeſaid, ſhould happen to be letted, delaid, deferred, or otherwiſe diſturbed from the ſaid archbiſhoprike, for lacke of pall, buls, or other things to him requiſite to be obteined at the ſée of Rome: that then euerie ſuch perſon ſo named and preſented to be archbiſhop, might and ſhould be conſecrated and inueſted after preſentation made as is aforeſaid, by anie other two biſhops within this realme, whome the kings highneſſe, or anie his heires or ſucceſſors, kings of England, would appoint and aſſigne for the ſame according and after like maner, as diuerſe archbiſhops and biſhops haue béene héretofore in ancient time by ſundrie the kings moſt noble progenitors, made, conſecrated, and inueſted within this realme. And it was further enacted by the ſaid act, that euerie archbiſhop and biſhop, being named and preſented by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors kings of England, and being conſecrated and inueſted as is aforeſaid, ſhall be inſtalled accordinglie, and ſhould be accepted, taken, and reputed, vſed and obeied, as an archbiſhop or biſhop of the dignitie, ſée, or place, wherevnto he ſhall be ſo named, preſented, and conſecrated, and as other like prelats of that prouince, ſée, or dioceſſe, haue béene vſed, accepted, taken, and obeied, which haue had and obteined completlie their buls and other things requiſit in that behalfe from the ſée of Rome, and alſo ſhould fullie and intirelie, haue and inioy all the ſpiritualties and temporalties, of the ſaid archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike in as large ample & beneficiall maner, as any of his or their predeceſſors had or inioied in the ſaid archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike, ſatiſfieng and yéelding vnto the kings highnes, and to his heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch duties, rights, and intereſts, as before time hath béene accuſtomed to be paid, for any ſuch archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike, according to the ancient lawes & cuſtoms of this relme, and the kings prerogatiue roiall, as in the ſaid act amongſt other things is more at large mentioned.

¶ And albeit the ſaid biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, hath béene informed and certified of the effectuall contents of the ſaid act, to the intent that by ſome gentle waies the ſaid exactions might haue béene redreſſed and reformed; yet neuertheleſſe, the ſaid biſhop of Rome hitherto hath made none anſwer of his mind therein to the kings highneſſe, nor deuiſed or required any reaſonable waies, to and with our ſaid ſoueraigne lord for the ſame. Wherefore his moſt roiall maieſtie, of his moſt excellent goodneſſe, for the wealth and profit of this his realme and ſubiects of the ſame, hath not onelie put his moſt gratious and roiall aſſent to the foreſaid act, but alſo hath ratified and confirmed the ſame, and euerie clauſe and article therein conteined, as by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, inrolled in the parlement roll of this preſent parlement more at large is conteined.

¶ And for as much as in the ſaid act it is not plainelie and certeinlie expreſſed, in what maner and faſhion archbiſhops and biſhops ſhall be elected, preſented, inueſted, and conſecrated within this realme, and in all other the kings dominions; Be it now therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act, and euerie thing therein conteined, ſhall be and ſtand, in ſtrength, vertue, and effect, except onelie that no perſon or perſons héereafter, ſhall be preſented, nominated, or commended, to the ſaid biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, or to the ſée of Rome, to or for the dignitie or office of anie archbiſhop or biſhop within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, nor ſhall ſend nor procure there for anie maner of buls, bréefes, pals, or other things requiſit for an archbiſhop or biſhop, nor ſhall paie anie ſums of monie for annats, firſt fruits, or otherwiſe, for expedition of anie ſuch buls, bréefes, or pals: but that by the authoritie of this act, ſuch preſenting, nominating or commending to the ſaid biſhop of Rome, or to the ſée of Rome, and ſuch buls, bréefes, pals, annats, firſt fruits, and euerie other ſummes of monie héeretofore limited, accuſtomed, or vſed to be paid at the ſaid ſée of Rome, for procuration or expedition of anie ſuch buls, bréefes, or pals, or other thing concerning the ſame, ſhall vtterlie ceaſe, and no longer be vſed within this realme, or within anie the kings dominions, anie thing conteined in the ſaid act afore mentioned, or anie vſe, cuſtome, or preſcription to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶ And furthermore be it ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that at euerie auoidance of anie archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike within this relme, or in anie other the kings dominions: the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, may grant to the prior and conuent, or the deane and chapter of the cathedrall churches or monaſteries, where the ſee of ſuch archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike ſhall happen to be void, a licence vnder the great ſeale, as of old time hath beene accuſtomed, to proceed to election of an archbiſhop or biſhop of the ſee ſo being void, with a letter miſſiue, conteining the name of the perſon, which they ſhall elect and chooſe. By vertue of which licence, the ſaid deane and chapter, or prior and conuent, to whome anie ſuch licence and letters miſſiues ſhall be directed, ſhall with all ſpeed and celeritie, in due forme elect and chooſe the ſaid perſon named in the ſaid letters miſſiues, to the dignitie and office of the archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike, ſo being void, and none other. And if they doo, or differ, or delaie their election aboue twelue daies next after ſuch licence and letters miſſiues to them deliuered, that then for euerie ſuch default the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, at their libertie and pleaſure, ſhall nominate and preſent by their letters patents vnder their great ſeale, ſuch a perſon to the ſaid office and dignitie, ſo being void, as they ſhall thinke able and conuenient for the ſame. And that euerie ſuch nomination and preſentment to be made by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, if it be to the office and dignitie of a biſhop, ſhall be made to the archbiſhop and metropolitane of the prouince, where the ſee of the ſame biſhoprike is void, if the ſee of the ſaid archbiſhop be then full and not void: and if it be void, then to be made to ſuch archbiſhop or metropolitane within this realme, or in anie the kings dominions, as ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors. And if anie ſuch nomination or preſentment ſhall happen to be made for default of ſuch election, to the dignitie or office of anie archbiſhop: then the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, ſhall nominate and preſent ſuch perſon as they will diſpoſe to haue the ſaid office and dignitie of archbiſhoprike being void, to one ſuch archbiſhop, and two ſuch biſhops, or elſe foure ſuch biſhops in this realme, or in anie the kings dominions, as ſhall be aſſigned by our ſaid ſouereigne lord, his heires or ſucceſſors.

And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that whenſoeuer anie ſuch preſentment or nomination ſhall be made by the kings highneſſe, his heires, or ſucceſſors, by vertue and authoritie of this act, and according to the tenor of the ſame: that then euerie archbiſhop and biſhop, to whoſe hands anie ſuch preſentment & nomination ſhall be directed, ſhall with all ſpeed and celeritie, inueſt and conſecrate the perſon nominate and preſented by the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, to the office and dignitie that ſuch perſon ſhall be ſo preſented vnto, and giue and vſe to him pall and all other benedictions, ceremonies, and things requiſit for the ſame, without ſuing, procuring, or obteining héereafter anie buls or other things at the ſée of Rome, for anie ſuch office or dignitie in anie behalfe.

And if the ſaid deane and chapter, or prior and conuent, after ſuch licence and letters miſſiues to them directed within the ſaid twelue daies, doo elect and chooſe the ſaid perſon, mentioned in the ſaid letters miſſiues, according to the requeſt of the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, thereof to be made by the ſaid letters miſſiues in that behalfe: then their election ſhall ſtand good and effectuall to all intents, and that the perſon ſo elected, after certification made of the ſame election, vnder the common and conuent ſeale of the electors to the kings highnes, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall be reputed and taken by the name of lord elected of the ſaid dignitie and office that he ſhall be elected vnto: and then making ſuch oth and fealtie onelie to the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, as ſhall be appointed for the ſame, the kings highneſſe by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, ſhall ſignifie the ſaid election, if it be to the dignitie of a biſhop, to the archbiſhop and metropolitane of the prouince, where the ſée of the ſaid biſhoprike was void, if the ſee of the ſaid archbiſhop be full and not void. And if it be void, then to anie other archbiſhop within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, requiring and commanding ſuch archbiſhop, to whome anie ſuch ſignification ſhall be made, to confirme the ſaid election, and to inueſt and conſecrate the ſaid perſon ſo elected to the office and dignitie that he is elected vnto, and to giue and vſe to him all ſuch benedictions, ceremonies, and other things requiſit for the ſame, without anie ſuing, procuring, or obteining, anie buls, letters, or other things from the ſée of Rome for the ſame in anie behalfe.

And if the perſon be elected to the office and dignitie of an archbiſhop, according to the tenor of this act, then after ſuch election, certified to the kings highneſſe, in forme aforeſaid, ſhall be reputed and taken lord elect of the ſaid office and dignitie of archbiſhop, whereunto he ſhall be ſo elected: and then after he hath made ſuch oth and fealtie onelie to the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, as ſhall be limited for the ſame, the kings highneſſe, by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, ſhall ſignifie the ſaid election to one archbiſhop, and two other biſhops, or elſe to foure biſhops within this realme, or within anie other the kings dominions, to be aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, requiring and commanding the ſaid archbiſhop and biſhops, with all ſpéed and celeritie, to confirme the ſaid election, and to inueſt and conſecrate the ſaid perſon, ſo elected to the office and dignitie that he is elected vnto, and to giue and vſe to him ſuch pall, benedictions, ceremonies, and all other things requiſit for the ſame, without ſuing, procuring, or obteining anie buls, breeſes, or other things at the ſaid ſee of Rome, or by authoritie thereof in anie behalfe.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie perſon and perſons being hereafter choſen, elected, nominated, preſented, inueſted, and conſecrated, to the dignitie or office of anie archbiſhop or biſhop within this realme, or within anie other the kings dominions, according to the forme, tenor, and effect of this preſent act, and ſuing their temporalties out of the kings hands, his heires or ſucceſſors, as hath been accuſtomed, making a corporall oth to the kings highneſſe, and to none other, in forme as is afore rehearſed, ſhall and maie from henſeforth be thronized or inſtalled, as the caſe ſhall require, and ſhall haue and take their onelie reſtitution out of the kings hands, of all the poſſeſſions and profits ſpirituall and temporall, belonging to the ſaid archbiſhoprike or biſhoprike, wherevnto they ſhall be ſo elected or preſented, and ſhall be obeied in all maner of things, according to the name, title, degree, and dignitie, that they ſhall be ſo choſen or preſented vnto, and doo and execute in euerie thing and things, touching the ſame, as anie archbiſhop or biſhop of this realme, without offending of the prerogatiue roiall of the crowne, and the lawes and cuſtoms of this realme, might at anie time heeretofore doo.

¶ And be it further enacted, by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the prior and conuent of anie monaſterie, or deane and chapter of anie cathedrall church, where the ſee of anie archbiſhop or biſhop is within anie the kings dominions, after ſuch licence as is afore rehearſed, ſhall be deliuered to them, proceed not to election, and ſignifie the ſame according to the tenor of this act, within the ſpace of twentie daies next after ſuch licence, ſhall come to their hands, or elſe if anie archbiſhop or biſhop, within anie the kings dominions, after anie ſuch election, nomination, or preſentation, ſhall be ſignified vnto them by the kings letters patents, ſhall refuſe, and doo not confirme, inueſt, and conſecrate, with all due circumſtance as is aforeſaid, euerie ſuch perſon as ſhall be ſo elected, nominated, or preſented, and to them ſignified as is aboue mentioned, within twentie daies next after the kings letters patents, of ſuch ſignification or preſentation, ſhall come to their hands, or elſe if anie of them, or anie other perſon or perſons, admit, mainteine, allow, obeie, doo, or execute anie cenſures, excommunications, interdictions, inhibitions, or anie other proceſſe or act, of what nature, name, or qualitie ſo euer it be, to the contrarie or let of due execution of this act, that then euerie prior and particular perſon of his conuent, and euerie deane and particular perſon of the chapter, and euerie archbiſhop and biſhop, and all other perſons, ſo offending and doing, contrarie to this act, or anie part thereof, and their aiders, counſellors, and abbettors, ſhall run in the dangers, paines, and penalties, of the eſtatute of the prouiſion and premunire, made in the fiue and twentith yeere of the reigne of king Edward the third, and in the ſixteenth yeere of king Richard the ſecond.

An act concerning the exoneration of the kings ſubiects from exactions and impoſitions heeretofore paid to the ſee of Rome, and for hauing licences and diſpenſations within this realme, without ſuing further for the ſame.

MOſt humblie beſeechen your moſt roiall maieſtie, your obedient and faithfull ſubiects, the commons of this your preſent parlement aſſembled, by your moſt dread commandement, that where your ſubiects of this your realme, and of other countries and dominions, being vnder your obeiſance, by manie yeeres paſt haue beene, and yet be greatlie decaied and impoueriſhed, by intollerable exactions of great ſums of monie, as haue beene claimed and taken, and yet continuallie be claimed to be taken out of this your realme, and other your ſaid countries and dominions, by the biſhop of Rome, called the pope and the ſee of Rome, aſwell in penſions, cenſes, peter penſe, procurations, fruits, ſutes for prouiſions, and expeditions of buls for archbiſhopriks and biſhopriks, and for delegacies and reſcripts, in cauſes of contentions and appeales, iuriſdictions, legatiue, and alſo for diſpenſations, licences, faculties, grants, relaxations, writs called Perinde valere, rehabilitations, abolitions, and other infinit ſorts of buls, breeues, and inſtruments of ſundrie natures, names, and kinds, in great numbers heeretofore practiſed and obteined, otherwiſe than by the lawes, lawdable vſes and cuſtoms of this realme, ſhould be permitted, the ſpecialties whereof beene ouer long, large in number, and tedious heere, particularlie to be inſerted. Wherein the biſhop of Rome aforeſaid, hath not beene onelie to be blamed, for his vſurpation in the premiſſes, but alſo for his abuſing and beguiling your ſubiects, pretending and perſuading them, that he hath full power to diſpenſe with all humaine lawes, vſes, and cuſtoms of all realmes, in all cauſes which be called ſpirituall. Which matter hath beene vſurped and practiſed by him and his predeceſſors, by manie yeeres, in great derogation of your imperiall crowne, and authoritie roiall, contrarie to right and conſcience. For where this your graces realme, recognizing no ſuperior vnder God, but onelie your grace, hath beene, and is free from ſubiection to anie mans lawes, but onelie to ſuch as haue beene deuiſed, made, and ordeined, within this realme for the wealth of the ſame, or to ſuch other, as by ſufferance of your grace and your progenitors, the people of this your realme, haue taken at their free libertie by their owne conſent to be vſed amongſt them, and haue bound themſelues by long vſe and cuſtome, to the obſeruance of the ſame, not as to the obſeruance of the lawes of anie forren prince, potentate, or prelat, but as to the cuſtomed and ancient lawes of this realme, originallie eſtabliſhed, as lawes of the ſame, by the ſaid ſufferance, conſents, and cuſtome, and none otherwiſe. It ſtandeth therefore with naturall equitie and good reaſon, that all and euerie ſuch lawes humaine, made within this realme, or induced into this realme, by the ſaid ſufferance, conſents, and cuſtome, your roiall maieſtie, ieſtie, and your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and commons repreſenting the whole ſtate of your realme, in this your moſt high court of parlement, haue full power and authoritie, not onelie to diſpenſe, but alſo to authorize, ſome elect perſon or perſons, to diſpenſe with thoſe and all other humaine lawes of this your realme, and with euerie one of them, as the qualitie of the perſons and matter ſhall require. And alſo the ſaid lawes, and euerie of them, to abrogate, adnull, amplifie, or diminiſh, as it ſhall be ſeene vnto your maieſtie, and the nobles and commons of your realme, preſent in your parlement, meet and conuenient for the wealth of your realme, as by diuerſe good and wholeſome acts of parlements, made and eſtabliſhed, as well in your time, as in the time of your moſt noble progenitors, it maie plainelie and euidentlie appeare. And bicauſe that it is now in theſe daies preſent ſeene, that the ſtate, dignitie, ſuperioritie, reputation, and authoritie of the ſaid imperiall crowne of this realme, by the long ſufferance of the ſaid vnreaſonable and vncharitable vſurpations, and exactions, practiſed in the times of your moſt noble progenitors, is much and ſore decaied, and diminiſhed, and the people of this realme thereby impoueriſhed, and ſo or worſe be like to continue, if remedie thereof be not ſhortlie prouided.

¶ It maie therefore pleaſe your moſt noble maieſtie, for the honor of almightie God, and for the tender loue, zeale, and affection, that yee beare and alwaies haue borne, to the wealth of this your realme, and ſubiects of the ſame, for as much as your maieſtie is ſupreame head of the church of England, as the prelats and clergie of your realme, repreſenting the ſaid church in their ſynods and conuocations haue recognized: in whome conſiſteth full power and authoritie vpon all ſuch lawes as hath beene made and vſed within this realme, to ordeine and enact by the aſſent of your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons of this your realme, or of anie other your dominions, ſhall from henſeforth paie anie penſions, cenſes, portions, peterpenſe, or anie other impoſitions, to the vſe of the ſaid biſhop, or of the ſee of Rome, like as heeretofore they haue vſed, by vſurpation of the ſaid biſhop of Rome, and his predeceſſors, and ſufferance of your highneſſe & your moſt noble progenitors to doo, but that all ſuch penſions, cenſes, portions, and peterpenſe, which the ſaid biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, hath heeretofore taken and perceiued, or cauſed to be taken and perceiued to his vſe and his chambres, which he calleth apoſtolike, by vſurpation and ſufferance, as is abouesaid, within this your realme, or anie other your dominions, ſhall from henſeforth cleerelie ſurceaſe, and neuer more be leuied, taken, perceiued, nor paid to anie perſon or perſons in anie maner of wiſe, anie conſtitution, vſe, or preſcription, or cuſtome to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Monie ſhall not be paid to the pope.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that neither your highneſſe, your heires, nor ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, nor anie your ſubiects of this realme, nor of anie other your dominions, ſhall from henſeforth ſue to the ſaid biſhop of Rome, called the pope, or to the ſee of Rome, or to anie perſon or perſons, hauing or pretending anie authoritie by the ſame, for licences, diſpenſations, impoſitions, faculties, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, or anie other inſtruments or writings, of what kind, name, nature, or qualitie, ſo euer they of, for anie cauſe or matter: for the which anie licence, diſpenſation, compoſition, facultie, grant, ſcript, delegacie, inſtrument, or other writing heeretofore hath beene vſed and accuſtomed to be had and obteined at the ſee of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, or of anie prelat of this realme: nor for anie maner of other licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, or anie other inſtruments or writings, that in cauſes of neceſſitie maie lawfullie be granted, without offending of the holie ſcriptures and lawes of God: but that from henſeforth euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, compoſition, facultie, grant reſcript, delegacie, inſtrument, and other writing afore named and mentioned, neceſſarie for your highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, and your and their people and ſubiects, vpon the due examinations of the cauſes and qualities, of the perſons procuring ſuch diſpenſations, licences, compoſitions, faculties, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, inſtruments, or other writings, ſhall be granted, had, and obteined, from time to time, within this your realme, and other your dominions, and not elſewhere, in maner and forme following, and none otherwiſe, that is to ſaie: the archbiſhop of Canturburie, for the time being, and his ſucceſſors, ſhall haue power and authoritie from time to time, by their diſcretions, to giue, grant, and diſpoſe, by an inſtrument vnder the ſeale of the ſaid archbiſhop, vnto your maieſtie, and to your heires and ſucceſſors, kings of this relme, as well all maner ſuch licences diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, inſtruments, and all other writings, for cauſes not being contrarie or repugnant to the holie ſcriptures and lawes of God, as heeretofore hath beene vſed, and accuſtomed to be had and obteined by your highneſſe, or anie your moſt noble progenitors, or anie of yours or their ſubiects, at the ſee of Rome, or anie perſon or perſons by authoritie of the ſame: and all other licences, diſpenſations, faculties, compoſitions, grants, reſcripts, delegacies, inſtruments, and other writings, in, for and vpon all ſuch caſes and matters, as ſhall be conuenient and neceſſarie to be had, for the honor and ſuertie of your highneſſe, your heires, and ſucceſſors, and the wealth and profit of this your realme: ſo that the ſaid archbiſhop, or anie his ſucceſſors, in no maner wiſe ſhall grant anie diſpenſation, licence, reſcript, or anie other writing afore rehearſed, for anie cauſe or matter repugnant to the law of almightie God.

Sute ſhall not be made to the pope.

B. of Can. ſhall grant licences.

licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, delegacies, reſcripts, inſtruments, or other writings, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by themſelfe, or by their ſufficient and ſubſtantiall commiſſarie or deputie, by their diſcretions, from time to time, to grant and diſpoſe by an inſtrument vnder the name and ſeale of the ſaid archbiſhop, as well to anie of your ſubiects, as to the ſubiects of your heires and ſucceſſors, all maner licences, diſpenſations, faculties, compoſitions, delegacies, reſcripts, inſtruments, or other writings for anie ſuch cauſe or matter, whereof heeretofore ſuch licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, delegacies, reſcripts, inſtruments, or writings, haue béene accuſtomed to be had at the ſée of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, or of anie prelat of this realme. And that the ſaid archbiſhop and his commiſſarie ſhall not grant anie other licence, diſpenſation, compoſition, facultie, writing, or inſtrument, in cauſes vnwont, and not accuſtomed to be had or obteined at the court of Rome, nor by authoritie thereof, nor by anie prelat of this realme, vntill your grace, your heires, or ſucceſſors, or your or their counſell, ſhall firſt be aduertiſed thereof, and determine whether ſuch licences, diſpenſations, compoſitions, faculties, or other writings in ſuch cauſes vnwont and not accuſtomed to be diſpenſed withall, or obteined, ſhall commonlie paſſe as other diſpenſations, faculties, or other writings, ſhall or doo, vpon paine that the granters of euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, or writing in ſuch cauſes vnwont, contrarie to this act, ſhall make fine at the will and pleaſure of your grace, your heires, and ſucceſſors. And if it be thought and determined by your grace, your heires or ſucceſſors, or your or their counſell, that diſpenſations, faculties, licences, or other writings in anie ſuch cauſe vnwont, ſhall paſſe, then the ſaid archbiſhop or his commiſſarie, hauing licence of your highneſſe, your heires, or ſucceſſors for the ſame, by your or their bill aſſigned, ſhall diſpenſe with them accordinglie.

¶Prouided alwaies, that no maner of diſpenſations, licences, faculties, or other reſcripts or writings héereafter to be granted to anie perſon or perſons, by vertue or authoritie of this act by the ſaid archbiſhop, or his commiſſarie, being of ſuch importance, that the tax for the expedition thereof at Rome, extended to the ſumme of foure pounds or aboue, ſhall in anie wiſe be put in execution, till the ſame licence, diſpenſation, facultie, reſcript, or other writing, of what name or nature ſo euer it be of, be firſt confirmed by your highneſſe, your heires, or ſucceſſors, kings of this realme, vnder the great ſeale, and inrolled in your chancerie in a roll by a clerke to be appointed for the ſame. And that this act ſhall be a ſufficient warrant to the chancellor of England, for the time being, or to him, whome your grace, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall depute to be kéeper of the great ſeale, to confirme in your name, your heires or ſucceſſors, the foreſaid writings, paſſed vnder the ſaid archbiſhops ſeale, by letters patents, in due forme thereof to be made vnder your great ſeale, remitting as well the ſaid writing, vnder the archbiſhops ſeale, as the ſaid confirmation vnder the great ſeale, to the parties from time to time, procuring for the ſame. And that all ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, and other reſcripts and writings, for the expedition of the which, the ſaid taxes to be paid at Rome, was vnder foure pounds, which be matters of no great importance, ſhall paſſe onelie by the archbiſhops ſeale, and ſhall not of anie neceſſitie be confirmed by the great ſeale, vnleſſe the procurers of ſuch licence, facultie, or diſpenſation, deſire to haue them ſo confirmed, in which caſe they ſhall paie for the ſaid great ſeale, to the vſe of your highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, fiue ſhillings ſterling, and not aboue, ouer and beſide ſuch tax as ſhall be héereafter limited, for the making, writing, regiſtring, confirming, and inrolling of ſuch licences, confirmations, and writings, vnder the ſaid tax of foure pounds. And that euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, compoſition, facultie, reſcript, and writing, of what name or nature ſo euer it be, for ſuch cauſes as the tax was wont to be foure pounds, or aboue ſo granted by the archbiſhop, and confirmed vnder the great ſeale, and all other licences, diſpenſations, faculties, reſcripts, and writings, héereafter to be granted by the archbiſhop, by vertue and authoritie of this act, whereunto the great ſeale is not limited of neceſſitie to be put to, by reaſon that the tax of them is vnder foure pounds ſhall be accepted, approued, allowed, and admitted good and effectuall in the law, in all places, courts, and iuriſdictions, as well ſpirituall as temporall, within this realme, as elſewhere within your dominions, and as beneficiall to the perſons obteining the ſame, as they ſhould haue beene if they had béene obteined with all things requiſit, of the ſée of Rome, or of anie other perſon by authoritie thereof, without anie reuocation or repeale héereafter to be had of anie ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, reſcripts, or writings, of what nature ſo euer they be. And that all children procreated after ſolemnization of anie marriages, to be had or doone by vertue of ſuch licences or diſpenſations, ſhall be admitted, reputed, and taken legitimate in all courts, as well ſpirituall as temporall, and in all other places, and inherit the inheritance of their parents and anceſtors within this your realme, and all other your dominions, according to the lawes and cuſtoms of the ſame: and all acts to be doone, had, or executed, according to the tenor of ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, writings, or other inſtruments, to be made or granted by authoritie of this act, ſhall be firme, permanent, and remaine in force, anie forren lawes, conſtitutions, decrées, canons, decretals, inhibitions, vſe, cuſtome, preſcription, or anie other thing had, or héereafter to be made to the contrarie, notwithſtanding.

Clerke Regiſter

¶ And be it further enacted, that the ſaid archbiſhop and his ſucceſſors, ſhall haue power and authoritie, to ordeine, make, and conſtitute, a clerke, which ſhall write and regiſter euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, facultie, writing, or other inſtrument to be granted by the ſaid archbiſhop, and ſhall find parchment, wax, and ſilken laces, conuenient for the ſame, and ſhall take for his paines ſuch ſums of monie as ſhall be héereafter in this preſent act to him limited in that behalfe for the ſame. And that likewiſe your grace, your heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall by your letters patents, vnder your great ſeale, ordeine, depute, and conſtitute, one ſufficient clerke, being learned in the court of the chancerie, which alwaies ſhall be attendant vpon the lord chancellor, or the lord kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being, and ſhall make, write, and inroll the confirmations of all ſuch licences, diſpenſations, inſtruments, and other writings, as ſhall be thither brought vnder the archbiſhops ſeale, there to be confirmed and inrolled: and ſhall alſo intitle in his bookes and inroll of record ſuch other writings, as thither ſhall be brought vnder the archbiſhops ſeale not to be confirmed: taking for his paines ſuch reaſonable ſummes of monie as héereafter by this act to him ſhall be limited for the ſame. And that aſwell the ſaid clerke appointed by the ſaid archbiſhop, as the ſaid clerke to be appointed by your highneſſe, your heires, or ſucceſſors, ſhall ſubſcribe their names to euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, facultie, or other writing, that ſhall come to their hands to be written, made, granted, ſealed, confirmed, regiſtred, and inrolled, by authoritie of this act, in forme as is before rehearſed.

¶ And for as much as the charges of obteining the ſaid licences, diſpenſations, faculties, and other reſcripts or writings aforenamed, at the court of Rome by the loſſes and exchanges, and in conducting of currours, and waging of ſolicitors, to ſue for anie ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, inſtruments, and other reſcripts or writings, haue béene gréeuous and exceſſiue to your people, and manie times greater ſums haue béene demanded, for the ſpéedie expedition in the court of Rome, than be expreſſed in the old tax, limited to be paid for the ſaid expeditions, whereby your people haue béene brought to an incerteintie vpon the paiment, for expeditions of ſuch things, and by reaſon thereof haue béene conſtreined to paie more than they were wont to doo, to the great impoueriſhing of this realme, as is aforeſaid. And ſomtimes the ſpéeding of ſuch diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other writings at Rome, haue béene ſo long deferred, that the parties labouring for the ſame, haue ſuffered great incommodities and loſſe, for lacke of quicke ſpéed, which héereafter maie be had within this your realme, to the great commoditie of your people. Whereby the charges of making exchanges, conducting of currours and ſolicitors, for the ſaid diſpenſations, ſhall be abated, and your people ſo much reléeued and eaſed, to the intent that all ambiguitie and incerteintie of paiments, for diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts and writings, maie be taken awaie, that no fraud or exaction ſhall be exerciſed vpon your people, by ſuch officers as ſhall be appointed by this act, to take paines in ſpéeding ſuch diſpenſations, faculties, and licences, but that your people maie be ſure and certeine, what they be appointed to paie for the ſame. Be it enacted by this preſent parlement, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that there ſhall be two books drawne and made of one tenor: in which ſhall be conteined the taxes of all cuſtomable diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other writings, wont to be ſped at Rome, which bookes, and euerie leafe of thoſe books, and both ſides of euerie leafe, ſhall be ſubſcribed by the archbiſhop of Canturburie, the lord chancellor of England, the lord treaſuror of England, and the two chéefe iuſtices of both benches for the time being: to the which bookes all ſuters for diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other writings afore rehearſed, ſhall haue recourſe if they require it. And one of the ſaid bookes ſhall remaine in the hands of him, which ſhall be appointed to be regiſter and ſcribe, of the ſaid diſpenſations, faculties, & licences, vnder the ſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie, in forme as is beforeſaid: and the other booke ſhall remaine with the clerke of the chancerie, which by your grace, your heires, or ſucceſſors, ſhall be appointed, as is before rehearſed. Which clerke of the chancerie ſhall alſo intitle and note particularlie and dailie in his booke, ordeined for that purpoſe, the number and qualitie of the diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts and writings, which ſhall be ſealed onelie with the ſeale of the ſaid archbiſhop: and alſo which ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid ſeale, and confirmed with the great ſeale, in forme as is before ſaid, that all fraud and concealment in this behalfe maie be auoided.

Ratificatiõ of taxes.

¶ And be it enacted by this preſent parlement, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no man ſuing for diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts or writings, which were wont to be ſped at Rome, ſhall paie anie more for their diſpenſations, licence, or reſcripts, than ſhall be conteined, taxed, and limited in the ſait duplicate booke of taxes: onelie compoſitions excepted, of which being arbitrarie no tax can be made: wherefore the tax thereof ſhall be ſet and limited by the diſcretion of the ſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie, and the lord chancellor of England, or the lord kéeper of the great ſeale, for the time being. And that ſuch as ſhall exact or receiue of anie ſuter more for anie diſpenſation, facultie, or licence, than ſhall be conteined in the ſaid books of taxes, ſhall forfeit ten times ſo much as he ſhall ſo extortiouſlie exact and receiue: the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the vſe of your grace, your heires or ſucceſſors, & the other halfe therof to be to ſuch of your ſubiects as will ſue for the ſame, by action, bill, or plaint in anie of your graces courts, wherein the defendant ſhall haue no eſſoine nor protection allowed, neither ſhall be admitted to wage his law.

Extortion.

¶ Be it alſo enacted by this parlement, and authoritie of the ſame, that the tax or ſum appointed to be paid for euerie ſuch diſpenſation, licence, facultie, inſtrument, reſcript, or other writing, to be granted by authoritie of this act, ſhall be imploied and ordered, as héereafter inſueth, that is to ſaie, if the tax extend to foure pounds or aboue, by reaſon whereof, the diſpenſation, licence, facultie, reſcript, or writing, which ſhall paſſe by the ſaid archbiſhops ſeale, muſt be confirmed by the appenſion of the great ſeale: then the ſaid tax ſo extending to foure pounds or aboue, ſhall be diuided into three parts, whereof two ſhall be perceiued by the ſaid clerke of the chancerie, to be appointed (as is aforeſaid) to the vſe of your highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, and to the vſe of the lord chancellor, or the keeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, and to the vſe of the ſaid clerke, in ſuch wiſe as heereafter ſhall be declared. And the third part ſhall be taken by the ſaid clerke of the archbiſhop, to the vſe of the ſame archbiſhop and his commiſſarie and his ſaid clerke and regiſter, in ſuch wiſe as heereafter ſhall be ordered and limited by this act: that is to ſaie, the ſaid two parts ſhall be diuided in foure parts, of which three parts ſhall be taken to the onelie vſe of your highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors: and the fourth part ſhall be diuided in three parts, whereof the chancellor of England, or lord keeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, ſhall haue two parts, and the ſaid clerke of the chancerie, the third part for his paines, trauell and labours, that he is limited to write and doo by vertue of this act. And the ſaid third part of the whole tax, appointed to the ſaid archbiſhop and his officers (as is aforeſaid) ſhall be diuided into three parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall haue to his vſe two parts, and his officers ſhall haue the third part thereof: of which third part to be diuided into two parts, the ſaid clerke or regiſter, which ſhall find parchment, wax, and ſilke, and ſhall deuiſe and write the ſaid diſpenſations, licences, faculties, reſcripts, or other writings, and regiſter the ſame, ſhall haue for his ſaid labour, and for receiuing and repaieng of the ſums of monie, that ſhall come to his hands for diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts aforeſaid, the one moitie thereof, and the commiſſarie of the ſaid archbiſhop, appointed to ſeale the ſaid diſpenſations, faculties, licences, and other reſcripts, ſhall haue the other part. And if the tax be vnder foure pounds, and not vnder fortie ſhillings, then the ſaid tax ſhall be diuided into three parts, as is aforeſaid, whereof the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors ſhall haue two parts whereof abating three ſhillings foure penſe, which ſhall be to the ſaid clerke of the chancerie for ſubſcribing, intituling, and inrolling the ſaid diſpenſations, licences, faculties, reſcripts, and other writings aforeſaid, and receiuing of the kings monie ſo taxed: and the archbiſhop and his officers ſhall haue the third part, which third part ſhall be diuided into two parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall haue the one intirelie to himſelfe, his ſcribe and commiſſarie ſhall haue the other part thereof, egallie to be diuided amongſt them for their coſts & paines in that behalfe. And if the tax be vnder fortie ſhillings, and not vnder ſix and twentie ſhillings eight penſe the ſame tax ſhall be diuided into two parts, whereof the one part ſhall be to your grace, your heires and ſucceſſors, deducting thereof two ſhillings for the clerke of the chancerie, for his paines as is aforeſaid. And the other part ſhall be to the ſaid archbiſhop and his officers, which other part ſhall be diuided into two parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall haue the one, and his commiſſarie and ſcribe ſhall haue the other egallie diuided amongſt them. And if the tax be vnder ſix and twentie ſhillings eight penſe, and not vnder twentie ſhillings, the ſame ſhall be diuided into two parts, whereof your grace, your heires, and ſucceſſors ſhall haue the one part intirelie, abating two ſhillings thereof to the ſaid clerke of the chancerie, and the archbiſhop and his officers ſhall haue the other part, and the ſame other part ſhall be diuided into three parts, whereof the archbiſhop ſhall haue one, his commiſſarie the ſecond, and his ſcribe or regiſter the third. And in caſe the tax be vnder twentie ſhillings, the ſame ſhall be perceiued to the vſe of the ſaid commiſſarie, clerke of the ſaid archbiſhop, and clerke of the chancerie, to be egallie diuided amongſt them for their paines and labours by them to be ſuſteined by authoritie of this act, as is aforeſaid.

Biſhop of Yorke.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this act ſhall not be preiudiciall to the archbiſhop of Yorke, or to anie biſhop or prelat of this realme: but that they maie lawfullie (notwithſtanding this act) diſpenſe in all caſes, in which they were woont to diſpenſe by the common law or cuſtome of this realme, afore the making of this act.

See void.

¶ Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if it happen the ſee of the archbiſhoprike of Canturburie to be void, that then all ſuch maner licences, diſpenſations, faculties, inſtruments, reſcripts, and other writings, which maie be granted by vertue and authoritie of this act, ſhall (during the vacation of the ſame ſee) be had, doone and granted vnder the name and ſeale of the gardian of the ſpiritualties of the ſaid archbiſhoprike for the time being, according to tenor and forme of this act, and ſhall be of like force, value, and effect, as if they had beene granted vnder the name and ſeale of the archbiſhop for the time being.

Gardian of the ſpiritualties.

Refuſe.

¶ And be it further enacted, that if the foreſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie (for the time being) or the ſaid gardian of the ſpiritualties, for the time being, heereafter refuſe or denie to grant anie licences, diſpenſations, faculties, inſtruments, or other writing, which they be authorized to doo, by vertue and authoritie of this act, in ſuch maner and forme as is afore remembred to anie perſon or perſons, that ought of a good, iuſt, and reaſonable cauſe to haue the ſame, by reaſon whereof, this preſent act by their wilfulneſſe, negligence, or default ſhould take none effect: then the chancellor of England, or the lord keeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, vpon anie complaint thereof made, ſhall direct the kings writ to the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian, denieng or refuſing to grant ſuch licences, diſpenſations, faculties, or other writings, inioining him by the ſaid writ, vpon a certeine paine therein to be limited by the diſcretion of the ſaid chancellor, or keeper of the great ſeale, that he ſhall in due forme grant ſuch licence, diſpenſation, facultie, or other writing, according to the requeſt of the procurers of the ſame: or elſe ſignifie vnto your highneſſe, your heires, or ſucceſſors, in the court of chancerie, at a certeine daie, for what occaſion or cauſe he refuſed and denied to grant ſuch licences, faculties or diſpenſations. And if it ſhall appeare to the ſaid chancellor, or lord keeper of the great ſeals, vpon ſuch certificat, that the cauſe of refuſall or deniall of granting ſuch licences, facultie or diſpenſation was reaſonable, iuſt, and good: that then ſo being proued by due ſearch and examination of the ſaid chancellor or lord keeper of the great ſeale, to be admitted and allowed. And if it ſhall appeare vpon the ſaid certificat, that the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian of the ſpiritualties, for the time being, of wilfulneſſe, in contemning the due execution of this act, without a iuſt and reaſonable cauſe, refuſed or denied to grant ſuch licence, facultie or diſpenſation: than then your highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, being thereof informed, after due examination had, that ſuch licences, faculties or diſpenſations maie be granted, without offending the holie ſcriptures and lawes of God, ſhall haue power & authoritie in euerie ſuch caſe, for the default, negligence and wilfulnes of the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian, to ſend your writ of iniunction, vnder your great ſeale, out of your ſaid court of chancerie, commanding the archbiſhop or gardian, that ſo ſhall denie or refuſe to grant ſuch licence, facultie or diſpenſation, to make ſufficient grant thereof, according to the tenor and effect of this act, by a certeine daie, and vnder a certeine paine in the ſaid writ to be conteined, and to be limited by your highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, kings of this relme. And if the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian, after the receipt of the ſaid writ, refuſe or denie to grant ſuch licences, faculties or diſpenſations, as ſhall be inioined him by vertue of the ſaid writ, and ſhew and proue before your maieſtie, your heires or ſucceſſors, no iuſt or reaſonable cauſe whie he ſhould ſo doo, then the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian, that ſo ſhall refuſe to put this act in execution, according to the ſaid writ of iniunction, ſhall ſuffer, looſe and forfeit to your highneſſe, your heirs and ſucceſſors, ſuch paine and penaltie, as ſhall be limited and expreſſed in the ſaid writ of iniunction. And ouer that it ſhall be lawfull to your highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, for euerie ſuch default and wilfulneſſe of the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian for the time being, to giue power and authoritie by commiſſion, vnder your great ſeale to ſuch two ſpirituall prelats or perſons to be named by your highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, as will doo and grant ſuch licences, faculties & diſpenſations, refuſed or denied to be granted by the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian, in contempt of this act.

Commiſſiõ.

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid two ſpirituall prelats or perſons, to whom in ſuch caſes, anie ſuch commiſſion ſhall be directed, ſhall haue power and authoritie to grant euerie ſuch licence, facultie, diſpenſation, inſtrument, and other writings ſo refuſed to be granted by the ſaid archbiſhop or gardian for the time being, by an inſtrument vnder their ſeales, taking like fees & charges for the ſame, as is before rehearſed, and not aboue, vnder the pains afore remembred. And that euerie ſuch licence, facultie & diſpenſation ſo granted for anie caſes or matters, whereunto anie confirmation vnder the kings great ſeale is appointed by this act, to be had in maner and forme aboue declared, ſhall be had and obteined accordinglie. And ſuch licences & confirmations ſhall be had for like fees & charges, as they are aboue ſpecified, and not aboue, vnder the paines aboue mentioned. And that euerie ſuch licence, facultie, diſpenſation and other writing to be granted by the ſaid prelats or perſons to be aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be of as good value, ſtrength and effect, and as beneficiall and profitable to the perſons procuring the ſame, as if they had beene made, granted and obteined vnder the name and ſeale of the ſaid archbiſhop.

Diſpenſatiõ

¶ Prouided alwaies that this act, nor anie thing or things therein conteined, ſhall be hereafter interpreted or expounded, that your grace, your nobles and ſubiects intend by the ſame to decline or varie from the congregation of Chriſtes church, in anie things concerning the verie articles of the catholike faith of chriſtendome, or in anie other things declared by holie ſcripture & the word of God neceſſarie for your and their ſaluations, but onelie to make an ordinance by policies neceſſarie and conuenient to repreſſe vice, and for good conſeruation of this relme in peace, vnitie and tranquillitie, from rauin & ſpoile, inſuing much the old ancient cuſtoms of this realme in that behalfe, not minding to ſeeke for any releefs, ſuccors or remedies for any worldlie things & humane lawes, in anie cauſe of neceſſitie, but within this realme at the hands of your highneſſe, your heirs and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, which haue and ought to haue an imperiall power and authoritie in the ſame, and not obliged in anie worldlie cauſes to anie other ſuperior.

Viſitation

¶ Prouided alwaies, that the ſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie, or anie other perſon or perſons, ſhall haue no power or authoritie by reaſon of this act, to viſit or vex anie monaſteries, abbeies, priories, colleges, hoſpitals, houſes, or other places religious, which be or were exempt before the making of this act, anie thing in this act to the contrarie therof notwithſtanding, but that redreſſe, viſitation, & confirmation ſhall be had by the kings highneſſe, his heires & ſucceſſors by commiſſion vnder the great ſeale to be directed to ſuch perſons, as ſhall be appointed requiſit for the ſame. in ſuch monaſteries, colleges, hoſpitals, priories, houſes, and places religious exempt. So that no viſitation nor confirmation ſhall from henſeforth be had or made, in or at anie ſuch monaſteries, colleges, hoſpitals, priories, houſes and places religious exempt by the ſaid biſhop of Rome, nor by anie of his authoritie, nor by anie out of the kings dominions. Nor that anie perſon religious or other reſiant in anie the kings dominions, ſhall from henſeforth depart out of the kings dominions, to or for anie viſitation, congregation, or aſſemble for religion, but that all ſuch viſitations, congregations and aſſemblies ſhall be within the kings dominions.

And that the ſame act for pluralities and non reſidences of benefices, and euerie thing therein conteined ſhall ſtand good and effectuall in all intents, according to the true meaning thereof, anie thing in this preſent act, or anie licence or diſpenſation to be had by authoritie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Sute to Rome.

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, ſubiect or reſiant within this realme, or within anie of the kings dominions, at anie time heereafter ſue to the court of Rome, or the ſee of Rome, or to anie perſon claiming to haue his authoritie by the ſame, for anie licence, facultie, diſpenſation, or other thing or things contrarie to this act, or put in execution anie licence, facultie, or diſpenſation, or anie other thing or things heereafter to be obteined from Rome or the ſee of Rome, or from anie claiming authoritie by the ſame, for anie of the cauſes aboue mentioned in this act, or for anie other cauſes that maie be granted by authoritie of this act, or attempt or doo any thing or things, contrarie to this act, or mainteine, allow, admit or obeie any maner of cenſures, excommunications, interdictions, or anie other proceſſe from Rome, of what name or nature ſoeuer it be, to the derogation or let of the execution of this act, or of anie thing or things to be doone by reaſon of the ſaid act, that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo dooing, offending, and being thereof conuict, their aiders, counſellors and abbettors ſhall incur and run into the paine, loſſe and penaltie compriſed and ſpecified in the act of prouiſion and premunire, made in the ſixteenth yeers of your moſt noble progenitor king Richard the ſecond, againſt ſuch as ſue to the court of Rome againſt your crowne and dignitie roiall.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not heereafter be taken nor expounded to the derogation or taking awaie of anie grants or confirmations of anie liberties, priuileges or iuriſdiction of anie monaſteries, abbeies, priories, or other houſes or places exempt, which heeretofore the making of this act, hath beene obteined at the ſee of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, but that euerie ſuch grant and confirmation ſhall be of the ſame value, force & effect, as they were afore the making of this act, and as if this act had neuer beene made. Prouided alwaies, that the abbats, priors, and other cheefe rulers and gouernors of ſuch monaſteries, abbeies, priories, and other houſes and places exempt, ſhall not heereafter paie anie penſion, portion or other cenſe to the ſee of Rome, nor admit or accept anie viſitation nor anie confirmation from or by the ſaid ſee of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, of or for anie perſon to be elect, named or preſented to be heads of anie ſuch monaſteries, abbeies, priories, places or houſes exempt: nor ſhall make anie corporall oth to the biſhop of Rome, otherwiſe called the pope, vpon the paines limited in this act: but that euerie ſuch viſitation and confirmation of ſuch heads elect in anie ſuch monaſteries, abbeies, priories, houſes or places exempt, where after their election they were bounden to haue and obteine anie confirmation of their election, or of the perſon named, preſented or elect ſhall be from henſefoorth had, made and doone within this realme, at and within euerie ſuch abbeies, monaſteries, priories, and other houſes and places exempt by ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall be appointed by authoritie of the kings commiſſion from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require, and not by the ſee of Rome nor by authoritie thereof, anie thing in this next prouiſo aboue ſpecified to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Confirmat.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that in ſuch monaſteries, abbeies, priories and houſes exempt, where after election, preſentation or nomination of their heads, no ſuch confirmation is requiſit to be had, nor hath beene vſed to be taken by reaſon of ſuch priuileges as they haue concerning the ſame, that in euerie ſuch monaſteries, abbeies, priories, and places exempt, they ſhall not be bounden to obteine, haue or take anie confirmation for the ſame within this realme by authoritie of this act, but vſe their priuileges therein as they haue doone before the making of this act; anie thing in this act, or anie the prouiſos next aboue rehearſed, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that this act, or anie thing or things, word or words therein, or in the preamble thereof mentioned or conteined, is not intended or meant, nor ſhall be expounded nor interpreted, that anie diſpenſations, licences or confirmations for marriages, granted to anie the kings ſubiects, borne vnder his obeiſance, at anie time before the twelfe daie of March, in the yeere of our Lord God 1533, ſhall be appaired or of anie leſſe value, ſtrength, force or effect, than they were at the ſaid twelfe daie of March. Nor that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to the derogation, appairing, or adnullation of anie licences, diſpenſations, confirmations, faculties or indulgences, at anie time before the ſaid twelfe daie of March, in the yeere of our Lord God 1533 had or obteined at the ſee of Rome, or by authoritie thereof, to or for anie ſubiects borne in this realme, or in anie the kings dominions, or to or for the hoſpitall of the prior of ſaint Iohns Ieruſalem in England, or anie commanders or members thereof, or to or for anie other cathedrall churches, hoſpitals, monaſteries, abbeies, priories, colleges, conuentuall churches, pariſh churches, chapels, fraternities, brotherhoods, or bodies politike within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions; but that euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, confirmation, facultie and indulgence, granted before the ſaid twelfe day of March to anie ſubiect, or to the ſaid hoſpitall of the prior of S. Iohns Ieruſalem in England, and commanders or members thereof, or to anie other cathedrall church, hoſpitall, monaſterie, abbeie, priorie, college, church conuentuall, pariſh church, chapell, fraternitie, brotherhood, or bodie politike, or to their predeceſſors or anceſters within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, ſhall be of the ſame force, ſtrength, value and effect, and maie be from time to time put in execution at all times héereafter by and to them that will vſe and haue the ſame, as they might haue béene afore the making of this act, and as if this act had neuer béene had nc made: anie thing in the ſaid act to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

An act declaring the eſtabliſhment of ſucceſſion of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie in the imperiall crowne of this realme.

IN their humble wiſe ſheweth vnto your maieſtie, your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that ſince it is the naturall inclination of euerie man, gladlie and willinglie to prouide for the ſuretie of both his title and ſucceſſion, although it touch his onelie priuat cauſe. We therefore moſt rightfull and dreadfull ſouereigne lord, reckon our ſelues much more bounden to beſeech, and inſtant your highneſſe, although we doubt not of your princelie heart and wiſdome, mixed with a naturall affection to the ſame, to foreſée and prouide for the perfect ſuretie of both you and of your moſt lawfull ſucceſſion and heires, vpon which dependeth all our ioy and wealth: in whom alſo is vnited and knit the onelie meere true inheritance and title of this realme without anie contradiction. Wherefore we your ſaid moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, in this preſent parlement aſſembled, calling to our remembrance the great diuiſions, which in times paſt haue béene in this realme, by reaſon of ſeuerall titles pretended to the imperiall crowne of the ſame, which ſometimes, and for the moſt part inſued by occaſion of ambiguitie and doubts, then not ſo perfectlie declared, but that men might vpon froward intents expound them to euerie mans ſiniſter appetite and affection, after their ſence, contrarie to the right legalitie of the ſucceſſion & poſteritie of the lawfull kings and emperors of this realme: whereof hath inſued great effuſion and deſtruction of mans bloud, aſwell of a great number of the nobles as of other the ſubiects, and ſpeciallie inheritors in the ſame. And the greateſt occaſion thereof hath béene becauſe no perfect and ſubſtantiall prouiſion by law hath béene made within this realme of it ſelfe, when doubts & queſtions haue béene moued and proponed of the certeintie and legalitie of the ſucceſſion and poſteritie of the crowne: by reaſon wherof the biſhop of Rome and ſée apoſtolike, contrarie to the great and inuiolable grants of iuriſdictions by God immediatlie to emperors, kings and princes in ſucceſſion to their heires, hath preſumed in times paſt to inueſt, who ſhould pleaſe them to inherit in other mens kingdoms and dominions: which thing we your moſt humble ſubiects, both ſpirituall & temporall, doo moſt abhorre and deteſt. And ſometimes other forren princes and potentats of ſundrie degrées, minding rather diſſention and diſcord to continue in the realme, to the vtter deſolation thereof, than charitie, equitie, or vnitie, haue manie times ſupported wrong titles, whereby they might the more eaſilie and facilie aſpire to the ſuperioritie of the ſame. The continuance and ſufferance wherof déeplie conſidered and pondered, were too dangerous and perillous to be ſuffered any longer within this realme, and too much contrarie to the vnitie, peace and tranquillitie of the ſame, being greatlie reprochable and diſhonorable to the whole realme.

¶ In conſideration whereof, your ſaid moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, the nobles and the commons of this realme, calling further to their remembrance, that the good vnitie, peace and wealth of this realme, and the ſucceſſion of the ſubiects of the ſame moſt ſpeciallie and principallie aboue all worldlie things, conſiſteth and reſteth in the certeintie and ſuretie of the procreation and poſteritie of your highneſſe, in whoſe moſt roiall perſon at this preſent time is no maner of doubt nor queſtion, doo therefore moſt humblie beſéech your highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the marriage héeretofore ſolemnized betwéene your highneſſe and the ladie Katherine, being before lawfull wife to prince Arthur, your elder brother, which by him was carnallie knowne, as dooth dulie appeare by ſufficient proofe in a lawfull proceſſe had and made before Thomas by the ſufferance of God, now archbiſhop of Canturburie and metropolitan and primat of all this realme, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent parlement, definitiuelie, clęerelie & abſolutelie declared, dęemed and adiudged to be againſt the lawes of almightie God, and alſo accepted, reputed and taken of no value ne effect: but vtterlie void & adnihiled, and the ſeparation thereof made by the ſaid archbiſhop ſhall be gœd and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes, anie licence, diſpenſation or any other act or acts going afore or inſuing the ſame, or to the contrarie thereof, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And that euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, act or acts, thing or things hęeretofore had, made, dœne or to be dœne to the contrarie thereof ſhall be void and of none effect. And that the ſaid ladie Katherine ſhalbe from henſeforth called and reputed onelie dowager to prince Arthur, and not quęene of this realme. And that the lawfull matrimonie had & ſolemnized betwęene your highneſſe and your moſt deare and intirelie beloued wiſe quęene Anne ſhall be eſtabliſhed, and taken for vndoubtfull, true, ſincere and perfect euer hęereafter, according to the iuſt iudgement of the ſaid Thomas archbiſhop of Canturburie, metropolitan & primat of all this realme, whoſe grounds of iudgement haue bęene confirmed as well by the whole clergie of this realme, in both the conuocations, and by both the vniuerſities therof, as by the vniuerſities of Bononie, Padua, Paris, Orleance, Tholouſe, Aniou, and diuerſe others: and alſo by the priuat writings of manie right excellent well learned men. Which grounds ſo confirmed, and iudgement of the ſaid archbiſhop inſuing the ſame, togither with your marriage ſolemnized betwęene your highneſſe and your ſaid lawfull wiſe quęene Anne, we your ſaid ſubiects both ſpirituall and temporall, dœ purelie, plainelie, conſtantlie and firmelie accept, approue and ratifie for gœd and conſonant to the lawes of almightie God, without error or default; moſt humblie beſęeching your maieſtie, that it may be ſo eſtabliſhed for euer by your moſt gratious and roiall aſſent.

Q. Anne

Degrees of mariage

And furthermore, ſince manie inconueniences haue fallen aſwell within this realme as in others, by reaſon of marrieng within the degręes of marriage prohibited by Gods lawes, that is to ſaie, The ſonne to marrie the mother, or the ſtepmother, the brother the ſiſter, the father his ſonnes daughter, or his daughters daughter, or the ſonne to marrie the daughter of his father, procreat and borne by his ſtepmother, or the ſonne to marrie his ant, being his father or mothers ſiſter, or to marrie his vncles wiſe, or the father to marie his ſonnes wiſe, or the brother to marie his brothers wiſe, or anie man to marrie his wiues daughter, or his wiues ſons daughter, or his wiues daughters daughter, or his wiues ſiſter. Which marriages albeit they be plainlie prohibited and deteſted by the lawes of almightie God, yet neuertheleſſe at ſome times they haue procęeded vnder colours of diſpenſations by mans power, which is but vſurped, and of right ought not to be granted, admitted ne allowed. For no man of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer he be, hath power to diſpenſe with Gods lawes, as all the clergie of this realme in the ſaid conuocations, and the moſt part of all the famous vniuerſities of chriſtendome, and we alſo dœ affirme and thinke.

¶ Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, ſubiects or reſiants of this realme, or in anie your dominions, of what eſtate, degrée or dignitie ſoeuer they be, ſhall from henſeforth marrie within the ſaid degręes afore rehearſed, what pretenſe ſoeuer ſhalbe made to the contrarie thereof. And in caſe anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, dignitie, degrée or condition ſoeuer they be, hath bęene hęeretofore married within this realme, or in anie the kings dominions, within anie the degręes aboue expreſſed, and by anie the archbiſhops, biſhops or miniſters of the church of England, be ſeparat from the bonds of ſuch vnlawfull marriage, that then euerie ſuch ſeparation ſhall be gœd, lawfull, firme and permanent for euer: and not by anie power, authoritie or means to be reuoked or vndœne hęereafter. And that the children procéeding or procreat vnder ſuch vnlawfull marriage ſhall not be lawfull ne legitimat: anie forren lawes, licences, diſpenſations, or other thing or things to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶ And in caſe there be anie perſon or perſons within this realme, or in anie the kings dominions, alreadie married within anie the ſaid degręes aboue ſpecified, and not yet ſeparat from the bonds of ſuch vnlawfull marriage: that then euerie ſuch perſon ſo vnlawfullie married ſhalbe ſeparat by the definitiue ſentence & iudgements of the archbiſhops, biſhops, and other miniſters of the church of England, and in other your dominions within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authorities, and by none other power or authoritie. And that all ſentences and iudgements, giuen & to be giuen by any archbiſhop, biſhop or other miniſter of the church of England, or in other the kings dominions, within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authoritie, ſhalbe definitiue, firme, gœd and effectuall to all intents, and be obſerued and obeied without ſuing anie prouocations, appeales, prohibitions, or other proceſſe from the court of Rome, to the derogation thereof, or contrarie to the act made ſince the beginning of this preſent parlement for reſtreint of ſuch prouocations, appeales, prohibitions and other proceſſes.

Iſſue of the king

The crowne intailed

¶ And alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all the iſſue had and procreat, or héreafter to be had and procreat betwęene your highneſſe and your ſaid moſt deare and intirelie beloued wiſe quęene Anne, ſhall be your lawfull children, and be inheritable and inherit according to the courſe of inheritance and lawes of this realme, the imperiall crowne of the ſame, with all dignities, honors, preheminences, prerogatiues, authorities and iuriſdictions to the ſame annexed or belonging, in as large and ample maner, as your highneſſe at this preſent time hath the ſame, as king of this realme, the inheritance thereof to be & remaine to your ſaid children & right heires, in maner & forme as hęereafter ſhalbe declared: that is to ſaie, firſt ẏ ſaid imperiall crowne, & other the pꝛemiſſes,ſhall be to your maieſtie and to your heirs of your bodie lawfullie begotten, that is to ſaie,to the firſt ſonne of your bodie betweene your highneſſe, and your ſaid lawfull wife, queene Anne begotten,and to the heirs of the bodie of the ſame firſt ſonne lawfullie begotten. And foꝛ default of ſuch heirs,then to the ſecond ſonne of your bodie,and of the bodie of the ſaid queene Anne begotten, & to the heirs of the bodie of the ſaid ſecond ſonne lawfully begotten, & ſo to euery ſonne of your bodie,& of the body of the ſaid queen Anne begotten,& to the heirs of the bodie of euery ſuch ſonne begotten,accoꝛding to the courſe of inheritance in that behalfe: and if it ſhall happen your ſaid deere and intirelie beloued wife quéene Anne to deceaſe without iſſue male of the bodie of your highneſſe to be gotten (which God defend) then the ſame imperiall crowne,and all other the pꝛemiſſes to be to your maieſtie,as is afoꝛeſaid,and to the ſonne and heire male of your bodie lawfullie begotten,and to the heirs of the bodie of the ſame ſonne and heire male lawfullie begotten, and foꝛ default of ſuch iſſue,then to your ſecond ſonne of your bodie lawfullie begotten, and to the heirs of the bodie of the ſame ſecond ſonne lawfullie begotten, and ſo from ſonne and heire male, to ſonne and heire male,and to the heirs of the ſeuerall bodies of euerie ſuch ſonne and heire male to be gotten accoꝛding to the courſe of inheritance,in like maner and foꝛme as is aboueſaid. And foꝛ default of ſuch ſonnes of your bodies begotten,and of the heirs of the ſeuerall bodies of euerie ſuch ſonnes lawfullie begotten,that then the ſaid imperiall crowne and other the pꝛemiſſes, ſhall be to the iſſue female betweene your maieſtie and your ſaid moſt deere and intirelie beloued wife quéene Anne begotten. That is to ſaie, firſt to the eldeſt iſſue female,which is the ladie Elizabeth now pꝛinceſſe,and to the heirs of hir bodie lawfullie begotten: and foꝛ default of ſuch iſſue, then to the ſecond iſſue female,and to the heirs of hir bodie lawfullie begotten,and ſo from iſſue female to iſſue female and to their heirs of their bodies one after another by courſe of inheritance,accoꝛding to their ages,as the crowne of England hath beene accuſtomed, and ought to go, in caſes when there be heirs females to the ſame.And foꝛ default of ſuch iſſue,then the ſaid imperiall crowne,and all other the pꝛemiſſes,be in the right heirs of your highneſſe foꝛ euer.

Miſpriſion

¶ And for the more ſure eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of your moſt roiall maieſtie,according to the tenour and forme of this act.Be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that as well all the nobles of your realme ſpirituall and temporall,as all other your ſubiects now liuing and being,or that hereafter ſhall be at their full ages,by the commandement of your maieſtie or of your heirs, at all times hereafter from time to time when it ſhall pleaſe your highneſſe or your heirs, to appoint,ſhall make a corporall oth in the preſence of your highneſſe, or your heirs, or before ſuch other,as your maieſtie or your heirs will depute for the ſame, that they ſhall truelie, firmlie, and conſtantlie without fraud or guile,obſerue,fulfill, and mainteine, defend and keepe, to their cunning,wit,and vttermoſt of their powers,the whole effects and contents of this preſent act.And that all maner your ſubiects, as well ſpirituall as temporall, ſuing liuerie,reſtitutions, or Oſter le maine,out of the hands of your highneſſe,or of your heirs,or doing anie fealtie to your highneſſe, or to your heirs,by reaſon of tenure of their lands,ſhall ſweare a like corporall oth,that they and euerie of them,without fraud or guile,to their cunning wit, and vttermoſt of their powers, ſhall truelie,firmlie,and conſtantlie,obſerue,fulfill,mainteine,defend, and keepe the effects & contents conteined and ſpecified in this act, or in anie part thereof. And that they nor anie of them ſhall hereafter haue anie liueries,Oſter le maine,or reſtitution out of your hands, nor out of the hands of your heirs,till they haue made the ſaid corporall oth,in forme aboue rehearſed. And if anie perſon or perſons,being commanded by authoritie of this act,to make the ſaid oth afore limited, obſtinatlie refuſe that to doo in contempt of this act,that then euery ſuch perſon ſo doing,to be taken and accepted for offendor in miſpriſion of high treaſon, and that euerie ſuch refuſall ſhall bee deemed and adiudged miſpriſion of high treaſon : and the offendour therein to ſuffer ſuch pains and impriſonment, loſſes and forfeitures and alſo looſe priuileges of ſanctuaries,in like manner and forme as is aboue mentioned for the miſpriſions of treaſons afore limited by this act. Prouided alwaies,that the article in this act conteined concerning prohibitions of mariages with in the degrées afore mentioned in this act,ſhall alwaies be taken,interpreted,and expounded of ſuch mariages,where mariages were ſolemnized,and carnall knowledge was had.

Anno viceſimo ſexto Henrici octaui, at VVeſtminſter by prorogation the third of Nouember, and there continued vntill the eighteenth daie of December then next inſuing.

An act concerning the kings highneſſe to be ſupreme head of the church of England, and to haue authoritie to redreſſe all errors, hereſies, and abuſes in the ſame.

The firſt chapter.

Albeit the kings maieſtie iuſtlie and rightfullie is and ought to be the ſupreme head of the church of England, and ſo is recognized by the clergie of this realme in their conuocations, yet neuertheleſſe for corroboration and confirmation therof, and for increaſe of vertue in Chriſts religion within this realme of England, and to repreſſe and extirpe all errors, hereſies, and other enormities and abuſes heretofore vſed in the ſame. Be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the king our ſoueriegne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors, kings of this relme, ſhall be taken accepted and reputed the onlie ſupreme head in earth of the church of England, called Anglicana eccleſia, and ſhall haue and inioie annexed and vnited to the imperiall crowne of this realme, as well the title & ſtile therof, as all honors, dignities, preheminences, iuriſdictions, priuileges, authorities, immunities, profits, & commodities to the ſaid dignitie of ſupreme head of the ſame church belonging and apperteining. And that our ſaid ſouereigne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors kings of this relme, ſhall haue full power and authoritie from time to time, to viſit, repreſſe, redreſſe, reforme, order, correct, reſtraine and amend all ſuch errors, hereſies, abuſes, offenſes, contempts and enormities, whatſoeuer they be, which by anie maner ſpirituall authoritie or iuriſdiction, ought or maie lawfullie be reformed, repreſſed, ordered, redreſſed, corrected, reſtrained, or amended, moſt to the pleaſure of almightie God, the increaſe of vertue in Chriſts religion, and for the conſeruation of the peace, vnitie and tranquilitie of this realme, anie vſage, cuſtome, forren lawes, forren authoritie, preſcription, or anie thing or things to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Errors

An act ratifieng the oth that euerie of the kings ſubiects hath taken, and ſhall hereafter be bound to take for due obſeruation of the act made for the ſuretie of the ſucceſſion of the kings highneſſe in the crowne of the realme.

Chap. 2.

Where at the laſt ſeſſion of this preſent parlement, in the act then made for the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the heirs of the kings highneſſe in the imperiall crowne of this realme, it is conteined amongſt other things, that all and ſingular the kings ſubiects, as well the nobles ſpirituall and temporall, as others, ſhould make & take a corporall oth, whenſoeuer it ſhould pleaſe the kings maieſtie, or his heirs, to appoint that they ſhould truelie, firmlie, and conſtantlie, without fraud or guile, obſerue, fulfill, mainteine, defend and keepe to their cunning wit and vttermoſt of their powers, the whole effects and contents of the ſaid act, as in the ſame act amongſt other things more plainlie appeareth, and at the day of the laſt prorogation of this preſent parlement, as well the nobles ſpirituall & temporall, as other the commons of this preſent parlement then aſſembled in the high houſe of the parlement, moſt louinglie accepted & tooke ſuch oth as then was deuiſed in writing for mainteinance and defenſe of the ſaid act, and meant and intended at that time, that euerie other the kings ſubiects ſhould be bound to accept and take the ſame, vpon the pains conteined in the ſaid act, the tenor of which oth hereafter inſueth. Ye ſhall ſweare to beare faith, truth, and obedience all onlie to the kings maieſtie, & to his heirs of his bodie of his moſt deere and intirelie beloued lawfull wife queene Anne begotten & to be begotten. And further to the heirs of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, according to the limitation in the ſtatute made for ſuretie of his ſucceſſion in the crowne of this realme mentioned & conteined, and not to anie other within this realme, nor forren authoritie or potentat. And in caſe anie oth be made or hath bin made by you to anie perſon or perſons, that then ye to repute the ſame as vaine and adnihilat, and that to your cunning, wit, and vttermoſt of your power, without guile, fraud, or other vndue meane, ye ſhall obſerue, keepe, mainteine & defend the ſaid act of ſucceſſion, & all the whole effects and contents thereof, and all other acts & ſtatutes made in confirmation, or for execution of the ſame, or of anie thing therin conteined. And this ye ſhall doo againſt all maner of perſons, of what eſtate, dignitie, degree or condition ſoeuer they be. And in no wiſe doo or attempt, nor to your power ſuffer to be doone or attempted directlie or indirectlie anie thing or things priuilie or apertlie, to the let, hinderance, damage, or derogation therof, or of anie part of the ſame by any maner of means, or for any maner of pretenſe, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints and the holie euangeliſts. And for as much as it is conuenient for the ſure mainteinance and defenſe of the ſame act, that the ſaid oth ſhould not onelie be authorized by authoritie of parlement, but alſo be interpret & expounded by the whole aſſent of this preſent parlement, that it was meant & intended by the kings maieſty, the lords & commons of the parlement at the ſaid daie of the ſaid laſt prorogation, that euerie ſubiect ſhould be bounden to take the ſame oth, according to the tenor and effect thereof, vpon the pains and penalties conteined in the ſaid act.

Oth

Therefore be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid oth aboue rehearſed, ſhall be interpret, expounded, reputed, accepted, & adiudged the verie oth, that the kings highneſſe, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement meant and intended that euerie ſubiect of this realme ſhould be obliged and bounden to take and accept for mainteinance and defenſe of the ſame act, vpon the pains conteined in the ſaid act. And that euerie of the kings ſubiects, vpon the ſaid pains ſhall be obliged to accept and take the ſaid oth.

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the commiſſioners that hereafter ſhall be appointed to receiue ſuch oth of the kings ſubiects, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue power and authoritie to certifie into the kings bench by writing vnder their ſeales, euerie refuſall that hereafter ſhall be made afore them of the ſame oth by anie perſon or perſons comming afore them to take the ſame oth. And that euerie ſuch certificat to be made by ſuch commiſſioners, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be taken as ſtrong and as auaileable in the law, as an indictment of twelue men lawfullie founden of the ſaid refuſall, ſo that the perſon and perſons againſt whome anie ſuch certificat ſhall be made, ſhall be compelled to anſwer therevnto, as if they were indicted. And that ſuch proceſſe, iudgement, execution, and euerie other thing ſhall be had, vſed and miniſtred of and vpon euerie ſuch certificat againſt the offendors, as if they had béene lawfullie indicted of ſuch offenſes, by the due courſe and order of the common lawes of this realme.

Certificat

An act concerning the paiment of first frutes of all dignities, benefices and promotions ſpirituall, and also concerning one annuall penſion of the tenth part of all the poſſeſſions of the church ſpirituall and temporall, granted to the kings highneſſe and his heirs.

Chap.3.

For as much as it is and of verie dutie ought to be the naturall inclination of all good people, like moſt faithfull, louing, and obedient ſubiects, ſincerelie and willinglie to deſire to prouide not onlie for the publike wealth of their natiue countrie, but alſo for the ſupportation, mainteinance and defenſe of the roiall eſtate of their moſt dread benigne and gracious ſoueraigne lord, vpon whome, and in whome dependeth all their ioie and wealth: in whome alſo is vnited and knit ſo princelie a hart and courage, mixed with mercie, wiſedome, and iuſtice, and alſo a naturall affection ioined to the ſame, as by the great, ineſtimable, & beneuolent arguments thereof, being moſt bountifullie, largelie, and many times ſhewed, miniſtred, and approued towards his louing & obedient ſubiects hath well appeared: which requireth a like correſpondence of gratitude to be conſidered, according to their moſt bounden duties, wherefore his ſaid humble and obedient ſubiects, as well the lords ſpirituall and temporall, as the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, calling to their remembrance not onlie the manifold and innumerable benefits dailie adminiſtred by his highneſſe to them all, and to the reſidue of all other his ſubiects of this realme, but alſo how long time his maieſtie hath moſt victoriouſlie, by his high wiſedome and policie, protected, defended, and gouerned this his realme, and mainteined his people and ſubiects of the ſame in tranquillitie, peace, vnitie, quietneſſe, and wealth. And alſo conſidering what great exceſſiue and ineſtimable charges his highneſſe hath heretofore béene at and ſuſteined by the ſpace of fiue and twentie whole yeares, and alſo dailie ſuſtaineth for the mainteinance, tuition, and defenſe of this his realme, and his louing ſubiects of the ſame, which can not be ſuſteined and borne without ſome honourable prouiſion and remedie maie be made, found, prouided and ordeined for mainteinance thereof: we therefore deſire and moſt humblie praie, that for the more ſuretie of continuance and augmentation of his highneſſe roiall eſtate, being not onelie now recognized (as he alwaies indeed heretofore hath béene) the onelie ſupreme head on earth next and immediatlie vnder God, of the church of England, but alſo the moſt aſſured and vndoubted naturall ſoueraigne léege lord and king, hauing the whole gouernance, tuition, defenſe and mainteinance of this his relme, and moſt louing obedient ſubiects of the ſame. It maie therefore be ordeined and enacted by his highneſſe, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, in maner and forme following.

¶ That is to ſaie, that the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, ſhall haue and inioie from time to time to indure for euer, of euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which at anie time after the firſt daie of Ianuarie next comming, ſhall be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated, or by anie other means appointed to haue anie archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, college, hoſpitall, archdeaconrie, deanrie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, frée chapell, or other dignitie, benefice, office, or promotion ſpirituall within this realme, or elſe where within anie of the kings dominions, of what name, nature or qualitie ſoeuer they be, or to whoſe foundation, patronage, or gifts ſoeuer they belong, the

And that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, before anie actuall or reall poſſeſſion, or medling with the profits of anie ſuch archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, college, hoſpitall, deanrie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, frée chapell, priorie, or other dignitie, benefice, office, or promotion ſpirituall, Compoſitiõ. ſhall ſatiſfie, content, and paie, or compound or agrée to paie to the kings vſe at reaſonable daies, vpon good ſureties, the ſaid firſt frutes and profits for one yéere.

And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the chancellor of England & maiſter of the rols for the time being, iointlie and ſeuerallie, or ſuch other perſon and perſons, as ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe, his heirs or ſucceſſors from time to time, at his or their pleaſure, to name and depute by commiſſion or commiſſions vnder the great ſeale, ſhall haue power and authoritie as well to examine and ſearch for the iuſt and true value of the ſaid firſt frutes and profits, by all waies and meanes that they can, as to compound and agrée for the rate of the ſaid firſt frutes and profits, as to ſtall and limit reaſonable daies of paiment thereof vpon good and ſufficient ſuretie or ſureties, by writings obligatorie by their diſcretions. And if compoſition or agréement be had or made for the ſaid firſt frutes before the ſaid lord chancellor or maiſter of the rols, that then the writings obligatorie or monie taken for the ſame, ſhall reſt, remaine & abide in the hanaper of the kings chancerie, there ſaflie to be kept to the kings vſe, and the monie to be due of ſuch writings obligatorie, or to be receiued in hand by reaſon of anie ſuch compoſition, ſhall be paid in the ſaid hanaper, to the clerke of the hanaper for the time being. And that the ſaid clerke of the hanaper ſhall make a true and a iuſt account thereof like as he is bound to doo, of the monie receiued of the profits of the kings great ſeale. And if compoſition or agréement be had or made for the ſaid firſt frutes, afore anie other perſon or perſons to be deputed by the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors by commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, that then the writings obligatorie, and monie taken for the ſame, ſhall be deliuered to the treaſuror of the kings moſt honorable chamber for the time being, or elſe where, to whom it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, to giue authoritie by commiſſion vnder the great ſeale, to receiue the ſame.

Compoſitiõ.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie writing of acquitance ſubſcribed with the hand and name of the clerke of the hanaper, and treaſuror of the chamber or other commiſſioners aforeſaid, or anie of them, witneſſing the receipt of the ſaid firſt frutes or anie part thereof, ſhall be as good and effectuall againſt the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, to euerie perſon and perſons, hauing the ſame for ſo much monie as ſhall be mentioned to be receiued and conteined in euerie ſuch acquitance, as if ſuch acquitance were or had béene lawfullie had and obteined in the kings name vnder the kings great ſeale, and ſo ſhall be admitted, accepted and allowed and taken in euerie of the kings courts. And that all writings obligatorie to be taken for paiment of the ſaid firſt frutes, by, and afore the ſaid lord chancellor or maiſter of the rols, or by and afore anie other perſon or perſons to be deputed to compound and agrée for the ſaid firſt frutes, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be of the ſame ſtrength, force, vertue, qualitie and effect to all intents and purpoſes as writings obligatorie héeretofore made by anie laie perſon by authoritie of the ſtatute of the ſtaple béene. And that vpon certificat héereafter to be made into the kings chancerie of anie ſuch writings obligatorie to be taken for paiment of ſuch firſt frutes, like proceſſe and execution ſhall be therevpon made and had againſt anie perſon ſpirituall or temporall, as hath béene accuſtomed to be made againſt anie laie perſon vpon certificat of writings obligatorie of the ſaid ſtatute of the ſtaple. And that no perſon ſhall be compelled to paie for any writing obligatorie to be made for the ſaid paiment of the ſaid firſt frutes aboue eight penſe, nor for anie acquitance to be made for receipt of ſuch firſt frutes aboue foure penſe, and that ſuch perſon & perſons as ſhalbe deputed by the kings highneſſe by commiſſion vnder the great ſeale, to compound & agrée for the ſaid firſt frutes, ſhall at the end of euerie ſix moneths next after the date of their commiſſion, & ſo from ſix months to ſix months, deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered vnto the treaſuror of the chamber for the time being, or elſe where, to ſuch commiſſioners as ſhall be appointed as is aforeſaid, to receiue the ſame, as well all ſuch monie as all ſuch ſpecialties and bonds, as they ſhall haue taken for the paiment of the ſaid firſt frutes by indenture to be made betwéene them and the ſaid treaſuror, or other commiſſioners as is aforeſaid, conteining the certeintie and number of the ſummes of monie, and ſpecialties and bonds by them taken and receiued. And if anie perſon or perſons, to whome anie deputation ſhall be made by commiſſion, to compound and agrée for the paiment of the ſaid firſt frutes, their heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators, conceale or imbezill anie of the ſaid ſpecialties or bonds, taken for the ſure paiment of the ſaid firſt frutes, and doo not deliuer them according to the tenour of this act, that then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall forfeit that office of deputation, and ouer that make fine and ranſome at the kings owne pleaſure and will.

And it was alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons which at any time after the ſaid firſt daie of Ianuarie, ſhall be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated, or by any other means appointed to any of the dignities, offices, benefices, or other promotions ſpirituall before mentioned, doo enter into the actuall and reall poſſeſſions thereof, or meddle with the profits thereof, before they ſhall haue trulie ſatiſfied and paid to the kings vſe the firſt frutes and profits therof for one yere, or elſe ſhall haue agréed or compounded for paiment of the ſame at reaſonable daies vpon good ſureties, in manner and forme as by this act is aboue eſpecified, that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, ſo doing and offending, and being thereof conuict by preſentment, verdict, confeſſion, or witneſſe before the ſaid lord chancellor, or ſuch other as ſhall haue authoritie by commiſſion to compound for the ſaid firſt frutes & profits as is aforeſaid, ſhall be accepted & taken an intruder vpon the kings poſſeſſion, & that they their executors or adminiſtrators ſhall pay to the vſe of the kings highnes for euery ſuch offenſe, ſo much ſums of monie, as ſhall amount to the double value of the ſaid firſt frutes & profits of ſuch dignities, benefices, or other ſpirituall promotions

wherin they ſhall ſo enter and intrude before the paiment of the ſaid firſt frutes and profits for one yeere therof, or before due agreement made for the ſame, in maner & forme as is aboue rehearſed.

First fruits

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the firſt frutes of benefices heeretofore accuſtomed to be paid to the biſhop of Norwich within the dioceſſe, and to the archdeacon of Richmond within his archdeaconrie, or to anie other perſon or perſons within this realme, or any other the kings dominions, ſhall from the ſaid firſt daie of Januarie ceaſe and be extinct, and no longer be paid, but onelie to the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, in ſuch forme as is aboue mentioned in this act.

Ordinarie

Prouided alwaies, that archbiſhops and biſhops, and all other hauing iuriſdiction ordinarie, maie giue and deliuer letters of inſtitution and induction, as they might doo before the making of this act, without anie offenſe of anie article conteined in this act: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Cels

Prouided alſo, that where there be diuerſe cels apperteining to monaſteries & priories, and that the priors of ſuch cels be named and remouable from time to time, at the onlie wils and pleaſures of their maiſters and ſouereignes of the monaſteries and priories, whereunto ſuch cels belong, that the priors of ſuch cels, ſhall not be compelled to paie anie firſt frutes, by vertue or authoritie of this act, any thing in this act conteined to the contrarie therof notwithſtanding; but that the firſt frutes and profits of euerie ſuch cell ſhall be paid to the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors whenſoeuer, and as often as anie perſon ſhall be nominated, elected, prefected, or collated to the monaſterie or priorie, whereunto ſuch cels belong.

Tenths

And ouer this be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, for more augmentation and mainteinance of the roiall eſtate of his imperiall crowne and dignitie of ſupreme head of the church of England, ſhall yeerelie haue, take and inioy, and receiue vnited and knit to his imperiall crowne for euer, one yeerelie rent or penſion, amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, farmes, tithes, offerings, emoluments and all other profits, as well called ſpirituall as temporall, now apperteining or belonging, or that heereafter ſhall belong to any archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, archdeaconrie, deaconrie, hoſpitall, college, houſe collegiat, prebend, cathedrall church, collegiat church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chantrie, free chapell or other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, of what name, nature, or qualitie ſo euer they be, within anie dioceſſe of this realme, or in Wales, the ſaid penſion or annuall rent to be yeerelie paied for euer to our ſaid ſouereigne lord, to his heires & ſucceſſors kings of this realme, at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, and the firſt paiment thereof to begin at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God one thouſand fiue hundred thirtie and fiue. And to be paied yeerlie by ſuch as ſhall be appointed to haue the collection therof by this act, in ſuch maner and forme as ſhall heereafter be limited by this act before the firſt daie of Aprill yeerelie next following after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord.

Chancellor

Commiſſions.

And it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid yeerelie rent and penſion ſhall be taxed, rated, leuied, perceiued and paid to the kings vſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, in maner and forme heereafter to be declared by this act. That is to ſaie, that the chancellor of England for the time being, ſhall haue power and authoritie to direct into euerie dioceſſe in this realme and in Wales, ſeuerall commiſſions in the kings name vnder his great ſeale, as well to the archbiſhop or biſhop of euerie ſuch dioceſſe, as to ſuch other perſon or perſons, as the kings highneſſe ſhall name and appoint, commanding and authorizing the ſaid commiſſioners for to be named in euerie ſuch commiſſion, or three of them at the leaſt, to examine, ſearch, and inquire by all the waies and means that they can by their diſcretions, of & for the true and iuſt, whole and intire yeerelie values of all the manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, rents, tithes, offrings, emoluments and all other profits, as well ſpirituall as temporall, apperteining or belonging to anie archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, archdeaconrie, deanrie, hoſpitall, college, houſe collegiat, prebend, cathedrall church, collegiat church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, free chapell, or to anie other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, within the limits of their commiſſion, with a clauſe to be conteined in euerie ſuch commiſſion, that the ſaid commiſſioners, or three of them at the leaſt, ſhall deduct and allow in the making and rating of the ſaid yearelie values of the premiſſes, theſe deductions following, and none other: that is to ſay, the rents reſolute to the cheefe lords, and all other annuall and perpetuall rents and charges, which anie ſpirituall perſon or perſons beene bounden yearelie to paie to anie perſon or perſons, to their heirs or ſucceſſors for euer, or to giue yearelie in alms by reaſon of anie foundation or ordinance, and all fees for ſtewards, receiuers, bailifs, and auditors, and ſynods, and proxies, with another clauſe to be alſo conteined in euerie ſuch commiſſion, that the ſaid commiſſioners or three of them at the leaſt, ſhall certifie vnder their ſeales at ſuch daies as ſhall be limited by the ſaid commiſſions, as well the whole and intire value, as the deductions aforeſaid of euerie archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, archdeaconrie, deanrie, hoſpitall, college, houſe collegiat, prebend, cathedrall church, collegiat church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, free chapell, and all other benefits and promotions ſpirituall.

And it is oꝛdeined and enacted by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that after ſuch certificat made by the ſaid commiſſioners, the ſaid yéerelie rent and penſion of the tenth part ſhall be ſet, taxed, rated, and taken iuſtlie and trulie and indifferentlie by the treaſuroꝛ, chancelloꝛ, chamberleine, and barons of the kings excheker, of and out of the cléere yearelie value of the pꝛemiſſes, that ſhall be aboue the deductions afoꝛe mentioned, and none otherwiſe. And that euerie archbiſhopꝛike, biſhopꝛike, abbacie, monaſterie, pꝛioꝛie, archdeaconrie, deanrie, hoſpitall, college, houſe collegiat, pꝛebend, cathedꝛall church, collegiat church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, frée chapell, oꝛ other benefice oꝛ pꝛomotion ſpirituall, ſhall be ſeuerallie and diſtinctlie taxed, charged and chargeable in the pꝛoper dioceſſe where they béene, foꝛ the paiment of ſuch poꝛtion of the ſaid tenth part, as ſhall be taxed and ſet vpon them by authoꝛitie of this act, that is to ſaie, euerie of them by and foꝛ themſelues, ſhall be taxed, charged, and chargeable in the pꝛoper dioceſſe, where they béene, foꝛ the tenth part of the yearelie value of their poſſeſſions and pꝛofits to them belonging, whereſoeuer their ſaid poſſeſſions and pꝛofits ſhall happen to be oꝛ lie in anie part of this realme oꝛ elſe where, in anie of the kings dominions, and that none of them ſhall be charged oꝛ chargeable foꝛ the paiment of the others charge oꝛ poꝛtion.

Certificat

And it is alſo enacted by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that after ſuch certificat made into the kings excheker, and tax ſet of the tenth part, in foꝛme aboue remembꝛed, euerie archbiſhop and biſhop now being, and that héereafter ſhall be charged and chargable, to leuie, collect and receiue within their pꝛoper dioceſſe, aſwell in places exempt as not exempt, all ſuch ſums of monie, wherewith the dignities, benefices, and other pꝛomotions ſpirituall afoꝛe mentioned within their dioceſſe, chargable by this act, ſhall be ſet, taxed & charged towards the paiment of the ſaid yéerelie penſion, and ſhall paie and content the ſaid ſums of monie yéerelie, befoꝛe the ſaid firſt daie of Apꝛill, to the treaſuroꝛ of the kings chamber, foꝛ the time being, oꝛ to anie other perſon oꝛ perſons, whom it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to appoint to receiue the ſame. And that euerie of the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, their executoꝛs and adminiſtratoꝛs, and the poſſeſſions of their dignities and churches, ſhall ſtand charged and chargable foꝛ the ſure and true paiment of ſuch ſums of monie, as they ſhall collect and receiue of the ſaid yéerelie rent and penſion.

Treaſuroꝛ of the chamber.

Excheker

And that the treaſuroꝛ, chancelloꝛ, chamberleine and barons of the kings excheker, ſhall yéerelie cauſe proceſſe to be made by their diſcretions foꝛ non paiment of the ſaid penſion oꝛ yéerlie rent oꝛ anie parcell thereof, againſt euerie archbiſhop and biſhop of this realme, that is to ſaie, againſt euerie archbiſhop and biſhop, foꝛ ſo much part and poꝛtion of the ſaid penſion & yéerelie rent, wherewith the dignities, benefices, and other pꝛomotions ſpirituall afoꝛe mentioned within the dioceſſe, ſhall be taxed and charged, ſo that euerie of the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, ſhall be charged and chargable foꝛ the rate and poꝛtion of the ſaid yéerlie rent & penſion, ſet and taxed within his owne peculiar dioceſſe, and none otherwiſe.

Biſhop

And be it alſo enacted by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that euerie archbiſhop & biſhop, ſhall haue power and authoꝛitie to leuie, take and perceiue by authoꝛitie of cenſures of the church, oꝛ by diſtreſſe oꝛ otherwiſe by their diſcretion, all ſuch ſums of monie as ſhall be rated, taxed and ſet to go out of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, pꝛofits and emoluments of anie dignitie, office, benefice, oꝛ other place oꝛ pꝛomotion ſpirituall within their dioceſſe, towards the paiment of the ſaid yéerelie rent and penſion, and that no Repleuin, pꝛohibition noꝛ Superſedeas vpon anie excommunication, noꝛ anie other wꝛit oꝛ impediment ſhall be ſued, allowed oꝛ obeied foꝛ anie perſon oꝛ perſons, making default of paiment of ſuch part and poꝛtion as they ſhall be rated and taxed vnto by authoꝛitie of this act, till ſuch time as they haue trulie ſatiſfied their part and poꝛtion to them allotted of their ſaid yéerelie rent and penſion.

Sée void

And it is alſo enacted by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that whenſoeuer and as often as anie of the archbiſhopꝛiks oꝛ biſhopꝛiks happen to be void, that then the deane and chapter of the cathedꝛall church, oꝛ the pꝛioꝛ and conuent oꝛ chapter, oꝛ conuent of the monaſterie oꝛ cathedꝛall church where the ſée of ſuch archbiſhopꝛike oꝛ biſhopꝛike being void, ſhall happen to be during the time of the vacation thereof, and their executoꝛs, adminiſtratoꝛs and poſſeſſions ſhall be charged and chargeable to doo and cauſe to be doone all and euerie thing and things foꝛ the due executions of this act within the dioceſſe of ſuch archbiſhopꝛike oꝛ biſhopꝛike being void, as the ſame archbiſhop oꝛ biſhop of the ſée being void, ſhould haue doone accoꝛding as it is limited and appointed by this act, oꝛ by anie thing therein conteined.

And it is oꝛdeined and enacted by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that if anie ſumme of monie being once due by anie incumbent of anie of the dignities, benefices, oꝛ pꝛomotions ſpirituall afoꝛe ſpecified, charged to the paiment of the ſaid yéerelie penſion and annuall rent, be reaſonablie demanded and required anie time after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Loꝛd, at their dignities, monaſteries, pꝛioꝛies, hoſpitals, colleges, churches, chantries, oꝛ houſes by the archbiſhop oꝛ biſhop, oꝛ ſuch as ſhall be charged with the collection of anie part of the ſaid penſion, oꝛ by anie other their miniſters,

Excheker

And it is ordeined and enacted, by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie archbiſhop or biſhop, or anie other limited and charged by this act, to the collection and paiment of the ſaid penſion and annuall rent, doo make a certificat into the kings excheker, before the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, or at anie time within foure and twentie daies next after the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, that they according to this act, haue reaſonablie required and demanded anie incumbent of anie dignitie, benefice or promotion ſpirituall, chargable by this act to paie ſuch part and portion of the ſaid penſion & annuall rent, as they ſhall happen to be aſſeſſed vnto, and that ſuch incumbent, ſo being required, hath not paid his ſaid part and portion, according to the forme and effect of this act, that then euerie ſuch archbiſhop and biſhop and euerie other perſon hauing the charge by this act for collection and paiment of the ſaid penſion and annuall rent, vpon euerie ſuch certificat ſhall be diſcharged and acquited for euer againſt the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, of, and for all ſuch ſummes of monie as any ſuch incumbent, againſt whom ſuch certificat ſhall be made, ſhould or ought to haue paied by this act. And that then in euerie ſuch caſe the treaſuror, chancellor, chamberlen, and barons of the kings excheker, ſhall deuiſe and direct vpon euerie ſuch certificat, ſuch proceſſe out of the kings excheker, againſt euerie ſuch incumbent againſt whome anie ſuch certificat ſhall be made, and their executors and adminiſtrators, or for inſufficiencie of them, againſt the ſucceſſors of euerie ſuch incumbent, wherby the kings highneſſe, his heirs & ſucceſſors ſhall and maie be trulie anſwered, paid and contented of ſuch portion & part as the incumbent againſt whom any ſuch certificat ſhall be made, was taxed and aſſeſſed for his dignities, benefices, or promotions ſpirituall, chargeable by this act.

Acquitances

Account

Forfeit

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of acquitances made by the treaſuror of the kings chamber, or by anie other ſuch commiſſioners as ſhall be appointed as is aforeſaid, to receiue the ſaid penſion or anie part thereof, & ſubſcribed with the name of the ſaid treaſuror, or anie other ſuch commiſſioner for the paiment of the ſaid penſion or annuall rent, or anie part thereof to anie ſuch perſon or perſons as be limited and charged with the collection thereof, ſhall be of as good ſtrength, force, vertue and effect to the parties, hauing the ſame, as if they were made in the kings name vnder his great ſeale, and ſo ſhall be allowed, admitted, and accepted in all courts of this realme, and that the treaſuror, chancellor, chamberlen and barons of the kings excheker, ſhall by vertue and authoritie of this act, as well admit and allow ſuch acquitances, as all ſuch certificats as ſhall be made againſt anie incumbent for default of paiment, as is abouesaid, vpon the account of euerie archbiſhop and biſhop, and of euerie other perſon limited and charged by this act, for the collection and paiment of the ſaid penſion and annuall rent, without anie writ, bill, or warrant to be ſued in or for that behalfe. And that no maner of officer of the kings excheker, ſhall take of anie archbiſhop or biſhop, or of anie other perſons hauing charge with the collection and paiment of the ſaid penſion or annuall rent, anie maner reward or thing for making their account or Quietus eſt in the ſame excheker, or for anie maner of thing apperteining to the ſame, concerning the ſaid penſion and annuall rent, vpon paine of euerie officer dooing contrarie to this act, to loſe and forfeit his office, and make fine to the king at his will and pleaſure.

Reteinor

And for as much as euerie incumbent of the dignities, benefices and promotions ſpirituall aforementioned, ſhall be charged by this act to the paiment of the tenth part of the value of their dignities, benefices, and promotions ſpirituall, without anie deduction or allowance of ſuch penſion or penſions, wherewith ſome of them béene charged to paie their predeceſſors, during their liues, or to other perſons to the vſe of ſuch their predeceſſors during their liues, it is therefore ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie incumbent, charged with anie ſuch penſion, paiable to anie his predeceſſors, or to anie to his vſe, to retaine and kéepe in his hand the tenth part of euerie ſuch penſion: and that euerie ſuch incumbent and his ſureties, ſhall from henſeforth be acquited and diſcharged of the ſaid tenth part of euerie ſuch penſion, by vertue and authoritie of this preſent act, anie decrée, ordinance, or aſſignment of anie ſuch ordinarie, or anie collaterall writing or ſuretie made for ſuch penſion to anie ſpirituall perſon or perſons, or to anie to their vſes, for terme of their liues, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And that as well euerie incumbent, as ſuch perſons as ſtand bounden for him for paiment of anie ſuch penſions, ſhall plead this act in euerie of the kings courts, for the cleere extinguiſhment and diſcharge of the tenth part of euerie ſuch penſion.

And be it alſo ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no penſion ſhall héereafter be aſſigned by the ordinarie, or by anie other maner of agréement by collaterall ſuretie or otherwiſe, vpon any reſignation of any dignitie, benefice or promotion ſpirituall, aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie, benefice or promotion ſpirituall reſigned, & if any penſion amounting aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie, benefice or promotion ſpirituall héertofore reſigned, be alreadie limited & made ſure to anie ſpirituall perſon or perſons by decrée of the ordinarie, or otherwiſe by anie collaterall ſuretie, or héereafter ſhall happen to be aſſigned and made ſure to anie perſon or perſons ſpirituall, or to anie other to their vſe, by decrée of the ordinarie, or by anie other collaterall ſuretie, vpon anie reſignation thereof, yet neuertheleſſe the incumbent charged with ſuch penſion, nor his ſureties collaterall, ſhall not be compelled to paie anie more penſion than the value of the third part of his dignitie, benefice or promotion ſpirituall, ſo reſigned ſhall amount vnto, but ſhall by authoritie of this act be cléerlie acquited and diſcharged of ſo much of the ſaid penſion, as ſhall amount aboue the value of the third part of the dignitie or benefice reſigned, decrée or aſſignment of the ordinarie, or anie collaterall writings or ſureties héertofore made, or héereafter to be had or made for the ſame to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

And foraſmuch as diuers abbats and priors béene charged to paie great penſions to ſundrie their predeceſſors yet liuing, to the great decaie of their hoſpitalities and houſe kéeping. Be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch predeceſſor of ſuch abbats or priors, hauing anie penſion made ſure vnto them, or to anie to their vſe during their liues, amounting aboue the yéerlie value of 40 li. ſhall from henſeforth be defalked and abated of the moitie and halfe deale of euerie ſuch penſion. And that euerie abbat and all other perſons charged for the paiment of ſuch penſion, aboue the ſaid yéerlie value of 10 li. ſhalbe cléerlie acquited and diſcharged by authoritie of this act of the moitie & halfe deale therof for euer, anie decrée or aſſignment therof by the ordinarie, or any writing or ſuretie collaterall, had or made for the ſuretie therof notwithſtanding. And foraſmuch as the lord prior of S. Iohns of Hieruſalem in England, & his brethren be not ſpeciallie named & expreſſed in this act, whereby ambiguitie might ariſe, whether they ſhould be compriſed within the limits of this act, it is therfore for plaine declaration therof enacted by authoritie aforſaid, that euerie perſon & perſons which after the ſaid firſt daie of Ianarie ſhall happen to be nominated, elected, collated or by anie other means appointed to ẏ dignitie of the ſaid prior of S. Iohns of Hieruſalem in England, or to anie commandrie apperteining vnto the ſame, ſhall before their actuall & reall entrie into the ſame dignitie or commandrie, or medling with the profits therof, ſatiſfie, & paie to the vſe of the kings highneſſe his heirs & ſucceſſors, the firſt frutes & profits therof for one whole yéere, or agrée or compound for the ſame at reaſonable daies in like maner & forme, and vpon like paine in euerie behalfe, as archbiſhops and biſhops, & other ſpirituall perſons bin bound to by vertue and authoritie of this act. And that alſo the prior of S. Iohns now being, and his ſucceſſors, & euerie of his brethren, hauing anie commandrie, & their ſucceſſors, ſhall contribute & paie yéerlie to the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors, one yéerlie rent and penſion amounting to the tenth part of all their poſſeſſions & profits, as well ſpirituall as temporall, and ſhall be charged, rated, taxed, and ſet to the contribution and paiment of the ſaid tenth part. And that alſo the ſaid tenth part ſhall be leuied, collected and paied in ſuch like maner and forme, to all intents and purpoſes, as the tenth part of other dignities and benefices ſpirituall, ſhall be charged, taxed, ſet, leuied, collected, and paied by authoritie of this act.

And foraſmuch as in ſundrie and manie cathedrall churches, colleges & hoſpitals of this relme, there is and time out of mind hath bin certeine ordinances inſtituted and made, wherby the deane, prouoſt, maiſter or other chéefe gouernor of ſuch churches, colleges & hoſpitals, hath a certeine part and portion of the poſſeſſions and profits belonging to ſuch church, colleges and hoſpitals, all onelie limited and belonging to their offices and dignities. And euerie prebendarie, brother, vicar, fellow, petie canon, & other miniſters ſpirituall in ſuch churches, colleges and hoſpitals, hath an other portion all onlie and diſtinctlie limited, apperteining & belonging to their dignities and offices in ſuch churches, hoſpitals and colleges. It is therefore prouided and ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch perſon & perſons which at any time after the ſaid firſt daie of Ianuarie, ſhalbe nominated, elected, preſented, prefected, collated, or by other means appointed to be deane, prouoſt, maiſter or other chéefe gouernor of ſuch cathedrall churches, colleges or hoſpitals, ſhalbe rated, compound & paie for their firſt frutes but onlie after the rate of the yéerlie value of the poſſeſſions & profits limited and belonging to their office and dignitie. value ſhall not excéed eight marks, doo liue thrée yéeres next and immediatlie following after his inſtitution, induction or collation to ſuch parſonage or vicarage. And if ſuch incumbent doo liue after the ſaid thrée yéeres, then he or his executors or adminiſtrators ſhall paie at daies to be limited after the ſaid yéeres vpon ſureties (as is aforeſaid) the firſt frutes of euerie ſuch parſonage and vicarage. And that in euerie obligation to be made by anie incumbent of ſuch parſonage or vicarage and his ſureties for paiment of the firſt frutes of ſuch parſonage or vicarage, there ſhall be conteined a prouiſo, that if the ſaid incumbent die within thrée yéeres next after the date of the inſtitution, induction or collation of the ſaid parſonage or vicarage, that then the obligation ſhall be void and of none effect, anie thing in this act to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

And ouer this, where the clergie of the prouince of Canturburie in their conuocation haue granted vnto the kings highneſſe one hundred thouſand pounds, and the clergie of the prouince of Yorke eightéene thouſand eight hundred, fortie pounds and ten penſe, to be paid by euen portions in fiue yéeres, and that which could not be leuied thereof in the ſame fiue yéeres, to be paid in the firſt yéere, as by the tenor of their ſeuerall grants thereof made in their ſeuerall conuocations more plainlie appéereth. It maie pleaſe the kings maieſtie of his excellent goodneſſe, in conſideration that the ſaid yéerelie penſion and annuall rent ſhall be yéerelie from henſeforth dulie paid and ſatiſfied to his highneſſe, and to his heires and ſucceſſors, according to the tenor, forme, purport and effect of this preſent act, that it maie be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the clergie of the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, and euerie of them ſhall be diſcharged and acquited againſt our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, of, and for the twentie thouſand pounds, parcell of the ſaid hundred thouſand pounds, which ſhould be paid in the fiſt yéere of paiment limited by their grant. And that the clergie of the ſaid prouince of Yorke ſhall likewiſe be diſcharged and acquited of and for all ſuch ſummes of monie, parcell of the ſaid 18840 li. and ten penſe, which ſhould be paid in the fiſt yéere of paiment limited by their grants, anie thing in their ſaid ſeuerall grants thereof made in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies that all the reſidue of ſums of monie, which be yet to be paid and not releaſed nor diſcharged by this act, ſhall be trulie paid and ſatiſfied to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, according to the tenor, forme, and effect of their ſaid ſeuerall grants.

Prouided alſo, that all ſuch fées which anie archbiſhop, biſhop, abbat, prior or other prelat of the church, is bounden yéerelie to paie to anie chancellor, maiſter of the rols, iuſtices, ſhirifs, or other officers or miniſters of record for temporall iuſtice to be done or miniſtred within their dioceſſe or iuriſdiction, ſhall be allowed and deducted by the commiſſioners aforeſaid, in, and vpon the valuation of the dignities, monaſteries, priories or churches chargeable with ſuch fées, anie thing in this act to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

An act for puniſhment of periurie of iurors in the lordſhips marchers in Wales.

Chap. 4.

Keeper of iurors

WHere for lacke of diligent and ſure cuſtodie of iurors ſworne for trials of murders, felons and acceſſaries of felonies and murders in Wales & the marches of the ſame, diuers adherents, fréends and kinſfolks to ſuch offendors, haue reſorted to the ſame iurors, and haue ſuborned them to acquit diuers murderers, felons and acceſſaries, openlie and notoriouſlie knowen, contrarie to equitie and iuſtice. It is therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that forthwith vpon the charge giuen to anie inqueſt héerafter to be taken and ſworne before anie iuſticiar, ſteward, lieutenant or other officer within Wales or the marches of the ſame, of, for, and vpon anie trauerſe againſt the king, or the triall of anie recognizance broken, or anie other forfeiture forfeited to the king, or of, for, and vpon the triall of anie murderer, felon or acceſſarie of felonie or murder, one officer or other perſon ſhall be deputed and ſworne in the preſence of the ſaid iuſticiar or other officer, for the true and diligent kéeping of the ſame iurors. And that the ſame officers or other perſon ſo ſworne without the ſpeciall commandement of the ſaid iuſticiar or other officer, ſhall not doo or ſuffer to be miniſtred to the ſame iurors anie bread, drinke or meat, fire or light, nor ſhall ſuffer the ſame iurors to ſpeake to anie perſon or perſons, nor the ſame officer or other perſon ſworne, without the commandement aforeſaid, ſhall not ſpeake to the ſaid iurors, but onelie to demand of them of their agréement, vnto ſuch time as the ſame iurors ſhall haue giuen their verdict, anie vſage or cuſtome heretofore vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And if the ſame officer or other perſon ſo ſworne in forme aforeſaid, doo not execute and accompliſh the premiſſes in the oth before rehearſed in euerie point and article, then the ſame officer or other perſon ſo ſworne ſhall be puniſhed and impriſoned, and make fine and ranſome to the kings highneſſe by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſticiar, ſteward, lieutenant or other officer.

False verdit

And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſame iurors doo acquit anie ſuch felon, murderer or acceſſarie, vpon whoſe triall they ſhall be charged or giue anie vntrue verdict againſt the king, vpon the triall of anie trauerſe, recognizance, or other forfeiture contrarie to good and pregnant euidence miniſtred to them by perſons ſworne before the ſaid iuſticiar, ſteward, lieutenant or other officer, or that the ſaid iurors or anie of them doo eat, drinke or ſpeake to or with anie other perſon or perſons, than to ſuch as be ſworne with them, or otherwiſe miſdemeane themſelues after they be ſworne, and before they haue giuen their verdict, that then the lord preſident and other of the counſell of the marches for the time being, vpon the notice or complaint thereof to them made, ſhall not onelie haue power and authoritie by this preſent act to call ſuch iurors before them, but alſo the ſame iuſticiar, ſteward or other officer, afore whome anie ſuch acquitall, vntrue verdict, or miſdemeanor ſhall happen to be made, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to compell ſuch iurors and euerie of them vpon paine of impriſonment to be bounden by recognizance in a certeine ſum of monie, by their diſcretion to be limited, that the ſame iurors & euerie of them ſhall perſonallie appéere at a certeine daie by the ſame iuſticiar, ſteward or other officer to be limited before the lord preſident and other of the counſell aforeſaid, for the time being, then and there to abide and ſtand to ſuch direction and order, as the ſame counſell ſhall make, ordeine and decrée of, in, and vpon the ſame. And that the ſame counſell ſhall thervpon haue authoritie and power by examination or otherwiſe, to heare and determine all and euerie ſuch cauſe, and ſhall haue like authoritie to commit euerie of the ſame iurors to priſon or other puniſhment as ſhall be thought moſt méet by the diſcretion of the ſaid counſell, or otherwiſe aſſeſſe or tax euerie ſuch iuror to his fine or ranſome by the ſame diſcretion to be paid and leuied of their lands, goods and chattels, to the vſe of the kings highneſſe.

Recognizãce

An act that keepers of ferries on the water of Seuerne, ſhall not conueie in their ferrie botes anie maner of perſon, goods or chattels after the ſun going downe, till the ſun be vp.

Chap.5.

FOraſmuch as dailie diuers felonies, robberies and murders béene manie times committed and doone in the counties of Gloc. and Summerſet, in the parties next adioining vnto the water called the water of Seuerne betwéene England and Southwales, and after ſuch murders and felonies doone, the ſaid robbers, felons and murderers, with the ſaid goods ſo robbed & ſtolne, make their conueiance with the ſaid goods ſo ſtolne, by night at diuers paſſages or ferries ouer the ſaid riuer or water, as the paſſages of Auſt, Fremeland, Pirton, Arlignham, Nowenham, Portſedes, Point, and all ſuch other like paſſages ouer the ſaid riuer into Southwales, or into the forreſt called the forreſt of Deane alſo adioining to the ſame water. And when they be ouer the ſaid water, then the goods ſo ſtolne be by diuers priuileges there kept, albeit the owner and owners haue true and perfect knowlege thereof, yet they ſo robbed and ſpoiled be without remedie for to obteine their ſaid goods ſo ſtolne, and ſo that the ſecret and ſudden conueiance by night of the ſaid goods ouer the ſaid ferries and paſſages, doth not onelie greatlie incourage diuers perſons to come out of the parties of Southwales, to ſteale, rob, and murder diuers perſons in their ohuſes in the ſaid counties ioining vpon the ſaid borders of Wales, but alſo cauſeth manie robberies and felonies in ſundrie waies to be committed & doone vpon the ſaid border néere adioining to the ſame riuer, to the great damage & hurt of the kings ſubiects inhabiting there, vnleſſe ſome remedie therefore be prouided. It maie therefore pleaſe the king our ſoueriegne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame to enact that euerie perſon or perſons taking vpon him or them to haue and kéepe anie of the ſaid paſſages, or anie other paſſages vpon Seuerne aforeſaid, from henſeforth doo not conueie neither carrie with anie maner barge, bote or other veſſell, anie perſon or perſons with horſſes, mares, oxen, kine or anie other cattell, nor no other perſon or perſons before the time of the ſun riſing in the morning, and after the time of the ſun being gone downe at night, vpon paine of impriſonment & fine to ſet on him that ſhall ſo conueie or carrie ouer any of the ſaid paſſages of the ſaid riuer of Seuerne out of England into Wales, or the forreſt of Deane, or out of Wales, or the ſaid forreſt of Deane into England, vnleſſe the ſaid paſſengers and euerie of them haue good knowledge of ſuch perſon and perſons, & of their dwelling places, and vpon requeſt to them made by any perſon or perſons, to diſcloſe the name & the dwelling place of euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo by them conueied ouer the ſaid water, to anie ſuch perſon or perſons requiring the ſame, if ſute be made for and after them vpon anie outcrie, hute, or freſh ſute of, or for anie felonie, robberie, murder & manſlaughter, committed and doone from henſeforth. And that the kings iuſticiers of peace within euerie the ſaid counties of Gloc. and Summerſet, at their quarter ſeſſions ſhall haue full power & authoritie to call before them all ſuch perſons, which héerafter ſhall kéepe any of the ſaid paſſages, or any other ferrie or paſſage ouer the ſaid water into Wales, or the ſaid forreſt, or out of Wales or the ſaid forreſt into England, & to bind them with ſufficient ſureties with them in recognizance, in ſuch ſums of monie as it ſhall ſéeme to the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſticiers of peace, that they and euerie of them being paſſengers and kéepers of ferries and paſſages, as is aforeſaid, from henſeforth ſhall not after the ſaid times before limited and appointed, conueie or carrie, or cauſe to be conueied or carried anie maner of perſon or perſons, or anie kind of cattell, but ſuch perſons as they doo know and will anſwer for, and know where their abidings, dwellings and habitations be, and vpon requeſt made to them or anie of them, as is aboueſaid, ſhall from time to time diſcloſe as well the ſame perſon or perſons, as the goods and chattels ſo paſſing the ſaid paſſages vpon freſh ſute made or héereafter to be made vpon anie felonie, murder, or robberie committed or doone in the borders of the counties aforeſaid, or in anie other place within this realme or Southwales.

An act that murders and felonies doone or committed within anie lordſhip marcher in Wales, ſhall be inquired of at the ſeſſions holden within the ſhire grounds next adioining, with manie good orders for miniſtration of iuſtice there to be had.

Chap.6.

FOraſmuch as the people of Wales and the marches of the ſame, not dreading the good and wholeſome lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, haue of long time continued and perſeuered in perpetration & commiſſion of diuers & manifold thefts, murders, rebellions, wilfull burning of houſes, and other ſcelerous déeds & abhominable malefacts, to the high diſpleaſure of God, inquietation of the kings well diſpoſed ſubiects, & diſturbance of the publike weale, which malefacts and ſcelerous déeds be ſo rooted & fixed in the ſame people, that they be not like to ceaſe, vnleſſe ſome ſharpe correction and puniſhment for redreſſe and amputation of the premiſſes be prouided, according to the demerits of the offendors. Be it therfore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, dwelling or reſiant within Wales, or in the lordſhips marchers of the ſame, from time to time and at all times héereafter, vpon ſuch monition or warning giuen for the court to be kept in Wales, or in anie of the lordſhips marches aforeſaid, as before this time hath béene vſed, ſhall perſonallie repaire, reſort and appéere before the iuſtice, ſteward, lieutenant or other officer at all and euerie ſeſſions, court and courts to be holden before the ſame iuſtice, ſteward or other officer, in anie whatſoeuer caſtle, fortreſſe, or other place within Wales or within the precinct, limits and iuriſdictions of euerie of the lordſhips marchers or ſeigniories aforeſaid, or the marches of the ſame, as by the ſaid iuſtice, ſteward, or other officer ſhall be appointed. And then and there ſhall giue his or their perſonall attendance, to doo, execute, and accompliſh all and euerie thing and things which to him or them ſhall affer and apperteine, vpon paine of ſuch fines, forfeitures and amerciaments, as ſhall be afferred, aſſeſſed, and taxed by the iuſtice, ſteward or other officer to the kings vſe, if it be within anie of the kings lordſhips marchers. And if it be within anie other lordſhips marchers, then to the vſe of the lord of the ſaid lordſhip marcher for the time being, the ſaid forfeitures and amerciaments to be leuied, perceiued and taken by waie of diſtreſſe of the goods and chattels of euerie perſon not appearing at the ſaid court or courts, or not dooing, executing or accompliſhing his dutie, as is aboueſaid.

Officers

And foraſmuch as the officers in the lordſhips marchers in Wales, haue oft and ſundrie times héeretofore vnlawfullie exacted the kings ſubiects within ſuch lordſhips where they haue had rule or authoritie, by manie and ſundrie waies and means, and alſo committed them to ſtreight dureſſe and impriſonment, for ſmall and light fained cauſes, and extortiouſlie compelled them thereby to paie vnto them fines for their redemptions, contrarie to the law. Therefore be it further enacted, that if anie ſteward, lieutenant, or anie other officer of anie lordſhip, marcher, doo faine, procure or imagin anie vntrue ſurmiſe againſt anie perſon or perſons, that ſhall ſo giue their perſonall attendance before them at ſuch court or courts, and vpon the ſame vntrue ſurmiſe commit them to any dureſſe or impriſonment, contrarie to the law, or contrarie to the true and laudable cuſtome of that lordſhip, that then vpon ſute made vnto the kings commiſſioners, or counſell of the marches for the time being, by anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned, or by anie of their fréends, that then the ſame commiſſioners or counſell ſhall haue full power and authoritie to ſend for ſuch ſteward, lieutenant, or officer, and alſo for the perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned. And if the ſame perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned can euidentlie prooue before the ſaid counſell by good and ſubſtantiall witneſſe, or otherwiſe, that his impriſonment was vpon anie fained ſurmiſe, without cauſe reaſonable or lawfull, that then the ſame commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoritie to aſſeſſe the ſaid officer to paie to the ſaid perſon or perſons wrongfullie impriſoned, ſix ſhillings and eight penſe for euerie daie of their impriſonment, or more, by the diſcretions of the ſaid commiſſioners, according to the hurts and behauior of the perſon or perſons impriſoned.

And that the ſame commiſſioners ſhall ſet further fine vpon the ſaid officer, to be paied to the kings vſe, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought conuenient. And in caſe the ſame officers doo refuſe to appéere before the ſame commiſſioners incontinent after anie commandement to them directed and deliuered, after any ſuch complaint made to the ſame commiſſioners, that then the ſame commiſſioners ſhall haue full power and authoritie vpon euerie default made by anie officer or officers, to aſſeſſe and ſet vpon euerie ſuch officer or officers making default, ſuch fine or fines to be leuied to the kings vſe, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought conuenient. And that the ſame commiſſioners ſhall haue full power & authoritie to compell the ſaid officer or officers by waie of impriſonment, as well to paie ſuch fine as ſhalbe ſet and taxed vpon them to the kings vſe, as to paie vnto euerie perſon or perſons ſo impriſoned ſuch ſums of monie as they ſhall be ſeſſed to paie for their wrong impriſonment.

An act for purgation of conuicts in Wales.

Chap.12.

WHere at the parlement ſommoned and holden at London the third daie of Nouember, in the xxj. yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiourned vnto Weſtminſter in the countie of Middleſex, and after diuers prorogations there alſo holden,the xv.daie of Ianuarie, the xxiij. yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight,it was enacted amongſt other,that no perſon nor perſons,which from thenſeforth ſhould happen to be found guiltie after the lawes of the land,for anie maner of petie treaſon, or for anie wilfull murder of malice prepenſed,or for robbing of anie churches,chapels,or other holie places,or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling place, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe,his wife,his children, or ſeruants then being within, and put in feare and dread by the ſame,or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons,in or néere about the high waies, or for wilfull burning of anie dwelling houſes or barns,wherein anie graine of corns ſhould happen to be,nor any perſon or perſons being found guiltie of any abetment,procurement,helping,mainteining or counſelling of or to anie ſuch petie treſons,murders,or felonies ſhould from thenſeforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their clergie,but vtterlie be excluded therof,and ſuffer death in ſuch maner & forme as they ſhould haue doone for any the cauſes or offenſes abouesaid,if they were no clerks,ſuch as be within holie orders,that is to ſaie of the orders of ſubdeacon or aboue,only except.And alſo it was then and there by authoritie aforeſaid further enacted,that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons within ſuch orders of ſubdeacon or aboue, which at any time from thenſeforth ſhould be found guiltie of anie petie treaſon,or of anie murder of malice prepenſed, or of anie of the felonies aboue rehearſed,or of anie acceſſarie to petie treaſon,wilfull murder,or to any other the felonies aboue ſpecified, & admitted to his or their clergie, & deliuered to the ordinarie for the ſame, ſhould not in anie wiſe from thenſeforth be ſuffred to anie purgation, nor be ſet at libertie, but remaine & abide in perpetuall priſon,vnder the kéeping of the ordinarie,to whome he ſhould be committed and his ſucceſſors, without any maner of purgation during the naturall life of euery ſuch conuict,except onlie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo being within ſuch holie orders,and conuict of or for anie of the offenſes aforeſaid,and deliuered to the ordinarie for the ſame,doo find ij. ſufficient ſureties by recognizance before two of the kings iuſtices of his peace within the ſame ſhire, where the petie treaſon, murder, or felonie, whereof he was conuicted, was committed and doone, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, that ſuch conuict ſhall be of good abering againſt the king our ſoue-reigne lord, his lawes & ſubiects, euerie ſuch conuict to be bounden in the ſum of xl.li. and euery his ſureties in xx.li. and that no ſuretie to be taken, vnleſſe ſuch as maie diſpend in lands, tenements or hereditaments, yeerelie aboue all charges of eſtate of inheritance of charter hold xxvj.s. viij.d. or elſe be worth xx.li. in moueable ſubſtance at the time of the taking of ſuch recognizance. And that two iuſtices of peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, by authoritie aforeſaid haue power & authoritie to take ſuch recognizance. And that the ſaid iuſtices afore whome anie ſuch recognizance ſhall be taken, ſhall certifie the ſame into the kings bench within foure months next after the taking thereof, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit 5 li. for euerie default thereof. And for as much as there be no iuſtices of peace ne of Quorum within Wales, nor in diuers other places, cities, honours, lordſhips, and manors, within the kings dominions, where as a lord marcher, ſteward, lieutenant, deputie or other officer of anie ſuch place, citie, honour, lordſhip, or manor, haue authoritie or power, by cuſtome or otherwiſe, to arreigne afore him or them anie ſuch perſon or perſons being within ſuch holie orders of ſubdeacon, or aboue, for committing or dooing any of the ſaid petie treaſons, murders, felonies, or anie other of the ſaid offenſes. And if it happen the ſame perſon ſo being thereof arreigned to be found guiltie, for to admit him to his clergie, if he praie the ſame before iudgement, and further to doo and execute againſt anie ſuch offendor being ſo arreigned before them, in like maner and forme as iuſtices of the gaole deliuerie within the ſhire ground haue vſed to doo by vertue of the kings commiſſion vnto them directed. By reaſon whereof euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, within ſuch order of ſubdeacon or aboue, being conuict of anie of the ſaid petie treaſons, murders, felonies, or anie other the ſaid offenſes, before anie lord marcher, ſteward, lieutenant deputie, or other officer within Wales, or within anie other place, citie, honour, lordſhip, or manor within the kings dominions, where no iuſtices of peace be, and therevpon committed vnto the ordinarie as clerke conuict, ſhall there remaine during the naturall life of anie ſuch conuict, the ſaid former act and ſtatute notwithſtanding. For that there be no iuſtices of the peace ne of the Quorum, there as the ſaid petie treaſon, murder or felonie, whereof he is ſo conuicted, was committed and doone, to take ſuretie by recognizance for the good abering of euerie ſuch conuict, in maner and forme as in the ſaid former act is rehearſed. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons within ſuch orders of ſubdeacon or aboue, being conuict of anie petie treaſon, or of anie murder, of malice prepenſed, or of anie of the ſaid felonies aboue rehearſed, or of anie acceſſarie to petie treaſon, wilfull murder, or to anie other the ſaid felonies aboue ſpecified, before anie lord marcher, ſteward, lieutenant, deputie, or other iuſtice or officer within Wales, or within anie other place, citie, towne, honour, lordſhip or manor within the kings dominions, where no iuſtices of the peace and of the Quorum be, and therevpon the ſame conuict admitted vnto his clergie, that the ſame perſon or perſons ſo being within ſuch holie orders, and conuict before anie ſuch lord marcher, ſteward, lieutenant, deputie, or other iuſtice or officer in Wales, or within anie ſuch place, citie, towne, honour, lordſhip, or manor within anie the kings dominions, where be no iuſtices of the peace and of the Quorum, of or for anie of the offenſes aforeſaid, and deliuered vnto the ordinarie as clerke conuict for the ſame, ſhall or maie find two ſureties by recognizance for his good abering before two of the kings iuſtices of the peace, whereof the one to be of the Quorum, in the ſhire where the ſame conuict is or ſhall be kept in the ordinaries priſon, if the ſame priſon be within the ſhire ground, where iuſtices of the peace and of the Quorum be, or elſe before two of the kings iuſtices of the peace, whereof the one to be of the Quorum in the next ſhire adioining vnto the ſame priſon, and that the ſame two iuſtices of the peace, whereof the one to be of the Quorum, to haue power and authoritie to take ſuch recognizance, and to certifie the ſame in like maner and forme, and vpon like paine as it ſhould or ought to haue beene doone by vertue of the ſaid former act, if the ſame petie treaſon, murder, felonie, or other offenſe, of or for which anie ſuch conuict was or ſhall be ſo conuict and admitted vnto his clergie, as is aforeſaid, had beene committed and doone within the ſhire ground, where iuſtices of the peace and of the Quorum be.

FOr as much as it is moſt neceſſarie both for common policie and dutie of ſubiects aboue all things to prohibit, prouide, reſtreine and extinct all manner of ſhamefull ſlanders, perils, or imminent danger or dangers, which might grow, happen, or riſe to their ſouereigne lord the king, the queene, or their heirs, which when they be heard, ſeene, or vnderſtand, cannot be but odible and alſo abhorred of all thoſe ſorts that be true and louing ſubiects, if in anie point they maie doo or ſhall touch the king, his queene, their heirs, or ſucceſſors, vpon which dependeth the whole vnitie and vniuerſall weale of this realme, without prouiding wherefore too great a ſcope of vnreaſonable libertie ſhould be giuen to all cankard and traitorous hearts, willers and workers of the ſame. And alſo the kings louing ſubiects ſhould not declare vnto their ſouereigne lord now being, which vnto them hath beene and is moſt intirelie both beloued and eſteemed, their vndoubted ſinceritie and truth.

Treaſon

Be it therefore enacted by the aſſent and conſent of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons after the firſt daie of Februarie next comming, doo maliciouſlie wiſh, will, or deſire by words or writing, or by craft imagin, inuent, practiſe or attempt anie bodilie harme to be doon or committed to the kings moſt roiall perſon, the quéene, or their heirs apparant, or to depriue them or any of them of their dignitie, title, or name of their roiall eſtates, or ſlanderouſlie & maliciouſlie publiſh & pronounce by expreſſe writing or words, that the king our ſoueraigne lord ſhould be heretike, ſciſmatike, tyrant, infidell, or vſurper of the crowne, or rebelliouſlie doo deteine, kéepe, or withhold from our ſaid ſoueraigne lord his heirs or ſucceſſors, any of his or their caſtles, fortreſſes, fortileſſes or holds, within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, or marches, or rebelliouſlie deteine, kéepe, or withhold from the kings ſaid highneſſe, his heirs or ſucceſſors, or any of his or their ſhips, ordinances, artillerie, or other munitions or fortifications of war, and doo not humblie render & giue vp to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, or to ſuch perſons as ſhall be deputed by them, ſuch caſtles, fortreſſes, fortileſſes, holds, ſhips, ordinances, artillerie, and other munitions and fortifications of war, rebelliouſlie kept or deteined within ſix daies next after they ſhall be commanded by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors by open proclamation vnder the great ſeale. That then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending in anie the premiſſes, after the ſaid firſt aidors, counſellors, conſentors, and abettors, being thereof lawfullie conuict, according to the lawes and cuſtoms of this relme, ſhall be adiudged traitors, and that euerie ſuch offenſe in anie the premiſſes that ſhall be committed or doone, after the ſaid firſt daie of Februarie, ſhall be reputed accepted, and adiudged high treaſon, and the offendors therein, and their aidors, conſentors, counſellors, and abettors, being lawfullie conuict of anie ſuch offenſe, as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue and ſuffer ſuch pains of death and other penalties, as is limited and accuſtomed in caſes of high treaſon.

Sanctuarie.

And to the intent that all treaſons ſhould be the more dread, hated and deteſted to be doone by any perſon or perſons, and alſo becauſe it is a great boldneſſe & an occaſion to ill diſpoſed perſons to aduenture and imbrace their malicious intents and enterpriſes, which all true ſubiects ought to ſtudie to eſchew. Be it therfore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that none offendor in any kinds of high treaſons, whatſoeuer they be, their aidors, conſentors, counſellors, nor abettors ſhall be admitted to haue the benefit or priuilege of anie maner of ſanctuarie, conſidering that matters of treaſons toucheth ſo nigh both the ſuretie of the king our ſoueraigne lords perſon, and his heirs and ſucceſſors.

Treaſons committed out of the realme.

And ouer that be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the kings ſubiects, denizens or other, doo commit or practiſe out of the limits of this realme in anie outward parts, anie ſuch offenſes, which by this act are made, or heretofore haue béene made treaſon, that then ſuch treaſons whatſoeuer they be, or whereſoeuer they ſhall happen ſo to be doone or committed, ſhall be inquired, and preſented by the oths of twelue góod and lawfull men, vpon góod and probable euidence & witneſſe, in ſuch ſhire and countie of this realme, and before ſuch perſons as it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to appoint by commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, in like maner and forme as treaſons committed within this realme, haue béene vſed to be inquired of & preſented, and that vpon euerie indictment & preſentment founden and made of anie ſuch treaſons & certified into the kings bench like proceſſe and other circumſtance ſhalbe there had & made againſt the offendors, as if the ſame treaſons ſo preſented had béene lawfullie found to be doone & committed within the limits of this relme, and that all proceſſe of outlawrie hereafter to be made & had within this realme, againſt anie offendors in treaſon, being reſiant or inhabited out of the limits of this realme, or in any of the parts of beyond the ſea, at the time of the outlawrie pronounced againſt them, ſhall be as góod and as effectuall in the law to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch offendors had béene reſident & dwelling within this realme, at the time of ſuch proceſſe awarded, and outlawrie pronounced.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euery offendor and offendors being hereafter lawfullie conuict of anie maner of high treaſons by preſentment, confeſſion, verdict, or proceſſe of outlawrie, according to the due courſe & cuſtome of the common lawes of this relme, ſhall loſe & forfeit to the kings highnes his heirs & ſucceſſors, all ſuch lands, tenements, & hereditaments which any ſuch offendor or offendors ſhall haue of anie eſtate of inheritance in vſe or poſſeſſion, by anie right, title, or means within this realme of England, or elſe where within anie the kings dominions, at the time of anie ſuch treaſon committed, or anie time after. Sauing to euerie perſon and perſons, their heirs and ſucceſſours, other than the offendors in anie treaſons, their heirs and ſucceſſours, and ſuch perſon and perſons as claime to anie their vſes all ſuch rights, titles, intereſts, poſſeſſions, leaſes, rents, offices, and other profits, which they ſhall haue at the daie of committing ſuch treaſons, or at anie time afore, in as large and ample maner, as if this act had neuer béene had nor made.

An act for nomination and conſecration of ſuffragans within this realme.

Chap.14.

Albeit that ſithens the beginning of this preſent parlement, góod and honourable ordinances and ſtatutes haue béene made and eſtabliſhed for elections, preſentations, conſecrations, and inueſting of archbiſhops and biſhops of this realme, and in all other the kings dominions, with all ceremonies apperteining vnto the ſame, as by ſundrie ſtatutes therof made, more at large is ſpecified : yet neuertheleſſe no prouiſion hitherto hath béene made for ſuffragans, which haue béene accuſtomed to be had within this realme for the more ſpéedie adminiſtration of the ſacraments and other góod, wholeſome and deuout things, and laudable ceremonies to the increaſe of Gods honor, and for the commoditie of góod and deuout people. Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the townes of Thetford, Ipſwich, Colcheſter, Douer, Gilford, Southhampton, Tanton, Shaftſburie, Molton, Marleborough, Bedford, Leiceſter, Gloceſter, Shrewſburie, Briſtow, Penreth, Bridgewater, Nottingham, Grantham, Hull, Huntingdon, Cambridge, and the towns of Pereth and Barwike, S. Germaines in Cornewall, and the iſle of Wight, ſhall be taken and accepted for ſées of biſhops ſuffragans to be made in this realme and in Wales, and the biſhops of ſuch ſées ſhall be called ſuffragans of this realme. And that euerie archbiſhop and biſhop of this realme and of Wales, and els where within the kings dominions, being diſpoſed to haue anie ſuffragan, ſhall and maie at their liberties name & elect, that is to ſay, euerie of them for their peculiar dioceſſe, two honeſt and diſcréet ſpirituall perſons, being learned and of góod conuerſation, and thoſe two perſons ſo by them to be named, ſhall preſent to the kings highneſſe by their writing vnder their ſeales, making humble requeſt to his maieſtie, to giue to one ſuch of the ſaid two perſons, as ſhall pleaſe his maieſtie, ſuch title, name, ſtile and dignitie of biſhop of ſuch ſées aboue ſpecified, as the kings highneſſe ſhall thinke moſt conuenient for the ſame. And that the kings maieſtie vpon euerie ſuch preſentation, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to giue to one of thoſe two perſons, ſo to his highneſſe to be preſented, the ſtile, title, and name of a biſhop of ſuch of the ſées aforeſaid, as to his maieſtie ſhall be thought moſt conuenient and expedient, ſo it be within the ſame prouince, whereof the biſhop that dooth name him is. And that euerie ſuch perſon, to whom the kings highneſſe ſhall giue anie ſuch ſtile and title, of anie of the ſées aforenamed, ſhall be called biſhop ſuffragan of the ſame ſée, whereunto he ſhall be named, and after ſuch title, ſtile and name giuen, as is aforeſaid, the kings maieſtie ſhall preſent euerie ſuch perſon by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, to the archbiſhop of Canturburie, if the towne whereof he hath his title be within the prouince of Canturburie, and likewiſe to the archbiſhop of Yorke if the towne whereof he hath his title be within the prouince of Yorke, ſignifieng and declaring by the ſame letters patents the name of the perſon preſented, and the ſtile and title of dignitie of biſhoprike, whereunto he ſhall be nominated, requiring the ſame archbiſhop to whom ſuch letters patents ſhall be directed, to conſecrate the ſaid perſon ſo nominat and preſented, to the ſame name, title, ſtile and dignitie of biſhop, that he ſhall be nominat and preſented vnto, and to giue him all ſuch conſecrations, benedictions and ceremonies, as to the degrée and office of a biſhop ſuffragan ſhall be requiſit.

Preſentatiõ

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall be nominated, elected, preſented and conſecrated, as is afore reherſed, ſhall be taken, accepted and reputed in all degrées & places, according to the ſtile, title, name & dignitie, that he ſhall be ſo preſented vnto, and haue ſuch capacitie, power & authoritie, honor, preheminence and reputation, in as large and ample maner, in, and concerning the execution of ſuch commiſſion, as by anie of the ſaid archbiſhops or biſhops within their dioceſſe, ſhall be giuen to the ſaid ſuffragans, as to ſuffragans of this realme héeretofore hath béene vſed and accuſtomed.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie archbiſhop of this realme, to whom anie the kings letters patents in the caſes afore rehearſed, ſhall be directed, hauing no lawfull impediment, ſhall performe and accompliſh the effects and contents of this act within the time of thrée months next after ſuch letters patents ſhall come to their hands, anie vſage, cuſtoms, forren lawes, priuileges, preſcriptions, or other thing or things heretofore vſed had or doone to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, that no ſuch ſuffragans which ſhall be made and conſecrate by vertue and authoritie of this act, ſhall take or perceiue anie maner of profits of the places & ſees whereof they ſhall be named, nor vſe, haue, or execute anie iuriſdiction or epiſcopall power or authoritie within their ſaid ſées, nor within anie dioceſſe or place of this realme, or elſe where within the kings dominions, but onlie ſuch profits, iuriſdiction, power & authoritie as ſhalbe licenced & limited to them to take, doo and execute by anie archbiſhop or biſhop of this realme within their dioceſſe, to whom they ſhall be ſuffragans by their commiſſion vnder their ſeales. And that euerie archbiſhop and biſhop of this realme, for their owne peculiar dioceſſe, maie and ſhall giue ſuch commiſſion or commiſſions to euerie ſuch biſhop, ſuffragan, as ſhall be ſo conſecrat by authoritie of this act, as hath béene accuſtomed for ſuffragans heretofore to haue, or elſe ſuch commiſſion as by them ſhall be thought requiſit, reaſonable, and conuenient. And that no ſuch ſuffragan ſhall vſe anie iuriſdiction, ordinarie or epiſcopall power, otherwiſe nor longer time than ſhall be limited by ſuch commiſſion to him to be giuen, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine to incur into the pains, loſſes, forfeitures, and penalties mentioned in the ſtatute of prouiſions, made in the xvj. yeare of king Richard the ſecond.

Commiſſion Biſhop.

Prouided alwaies, that the biſhop that ſhall nominat the ſuffragan to the kings highneſſe, or the ſuffragan himſelfe that ſhall be nominat, ſhall prouide two biſhops or ſuffragans to conſecrat him with the archbiſhop, and ſhall beare their reaſonable coſts.

Conſecratiõ. Coſts

Prouided alſo that the reſidence of him that ſhall be ſuffragan ouer the dioceſſe, where he ſhall haue commiſſion, ſhall ſerue him for his reſidence as ſufficientlie, as if he were reſident vpon anie other his benefice, anie act, heretofore made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ Be it further enacted, that all ſuch ſuffragans, as ſhall heereafter exerciſe the offices aforeſaid, by the commiſſion of the biſhop, for the better maintenance of his dignitie, maie haue two benefices with cure, anie former act made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for taking awaie certeine exactions taken within the archdeaconrie of Richmond by ſpirituall men.

Chap.15.

Exaction

Forasmuch as diuerſe and manie the king our ſoureigne lords ſubiects, inhabited within the archdeaconrie of Richmond, in the countie of Yorke, be and of long time haue beene ſore and greeuouſlie exacted & impoueriſhed by the parſons, vicars, & others, ſuch as haue benefices & ſpirituall promotions within the ſame, as by taking of euerie perſon, when he dieth, in the name of a penſion or of a portion, ſometime the ninth part of all his goods and chattels, and ſometime the third part to the open and manifeſt impoueriſhing of moſt part of all the kings poore ſubiects, inhabited and deceaſing within the ſame. Wherefore be it ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from the feaſt of ſaint Marke the euangeliſt next comming, no maner of ſpirituall perſon or others, now hauing, or that from the ſaid feaſt ſhall haue anie maner of benefice, or other ſpirituall promotion within the ſaid archdeaconrie, ſhall in no wiſe leuie, demand or take, after the deceaſe of anie perſon or perſons anie ſuch portions or penſions, nor anie other demand or dutie, in the name or liew of the ſame, vpon paine to incur ſuch dangers, forfeitures and penalties, as be conteined in the ſtatute of prouiſors made in the fiue and twentith yeere of the reigne of your moſt noble progenitor king Edward the third: but that all and euerie the kings ſubiects of the ſaid archdeaconrie, and their executors and adminiſtrators, from henſeforth ſhall be ordered, intreated and vſed for their goods and chattels after their deceaſe, in like maner, forme, order and condition, as is conteined in the ſtatute made in the 21 yeere of your moſt noble and victorious reigne for probat of teſtaments & none otherwiſe, anie vſe, cuſtome, bill, compoſition, preſcription or ordinance heertofore had, obteined or vſed to the contrarie within the foreſaid archdeaconrie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Where at a parlement holden at London the fifteenth daie of Aprill, in the fourteenth yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, the laſt daie of Iulie in the fifteenth yeere of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and there ended. It was ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed, that the craftſmen called worſted weauers, inhabited in the towne of great Yarmouth, ſhould haue power and authoritie by that act from thenſe forward to elect and chooſe yeerlie for euer, on the mondaie next after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, one honeſt man of the myſterie and occupation of worſted weauers, being an houſholder within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, and hauing of his proper goods and chattels, to the value of x li. at the leaſt, or lands and tenements to his owne vſe of eſtate of freehold at the leaſt, to the cleere yeerlie value of xx s. to be warden of the ſame craft and myſterie of worſted weauers for the yeere next inſuing, which man ſo elected & choſen, ſhould perſonallie appeere before the maior of the citie of Norwich for the time being, the mondaie next after the feaſt of Corpus Chriſti, then next inſuing, then and there to be ſworne and charged by like oth concerning the true & ſubſtantiall making of worſteds, ſais and ſtamins within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, as the foure wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, by vertue of an act of parlement, made in the ſeuenth yeare of king Edward the 4, were charged and ſworne for the ſame citie of Norwich. And if the ſaid maior happened to be abſent the ſaid mondaie next after Corpus Chriſti, or elſe then refuſed to receiue or take the ſaid oth, then the ſaid warden ſo elect within foure daies next after the ſame mondaie, ſhould come before the bailifs of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, for the time being, or before one of them, the other being abſent, and then and there receiue a corporall oth for the true exerciſing of the ſame office of wardenſhip, after the tenour of the oth accuſtomablie vſed to be giuen to the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and then the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth for the time being, ſo elected and ſworne, might ordeine and appoint a ſeale with this letter Y, to be grauen in the ſame ſeale, and might haue full power and authoritie to view, ſearch, ſeize, and ſeale in lead with the ſame ſeale, ſo to be appointed and grauen, and none other, all worſteds, ſaies, and ſtamins within the ſaid towne of Yarmouth, and ſuburbs of the ſame, made or to be made, and not elſe where, in as large and ample maner as the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and the wardens of the countie of Norfolke or anie of them, had within the ſaid citie or countie, or in anie wiſe maie doo in that behalfe by authoritie or vertue of the aforeremembred act made in the ſaid ſeuenth yeare of king Edward the fourth, anie thing in the ſame conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And that no perſon inhabited within the ſaid towne of great Yarmouth, or ſuburbs thereof, ſhould weaue anie worſteds, ſaies, or ſtamins, within the ſame towne, except he be an Engliſhman borne, and had beene apprentiſe to the ſaid occupation, and without he weaued therein ſuch proper marks as ſhould be limited and appointed by the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne for the time being, elect and ſworne as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of forfeiture thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord. And that euerie warden of the ſaid towne, ſhould limit, diſtinct and ſeuerall marks to euerie of the ſaid worſted weauers of the ſame towne of great Yarmouth, and the ſame marks by the ſaid warden to be regiſtred in a booke.

And alſo it was further enacted, that if & whenſoeuer the towne of Lin ſhould be inhabited with ten ſundrie houſholders or more number of houſholders, exerciſing and vſing the ſaid craft or myſterie of worſted weauers, then and from thenſefoorth, that is to ſaie, as long as the ſame towne of Lin ſhould be inhabited with the number of ten ſuch houſholders at the leaſt, it ſhould be lawfull to the ſame inhabitants of the ſaid towne of Lin, yéerelie in the mondaie next after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, to elect and chooſe of themſelues one warden of the ſaid craft and myſterie of worſted weauers, to be of the value in lands and goods as is aforeſaid, of the wardens of Yarmouth, which warden ſo elect, ſhould yéerelie be ſworne and charged at the ſaid citie of Norwich, in like maner and at like daie as is before limited to the wardens of Yarmouth, or in default of the ſaid maior of Norwich, then the ſaid warden ſo to be elect for the ſaid towne of Lin, to take a corporall oth before the maior of the ſaid towne, within ſuch time and after ſuch forme as is before limited vnto the ſaid warden of Yarmouth. And that the ſaid warden of the ſaid towne of Lin for the time being ſo elect and ſworne by himſelfe, might ordeine and appoint a ſeale with this letter L. to be grauen in the ſeale, and might haue full power and authoritie to view, ſearch, ſeize, and ſeale in lead with the ſame ſeale to be grauen, and with none other, all worſteds, ſais and ſtamins within the ſaid towne of Lin and ſuburbs of the ſame, made or to be made, and not elſe where, in as large and ample maner, as the ſaid warden of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and warden of the ſaid countie of Norfolke, or anie of them, had within the ſaid citie or countie, or otherwiſe might doo by authoritie or vertue of the aforeſaid act made in the ſaid ſeuenth yéere of king Edward the fourth, anie thing conteined in the ſame act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And it was further enacted, that from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell then next following, vnto ſuch time as the ſaid towne of Lin ſhould be inhabited with the ſaid number of ten houſeholders of the ſaid craft of worſted weauers, and alwaies after, when the number of ten houſholders ſhould happen to faile, and not be inhabited in the ſaid towne of Lin, the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich, and their ſucceſſors, ſhould procure and cauſe one of themſelues, or one of the wardens of the ſaid craft of the ſaid countie of Norfolke, perſonallie to come and be euerie eight and twentith daie from and after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, in & to the ſaid towne of Lin, or within ſix daies next after euerie ſuch eight and twentith daie, and there to continue and abide by ſo long time, as he might ſearch and ſeale all ſuch worſteds, ſaies and ſtamins, made in the ſame towne of Lin, as then ſhould be brought to him to be ſealed within the ſpace of one whole daie. And the ſaid inhabitants of worſted weauers of the ſame towne of Lin being, ſhould content and paie to the ſaid wardens of Norwich or Norfolke, which ſhould ſo come to Lin, in the ſaid eight & twentith daie, for euerie time that he ſhould ſo come to Lin, betwéene the feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell, and the Annunciation of our ladie ſaint Marie, iij. s. and for euerie time that he ſhould ſo come to the ſaid towne of Lin, betwéene the feaſt of the Annunciation of our ladie, and the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell ij. s. And if the ſaid inhabitants of worſted weauers of the ſaid towne of Lin did not content and paie to the ſaid warden, comming to Lin in forme aforeſaid, for his ſaid coſts and charges, the ſaid thrée ſhillings, or two ſhillings, as is aboue limited, that the ſame inhabitants ſhould forfeit and pay to the ſaid warden, or to his executors for euerie ſuch default of paiment fortie ſhillings. And if none of the ſaid wardens of Norwich and Norfolke come to the ſaid towne of Lin, for the cauſe aforeſaid, in manner & forme aboue remembred, that the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie of Norwich ſhould forfeit and paie to the ſaid inhabitants of Lin of the ſaid myſterie of worſted weauers, for euerie ſuch default fortie ſhillings, for recompenſe of the penaltie and forfeits, the ſaid wardens of Norwich or Norfolke, being thereunto intituled by that act by his proper name, with this addition, that is to ſaie, Vnius gardianorum, or Nuper vnius gardianorum, artis ſiue myſteriæ textorũ panni lanei vocat. worſted in ciuitat. maner and forme, as is vſed in action of debt by courſe of the common law of this realme.

And moreouer it is enacted, that all clothes of worſteds, ſaies and ſtamins, made within anie of the ſaid towns of Lin and great Yarmouth or ſuburbs of the ſame, or anie of them and marked with ſuch marks, as ſhould be limited to the makers, by the ſaid wardens of the ſaid towne in maner and forme, as is aboueſaid, and viewed and ſealed by anie of the ſaid wardens of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, in forme remembred, by force and vertue of the ſaid act might be lawfullie put to ſale by the owners & makers of the ſame, without anie other marking or ſealing vpon the ſame clothes, or vpon anie of them to be had or made, of or vpon anie of the ſaid clothes, for lacke of anie other ſeales or marks: anie thing conteined in the ſaid ſeuenth yeere of king Edward the fourth to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Apprentiſe

And ouer this it was enacted, that euerie craftſman of the ſaid myſterie & occupation of worſted making, dwelling within any of the ſaid townes of Lin & Yarmouth, and ſuburbs of the ſame, at their owne free wils and liberties from thenſeforth for euer might haue and take apprentiſe or apprentiſes, being male, of the age of eighteene yeeres and vpward, and being the kings naturall ſubiects, for terme of ſeuen yeers and not vnder, ſo that none of them exceed the number of two at once, to learne, vſe and exerciſe the ſaid craft within either of the ſaid two townes of Lin & great Yarmouth, and ſuburbs of the ſame, albeit the father of the ſaid apprentiſe or apprentiſes might not expend in lands or tenements, to the yeerelie value of twentie ſhillings: anie act or ordinance to the contrarie made or to be made notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, that the ſame act or anie thing therein conteined ſhould not in anie wiſe be hurtfull or preiudiciall to the maior of Norwich, or to his ſucceſſor, or to the wardens of the ſaid citie or countie, or to their ſucceſſors, in anie point or article, power or authoritie, other than for weauing, ſearching, and ſealing of worſteds, ſais and ſtamins, made or to be made onlie within the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, or to anie of them, and for limiting of marks to the markers of worſteds, ſais & ſtamins onelie inhabited in either of the ſaid townes or ſuburbs thereof, and taking of the apprentiſes in forme aboue remembred, but that the ſaid maior of the ſaid citie of Norwich and wardens of the ſame citie and countie, and euerie of them, might haue and vſe all other points, articles, powers, and authorities conteined and ſpecified in the aboue remembred act made in the ſaid ſeuenth yeere of king Edward the fourth, as well for the ſearch, ſealing, correction, and reformation of the ſaid wardens, newlie to be elected by the vertue of the ſame act, and euerie of them, according and after ſuch forme as they might doo or vſe anie of the ſaid wardens of the ſaid citie or countie, by force of the ſaid act made in the ſaid ſeuenth yeere of king Edward the fourth, as all and euerie other inquiries, corrections, ſearches, ſeizings, and reformations to be had for the true making of worſteds, ſais and ſtamins, in, and vpon anie perſon or perſons, as well within the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, as without, without trouble, let or vexation of anie of the inhabitants of the ſaid towne, in as large and ample wiſe, as they might haue donne before the making of the ſaid act, anie thing conteined in the ſame act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Callender

And alſo it was further prouided and enacted that the ſaid craftſmen of worſted weauers, inhabited, or after that to be inhabited within either of the ſaid towns of Lin & Yarmouth or ſuburbs of the ſame, & the merchants or anie other perſon or perſons, which ſhould happen to buie of the ſame craftſmen or anie of them, or anie other perſon anie of the ſaid clothes of worſteds, ſais or ſtamins made or to be made within either of the ſaid townes of Lin and Yarmouth, and ſealed by the ſaid wardens of the ſame townes to be elect and ſworne, as is aforeſaid, and anie of them ſhould not ſheere die or put in colour, or calender anie worſteds, ſtamins, or ſaies, made, or after that to be made within either of the ſaid towns of Lin and Yarmouth, and ſuburbs of the ſame, in anie other place or places, but onelie within the ſaid citie of Norwich, or ſuburbs of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie peece of worſteds, ſaies, or ſtamins to be made within anie of the ſaid towns of Lin and Yarmouth, or ſuburbs of the ſame, or the value therof, ſhorne, died, coloured, or calendred by anie of the ſaid craftſmen, buiers, or merchants, in anie other place or places than in the ſaid citie of Norwich, or ſuburbs of the ſame, the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe therof to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhould ſeize the ſame, ſo that the ſaid worſteds brought to the ſaid citie of Norwich to be ſhorne, died, coloured, and calendred, without couin or craft of anie of the ſaid inhabitants and merchants, might be ſhorne, died, coloured, and calendred, at and by as conuenient priſe or priſes, and in as redie wiſe as the ſaid inhabitants of either of the ſaid towns of Lin and Yarmouth, and merchants buiers of the ſaid worſteds, or other of the ſaid citie and countie, had had in times paſt, or after that ſhould haue. And alſo that the ſame inhabitants and merchants and euerie of them ſo bringing the ſaid worſteds to the ſame citie to be ſhorne, died, coloured and calendred, were reaſonablie and lawfullie intreated according to the ſaid act, made in the ſaid ſeuenth yeare of king Edward the fourth, and the ordinance made and affirmed, or hereafter to be made and affirmed for the ſaid myſterie, without let or diſturbance contrarie to the ſame act or ordinance in that behalfe.

Tranſport

And it was further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, anie time after that ſhould conuie or tranſport into anie of the parts of beyond the ſea, anie maner of clothes of worſteds, before the ſame clothes were ſhorne, died, coloured and callendred, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value thereof: the one halfe to the king our ſoueraigne lord, & the other halfe thereof to the partie that will ſue therefore, by action or plaint of debt in any of the kings courts, in which action or ſute no protection or eſſoine ſhould be allowed, nor the defendant admitted to wage his law, as by the ſaid act thereof made more plainlie appeareth: which act was made to indure vnto the next parlement, whereby it is now expired. In conſideration whereof, and forasmuch as the ſame act is a good and neceſſarie act for the true making of worſteds, ſaies and ſtamins, and verie commodious and profitable for the increaſe of the ſaid townes of Yarmouth and Lin, be it therefore enacted by the king our soueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that the ſame act, and euerie article, ſentence and prouiſion therein conteined, ſhall from henſeforth be continued and ſtand for euer in full ſtrength and vertue.

Reuiued

An act that no farmars of ſpirituall perſons ſhall be compelled or charged to paie for their leaſors firſt frutes or yeeres penſion for the tenth granted to the kings highneſſe.

Chap.17. FOr certeine reaſonable and vrgent conſiderations, mouing the kings moſt high court of parlement, it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular farmars and leaſées of anie manors, lordſhips, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, parſonages, vicarages, portions of tithes, or other whatſoeuer profits or commodities, belonging to anie archbiſhop, biſhop, or other prelat, or ſpirituall perſon or perſons, or ſpirituall bodie corporat or politike, whereof anie firſt frutes or yéerelie penſion of the tenth part is granted to the king our ſoueraigne lord in this preſent ſeſſion of the ſaid court of parlement, ſhall be diſcharged and not chargable to paie to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord of his or their proper monie, coſt or charge, for or in diſcharge of the leaſor or leaſors, owner or owners of the ſame, by reaſon of any couenant, bargaine, bond, condition, clauſe of reentrée or other thing héertofore made or concluded, but that euerie of the ſaid leaſors and owners, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall be charged & chargable to paie and ſatiſfie the ſame of his or their proper coſt and charge, to the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors according to the grant therof: anie couenant, bargaine, contract, bond, condition, clauſe of reentrée, or other thing héeretofore made or concluded to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the kings generall and free pardon granted by his highneſſe.

Chap.18. THe kings moſt roiall maieſtie prudentlie conſidering, that albeit his highneſſe of his moſt excellent pitie, benignitie and mercie, manifold times héeretofore mercifullie and liberallie hath granted his moſt gratious, free and generall pardon, to all and ſingular his ſubiects, by the which his maieſtie hath remitted and releaſed innumerable and ineſtimable ſubſtance and profits, which he might haue lawfullie taken and had by the lawes and cuſtoms of this his realme, truſting by his often remiſſion, pardon and mercie, miniſtred to his ſubiects, to allure offendors from vice to vertue, and that they would put their diligent deuoirs to amend and reforme their abuſes: yet neuertheleſſe his louing & obedient ſubiects, ſince his laſt moſt gratious & liberall pardons to them granted, haue incurred into innumerable penalties, loſſes, forfeitures & damages, whereof few or none of them are able to make full recompenſe or condigne ſatiſfaction to his highneſſe, if his maieſtie ſhould procéed againſt them by due courſe of his lawes, truſting that now from henſeforth they will eftſoones amend & beware the incurring of the forſaid dangers and perils, ſeeing they haue had ſo manie admonitions & gentle warnings: and perceiuing alſo the great zeale and affection, which his louing ſubiects beare vnto him and his dignitie roiall, as by manie waies in this preſent parlement they haue declared and ſhewed. In conſideration whereof, and truſting as afore, the kings highneſſe to ſhew vnto his louing ſubiects, that he both can and will conſider, when he is both kindlie and louinglie handled of them, vpon his méere motion, and to declare alſo his tender loue and affection which he beareth vnto his nobilitie and ſubiects, according to his accuſtomable goodneſſe, is contented and pleaſed at this time to extend his pitie, mercie and benignitie to all and ſingular his ſubiects of this his realme of England, Wales, the iſles of Jarneſie and Garneſie, Barwike and Calis, and the marches of the ſame by waie of his frée pardon and remiſſion, as heereafter followeth, rather coueting their amendments by gentle and mercifull meanes, than to be inriched by their euill déeds and offenſes. And for that his ſaid frée pardon and remiſſion to be had, taken and inioied to and by them and euerie of them by vertue of this preſent act, his grace is fullie and reſolutelie contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, in maner & forme following, that is to ſaie: that all & euerie of his ſaid ſubiects, aſwell ſpirituall as temporall of this his realme of England, Wales, the ſaid iſles of Jarneſie and Garneſie, Barwike and Calis, and the marches of the ſame, the heires, ſucceſſors, executors and adminiſtrators of them and euerie of them, and all and ſingular bodies in anie maner of wiſe corporat, cities, boroughs, ſhires, ridings, hundreds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages and tithings, and of euerie of them, and the ſucceſſor and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent parlement, acquited, pardoned, releaſed and diſcharged againſt the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors & executors, and euerie of them, of all maner of felonies, offenſes, contempts, treſpaſſes, wrongs, deceipts, miſdemeanors, forfeitures, penalties and profits, ſums of monie, paines of death, paines corporall and pecuniarie, and generallie of all other things, cauſes, quarels, ſutes, iudgements and executions in this preſent act heerafter not excepted nor forpriſed, which maie be or can be by his highneſſe in anie wiſe or by anie meane pardoned, before and vnto the third daie of the moneth of Nouember, in the ſix and twentith yéere of his moſt noble reigne, to euerie or anie of his ſaid ſubiects, bodies corporat, cities, boroughs, ſhires, ridings, hundreds, laths, rapes, wapentakes, townes, villages, and tithings, or to anie of them.

And alſo the kings highneſſe is contented, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that this frée pardon ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law to euerie of his ſaid ſubiects, bodies corporat, and others before rehearſed, and to euerie of them by the ſaid generall words before rehearſed, in and againſt all things, which be not héereafter in this preſent act excepted, as the ſame pardon ſhould haue béene, if all offenſes, contempts, forfeitures, cauſes, matters, ſutes, quarrels, iudgements, executions, penalties, and all other things not héereafter excepted, had béene particularlie, ſingularlie, ſpeciallie and plainlie named, rehearſed and ſpecified, and alſo pardoned by proper and expreſſe words and names in their kinds, natures and qualities, by words and termes thereunto requiſit, to haue béene put & expreſſed in this preſent act of frée pardon: and that his ſaid ſubiects, nor any of them, nor the heirs, executors or adminiſtrators of any of them, nor anie of the ſaid bodies corporat and others before named, or anie of them, be nor ſhall be ſued, vexed or inquieted in their bodies, goods, lands or chattels for anie maner matter, cauſe, contempt, miſdemeanor, forfeiture, treſpaſſe, offenſe, or any other thing ſuffered, done or committed before the ſaid third day of Nouember, againſt his highneſſe, his crowne, dignitie, prerogatiue, law or ſtatutes: but onlie for ſuch matters, cauſes and offenſes, as be plainlie rehearſed in the exceptions in this preſent act héereafter mentioned, and for none other: anie ſtatute or ſtatutes, lawes, cuſtoms, vſe or preſident héeretofore had, made or vſed to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Alſo the kings highneſſe of his bounteous liberalitie, by authoritie of this preſent parlement granteth, and fréelie giueth to euerie of his ſaid ſubiects, and to euerie of the ſaid bodies corporat, and others before rehearſed, and to euerie of them, all ſuch goods, chattels, debts, fines, iſſues, profits, amerciaments, forfeitures and ſums of monie, by anie of them forfeited, which to his highnes doo or ſhould belong or apperteine by reaſon of any offenſe contempt, treſpaſſe, miſdemeanor, matter, cauſe or quarell, ſuffered, doone or committed by them or anie of them, before the ſaid third daie of Nouember, which be not héereafter plainlie forpriſed and excepted in this preſent act. And that all and euerie the kings ſaid ſubiects, and all and ſingular bodies corporat, and others before rehearſed, maie by him or themſelfe, or his or their deputie or deputies, or by his or their atturnie or atturnies, according to the lawes of this realme, plead and miniſter this preſent act of frée pardon for his or their diſcharge of and for euerie thing, that is by vertue of this preſent act pardoned, diſcharged, giuen or granted, without anie fée or other thing in anie wiſe paieng to anie perſon or perſons for writing or entrie of anie ſuch pleading of the ſaid pardon, or for entrie of the iudgement, or other cauſe concerning ſuch plée, writing or entrie, but onlie twelue penſe to be paid to the officer or clerke that ſhall enter the plée, matter or iudgement for the parties diſcharge in that behalfe: anie ſtatute or vſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And furthermore the kings highneſſe is contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that his ſaid frée pardon by the generall words before rehearſed, ſhalbe reputed, déemed & iudged, allowed and taken in all maner courts of his laws, and elſwhere aſwell in the words & clauſes of the exceptions and forpriſes ſpecified in this preſent act, as in all & ſingular other clauſes, words and ſentences mentioned and rehearſed in the ſaid frée pardon, moſt beneficiallie and auailablie to all and ſingular his ſaid ſubiects, bodies corporat, and others before rehearſed, and to euerie of them, and moſt ſtronglie in bar and diſcharge againſt his highneſſe, his heirs, ſucceſſors and executors, in euerie thing, without anie obſtacle, ambiguitie, chalenge, or other delaie whatſoeuer it ſhall be, to be made, pleaded, obiected or alleged by the king our ſoureigne lord, his heires, ſucceſſors or executors, or by his or anie of their generall atturnie or atturnies, or by anie other perſon or perſons for his highneſſe, or anie of his heirs, ſucceſſors or executors.

And furthermore it is enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie officer or clerke of anie of his high courts, commonlie called the kings bench, chancerie and common place, or of his excheker, or anie other officer or clerke of anie other of his courts within this realme, at any time after the feaſt of the Epiphanie of our Lord God next comming, make out or write out anie maner writs or other proceſſe, or anie extreats, ſummons or other precepts, whereby anie of the ſaid ſubiects, or anie of the ſaid bodies corporat, or other before rehearſed, or anie of them, ſhall be in anie wiſe arreſted, attached, diſtreined, ſummoned, or otherwiſe vexed, inquieted or gréeued in his or their bodies, lands, tenements, goods or chattels, or in any of them, for or becauſe of anie maner of thing pardoned or diſcharged by vertue of this act of frée pardon, he ſo offending, and thereof lawfullie condemned, ſhall yéeld & paie for recompenſe thereof, the partie ſo gréeued or offended, treble damages (accounted as parcell of theſe damages, all coſts of the ſute.) And neuertheleſſe all and ſingular ſuch writs, proceſſe, extreats and precepts ſo to be made, for or vpon anie maner thing pardoned or diſcharged by this preſent act of frée pardon, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

Excepted alwaies, and forpriſed out of the ſaid frée pardon all maner of high treaſons, and miſpriſions of high treaſon, and all ſutes, puniſhments, forfeitures and penalties, for or by reaſon or occaſion of anie of them, all prepenſed and voluntarie murders, all robberies of churches, and robberies doone vpon mens perſons, all other felonies and robberies by the common law, of felonious taking of anie monie, goods or chattels aboue the ſum or value of twentie ſhillings, all felonious burning of houſes, all rauiſhments of women, and all and ſingular acceſſaries to anie of the ſaid murders or murderers, felonies, robberies, burnings, or rauiſhments, felons, robbers, burners and rauiſhers, all outlawries of high treaſons, and of miſpriſions of high treaſons, and all maner of felonies, other than felonies of the ſum or value of twentie ſhillings, or vnder the ſame ſum: and that all other outlawries had or promulged vpon or againſt anie perſon or perſons for anie cauſe, not being treaſon, miſpriſion of high treaſons, murder or felonie aboue the ſaid ſum of twentie ſhillings, be and ſhall be pardoned by the generall words of this preſent act of free pardon before written: ſo alwaies that the ſame perſons and euerie of them, ſtand to right to anſwer or ſatiſfie the partie, at whoſe ſute he is outlawed, according to the lawes of this realme.

Alſo excepted and forpriſed out of the ſaid free pardon, all and ſingular conuictions and attaindors of anie perſon and perſons, now being or remaining in anie conuict priſon, or in the cuſtodie of anie biſhop, abbat or other ſpirituall perſon or ordinarie, and euerie of the ſame perſons ſo attainted or conuicted. And alſo all multipliers and nigromancers, multiplications and nigromancies, and all ſutes, impetitions, proceſſes and puniſhments, for or vpon the ſame or anie of them: and all titles and actions of Quare impedit, and all rauiſhments of the kings wards, all waſts of the kings woods and his forreſts, parks or chaſes, all concealements of cuſtoms and ſubſidies.

And alſo excepted and forpriſed out of this pardon, all incloſures, and decaies of houſes of husbandrie, made, doone, committed or permitted contrarie to the forme or effect of anie ſtatute or ſtatutes heeretofore made, and alſo all iſſues, profits, amerciaments, fines and other penalties, which heerafter ſhall grow or be forfeited for anie ſuch incloſures or decaies, and all intruſion had, made or doone into anie manors, lands, tenements or other hereditaments, ſince the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which was in the fiue & twentith yeere of the kings moſt noble reigne: and all and ſingular debts, other than debts growne vpon recognizances, being of the ſum of fiftie pounds or vnder, and not aboue that ſum, & being alreadie forfeited, for ſuretie of the peace, or for appearance at anie daie or place.

And excepted and forpriſed out of this pardon, all accounts, and all actions, ſutes and impetitions for the ſame accounts, and arrerages of accounts, and for the ſaid debts, or anie of them heereby excepted or forpriſed: all homages and releefs not doone or not paid, all wilfull eſcapes aſwell of conuicts as other priſoners, and all debts which were due to the moſt noble king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, or to anie perſon or perſons, to his vſe, by anie condemnation, recognizance, obligation or otherwiſe: all & ſingular thoſe forfeitures being due to our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, by anie penall ſtatute or ſtatutes, which be conuerted into the nature of debt by iudgement, or by agreement of the offendors, before the ſaid third daie of Nouember: and all forfeitures and other penalties and profits growne or due by reaſon of any offenſe or act, committed or doone contrarie to any ſtatute or ſtatutes, or contrarie to the common law, whereof any ſeizure is made, or anie information is giuen in the kings excheker, or anie ſute there commenſed before the ſaid third daie of Nouember, or whereof the kings highneſſe by his bill ſigned, or otherwiſe, heeretofore hath made anie gift or aſſignement to anie of his ſeruants.

And alſo excepted all iſſues forfeited, fines, amerciaments, afferred, taxed, ſet, extreated or iudged, ſeuerallie or particularlie, extending to the ſum of fiue pounds, or aboue the ſum, and that all & ſingular other fines, aſwell fines Pro licentia concordandi as other, and all other iſſues & amerciaments, aſwell reall as other, which ſeuerallie or particularlie extend not to the ſaid ſum of fiue pounds, whether they be totted or not totted, taken to the charge of the ſhiriffe, or not taken to his charge, extreated or not extreted: whether they be turned into or not into debt, and not being leuied nor receiued by anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs, bailiffe, miniſters, or other officers, ſhall be fullie, cleerelie and plainlie pardoned and diſcharged againſt the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires & ſucceſſors for euer by this preſent act of free pardon.

And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that in this caſe it be obiected to or againſt anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs, or other accountants in the kings court of excheker, or in anie other his courts, that anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs, or other officers accountant, hath receiued or taken anie ſuch fines, iſſues or amerciaments, by this preſent act pardoned and acquited, that then euerie ſuch ſhiriffe and ſhirifs, and other accountants ſhall be diſcharged, releaſed, pardoned and acquited therof by his or their oth, without anie further triall in that behalfe.

Prouided alwaies, that this preſent act of free pardon, nor any thing therein conteined, in any wiſe extend to diſcharge, remit or acquit any perſon or perſons, for any ſuch iſſues, fines, and amerciaments of fiue pounds or vnder, as anie ſhiriffe heeretofore hath accounted before the barons of the kings excheker or elſwhere, and paid the ſame iſſues, fines, and amerciaments vpon his or their ſaid account, determined to the kings vſe, and haue his or their Quietus eſt for the ſame.

An act for the repairing and amending of the townes of Gloceſter, Nottingham, Northhampton, and other.

The firſt chapter.

FOrſomuch as diuerſe and manie houſes, meſuages and tenements of habitations in the towns of Nottingham, Shrewſburie, Ludlow, Bridgenorth, Quinborough, Northhampton and Gloceſter, now are, and of long time haue béene in great ruin and decaie, and ſpeciallie in the principall and chéefe ſtréets there being, in the which chéefe ſtréets in times paſſed haue bin beautifull dwelling houſes, there well inhabited, which at this daie much part thereof is deſolat and void grounds, with pits, ſellers, and vauts, lieng open and vncouered, verie perillous for people to go by in the night, without ieopardie of life: which decaies are to the great impouerishing and hinderance of the ſame townes. For remedie whereof it maie pleaſe the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, it maie be enacted, that if the owner or owners of anie ſuch void and decaied houſes or grounds within the precinct of the ſaid townes of Nottingham, Shrewſburie, Ludlow, Gloceſter, Bridgenorth, Quinborough and Northhampton, within thrée yéeres next after proclamation thereof to be made by the maiors, ſhirifs and bailifs of anie of the ſaid townes, by what name or names ſoeuer they be incorporated, in and vpon anie ſuch vacant or decaied houſes and grounds in anie ſuch townes, as is aforeſaid, and according to this act doo not enter, and ſufficientlie reedifie and build the ſame decaied houſes or void grounds: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the lord, of whom ſuch vacant grounds or decaied houſes béene or ſhall be holden, to enter immediatlie after the ſaid thrée yéeres expired, and to haue the ſame grounds to them and their heires or ſucceſſors for euer. So that the ſaid lords doo ſufficientlie reedifie and build the ſame vacant or void grounds, wherein he or they maie enter by this act, within thrée yéeres next and immediatlie following the determination of the former thrée yéeres, in the which the owners ought to haue entred, reedified and builded the ſame by vertue of this act. And if ſuch lords as maie enter by this act, doo not enter and well and ſufficientlie reedifie and build the ſame void and decaied houſes and grounds within the ſaid thrée yéeres to them limited by this act, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs and commonaltie of the ſaid townes, by what name or names ſoeuer they be incorporated, and their ſucceſſors for the time being, immediatlie after the ſaid thrée yéeres expired to enter into euerie ſuch void or decaied grounds or houſes, and the ſame grounds or ground to hold and reteine without interruption to them and their ſucceſſors for euer, cléerelie diſcharged of all rents going out of the ſame, as well againſt the lord or lords, of whom ſuch ground or grounds be holden, as all other, ſo that alwaies the ſame maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs or commonaltie, or their ſucceſſors for the time being, doo well and ſufficientlie reedifie and build the ſame ground or grounds, wherein they maie ſo enter by this act, within thrée yéeres next and immediatlie following the determination of the former thrée yéeres, in the which the aforeſaid lords of whom ſuch ground or grounds were holden, ſhould or ought to haue entred, reedified and builded the ſame. And in caſe the ſaid maiors, ſhirifs bailifs and commonaltie, or their ſucceſſors for the time being, doo not enter and ſufficientlie reedifie and build the ſame void or decaied houſes or grounds, in forme aforeſaid, within the ſaid terme of thrée yéeres, according to this act, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the firſt owner and owners of ſuch decaied and void grounds, their heires or ſucceſſors, immediatlie after the ſame thrée yéeres expired, into the ſame ground and grounds to reenter, and them to reteine to them, their heires or ſucceſſors, as in their firſt eſtate: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for counterfeiting of the ſigne manuell, ſignet or priuie ſeale of our ſoueraigne lord the king, to be from henſefoorth taken & adiudged high treaſon

Chap.2.

FOraſmuch as by the lawes of this realme ſmall puniſhment hath béene hitherto prouided for forging and counterfeiting of the kings ſigne manuell or priuie ſignet, by reaſon whereof diuerſe light and euill diſpoſed perſons, now of late haue taken the more boldneſſe & courage to commit ſuch offenſes, to the great audacitie and boldneſſe of ſuch like offenders. For remedie whereof, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons at anie time heereafter falſlie forge and counterfeit the kings ſigne manuell, priuie ſignet, or priuie ſeale, that then euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be deemed and adiudged high treaſon, and the offenders therein, their Treaſon counſellors, procurors, aidors and abettors, being conuict of anie ſuch offenſe according to the laws of this realme, ſhall be deemed and adiudged traitors againſt the king and the realme, and ſhall ſuffer and haue ſuch paines of death, forfeiture of lands, goods and chattell, and alſo loſe the priuilege of all ſanctuaries, as in caſes of high treaſon it is ordeined. An act taking awaie exactions taken by the maior and commonaltie of the towne of Hull.

Where vpon complaint made in this preſent parlement by the kings poore ſubiects, and Chap.3.
namelie the poore fiſhermen, inhabiting vpon the coaſts of the ſea, within the counties of Norfolke and Suffolke, which vſe commonlie to conduct & conueie their herring, ſprots, and other fiſh to the towne of Kingſton vpon Hull, there to be vttered and ſold to other the kings ſubiects, willing to buie the ſame: it dooth euidentlie and plainlie appeere, that ſuch great and intollerable exactions, cuſtoms, and tols be demanded, leuied, and taken of them for their ſaid herring and other fiſhes, by the rulers and officers of the ſaid towne, that vnles ſome ſpeedie remedie be for them prouided in that behalfe, a great number of them ſhall be driuen of neceſſitie to abſent themſelues from their ſaid market of old time continued and holden at the ſaid towne, where moſt commonlie afore time a great number of the kings ſubiects, and namelie of the north parties of this realme, haue vſed to prouide themſelues of their herring and fiſh: which finallie ſhall be not onelie the vtter impoueriſhing and vndooing of the ſaid poore fiſhermen inhabiting within the ſaid counties of Norfolke and Suffolke, but alſo a great incumberance to all ſuch the kings ſubiects of the ſaid north parties, as afore time commonlie haue vſed to prouide their herring and fiſh at the ſaid towne, for the maintenance of their houſhold. For the ſpeedie reformation whereof, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the maior of the ſaid towne of Kingſtone vpon Maior Hull, and his ſucceſſors, and all other officers and miniſters of & within the ſame towne, ſhall from henſefoorth permit and ſuffer all the inhabitants of the ſaid counties of Norfolke and Suffolke, or from anie other places thither repairing with vittell at all times for euermore, betweene the feaſt of All ſaints and the Annuntiation of our ladie, liberallie and freelie without interruption or impediment, to conduct and bring their ſaid herrings and other fiſh to the ſaid towne, and there to vtter and ſell the ſame, as well by water as by land, by retaile or in groſſe, to whom ſoeuer and when ſoeuer within the ſame time before expreſſed, they or anie of them ſhall thinke moſt expedient for their owne profit and commoditie, without anie manner of toll, cuſtome, impoſition, or other exaction Exaction or charge to be demanded, leuied, or taken of the ſeller or buier of the ſame by the ſaid maior, or anie other officer or miniſter, of or within the ſaid towne or port of the ſame, for the ſaid herring or other fiſh, or for the ſhips or other veſſels, wherein the ſame herring or fiſh ſhall ſo be brought or conducted, except onelie ſuch ſums of monie as heereafter inſueth, that is to ſaie, of euerie ſhip thither reparing with herrings or other fiſh, as is aforeſaid, being of the burden of twentie tun, or vnder and not aboue, fiue ſhillings: and of euerie ſhip thither repairing with herrings or other Cuſtome fiſh, being aboue the full burden of twentie tun, ſix ſhillings eight penſe, and not aboue. And that Officers the ſaid maior, and all other officers and miniſters, of, or within the ſaid towne and liberties of the ſame for the time being, ſhall from henſefoorth well and fauorablie order and intreat the ſaid inhabitants of Suffolke and Norfolke, and all other as is aforeſaid, repairing to the ſaid towne with herring, fiſh, or other vittels, as is before expreſſed, without anie extreame or vnlawfull ſearching, viewing, or ſetting of vnreaſonable priſes of the ſaid herring, fiſh, or other vittels: and without Priſes fruſtrat or wilfull delaie, or tracting of time in the ſaid viewing, ſearching, or ſetting of the ſame priſes, or anie other maner of fatigation or wrongfull vexation, but ſhall order, vſe, and intreat the ſame inhabitants, diſcreetlie and charitablie in euerie behalfe as they ought to be. And in caſe the ſaid maior for the time being, or anie other officer or miniſter, of, or within the ſaid towne or libertie of the ſame, doo heereafter for anie cauſe before expreſſed, exact, leuie, or take of anie of the ſaid inhabitants, or anie other the kings ſubiects, anie more or greater ſums than is before mentioned, or doo in anie maner of wiſe offend heereafter in anie other article or point, conteined in this preſent act, contrarie to the true meaning, tenor, and effect of the ſame, that then vpon complaint thereof made by the partie greeued in that behalfe, vnto the lord chancellor of England, lord treaſuror, lord preſident, and other the lords of the kings moſt honorable counſell, for the time being, it ſhall or maie appeere to them, or to three of them at the leaſt, whereof the ſaid lord chancellor to be one, that the ſaid maior, other officer or miniſter, of, or within the ſaid towne or liberties of the Lord chancellor ſame, hath ſo offended in anie article or point before expreſſed, contrarie to the forme and effect of this preſent act, and ſo adiudged and decreed by the ſaid lords, or by three of them at the leaſt, whereof the ſaid lord chancellor to be one, that then the ſaid maior, officer, or other miniſter ſo offending, ſhall loſe & forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe twentie pounds, whereof the one halfe to be to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and his heires, and the other halfe to the ſaid partie greeued, that ſhall or will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint or information in anie of the kings courts, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed: and the ſame ſute to be taken, commenſed and tried within anie ſhire of this realme,at the pleaſure of him that ſhall purſue the ſame, anie forren plée or other matter to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Retaile

¶ Prouided that no maner of perſon or perſons,other than ſuch as béene frée burgeſes of the ſaid towne of Hull,ſhall at anie time hereafter,by authoritie of this act,ſell within the ſame towne anie fiſh,herring,in ſmall and little numbers and péeces by retaile,but maie,and ſhall ſell ſaltfiſh, haberden or ſtockfiſh by the hundred,halfe hundred,quarterne or halfe quarterne of anie of them,& white herring by the barrell,halfebarrell,or by the firken at leaſt,and red herring and ſprots by the cade,this act or anie thing therein expreſſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act declaring the order and puniſhment of pirats,and robbers on the ſea.

Chap.4.

Ciuill lawes

Where pirats,théeues,robbers and murtherers vpon the ſea, manie times ſcape vnpuniſhed,becauſe the triall of their offenſes hath hitherto béene ordered before the admerall or his lieutenant or commiſſarie after the courſe of the ciuill lawes, the nature whereof is, that before anie iudgement of death can be giuen againſt the offenders,either they muſt plainelie confeſſe their offenſe; which they will neuer doo without torture, or paines, or els their offenſes be ſo plaine,and directlie prooued by witneſſe indifferent, ſuch as ſaw their offenſes committed, which can not be gotten but by chance at few times, becauſe ſuch offenders commit their offenſes vpon the ſea,and at manie times murder and kill ſuch perſons being in the ſhip or bote, where they commit their offenſes,which ſhould beare witneſſe againſt them in that behalfe: and alſo ſuch as ſhould beare witneſſe be commonlie mariners and ſhipmen,which for the moſt part cannot be gotten ne had alwaies readie to teſtifie ſuch offenſes, becauſe of their often viages and paſſages in the ſeas without long tarieng and protraction of time, & great coſts and charges,as well of the kings highnes as of ſuch as would purſue ſuch offenders . For reformation whereof be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement,that all ſuch offenſes doone in or vpon the ſea,or in anie other hauen,riuer or créeke,where the admerall or admerals pretend to haue iuriſdiction,ſhall be inquired, tried, heard,& determined, in ſuch ſhires & places in the realme, as ſhall be limited by the kings commiſſion to be directed for the ſame , in like forme & condition as if ſuch offenſes had béene doone vpon the land . And that ſuch commiſſions ſhall be had vnder the kings great ſeale, directed to the lord admerall or admerals, or to his or their lieutenant, deputie or deputies, and to thrée or foure ſuch other ſubſtantiall perſons as ſhall be named by the lord chancellor for the time being,as often as néed ſhall require, to heare & determine ſuch offenſes after the common courſe of the lawes of the land,vſed for felonies doone and committed within the realme.

Cõmiſſion

THe kings highnes conſidering the manifold robberies, murders, thefts, treſpaſſes, riots, routs, inbraceries, maintenances, oppreſſions, ruptures of his peace, and manie other malfaits, which beene dailie practiſed, perpetrated, committed and doone, within his counties and countie palantine of Cheſter and Flint ſhire in Wales, adioining to the ſaid countie of Cheſter, and alſo in his counties of Angliſe, otherwiſe called Angleſie, Caierneruan, & Mereonneth within the principalitie of northwales: and alſo in his counties of Cardigan, Caermerthin, Pembroke, and Glamorgan in ſouthwales, by reaſon that common iuſtice hath not beene indifferentlie miniſtred there, like & in ſuch forme as it is in other places of this his realme: by reaſon whereof the ſaid murders, robberies, thefts, treſpaſſes, and breaking of the peace haue remained vnpuniſhed, to the great animation of euill doers in the ſame counties. For redreſſe and amputation whereof, and to the intent that one order of miniſtring of his lawes ſhould be had obſerued and vſed in the ſame, as in other places of this realme of England is had and vſed: it is ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the lord chancellor of England, or the lord keeper of the great ſeale for the time being, from time to time and all times ſhall haue full power and authoritie by his diſcretion, to nominat and appoint iuſtices of peace, and iuſtices of the Quorum, & iuſtices of gaole deliuerie in the ſaid counties of Cheſter, Flint, Angleſie, Caiernaruan, Mereonneth, Cardigan, Caermarthin, Pembroke, and Glamorgan, by commiſſion vnder the kings great ſeale, which ſhall haue full power and authoritie to inquire, heare, and determine all maner thing and things inquireable, preſentable, or determinable, before iuſtices of peace, iuſtices of Quorum, and iuſtices of gaole deliuerie in other ſhires of this realme of England, by force or vertue of anie ſtatute or ſtatutes made and to be made, or by the courſe of the common laws of this realme. And that the ſaid iuſtices of peace, iuſtices of Quorum, and iuſtices of the gaole deliuerie, ſo to be named and appointed by the ſaid lord chancellor, or lord keeper of the great ſeale, and euerie of them, ſhall haue like power and authoritie within the ſaid counties of Cheſter, Flint, Angleſie, Caiernaruan, Mereonneth, Cardigan, Caermerthen, Pembroke, and Glamorgan, to doo, vſe, and execute euerie thing and things, as other iuſtices of peace, Quorum, & gaole deliuerie, haue within anie other of the ſhires of this realme of England: and alſo ſhall be ſworne, aſtricted and obliged to the keeping of their ſeſſions of the peace, and to the due execution of all and ſingular ſtatutes, and ordinances made and to be made in like maner and forme, and vnder like paines and penalties, as iuſtices of peace, Quorum, and gaole deliuerie, in other ſhires of this realme of England, beene and ſhall be bounden and obliged, anie act, ſtatute, preſcription, vſage, cuſtome, libertie, or priuilege, had, made, accuſtomed or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſhiriſe or his deputie, and all other his miniſters, in all and euerie of the ſaid ſhires, and all coroners, high conſtables, petie conſtables, and other officers within euerie of the ſaid ſhires, ſhall be obliged and bounden to be as well attendant vnto the ſaid iuſtices of peace, Quorum, and gaole deliuerie, in all and euerie thing & things concerning their authorities, as in executing and returning of all precepts and proceſſes to them directed by anie of the ſaid iuſticiers, in like maner and forme, & vnder like paines and penalties as all and euerie ſhirifs, coroners, and other officers be, and ſhall be bounden & obliged by anie ſtatute or common law in other ſhires of this realme of England, anie act, ſtatute, preſcription, vſage, cuſtome, libertie or priuilege, had, accuſtomed or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the increaſe and breed of horſſes.

Chap.6.

THe king our ſoueraigne lord continuallie ſtudieng for the aduancement, augmentation, and increaſe of the publike weale of this his realme, calling to his moſt gratious memorie the great decaie of the generation and breeding of good and ſwift, and ſtrong horſſes, which heretofore haue beene bred in this realme, to the great defenſe, profit and common commoditie of the ſame: and now remembring, that like breed of horſſes is ſore diminiſhed and decaied, the occaſion whereof is thought to proceed, for that in manie and moſt places of this realme, commonlie little horſſes and nags of ſmall ſtature and value, be ſuffered to depaſture and alſo to couer mares and felis of verie ſmall ſtature, by reaſon whereof the breed of good and ſtrong horſſes of this realme is now latelie diminiſhed, altered and decaied, and further is like to decaie, if ſpeedie remedie be not the ſooner prouided in that behalfe. The kings highnes willing therefore to prouide remedie in that behalfe, by the aduiſe of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, hath ordeined, enacted and eſtabliſhed, that euerie perſon and perſons, as well ſpirituall as temporall, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſo euer he or they be, which at this preſent time, or at anie time heereafter ſhall haue anie parke, or ground incloſed with hedge, dich, wall, or pale, wherein anie deere is, or heereafter ſhall be vſuallie kept for game, conteining the quantitie of one mile in compaſſe, and is or ſhall be ſeized thereof in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life, in poſſeſſion to his or their owne profit & behoofe, that euerie ſuch owner of euerie ſuch parke and ground, being in his owne hand: and euerie farmar of euerie ſuch parke or ground, being letten to farme, from the firſt daie of Maie, that ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1537, ſhall keepe for euerie ſuch parke or ground, being incloſed, as is aforeſaid, as long as the ſame parke or ground incloſed, ſhall be vſed and kept with deere in the ſame for games, two mares being not ſplaied, apt and able to beare foles, each of them of the altitude or height of thirteene handfuls at the leaſt, to be meaſured from the loweſt part of the hoofe of the foot vnto the higheſt part of the ſhoulder, and euerie handfull to conteine foure inches of the ſtandard, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie ſhillings, for euerie moneth lacking the ſaid mares contrarie to this act. And that euerie ſuch owner or farmar of parke or ground, wherof the compas is foure miles & aboue, vpon paine afore expreſſed, ſhall keepe for euerie ſuch parke foure mares, being not ſplaied, apt and able to beare foles, of the altitude or height of thirteene handfuls at the leaſt, to be meaſured as is aforeſaid.

Forfeit

¶ Prouided, that if it ſhall happen anie of the ſaid mares by miſchance or caſualtie for to die, that then the lord, owner or owners of the ſaid mares, prouiding or buieng others of like height and altitude, as is before limited within three moneths next after the death of the ſame mares, ſhall not incur the danger and penaltie of this eſtatute, anie thing before rehearſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Parks

Forfeit

¶ And it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the lord, owners and farmars of all parks and grounds incloſed, as is aboue rehearſed, limited and appointed by this act to keepe mares, ſhall not at anie time after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1537, willinglie ſuffer anie of the ſaid mares to be conored and meaſured in forme afore rehearſed, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie ſhillings. The one moitie of all ſuch forfeitures ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord: and the other moitie thereof to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie court of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by action, bill, plaint, or information or otherwiſe, in which action or ſute the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor anie eſſoine or protection ſhall be vnto the defendant allowed in that behalfe.

Parks excepted

¶ Prouided alwaie, that this act extend not to charge the lord, owner or owners of anie parke or ground, incloſed within the counties of Weſtmerland, Cumberland, Northumberland, and the biſhoprike of Durham, nor anie of them to keepe anie mares, for anie parke or parks, ground or grounds incloſed, as is aforeſaid, lieng in the ſaid counties of Weſtmerland, Cumberland, Northumberland, and the biſhoprike of Durham, otherwiſe than they haue or might haue done before the making of this act: nor alſo ſhall extend to charge the lords, owner or owners of anie parke or parks, or grounds incloſed, with the finding of anie mares, tharbage of which parke, or parks, is common to the tenants, and inhabitants of the towneſhips next adioining to the ſame parke or parks, anie thing in this preſent act made to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alſo that euerie ſpirituall perſon and perſons, charged and chargeable by this act with the finding of mares, maie lawfullie bargaine & ſell the increaſe & breed of their ſaid mares, anie act or acts héretofore made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act againſt vnlawfull exactions and vſages taken and vſed in the forreſts of Wales.

Chap.7.

WHere diuers and manie forreſts be in Wales and the marches of the ſame, as well of the inheritance and poſſeſſions of our ſoureigne lord the king, as of diuers others being lords marchers: within which forreſts certeine vnreaſonable cuſtoms and exactions haue béene of long time vnlawfullie exacted and vſed, contrarie both to the law of God and man, to the expreſſe wrong and great impoueriſhing of diuers of the kings true ſubiects: the effect of which ſaid vnlawfull exactions and cuſtoms be héereafter declared, that is to wit, it hath béene there vnlawfullie vſed, that if it fortuned anie of the kings ſubiects, to paſſe, go, or ride through or in anie waie or path of anie of the ſaid forreſts, not hauing vpon him or them, that ſo ſhall fortune to paſſe, go, or ride, a token deliuered to him or them by the chéefe forreſters, rulers, walkers, or farmars, the which token ſhall be well knowen amongſt all them that are walkers and rulers vnder him or them. Or that he or they that ſo ſhall fortune to paſſe, go, or ride in, or throughout anie of the ſaid forreſts be not yéerelie tributors or cenſors, then he or they ſo going, riding or trauelling in or throughout anie of the ſaid forreſts, hauing no token, nor being yéerelie tributors or cenſors, as is aforeſaid, haue vſed to paie by vnlawfull exactions vnto the ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers, and farmars of the ſaid forreſts, a gréeuous fine or reward. And if anie perſon or perſons, not hauing ſuch token or tokens, & not being a yéerelie tributor, or a cenſor as is aforeſaid, ſhould happen to be taken, found, or eſpied by anie of the ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers, or farmars or their aſſignes, by the ſpace of foure and twentie foot out of the high waie, then he or they ſo being taken, found or eſpied out of the high waie, within anie of the ſaid forreſts, as is aforeſaid, to forfeit and loſe vnto the ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers, & farmars, all ſuch monie and gold, as ſhould be then found vpon him or them, ſo being taken in anie of the ſaid forreſts, out of the high waie, as is aforeſaid. And alſo the ſame perſon or perſons ſo being taken or found out of the high waie, to forfeit and loſe a ioint of one of his or their hands, or els to make fine therefore with the ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers, and farmars, at the will and pleaſure of the ſaid rulers, walkers or farmars. And if alſo that it happen anie beaſt or quicke cattell to come, go, or eſcape into anie of the ſaid forreſts by ſtraie, or théefe ſtolen, or otherwiſe, the ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers or farmars, after knowledge to him or them giuen, haue likewiſe vnlawfullie vſed, to ſeize and take the ſame beaſt or cattell, as his or their owne, & marke them with the marke of their forreſt, there vſed and ſo ſeized, marked, taken, and then reteined, as cattell forfeited vnto their owne vſe, by reaſon whereof the owners of the ſame cattell haue béene cléere without remedie for the hauing againe of the ſaid cattell, except onelie by waie of redemption, or buieng againe of their owne cattell, contrarie to all equitie and conſcience. In conſideration wherof it maie pleaſe the kings highnes, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons at this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, to enact, ordeine and eſtabliſh, that from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, all the ſaid vnlawfull cuſtoms to be determined, void, and had for nought throughout all and euerie of the ſaid forreſts within Wales and the marches of the ſame: and that it ſhall be lawfull from thenſeforth to all and euerie of the kings true ſubiects, and all other perſon or perſons being in a league and amitie with our ſoureigne lord the king, his heires and ſucceſſors kings of England, fréelie, quietlie, and in peace to paſſe & repaſſe, trauell, and go into and throughout the ſaid forreſts and euerie of them, both on horſebacke and on foot, as well following and driuing of cattell, as with carrieng of wares, or otherwiſe about their lawfull buſineſſe and affaires, without anie fine, forfeiture, toll, cuſtome, exaction, or other impoſition, to be taken exacted, or demanded of them or anie of them, by the ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers, farmars, or their aſſignes. And if it ſhall chance or happen anie of ẏ ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers, farmars, or their aſſignes, or anie of them, at anie time after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt, to take anie perſon or perſons, being the kings true ſubiects, or otherwiſe in leage and amitie with our ſaid ſoureigne lord his heires or ſucceſſors kings of England, as is aforeſaid, and exact and take of them or anie of them, anie of the ſaid forfeitures, fines, tols, cuſtoms, and exactions, as is aboue mentioned, and be thereof lawfullie conuicted, that then he or they ſo dooing, and offending contrarie to this act, to incur and ſtand in the dangers of the eſtatute heretofore prouided for robberies by the kings high waie, and the ſame to be tried before the iuſtices of the peace in the next ſhire adioinant, according to the lawes of this realme of England.

fullie proue the ſame to be his or their owne proper cattell, that then the ſame cattell to be redeliuered to the owner or owners thereof, according to the ancient law of this realme of England, the ſaid owner or owners reaſonablie paieng for the keeping of ſuch cattell, after the rate of the time that ſuch cattell ſhall haue beene in the cuſtodie and keeping of anie ſuch forreſters, rulers, walkers, and farmars, or his or their aſſignes, in ſuch maner and forme, as heeretofore hath beene in like caſe vſed to be doone by the law of this realme of eſtraied cattell, claimed and proued by the owners, within a yeere and a daie next after the ſeizing of the ſame cattell. And if anie of the ſaid forreſters, rulers, walkers, farmars, their aſſignes or anie of them, doo denie the redeliuerance of all ſuch cattell, by them or anie of them ſo ſeized or marked within anie of the ſaid forreſts, after the owner or owners of them ſhall haue dulie and lawfullie proued them to be his or their owne proper goods and chattels, as is aforeſaid, that then euerie ſuch forreſter, ruler, walker, farmar, or aſſignes ſo dooing and offending contrarie to this act, to forfeit and paie vnto the partie greeued the double value of all ſuch cattell, as ſhall be ſo taken & marked, & not redeliuered to the owner or owners, as is aforſaid. And that the partie greeued maie haue his action of detinue at the common law of and for the ſame cattell, againſt euerie ſuch offendor or offendors, and the ſame to be tried in the next ſhire adioinant: in which action the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor eſſoine nor protection ſhall be allowed for them: and like proces of vtlagarie to be had and made in the ſaid action of detinue in the next ſhire adioinant, againſt euerie forreſter, ruler, walker, farmar, or their aſſignes, ſo offending contrarie to the tenor of this act, as in action of treſpaſſe at the common law of this realme is vſed.

An act that the kings ſpirituall ſubiects ſhall paie no tenths of their ſpirituall promotions for that firſt yeere, for which they paie their firſt fruits.

Chap. 8.

Where by a late act made in this parlement for and concerning the grant made to the kings highneſſe of the tenth of the yeerelie value of all ſpirituall poſſeſſions of this realme, and of the firſt fruits thereof, there appeereth by the words of the ſaid act, that prelats & all other incumbents be charged to the paiment of the tenth that ſhall be due to the kings highneſſe, in and for the firſt yeere that they ſhall be elected, prefected, preſented, collated, or admitted to anie dignities, benefices, or other promotions ſpirituall, and for the ſame firſt yeere ſhall alſo paie the whole firſt fruits of their ſaid dignities, benefices, and promotions, which is a double charge. For reformation whereof, the kings highneſſe for the entire and hartie loue that his grace beareth to the prelats and other incumbents, chargeable to the paiment of the ſaid tenth and firſt fruits, of his excellent goodneſſe is pleaſed and contented, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that when ſo euer anie perſon or perſons, from the firſt daie of Maie, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God a thouſand fiue hundred thirtie and ſix, ſhall be named, prefected, preſented, collated, or by anie other meanes appointed to haue anie archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbaſie, monaſterie, priorie, college, hoſpitall, archdeaconrie, deanrie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chantrie, freechapell, or other dignitie, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall, by vertue whereof they ſhall be charged or chargeable, as well for the paiment of the tenth of euerie of the ſaid archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbaſie, monaſterie, priorie, college, hoſpitall, archdeaconrie, deanrie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chantrie, freechapell, or other dignitie, benefice, or promotion ſpirituall, as with the paiment of the firſt fruits of the ſame and euerie of the ſame, ſhall at his or their compoſition, agreement, or entree into ſpecialtie or ſpecialties, for the paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits haue allowance and deduction of the ſaid tenth part of the whole, out of the ſumme to be paied for the ſaid firſt fruits for the yeere, wherein he or they ſhall be firſt nominated, prefected, preſented, collated, or by anie other means appointed, to haue anie of the ſaid dignities, benefices, offices, or other promotions ſpirituall, according to the iuſt rate, taxation, and ſeaſſement of the tenth of euerie of the ſaid archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbaſie, monaſterie, priorie, college, hoſpitall, archdeaconrie, deanerie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chantrie, freechapell, or other dignitie, benefice, office, or promotion ſpirituall within this realme, or els where within anie of the kings dominions, of what name, nature or qualitie ſo euer they be, or to whoſe foundation, patronage or gift ſo euer they belong, now being inrolled, or that heereafter ſhall be inrolled in the kings excheker, or in anie other the kings courts of record.

¶ And be it further enacted, that euerie commiſſioner or commiſſioners, or other the kings officers or miniſters, or anie other perſon or perſons, which either by authoritie of anie act of parlement, or by commiſſion or commiſſions, vnder the kings great ſeale, or otherwiſe by his graces commandement, or by the commandement of ſuch as by his highneſſe ſhall be authorized for that purpoſe, be appointed, aſſigned, or deputed, or that heereafter ſhall be appointed, authorized, aſſigned, or deputed, to compound, agree, and receiue bonds and ſpecialties to his maieſties vſe, for paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits of euerie of the ſaid dignities, benefices, offices, or other promotions ſpirituall, ſhall and maie by force of this act, from the ſaid firſt daie of Maie for euer forward, haue authoritie to deduct and allow vnto euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, as from the foreſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhall be nominated, prefected, preſented, collated, or by anie other meanes appointed, to haue anie of the ſaid archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike,

abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, college, hoſpitall, archdeaconrie, deanrie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chantrie, free chapell or other dignitie, benefice, office, or promotion ſpirituall, the tenth part of the whole, as is aforeſaid, out of the ſame firſt fruits for the yeere, wherein he or they ſhall be firſt nominated, prefected, preſented, collated, or by anie other means appointed vnto euerie of the ſame, as is aforeſaid, without anie further ſute to be made to the kings highnes, and without impoſition or exaction or other charge to be in anie wiſe demanded, or exacted of the perſon or perſons ſo preferred, for the allowance vnto them of the ſaid tenth, for the ſaid firſt yeere in forme aboue expreſſed: anie thing or things in the ſaid act of the grant of the ſaid tenth and firſt fruits to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, that vpon his or their compoſition and agreement for the firſt fruits, ſhall be defaulked and allowed the tenth part of the whole ſum of his or their dignities, benefices, offices, or promotions ſpirituall, for the yeere wherein he or they ſhall be firſt nominated, prefected, preſented, collated, or by anie other meanes appointed vnto anie of the ſame, as is abouesaid, ſhall yeeld and paie the ſaid tenth part, vnto the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, the ſaid firſt yeere in like maner and forme, and at ſuch daie as is limited in the ſaid act of the grant of the ſaid tenth, and firſt fruits, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Appraiſement

¶ Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in ſuch caſes, where the ſucceſſor of anie incumbent ſhall be chargeable to the paiment of the ſums of monie, as ſhall be due of and for the ſaid tenth, that ſhall happen to be behind vnpaid in the time or life of his predeceſſor, there euerie ſuch ſucceſſor maie lawfullie diſtreine ſuch goods and chattels of his predeceſſor, as ſhall happen to be and remaine in and vpon the dignitie, benefice or promotion ſpirituall, of the which the ſame tenth was behind and vnpaid in the life or time of his predeceſſor, and to reteine the ſaid goods and chattels till ſuch time as the ſaid predeceſſor, if he be aliue, and if he be dead, then his executors or adminiſtrators, or ſuch other to whom his goods and chattels ſhould apperteine, haue fullie ſatiſfied, and paid ſuch ſummes of monie, as ſhall happen to be behind and vnpaid of the ſaid tenth. And in caſe the ſaid predeceſſor, his executors, adminiſtrators, or ſuch other to whom his goods or chattels ſhould apperteine, within twelue daies next after the diſtreſſe thereof, doo not ſatiſfie the ſaid ſummes of monie, being behind of the ſaid tenth, as is aforeſaid: that then for ſuch default of paiment it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch ſucceſſor, to cauſe the ſaid goods and chattels ſo diſtreined, to be praiſed by two or three indifferent perſons to be ſworne for the ſame: and according to the ſame appraiſing to ſell ſo much therof, as ſhall amount as well to the full ſatiſfaction of the ſaid ſummes of monie, being behind and vnpaid of the ſaid tenth, in the life or time of his predeceſſor, as for the reaſonable coſts, that ſhall be ſpent by occaſion of diſtreining and appraiſing of the ſame goods and chattels. And in caſe no ſufficient goods and chattels maie be found in or vpon ſuch dignities, benefices, or promotions ſpirituall, for the ſatiſfaction of the ſaid tenth, being behind vnpaid, as is aforeſaid, that then the predeceſſor, by whome ſuch tenth was due to be paid, if he be aliue, and if he be dead, then his executors, adminiſtrators and other, to whom his goods and chattels, ſhall apperteine or belong, ſhall be compelled to the paiment of the ſaid tenth being behind and vnpaid, as is aforeſaid, by bill to be purſued in the kings chancerie by the ſucceſſor that ſhall be chargeable for the ſame, or els by action or plaint of debt to be taken or commenſed by ſuch ſucceſſor by order of the common lawes.

Chap. 9.

An act whereby all butchers be licenced to ſell fleſh by retaile vnto the foure and twentith daie of Aprill, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1540.

Weight

WHere in this preſent parlement begun at London, the third daie of Nouember, in the one and twentith yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there by diuers prorogations hither continued, in one ſeſſion there holden the foure and twentith yeere of our ſaid ſouereigne lords reigne, amongſt diuers beneficiall eſtatutes there made, it was enacted, that euerie perſon which did ſell after the firſt daie of Auguſt, in the ſaid three and twentith yeere, anie beefe, porke, mutton or veale, or anie part or parcell thereof, ſhould ſell the ſame by lawfull weight called haber depois, and none other wiſe, after the priſe in the ſame act conteined & eſpecified, as in the ſame act more plainlie is conteined. And where afterwards for ſo much as ſufficient authoritie was not giuen by the ſaid act to the iuſtices of the peace, maiors, bailifs, ſhirifs, and other officers, rehearſed in the ſaid former act to puniſh the offendors, and ſuch other as would not ſell by weight according to the force of the ſaid act: at an other ſeſſion holden in the fiue and twentith yeere of our ſaid ſoureigne lords reigne, it was then by an other eſtatute enacted, that from the twentith daie of Februarie in the yeere of our Lord God 1534, it ſhould be lawfull to all & euerie maiors, ſhirifs, conſtables, bailifs, and other gouernors of cities, boroughs, & market townes, as well within liberties as without, to whom anie complaint ſhould be made vpon any butcher, his wife, ſeruants, or other his miniſters, refuſing to ſell the ſaid vittels by true & lawfull weight according to the tenors of the ſaid former act, not onelie to commit euerie ſuch butcher or other ſuch offendor to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, vnto ſuch time as they & euerie of them ſhall haue paid all the forfeitures & penalties, compriſed in the ſaid former act; but alſo euerie of the ſaid maiors & other head officers, and their deputies ſhould ſell or cauſe to be ſold all ſuch vittels, by true weight & for readie monie, as in the ſaid act made in the ſaid fiue & twentith yéere more at large is expreſſed. The kings highnes well conſidering the great dearth of all maner of vittels, which be now and ſince the making of the ſaid eſtatutes hath fallen and hapned within this his realme, as well by morreine and death of ſuch cattell, as by great waters and vnſeaſonable weathers, wherby the breed and increaſe of the ſame is much impaired and miniſhed: in ſuch wiſe that if the ſaid former eſtatutes were put in execution, the butchers & ſellers of ſuch vittels were not able to liue, nor that his commons ſhould be well ſerued thereof: the ſcarcitie of the ſame conſidered, by his accuſtomed goodnes the premiſſes conſidering, is contented by the aſſent of his maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall & of his commons in this his preſent parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that it be ordeined eſtabliſhed & enacted, that from the twelfe daie of Aprill in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, vnto the foure and twentith daie of Aprill, the which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1540, all butchers and other ſelling fleſh by retaile, maie lawfullie kill and ſell all maner béefe, porke, mutton & veale, being good and wholeſome for mans bodie, at their pleaſures and liberties, as fréelie & liberallie as they or anie of them did or ought to haue doone at anie time before the making of the ſaid eſtatutes, made in the foure and twentith and fiue and twentith yéere of our ſaid ſouereigne lords reigne without anie loſſe, paine, impriſonment, forfeiture, or penaltie, to be by them or anie of them, or the ſucceſſors of them or anie of them, had, loſt, borne or ſuſteined in that behalfe, during the time limited. The ſame eſtatutes made in the ſaid foure and twentith and fiue and twentith yéere, or either of them, or anie clauſe, ſentence, forfeiture, paine, loſſe, or anie other thing in them or anie of them to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding: and that the ſame eſtatutes and either of them, and euerie clauſe, ſentence and article in them and either of them conteined, ſhall be in ſuſpenſe and not put in execution during the ſaid time.

Calues

¶ And where alſo by an other eſtatute, made in the ſaid 25 yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, it was enacted, that no ſucking calues which ſhould happen to fall or be calued betwéen the firſt daie of Ianuarie then next inſuing, and the firſt daie of Maie, during two whole yéeres next after following, ſhould be killed, and put to ſale by anie butchers or other perſon, whole or by retaile, to anie perſon or perſons during the ſaid two yéeres vpon the paines conteined in the ſaid eſtatute, as by the ſame eſtatute more plainelie appéereth: the king our ſouereigne lord of his excellent goodnes, to the intent that his louing ſubiects ſhould be the better prouided of the more plentie of vittels againſt this holie time of Eaſter next comming, is alſo contented that it be enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all butchers and other ſelling fleſh by retaile, maie lawfullie from the ſaid twelfe daie of Aprill, in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, during two whole yéeres then next inſuing, kill, and ſell calues whole or by retaile at their pleaſures and liberties, without anie loſſe, paine, damage, penaltie, or forfeiture by them or anie of them to be had, ſuſteined or loſt in that behalfe. The ſaid eſtatute made for killing of calues to indure for two yéeres, or anie thing in the ſame conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ And be it further enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that the ſaid act made for the killing of calues ſhall begin to take effect the firſt daie of Ianuarie, the which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1539, and from thenſefoorth to indure and continue two whole yéeres then next and immediatlie inſuing, anie thing conteined in this preſent act, to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act expreſſing an order for vſes and wils.

¶ And alſo ſauing to all and ſingular thoſe perſons, and to their heires, which be or heereafter ſhall be ſeized,to anie vſe,all ſuch former right,title,entree, intereſt,poſſeſſion, rents,cuſtoms,ſeruices,and action, as they or anie of them might haue had to his or their owne proper vſe, in or to anie manors,lands,tenements,rents,or hereditaments, whereof they be or heereafter ſhall be ſeized to anie other vſe,as if this preſent act had neuer beene had or made: anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Diſtreſſe.

¶ And where alſo diuerſe perſons ſtand and be ſeized of & in anie lands,tenements,or hereditaments,in fee ſimple,or otherwiſe,to the vſe or intent that ſome other perſon or perſons, ſhall haue and perceiue yeerelie to them,and to his or their heires, one annuall rent, of ten pounds, or more, or leſſe,out of the ſame lands and tenements,and ſome other perſon,one other annuall rent to him and his aſſignes, for terme of life,or yeeres,or for ſome other ſpeciall time,according to ſuch intent and vſe,as hath bin heeretofore declared,limited,and made thereof. Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that in euerie ſuch caſe,the ſame perſons, their heires, and aſſignes, that haue ſuch vſe and intereſt,to haue and perceiue anie ſuch annuall rents,out of anie lands,tenements,or hereditaments,that they and euerie of them,their heires, and aſſignes, be adiudged and deemed to be in poſſeſſion and ſeizon of the ſame rent,of and in ſuch like eſtate, as they had in the title, intereſt,or vſe of the ſaid rent or profit,and as if a ſufficient grant,or other lawfull conueiance, had be made and executed to them,by ſuch as were or ſhall be ſeized to the vſe or intent of anie ſuch rent, to be had,made,or paied,according to the verie truſt and intent therof. And that all and euerie ſuch perſon or perſons,as haue,or heerafter ſhall haue,any title,vſe, and intereſt,in or to anie ſuch rent or profit,ſhall lawfullie diſtreine for non paiment of the ſaid rent,and in their owne names make aduouries or by their bailifs or ſeruants, make cognizances and iuſtifications, and haue all other ſutes,entries,and remedies for ſuch rents,as if the ſame rents had bin actuallie and reallie granted to them,with ſufficient clauſes of diſtreſſe,reentree,or otherwiſe,according to ſuch conditions, paines, or other things, limited and appointed vpon the truſt and intent, for paiment of ſuretie of ſuch rent.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that where as diuerſe perſons haue purchaſed or haue eſtate,made and conueied, of and in diuerſe lands,tenements, and hereditaments, Iointer.

vnto them and to their wiues, and to the heires of the huſband, or to the huſband and to the wife, and to the heires of their two bodies begotten, or to the heires of one of their bodies begotten, or to the huſband and to the wife for terme of their liues, or for terme of life of the ſaid wife: or where anie ſuch eſtate or purchaſe of anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, hath bin or héereafter ſhall be made to anie huſband and to his wife, in maner and forme aboue expreſſed, or to anie other perſon or perſons, and to their heires and aſſignes, to the vſe and behoofe of the ſaid huſband and wife, or to the vſe of the wife, as is before rehearſed, for the iointer of the wife: that then in euerie ſuch caſe, euerie woman married, hauing ſuch iointer made or héereafter to be made, ſhall not claime nor haue title to haue anie dower of the reſidue of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, that at anie time were hir ſaid huſbands, by whom ſhe hath anie ſuch iointer, nor ſhall demand nor claime hir dower of and againſt them that haue the lands and inheritances of hir ſaid huſband. But if ſhe haue no ſuch iointer, then ſhée ſhall be admitted and inabled to purſue, haue and demand hir dower, by writ of dower, after the due courſe and order of the common lawes of this realme: this act or anie law or prouiſion made to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Euiction.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that if anie ſuch woman be lawfullie expulſed or euicted from hir ſaid iointer, or from anie part thereof: without anie fraud or couin, by lawfull entrée, action, or by diſcontinuance of hir huſband: then euerie ſuch woman ſhall be indowed of as much of the reſidue of hir huſbands tenements, or hereitaments, whereof ſhée was before dowable, as the ſame lands and tenements ſo euicted and expulſed, ſhall amount or extend vnto.

¶ Prouided alſo, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined or expreſſed, extend, or be in any wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie woman or women héeretofore being married, of, for, or concerning ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, or poſſeſſion, as they or anie of them haue, claime, or pretend to haue, for hir or their iointer or dower, of, in, or to, anie manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments of anie of their late huſbands, being now dead or deceaſed, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Iointer for mariage.

¶ Prouided alſo, that if anie wife haue, or héereafter ſhall haue, anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, vnto hir giuen or aſſured, after mariage for terme of hir life, or otherwiſe in iointer, except the ſame aſſurance be to hir made by act of parlement, and the ſaid wife, after that fortune to ouer liue the ſame hir huſband, in whoſe time the ſaid iointer was made or aſſured vnto hir, that then the ſame wife, ſo ouerliuing, ſhall and maie at their libertie, after the death of hir ſaid huſband, refuſe to haue and take the lands and tenements, ſo to hir giuen, appointed, or aſſured, during the couerture, for terme of hir life, or otherwiſe in iointer: except the ſame aſſurance be to hir made by act of parlement, as is aforeſaid, and therevpon, to haue, aſke, demand and take, hir dower by writ of dower or otherwiſe, according to the common law, of and in all ſuch lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as hir huſband was, and ſtood ſeized of anie ſtate of inheritance, at anie time during the couerture, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alſo that this preſent act, nor anie thing therein conteined, extend, or be at anie time héereafter interpretated, expounded, or taken to extinct, releaſe, diſcharge, or ſuſpend anie ſtatute, recognizance, or other bond, by the execution of anie eſtate, of or in anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by the authoritie of this act, to anie perſon or perſons, or bodies politike: any thing conteined in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Wils.

¶ And for as much as great ambiguities and doubts may ariſe of the validitie and inualiditie of wils héeretofore made of anie lands, tenements, and hereditaments, to the great trouble of the kings ſubiects, the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, minding the tranquillitie and reſt of his louing ſubiects, of his moſt excellent and accuſtomed goodneſſe, is pleaſed & contented, that it be enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all maner true and iuſt wils and teſtaments héeretofore made by anie perſon or perſons, deceaſed, or that ſhall deceaſe before the firſt daie of Maie, that ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, of any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, ſhall be taken and accepted good and effectuall in the law, after ſuch faſhion, maner, and forme, as they were commonlie taken, and vſed at anie time within fortie yéeres next afore the making of this act: anie thing conteined in this act, or in the preamble thereof, or anie opinion of the common law, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Fines for alienation

¶ Prouided alwaies, that the kings highneſſe ſhall not haue, demand, or take anie aduantage or profit, for or by occaſion of the executing of anie eſtate onelie, by authoritie of this act, to anie perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, which now haue, or on this ſide the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, ſhall haue anie vſe or vſes, truſts or confidences, in anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, holden of the kings highneſſe, by reaſon of primer ſeizon, liuerie, Ouſter le maine, fine for alienation, reléeſe, or harriot: but that fines for alienations, reléeſs, and hariots, ſhalbe paid to the kings highneſſe. And alſo liueries and Ouſter le maines ſhall be ſued for vſes, truſts, and confidences to be made and executed in poſſeſſion, by authoritie of this act, after and from the ſaid firſt day of Maie, of lands & tenements, and other hereditaments holden of the king, in ſuch like maner and forme, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as hath héeretofore béene vſed or accuſtomed, by the order of the lawes of this realme.

Releeſe Hariot.

¶ Prouided alſo, that no other perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, of whom anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, be or héereafter ſhall be holden mediat or immediat, ſhall in anie wiſe demand or take anie fine, releaſe, or harriot, for or by occaſion of the executing of anie eſtate by the authoritie of this act to anie perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, before the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1536.

Eſtates executed

¶ And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, and bodies politike, which at anie time on this ſide the ſaid firſt daie Maie, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1536, ſhall haue anie eſtate vnto them executed of and in anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by the authoritie of this act, ſhall & maie haue & take the ſame or like aduantage, benefit, voucher, aid, praier, remedie, commoditie, & profit by action, entrée, condition, or otherwiſe, to all intents, conſtructions, & purpoſes, as the perſon or perſons ſeized to their vſe, of or in any ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ſo executed, had, ſhould, might, or ought to haue had at the time of the execution of the eſtate thereof, by the authoritie of this act, againſt anie other perſon or perſons, of, or for anie waſte, diſſeizon, treſpaſſe, condition broken, or anie other offenſe, cauſe, or thing, concerning or touching the ſaid lands or tenements ſo executed, by the authoritie of this act.

Actions

¶ Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that actions now depending againſt anie perſon or perſons, ſeized of or in anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to anie vſe, truſt, or confidence, ſhall not abate, ne be diſcharged for or by reaſon of executing of anie eſtate thereof, by authoritie of this act, before the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Wardſhips

¶ Prouided alſo, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not be preiudiciall to the kings highneſſe, for wardſhips of heires now being within age, nor for liueries, or for Ouſter le mains, to be ſued by anie perſon or perſons, now being within age, or of full age, of anie lands or tenements vnto the ſame heire or heires now alredie deſcended: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Recognizances

¶ Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular recognizances héeretofore knowledged, taken, or made, to the kings vſe, for or concerning anie recoueries of anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, héeretofore vſed or had, by writ or writs of entrée vpon diſſeizon in Le poſt, ſhall from henſeforth be vtterlie void and of none effect, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes.

Wales

¶ Prouided alſo, that this act, nor anie thing therein conteined, be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons borne in Wales, or the marches of the ſame, which ſhall haue anie eſtate to them executed by authoritie of this act in anie lands, tenements, or other hereditaments within this realme, whereof anie other perſon or perſons now ſtand or be ſeized, to the vſe of anie ſuch perſon or perſons borne in Wales, or the marches of the ſame: but that the ſame perſon or perſons borne in Wales or the marches of the ſame, ſhall or maie lawfullie haue, reteine and kéepe the ſame lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, whereof eſtate ſhall be ſo vnto them executed by the authoritie of this act, according to the tenor of the ſame: anie thing in this act conteined, or anie other act or prouiſion héeretofore had or made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the clerks of the ſignet and priuie ſeale.

WHereas the kings clerks of his gratious ſignet and priuie ſeale, giuing their dailie attendances for the paſſing and writing of his maieſties great and weightie affaires, and the cauſes of this his realme, haue for their interteinments and their clerks, no fées nor wages certeine for thoſe offices, other than ſuch fées as commeth and groweth of the ſaid ſignet and priuie ſeale: to the intent that from henſeforth they ſhould not by anie maner of means be defeated of anie part or portion of the ſame their fées. Be it therefore ordeined, eſtabliſhed, & enacted, by the conſent and aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie gift, grant, & other writing, which ſhalbe made or giuen in writing by the kings highneſſe, or anie his moſt noble poſteritie, to anie perſon or perſons, ſigned with his graces ſigne, or the ſigne or ſignes manuell of any of them, to be paſſed vnder anie his graces great ſeales of England, Ireland, duchie of Lancaſter, or of anie his highneſſe counties palantines or principalities of Wales, or by other proceſſe out of the excheker, after the xv. daie of Aprill, in the xxvii. yeare of his moſt noble reigne. And that all & euerie gifts, grants, and other writings, of what name or names, qualitie or qualities ſo euer the ſame be, or héereafter ſhall be named, déemed, or called, which the maiſter of the kings wards, or generall ſuruciors of the kings lands, for the time being, or anie other officers, that now be, or héereafter ſhall be made, ſhall by vertue of anie act of parlement, or any the kings grants to them or any of them, made or héereafter to be made in that behalfe, giue, grant, or make after the ſaid xv. day of Aprill, to any perſon or perſons in the kings name, to be paſſed vnder anie his maieſties ſeales, be in anie wiſe firſt & before the ſame grant, or any of them be paſſed vnder anie the kings ſaid ſeales, or other proces made of the ſame, brought and deliuered to the kings principall ſecretarie, or to one of the kings clerks of his graces ſignet for the time being, to be at the ſaid office of the ſignet paſſed accordinglie.

And be it alſo ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that one of the clerks of the ſaid ſignet, to whom anie the ſaid writings, ſigned with the kings moſt gratious hand, or the hand of anie other aforeſaid, or anie of them, fortune to be deliuered, maie and ſhall by warrant of the ſame bils, and euerie of them, within the ſpace of eight daies, next after he ſhall haue receiued the ſame, vnles he haue knowledge by the ſaid ſecretarie, or otherwiſe of the kings pleaſure to the contrarie, make or cauſe to be made in the kings name, letters of warrant, ſubſcribed with the hand of the ſame clerke, and ſealed with the kings ſignet to the lord kéeper of the kings priuie ſeale, for further proceſſe to be had in that behalfe. And that one of the kings clerks of the ſaid priuie ſeale, vpon due examination had by the ſaid lord kéeper of the ſaid priuie ſeale, of the ſaid warrant to him addreſſed, from the office of the ſaid ſignet as afore, maie and ſhall within the ſpace of eight daies, next after he ſhall haue receiued the ſame, vnleſſe the lord kéeper of the priuie ſeale doo giue them commandement to the contrarie, make or cauſe to be made by warrant of the foreſaid warrant, to the ſaid lord kéeper of the priuie ſeale, addreſſed from the office of the ſignet aforeſaid, other letters of like warrantie, ſubſcribed with the name of the ſame clerke of the priuie ſeale to the lord chancellor of England, lord kéeper of the great ſeale, chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter, chancellor of the kings land of Ireland, treaſuror and chamberleins of the excheker, and chamberleins of anie of his counties palantines or principalitie of Wales, other officer, and to euerie of them, for the writing and inſealing with ſuch ſeale, as remaine in their cuſtodie, of letter patent or cloſed, or other proceſſe, making due and requiſit to be had or made vpon anie the ſaid grants, according to the tenor of the warrant, to them or anie of them directed from the office of the priuie ſeale as is afore ſpecified.

Forfeit.

¶ And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner clerke or clerks, or other perſon or perſons, doo write or make anie maner writing, warrant or warrants, vpon anie maner gift or grant made by the kings highneſſe, or by anie other his graces officers, as is aforeſaid, or procure the ſame, or anie of the ſame, to be paſſed vnder anie the ſeales aforeſaid, after anie other ſort, maner, or faſhion, or by anie other warrant or warrants, than as before is ſpecified and declared, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie bill, warrant, or writing, paſſed contrarie to the order before limited and preſcribed, the ſum of ten pounds ſterling. The one halfe therof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him that ſhall firſt ſue for the ſame by action of debt, writ, bill, plaint, or information in anie of the kings courts, in which action or ſute, no eſſoine, protection, prouiſion, priuilege, nor wager of law ſhall be admitted, anie maner act, ſtatute, prouiſion, proclamation, or other ordinance héeretofore had or made contrarie to this preſent act, or anie article of the ſame, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Fées.

¶ And neuertheleſſe be it alſo enacted, that euerie of the ſaid clerks or other perſon, which ſhall paſſe in writing, or procure to be paſſed in writing, anie grant or grants, by immediat warrant, wherefore fées be paid at the great ſeale, ſhall of the parties receiue for the offices of the ſaid ſignet and priuie ſeale, as well ſuch fées as in this act is taxed for writing, of anie ſuch grant or other writings, as alſo the fees for the ſeale of the ſame, which fées and euerie part and portion thereof, the ſame clerke or clerks, by whome anie grant ſhall paſſe in writing by immediat warrant, ſhall vpon a bill of the hand of one of the ſaid clerks of the ſaid ſignet or priuie ſeale, deliuer vnto one of the ſame clerks of the ſignet or priuie ſeale, within the ſpace of thrée moneths, next and immediatlie inſuing after the paſſing and ſealing of anie the ſaid grant or grants, by immediat warrant, vpon paine of ten pounds ſterling, to be by euerie ſuch of the ſaid clerks or other perſon, as ſhall offend, forfeited, to be leuied in forme aforeſaid, as often as he or they ſhall offend, contrarie to the meaning of this act.

L. treaſuror.

¶ Prouided alſo that this act, or anie thing conteined in the ſame, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall to the lord treaſuror of England for the time being, concerning ſuch warrants or precepts, as he by vertue of his office ſhall and maie direct immediatlie to the lord chancellor of England, or to anie other perſon, for making out of the kings grants or letters patents, to anie perſon or perſons of anie offices, farmars of lands or tenements, or of anie other things belonging to his nomination and diſpoſition: but that as well he maie direct his ſaid warrants or precepts for the cauſes abouesaid, as alſo his clerke or clerkes, or other perſon, maie procure the ſame to be ſealed vnder anie of the clerks aforeſaid, without anie warrant to be before or after ſued or obteined vnder the kings ſignet or priuie ſeale for the ſame, in as large and ample maner, and after ſuch ſort and faſhion, as he or they might haue doone at anie time before the making of this act, anie thing in the ſame act mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Leaſes.
Countie palantine.

¶ Prouided alſo, that all and euerie leaſe and leaſes of the kings manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or other profits or hereditaments within the countie palantine of Lancaſter, or of the duchie of Lancaſter, out of the ſaid countie palantine, which the chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter for the time being, or the chancellor of the ſaid countie palantine for the time being, or either of them, ſhall héereafter make or grant in the name of the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, to anie maner perſon or perſons, ſhall and maie paſſe and be paſſed, vnder the ſeales of the ſaid duchie of Lancaſter, or of the ſaid countie palantine of Lancaſter, or of either of them, in maner and forme as héeretofore hath béene vſed and accuſtomed, anie thing in this preſent act before made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Offices.

¶ Prouided alſo, that all and euerie gift, grant, and patent, of anie maner office or offices, or anie other thing being, or which héereafter ſhall be in the countie palantine of Lancaſter, or of the ſaid duchie of Lancaſter, out of the ſaid countie palantine, the yéerelie wages or fées whereof, amounteth not ouer and aboue the value of two penſe by the daie, ſhall and maie paſſe and be paſſed by the ſaid chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter, or by the ſaid chancellor of the ſaid countie palantine, or of either of them for the time being, in maner and forme as héeretofore haue béene vſed and accuſtomed: any article or thing in this preſent act before made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And to the intent that as well ſuch as now be or héereafter ſhall be miniſters and clerks of the kings ſignet and priuie ſeale, ſhould haue and take honeſt and ſufficient ſalarie and reward for the writing of the ſaid warrants to be by them made as aforeſaid, as alſo the kings moſt louing, faithfull and obedient ſubiects, knowing the certeine charges to be by them laid out for the writing of the ſaid warrants, ſhould not by anie maner exaction or other ſiniſter means, be conſtreined by anie the ſaid clerks, to paie more large and exceſſiue fées for the writing of the ſame, than reaſon and conſcience ſhall require. Be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie clerke and clerks of the ſaid ſignet and priuie ſeale, ſhall haue and take for his or their writing of a warrant, vpon a bill for tailes of reward xij.d. for the writing of a warrant for the gift of euerie office xx.d. for the writing of a warrant for a penſion, annuitie or wages xx.d. for the writing of a warrant for a ſpeciall liuerie, or other perpetuitie, vi.s.viij.d. for the writing of a warrant vpon euerie bill for a congie delire, roiall aſſent, reſtitution of temporalties, donatiues, aduocations, preſentations, or other eccleſiaſticall matter, iij.s. iiij.d. for the writing of euerie warrant vpon a placard, licence, pardon, or ſhiriffes reward, ij.s. for the writing of euerie warrant vpon a denizen, iij.s. iiij.d. for the writing of a warrant for kéeping of an idiot, xx.d. for the writing of a warrant for kéeping of a ward, iij.s.iiij.d. And that no maner of clerke or clerks of the ſignet or priuie ſeale aforeſaid, ſhall take for the writing of anie maner warrant aboue ſpecified, more large and ample fées, than before is preſcribed and appointed, vpon paine of ten pounds ſterling to be by him forfeited, that ſhall offend contrarie to the true tenor and meaning of the ſaid act, the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, the other halfe to him that ſhall firſt ſue for the ſame by bill, action, plaint, or information, in anie of the kings courts, in which action or ſute no eſſoine, protection or wager of law ſhall be admitted.

Fees.

Forfeit

¶ Prouided alſo, that the lord chancellor of England for the time being, ſhall and maie at all times vſe his diſcretion in paſſing and ſpéeding anie thing by the great ſeale, and deliuering the ſame, without paieng anie fées for the great ſeale, ſignet, and priuie ſeale, as the caſe of neceſſitie ſhall require, and as hath béene accuſtomed. And that the clerks for writing or procuring ſuch writings and patents, by his commandement ſhall be diſcharged of all penalties expreſſed before in this act, for not receiuing and paieng fées to the ſignet and priuie ſeale, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

L. chancel.

¶ And be it furthermore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this preſent act, and euerie part and parcell thereof, ſhall extend to the court of the augmentation of the reuenues of the kings crowne, and bind euerie officer and officers, their clerks, and miniſter, that now be, and héereafter ſhall be of the ſame court, to the obſeruation thereof and of euerie part thereof, for and concerning the ſealing and writing of anie maner patent, leaſe, or other grant, which vpon the kings bill ſigned ſhall paſſe the great ſeale of the ſame court: anie ſpeciall words conteined in the act made in this preſent ſeſſion for the eſtabliſhment of the officers of the ſaid court of the augmentation, or anie other act or prouiſion made to the contrarie héereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Augmentation.

¶ Prouided neuertheleſſe, that this act or anie thing conteined in the ſame, be not in any wiſe preiudiciall to anie maner perſon or perſons, whom the kings highnes ſhall by expreſſe commandement, direct, ſend or appoint, to procure anie thing or things, to be ſealed with anie his maieſties ſeales, for or concerning his maieſties priuat affaires, or the affaires of his highneſſe realme: but that as well the ſame perſon or perſons, being appointed by the kings highneſſe, as aforeſaid, as alſo ſuch officer and officers as ſhall haue the kéeping of anie the kings ſeales, their miniſters and clerks ſhall and maie ſeale, write, and deliuer, and procure the ſealing, writing, and deliuering of anie ſuch thing and things, concerning the kings highneſſe affaires, as aforeſaid, without being bound, or procure anie maner warrant, or paieng anie maner fées, or to the ſignet or priuie ſeale for the ſame, ſo that the name or names of euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall procure the ſealing of anie ſuch thing or things, on the kings behalfe, as aforeſaid, be entred in the clerke of the hanapers booke, after this ſort, Per A. ad mandatum domini regis: any thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that this act nor anie thing conteined in the ſame, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall to anie maner perſon or perſons, which héereafter ſhall haue by the kings highneſſe, or by anie his maieſties officers, the grant or leaſe of anie maner farme or farms, to be ſealed with anie his highneſſe ſeales, the yearlie rent whereof amounteth not aboue the ſum of vi.li. xiij.s. iiij.d. ſterling: but that as well euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, as officer and officers, hauing the cuſtodie of ſuch ſeale or ſeales, their miniſters and clerks, may write, ſeale, and deliuer, or procure the writing, ſealing, and deliuering, of anie ſuch leaſe or leaſes, as aforeſaid, without paieng therefore anie maner fées, at or to the ſignet or priuie ſeale for the ſame, anie thing in this act mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the true making of wollen clothes.

Chap. 12.

FOraſmuch as great infamie and ſlander hath riſen of late yeares in ſundrie outward parties beyond the ſea, of the vntrue making of wollen clothes within this realme, to the great derogation of the commonweale of the ſame, and to the no little hinderance of the ſale of the ſaid commoditie. For remedie whereof be it ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoue-reigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming all and euerie clothier within this realme, ſhall weaue or cauſe to be wouen, his or their ſeuerall token or marke in all & euerie cloth, karſie, and other clothes, whatſoeuer they be, made & wrought to be vttered and ſold. And when anie ſuch cloth ſhall be readie made and dreſſed to be put to ſale, euerie of the ſame clothiers ſhall ſet his ſeale of lead vnto euerie of the ſame his or their clothes and karſies, in which ſeale of lead ſhall be conteined the true and iuſt length of euerie of the ſame clothes or karſies, as it ſhall be dulie found by euerie buier of the ſame, vpon due proofe thereof to be tried by the water. And in caſe vpon anie ſuch proofe to be made by anie buier of them at the water, there ſhall be found leſſe or ſmaller content in length, than is conteined and ſpecified in euerie of their ſaid ſeales: then euerie of the ſaid clothiers making ſuch default, ſhall loſe and forfeit vnto euerie ſuch buier of the ſame, the double value of ſo much cloth as ſhall want and lacke of his ſaid content in length, at the onelie ſight and iudgement of anie two indifferent perſons, that ſhall meaſure the ſame clothes and karſies. And euerie clothier ſending or putting anie of their clothes to ſell, before ſuch time as all and euerie of the ſame clothes ſhall be ſealed by the aulneger of the ſame counties, where it ſhall chance anie of the ſaid clothes ſo to be made: and alſo to be ordered and ſealed by euerie of the ſaid clothiers in forme aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit his cloth or clothes, whatſoeuer they be, the one halfe thereof ſhall be to the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or otherwiſe: in which action, no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed.

Breadth

¶ And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, euerie broad cloth ſhall conteine in breadth ſeauen quarters of a yard within the liſts at the leaſt, and to hold the ſame content alwaies, if it be proued at the water. The act made in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, that euerie broad cloth ſhould conteine two yards in breadth within the liſts, or anie other thing therein conteined, touching the keeping of the ſame breadth of two yards, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And euerie karſie ſhall conteine in breadth one yard within the liſts at the leaſt, if it be proued in the water: vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch broad cloth iij.s. iiij.d. and for euerie ſuch karſie xx.d. to be recouered to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, and of anie other that will ſue for the ſame, in maner and forme before declared.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this preſent act extend not to anie clothes called ſet clothes, of all ſorts, made in the countie of Suffolke, not exceeding the priſe of ſix and fortie ſhillings and eight penſe the cloth, nor to anie clothes called Taueſtocks, weſterne dozins, freezes, kendals, cottons, and all maner of courſe clothes, made for linings.

Aulneger

Stretching.

¶ And be it further enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that the aulneger of anie countie, ſhall not ſeale anie of the ſaid clothes with the kings ſeale, vntill ſuch time as they and euerie of them ſhall be firſt ordered and ſealed with their contents, according to the true meaning of this preſent act, in forme aforeſaid, vpon paine of loſing of his office. And that no buier of anie of the ſaid clothes or karſies, marked and ſealed in forme aforeſaid, preſume by anie maner of ſleight, means, or engins, to draw, pull, or to ſtretch out, anie of the ſame clothes or karſies, otherwiſe than to make them euen after they be wet, and to agree with the contents ſpecified and conteined in the ſeale of euerie of the ſame clothes and karſies, as neere as they can, vpon paine to forfeit the double value of euerie cloth or karſie ſo miſuſed, contrarie to the true intent and meaning of this preſent act, to be leuied to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, and of any other that will ſue for the ſame, in like maner and forme as is before declared.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that all cloth heereafter made to be ſold within the citie of Worceſter, the townes of Droitwich, Eueſham, Kederminſter, and Brommeſgroue, in the countie of Worceſter, ſhall be ſealed with the ſeale of the ſearchers there, according to an act of parlement in that behalfe prouided and made, the xxv. yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and that the owners of the clothes made within the ſaid citie and townes, ſhall not be compelled by this act, to put their owne ſeales to anie clothes there made, or heereafter to be made.

An act that white woollen clothes of foure pounds and vnder: and coloured clothes of three pounds and vnder, may be from henſefoorth carried ouer the ſea.

Chap.13.

WHereas by act of parlement, holden in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, it was ordeined and enacted, that no woollen cloth, aboue the priſe of fiue marks, ſhould be conueied ouer the ſea vnrowed, vnbarbed, & vnſhorne, vpon certeine penalties in the ſame act expreſſed more at large. Which act being put in execution, ſhall not onelie redound and turne to the abatements of the kings cuſtoms, but alſo grow to the vtter vndoing of his graces ſubiects, clothmakers and merchants, conueiers of the ſaid clothes: by reaſon that wooll is riſen to a far greater priſe, than it was at the making of the foreſaid act. For where a cloth was then commonlie ſold at fiue marks, it is now ſold for foure pounds. And alſo by force of the ſaid act, the merchants ſhould be bound to dreſſe anie white cloth, aboue the value of fiue marks, on this ſide the ſea, after that they haue bought them: which white cloth ſo dreſſed, when they be brought into the parties beyond the ſea, and there by the buiers of them died and put in colours, then they muſt be newlie dreſſed, barbed, ſhorne, and rowed, and ſo they ſhall be thereby the leſſe in ſubſtance of themſelues, and the worſe to the ſale, and ſold for leſſe priſe by ten or twelue ſhillings a peece beyond the ſea, than they ſhould be vndreſſed. Wherefore be it ordeined and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie white woollen cloth, ſold for foure pounds and vnder: and euerie coloured cloth ſold for thrée pounds and vnder, maie be carried and conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, there to be ſold at the pleaſure of the buiers of the ſaid cloth or clothes, vnbarbed, vnſhorne, and vnrowed: anie act or acts to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Tranſport

¶And ouer this be it ordeined and enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if any perſon or perſons, ſend or conueie, or cauſe to be ſent and conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, anie white woollen cloth, aboue the value of foure pounds, or anie coloured cloth, aboue the priſe of thrée pounds, vnrowed, vnbarbed, and vnſhorne, in other forme than is aforeſaid: that then the perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall forfeit the value of the ſaid clothes, ſo carried and conueied into the parties beyond the ſea: the one moitie of the ſame forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and the other moitie to euerie perſon which will or ſhall ſue by bill, writ, information. or otherwiſe, againſt anie perſon for the ſame. And that the defendant in anie plée, vpon anie ſuch action be not admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine for anie ſuch defendant be allowed in the ſame.

Priſe Undreſſed

Forfeit

An act concerning the cuſtome of lether.

Chap.14.

Where great quantitie and much abundance of lether is dailie conueied out of this realme, as well by eſtrangers, as alſo by tanners, and of other the kings ſubiects, inhabited in diuerſe parts of this realme towards the ſea coſts, and in eſpeciallie out of Wales, Cheſſhire, and Cornewall, where little or no cuſtome is paied for the ſame, which lether is commonlie packed by the ſaid eſtrangers, tanners and other the kings ſubiects in their houſes, and ſo conueied vnto the ports and hauens where they intend to ſhip the ſame: which packs ſo conueied and brought to ſuch ports & hauens to be ſhipped, be neuer there vnpacked, to be viewed what number of lether is conteined in any ſuch packe, but entred in the cuſtomers bookes, by and vpon the information and report of the ſaid eſtrangers, tanner or other perſon, tranſporter of the ſame lether. And albeit that the kings highneſſe, in ſuch places and ports hath verie little cuſtoms paid for the ſame, yet for as much as in ſuch places there is no better ſearch nor view had for the perfect knowledge of the number & quantitie of the lether, ſo by them packed, the kings grace is much deceiued of ſuch his cuſtoms as ought therefore to accrue to his highneſſe. For where in the port of London, two perſons be named and appointed by the waier of the wools within the ſaid port, for the time being, to tell and number all ſuch lether by the hide, accounting ten hides to the diker, and alſo all wooll fels, as within the ſame port ſhall be ſhipped from time to time, which two perſons be ſworne before the cuſtomers of his great cuſtome, trulie and dulie to doo and execute their offices, in telling & numbring all ſuch lether and wooll fels, in the preſence of the ſaid cuſtomers, and of the comptroller of the ſame cuſtome or of their deputies, who being preſent, and viewing the ſame, doo make entrée thereof in their books. And after ſuch tale made, and entrée taken, an other perſon by the maior of London for the time being conſtituted and appointed, is alſo ſworne trulie to packe the ſame lether ſo told and entred into the cuſtomers books, euerie of the ſame tellers and packers taking ſuch fées for their labours, as of old time hath béene vſed, limited, & accuſtomed, euerie ſtranger paieng for cuſtome of euerie diker iiij.s.ix.d. and euerie denizen iiij.s.i.d. which like cuſtome is alſo paid in the port of Hampton, but not in other ports of this realme, and ſpeciallie in Wales, Cheſſhire, and Cornwall, out of the which parties, by reaſon of ſuch ſmall cuſtoms, more lether is conueied ouer the ſea, than out of other places of this realme, which is an occaſion of dearth and great priſes of the ſame lether. For the redreſſe whereof, and to the intent that one maner of cuſtome for euerie ſuch diker of lether ſo conueied ouer the ſea, aſwell by denizens as ſtrangers, ſhall be paid throughout this realme, Wales, and other the kings dominions, and alſo that the kings highneſſe may be the better aſſured of his cuſtoms to be paid of all ſuch lether as ſhall be héereafter carried and conueied ouer the ſea. Be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from henſefoorth, no maner eſtranger nor denizen, ſhall packe, or cauſe to be packed, anie maner of lether to be conueied or ſhipped ouer the ſea, out of this realme, Wales, or other the kings dominions, otherwiſe than in this act is expreſſed, that is to ſaie, that all ſuch lether ſhall be héereafter packed by a packer ſworne in euerie ſuch port, where anie lether ſhall be ſhipped to be conueied out of this realme, Wales, or other the kings dominions, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch lether as héereafter ſhall be packed, contrarie to the purport of this act, or of the value thereof. And alſo that from henſefoorth euerie eſtranger and denizen, which ſhall ſhip, ſend, or conueie, anie lether ouer the ſea, out or from anie part of this realme, Wales, Cheſſhire, or other the kings dominions, ſhall paie like cuſtome for the ſame, as is vſed to be paid within the port of London, that is to ſaie, euerie ſtranger to paie for euerie diker of lether for cuſtome iiij.s.ix.d. and euerie denizen iiij.s.i.d.

Cuſtome

Packing lether

Packer ſworne

¶And be it alſo enacted, that within euerie port, hauen and créeke within this realme, Wales, and other the kings dominions, where no tellers nor packers at this preſent time be, nor before the making of this act haue bin, that from henſefoorth the cuſtomers and comptrollers of euerie ſuch port, hauen and créeke, where ſuch lether ſhall be ſhipped to be conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, ſhall haue power by authoritie of this act, to name, conſtitute and appoint one able perſon,

Tellers

Oth
Fee

perſon,to tell and number all ſuch lether as ſhall be anie time there ſhipped,which perſon ſo named, ſhall be ſworne by the cuſtomer and comptroller of euerie ſuch port, hauen, and créeke, trulie and dulie to execute his office in the preſence of the cuſtomer ⁊ comptroller of euerie ſuch port, créeke, or hauen,where anie ſuch lether ſhall be ſhipped,or of his or their deputie or deputies, the ſame teller taking of euerie ſtranger for the telling of euerie diker of lether, ſix penſe : whereof the ſame teller to haue for his labour two penſe, ⁊ foure penſe to be to the commonaltie of the ſame towne and port,toward the paiment of their fée farme and other their charges.And of euerie denizen,not being a fréeman of the ſaid port and hauen, for euerie diker foure penſe, whereof the teller to haue two penſe,and other two penſe to be to the commonaltie of the ſame port or hauen, for the intent aboue declared : and of euerie diker by anie perſon being a fréeman of ſuch port and hauen, but onelie two penſe for his labour.And that immediatlie after ſuch tale had,and entrée thereof made by the cuſtomer or his deputie,an other able perſon,named,deputed,and aſſigned,by the ſaid cuſtomers and comptrollers of euerie ſuch port and hauen, and before them ſworne, trulie and dulie to doo and execute his office, ſhall packe all ſuch lether ſo told and entred, euerie packe to conteine as manie dikers,vnder the number of ſeuen dikers,as it ſhall pleaſe the merchant or owner thereof to appoint,taking for his labour for the packing of euerie packe foure penſe.

Forfeit

¶ And be it further enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie packer take vpon him to packe anie lether before it be told or numbred,and entrée thereof made by the cuſtomer or his deputie, or at anie time packe more lether than ſhall be told and entred, according to the purport of this act: that then the ſame packer to forfeit ⁊ loſe for euerie time ſo dooing the contrarie, fiue pounds, and to ſuffer therefore impriſonment at the kings pleaſure. And alſo that if the teller within anie ſuch port or hauen,at anie time héereafter, take vpon him to tell or number anie lether in the abſence of the cuſtomer,comptroller,or of his or their deputie or deputies, then the ſame teller for euerie time ſo dooing,to looſe and forfeit fiue marks.

Certificat

¶ And for as much as diuerſe eſtrangers carrie and conueie their lether from one port to another,and by the waie cauſe the ſame lether to be packed,which packes ſo conueied be not vndoone nor opened at their arriuall within the ports,whereunto they be ſo tranſported,but there onelie entred by and vpon the report and information of the merchant eſtranger, or of his factor, whereby much cuſtome is concealed. Be it therefore alſo enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie eſtranger,or other his factor,at anie time héereafter, doo conueie and carrie anie lether from one port to another,to the intent to ſhip the ſame in ſuch other port,whereunto it ſhall be ſo conueied,the ſame eſtranger or other his factor for him,before ſuch tranſporting of the ſame lether,ſhall cauſe the ſaid lether firſt to be told within the ſame port, from whenſe he will or intendeth to carrie the ſame: and the ſame ſo told,cauſe to be entred by the cuſtomer of the ſame port, or his deputie : and cauſe to be alſo packed by the ſaid packer of the ſaid port where it ſhall be ſo told, taking of the cuſtomer or cuſtomers of the ſame port or hauen,or their deputie or deputies,a certificat,expreſſing the number or quantitie of dikers of all the ſame lether,ſo to be carried and tranſported, directed to the cuſtomer of the other port or hauen, whereunto the ſame lether ſhall be ſo conueied, making mention alſo in the ſame certificat,whether the cuſtome thereof accordinglie be trulie paid or not.And in caſe anie ſuch lether be carried or conueied from one port to another, there to be ſhipped, without hauing of ſuch certificat : that then the ſame lether,or the value thereof to be forfeited.

Tanner
Salt hides

¶ And be it further enacted,that no tanner within this realme,Wales, or other the kings dominions,or other perſons,occupieng or hauing a tan houſe,ſhall from henſefoorth ſend, or cauſe to be conueied ouer the ſea,by waie of merchandize or otherwiſe,anie maner of lether tanned or vntanned,vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch lether,or the value thereof. Nor that anie perſon or perſons,at anie time héereafter,ſhall carrie or conueie ouer the ſea out of this relme,Wales,or other the kings dominions, anie ſalt or vntanned hides, or anie lether called backs or ſole lether, the kings ſpeciall licence not obteined for the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch hides and lether called backs or ſole lether, or the value thereof : the one halfe of all the ſaid forfeitures to be to the kings highneſſe,and the other halfe to anie of his ſubiects that will purſue for the ſame in anie his courts,by action of debt,bill,plaint,information, or otherwiſe, in which ſute none eſſoine,protection,wager of law,or other dilatorie plea for the defendant ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Capteine

War

¶ Prouided alwaies,that this act,or anie thing therein conteined,ſhall not be hurtfull nor preiudiciall to anie capteine of anie ſhip in the time of warre, being in the retinue and ſeruice of the kings highneſſe : nor to anie owner or maiſter of anie ſhip, being the kings ſubiect, going into Iſeland,Danſke,Norwaie,or ſouthward beyond the eſtraits : but that euerie ſuch capteine and maiſter of euerie ſuch ſhip,during the war time, and euerie maiſter to ſuch ſhips, paſſing into the places before named,maie and ſhall at their pleaſure, haue and carrie ſalt hides in their ſhips, ſo that euerie of them ſhall not haue at ſuch voiage, or during the warre, at anie one time aboue the number of eight ſalt hides.This act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alwaies,that hides vntanned of anie beaſts, being killed within Wales, or the marches thereof,may be conueied and carried into outward parts,by anie perſon or perſons,from time to time,except onelie by tanners,and ſuch as haue tan houſes,in ſuch and like maner,as they might haue béene before the making of this act, anie thing in the ſame mentioned to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act whereby the kings maieſtie ſhall haue power to nominat two and thirtie perſons of his clergie, and laie fee, for making of eccleſiaſticall lawes.

Chap. 15.

SIthen the beginning of this preſent parlement, there is an act ordeined and eſtabliſhed according to the purport and effect, as heereafter followeth: that is to ſaie, where the kings humble and obedient ſubiects, the clergie of this realme of England, haue not onlie knowledged according to the truth, that the conuocations of the ſame clergie is, alwaies hath beene, and ought to be aſſembled onelie by the kings writ, but alſo ſubmitting themſelues to the kings maieſtie, hath promiſed in Verbo ſacerdotii, that they will neuer from henſeforth preſume to attempt, allege, clame, or put in vre, or enact, promulge, or execute anie new canons, conſtitution, ordinance prouinciall or other, or by whatſoeuer other name they ſhalbe called in the conuocation, vnleſſe the kings moſt roiall aſſent and licence maie to them be had, to make, promulge and execute the ſame, and that his maieſtie doo giue his moſt roiall aſſent and authoritie in that behalfe; and where diuers conſtitutions, ordinances and canons prouinciall or ſynodall, which heertofore haue beene enacted, and be thought not onelie to be much preiudiciall to the kings prerogatiue roiall, and repugnant to the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, but alſo ouer much onerous to his highneſſe and to his ſubiects, the ſaid clergie hath moſt humblie beſought the kings highneſſe, that the ſaid conſtitutions & canons maie be committed to the examination & iudgement of his highneſſe, and of xxxij. perſons of the kings ſubiects, whereof xvj. to be of the vpper and nether houſe of the parlement of the temporaltie, and other xvj. to be of the clergie of this realme, and all the ſaid xxxij. perſons to be choſen and appointed by the kings maieſtie, and that ſuch of the ſaid conſtitutions and canons as ſhall be thought and determined by the ſaid xxxij. perſons, or the more part of them worthie to be abrogated and adnulled, ſhalbe abolit and made of no value accordinglie: and ſuch other of the ſame conſtitutions and canons, as by the ſaid xxxij. or the more part of them, ſhall be approued to ſtand with the lawes of God, and conſonant to the lawes of this realme, ſhall ſtand in their full ſtrength and power, the kings moſt roiall aſſent firſt had and obteined to the ſame. Be it therefore now enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, according to the ſaid ſubmiſſion and petition of the ſaid clerge, that they ne anie of them from henſeforth ſhall preſume to attempt, allege, claime, or put in vre anie conſtitutions, ordinances prouinciall or ſynodall, nor anie other canons: nor ſhall enact, promulge, or execute anie ſuch canons, conſtitutions, or ordinances prouinciall, by whatſoeuer name or names they maie be called in their conuocations, in time comming, which ſhall be alwaie aſſembled by authoritie of the kings writ, vnleſſe that ſame clergie maie haue the kings moſt roiall aſſent and licence to make, promulge and execute ſuch canons, conſtitutions & ordinances prouinciall or ſynodall, vpon paine of euerie one of the ſaid clergie, dooing contrarie to this act, and being thereof conuict, to ſuffer impriſonment, and make fine at the kings will.

Kings licence

¶ And forasmuch as ſuch canons, conſtitutions & ordinances, as heeretofore haue beene made by the clergie of this realme, can not now at the ſeſſion of this preſent parlement, by reaſon of ſhortneſſe of time, be viewed, examined and determined by the kings highnes and xxxij. perſons to be choſen and appointed according to the petition of the ſaid clergie, in forme aboue rehearſed: be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings highneſſe ſhall haue power & authoritie to nominat and aſſigne at his pleaſure the ſaid xxxij. perſons of his ſubiects, whereof xvj. to be of the clergie, and xvj. to be of the temporaltie, of the vpper and nether houſe of the parlement. And if any of the ſaid xxxij. perſons ſo choſen, ſhall happen to die before their full determination, then his highneſſe to nominat other from time to time of the ſaid two houſes of parlement, to ſupplie the number of the ſaid xxxij. And that the ſame xxxij. by his highneſſe ſo to be named, ſhall haue power & authoritie to view, ſearch and examine the ſaid canons, conſtitutions & ordinances prouinciall and ſynodall heertofore made, and ſuch of them as the kings highneſſe, & the ſaid xxxij. or the more part of them, ſhall deeme and adiudge worthie to be continued, kept & obeied, ſhalbe from thenſeforth kept, obeied and executed within this realme, ſo that the kings moſt roiall aſſent vnder the great ſeale be firſt had to the ſame. And the reſidue of the ſaid canons, conſtitutions & ordinances prouinciall, which the kings highneſſe, and the ſaid xxxij. perſons, or the more part of them, ſhall not approue, or deeme and adiudge worthie to be continued, kept and obeied, but to be abolit, abrogat & made fruſtrat, ſhall from henſeforth be void & of none effect, & neuer be put in execution within this realme.

Commiſſis,

Canons.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that no canons, conſtitutions or ordinance ſhalbe made and put in execution within this realme, by authoritie of the conuocation of the clergie, which ſhalbe contrariant or repugnant to the kings prerogatiue roiall, or the cuſtoms, lawes or ſtatutes of this realme: anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie heereof notwithſtanding.

Conuocat.

¶ Prouided alſo, that ſuch canons, conſtitutions, ordinances & ſynodals prouinciall, being alreadie made, which be not contrariant nor repugnant to the lawes, ſtatutes and cuſtoms of this realme, nor to the damage or hurt of the kings prerogatiue roiall, ſhall be now ſtill vſed & executed as they were before the making of this act, till ſuch time as they be viewed, ſearched, or otherwiſe ordered and determined by the ſaid xxxij. perſons, or the more part of them, according to the tenor, forme & effect of this preſent act, as by the ſaid act amongſt other things more at large is expreſſed.

¶ And forasmuch as the kings highneſſe hath not named and aſſigned the ſaid xxxij. perſons ſince the making of the ſaid act: be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this parlement, that the kings maieſtie ſhall haue full power and authoritie, aſwell afore as after the diſſolution of this preſent ſent parlement at his libertie and pleaſure to name and aſſigne xvj. perſons of the clergie, and xvj. late perſons of the temporaltie. And if after ſuch nomination, anie of the ſaid perſons happen to deceaſe, that then the kings highneſſe ſhall haue power and authoritie to nominat and aſſigne from time to time other in their places to ſupplie the number of the ſaid xxxij. And that the ſaid xxxij. perſons to be nominated by his maieſtie, at all times from henſeforth for the time of thrée yéeres next after the diſſolution of this parlement, ſhall haue power & authoritie to aſſemble themſelues togither from time to time by the kings commandement, for the due and perfect execution of the ſaid act, according to the intent and true meaning of the ſame: any thing in the ſaid act to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

An act concerning inrolments of bargaines and contracts of lands and tenements.

Cuſtos rot.

BE it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from the laſt date of Iulie, which ſhalbe in the yéere of our Lord God 1536, no manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments ſhall paſſe, alter or change from one to another, whereby anie ſtate of inheritance or fréehold ſhalbe made, or take effect in anie perſon or perſons, or any vſe thereof to be made by reaſon onelie of anie bargaine and ſale therof, except the ſame bargaine and ſale be made by writing indented, ſealed & inrolled in one of the kings courts of record at Weſtminſter, or elſe within the ſame countie or counties, where the ſame manors, lands or tenements ſo bargained & ſold lie or be, before the Cuſtos rotulorum, and two iuſtices of the peace, and the clerke of the peace of the ſame countie or counties, or two of them at the leaſt, wherof the clerke of the peace to be one: and the ſame inrolment to be had and made within ſix months next after the date of the ſame writings indented, the ſame Cuſtos rotulorum or iuſtices of the peace, and clerke, taking for the inrolment of euerie ſuch writing indented before them, where the land compriſed in the ſame writing excéed not the yéerelie value of xl.s. two ſhillings, that is to ſay, xij.d. to the iuſtices, and xij.d. to the clerke: and for the inrolment of euerie ſuch writing indented before them, wherein the land compriſed excéed the ſum of xl.s. yéerlie value, v.s. that is to ſaie, ij.s. vj.d. to the ſaid iuſtices, and ij.s. vj.d. to the ſaid clerke for the inrolling of the ſame. And that the clerke of the peace for the time being within euerie ſuch countie, ſhall ſufficientlie inroll, and ingroſſe in parchment the ſame déeds or writings indented, as is aforeſaid, and the rols therof at the end of euerie yéere ſhall deliuer vnto the ſaid Cuſtos rotulorum of the ſame countie for the time being, there to remaine in the cuſtodie of the ſaid Cuſtos rotulorum for the time being amongſt other records of euerie of the ſame counties, where anie ſuch inrolments ſhalbe ſo made, to the intent that euerie partie that hath to doo therwith maie reſort and ſée the effect and tenor of euerie ſuch writing ſo inrolled.

Townes.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this act nor any thing therin conteined, extend to anie maner lands, tenements, or hereditaments lieng or being within anie citie, borough or towne corporat within this realme, wherin the maiors, recorders, chamberleins, bailifs, or other officer or officers haue authoritie, or haue lawfullie vſed to inroll anie euidences, déeds or other writings within their precinct or limits: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act concerning ſuch as be put in truſt by their maiſters, and after doo rob them.

Chap.17.

WHere before this time diuerſe & manie euill diſpoſed perſons haue often & manie times taken and ſtolne from their maiſters & miſtreſſes diuerſe iewels, plate, monie, and other goods and chattels, to the great hurt & loſſes of their ſaid maiſters & miſtreſſes. And notwithſtanding the heinous offenſe contrarie to the truſt that the maiſter or miſtreſſe putteth in the ſeruants, and contrarie to the faith that the ſeruant of dutie ſhould beare to his maiſter or miſtreſſe, yet when they haue béene arreigned of the ſaid felonies, manie of them haue béene admitted to their clergie, and ſome of them haue béene admitted to take the priuilege of ſanctuarie, as other felons haue béene for offenſes not ſo heinous, to the great boldneſſe of other perſons to commit ſuch like offenſe: be it therfore enacted, ordeined & eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, if that from henſeforth, anie ſeruant for the time being in ſeruice of anie perſon or perſons, happen to ſteale, or feloniouſlie take awaie anie iewels, monie, plate, or other goods or chattels of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, or if héerafter anie ſeruant, to whom anie caſket, iewels, monie, goods or chattels ſhall be deliuered by the ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, or by anie other to their vſe, withdraw themſelues from their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes, and go awaie with his ſaid caſket, iewels, monie, goods, or other chattels, or anie part thereof, contrarie to the truſt and confidence in him or them put by his or their ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, or elſe being in the ſeruice of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, without the aſſent or commandement of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, he imbezell the ſame caſket, iewels, monie, goods or chattels, or anie part thereof, or otherwiſe conuert the ſame to his owne vſe, with like purpoſe to ſteale it, if the ſaid caſkets, iewels, plate, monie, goods or chattels, that anie ſuch perſon ſhall take from his maiſter or miſtreſſe, be to the value of xl.s. or aboue, or if the ſaid caſkets, iewels, goods, monie or chattels, that any ſuch ſeruant after deliuerie of yͤ ſame, ſhall go away with, or which he ſhall imbezell with purpoſe to ſteale it, as is aforeſaid, be of the value of xl.s. or aboue, that then euerie ſuch ſeruant, that ſo ſhall ſteale from his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe any ſuch iewels, goods or chattels, or imbezell any caſket, iewels, monie, plate or other goods to him deliuered, in maner before rehearſed, and be found giltie therof, or of anie parcell of the ſame, according to the law of the land, or vpon his arreignement before anie iuſtice confeſſe the ſame, ſhall from henſefoorth be put from his clergie, and be put to execution, as if he were no clerke.

Clergie.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſo ſhall ſteale the goods of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, or imbezell that that ſo to him ſhalbe deliuered, as is aforeſaid, if the ſame goods be of the value of xl. s. as is aforeſaid, ſhall looſe the priuilege of all ſanctuaries: anie vſe or cuſtome héeretofore had or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Sanctuar.

An act for the preſeruation of the riuer of Thames.

Chap.18.

WHere before this time the riuer of Thames, among all other riuers within this realme, hath béene accepted and taken, and as it is in deed, moſt commodious and profitable to all the kings leege people, and cheeflie of all other frequented & vſed aſwell by the kings highneſſe, his eſtates and nobles, merchants and other, repairing to the citie of London and other places, ſhires and counties adioining to the ſame, which riuer of Thames is & hath béene moſt meet and conuenient of all other for the ſafegard and ordering of the kings nauie, conueiance of merchandizes, and other neceſſaries to and for the kings moſt honorable houſhold, and otherwiſe to the great reléefe and comfort of all perſons within this realme, till now of late diuerſe and euill diſpoſed perſons, partlie by miſordering of the ſaid riuer by caſting in of dung and other filth laied nigh the banks of the ſaid riuer, digging and vndermining of the banks and wals next adioining to the ſame riuer, carrieng and conueieng awaie of waiſhides, ſhores, piles, boords, timber worke, balaſt for ſhips, and other things from the ſaid banks and wals in ſundrie places: by reaſon whereof great ſhelps and riſings haue of late béene made and growne in the far way of the ſaid riuer, and ſuch grounds as lie within the leuell of the ſaid water marke by occaſion thereof haue béene ſurrounded and ouerflowne by rage of the ſaid water, and manie great breaches haue inſued and followed therupon, and dailie are like to doo, and the ſaid riuer of Thames to be vtterlie deſtroied for euer, if conuenient and ſpeedie remedie be not the ſooner prouided in that behalfe.

¶ For reformation whereof be it enacted, eſtabliſhed and ordeined by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons heereafter doo or procure anie thing to be doone in the annoieng of the ſtreame in the ſaid riuer of Thames, making of ſhelps by anie maner of meanes, by mining, digging, caſting of dung, rubbiſh, or other thing in the ſame riuer, or take, plucke, or conueie awaie anie boords, ſtakes, pillers, timber worke, or other thing from the ſaid banks or wals, except it be to amend and repaire the ſame againe, or dig, or vndermine anie banks or wals vpon the water ſide of Thames aforeſaid, to the hurt, impairing or damage of any of the ſaid wals or banks: then the ſaid perſon or perſons, and euerie of them ſhall forfeit & paie, for euerie time ſo offending, one hundred ſhillings, the one moitie therof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, & the other moitie thereof to the maior & commonaltie of London for the time being, the ſame to be recouered & obteined by the maior and commonaltie of London, by bill, plaint, writ of debt, or information ſeuerallie againſt euerie offendor in anie of the kings courts, in which actions and ſutes, or anie of them, the partie defendant ſhall not be eſſoined, nor wage his law, nor anie protection to be allowed in the ſame.

Annoiance.

Forfeit

¶ And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if complaint ſhall happen to be made to the lord chancellor of England, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings counſell, lord priuie ſeale, or to anie of them, by anie perſon or perſons, or bodie politike, that ſir Thomas Spert knight, now hauing the office and ordering of and for balaſting for ſhips, or anie other that héereafter ſhall haue the ſaid office and order for balaſting of ſhips, doo take anie balaſt for ſhips neere to the ſaid riuer of Thames, and doo not take for parcell of the ſaid balaſting, the grauell and ſand of the ſhelps betweene Greencheth and Richmond within the ſaid riuer of Thames, or in anie place or places, that is or ſhall be to the damage or annoiance of the ſaid riuer of Thames, or any part therof: that then vpon euerie ſuch complaint the ſaid lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, lord priuie ſeale, and euerie of them, calling both the chéefe iuſtices of euerie bench, or one of them, ſhall haue power and authoritie from time to time, to heare, and finallie determine euerie ſuch complaint by their diſcretions, and to put ſuch order therein, and for taking of balaſt for ſhips vpon euerie ſuch complaint, as by their diſcretions ſhall ſeeme moſt conuenient for the conſeruation of the ſaid riuer of Thames: and the parties offending ſuch order, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, and make no leſſe fine than fiue pounds to the kings vſe, for euerie time offending or breaking the ſame.

manie deteſtable murders, rapes, robberies, thefts, and other miſchæfous, deteſtable and abhominable déeds, for that they haue béene alwaies relæued, aided and ſuccored by the ſanctuaries, whenſoeuer, and as oft as they or anie of them haue offended in anie of the premiſſes, to the moſt græuous diſpleaſure of almightie God, and extreme detriment, and hurt of the kings ſubiects. In auoiding of ſuch preſumptuous boldneſſe it is enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular perſon or perſons, which now be, or at anie time héereafter ſhalbe priuileged in anie ſanctuarie, within anie of the kings dominions for murder or felonie, from the firſt daie of Maie next comming, ſhall dailie, whenſoeuer he or they be without the houſe or manſion, wherein they haue their lodging, weare a badge or cognizance, by the gouernor of euerie ſanctuarie to be aſſigned and appointed, openlie vpon their vpper garment, of the compaſſe in length & bredth of ten inches, vpon paine that they and euerie of them, whenſoeuer, and as often as anie of them being out of the ſaid houſe or manſion, wherein he hath his ſaid lodging, ſhalbe founden and taken without the ſame badge or cognizance, cléerelie to looſe and forfeit his or their priuilege and aduantage of ſanctuarie. And that it ſhall be lawfull to all and ſingular the kings ſubiects to apprehend and take euerie ſuch offendor and offendors, being without his badge or cognizance, as aforeſaid, and him to bring out of the ſanctuarie into the next gaole, there to remaine vnto the next gaole deliuerie, and then to be tried according to the due courſe and order of the law, as though he had neuer béene priuileged in any ſuch ſanctuarie.

Weapons.

¶ And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of the ſaid priuileged perſons, at anie time héerafter beare, occupie or weare vpon them anie maner of ſword, knife or other weapon, other than their meat kniues, and the ſame meat kniues but at their meales onelie, vpon paine, as is aboue rehearſed.

Impriſon.

¶ Furthermore be it enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if any of the ſaid priuileged perſons at anie time after the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, fortune to be found, apprehended or taken out of his or their lodging, before the ſun riſing in the morning, or after the ſun going downe in the euening, the ſame priuileged perſon ſo found, apprehended or taken, ſhall at the firſt time for his ſo offending, ſuffer impriſonment within the ſame ſanctuarie by the ſpace of two daies, and at the ſecond time to haue impriſonment by the ſpace of ſix daies, and at the third time that he ſhall be ſo founden apprehended or taken out of his ſaid lodging, contrarie to the order before mentioned, and the ſame being ſubſtantiallie proued by indifferent proofs thereof to be made before the lord chancellor of England for the time being, to forfeit and looſe his or their priuilege of ſanctuarie.

Reſiſtance.

¶ Alſo be it further enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that if anie maner of ſanctuarie perſon or perſons of prepenſed malice at anie time héereafter doo reſcue or reſiſt anie of the gouernors aforeſaid, or their deputies, in executing of their office, in taking and impriſoning of anie of the perſons priuileged, offending contrarie to the tenor of this act, that then he or they that ſhall fortune to make reſcues, ſhall be héereafter taken out of ſanctuarie, and to ſuffer, and be tried as felons in euerie thing.

Debt.
Treſpaſſe.

¶ And ouer that be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of contracts of debt vnder fortie ſhillings, treſpaſſes & couenants, that at anie time héerafter ſhall happen to be made, or grow within anie of the ſaid ſanctuaries, betwéene anie of the ſaid priuileged perſon or perſons and other inhabitants within anie ſuch ſanctuarie, that the gouernor or their deputie of anie of the ſame ſanctuaries, where anie ſuch contract, treſpaſſe or couenant ſhall fortune to be made, grow, or be, as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by this preſent act, to order, iudge and determine the ſame, according as it ſhalbe dulie there proued afore the ſaid gouernor or gouernors.

An act concerning an order for tithes through the realme.

FOraſmuch as diuerſe numbers of euill diſpoſed perſons inhabiting in ſundrie counties, cities, towns & places of this realme, hauing no reſpect to their duties to almightie God, but againſt right & good conſcience haue attempted to ſubtract & withhold in ſome places the whole, and in ſome places great parts of their tithes and oblations, aſwell perſonall as prediall due vnto God and holie church, and purſuing ſuch their deteſtable enormities and iniuries, haue attempted in late time paſt, to diſobeie, contemne and deſpiſe the proceſſe, lawes and decrées of the eccleſiaſticall courts of this realme, in more temerous and large maner than before this time hath béene ſéene. For reformation of which ſaid iniuries, and for vnitie and peace to be preſerued amongſt the kings ſubiects of this realme, our ſouereigne lord the king, being ſupreame head in earth vnder God of the church of England, willing the ſpirituall rights and duties of that church to be preſerued, continued and mainteined, hath ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie of his ſubiects of this realme of England, Ireland, Wales and Calis, and marches of the ſame, according to the eccleſiaſticall lawes and ordinances of his church of England, and after the laudable vſages and cuſtoms of their pariſh or other place where he dwelleth or occupieth, ſhall yéeld and paie his tithes, offerings and other duties of holie church: and that for ſuch ſubtractions of anie of the ſaid tithes, offerings, or other duties, the parſon, vicar, curat, or other partie in that behalfe gréeued, maie by due proceſſe of the kings eccleſiaſticall lawes of the church of England, conuent the perſon or perſons ſo offending before his ordinarie, or other competent iudge of this realme, hauing authoritie to heare & determine the right of tithes,

And to commit the ſame perſon or perſons to ward,there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, till that he or they ſhall haue found ſufficient ſuretie,to be bound by recognizance or otherwiſe before the kings ſaid counſellor or iuſtice of peace,or anie other like counſellor or iuſtice of peace, to the vſe of our ſaid ſouerrigne lord the king,to giue due obedience to the proceſſe,procéedings,decrées, and ſentences, of the eccleſiaſticall court of this realme,wherein ſuch ſute or matter for the premiſſes ſhall depend or be.And that euerie of the kings ſaid counſellors,or two iuſtices of the peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum,as is aforeſaid,ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to take, receiue,and record recognizances and obligations in anie of the cauſes aboue written.

London

¶ Prouided alwaie,that this act or anie thing therein conteined ſhall not extend to anie inhabitant of the citie of London,for or concerning anie maner of tith offering or other eccleſiaſticall dutie growne or due to be paid or yéelden within the ſame citie, becauſe there is another order made for the paiment of tithes and other duties within the ſaid citie.

¶ Prouided alſo that euerie perſon and perſons,being partie or parties to anie ſuch ſute, ſhall and maie make and haue his & their lawfull action,demand or proſecution, appeales, prohibitions, and all other their lawfull defenſes and remedies in euerie ſuch ſute, according to the ſaid eccleſiaſticall lawes,and lawes and ſtatutes of this realme,in as ample and liberall maner and forme as they or anie of them might haue had,if this act had neuer béene made,anie thing in this act aboue written notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that this act for recouering of tithes,ne anie thing therein conteined,ſhall take force or effect, but onelie vntill ſuch time as the kings highneſſe, and ſuch other xxxij. perſons which his highneſſe ſhall name and appoint for the making and eſtabliſhing of ſuch lawes as his highneſſe ſhall affirme and ratifie to be called the eccleſiaſticall lawes of his church of England. And after the ſaid lawes ſo ratified and confirmed as is aforeſaid,that then the ſaid tithes to be paid to euerie eccleſiaſticall perſon, according to ſuch lawes,and none otherwiſe.

An act limiting an order for paiment of tithes within the citie of London.

Chap.22.

BE it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement that all and euerie the citizens and inhabitants of the citie of London,and ſuburbs within the liberties of the ſame,ſhall at this preſent time of Eaſter next comming paie vnto the curats of the ſaid citie and ſuburbs, all ſuch and like ſums of monie for tithes,oblations,and other duties, as the ſaid citizens and inhabitants by the order of my lord chancellor, and other the kings moſt honourable counſell,& the kings proclamation,paid or ought to haue paid,by force and vertue of the ſaid order,at Eaſter that was in the yeare of our Lord God 1535. And the ſame paiments ſo to continue from time to time, vntill ſuch time as anie other order or law ſhall be made, publiſhed, ratified and confirmed by the kings highneſſe and the two and thirtie perſons by his grace to be named, as well for the full ſtabliſhment concerning the paiment of all tithes,oblations,& other duties, of the inhabitants within the ſaid citie and ſuburbs, within the liberties of the ſame, as for the making of other eccleſiaſticall lawes of this realme of England. And that euerie perſon denieng to paie as is aforeſaid,ſhall by the commandement of the maior of London for the time being, be committed to priſon,there to remaine vntill ſuch time as he or they haue agréed with the curat and curats for their ſaid oblations and other duties as is aforeſaid.

An act concerning decaie of houſes and incloſers.

Chap.23.

WHere as in the fourth yeare of the reigne of the noble king of famous memorie Henrie the ſeuenth,father to the kings highneſſe our ſoueraigne lord that now is, it was ordeined eſtabliſhed, and enacted, amongſt other things, that euerie owner of anie meſe, which within thrée yeares next before the ſame fourth yere, was or after the time ſhould be letten to farme with twentie acres of land at the leaſt,lieng in tillage and husbandrie,ſhould be bound to kéepe and ſuſteine the houſing and building of the ſame meſe conuenientlie for the mainteinance of husbandrie and tillage,and if anie owner of the ſame ſhould fortune to occupie anie ſuch meſe or land in his owne hands,he ſhould be bound to vphold and ſuſteine the ſame,as is before rehearſed. And if anie perſon happened to doo the contrarie,then it ſhould be lawfull vnto the king, or vnto the lords of whome anie ſuch meſe or lands,is holden immediatlie,to take yerelie the one halfe of the iſſues and profits of all and euerie ſuch tenement,without paieng any thing for the ſame,vntill ſuch time as the houſing ſhould be builded or reedified againe, and the lands thereof conuerted into tillage: and that no perſon ſhould haue, claime or chalenge anie free hold in the ſame land, or tenements by taking of anie ſuch profits, but onelie that it ſhould be lawfull vnto the king and other lords, to diſtraine for the paiment of the moitie of the yeerelie iſſues, reuenues and profits of the ſame, like as in the ſaid act more at length is conteined. By reaſon of which ſaid ſtatute and ordinance, diuers and manie meſes which be holden immediatlie of the kings highneſſe, within late yeeres haue beene builded and reedified, and the lands therevnto belonging conuerted againe into their firſt nature of tillage and huſbandrie, according to the tenour and purport of the ſaid good and gratious act. And all other ſuch meſes and lands as be holden immediat of anie other lords, be and remaine vnto this preſent daie proſtrat vnbuilded, and the lands thereof conuerted and imploied onelie into paſture, and to no other purpoſe, to the great decaie of all manner of vittels within this realme, and to the derogation and hinderance of the common wealth of the ſame manie waies. And for as much as in the ſaid act was no other remedie prouided for and againſt all thoſe perſons that do or ſhould hold anie manors, meſes, lands, or tenements of other lords, for not repairing and reedifieng of the houſes, and conuerting of the ſaid lands into tillage and huſbandrie, according to the true and vertuous meaning of the ſame good act, but onlie euerie lord immediat mought haue and diſtraine for the moitie of the profits of all and euerie ſuch meſe and lands, decaied in forme aforeſaid, as in the ſame act among other things more at length it is declared. And alſo for that the lords immediat, and the other meane lords haue not put the ſaid good act in due and plaine execution, according to the tenour thereof, as they ought and mought haue doone, a great number of the houſes, meſes, tenements and acres of land, which at the making of the ſaid good act were in ruins and decaie, and the lands thereof conuerted from tillage into paſture, doo yet remaine vnbuilded, vnreedified, and all the lands to them belonging hitherto be kept and vſed into paſture, and not conuerted againe into tillage, according to the purport, true meaning and intent of the ſaid act. And ſo by this means diuers and ſundrie perſons, which hold not their lands and tenements immediat of the kings highneſſe, haue and dailie doo from time to time decaie & let fall downe no ſmall number of meſes and houſes of huſbandrie, and alſo doo conuert the lands of the ſame from tillage and huſbandrie into paſture, to the moſt perillous example of all others being in like caſe, and to the greateſt abuſe and diſorder of the naturall ſoile of the ground, that by anie maner of inuention could be practiſed or imagined. Be it therefore enacted ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoue-reigne lord, and by the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the king our ſouereigne lord, his heirs and ſucceſſors, from and after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God 1538, ſhall take and haue the moitie of all iſſues, reuenues, rents and profits comming and growing of all and ſingular meſes, lands and tenements now and then remaining incloſed, decaied, or conuerted from tillage into paſture, contrarie to the tenour and true meaning of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid fourth yeere of king Henrie the vij. and being at this preſent daie ſo found alredie by office and verdict of xij. men, or which hereafter at anie time by like office and verdict ſhall be found, of whom ſoeuer they be holden, which haue beene decaied and conuerted from tillage into paſture ſith iij. yeeres next before the foreſaid fourth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid noble king Henrie the vij. vntill ſuch time as the owner of the ſaid meſes, lands, and tenements ſhall haue builded and reedified againe in and vpon conuenient places of the ſaid meſes, lands and tenements, for euerie fiftie acres, fortie acres, or thirtie acres of land, one ſufficient tenement, meet for an honeſt man to dwell in, and alſo vntill ſuch time as the ſame owners haue conuerted or cauſed all the ſaid lands ſo miſuſed, to be conuerted from paſture into tillage againe, according to the nature of the ſoile, and courſe of huſbandrie vſed in the countrie where anie ſuch lands doo lie, and according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid act.

Reedifie

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie owner of lands and tenements, at anie time after the laſt daie of Aprill, in the yeere of our Lord God 1536, decaie anie houſe of huſbandrie, hauing twentie acres of arable land at the leaſt therevnto lieng in tillage, or conuert the ſame land into paſture, contrarie to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid act, then if the lord of whom anie ſuch houſe and land by them holden immediatlie, doo not take the benefit of the ſaid act, concerning taking of the moitie of the profits of the ſame houſe and lands ſo miſuſed, as is aboue rehearſed, within one yeare next after the ſaid decaie, or within one yeere next after the conuerting of the ſaid land from tillage into paſture, the kings highneſſe in default of the ſaid lords immediat, ſhall and maie from and after anie office found thereof, haue and take the one moitie of all the iſſues, reuenues and profits, comming and growing of the ſame houſe and lands ſo decaied or conuerted from tillage into paſture, vntill ſuch time as the owner of the ſaid houſe and lands ſo miſuſed haue reedified the ſame houſe, and conuerted and put the ſame lands againe into tillage, according to the nature of the ſoile and courſe of huſbandrie vſed in the countrie there, as is aboue rehearſed.

Prouided alſo that this act nor anie thing therein conteined be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie infant within the age of xxj. yeeres, nor to anie perſon or perſons being out of the kings realme for anie iſſues and profits to be leuied, perceiued or taken by vertue of this preſent act, as long as they ſhall be within age, or out of this realme, nor ſhall extend to anie mariſh or fennie grounds, nor to anie manors, lands, or tenements being incloſed at this preſent daie, within anie forreſt, parke, or chaſe, wherein be deere belonging vnto the kings highneſſe, or to anie temporall lord, knight, or ſquire of this realme of England or Wales, ſo that they haue licence obteined at this preſent daie of the kings ſaid highneſſe, or of anie his noble progenitors to imparke the ſame, and alſo that haue compounded with the owners thereof, that the ſame owners be ſatiſfied for the ſame, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Chap.23.

WHere by a ſtatute made in this preſent parlement for and concerning the amending and mainteinance of the hauens and ports of Plimmouth, Dartmouth, Teinmouth, Falmouth, and Foweie, in the countie of Deuonſhire and Cornwall, among other things it was ordeined and enacted, that no perſon or perſons, from and after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which was in the foure and twentith yeare of the reigne of the kings highneſſe that now is, ſhould labour or worke, or cauſe to be labored or wrought in anie maner of tin works called ſtremworks, within the ſaid counties of Deuonſhire or Cornwall, nigh to anie of the freſh waters, riuers, or low places, deſcending or hauing courſe vnto the ſaid hauens or ports, or anie of them, nor ſhould labour dig or waſh anie tin in anie of the ſaid tin works, called ſtremworks, vnleſſe the ſaid digger, owner, or waſher, ſhould make or cauſe to be made ſufficient hatches and ties in the end of their puddles and cords, and therein put ⁊ laie, or cauſe to be put and laid all the ſaid ſtones, grauell and robell digged about the inſerching, finding ⁊ waſhing of the ſaid tin, there to be wholie ⁊ ſurelie kept by the ſaid hatches and ties out ⁊ from the ſaid freſh riuers or water courſes or anie of them, ſo that the ſaid ſtones, grauell ⁊ robell ne anie part thereof, be for lacke of ſuch hatches or ties conueied into the ſaid ports and hauens, or anie of them, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time that anie owner or digger ſhould dig or waſh, or cauſe to be digged or waſhed any tin contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, x. li. The one halfe thereof to be to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe thereof to be to anie of the inhabitants of the ſaid port towns or hauens, that would ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts by originall writ, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhould not be admitted to wage his law, ne anie protection or eſſoine ſhould be allowable, as in the ſaid act among other things more plainlie is expreſſed and declared.

Grauell

And becauſe ſith the making of the ſaid ſtatute, the inhabitants of the ſaid port towns or hauens, hauing little regard, reſpect, loue or affection to the amending and mainteinance of the ſame towns and hauens, nor to their poſteritie as they beene naturallie bounden ⁊ obliged, haue permitted and ſuffred the ſaid owners and diggers to perſeuere and continue in digging, ſerching, ⁊ waſhing of tin, nigh the ſaid freſh waters, riuers, or low places, not making ſufficient hatches ⁊ ties, as by the ſaid ſtatute is prouided and ordeined without anie maner of ſute commenſed or purſued by the ſaid inhabitants, according to the tenor of the ſaid act, to the great animation and incourage of the offendors, and to the vtter vndoing and deſtruction of the ſaid port towns and hauens. The kings maieſtie minding and intending the ſupportation and mainteinance of his ſaid towns and hauens, and the animaduerſion and correction of the ſaid offendors, hath by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame ordeined enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon or perſons hereafter ſhall labour or worke or cauſe to be laboured or wrought in anie maner of tin works, called ſtremeworks within the ſaid counties of Deuonſhire or Cornwall, nigh to anie of the ſaid freſh waters, riuers, or low places, deſcending or hauing courſe vnto the ſaid hauens or ports, or anie of them, nor ſhall labor, dig, or waſh anie tin in anie of the ſaid tin works, called ſtremeworks, vnleſſe the ſaid digger, owner or waſher, ſhall make or cauſe to be made ſufficient hatches ⁊ ties in the end of their puddles and cords, and therin put and laie, or cauſe to be put and laid, all the ſaid ſtones, grauell and robell, digged about the inſearching, finding, and waſhing of the ſaid tin, there to be wholie ⁊ ſurelie kept, by the ſaid hatches and ties, out and from the ſaid freſh riuers or water courſes, or anie of them: ſo that the ſaid ſand, ſtones, grauell, and robell, ne anie part therof, be for lacke of ſuch hatches or ties conueied into the ſaid ports and hauens, or anie of them, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time that anie owner, tinner, digger, or labourer ſhall dig, or waſh, or cauſe to be digged or waſhed anie tin, contrarie to the forme aforeſaid, twentie pounds, the one halfe thereof to be to the vſe of his highneſſe, and the other halfe thereof to be to anie his graces ſubiects, that will ſue for the ſame in anie of his graces courts by originall writ, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, ne anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowable.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons ſhall happen to be ſued, accuſed, indicted, impriſoned, amerced, condemned, or otherwiſe vexed or troubled in his perſon, lands, tin works, goods, or chattels, by anie of the miniſters or officers of anie the kings courts of ſtannerie, or by anie other perſon or perſons for purſuing, or attempting anie ſute or action according to this eſtatute, againſt ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall offend contrarie to the forme aforeſaid: that then all ſuch ſutes, accuſements, indictments, impriſonments, actions, condemnations, fines, amerciaments, and euerie other act or acts to be doone in anie of the ſaid courts of ſtannerie, or elſe where by anie perſon or perſons againſt anie perſon or perſons for ſuing or attempting anie ſutes or actions by vertue of this ſtatute, ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect in the law. And that the partie ſued, indicted, accuſed, impriſoned, or otherwiſe gréeued or moleſted for purſuing againſt anie perſon or perſons offending this ſtatute, ſhall haue his action and remedie grounded vpon this ſtatute by originall writ, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in anie of the kings courts, againſt ſuch as ſhall procure or attempt to vex, trouble, or otherwiſe moleſt any ſuch perſon or perſons for ſuing or purſuing of the forfeitures aforeſaid, and ſhall recouer treble damages in that behalfe, and the partie defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, ne anie protection, eſſoine, nor priuilege ſhall be to him allowable.

Forfeit

And if it ſhall happen anie perſon or perſons, for purſuing anie ſute or action vpon this ſtatute, or by occaſion of the ſame hereafter to be impriſoned by anie maner of perſon or perſons being officers or miniſters of the court of ſtannerie, their deputies or ſubſtitutes, that then euerie of the iuſtices of peace within anie of the counties aforeſaid, wherein the ſaid priſoner ſhall happen to bée committed to priſon vpon credible information thereof, taking ſuretie by his diſcretion for appearance of ſuch priſoner at the next generall ſeſſions of peace, ſhall haue power ⁊ authoritie as well to direct his warrant to the gaoler or kéeper of the priſon, as to anie other perſon or perſons, to whom the ſaid priſoner ſhalbe committed vnto, commanding him or them vpon paine of forfeiture of xl. li. to deliuer and put at large the ſaid priſoner or priſoners, which if he refuſe ſo to doo, then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall looſe ⁊ forfeit the ſaid fortie pounds, the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe to him that is gréeued by reaſon of ſuch impriſonment, to be recouered in maner and forme aforeſaid. And the defendant in anie action or ſute for the ſame, ſhall not wage his law, ne haue anie eſſoine or protection allowed. And if it ſhall appeare vpon the appearance of ſuch priſoner at the quarter ſeſſions by examination of the iuſtices of peace there being, that he was impriſoned contrarie to the forme of this ſtatute, that then he ſhall be foorthwith diſmiſſed and thereby diſcharged. And if he were lawfullie impriſoned for anie other iuſt cauſe, then to be remanded to priſon by the diſcretion of the ſaid iuſtices.

Stannerie

Prouided alwaie, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie of the officers of the ſtannerie, ne to anie of their lawfull liberties, priuileges, vſages, lawes or cuſtoms, ſauing onelie in the caſes and prouiſions conteined and limited within this preſent act: which ſhall alwaie be put in execution according to the tenour of this act, anie vſage, cuſtome, priuilege, ordinance or libertie to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act for recontinuing of certeine liberties and franchiſes heretofore taken from the crowne.

Chap. 25.

Where diuers of the moſt ancient prerogatiues and authorities of iuſtice, apperteining to the imperiall crowne of this realme, haue béene ſeuered and taken from the ſame by ſundrie gifts of the kings moſt noble progenitors, kings of this realme, to the great diminution and detriment of the roiall eſtate of the ſame, and to the hinderance and great delaie of iuſtice. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate or degrée ſoeuer they be of, from the firſt daie of Julie, which ſhall be in the yere of our Lord God 1536, ſhall haue anie power or authoritie to pardon or remit anie treaſons, murders, manſlaughters, or anie kind of felonies whatſoeuer they be, nor anie acceſſaries to anie treaſons, murders, manſlaughters or felonies, or anie vtlaries for anie ſuch offenſes aforeſaid, committed, perpetrated, doone, or diuulged, or hereafter be committed, doone, or diuulged by or againſt anie perſon or perſons, in anie parts of this realme, Wales, or the marches of the ſame, but that the kings highneſſe his heirs and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, ſhall haue the whole and ſole power and authoritie thereof vnited and knit to the imperiall crowne of this realme, as of good right and equitie it apperteineth, anie grants, vſages, preſcription, act or acts of parlement, or anie other thing to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Pardons

Juſtices

Letters patents

And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer they be, from the ſaid firſt daie of Julie, ſhall haue any power or authoritie to make anie iuſtices of eire, iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of peace, iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, but that all ſuch officers ⁊ miniſters ſhall be made by letters patents vnder the kings great ſeale, in the name and by authoritie of the kings highneſſe, and his heirs kings of this realme, in all ſhires, counties, counties palantine, and other places of this realme, Wales, and marches of the ſame, or in anie other his dominions, at their pleaſure and wils, in ſuch maner ⁊ forms as iuſtices of eire, iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of peace, and iuſtices of gaole deliuerie be commonly made in euerie ſhire of this realme, anie grants, vſages, preſcription, allowance, act or acts of parlement, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Writs
Teſte

And be it further enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all originall writs, and iudiciall writs, and all maner of indictments of treaſon, felonie and treſpaſſe, & all maner of proceſſe to be made vpon the ſame in euerie countie palantine and other libertie within this relme of England, Wales, and marches of the ſame, ſhall from the ſaid firſt daie of Iulie be made onelie in the name of our ſaid ſonereigne lord the king, and his heirs kings of England. And that euerie perſon or perſons, hauing ſuch countie palantine or anie other ſuch libertie, to make ſuch originals, iudicials, or other proceſſe of iuſtice, ſhall make the Teſte in the ſaid originall writs and iudiciall in the name of that ſame perſon or perſons that haue ſuch countie palantine or libertie. And that in euerie writ & indictment that ſhalbe made within anie ſuch countie palantine or libertie, after the ſaid firſt daie of Iulie next comming, whereby it ſhalbe ſuppoſed anie thing to be doone againſt the kings peace, ſhall be made and ſuppoſed to be doone onelie againſt the kings peace, his heires and ſucceſſors, and not againſt the peace of anie other perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer they be, anie act of parlement, grant, cuſtome, vſage, or allowance in Eeire before this time had, granted or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Iuſtices
Commiſſion

Prouided alwaie, that iuſtices of aſſiſes, iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, and iuſtices of peace to be made and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe within the countie palantine of Lancaſter, ſhalbe made and ordeined by commiſſion vnder the kings vſuall ſeale of Lancaſter, in maner and forme as hath béene accuſtomed, anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Towns
Liberties

Prouided alſo, that all cities, boroughs and towns corporat within this realme, which haue libertie, power and authoritie to haue iuſtices of peace, or iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, ſhall ſtill haue and inioie their liberties and authorities in that behalfe, after ſuch like maner as they haue béene accuſtomed, without anie alteration by occaſion of this act, anie thing in this act, or in anie article therein conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Stewards
Bailiffe
Shiriffe

And it is ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſtewards, bailifs and other miniſters of anie liberties or franchiſes, which in time paſt haue vſed or ought to attend vpon the iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, and iuſtices of the peace at large in anie countie, ſhall be attendant to the iuſtices of aſſiſe, iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, & iuſtices of peace of the ſame ſhires, wherein ſuch liberties and franchiſes be, & make due execution of all proces to them to be directed for miniſtration of iuſtice within ſuch liberties or franchiſes. And that alſo all ſuch bailifs, or their deputies or deputie, ſhall giue their attendance & aſſiſtance vpon the ſhiriffe, togither with the ſhirifs bailifs, at all courts of gaole deliuerie from time to time for execution of priſoners according to iuſtice.

Towns

Prouided alwaie, that the article next aboue rehearſed, ſhall not in anie wiſe be preiudiciall to anie ſtewards or bailifs of anie cities, boroughs or townes corporat ſet in anie ſhire of this realme, which haue priuilege that they ſhould not be compelled to attend or appéere out of ſuch cities, boroughs or towns wherein they inhabit, but that euerie ſuch citie, borough and towne corporat, ſhall vſe their ſaid priuileges and liberties as heretofore hath béene accuſtomed, anie thing in anie of the ſaid articles aboue rehearſed to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Forfeit.
Amercia-
ments

And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, from the ſaid firſt daie of Iulie next comming, ſhall haue all maner fines, iſſues, amerciaments and forfeitures, that ſhalbe loſt, forfeit or aſſeſſed, by or vpon anie ſtewards, bailifs or anie other miniſters, or officers of anie franchiſe or liberties, for non execution or miſexecution or inſufficient returns of ſuch writs, warrants, precepts, or other proces which to them or anie of them, or to anie their deputie or deputies ſhalbe directed, or for anie contempt or other miſdemeanor, whatſoeuer it be, concerning their offices, in and for the due execution and adminiſtration of iuſtice, anie grant or allowance, or other thing to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding. And that the amerciaments for inſufficient returns of writs or other proceſſe made by ſtewards or bailifs of liberties or franchiſes, hauing returns of writs and execution of the ſame, ſhalbe put and ſet vpon the heads of ſuch ſtewards or bailifs, and not vpon the ſhirifs.

Purueiors

And furthermore it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that purueiors aſſigned by the kings commiſſion for prouiſions of his grace, the quéene, and their children, ſhall and maie prouide all vittels, corne and other kinds of things whatſoeuer it be, according to their commiſſions, as well within liberties and franchiſes as without, anie grants, allowance or other thing to the contrarie or let thereof notwithſtanding.

¶Prouided alwaies, that ſuch purueiors ſhall obſerue the ſtatutes for them prouided in euerie behalfe.

Verge
the market

And ouer this it is ordeined by authoritie aforſaid, that in all ſuch places whereſoeuer the kings highneſſe in his owne moſt roiall perſon ſhall come to reſt, tarrie, abide, or make his repoſe within this realme or anie his dominions, within libertie or without, there and within the verge limited and accuſtomed to his graces court, during the time of his abode, his grace, his ſteward, marſhall, coroner, and all other his miniſters, ſhall and maie kéepe their courts for iuſtice, and exerciſe their offices as ſhall apperteine to them, according to the lawes, cuſtoms and ſtatuts of this relme, aſwell within liberties as without. And that his graces clerks of the market, & none other during the ſame time, as well within libertie as without, ſhall exerciſe the office of clerke of the market: anie priuilege, grant, allowance or other thing to the contrarie therof notwithſtanding.

Prouided

London

Prouided alwaie, that this article next afore rehearſed or anie thing therein conteined, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall to the citie of London, but that the ſame citie ſhall haue and vſe ſuch liberties as they might if this article had neuer béene made.

Shirifs

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſtatute, act and acts héretofore made, & being in force againſt ſhirifs, their vnderſhirifs, bailifs or other miniſters, for making or returning of panels and iuries, or for due execution and ſeruing of anie writs or other proceſſe, or for taking of fées, or for reformation of extortions, or for anie other thing or things concerning their offices, and all paines and penalties conteined in euerie ſuch ſtatute, ſhall from henſeforth be extended to all ſtewards, bailifs, and other miniſters and officers of liberties and franchiſes, hauing returns of writs and executions thereof, in like maner, forme and condition, as they extend to ſhirifs, their vnderſhirifs, bailifs or other miniſters, and as if the ſaid ſtewards, bailifs or other miniſters or officers of liberties and franchiſes, had béene ſpeciallie and particularlie named and rehearſed in ſuch ſtatutes.

Stewards

Prouided alwaie, that this article next aboue rehearſed, ſhall not be preiudiciall to anie ſtewards, bailifs of franchiſes, or to their deputie or deputies, or their clerks, for exerciſing and occupieng their offices ouer and aboue one yéere: but that they and euerie of them maie kéepe and occupie their ſaid offices for ſo long time as they be or héereafter ſhall be giuen to them, as if this article next afore rehearſed had neuer béene made: anie of the ſaid acts to be expounded and taken againſt them or anie of them to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Iuſtices

And it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch iuſtices to be made, as is afore rehearſed in this act, ſhall haue authoritie and power to kéepe and hold their ſeſſions of peace, & to deliuer the ſame gaols from time to time onelie within the ſame liberties and franchiſes, and in ſuch places, and in none other places, by reaſon or authoritie of that commiſſion: and to doo and execute all other things within the ſame, in as ample & large maner as anie other iuſtices of peace and gaole deliuerie in anie ſhire within this realme maie doo and haue authoritie to doo: anie act, grant, vſe, cuſtome and allowance héeretofore had, made or vſed, or anie article in this preſent act made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Iuſtices

Prouided alwaies, that all & ſingular iuſtices of the peace, gaole deliuerie and aſſiſe, hereafter to be made, named and appointed by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors within anie libertie where anie ſuch iuſtice of peace, gaole deliuerie or aſſiſe, or anie of them haue béene made by anie perſon or perſons by vertue or authoritie of anie letters patents of the gift or grant of our ſoueraigne lord the king, or his moſt noble progenitors kings of this realme, or otherwiſe ſhall ſit and kéepe their ſeſſions, gaole deliuerie and aſſiſes, onelie in ſuch place and places, as the iuſtices of the ſaid liberties latelie haue béene commonlie vſed within the ſaid liberties. And that no perſon or perſons within the ſaid liberties or anie of them, ſhall be hereafter in no wiſe compelled by authoritie of this act, to appéere out of the ſaid liberties before anie other iuſtices of aſſiſe, gaole deliuerie, or of the peace, than before ſuch iuſtices as ſhall be named and aſſigned to ſit and be by the kings highneſſe, his heirs and ſucceſſors, within the ſaid liberties and forme aboueſaid. And that this act ſhall not extend or be expounded or taken by any other libertie, priuilege or franchiſe granted, vſed or had to anie perſon or perſons other than before in this preſent act is expreſſed & plainlie declared and rehearſed: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding, and as if this act had neuer béene made.

Prouided alwaies, that this act nor anie thing therin conteined, be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall vnto ſir Thomas Englefeld knight, iuſtice of the countie palantine of Cheſter and Flint, nor to his deputie or deputies, nor to anie of them, of, for or concerning the office of iuſtice or iuſticer of the ſaid countie palantine & Flint, nor for or concerning anie fées, profits or aduantages to the ſame office in anie maner wiſe apperteining or belonging, but that the ſaid ſir Thomas, his deputie & deputies, and euerie of them, maie lawfullie haue, occupie and exerciſe the ſaid office, & alſo receiue and take to their owne vſe, all maner profits, commodities & aduantages to the ſaid office belonging or apperteining, according to the tenor, purport and effect of ſuch letters patents, as before this time were vnto the ſame ſir Thomas made vnder the ſeale of the ſaid countie palantine, or vnder anie other ſeale, by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, of, for or concerning the ſaid office and other the premiſſes, or anie parcell thereof, in as ample and large maner as though this act had neuer béene had ne made: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Towns

Prouided alwaie, that this act ne anie thing therein conteined, be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie citie, borough or towne corporat, by what name or names ſoeuer they or anie of them be incorporat, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſucceſſors of euerie of them, of or for any maner of liberties, priuilege, cuſtomes, and ancient vſages and franchiſes: and alſo of all maner of fines, iſſues, amerciaments and forfeitures, which they or anie of them haue of the grant or grants of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, or of anie of his noble progenitors kings of this realme of England, but that the ſaid cities, boroughs & towns corporat, and euerie of them, & their ſucceſſors, maie haue, take, leuie and inioie all and euerie ſuch lawfull liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, cuſtoms and vſages, in as ample and large maner, and in like forme and condition, as they and euerie of them haue lawfullie taken, vſed and had the ſame before the making of this act: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding, and as if this act had neuer béene had ne made.

Prouided

Iuſt.of p.

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted, that Thomas now biſhop of Elie, & his ſucceſſors biſhops of Elie,& their temporall ſteward of the iſle of Elie for the time being,& euerie of them, ſhall from henſefoorth be iuſtices of peace within the ſaid iſle,and ſhall vſe & exerciſe all maner of things within the ſame iſle,that apperteineth or belongeth to anie iuſtices of peace within anie countie of this realme of England, to doo, exerciſe and vſe by vertue and authoritie that they be iuſtices of peace, in as ample & large maner as anie other iuſtices of peace in anie countie within this relme haue or might doo,exerciſe or vſe: anie thing or things in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And forasmuch as it was not prouided in the ſaid act, how and in what wiſe the ſaid poore people and ſturdie vagabonds ſhould be ordered at their repaire and at their comming into their countries,nor how the inhabitants of euerie hundred ſhould be charged for the reléefe of the ſame poore people,nor yet for the ſetting & kéeping in worke and labor of the aforſaid valiant beggers at their ſaid repaire into euerie hundred of this realme. It is therefore now ordeined,eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame,that all and euerie the maior,aldermen, ſhirifs, bailifs,conſtables,houſholders, and all other head officers & miniſters of euerie citie, ſhire towns and pariſhes of this realme,at the repaire & comming thither of ſuch poore creature or ſturdie vagabond, as is conteined in the ſaid act, ſhall moſt charitablie receiue the ſame, and order the ſame in maner and forme following: that is to ſaie,that all the gouernors & miniſters of euerie of the ſame cities,ſhires,towns,hundreds,wapentakes,lathes,rapes,ridings, tithings, hamlets and pariſhes,aſwell within liberties as without, ſhall not onelie ſuccour, find and kéepe all and euerie of the ſame poore people by waie of voluntarie and charitable almes, within euerie of the ſame cities,ſhires,towns,hundreds,wapentakes,lathes,rapes,tithings,hamlets & pariſhes,aſwell within liberties as without,to be ſuccored,reléeued and holpen, with ſuch and conuenient neceſſarie alms as ſhall be thought méet by their diſcretions, in ſuch wiſe as none of them of verie neceſſitie ſhall be compelled to wander idelie and go openlie in begging,to aſke almes in anie of the ſame cities, ſhires, towns and pariſhes: but alſo to cauſe and compell all & euerie the ſaid ſturdie vagabonds and valiant beggers to be ſet and kept to continuall labor, in ſuch wiſe as by their ſaid labors they and euerie of them maie get their owne liuings with the continuall labor of their owne hands: & euerie maior,alderman,ſhiriffe,bailiffe,conſtable,and all other head officers and miniſters of euerie countie,citie,towne and pariſh within this realme,or within anie the kings dominions,aſwell within liberties as without,and all other perſons,inhabitants within anie of the ſame, ſhall indeuor themſelues to order and direct the poore people,valiant beggers and ſturdie vagabonds, in ſuch wiſe as the effect of this preſent act ſhalbe dulie obſerued,and put in due execution,vpon paine that euerie pariſh ſhall loſe & forfeit xx.s.for euerie moneth in which it is omitted & vndoone,& that to be inquired of at euerie quarter ſeſſions,and to be dulie preſented and found by the verdict of xij.men.

Whip

Item it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie perſon or perſons,being whipped or ſent vnto their countries,in forme aforeſaid, at the end of euerie ten miles ſhall repaire vnto the conſtable of anie pariſh being directlie in his waie towards the countie and place

Item it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid gouernors, aldermen, iuſtices of peace,and head officers,bailifs, and conſtables of euerie citie, borough,towne,hundred & pariſh of this realme, ſhall haue authoritie by vertue of this preſent act, to take vp all and ſingular children in euerie pariſh within their limits,that be not greeued with anie notable diſeaſe or ſickneſſe, and being vnder the age of fourteene yeers, and aboue the age of fiue yeers, in begging or idlenes and to appoint them to maiſters of huſbandrie, or other crafts or labors to be taught, by the which they maie get their liuings when they ſhall come to age, giuing to them of the ſaid charitable collections,as it maie conuenientlie be ſuſteined and borne, araiment to enter into ſuch ſeruice. And if anie aboue the age of twelue yeeres, and vnder the age of ſixteene yeeres refuſe ſuch ſeruice, or depart from the ſame without cauſe reaſonable, then they to be arreſted and apprehended by anie of the ſaid officers, and to be brought before the maior, aldermen, iuſtices of the peace, bailifs, gouernors,conſtables,or other officers and miniſters of that limit or circuit,where they be taken: and if it ſhall appeare by his or their confeſſion, or other ſufficient teſtimonie before the ſame officers and miniſters, that he or they haue refuſed to ſerue, or haue departed from their ſeruice without cauſe reaſonable, he ſhall then in the pariſh where he was apprehended, be openlie whipped with rods by the diſcretion of the ſaid gouernors, or bailifs, and thereupon to be ſent againe vnto his ſeruice: and ſo to be ſerued as often as he ſhall be apprehended and conuicted in forme aforeſaid. And if anie perſon or perſons refuſe to execute, and doo the ſaid puniſhment at the commandement of anie of the ſaid gouernors,aldermen,iuſtices of peace,and other the ſaid officers and miniſters: then he or they ſo refuſing the ſame,ſhall be ſet in the ſtocks by the ſpace of two daies, without hauing of anie other ſuſtenance,ſauing onelie bread and water.

Serch

Item it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that all and euerie the aforeſaid maiors, gouernors, aldermen, and euerie the iuſtices of the peace, as well within liberties as without, ſhall once in euerie moneth or oftner if need ſhall require,command a priuie or ſecret ſearch to be made within euerie citie and ward,towne,hundred,pariſh,and hamlet,of this realme,in ſuch time of the night and daie,as they ſhall thinke conuenient,to the intent that all ruffelers,ſturdie vagabonds, and valiant beggers,and other ſuſpected perſons,maie be by ſuch meanes apprehended, taken,and ordered,according to the purport and meaning of this preſent act, and otherwiſe to be vſed according to the lawes of this realme. And that all and euerie perſon and perſons obeie, aid, aſſiſt, and mainteine from time to time,all and euerie the commandements of the ſaid iuſtices of peace,and other head officers aforeſaid, for and concerning the making of all the ſaid ſearches, and the apprehending of all and euerie the ſuſpect perſons aforeſaid, vpon paine to make fine for not dooing the ſame,at the next quarter ſeſſions,as it ſhall be thought by the diſcretion of the maiors,gouernors, aldermen,and iuſtices of peace.

Item it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons at anie time after the Parſons.

Almes.

Item,it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that euerie preacher,parſon,vicar, curat of this realme,as well in all and euerie their ſermons,collations,biddings of the beads, as in time of all confeſſions, and at the making of the wils or teſtaments of anie perſons at all times of the yeere, ſhall exhort, moue,ſtir & prouoke people to be liberall,& bountifullie to extend their good and charitable almes and contributions from time to time,for and toward the comfort and releefe of the ſaid poore, impotent, decrepit, indigent and needie people, as for the ſetting and keeping to continuall worke and labor of the foreſaid ruflars,ſturdie vagabonds,& valiant beggers in euerie citie,ward, towne,hundred and pariſh of this realme,as well within liberties as without.

Vagabonds Whipped.

Eare cut off.

Conſtable.

Forf.

Item,it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that if anie of the aforeſaid ruflars,ſturdie vagabonds and valiant beggers,after ſuch time as they haue bin once apprehended,taken, whipped, and ſent vnto anie citie,ward,towne,hundred or pariſh,by anie iuſtice of peace, maior, conſtable, bailife,or anie other the kings officers & miniſters,happen to wander,loiter,or idelie to vſe themſelues and plaie the vagabonds, and willinglie abſent themſelues from ſuch labor and occaſion, as he or they ſhalbe appointed vnto within anie citie,ward,towne,hamlet,hundred,or pariſh whereunto he or they haue bin appointed in maner & forme aforeſaid,that then he or they being eftſoons apprehended & taken of ſuſpicious of idleneſſe in anie priuie ſearches aforeſaid or otherwiſe, ſhalbe brought before the next iuſtice of peace,& vpon due examinations and proofe of the continuance of his ſaid loitering,wandring in idleneſſe or vagaboncie, ſhalbe eftſoons not onlie whipped againe & ſent into the citie ward,towne,hundred or pariſh wherunto he was firſt appointed, but alſo ſhall haue the vpper part of the griſtle of his right eare cleane cut off, ſo as it maie appeere for a perpetuall token after that time,that he hath bin a contemner of the good order of the commonwealth, & that euerie conſtable of the pariſh, with the aſſiſtance of the moſt ſubſtantiall of euerie ſuch pariſh where anie ſuch ruflar or vagabond ſhall happen thus to be taken,ſhall doo or cauſe to be doone this preſent execution,as well in whipping as in cutting off the ſaid vpper griſtle of the eare of euerie ſuch ruflar or ſturdie vagabond or valiant begger,vpon paine to looſe & forfeit fiue marks for euerie time that he ſhall refuſe to doo or cauſe to be doone the ſame execution, and all & ſingular the inhabitants of the ſaid citie,ward,towne,hundred or pariſh,ſhall aſſiſt & aid the ſaid conſtables in execution of the premiſſes to the beſt of their power with good diligence, & without contradiction,vpon paine aforeſaid.

Vagabond.

Indictment.

Felonie.

Item,it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie ruflar or ſturdie vagabond, or valiant begger,not hauing the vpper part of the right eare,and being cut off,as is aforſaid, happen to be apprehended and taken in,or at anie priuie ſearch, as aforeſaid, at anie other time wandring in idleneſſe,in or without anie citie,ward,towne,pariſh or hamlet within this realme, wherunto he or they haue bin aſſigned & dulie prooued before anie iuſtice of peace, that he or they haunt idleneſſe,and hath not applied,nor dooth not applie ſuch labors as he or they haue bin aſſigned vnto, or be not in ſeruice with anie maiſter, that then he or they ſo taken, marked, and hauing the vpper part of the right eare cut off,as is aforeſaid,ſhalbe by any of the ſaid iuſtices of peace ſent vnto the next gaole, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe vntill the next quarter ſeſſions, & there to be indicted of wandring,loitring & idleneſſe,& ſhalbe arreigned of the ſame. And if he or they ſhall happen to be found giltie by verdict, confeſſion or otherwiſe, of,for,& vpon the ſame continuall loitring & idleneſſe,then euerie ſuch ſturdie vagabond,& valiant begger ſo found giltie & condemned, ſhall haue iudgement to ſuffer paines & execution of death,as a felon & as enimies of the common wealth,& to looſe & forfeit all their lands & goods as felons doo in all other cauſes within this realme.

Knight marſhall.

Doles.

Item,it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that the knight marſhall for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this preſent act,to ſearch,doo,and put in due and plaine execution,all and euerie the contents as well of the foreſaid former act, as of this preſent act, and of and vpon all ſuch ruflars, ſturdie vagabonds, and valiant beggers men and women, as in anie wiſe ſhall frequent,haunt or loiter,maiſterleſſe and out of ſeruice,in and about the court wheresoeuer the kings highneſſe chance to be reſiant with his moſt honorable houſhold,in anie place of this realme. And for the auoiding of all ſuch inconueniences and infections as oftentimes haue & dailie doo chance among the people by common & open doles, & that moſt commonlie vnto ſuch doles manie perſons doo reſort which haue no need of the ſame. It is therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons ſhall make or cauſe to be made anie ſuch common or open dole,or ſhall giue anie readie monie in almes,otherwiſe than to the common boxes and common gatherings in euerie citie,towne,hundred,pariſh and hamlet, to and for the putting in plaine and due execution of all and euerie the good and vertuous intents and purpoſes conteined in this preſent act, vpon paine to looſe and forfeit ten times the value of all ſuch readie monie as ſhall be giuen in almes, contrarie to the tenor and purport of the ſame. And that euerie perſon & perſons of this realme,bodies politike,corporat and others, that be bound or charged yeerelie, monthlie or weeklie,to giue or to diſtribute any readie monie,bread, vittell or other ſuſtentation to poore people in any place within this relme, ſhall from the feaſt of Michelmas next comming,giue & diſtribute the ſame monie, or the value of all ſuch bread, vittell, or ſuſtentation vnto ſuch common boxes, to the intent the ſame maie be imploied towards the releeuing of the ſaid poore, needie, ſicke, ſore and indigent perſons, and alſo towards ſetting in worke of the ſaid ſturdie and idle vagabonds and valiant beggers, and euerie of the ſaid perſon and perſons, bodies politike, corporat, and others, ſhalbe cleerlie diſcharged againſt all and euerie other perſon and perſons, of, and for all maner of bonds or grants whatſoeuer they be, for making of anie of the ſame common doles, or others the foreſaid diſtributions at anie time of the yeere, ſo as the monie and true value of the ſame be giuen vnto the boxes towards the common almes and releefe of the poore people in forme aforeſaid.

Church-wardens.

And to the intent that the monie gathered toward the releefe of pouertie as is abouesaid, ſhall be imploied and conuerted to ſuch charitable vſes and behoofs, as by this preſent act is limited, and no part thereof to be miſuſed by ſuch as ſhall haue the collection thereof. It is therefore ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the churchwardens of euerie pariſh calling vnto them ſix or foure of their honeſt neighbors, ſhall haue full power & authoritie euerie quarter of the yeere, or oftner by their diſcretions, to command euerie ſuch collector to appeere before them, & to render and yeeld account of all ſums of monie as by them ſhall be gathered, and how and in what maner it was imploied. And if vpon anie account it ſhall be ſeene, perceiued or found, that anie ſuch collector hath not conuerted nor imploied the monie by him gathered to ſuch vſes and intents as be limited by this act, or to haue imbezelled anie part thereof, that then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall be attached and apprehended by them before whome he ſo ſhall make account, and ſhall immediatlie be brought before a iuſticer of peace, if it be in anie ſhire, or before the maior or bailife, if it be in citie, borough or towne corporat, which iuſticer, maior or bailiffe ſhall cauſe euerie ſuch offendor to be committed to ward and priſon, there to remaine vnto ſuch time as he ſhall haue fullie reſtored and paid to the collectors of the ſaid almes within the pariſh where he ſo offended, all ſuch ſums of monie as by him ſhall ſo be imbezelled, conuerted or imploied to other vſes or intents than by this act be limited, and alſo till he ſhall haue paid ſix ſhillings and eight penſe for a penaltie, to be conuerted, imploied and diſtributed to the vſes and intents ſpecified and declared in this act.

Booke for reckoning.

And it is ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the parſon, vicar or pariſh preeſt, or ſome other honeſt man of euerie pariſh of this realme, without taking or demanding anie thing for the ſame, ſhall keepe a booke of reckoning, and therein ſhall enter, write and make mention from time to time in one place or part of the booke, as well of all and euerie ſuch ſums of monie as ſhall be gathered by the charitable almes of the inhabitants of euerie of the ſame pariſhes, as to make mention in one other place of the ſame booke, how, vpon whome, and in what wiſe anie part of the ſame monie ſhalbe ſpent. And ſo from yeere to yeere, from one yeere to another yeere, he ſhall keepe a new booke, the booke to be bought & paied for by the conſtable and churchwardens for the time being, of the common collections, and alwaies ſhall remaine in the cuſtodie of two or three of them, or of ſome other indifferent man, by their conſents, and not with the parſon, vicar, or pariſh preeſt.

Almes.

Item, it is ordered by the ſaid authoritie, that two or three times in euerie weeke, two or three of euerie pariſh within cities and towns corporat, by the aſſignment and appointment of the maior, aldermen, gouernor, bailife or conſtable, ſoms in one weeke, & ſome an other weeke, ſhall name and appoint certeine of the ſaid poore people found of the common almes, to collect and gather broken meats and fragments, and the reffuſe drinke of euerie houſholder within euerie ſuch pariſh, which ſhall be by their diſcretions diſtributed euenlie among the poore people found of the ſaid common almes, as they by their diſcretions ſhall thinke good.

Wages.

Item, it is ordered by the ſaid authoritie, that all & euerie bailife, conſtable, churchwardens or others the collectors of the ſaid almes, which ſhall at anie time forbeare their owne buſineſſe & labor, and ſhall trauell or take anie pains, in, and about the execution of any part of this preſent act, ſhall haue and take for his or their ſo dooing, ſuch competent wages of the monie of the ſaid common collections, as by the diſcretion of the maior, aldermen, gouernor, bailife or iuſtices of peace, and others of the pariſh ſhall be thought good and reaſonable, which ſhall be appointed vnto them from time to time, alwaies at the making of their accounts before the whole pariſh aforeſaid.

Collections

Item, the monie of all and euerie the foreſaid free and charitable collections ſhall be kept in the common coffer or box ſtanding in the church of euerie pariſh, or elſe ſhalbe committed vnto the hands and ſafe cuſtodie of anie other ſuch good and ſubſtantiall truſtie man, as they can agree vpon, where they ſhall thinke it alwaies ſure and ſafe, and where it maie be ſurelie deliuered vnto the vſes before expreſſed from time to time as neceſſitie ſhall require, making alwaies mention thereof in two ſeuerall places of the ſaid booke, as it is before declared, as oftentimes as anie part thereof ſhall be ſpent or gathered.

Item, it is ordered by the ſaid authoritie, that the inhabitants of euerie pariſh of this realme, ſhall begin to make the foreſaid free, charitable & godlie collections, and gatherings in euerie ſundaie and holie daie next after the daie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, and ſo ſhall continue yeerelie vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement. And euerie pariſh making default, and not putting all and euerie the premiſſes in due and perfect execution according to their power, behauiors, and diſcretions, ſhall looſe and forfeit twentie ſhillings for euerie moneth in which it is omitted and vndoone. And all iuſtices of peace in euerie countie and libertie of this realme, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this preſent act, to inquire, heare, order and determine all and euerie the premiſſes, in maner and forme to all intents as it is before declared.

Finallie it is ordeined,enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid,that this preſent act ſhall begin to take effect, and to be put in execution with the foreſaid former act the morrow after the daie of S.Michaell the archangell next comming,& ſhall continue vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement And that the one moitie of all & euerie the forfeitures aforeſaid,ſhall be to the vſe of the common box,to the releefe of the poore,decrepit,ſicke & indigent & impotent people, being within anie citie,towne,hundred or pariſh where any ſuch offenſe is committed,& the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by bill, action of debt,plaint or otherwiſe, in any court of record,or court baron of this realme,in which action no wager of law,eſſoine or protection ſhalbe allowed.

Prouided alwaies,that this preſent act ſhall not be hurtfull or preiudiciall vnto anie perſon or perſons for giuing or ſending of anie readie monie,or of anie fragments or broken meat or drinke vnto anie perſon or perſons inhabited within the pariſh where he dwelleth, or to anie perſons, but that they and euerie of them,of their charitie,maie vſe,ſend,order,giue and diſpoſe the ſame to anie perſon or perſons aforeſaid,as they will themſelues, either within their owne houſes or elſwhere, anie thing conteined in this preſent act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid,that they which by the authoritie of this act, ſhall cauſe the eares of anie offendor to be cut off,in forme before mentioned, ſhall certifie in writing indented vnder their ſeales at the next generall ſeſſions of the peace that ſhalbe kept in anie citie, towne, borough or ſhire, vnto the clerke of the peace of the ſame citie, towne or ſhire, the names of all ſuch as ſhall fortune to haue their eares cut off for the cauſes beforeſaid, & of the time and place of dooing of the ſame. And if they faile and make default this to doo by the ſpace of one month,that then they ſhall forfeit for euerie month ſo offending,fortie ſhillings.

Churchwarden.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that no churchwarden, collector or collectors of anie of the foreſaid charitable almes, ſhall continue in his or their ſaid offices and roomes aboue the ſpace of an whole yeere.And that in all cities,boroughs,townes,& pariſhes of this relme, the ouerplus of all and all maner of collectors of the rich and wealthie pariſhes within anie of the ſame cities,boroughs,townes,hundreds,laths rapes and wapentakes from time to time, ſhall be ordered and diſtributed for, & towards the ſuſtentation of the charges of other poore pariſhes neere and within anie of the ſame cities,boroughs,townes,hundreds,laths, rapes and wapentakes, by the diſcretion from time to time of the maior, aldermen, bailifs, gouernors, iuſtices of peace, and high conſtable of the ſame.

Prouided alwaies,that in ſuch cities,townes,hundreds,wapentakes,laths,rapes,ridings,tithings,hamlets and pariſhes,where the voluntarie and vnconſtreined almes and charitie of the pariſhioners or people,which by this act ſhall be contributorie to ſuch almes, and with ſuch monie as ſhalbe added and giuen to the ſame from anie monaſteries or other perſons,bodies politike,corporat or other,will not ſuffice to the ſuſtentation of the poore,needie, and indigent people,being within the limits of ſuch contribution,neither the maiors,aldermen,ſhirifs,bailifs, conſtables, or other head officers, houſholders, miniſters or inhabitants of the ſame in particular,ne alſo the whole of them in generall, ſhall incur or run into the ſaid forfeiture, danger or penaltie of xx s. for euerie month,ne anie of them to be conſtreined to anie ſuch certeine contribution, but as their free wils and charities ſhall extend,otherwiſe than that the perſons therevnto appointed by this act ſhall well and trulie diſtribute according to the purport of the ſame, the ſaid charitie & almes that ſhall come to their hands of voluntarie gift vpon the penalties in this act for the ſame prouided : anie clauſe, ſentence or words in the ſame act being or founden to the contrarie heereof notwithſtanding.

Noble men.

Prouided alſo,it ſhalbe lawfull to all noble men and other keeping houſes, their amners, ſeruants,officers & miniſters, to giue in almes the fragments or broken meat or drinke of the ſame, as well to poore and indigent people of other pariſhes, as of the ſame pariſhes where ſuch houſe is kept,any thing in this act or in anie prouiſion of the ſame to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Seruing men.

Prouided furthermore,that ſeruing men departing from their ſeruice by licence,will,death or excluſion of their lord,ladie,maiſter or miſtreſſe,hauing of the ſame their lord,ladie,maiſter or miſtreſſe letters,or in caſe of their death other ſufficient proofe,teſtifieng the daie of their excluſion or departure from ſuch ſeruice,ſhall not incur or run into anie of the puniſhments or penalties compriſed in this act for vagabonds or ſturdie beggers within the ſpace of one month after the daie mentioned in the ſaid letters, or appeering by the ſaid teſtimonie to be the daie of their departure from ſuch ſeruices,ne alſo at or after the ſame month expired,ſo that by the end of ſuch month they ſhall haue entered into anie ſeruice, or be otherwiſe in labor according to the forme and tenor of this act.

Friers.

Prouided alſo,that in as much as friers mendicants haue litle or nothing to liue vpon,but onlie by the charitie and almes of chriſtian people : this act therefore,ne anie thing therein conteined, ſhall be preiudiciall or hurtfull vnto anie perſon or perſons for giuing of them in generall or particular,anie maner almes in monie,vittell or other thing, ne alſo to them or anie of them for being or remaining out of the places where they were borne or had their laſt habitation, or for paſſing abrode,to gather the almes and charitie of chriſtian people,or for continuance in their religion as they haue bin accuſtomed to doo:this act or any thing therin mentioned to yͤ contrarie notwithſtanding.

Clergie.

Prouided alſo,that this act ne any thing therin mentioned,be hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie abbats,priors or other perſon or perſons of the clergie or other, that by any meanes be bound to giue yeerlie,weeklie or dailie alms in monie,vittell,lodging,clothing or other thing in any monaſteries,

An act for lawes and iuſtice to be miniſtred in Wales,in like forme as it is in this realme.

Chap.27.

Union of England and Wales.

Tenor.

Albeit the dominion, principalitie and countrie of Wales iuſtlie and righteouſlie is, and euer hath bin incorporated,annexed, vnited,& ſubiect to,and vnder the temporall crowne of this realme,as a verie member and ioint of the ſame: whereof the kings moſt roiall maieſtie of méere droit and verie right,is verie head, king, lord and ruler. Yet notwithwithſtanding bicauſe that in the ſame countrie,principalitie,and dominion,diuers rights, vſages, lawes and cuſtoms,be far diſcrepant from the lawes and cuſtoms of this realme, and alſo bicauſe that the people of the ſame dominion,haue,and doo dailie vſe a ſpéech nothing like ne conſonant to the naturall mother tong vſed within this realme,ſome rude and ignorant people haue made diſtinction and diuerſitie betwéene the kings ſubiects of this realme,& his ſubiects of the ſaid dominion and principalitie of Wales,wherby great diſcord,variance,debate, diuiſion, murmur and ſedition hath growen betwéene his ſaid ſubiects. His highneſſe therfore of a ſingular zeale,loue and fauor that he beareth towards his ſubiects of the ſaid domination of Wales,minding and intending to reduce them to the perfect order,notice and knowledge of his lawes of this his realme,& vtterlie to extirpe all and ſingular the ſiniſter vſages and cuſtoms differing from the ſame,and to bring his ſaid ſubiects of this his relme, and of his ſaid dominion of Wales to an amiable concord and vnitie,hath by deliberat aduiſe,conſent and agréement of the lords ſpirituall & temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame, ordeined,enacted and eſtabliſhed that his ſaid countrie or dominion of Wales ſhall be,ſtand and continue for euer from henſeforth incorporated,vnited and annexed to and with this his realme of England. And that all and ſingular perſon and perſons borne,and to be borne in the ſaid principalitie, countrie or dominion of Wales,ſhall haue,inioy,and inherit all and ſingular fréedoms,liberties,rights,priuileges and lawes within this realme & other the kings dominions, as other the kings ſubiects naturallie borne within the ſame,haue,inioy and inherit. And that all and ſingular perſon & perſons inheritable to anie manors,lands,tenements,reuerſions,ſeruices or other hereditaments, which ſhall deſcend after the feaſt of All ſaints next comming,within the ſaid principalitie,countrie or dominion of Wales, or within anie particular lordſhip, part or parcell of the ſaid countrie or dominion of Wales,ſhall for euer from and after the ſaid feaſt of All ſaints,inherit & be inheritable to the ſame manors,lands,tenements,rents,reuerſions & hereditaments after the Engliſh tenor, without diuiſion or partition,& after the forme of the lawes of this realme of England, and not after anie tenure,ne after the forme of anie Welſh lawes or cuſtoms. And that the lawes,ordinances,and ſtatutes of this realme of England for euer,& none other lawes,ordinances ne ſtatutes from and after the ſaid feaſt of All ſaints next comming, ſhalbe had, vſed,practiſed & executed in the ſaid countrie or dominion of Wales and euerie part therof,in like maner, forme and order as they bin and ſhall be had,vſed,practiſed and executed in this realme, and in ſuch like maner and forme,as héreafter by this act ſhall be further eſtabliſhed and ordeined: anie act,ſtatute,vſage,cuſtom,preſident, libertie,priuilege or other thing,had,made,vſed, granted or ſuffered, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And that the knights & burgeſſes and euerie of them ſhall haue like dignitie, preheminence & priuilege, & ſhalbe allowed ſuch fées as other knights of the parlement haue & be allowed, and the knights fées to be leuied & gathered of the commons of the ſhire that they be elected in, and the burgeſſes fées to be leuied and gathered as well of the boroughs and ſhire townes as they be burgeſſes of, as of all other ancient boroughs within the ſame ſhire.

L. marchers

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie laie & temporall perſon and perſons now being lords marchers, & hauing anie lordſhips marchers, or lordſhips roiall, ſhall from & after the ſaid feaſt of All ſaints, haue all ſuch miſes and profits of their tenants, as they haue had or vſed to haue at the firſt entrée into their lands in times paſt, and alſo haue holden and kept within the precinct of their lordſhips, courts baron, courts léets and lawdais, and all & euerie thing to the ſame courts belonging. And alſo ſhall haue within the precinct of their ſaid lordſhips or lawdaie, waiſe, ſtraiſe, infangthéefe, outfangthéefe, treaſure troues, deodands, goods and chattels of felons, & of perſons condemned or outlawed of felonie or murder, put in exigent for felonie or murder, and alſo wreke de mer, wharfage and cuſtoms of ſtrangers, as they haue had in times paſt, and as though ſuch priuileges were granted vnto them by our ſouereigne lord the king by point of charter: anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Northwales
Lancaſter

Prouided alwaie that this preſent act, nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall take awaie or derogat anie lawes, vſages or laudable cuſtoms now vſed within the thrée ſhires of Northwales, nor ſhall not depriue nor take awaie the whole liberties of the duchie of Lancaſter, but that the ſaid liberties ſhall continue and be vſed in euerie lordſhip, parcell of the ſaid duchie within the dominion or countrie of Wales, as the liberties of the ſaid duchie be vſed in ſhire ground, and not countie palantine within this realme of England.

Prouided alſo that this act nor anie thing therin conteined, doo not extend nor be preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons to auoid anie patent, ioint patent of anie office, fées, annuities or reuerſion of any office, fées or annuities to them granted for terme of their life or liues by our ſouereigne lord the king, or by anie other perſon or perſons, either for the vſing, exerciſing or occupieng of anie maner office or otherwiſe, but that they ſhall haue and inioy their ſaid fées, and all other offices of conſtableſhips, proctorſhips, ſtewardſhips of léets, lawdaies, court barons and other offices being not repugnant againſt this act. And in caſe anie ſuch offices be repugnant againſt this act, that then the grantées to haue and inioy their fées during their life or liues, anie article or clauſe in this preſent act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Worceſter

Prouided alſo that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall to the right honorable Henrie erle of Worceſter, for the exerciſing, vſing and occupieng of the office of the iuſtice of the whole countie of Glamorgan, anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Trials

Prouided alſo that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, extend not to depriue, take awaie or derogat anie other acts before this time made for the triall of treaſon, murder, of felonies or acceſſaries of the ſame, committed and doone in any lordſhip marcher in Wales, or in the next ſhires of England adioining to the ſaid lordſhip marcher.

Prouided alwaie, that lands, tenements and hereditaments lieng in the ſaid countrie & dominion of Wales, which haue béene vſed time out of mind by the laudable cuſtoms of the ſaid countrie, to be departed and departible amongſt iſſues and heirs males, ſhall ſtill ſo continue and be vſed in like forme, faſhion and condition, as if this act had neuer béene had nor made, anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Suſpend
Abrogat

Proclamation

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings highneſſe, notwithſtanding this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall haue power and authoritie for the terme of thrée yéers next after the end and diſſolution of this preſent parlement to ſuſpend for ſuch time as ſhall pleaſe his grace, or vtterlie to repeale, reuoke and abrogat this whole act, or anie part thereof from time to time, as ſhall ſtand with his moſt gratious pleaſure, ſo that euerie ſuch ſuſpending repeale and reuocation from time to time as often as anie ſuch caſe ſhall happen, ſhall be made in writing vnder the great ſeale of England, and be annexed to the roll of this preſent parlement, wherein this act ſhall be inrolled, and proclamations therevpon to be made in euerie ſhire within the ſaid countrie and dominion of Wales. And that euerie ſuch ſuſpending, repeale and reuocation ſo to be had and made by the kings highneſſe, ſhall be as good and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame had béene doone by the authoritie of this preſent parlement: this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Chancerie
Excheker

Courts

And where by this preſent act there is appointed one chancerie and one excheker at Brecknocke, and an other chancerie & excheker at Denbigh, it is enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings highnes from time to time within the terme of fiue yéers next after the end of this parlement, for due miniſtration of iuſtice in the ſaid countrie of Wales, ſhall haue power and authoritie to erect, make and ordeine ſuch court or courts, and ſo manie courts of record, and ſuch and ſo manie iuſtices, miniſters, officers and clerks, as by his highneſſe within the time of fiue yéeres next after the end of this preſent parlement ſhall be thought ſufficient and conuenient, as well for the due execution of this act, or of anie thing or things that ſhall be had, doone, or made by authoritie of the ſame, as for the good gouernance and rule of the ſaid countrie of Wales.

Prouided alwaie, that this act or anie thing or things to be doone by the authoritie therof, ſhall not be preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons which now haue by the kings letters patents anie office or offices of protonotarie or clerke of the crowne in the ſaid countrie and dominion of Wales, but that they and euerie of them ſhall and maie ſtill haue and vſe their offices, in as large & ample maner, forme, faſhion and condition, as if this act or anie thing to be doone by authoritie therof had neuer béene had or made: anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Officers.

Prouided alſo, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, extend not or in anie wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to ſir Walter Deuireux knight of the noble order of the garter, and lord Ferrers of Chartleie, of, for and concerning the offices of chéefe iuſtice of Southwales, the office of chamberlen of Southwales, and of the counties of Carmarthen and Cardigan in Southwales aforeſaid, and of and for the office of the ſtewardſhip of the lordſhip of Bealth in the marches of Southwales, and of and for the office of receiuorſhip of the ſaid lordſhip of Bealth, or of, for, or concerning anie of the ſaid offices, but that the ſaid lord Ferrers maie haue, vſe, exerciſe and inioy the ſaid offices and euerie of them, with all fées, wages, emoluments, commodities and profits to the ſame offices or to anie of them in anie wiſe belonging and apperteining, in as large and ample maner, forme and condition, as if this act had neuer béene had or made.

An act eſtabliſhing the court of augmentations.

Chap.27.

FOraſmuch as in this preſent parlement begun at London the third daie of Nouember, in the one and twentith yéere of the reigne of the king our ſoueraigne lord, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter and there holden, and from that time continued by diuers prorogations, vnto the fourth daie of Februarie, in the ſeuen & twentith yéere of his moſt noble reigne, and then and there holden. It is enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the kings maieſtie, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that his maieſtie ſhould haue and inioy to him, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, all and ſingular ſuch monaſteries, priories, and other religious houſes of monks, canons, and nuns, of what kinds or diuerſities of habits, rules or orders ſoeuer they be called or named, which haue not in lands, tenements, rents, tithes, penſions & other hereditaments aboue the cléere yéerelie value of two hundred pounds, and all the ſites and circuits of all ſuch religious houſes, and all and ſingular the manors, granges, meaſes, lands, tenements, reuerſions, rents, ſeruices, tithes, penſions, portions, aduowſons, patronages, rights, entrées, conditions and other hereditaments apperteining and belonging to euerie ſuch monaſterie, priorie and other religious houſe, not hauing as is aforeſaid, lands and tenements aboue the ſaid cléere yéerelie value of two hundred pounds, in as large and ample maner, as the abbats, priors, abbeſſes, prioreſſes, and other gouernors of ſuch monaſteries, priories and other religious houſes then had or ought to haue had the ſame in the right of their houſes. And that his highneſſe ſhall haue to him and to his heires, all and ſingular ſuch monaſteries, abbies and priories which at anie time within one yéere, next afore the making of the ſaid act, haue béene giuen and granted to his maieſtie by anie abbat, prior, abbeſſe or prioreſſe, vnder their conuent ſeales, or that otherwiſe haue béene ſuppreſſed or diſſolued, and all and ſingular the manors, lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices, reuerſions, tithes, penſions, portions, churches, chapels, aduowſons, patronages, rights, entrées, conditions, & all other intereſts and hereditaments, to the ſame monaſteries, abbies or priories, or to anie of them apperteining or belonging, to doo and vſe therewith his and their owne wils, to the pleaſure of almightie God, and to the honor and profit of this realme.

And further it is ordeined by the ſaid act, that the kings maieſtie ſhould haue and inioy all ſuch ornaments, iewels, goods, chattels and debts which apperteined or belonged to anie of the chéefe gouernors of the ſaid monaſteries or religious houſes, in the right of their ſaid monaſteries or houſes, at the firſt daie of March in the yéere of our Lord God 1535, or at anie time ſithens whereſoeuer, and to whoſe poſſeſſions ſoeuer they ſhall come or be found, except ſuch goods, chattels and other things excepted and forepriſed in the ſaid act, as by the ſame act among other things more plainlie at large maie appéere.

For the more ſuretie, and eſtabliſhment whereof, and to the intent that the kings maieſtie, his heirs and ſucceſſors ſhalbe yéerlie as well trulie & iuſtlie anſwered, contented & paied of the rents, farmes, iſſues, reuenues and profits, riſing, comming and growing of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and other hereditaments before ſpecified, as of the goods, chattels, plate, ſtuffe of houſhold, debts, monie, ſtocke, ſtore, and other whatſoeuer profit and commoditie, giuen, granted or appointed to the kings maieſtie by the ſame, in ſuch court, place, forme, maner & condition, as héerafter ſhalbe limited, declared & appointed. Be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the kings maieſtie, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, in maner and forme as héerafter followeth in articles, that is to ſaie.

Firſt, the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord by the authoritie aforſaid, ordeineth, maketh, eſtabliſheth & erecteth a certeine court, commonlie to be called the court of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne, which court by the authoritie aforeſaid, continuallie ſhalbe a court of record,

Court of augmentations.

Seale. and ſhall haue one great ſeale and one priuie ſeale to be ingraued and made after ſuch forme, faſhion and maner as ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, and ſhall remaine and be ordered, as heereafter ſhall be declared.

Chancellor. Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be one certeine perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhalbe chancellor of the ſaid court, and ſhalbe cheefe and principall officer of the ſame court, and ſhall be called chancellor of the court of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne, and ſhall haue the keeping of the ſaid great ſeale and priuie ſeale to be aſſigned for the ſaid court.

Treaſuror. Alſo that there ſhall be one perſon to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the kings treaſuror of the court of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne, and ſhall be the ſecond officer of the ſame court.

K. atturnie. Alſo it is ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhalbe one perſon learned in the lawes of the land, to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the kings atturnie of the ſaid court, and ſhall be the third officer of the ſame court.

K. ſollicitor. Alſo that there ſhall be one perſon to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the kings ſollicitor of the ſaid court, and ſhall be the fourth officer of the ſame court.

Auditors. Alſo that there ſhall be ten particular auditors to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called auditors of the reuenues of the ſaid augmentations.

Receiuers. Alſo there ſhall be ſeuenteene particular receiuers to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called receiuers of the ſaid reuenues.

Clerke. Vſher. Meſſenger. Alſo that there ſhall be one perſon to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called clerke of the ſaid court, and one other perſon which ſhall be vſher of the ſame court, and one other perſon which ſhall be called meſſenger of the ſame court, which vſher and meſſenger ſhalbe named by the kings highneſſe, and either of them ſhall haue ſuch yeerlie fees, rewards and profits, as the vſher and meſſenger of the duchie chamber of Weſtminſter haue and perceiue.

Chancellors oth. Alſo the ſaid chancellor which ſhalbe appointed by the kings highneſſe, ſhall take a corporall oth afore the lord chancellor of England for the time being, after the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that ye well & trulie ſhall ſerue the king in the office of chancellorſhip of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne, & ſhall miniſter equall iuſtice to rich & poore, to the beſt of your cunning, wit and power, & that ye ſhall diligentlie procure all things which maie honeſtlie & iuſtlie be to the kings aduantage & profit, & to the augmentation of the rights & prerogatiues of his crowne, and trulie vſe the kings ſeales appointed to your office, and alſo indeuor your ſelfe to the vttermoſt of your power to ſee the king trulie anſwered of all ſuch rents, reuenues, iſſues and profits, which ſhall or maie ariſe or grow in your office, & from time to time deliuer with ſpeed ſuch as ſhall haue to doo afore you, & that ye ſhall not take nor receiue of anie perſon anie gift or reward in any cauſe or matter depending before you, or wherin the kings highnes ſhalbe partie, whereby any preiudice, hinderance, loſſe or diſheriſon ſhall grow or be to the kings highnes, ſo helpe you God & all ſaints.

Treaſurors oth. Alſo that the ſaid treaſuror ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor of the ſaid court, according to the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that ye ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king our ſoueraigne lord and his people in the office of treaſuror of this court, and ye ſhall reaſonablie and honeſtlie procure the kings profit, and doo right to all maner of people, poore and rich, in thoſe things which touch your office, and the kings treaſure ye ſhall trulie keepe and diſpend, and true declaration and account thereof ſhall make from time to time without anie concealment, according to this act made for the ſtabliſhment of this court, and further ſhall doo euerie thing that of right apperteine to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Atturnies oth. Alſo either of the ſaid atturnie and ſollicitor ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor according to the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that ye well and trulie ſhall ſerue the king as his atturnie in all courts, for and concerning anie matter or cauſe that ſhall concerne or touch the poſſeſſions and hereditaments limited to the ſurueie and gouernance of this court, and procure the kings profit therof, and that ye ſhall trulie counſell the king and his chancellor of this court in all things concerning the ſame, to the beſt of your cunning, wit & power, & with all ſpeed and diligence from time to time at the calling of the ſaid chancellor, ye ſhall indeuor your ſelfe for the hearing & determination indifferentlie of ſuch matters & cauſes as ſhal depend before the ſaid chancellor, and that ye ſhall not take any gift or reward in anie matter or cauſe depending in y^e^ ſame court or elſwhere, wherin the king ſhalbe partie, whereby the kings maieſtie ſhalbe hurted, hindered or diſherited, & further doo all & euerie thing that ſhall apperteine to your office, ſo helpe you God & all ſaints.

Auditors oth. Alſo that euerie of the ſaid auditors ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor, after the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that ye ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king in your office, and true allowance make to euerie perſon which ſhalbe accountant before you, ye ſhall not take nor receiue of poore or rich, anie gift or reward in anie matter or cauſe depending or to be diſcuſſed in the ſame court, but ſuch that ſhalbe your ordinarie fees, and ye ſhall doo all and euerie other thing which ſhall apperteine to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Receiuers oth. And that euerie of the ſaid particular receiuers ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor after the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that ye ſhall trulie ſerue the king in your office, and nothing conceale, but true account make of all ſuch reuenues, rents, ſums of monie & other profits wherewith ye ſhalbe lawfullie charged by reaſon of your office, ye ſhall make no petition, nor aſke allowance,but ſuch as ſhall be good,iuſt and true,and reaſonable, and ye ſhall doo all & euerie thing and things, which ye ought to doo by reaſon of your office, according to the forme and effect of this act,ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Alſo that the ſaid clerke of the counſell ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor after the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that ye ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king in your office of clerke of the counſell of this court,and trulie doo and execute all and euerie thing and things,which ye ought to doo by reaſon of your office, according to the forme & effect of this act, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Clerks oth.

Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that all the ſaid monaſteries,priories and other religious houſes,which be diſſolued,and come,or ſhall come to the kings highnes,by the act aforeſaid, and all the manors,meſes,lands,tenements,rents,ſeruices,tithes,penſions,portions, aduouſons, patronages, & all hereditaments apperteining or belonging to anie the ſaid monaſteries,priories, or other religions houſes,ſhalbe in the order,ſuruеie & gouernance of the ſaid court, and of the officers and miniſters thereof: and all the farmes,iſſues,reuenues and profits comming and growing of the premiſſes, or anie part thereof, ſhalbe taken and receiued to the kings vſe, by the miniſters and officers of the ſame court,in maner and forme as heereafter ſhalbe declared. Except alwaies and reſerued,ſuch and as manie of the ſame monaſteries,priories and houſes,with all their hereditaments,poſſeſſions, goods and chattels,which the kings maieſtie, by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale,ſhall declare and limit to continue & be in their eſſentiall eſtate,and to perſeuere in the bodie and corporation,as they were before the making of the ſaid act.

Lands.

Suruеie.

Alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all thoſe manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments,which the kings highneſſe hath purchaſed,and now remaine in his graces hands,or in the hands or poſſeſſion of anie perſon or perſons to his vſe,and which heereafter his highneſſe ſhall purchaſe,ſhall be and remaine in the order, ſuruеie and gouernance of the ſaid court, in forme as is aboue rehearſed.

Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all gifts,grants,releaſes,confirmations,leaſes,letters patents,and other writings,which ſhalbe in the name of the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors,of anie eſtate of freehold onelie,or anie for terme of yeers,or at will or at pleaſure,of anie manors,lands,tenements, or other hereditaments, whatſoeuer they be, which be before aſſigned to the order,ſuruеie and gouernance of the ſaid court,or of anie rent, charges, annuities, next auoidance of aduouſons, offices or wards to be giuen, letten, or granted out of the ſame, or anie part therof,or by anie meanes concerning the ſaid court,or anie of the premiſſes committed to the ſuruеie of the ſaid court, to anie perſon or perſons, or bodies politike,or of anie office apperteining or belonging to the ſaid court of augmentations, ſhalbe made by the clerke of the ſaid court,or his deputie or deputies,and ſubſcribed with his owne proper hand and name, and ſealed with the great ſeale,aſſigned to and for the ſaid court. And that all and euerie ſuch gifts, grants, releaſes, confirmation,leaſes,letters patents,and other writings,which ſhalbe made & ſealed,as is aforeſaid,ſhall be good & effectuall in the law without liuerie & ſeaſon, or atturnement againſt the kings highnes, his heirs & ſucceſſors,according to the tenors,purports & effects of ſuch gifts,grants, releaſes,confirmations,leaſes, letters patents,or other writings ſo to be made, & that the ſaid chancellor vpon euerie warrant to be directed to him vnder the kings ſigne manuell,ſhall haue power & authoritie to cauſe to be made by the ſaid clerke of the ſaid court, or his deputie or deputies, in due order and forme,all ſuch gifts,grants,releaſes,confirmations, leaſes, letters patents,or other writings, as is aforeſaid,according to the tenor & effect of euerie ſuch warrant,which to him ſhalbe directed, and to ſeale all ſuch patents and writings with the ſaid great ſeale remaining in his cuſtodie: the ſaid chancellor & other officers to take for his and their fees, for the inſealing and writing of euerie patent ſuch fee or fees, as is taken by the chancellor or other officer or officers of the kings duchie of Lancaſter in like caſe. And that the ſaid chancellor ſhall haue power & authoritie to take ſurrender of anie leaſes or letters patents that ſhall be made vnder the ſaid ſeale in his cuſtodie, and to make cancellation of ſuch leaſes & letters patents,that ſhalbe to him ſurrendered, & cauſe the day, time,and yeere of ſuch ſurrender to be regiſtred and inrolled by the ſaid clerke of the ſaid court.

Pꝛouided alſo that no leaſes foꝛ terme of yéeres ſhalbe made of anie reuerſion, without the kings ſpeciall warrant foꝛ the ſame.

Clerke.

Alſo the ſaid clerke of the ſaid court ſhall inroll and regiſter in a great booke in parchment all and euerie thoſe gifts,grants, releaſes,confirmations, leaſes,letters patents, & all other wꝛitings which ſhalbe made and granted vnder the ſaid great ſeale, and alſo the date, time & yéere of the ſurrender of anie of them, when anie ſuch ſurrender ſhall happen, which regiſter of inrolments ſhall remaine,and be ſafelie kept in the ſaid court, as a recoꝛd to the kings vſe,by the appointment of the ſaid chancelloꝛ. And that alſo the ſaid clerke ſhall enter in a booke the appearances of euerie perſon that ſhalbe called to appeare befoꝛe the ſaid chancelloꝛ: and all acts,decrées & oꝛders,that ſhalbe made by the ſaid chancelloꝛ and counſell,taking ſuch fées foꝛ the ſame,and foꝛ wꝛiting and inrolling of anie gifts, grants, releaſes, confirmations, leaſes, letters patents, oꝛ other wꝛitings, as the clerke of the duchie of Lancaſter hath béene accuſtomed to take and haue.

L. patents. Tenure.

Alſo it is enacted by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that vpon all and ſingular letters patents to be made vnder the great ſeale of England,of anie manoꝛs,lands,tenements and hereditaments,belonging oꝛ apperteining to anie of the ſaid houſes,compꝛiſed in the ſaid act,& committed to the ſurueie of the ſaid court,to any perſon oꝛ perſons,oꝛ bodie politike foꝛ any eſtate of inheritance,there ſhalbe alwaies reſerued to the kings highnes,his heirs and ſucceſſoꝛs, a tenure by knights ſeruice in Capite,and a yéerelie rent of the tenth part of the yéerlie value of the lands to be compꝛiſed in euerie ſuch letters patents,accoꝛding to ſuch rate,as the ſame manoꝛs,lands and tenements giuen ſhalbe expꝛeſſed to be of yéerelie value in the ſame letters patents: anie thing oꝛ clauſe conteined in anie warrant to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding, and that the ſaid rent ſo reſerued vpon anie ſuch eſtate, ſhalbe contented & paid to the officers of the ſaid court to the kings vſe, accoꝛding as other reuenues there ſhalbe paid: and that none auerrement ſhalbe made oꝛ admitted by oꝛ foꝛ the king oꝛ anie other perſon, than the ſame manoꝛs, lands and tenements be of moꝛe yéerelie value than in the ſame letters patents ſhalbe declared.

Chancellor. Recogniz.

Alſo the ſaid chancelloꝛ ſhall haue power and authoꝛitie to take recognizances of euerie particular receiuer, which ſhalbe aſſigned foꝛ the ſaid court, and of his ſureties, foꝛ the ſure paiment of his receipts: and alſo to take recognizances in the kings name of euerie farmar,bailiffe,reue oꝛ other accountants,foꝛ the true paiment of receipts: and of euerie perſon and perſons which ſhall be indebted to the kings highneſſe foꝛ anie arrerages of his receipt, farme oꝛ charge, as foꝛ anie other cauſe foꝛ and concerning anie of the pꝛemiſſes,and all ſuch recognizances,of what ſum ſoeuer they be,ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law,to all intents & purpoſes,as recognizances taken in the kings chancerie,oꝛ elſwhere befoꝛe anie iudge of recoꝛd.

Scire facias. Triall. K. bench. Execution.

Alſo it is oꝛdeined by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid,that the chancelloꝛ of the ſame court foꝛ the time being,ſhall haue full power and authoꝛitie to award wꝛits of Scire facias vnder the great ſeale of his office vpon euerie ſuch recognizances in the ſaid court to be taken, if caſe ſo require, and to hold plæ vpon the ſame,and to award execution to all intents and purpoſes, as is vſed and accuſtomed to be doone in the kings high court of chancerie. Pꝛouided alwaies, that if anie iſſue oꝛ triall, triable by the verdict of twelue men foꝛtune to ariſe in the pleading of the ſame, that then in euerie ſuch caſe the ſaid chancelloꝛ ſhall & maie deliuer the recoꝛd thereof to the iuſtices of the kings bench foꝛ the time being, and therevpon the ſaid court of the kings bench to doo euerie thing foꝛ the triall of the ſame iſſue, as they ought to doo, in caſe the ſaid iſſue oꝛ triall had béene ſent oꝛ deliuered to them out of the kings court of chancerie: and after the triall thereof in due foꝛme had, & the iudgement therevpon giuen,the iuſtices of the kings bench to haue power to award execution accoꝛdinglie,and the monie thereof comming to be deliuered by the ſame iuſtices oꝛ clerke of the papers of the ſame court to the treaſuroꝛ of the ſaid court of augmentations to the kings vſe.

Proceſſe. Atturnie. Solicitoꝛ.

Alſo that the ſaid chancelloꝛ foꝛ the time being, ſhall haue full power and authoꝛitie to award vnder the pꝛiuie ſeale, appointed to the ſaid court in the kings name, ſuch pꝛoceſſe & pꝛecepts with reaſonable pains to be therein limited,as be now commonlie vſed in the court of the kings duchie chamber of Lancaſter being at Weſtminſter, againſt euerie perſon oꝛ perſons, whatſoeuer they be,foꝛ and concerning the intereſt,right and title of the kings maieſtie,his heirs and ſucceſſoꝛs,of, in oꝛ to anie of the pꝛemiſſes limited to the ſurueie & gouernance of the ſaid court: oꝛ of oꝛ foꝛ anie rent,account, receipt oꝛ ſeruices, in anie wiſe touching oꝛ concerning the ſame pꝛemiſſes,oꝛ anie part of them,foꝛ and on the behalfe of our ſaid ſouereigne loꝛd the king, oꝛ of oꝛ foꝛ anie debt riſing oꝛ growing by occaſion of the ſame. Alſo it is oꝛdeined by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that the ſaid atturnie and ſolicitoꝛ ſhall diligentlie from time to time attend vpon the chancelloꝛ of the ſaid court, foꝛ the hearing and oꝛdering of matters and cauſes of the ſaid court,and pꝛocure with all diligence, that all rents,farmes,pꝛofits,caſualties,impꝛouements,and all other emoluments of the manoꝛs, lands,tenements and hereditaments,being in the ſuruele and gouernance of the ſaid court,ſhalbe trulie & iuſtlie paid,and anſwered to the treaſuroꝛ of the ſaid court,to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, without concealing anie part thereof. And ſhall alſo cauſe and pꝛocure pꝛoceſſe to be made againſt ſuch as ſhall be indebted to the kings highneſſe, and their ſureties of and foꝛ anie part thereof from time to time,as the time oꝛ caſe ſhall require.

Officers.

Alſo it is enacted by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that if anie of the ſaid officers appointed foꝛ the ſame court,doo conceale oꝛ withdꝛaw willinglie anie rents, reuenues,caſualties,oꝛ other goods giuen to the king by the ſaid act; that then the officer ſo offending ſhall looſe the double value of the thing ſo concealed or withdrawne.

Auditors. Receiuers.

And it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie of the ſaid particular auditors and receiuers ſhalbe attendant vpon the ſaid chancellor from time to time, as cauſes ſhall require. And that euerie of the ſaid particular receiuers ſhall well, diligentlie and effectuallie gather and leuie to the kings vſe, all ſuch farmes, iſſues and profits, as ſhalbe limited to his charge, and diſtreine for the ſame, if néed ſo require. And that euerie of the ſaid particular receiuers and auditors, ſo ioined togither by the appointment of the ſaid chancellor, ſhall well and trulie ſurueie all maner of reparations néedfull to be doone in or vpon anie of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments limited to his charge, and appoint the ſaid reparations to be doone to the kings moſt profit and leaſt charge. And alſo to ſurueie the woods limited to their charge, and what woodſales ſhall be conuenient to be made, & make certificat of the premiſſes from time to time to the ſaid chancellor.

Surueie. Reparatiōs.

Rents. Iſſues.

Alſo it is ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all the rents, farmes, iſſues and profits of the ſaid religious houſes, manors, lands, tenements, and all other the premiſſes, which be aſſigned to the order, ſurueie & gouernance of the ſaid court, as they ſhall grow due & be paiable, ſhall be paid and deliuered to the hands of the ſaid treaſuror by euerie of the ſaid particular receiuers to be ſafelie kept to the kings vſe: and that euerie acquitance, which ſhalbe ſubſcribed with the name and hand of the ſaid treaſuror, made to anie of the ſaid particular receiuers, or to anie perſon or perſons, whereby ſhall appeare that the ſaid treaſuror ſhall haue receiued of anie of the ſaid particular receiuers, or other perſon or perſons, anie of the farmes, rents, iſſues and profits in the charge of the ſaid particular receiuers, or for anie debt that ſhalbe due to the kings highneſſe by occaſion of the premiſſes, or anie part thereof: or for anie ſums of monie, which the ſaid treaſuror ſhall haue power to receiue to the kings vſe by reaſon of his office: and all other acquitances made by anie of the ſaid particular receiuers, to anie whatſoeuer perſon, for the receipt of anie thing touching the premiſſes appointed to his or their charge, ſhalbe a good and effectuall diſcharge for euerie of the ſaid particular receiuers, and other whatſoeuer perſons aforeſaid, againſt the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer.

Acquitances.

Accounts.

Alſo it is ordeined that the ſaid treaſuror ſhall yéerelie account before the ſaid chancellor and ſuch two, or more of the ſaid auditors, as the ſaid chancellor ſhall appoint. And that euerie of the ſaid particular receiuers ſhall yéerelie account before one of the ſaid ten auditors to be aſſigned to him by the ſaid chancellor. And that euerie of the ſaid particular receiuers for the yéere to be ended at the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, ſhall make and finiſh his account before the twentith day of March next after the ſame feaſt inſuing. And that the ſaid treaſuror ſhall yéerelie finiſh his account before the laſt daie of Aprill next after following.

Auditors.

Alſo it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid chancellor by the conſent of the ſaid treaſuror, atturnie and ſolicitor, or two of them, ſhall diuide to euerie particular receiuer ſuch portion, as euerie of them ſhall receiue of the ſaid religious houſes, manors, lands, tenements, & other hereditaments aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo proportion the ſaid religious houſes, and other the premiſſes in ten parts, and ſhall aſſigne to euerie part therof one of the ſaid ten auditors: and that euerie of the ſaid ten auditors, as they ſhalbe aſſigned, ſhall yéerelie ride to the part to him to be limited betwéene the feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell and Chriſtmas, and take the accounts of all bailifs, reues, farmars, tenants and occupiers of the manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments within the limits of his aſſignement.

Ten parts.

Accounts.

Alſo it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid auditors and particular receiuers at all times, vpon warning giuen to them by the ſaid chancellor, ſhall aſſemble togither, aſwell for the ordering of the ſaid religious houſes, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, as of the tenants of the ſame, from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require, as for the viewing and determination of the ſaid accounts to be made thereof.

Auditors.

Alſo it is ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all the accounts of euerie yéere, to be ended at the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, aſwell of the ſaid particular receiuers, bailifs, reues, farmars, tenants & occupiers of the ſaid houſes, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments aforeſaid, as of the ſaid treaſuror ſhalbe well and perfectlie ingroſſed in parchment by the ſaid auditors, and deliuered to the ſaid chancellor, ſafelie to be kept to the kings vſe, euerie yéere yéerelie before the firſt daie of Maie next inſuing the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe their offices.

Profits.

Alſo it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the auditors and other officers and miniſters of the ſaid court for the time being, ſhall yéerelie perceiue and take by the hands of the ſaid treaſuror, particular receiuers, and all other officers and miniſters accountant, all and ſingular ſuch like diets, rewards, profits and commodities, aſwell for their attendance vpon the ſaid chancellor for the time being, and for the making of books, declarations and values, as for other matters and cauſes, of, for or concerning the ſaid court: and alſo for the expenſes, coſts and charges of the ſaid auditors and particular receiuers, and euerie of them, yéerelie riding their ſeuerall circuits and limitations, in as large and ample maner and forme, as the kings auditors of his duchie of Lancaſter, and other officers and miniſters there, doo yéerelie perceiue, receiue, take, and be allowed, in, for, and about anie ſuch like matters, cauſes and buſines: and that the ſaid auditors for the time being, and euerie of them, ſhall haue power and authoritie to allow the ſame.

Reparatiōs. Buildings.

Alſo it is ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid, that all reparations and buildings, which ſhalbe doone from time to time, in or vpon anie the premiſſes, ſhalbe doone and made by the order and commandement of the ſaid chancellor, by the conſent of the ſaid treaſuror, atturnie, and ſolicitor, or two of them. And that the ſaid treaſuror from time to time vpon his account ſhall be allowed, aſwell of ſuch fée as ſhalbe limited vnto him for exerciſe of his office, as of and for all ſuch ſums of monie as he ſhall paie to anie patentée or patentées, or anie office, fee or annuitie, that ſhall be granted or giuen vnder the ſeale of the ſaid court. And alſo of all ſuch ſums of monie as he ſhall paie to anie other perſon or perſons by vertue of the kings warrant or bill aſſigned: and alſo ſuch ſums of monie, as he ſhalbe commanded to paie by anie bill aſſigned and ſubſcribed with the hands of the ſaid chancellor, atturnie and ſolicitor, or two of them, vpon ſuch conſiderations as ſhalbe thought conuenient by their diſcretions. And that the ſaid auditors, taking the accounts of the ſaid treaſuror, or of anie of the ſaid particular receiuers, ſhall haue power and authoritie to allow to the treaſuror the premiſſes and euerie part thereof, and alſo to allow to euerie particular receiuer and other accountants, aſwell their fées and wages, and all other ſuch ſums of monie, as they or anie of them ſhall paie for, in and about anie buildings or reparations, as all other honeſt and reaſonable petitions and allowances, in as large and ample maner, and after ſuch forme, faſhion and condition as the kings auditors of his duchie of Lancaſter doo, maie doo, and haue béene accuſtomed to doo without anie bill or warrant to be ſued for the ſame.

Treaſuror. Fees.

Proceſſe. Alſo it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of proceſſe that ſhall be made out of the kings excheker, to or againſt anie perſon or perſons, for anie farmes, rents, iſſues or profits concerning the premiſſes or anie part thereof limited by this act, to be in the ſuruie, order and gouernance of the ſaid court, and the miniſters thereof, ſhall be cléerelie void and of none effect.

Alſo it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid chancellor & treaſuror ſhall yéerelie declare to the kings highneſſe the ſtate of the cléere yéerelie value of the ſaid houſes, manors, lands, tenements, rents, penſions, portions, tithes, and other hereditaments, and how, where and to whom they be imploied, and what remaineth thereof in the hands of the ſaid treaſuror.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſuch manors, meſſuages, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, and other hereditaments, which in anie maner wiſe ſhall come to, or be in the hands or poſſeſſion of our ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors by authoritie of the ſaid former act of parlement, ſet, lieng & being aſwell within the countie palantine of Lancaſter, as all other manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions & hereditaments, with their commodities and appurtenances, ſet, lieng and being within this realme of England, Wales, or either of them, out of the ſaid countie palantine, which be, or were apperteining or belonging vnto the ſaid monaſteries, or anie of them, which were of the foundation of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, or of anie of his right noble progenitors, as duke or dukes of Lancaſter, maie at the frée will, libertie and pleaſure of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, be aſſigned, limited & appointed vnto the order, ſuruieng, receipt, letting and ſetting of the chancellor and officers of his ſaid duchie of Lancaſter, in as large and ample maner and forme, as the ſaid chancellor and officers of the ſaid duchie haue, vſe and exerciſe at this preſent time, of or vpon, and in anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, apperteining, or in anie wiſe belonging vnto the ſaid duchie: this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Anno viceſimo octauo Henrici octaui, at VVeſtminſter the eight of Iune, and continued to the diſſolution thereof, the eighteenth daie of Iulie then next following.

An act that felons abiuring for petie treaſon, murder, or felonie, ſhall not be admitted to the benefit of their clergie.

The firſt chapter.

WHere in the laſt parlement begun and holden at London, the third daie of Nouember, in the xxj. yéere of the kings moſt gratious reigne, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuerſe and ſundrie prorogations, it was enacted amongſt other things, that ſuch perſon & perſons, which did flée or reſort to anie pariſh church, cemitorie, or other like hallowed place for tuition of his life, by occaſion of anie murder, robberie, or other felonie, by the ſame perſon committed, and thervpon confeſſed anie murder, felonie or other offenſe, before a crowner: for which the ſame perſon by the law of this realme afore that time vſed, ſhould abiure and paſſe out of this realme, ſhould be directed by the crowner to take his abiuration to anie one ſanctuarie, being within this realme, which the ſame perſon would elect and choſe, there to remaine as a ſanctuarie man abiured, during his naturall life. And if after ſuch abiuration, anie perſon ſo abiured, came out of the ſame ſanctuarie, to the which he was aſſigned, and be taken without the ſame ſanctuarie, not hauing the kings ſpeciall pardon or licence ſo to doo; that then euerie ſuch perſon abiured, and after abiuration taken without ſanctuarie, whereunto he was aſſigned, ſhould ſuffer like paine of death, and after like maner ſhould be ordered, as he ſhould haue done and abiden, in caſe he had abiured this realme for murder or felonie, and after ſuch abiuration had returned againe into this relme, contrarie to the lawes of this land. And it was further ordeined by the ſame act, that if anie ſuch ſanctuarie perſon ſo abiured, or anie other perſon or perſons, which then were, or at anie time after ſhould happen to be in anie ſanctuarie of this relme, for doing of anie petit treaſon, murder or felonie, or for being acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes: or if any perſon or perſons, which at anie time after the making of the ſame act ſhould take anie ſanctuarie of this realme for anie petit treaſon, murder or felonie, or for being acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes, or vpon abiuration: and ſo being in ſanctuarie for anie ſuch cauſe, matter or offenſe, afterward commit anie petit treaſon, murder or felonie within the ſame ſanctuarie, or be acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes, or go out of the ſame ſanctuarie, and commit anie petit treaſon, murder or felonie, or be acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes, and afterward come againe to the ſame ſanctuarie, or take anie other ſanctuarie for the ſame: that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, being indicted for anie of the ſaid cauſes or offenſes, ſhould loſe the priuilege of the ſanctuarie by him taken, and of euerie other ſanctuarie within this realme for anie ſuch cauſe of petit treaſon, murder, felonie or abiuration, or for anie acceſſarie to anie ſuch offenſes.

¶ And it was further ordeined by the ſame act, that all forren plees, triable by the countrie, which ſhould be pleaded by anie perſon or perſons arreigned vpon indictment for any petit treaſon, murder or felonie, ſhould be tried before the ſame iuſtices, afore whom ſuch perſons ſhould be arreigned, and by the ſame iurors of the countie, that ſhall trie the petit treaſon, murder or felonie, without anie further reſpit or delaie: and that no perſon arreigned for anie petit treaſon, murder or felonie, ſhould be admitted to anie peremptorie chalenge, aboue the number of twentie, which act was made to indure to the end of the next parlement, as by the ſaid act amongſt diuerſe clauſes and prouiſions conteined in the ſame more plainlie is expreſſed.

¶ And where alſo in the ſame parlement it was enacted, that no perſon or perſons, which ſhould happen to be found giltie after the lawes of this realme, for any maner of petit treaſon, or for anie wilfull murder of malice prepenſed, or for robbing of anie churches, chapels, or other holie places, or for robbing any perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling place, the owner or dweller in the ſaid houſe, his wife, his children or ſeruants then being within, and put in feare & dread by the ſame: or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in or neere about the high waies, or for wilfull burning of anie dwelling houſes or barns, wherin anie corne or graine ſhall happen to be: nor that anie perſon or perſons being found giltie of anie abetment, procurement, helping, mainteining, or counſelling of or to any ſuch petit treaſon, murders, or felonies, ſhould be admitted to the benefit of clergie (ſuch as be within holie orders, that is to ſaie, of the orders of ſubdeacon, or aboue alonelie except) with manie other clauſes & prouiſions conteined in the ſaid act, as by yͤ ſame act more plainlie appeareth: which act was alſo made to continue & indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement.

¶ And where alſo in the ſame parlement it was further enacted, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which ſhould happen to be indicted of anie petit treaſon, wilfull burning of houſes, murder, robberie or burglarie, or other felonie, according to the tenor and meaning of the ſaid eſtatute next aboue rehearſed, and therevpon arreigned, did ſtand mute of malice or froward mind, or chalenge peremptorie aboue the number of twentie, or elſe will not anſwer directlie to the ſame indictment and felonie, wherevpon they ſhalbe arreigned: that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſhould loſe the benefit and priuilege of their clergie.

¶ And it was alſo ordeined by the ſame act, that if anie perſon or perſons be indicted and found giltie for ſtealing of anie goods or chattels, in anie countie of this realme, or being indicted, ſtand mute of malice, or chalenge peremptorie aboue the number of twentie perſons, or will not anſwer directlie to the law, ſhould alſo loſe the benefit of their clergie, in like maner & forme as they ſhould haue done, if they had bin indicted, arreigned, and found giltie in the ſame countie, where the ſame robberie or burglarie was done, if it ſhall appeare to the iuſtices by euidence or examination, that the ſaid felons or robbers arreigned before them, ſhould or ought to haue loſt their clergie by force of the ſaid eſtatute, in caſe they had beene found giltie of the ſame felonies or burglaries in the ſame ſhire where they were committed, as by the ſaid act amongſt other things more at large is expreſſed.

And where alſo in the ſaid parlement it was further ordeined, that the deteſtable vice of buggerie, committed with mankind or beaſt, ſhould be felonie, and that the offendors therein ſhould loſe the priuilege of their clergie: which act was made to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things it appeareth more at large. Forasmuch as the ſaid acts be beneficiall and profitable for the commonwealth of this realme: be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid acts, and euerie of them, and all clauſes and prouiſions conteined in the ſame, ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength and vertue, and from henſeforth to continue and indure vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement. Continuat.

And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch as be within holie orders, ſhall from henſeforth ſtand, and be vnder the ſame paines and dangers for the offenſes conteined in anie of the ſaid ſtatutes, and be vſed and ordered to all intents and purpoſes, as other perſons not being within holie orders: anie prouiſion or exception ſpecified in any of the ſaid acts, or any other vſage or cuſtome of this realme to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. This act to indure vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An

An act for continuing of two ſtatutes made in the laſt parlement, touching ſuch as go awaie with caskets, iewels, goods or plate of their maiſters.

Chap.2.

WHere in the laſt parlement begun and holden at London, the third daie of Nouember, in the xxj. yeere of the kings moſt gratious reigne, & from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuerſe prorogations vnto the diſſolution thereof, it was ordeined and enacted amongſt other things, that if anie ſeruants to whom anie caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels ſhould be deliuered to keepe by his or their maiſters or miſtreſſes, doo go awaie with the ſaid caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels, or anie part thereof, to the intent to ſteale the ſame, and defraud his or their ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe thereof, contrarie to the truſt and confidence to him or them put by his or their ſaid maiſters or miſtreſſes; or elſe being in ſeruice without aſſent or commandement of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, imbezell the caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, or anie part thereof, or otherwiſe conuert the ſame to his owne vſe, with like purpoſe to ſteale, then if the ſaid caſkets, iewels, monie, goods or chattels, that anie ſuch ſeruant ſhall go awaie with, or which he ſhall imbezill with purpoſe to ſteale it (as is aforeſaid) be of the value of xl.s. or aboue: that then the ſame falſe, fraudulent and vntrue act and demeanor ſhould from henſeforth be deemed and adiudged felonie. And that he or they ſo offending, ſhould be puniſhed, as other felons be puniſhed for felonie committed, by courſe of the common law, which act was then made to indure to the next parlement.

And where alſo in another act made in the ſaid parlement, it was enacted, that if anie ſeruant for the time being in ſeruice with anie perſon or perſons, happen to ſteale or feloniouſlie take away anie iewels, monie, plate, or other goods or chattels of his maiſter or miſtreſſe: or if any ſeruant, to whom anie caſket, iewels, monie, goods or chattels were deliuered by his maiſter or miſtreſſe, and go awaie with the ſaid caſket, monie, goods or chattels, or anie part thereof, contrarie to the truſt and confidence to him or them put: or without the aſſent or commandement of his ſaid maiſter or miſtreſſe, imbezell anie caſket, iewels, monie, goods or chattels, or anie part thereof, or otherwiſe conuert the ſame to his owne vſe, with purpoſe to ſteale it: if the ſaid caſket, monie, iewels, goods, or other chattels, be of the value of xl. s. or aboue, that then the offendor in ſuch caſe ſhould looſe the benefit of his clergie, and the priuilege of all ſanctuaries, as by the ſaid ſeuerall acts more plainlie appeareth. Foraſmuch as the ſaid acts be thought neceſſarie for the commonwealth of this realme; be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſame acts, & euerie of them, and all and euerie clauſe, article and prouiſo therin conteined, ſhall from henſeforth ſtand good, and indure and continue for euer. Continuat.

An act giuing the kings highneſſe authoritie newlie to allot the towneſhips in the ſhires and marches of Wales, at anie time within three yeeres next inſuing.

Chap.3.

WHere in the parlement begun and holden at London the third daie of Nouember, in the xxj. yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuerſe prorogations vnto the fourth daie of Februarie, in the xxvij. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, and then and there holden and continued vnto the diſſolution thereof, one act and ordinance was made in the ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, holden the ſaid fourth daie of Februarie, whereby amongſt other things diuerſe ſhires and counties were newlie made and named within the dominion and principalitie of Wales, and diuerſe townes, pariſhes, lordſhips, commots and cantreds within the ſaid dominion and principalitie, were allotted, appointed & limited to the ſaid ſeuerall ſhires & counties, as by the ſame act more plainlie and particularlie amongſt other things appeareth. And foraſmuch as by credible information it is come to the kings knowledge ſithens the making of the ſaid act, that ſome lordſhips, townes, pariſhes, commots, hundreds and cantreds be not indifferentlie allotted and limited to the ſhires named in the ſaid act, for the commoditie of the kings ſubiects therein inhabited: be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the kings highneſſe (during the time of three yeeres next after the end of this preſent parlement) ſhall haue power and authoritie, by writing, vnder his great ſeale, to allot, appoint, aſſigne and limit to euerie of the ſhires named in the ſaid act, ſuch and ſo manie lordſhips, townes, pariſhes, hamlets, hundreds, commots and cantreds, as his maieſtie by his moſt high wiſdome ſhall thinke moſt conuenient and agreeable for the eaſe and commoditie of his louing ſubiects the inhabitants of his ſaid dominion and principalitie. And ſhall likewiſe haue power and authoritie to name and aſſigne the ſhire townes in euerie of the ſaid ſhires named in the ſaid act. And that euerie ſuch limitation, appointment, nomination and aſſignement to be made by the kings highneſſe in that behalfe by authoritie of this act, ſhalbe as good and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes, as though it had beene doone and made plainlie and particularlie by authoritie of parlement: anie thing conteined in the ſaid act made in the laſt parlement, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Shire townes.

An act repealing the ſtatute latelie made for the bringing in of doulas and lockerams.

Chap.4.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the third daie of Nouember, in the xxj. yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, amongſt other things it was enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon nor perſons, Engliſh nor ſtranger, denizen nor alien, from or after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell then next following, ſhould bring or conueie, or cauſe to be conueied or brought by anie maner of meanes into this realme of England any linnen cloth called doulas or lockerams, vnleſſe euerie whole peece of doulas conteined in length fiue ſcore els of aſſiſe, accounted to euerie ell, one inch of aſſiſe, and in bredth one yard of aſſiſe: and euerie halfe peece fiftie els in length, and one yard in bredth of like aſſiſe, and all the whole peece and halfe péece of one goodneſſe in making. And alſo it was there enacted and eſtabliſhed, that euerie whole peece of lockerams ſhould be of like length, as the whole péece of doulas: and euerie halfe péece of lockerams ſhould be of like length as the halfe péece of doulas; and euerie ſuch whole péece and halfe péece of lockerams to be in bredth a whole yard lacking a neale of the yard: and euerie péece and halfe péece to be in like goodneſſe by all the length of the ſame peece, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame doulas and lockerams ſo to be brought or conueied into this realme, not conteining the full length, bredth and goodneſſe, or the value thereof, as in the ſame ſtatute more plainlie at large dooth appeare. Sithens the making of which act, a great number of the kings ſubiects, that is to ſaie, weauers, tuckers, ſpinners, diers and woolpickers, and manie other haue beene idle and without worke, to their great impouriſhing, which more and more is like dailie to increaſe, if remedie be not prouided, foraſmuch as the clothmakers, which before the making of the ſaid act were wont to conueie their ſaid clothes into Britaine, where the ſaid linnen cloth called doulas and lockerams is made, and from thenſe to bring with them the ſaid linnen cloth called doulas and lockerams, which they cannot doo ſithens the making of the ſaid act, without danger and forfeiture of the ſaid linnen cloth, by reaſon that there ſhall no Engliſh man be ſuffered to carie or conueie anie of the ſaid clothes, called doulas or lockerams, from the parties of beyond the ſea into this realme, of the length conteined in the ſaid act: which will make the ſaid clothmakers to leaue the making of their cloth, to the great and manifold perils of the kings ſubiects: be it therfore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid act, made in the ſaid one and twentith yéere, be to all intents, purpoſes and conſtructions in the law, made vtterlie void and of none effect, as if this ſaid act had neuer beene had nor made. Neuertheleſſe to the intent that the buier of the ſaid linnen clothes, ſhall not at anie time héereafter be deceiued by the length of the ſaid clothes: be it therefore enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, no maner of perſon, Engliſh nor ſtranger, denizen nor alien, put to ſale anie whole péece, or halfe péece of the ſaid linnen cloth, called doulas and lockerams, vnleſſe there be mention expreſſed vpon euerie of the ſaid whole peece, or halfe péece of the ſaid linnen cloth called doulas or lockerams, ſo put to ſale, as is aforeſaid, the whole and intire number of the yards or els that is conteined in euerie ſuch whole péece or halfe péece, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame whole péece or halfe peece, not conteining the number of yards or els, ſo mentioned vpon euerie of the ſaid whole péece or halfe péece, ſo put to ſale, as is aforeſaid: the one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture to be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other halfe to him that ſhall ſeize, and will ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe: in which action, ſute or information, no wager of law, nor eſſoine ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Repeals.

Length.

Prouided alwaies, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, be not preiudiciall ne hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, that before the firſt daie of this parlement hath made anie ſeizure, or put in anie information into anie of the kings courts, for any maner of forfeiture doone or committed by anie perſon or perſons, contrarie to the ſaid eſtatute, made in the ſaid third daie of Nouember, the one and twentith yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight.

An act for auoiding of exactions taken vpon prentiſes in the cities, boroughs, and townes corporat.

Chap. 6.

WHere in the parlement begun at London the third daie of Nouember in the one & twentith yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, & from thenſe adiorned and proroged vnto Weſtminſter the ſixtéenth daie of Ianuarie, in the two and twentith yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and there then alſo holden: it was and is recited, that where before that time it was eſtabliſhed and enacted in the nineteenth yeere of our late ſouereigne lord king Henrie the ſeuenth, that no maiſter wardens, and fellowſhip of crafts, or anie of them, nor anie rulers of the guilds or fraternities, ſhould take vpon them to make anie acts or ordinances, ne to execute anie acts or ordinances by them before that time made, or then héereafter to be made, in diſheritance or diminution of the prerogatiue of the king, nor of other, nor againſt the common profit of the people, but if the ſame acts or ordinances were examined or approued by the chancellor, treaſuror of England, or chéefe iuſtice of either bench or thrée of them, or before the iuſtices of aſſiſe in their circuit or progreſſe in the ſhire where ſuch acts or ordinances be made, vpon paine of forfeiture of fortie pounds for euerie time that they doo the contrarie, as more plainlie in the ſaid act dooth appeare. Since which time diuerſe wardens and fellowſhips haue made acts and ordinances, that euerie prentiſe ſhould pay at his firſt entrie in their common hall to the wardens of the ſame fellowſhip, ſome of them fortie ſhillings, ſome thirtie ſhillings, ſome twentie ſhillings, ſome thirtéene ſhillings and foure penſe, ſome ſix ſhillings and eight penſe, ſome thrée ſhillings and foure penſe, after their owne ſiniſter minds and pleaſure, contrarie to the meaning of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid nineteenth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the ſeuenth, & to the great hurt of the kings true ſubiects putting their children to be prentiſes: it was therefore in the ſaid parlement, holden at Weſtminſter the ſaid xxij. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, by the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in the ſame parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no maiſter wardens, or fellowſhips of crafts, or maiſters, or anie of them, nor anie rulers of fraternities ſhould take from henſeforth of anie prentiſe or of anie other perſon or perſons for the entrie of anie prentiſe into their ſaid fellowſhip, aboue the ſum of ij.s.vj.d. nor for his entrie when his yeeres and terme is expired and ended, aboue iij.s.iiij.d. vpon paine of forfeiture of xl.li. for euerie time that they doo to the contrarie, the one halfe to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to the partie that therefore ſhall ſue by action of debt, information or otherwiſe, and that in the action aforeſaid, no protection or eſſoine ſhalbe allowed: as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined more plainlie maie appeare. Sithens which ſaid ſeuerall acts eſtabliſhed and made, as is aforeſaid, diuerſe maſters, wardens and fellowſhips of crafts, haue by cautell and ſubtill meanes compaſſed and practiſed to defraud and delude the ſaid good and wholſome ſtatutes, cauſing diuerſe prentiſes or yoong men, immediatlie after their yeers be expired, or that they be made free of their occupation or fellowſhip, to be ſworne vpon the holie Euangeliſt at their firſt entrie, that they, ne anie of them after their yeeres or terme expired, ſhall not ſet vp, or open any ſhop, houſe, nor ſellar, nor occupie as freemen, without the aſſent and licence of the maiſter wardens, or fellowſhips of their occupation, vpon paine of forfeiting their freedome or other like penaltie. By reaſon whereof the ſaid prentiſes and iournimen be put to as much or more charges thereby than they before time were put vnto for the obteining and entring of their freedome, to the great hurt and impoueriſhment of the ſaid prentiſes and iournimen, & other their freends. For remedie whereof be it now, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, eſtabliſhed, ordeined and enacted, that no maiſter wardens, or fellowſhips of crafts, nor anie of them, nor any rulers of fraternities, guilds or brotherhoods, from henſeforth compell, or cauſe any prentiſe or iourniman, by oth or bond heeretofore made, or heereafter to be made, or otherwiſe, that he after his apprentiſhip or terme expired, ſhall not ſet vp, nor keepe anie ſhop, houſe or ſellar, nor occupie as a freeman without licence of the maiſter wardens or fellowſhip of his or their occupation, for & concerning the ſame, nor by anie meane exact or take of anie ſuch prentiſe or iourniman, nor any other occupieng for themſelues, nor of anie other perſons for them, after his or their ſaid yeeres expired, anie ſum of monie, or other things, for or concerning his or their freedome or occupation, or otherwiſe or in anie other maner than before is recited, limited & appointed in the ſaid former act, made in the ſaid xxij. yeere of the reigne of king Henrie the eight, vpon the paine to forfeit for euerie time that they or anie of them ſhall offend contrarie to this act xl.li. the one halfe thereof to the king our reuereigne lord, and the other halfe to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts, by action of debt, information or otherwiſe: in which ſute or action, no protection nor eſſoine ſhalbe allowed for the partie defendant.

An act for continuance of the ſtatutes for beggers and vagabonds, and againſt conueiance of horſſes and mares out of this realme, againſt Welſhmen making affraies in the counties of Hereford, Gloceſter and Salop, and againſt the vice of buggerie.

Chap. 6.

Continuat.

Where in the parlement begun at London the third daie of Nouember, in the xxi. yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by prorogation vnto the xvj. daie of Ianuarie, in the xxij. yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, it was then in that ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, an act made and eſtabliſhed, declaring and concerning aſwell how aged, poore and impotent perſons, compelled to liue by almes, ſhould be ordered, as how vagabonds and mightie ſtrong beggers ſhould be whipped and puniſhed; which act was then made to indure and continue vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement. And where alſo in the ſaid ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, one other act was made for the reſtreint of carrieng and conueieng of horſſes and mares out of this realme, which act was alſo made to continue and indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſaid two ſeuerall acts more plainlie appeareth. And where alſo at the ſaid parlement continued and proroged vnto the third daie of Nouember in the xxvj. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, it was then in that ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, another act made and eſtabliſhed for puniſhment of Welſhmen, attempting aſſaults or affraies vpon anie the inhabitants of Hereford, Gloceſter or Shropſhire, which act was alſo made to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſaid act more plainlie appeareth. And where alſo in the ſaid parlement, continued and proroged vnto the xv. daie of Ianuarie, in the xxv. yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, it was then in that ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, one other act made and eſtabliſhed for puniſhment of the vice of buggerie, declaring ſuch offenſe to be felonie, which act was then made to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſaid act more plainlie appeareth. Foraſmuch as the ſaid foure ſeuerall acts be beneficiall and profitable for the commonweale of this realme: be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid foure acts, and euerie of them, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſion therein conteined, ſhall from henſeforth be obſerued and kept, and continue and indure vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act for the eſtabliſhment of the imperiall crowne of this realme.

Chap.7.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen to your moſt roiall maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and all other your moſt louing and obedient ſubiects, the commons in this your moſt high court of parlement aſſembled, that where in your laſt parlement begun and holden at London the third daie of Nouember, in the 21 yéere of your moſt gratious reigne, & from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuers & ſundrie prorogations vnto the fiftéenth daie of Ianuarie in the 25 yéere of your moſt noble reigne, and then there holden: it was made and ordeined an act concerning amongſt manie things, as well for ratification & confirmation of your mariage, then had and ſolemnized betwéene your highnes and the late ladie Anne Bullen marques of Pembroke, as for the limitation of the ſucceſſion of your imperiall crowne of this realme, to the iſſue of your bodie begotten, & to be begotten of the bodie of the ſaid ladie Anne, with diuers remaindors ouer for default of ſuch iſſue, as in the ſaid act plainlie & particularlie more at large is expreſſed and mentioned. And where alſo by the ſaid act it was ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that all and ſingular your ſubiects ſhould take a corporall oth, for the fulfilling, mainteining and defending the whole effects and contents of the ſaid act. And it was further ordeined by the ſaid act amongſt other things, that if anie perſon or perſons, ſubiect or reſiant within this realme, or within anie of your graces dominions, after the firſt daie of Maie, then next inſuing, by writing, print, déed, or act procured or doone, or cauſed to be procured or doone anie thing or things to the preiudice, ſlander, diſturbance, or derogation of the ſaid matrimonie, ſolemnized betwéene your maieſtie and the ſaid ladie Anne, or to the perill, ſlander, or diſheriſon of anie the iſſues or heires of your highnes, being limited by the ſame act to inherit and to be inheritable to the crowne of this realme, whereby anie ſuch iſſues or heires of your highnes might be deſtroied, diſturbed, or interrupted in bodie or title of inheritance to the crowne of this realme, as to them is limited in the ſame act: that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, and their aidors, counſellors, mainteinors, and abbettors, and euerie of them, for euerie ſuch offenſe, ſhould be adiudged high traitors, and that euerie ſuch offenſe ſhould be adiudged high treaſon. And the offendors, and their aidors, counſellors, mainteinors, and abbettors, and euerie of them, being lawfullie conuict of ſuch offenſe by preſentiment, verdict, confeſſion, or proces, according to the cuſtomes and lawes of this realme, ſhould ſuffer paines of death, as in caſes of high treaſon: as in the ſaid act amongſt manie other articles, clauſes, and prouiſions, is more at large mentioned and ſpecified.

And alſo in the ſaid parlement holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation on the third daie of Nouember, in the ſix and twentith yeere of your moſt noble reigne, an other act was made for declaration and ratification of the ſaid oth, which diuers of your ſubiects then had taken, and all your ſubiects after that were bound to take for due obſeruation of the ſaid act of the ſaid ſucceſſion, as by the ſame act amongſt other things is alſo ſpecified and expreſſed: and albeit moſt dread ſouereigne lord, and that the ſaid acts were then made, as it was then thought by your maieſtie, nobles and commons, vpon a pure perfect and cléere foundation, thinking the ſaid mariage then had betwéene your highnes and the ſaid ladie Anne in their conſciences to haue béene pure, ſincere, perfect and good, and ſo was reputed, accepted, and taken in the realme, till now of late, that God of his infinit goodnes (from whom no ſecret things can be hid) hath cauſed to be brought to light euident and open knowledge, as well certeine, iuſt, true, and lawfull impediments vnknowen at the making of the ſaid acts, and ſithens that time confeſſed by the ſaid ladie Anne, before the moſt reuerend father in God Thomas archbiſhop of Canturburie, metropolitane and primat of all England, ſitting iudiciallie for the ſame: by the which plainelie appéereth, that the ſaid mariage betwéene your grace and the ſaid ladie Anne, was neuer good nor conſonant to the lawes, but vtterlie void and of none effect: by reaſon whereof your highnes was and is lawfullie diuorſed and ſeparated from the bonds of the ſaid mariage in the life of the ſaid ladie Anne: and this notwithſtanding moſt gratious ſouereigne lord the ladie Elizabeth your daughter, being borne vnder the ſaid vnlawfull mariage, by vertue and authoritie of the act of your ſucceſſion aboue remembred, for lacke of heires males of your bodie, ſhould immediatlie ſuccéed as your lawfull heire in the moſt roiall eſtate of your imperiall crowne of this realme, againſt all honor, equitie, reaſon, and good conſcience, if remedie ſhould not be prouided for the ſame: and ouer this moſt dred ſouereigne lord, albeit that your maieſtie not knowing of anie lawfull impediments, entred into the bonds of the ſaid vnlawfull mariage, & aduanced the ſame ladie Anne to the honor of the ſouereigne eſtate of the quéene of this realme: yet neuertheles ſhe inflamed with pride and carnall deſires of hir bodie, putting apart the dread of God and excellent benefits receiued of your highnes, confederated hir ſelfe with George Bollen late lord Rochford hir naturall brother, Henrie Norreis eſquier, Francis Weſton knight, William Brereton eſquier, gentleman of your priuie chamber, and Marke Smeton grome of your ſaid priuie chamber, and ſo being confederat, ſhe and they moſt traitorouſlie committed and perpetrated diuers deteſtable and abhominable treaſons, to the moſt fearefull perill and danger of the deſtruction of your moſt roiall perſon, and to the vtter loſſe, diſheriſon and deſolation of this realme, if God of his goodnes had not in due time brought their ſaid treaſons to light: for the which being plainlie and manifeſtlie prooued, they were conuict, and atteinted by the due courſe and order of your common lawes of this realme, and haue ſuffered according to their merits, as by the records thereof more at large maie appéere.

¶ And albeit moſt gratious and moſt dread ſoueraigne lord, diuers and ſundrie honorable iuſt, true & reaſonable clauſes be conteined and expreſſed in the ſaid act, made for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, which be verie neceſſarie and profitable for the commonwelth of this realme: yet neuertheles bicauſe certeine articles & clauſes conteined in the ſame, concerning the ratification of your ſaid vnlawfull mariage, betwéene your highnes and the ſaid ladie Anne, and the limitation of your ſucceſſion to the iſſues of your bodie had by the ſaid ladie Anne, & the other expreſſed and mentioned in both the acts aboue remembred, for the defending and mainteining the whole effects and contents of the ſaid act, which clauſes and articles be now become of late ſo diſhonorable, and ſo far diſtant from the due courſe of your common lawes of your realme, and alſo ſo much againſt good reaſon, equitie, and good conſcience, that they cannot be ſuſteined nor tollerated to continue and indure without great perill of diuiſion héereafter to be had, by occaſion of the ſame amongſt vs your ſaid moſt humble, louing and obedient ſubiects and our poſterities: it maie therfore pleaſe your highnes of your moſt excellent and accuſtomable goodnes, and for the entier loue, fauor and hartie affection, that your maieſtie hath alwaies borne and beareth to the commonwealth of this your realme, and for the conſeruation of the good peace, vnitie, and reſt of vs your moſt bounden and obedient ſubiects, and of our ſaid poſterities, that it maie be enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid two acts and euerie of them, and all clauſes, articles and prouiſions therein conteined, from the firſt date of this preſent parlement, ſhall be repealed, adnulled, and made fruſtrat and of none effect.

Repeale

¶ Prouided alwaie that the ſaid repeale and adnullation of the ſaid act, which was made for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, ſhall not be taken, expounded nor vnderſtand, to diſcharge anie perſon or perſons, which haue doone or committed anie offenſes of treaſon or miſpriſion of treaſon, contrarie to the ſame act, or anie part thereof at anie time afore the firſt daie of this preſent parlement: but that ſuch offenſes of treaſon and miſpriſion of treaſon, doone and committed by anie perſon or perſons, contrarie to the ſame act, afore the firſt daie of this preſent parlement, ſhall be and remaine in the ſame degrée and qualitie, to be puniſhed by authoritie of the ſame act, as if the ſame act had not béene repealed: the repeale and adnullation of the ſame act by authoritie of this preſent parlement in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Neuertheleſſe, the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, moſt gratiouſlie conſidering, that diuers and manie of his moſt louing and obedient ſubiects now latelie afore the begining of this preſent parlement, haue ſpoken, doone, practiſed, procured, and attempted, as well by words, writing, and printing, as by exterior acts, not onelie againſt the ſaid vnlawfull mariage, ſolemnized betwéene his highneſſe and the ſaid ladie Anne, and to the preiudice, ſlander, diſturbance, and derogation thereof, but alſo to the perill, ſlander and diſheriſon of the ladie Elizabeth the kings daughter illegitimat borne vnder the ſame mariage, and to the let, diſturbance, and interruption of the ſaid ladie Elizabeth to the title of the crowne: and alſo to depriue the ſaid ladie Anne late quéene, & the ſaid ladie Elizabeth, and euerie of them of their dignitie, title, and name of their roiall eſtates, contrarie to the tenors, purports, prouiſions and ordinances, as well conteined in the ſaid act made in the laſt parlement, for the eſtabliſhment of the kings ſucceſſion, as in an other act made in the laſt parlement for puniſhment of treaſons. Which words, doings, practiſes, procurements and attempts of his ſaid ſubiects, albeit they procéeded of no malice, but vpon true and iuſt grounds, for puniſhment of the ſaid late ladie Anne, according to hir deſerts, and for reformation of the ſaid vnlawfull mariage for the ſuretie of the kings highneſſe, and for the vnitie and wealth of this realme: yet neuertheleſſe the kings ſaid ſubiects might héereafter happen to be impeached, troubled and vexed for ſuch their words, doings, acts, procurements and attempts, as well by reaſon of the ſaid eſtatute, made for the eſtabliſhment of the kings ſucceſſion, and now repealed by this act, as by occaſion of other ſtatutes heretofore made for puniſhment of treaſon and miſpriſion of treaſon, to the great danger and perils of the liues, lands, and goods of the kings ſaid ſubiects, which onelie for hartie good will and faithfull obedience, that they beare to the kings maieſtie, incurred into the ſaid dangers and perils. The kings highneſſe therefore of his moſt bountifull mercie and benignitie is pleaſed and contented, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all and ſingular his louing ſubiects, which haue ſpoken, doone, practiſed, committed or attempted, or procured to be doone or attempted directlie or indirectlie, by words, writings, prints, or anie exterior act, anie thing or things whatſoeuer it be, againſt the ſaid mariage, ſolemnized betwéene his highneſſe and the ſaid late quéene Anne, or for the ſetting forth or preferment of the diuorſe or diſſolution therof: or againſt the late ſaid quéen Anne, or the ſaid ladie Elizabeth, or to anie of their ſlanders, perils, or diſheriſons: or haue wiſhed, willed or deſired by words or writings, or inuented, imagined, practiſed or attempted anie bodilie harme to the ſaid late quéene Anne, or ladie Elizabeth, or to depriue the ſame late quéene Anne, or ladie Elizabeth, or anie of them, of the dignitie, title or name of their roiall eſtates, or haue ſpoken, done, or procured to be done, any other words, writings, printings, wiſhing, willing, thing or things, act or acts againſt the ſaid late quéen Anne, or ladie Elizabeth, which is or might be déemed or interpreted for treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon by anie conſtruction vpon anie of the ſtatutes of this realme heretofore made, ſhall be fréelie and cléerelie pardoned, diſcharged, and releaſed by authoritie of this act, of all thoſe and ſuch treaſons and miſpriſions of treaſons aboue mentioned. And that none of his ſaid louing ſubiects for anie of the ſaid treaſons or miſpriſions of treaſon aboue mentioned & ſpecified, ſhall hereafter at anie time,by anie maner of meanes be impeached,vexed or troubled, in their bodies,liues, lands, goods or chattels, anie thing in this act, or in anie act or acts héeretofore made for treaſons or miſpriſion of treaſon,to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

And that it be further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid late queene Anne, George Bollen, late lord Rochford, Henrie Norreis eſquier, Francis Weſton knight, William Brereton eſquier,and Marke Smeton, for their abhominable and deteſtable treaſons, by them and euerie of them moſt abhominablie and traitorouſlie committed and doone againſt your maieſtie & the realme,ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent parlement conuicted and atteinted of high treaſon,in ſuch maner and forme and accordinglie as they be,by the due courſe and order of your laws of this realme. And that the ſaid late queene Anne, George lord Rochford, Henrie Norreis, Francis Weſton, William Brereton, and Marke Smeton, and euerie of them, ſhall looſe and forfeit to your highnes and to your heires, all ſuch their manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions,remainders,vſes,poſſeſſions,offices, rights,conditions,and all other hereditaments, of what names,natures or qualities ſo euer they be,which they or anie of them, or anie other to their vſes, or to the vſe of anie of them had or ought to haue had, of anie eſtate of inheritance in fee ſimple or in taile, in vſe or poſſeſſion at the daies of their ſeuerall treaſons committed and expreſſed in their indictment, or anie time after. Sauing to euerie perſon and perſons, and bodies politike, and to the heires, aſſignes and ſucceſſors of euerie of them (other than to the ſaid late queene Anne, and the other traitors aforenamed, and the heires and aſſignes of euerie of them, and all and euerie other perſon and perſons claiming by them, or anie of them, or to their vſes, or to the vſes of anie of them, or to the vſe of anie of their heires) all ſuch right, title, vſe, poſſeſſion, intereſt, condition, fees, offices,rents, annuities, commons, and all other commodities and hereditaments, whatſoeuer they or anie of them might, ſhould or ought to haue had, if this act had neuer béene had ne made.

And ouer this moſt gratious ſouereigne lord, for as much as it hath pleaſed your moſt roiall maieſtie, notwithſtanding the great and intollerable perils and occaſions, which your highnes hath ſuffered and ſuſteined, as well by occaſion of your firſt vnlawfull mariage, ſolemnized betwéene your highnes and the ladie Katharine,late princes dowager,as by occaſion of the ſaid vnlawfull mariage betwéene your highnes and the ſaid late queene Anne, at the moſt humble petition and interceſſion of vs your nobles of this realme, for the ardent loue & feruent affection, which your highnes beareth to the conſeruation of the peace and vnitie of the ſame, and for the good and quiet gouernance thereof, of your moſt excellent goodnes to enter into mariage againe, and haue choſen and taken a right noble, vertuous and excellent ladie quéene Jane to your true and lawfull wife,and haue lawfullie celebrated and ſolemnized mariage with hir, according to the lawes of holie church: who for hir conuenient yéeres, excellent beautie, and purenes of fleſh and blood, is apt (God willing)to conceiue iſſue by your highnes: which mariage is ſo pure & ſincere, without ſpot, doubt or impediment,that the iſſue procreated vnder the ſame, when it ſhall pleaſe almightie God to ſend it,cannot be lawfullie,trulie nor iuſtlie interrupted or diſturbed of the right and title in the ſucceſſion of your crowne: it maie therefore now pleaſe your moſt gratious maieſtie,at the moſt humble petition and interceſſion of vs your nobles and commons, aſſembled in this preſent parlement, as well for the cléere extinguiſhment of all ambiguities and doubts, as for a pure and perfect vnitie of vs your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects,and of all our poſterities, that it maie be enacted by your moſt gratious and roiall maieſtie, by conſent of vs the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame in maner and forme as heereafter in articles inſueth.

Firſt,for as much as the mariage héeretofore ſolemnized betwéene your highnes and the ſaid ladie Katharine princes dowager deceaſed, which afore was lawfull wife to your naturall brother prince Arthur, and by him carnallie knowen, as hath dulie béene proued by ſufficient witneſſes, at all times was,is,and ought to be déemed and determined, to be againſt the lawes of almightie God, and not diſpenſable by anie humane authoritie, and ſo hath béene déemed and determined, as well by the whole clergie of this realme,in both conuocations,and by both the vniuerſities thereof,as by the vniuerſities of Bononie, Padua, Paris, Orleance, Tolouze, Aniou, and diuers other, and alſo by a great number of priuat writings of manie right excellent well learned men: be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, according as it was ordeined and enacted in the ſaid act made in the laſt parlement for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, that the ſaid mariage heretofore had and ſolemnized betwéene your highnes and the ſaid ladie Katharine, which was before lawfull wife to the ſaid prince Arthur your elder brother, and by him carnallie knowen,as doth dulie appéere by ſufficient proofe in a lawfull proces had and made before the ſaid moſt reuerend father in God Thomas, by the ſufferance of God archbiſhop of Canturburie, metropolitan and primat of all England, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent parlement definitiuelie, cléerelie and abſolutelie declared, déemed and adiudged to be againſt the lawes of almightie God,and alſo accepted,reputed and taken of no value ne effect,but vtterlie void and adnihiled: and that the ſeparation thereof made by the ſaid archbiſhop ſhall be good and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes,anie licence, diſpenſation,or anie other act or acts, going before or inſuing the ſame, to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And that euerie ſuch licence,diſpenſation, act or acts, thing or things, had,made,doone or to be doone to the contrarie thereof, ſhall be to all intents void and of none effect, & ſo ſhall be reputed and taken by & amongſt all vs your true ſubiects and inhabitants, our heires and ſucceſſors of and in your realme and dominions for euer. And that the iſſue borne and procreated vnder the ſame vnlawfull mariage, made and ſolemnized betwéene your highnes and the ſaid ladie Katharine, ſhall be taken, déemed, and accepted illegitimat to all intents and purpoſes, and ſhall be vtterlie forcloſed, excluded, and barred, to claime, chalenge, or demand anie inheritance as lawfull heire to your highnes by lineall deſcent.

¶ And alſo for aſmuch as the mariage ſolemnized betwéene your highnes and the ſaid late quéene Anne, vpon true and iuſt cauſes, was and is déemed & adiudged by the ſaid moſt reuerend father, to be of no value ne effect, and a diuorſe and ſeparation thereof had and made, by the due order and proces of the lawes of the church of England, before the ſaid reuerend father, be it therfore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſame mariage betwéene your highnes and the ſaid late quéene Anne, ſhall be taken, reputed, déemed and adiudged to be of no force, ſtrength, vertue nor effect, & that the ſeparation & diuorſe therof had by the ſentence and iudgement of the ſaid moſt reuerend father, ſhall be good & effectuall, & ſo héereafter ſhall be taken & reputed for euer by all your ſubiects, their heires and ſucceſſors. And that none appeale, repeale, reuocation or adnullation thereof, or anie part of the ſame, ſhall heereafter be had, taken, allowed or admitted in anie behalfe. And that all the iſſues and children borne and procreated vnder the ſame mariage, betwéene your highnes and the ſaid late quéene Anne, ſhall be taken, reputed & accepted to be illegitimat to all intents and purpoſes, & vtterlie forcloſed, excluded, and barred to claime, chalenge, or demand anie inheritance as lawfull heire or heires to your highnes by lineall deſcent, the ſaid former act made in the laſt parlement, for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, or anie thing therein conteined, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ And furthermore ſince manie inconueniences haue fallen, as well within this realme as in others, by reaſon of marieng within the degrées of mariage, prohibited by Gods lawes, that is to ſaie, the ſon to marie the mother, or the ſtepmother carnallie knowen by his father, the brother the ſiſter, the father his ſons daughter, or his daughters daughter: or the ſon to marie the daughter of his father procreat and borne by his ſtepmother: or the ſon to marie his aunt, being his fathers or mothers ſiſter: or to marie his vncles wife carnallie knowen by his vncle: or the father to marie his ſons wife carnallie knowen by his ſonne: or the brother to marie his brothers wife carnallie knowen by his brother: or anie man maried, and carnallie knowing his wife, to marie his wiues daughter, or his wiues ſons daughter, or his wiues daughters daughter, or his wiues ſiſter.

¶ And further to dilat and declare the meaning of theſe prohibitions, it is to be vnderſtand, that if it chance anie man to know carnallie anie woman, that then all and ſingular perſons, being in anie degrée of conſanguinitie or affinitie, as is aboue written, to anie of the parties ſo carnallie offending, ſhall be déemed and adiudged to be within the caſes and limits of the ſaid prohibitions of mariage. All which mariages albeit they be plainlie prohibited and deteſted by the lawes of God, yet neuertheles at ſomtimes they haue procéeded vnder colours of diſpenſations by mans power, which is but vſurped, & of right ought not to be granted, admitted ne allowed. For no man, of what eſtate, degrée or condition ſo euer he be, hath power to diſpenſe with Gods lawes, as all the clergie of this realme in the ſaid conuocations, and the moſt part of all the vniuerſities of chriſtendome, and we alſo doo affirme and thinke.

¶ Be it therefore enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, according as it is declared and conteined in the ſaid act, made in the laſt parlement for the eſtabliſhment of your ſucceſſion, that no perſon or perſons, ſubiects, or reſiants of this realme, or in anie your dominions, of what eſtate, degrée or dignitie ſoeuer they be, ſhall from henſeforth marie within the degrées afore rehearſed, what pretenſe ſoeuer ſhall be made to the contrarie thereof. And in caſe anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, dignitie, degrée or condition ſoeuer they be, that béene heretofore maried within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, within anie the degrées aboue rehearſed, & by anie the archbiſhops or miniſters of the church of England be ſeparat from the bonds of ſuch vnlawfull mariages: that then euerie ſuch ſeparation ſhall be good, lawfull, firme and permanent for euer, and not by anie power, authoritie or meanes to be reuoked or vndoone héereafter. And that the children procéeding or procreat vnder ſuch vnlawfull mariage, ſhall not be lawfull ne legitimat: anie forren lawes, licences, diſpenſations, or other thing or things to the contrarie therof notwithſtanding. And that in caſe there be anie perſon or perſons within this realme, or in anie the kings dominions alreadie maried within anie of the ſaid degrées aboue ſpecified, and not yet ſeparat from the bonds of ſuch vnlawfull mariage, that then euerie ſuch perſon, ſo vnlawfullie maried, ſhall be ſeparat by the definitiue ſentence and iudgement of the archbiſhops, biſhops, & other miniſters of the church of England, and in other your dominions, within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authorities, and by none other power or authoritie. And that all ſentences and iudgements giuen and to be giuen by anie archbiſhop, biſhop, or other miniſter of the church of England, or in anie other the kings dominions, within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authoritie, ſhall be definitiue, firme, good, and effectuall to all intents, and be obſerued, and obeied, without ſuing anie prouocations, appeals, prohibitions, or other proces, from or to the court of Rome, to the derogation thereof, contrarie to the act made ſithens the begining of the laſt parlement for reſtraint of ſuch prouocations, appeals, prohibitions and other proceſſes.

¶ And alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all the iſſue héereafter to be had & procreat

betweene your highnes, & your ſaid moſt deare & intierlie beloued lawfull wife queene Iane, ſhall be your lawfull children & heires, & be inheritable & inherit, according to the courſe of inheritance and lawes of this realme, the imperiall crowne of the ſame, with all dignities, honors, preheminences, prerogatiues, authorities, & iuriſdictions, to the ſame annexed or belonging, in as large & ample maner, as your highnes at this preſent time hath the ſame as king of this realme, the inheritance thereof to be & remaine to your ſaid children & right heires in maner & forme as heereafter ſhall be declared, that is to ſaie. ¶ Firſt the ſaid imperiall crowne & other the premiſſes, ſhall be to your maieſtie and to your heires of your bodie lawfullie begotten, that is to ſaie, To the firſt ſon of your bodie betweene your highnes and your ſaid lawfull wife queene Iane begotten, and to the heires of the bodie of the ſame firſt ſon lawfullie begotten. And for the default of ſuch heires, then to the ſecond ſonne of your bodie, and of the bodie of the ſaid queene Iane begotten, and to the heirs of the bodie of the ſame ſecond ſonne lawfullie begotten, as aforeſaid, and ſo to euerie ſonne of your bodie, and of the bodie of the ſaid queene Iane begotten, and to the heires of the bodie of euerie ſuch ſonne begotten, according to the courſe of inheritance in that behalfe.

¶ And if it ſhall happen your ſaid moſt deare & intierlie beloued wife queene Iane, to deceaſe without iſſue male of the bodie of your highnes to be begotten (which God defend) then the ſame imperiall crowne, and all other the premiſſes to be to your maieſtie, as is aforeſaid, and to the ſon and heire male of your bodie lawfullie begotten by anie other lawfull wife, and to the heirs of the bodie of the ſame ſonne and heire male lawfullie begotten: and for default of ſuch iſſue, then to your ſecond ſonne of your bodie lawfullie begotten, and to the heires of the bodie of the ſame ſecond ſonne lawfullie begotten: and ſo from ſonne and heire male, to ſonne and heire male, and to the heires of the ſeuerall bodies of euerie ſuch ſonne and heire male lawfullie begotten, according to the courſe of inheritance, in like maner and forme, as is aboue ſaid.

¶ And for default of ſuch ſons of your bodie lawfullie begotten, and of the heires of the ſeuerall bodies of euerie ſuch ſon lawfullie begotten, that then the ſaid imperiall crowne, & other the premiſſes, ſhall be to the iſſue female betweene your maieſtie and your ſaid moſt deare and intierlie beloued wife queene Iane begotten: And for lacke of ſuch iſſue, then to the heires femals of your bodie lawfullie begotten by anie other lawfull wife: that is to ſaie, Firſt to the eldeſt iſſue female, & to the heires of hir bodie lawfullie begotten, and ſo from iſſue female to iſſue female, and to their heires of their bodies one after an other by courſe of inheritance according to their ages, as the crowne of England hath beene accuſtomed and ought to ſucceed and go, in caſe when there is heire female inheritable to the ſame.

¶ And for as much as it ſtandeth at this preſent time in the onelie pleaſure & will of almightie God, whether your maieſtie ſhall haue heires begotten & procreated betweene your highnes and your ſaid moſt deare & intierlie beloued wife queene Iane, or els anie lawfull heirs & iſſues heereafter of your owne bodie begotten by anie other lawfull wife, & if ſuch heirs ſhould faile, as God defend, & no prouiſion made in your life, who ſhould rule & gouerne this relme for lacke of ſuch heirs, that then this realme after your tranſitorie life ſhall be deſtitute of a lawfull gouernor: or els parcaſe incumbred with ſuch a perſon, that would couet to aſpire to the ſame, whom the ſubiects of this realme ſhall not find in their harts to loue, dread, & obedientlie ſerue as their ſoueraigne lord. And if your grace afore it maie be certenlie knowen, whether ye ſhall haue heirs or no, ſhould ſuddenlie name and declare anie perſon or perſons to ſucceed after your deceaſe, & for lacke of heirs of your bodie lawfullie begotten, into the roiall eſtate of the imperiall crowne of this realme: then it is to be doubted, that ſuch perſon that ſhould be ſo named, might happen to take great hart and courage, and by preſumption fall to inobedience and rebellion, by occaſion of which premiſſes, great diuiſion and diſſention maie be and is verie likelie to ariſe and ſpring in this realme, to the great perill and deſtruction of vs your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, and of all our poſterities, if remedie for the ſame ſhould not be prouided. For reformation and remedie whereof, we your moſt bounden and louing ſubiects, moſt obedientlie knowleging, that your maieſtie moſt victoriouſlie, prudentlie, politikelie and indifferentlie hath mainteined, defended, gouerned, & ruled this realme in good peace, reſt, quietnes and obedience, during all the time of your moſt gratious reigne, which we moſt hartilie deſire might continue for euer, putting all our whole truſt and confidence in your highnes, and nothing doubting, but that your maieſtie, if ye ſhould faile heirs of your bodie lawfullie begotten (which God defend) for the hartie loue and feruent affection that ye beare to this realme, and for auoiding all the occaſions of diuiſion afore rehearſed, ſo earneſtlie mindeth the wealth of the ſame, that ye can beſt and moſt prudentlie prouide ſuch a gouernor for vs and this your realme, as ſhall and will ſucceed and follow in the iuſt and right trade of all your proceedings, and mainteine, keepe and defend the ſame, and all the lawes and ordinances eſtabliſhed in your moſt gratious time for the wealth of this realme, which all we deſire, whereby we your ſaid moſt louing and obedient ſubiects, and our heirs and ſucceſſors ſhall and maie liue as neere as maie be, in as good peace, vnitie, and obedience after your deceaſe, as we haue liued in the time of your moſt gratious reigne: Wee therefore moſt humblie beſeech your highnes, that it maie be enacted, for auoiding of all ambiguities, doubts, diuiſions and occaſions in that behalfe, by your moſt roiall maieſtie, by the aſſent of vs the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this your preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that your highnes ſhall haue full and plenar power and authoritie, to giue, diſpoſe, appoint, aſſigne, declare and limit by your letters patents vnder your great ſeale, or els by your laſt will made in writing, and aſſigned with your moſt gratious hand, at your onelie pleaſure from time to time, heereafter the imperiall crowne of this realme, and all other the premiſſes therevnto belonging, to be,remaine, ſucceed, and come after your deceaſe, and for lacke of lawfull heirs of your bodie to be procreated and begotten, as is afore limited by this act, to ſuch perſon or perſons in poſſeſſion and remainder, as ſhall pleaſe your highnes, and according to ſuch eſtate,and after ſuch maner,forme,faſhion,order,and condition,as ſhall be expreſſed,declared, named,and limited in your ſaid letters patents,or by your ſaid laſt will. And we your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, doo faithfullie promiſe to your maieſtie by one common aſſent, that after your deceaſe,and for lacke of heirs of your bodie lawfullie begotten, as is afore rehearſed,we our heirs and ſucceſſors ſhall accept and take,loue,dread, ſerue, and alonelie obeie ſuch perſon and perſons males or females,as your maieſtie ſhall giue your ſaid imperiall crowne vnto by authoritie of this act,and to none other,and wholie to ſticke to them,as true and faithfull ſubiects ought to doo to their regall rulers,gouernors and ſupreme heads.

And for ſure corroboration therof be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that ſuch perſon and perſons, as to whom it ſhall pleaſe your maieſtie to diſpoſe, limit, & aſſigne your ſaid crowne, and other the premiſſes thereto apperteining, by your letters patents, or by your laſt will, as is aforeſaid,ſhall haue and inioy the ſame after your deceaſe,and for lacke of heires of your bodie lawfullie begotten,according to ſuch a ſtate and after ſuch maner,forme,faſhion,order, and condition, as ſhall be thereof expreſſed,mentioned and conteined in your ſaid letters patents,or in your ſaid laſt will,in as large and ample maner, as if ſuch perſon and perſons had beene your lawfull heirs to the imperiall crowne of this realme,and as if the ſame crowne of this realme had beene giuen and limited to them plainlie and particularlie,by ſpeciall names and ſufficient termes and words, by the full and immediat authoritie of this your moſt high court of parlement.

And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that if anie of your heirs or children hereafter doo vſurpe the one of them vpon the other in the crowne of this realme,or claime or chalenge your ſaid imperiall crowne in anie other forme or degree of deſcent or ſucceſſion than is afore limited by this act: or if anie perſon or perſons, to whom it ſhall pleaſe your highnes of your moſt excellent goodnes, by authoritie of this act to giue & diſpoſe your ſaid crowne & dignitie of this realme, or the heires of anie of them, doo at anie time heereafter demand, chalenge, or claime your ſaid crowne of this realme,otherwiſe or in anie other courſe,forme,degree or condition, than the ſame ſhall be giuen,diſpoſed and limited vnto them by your highnes,by vertue and authoritie of this act: or if anie ſuch perſon or perſons, to whom your maieſtie ſhall heereafter giue or diſpoſe your ſaid crowne by authoritie of this act,or anie of their heires,doo interrupt or let anie of the heires of your maieſtie, that is or ſhall be begotten, borne, and procreated vnder your lawfull, pure, ſincere and vndoubted mariage, now had and ſolemnized betweene your highnes and your ſaid moſt deare and intierlie beloued wife queene Iane,or anie other your lawfull heires heereafter to be begotten of your bodie by anie other lawfull mariage, peaceablie and quietlie to keepe, haue, and inioy the ſaid imperiall crowne,and other the premiſſes, by courſe of inheritance according to the limitation thereof,expreſſed and declared by this act, that then all and ſingular the offendors in anie of the premiſſes,contrarie to this act,and all their abbettors, mainteinors, fautors, counſellors & aidors therein,ſhall be deemed and adiudged high traitors to the realme. And that euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be accepted,reputed, and taken to be high treaſon, and the offendors therein, their aidors, mainteinors, fautors,counſellors,and abbettors and euerie of them,for euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall ſuffer ſuch iudgement and paines of death,loſſes and forfeitures of lands,goods,and priuileges of ſanctuarie, as in anie caſes of high treaſon. And ouer that as well your ſaid heires and children, as euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, to whom your highnes ſhall limit your ſaid crowne, in forme as is aforeſaid,and euerie of their heires for euerie ſuch offenſe aboue ſpecified, by them or anie of them to be committed,ſhall looſe and forfeit as well all ſuch right, title,& intereſt,that they maie claime or chalenge in or to the crowne of this realme, as heires by deſcent,or by reaſon of anie gift or act ſhall be doone by your highnes,for his or their aduancement,by authoritie of this act, or otherwiſe by anie maner of meanes or pretenſe whatſoeuer it be. ¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, dignitie or condition ſoeuer they be, at anie time heereafter,by words, writing,imprinting, or by anie exterior act or deed, maliciouſlie or willinglie procure, or doo or cauſe to be procured or doone, directlie or indirectlie, anie thing or things, to the perill of your moſt roiall perſon, or to the perill of the perſon of anie your heires or ſucceſſors, hauing the roiall eſtate of the crowne of this realme: or maliciouſlie or willinglie giue occaſion by words,writing,print,deed or act,whereby your highnes or anie your ſaid heirs or ſucceſſors,hauing the roiall eſtate of the crowne of this realme, might be diſturbed or interrupted of the crowne of this realme: or by words, writing, print, deed or act, procure or doo, or cauſe to be procured or doone anie thing or things, to or for the interruption, repeale or adnullation of this act, or of anie thing therein conteined, or of anie thing that ſhall be doone by your highnes in the limitation and diſpoſition of your crowne by authoritie of the ſame: or by words, writing, print, deed or act procure or cauſe to be procured or doone anie thing or things, to the preiudice,ſlander, diſturbance or derogation of the ſaid lawfull matrimonie, ſolemnized betweene your maieſtie and the ſaid queene Iane,or anie other your lawfull wife or wiues heereafter by your highnes to be taken: or to the perill,ſlander,or diſheriſon of anie of the iſſues and heires of your highnes, being limited by this act to inherit and to be inheritable to the crowne of this realme, in ſuch forme as is aforſaid: or to the interruption or diſheriſon of anie ſuch perſon or perſons, to whom your highnes ſhall aſſigne & diſpoſe your ſaid imperiall crowne by authoritie of this act as is afore remembred: wherby anie ſuch iſſues or heirs of your highnes, or ſuch other perſon or perſons might be deſtroied, diſturbed or interrupted in fame, bodie or title of the inheritance to the crowne of this realme, as to them is limited in this act, in forme aboue rehearſed, or as to them ſhall be limited & aſſigned by your highnes, by vertue & authoritie of this act: or if anie perſon or perſons by words, writing, imprinting, or anie other exterior act directlie or indirectlie, accept or take, iudge or beleeue anie of the mariages had & ſolemnized betweene the kings highnes & the ſaid ladie Katharine, or betweene the kings highnes & the ſaid late queene Anne, to be good, lawfull or of anie effect: or by words, writing, printing, or anie other exterior act directlie or indirectlie, ſlander, interrupt, impeach, gainſaie, or impugne the lawfull iudgements and ſentences of the ſaid moſt reuerend father in God, Thomas archbiſhop of Canturburie and primat of all England, for & concerning the diuorſes and ſeparations of the ſaid vnlawfull mariages or anie of them: or by words, writing, print, or anie other exterior act directlie or indirectlie, take, accept, name, or call by anie pretenſe anie of the children borne and procreated vnder anie of the ſaid vnlawfull mariages, to be legitimat and lawfull children of your maieſtie: or if anie perſon or perſons craftilie imagine, inuent or attempt by colour of anie pretenſe to depriue the kings highnes, the queene, or the heirs of their bodies begotten, or anie other the heirs of the kings bodie lawfullie begotten, or anie perſon or perſons, to whom the kings highnes ſhall diſpoſe, giue and limit the crowne of this realme, by authoritie of this act, of anie of their title, ſtiles, names, degrees, or roiall eſtates or regall power: or if anie perſon or perſons at anie time heereafter, being required or commanded by the kings highnes, or by ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be authorized by his grace or his lawfull heirs to make or take an oth, to anſwer to ſuch queſtions & interrogatories, as ſhall be obiected to them, vpon anie clauſe, article, ſentence, or word, conteined in this act, doo contemptuouſlie or vtterlie refuſe to make or take ſuch oth, or without fruſtratorie delaie doo not make or take the ſame oth: or after the making or taking ſuch oth, doo contemptuouſlie refuſe directlie to anſwer to ſuch queſtions and interrogatories, as be obiected concerning the ſame or anie part thereof: that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, and their aidors, counſellors, mainteinors and abettors, and euerie of them, for euerie ſuch offenſe afore declared, ſhall be adiudged high traitors: and that euerie ſuch offenſe afore ſpecified ſhall be adiudged high treaſon, and the offendors therein, and their aidors, counſellors, mainteinors, and abettors, and euerie of them being lawfullie conuict of anie ſuch offenſe by preſentment, verdict, confeſſion or proces, according to the cuſtome and lawes of this realme, ſhall ſuffer paines of death as in caſes of high treaſon: and that alſo euerie ſuch offendor, being conuict as is aforeſaid, ſhall looſe and forfeit to your highnes, and to your heirs or ſucceſſors, kings or regall rulers of this realme, all ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, & hereditaments, which they had in poſſeſſion as owners, or were ſole ſeized of, by or in anie right, title or means, or anie other perſon or perſons, had to their vſe of anie eſtate of inheritance, at the daie of ſuch treaſons and offenſes by them committed and doone. And ſhall alſo looſe and forfeit to your highnes and your ſaid heirs, as well all maner ſuch eſtates of freehold & intereſt for yeeres of lands and rents, as all other goods, chattels, and debts, which they had at the time of their conuiction or atteindor, of anie ſuch offenſe: ſauing alwaie to euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, and bodies politike, to their heirs, aſſignes, and ſucceſſors, and to the heirs and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, other than ſuch perſon as ſhall be ſo conuict or attainted, and their heirs and ſucceſſors, and all other claiming to their vſes all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, poſſeſſion, condition, rents, fees, offices, annuities, and commons, which they or anie of them ſhall haue in or vpon anie ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities or hereditaments, that ſhall ſo happen to be loſt and forfeit by reaſon of anie conuiction or attaindor, for anie the treaſons and offenſes aboue rehearſed, at anie time before the ſaid treaſons and offenſes committed. Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, offending in anie the treaſons conteined and limited by this act, or in anie other treaſons, ſhall in anie wiſe haue and inioy the priuilege or immunitie of anie maner ſanctuarie within this realme, or els where within anie the kings dominions: but ſhall vtterlie looſe and be excluded of the ſame, anie vſe, grant, cuſtome, preſcription, confirmation, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie hereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if your maieſtie ſhall happen to deceaſe before anie ſuch your iſſue & heire male of your bodie, which ſhould inherit the crowne of this realme, ſhall be of his age of eighteene yeeres, or before that ſuch your iſſue and heire female, which ſhould inherit the crowne of this realme, ſhall be maried, or be of the age of ſixteene yeeres (which almightie God defend) that then the ſaid iſſue and heire male to the crowne, ſo being within the age of eighteene yeeres, or your ſaid iſſue & heire female to the crowne, ſo being vnmaried, or within the ſaid age of ſixteene yeeres, ſhall be and remaine, vntill ſuch time as ſuch iſſues and heirs ſhall come to their ſaid ſeuerall ages afore limited, at and in the gouernance of their naturall mother, and of ſuch other your counſellors and nobles of your realme, as your highnes ſhall limit and appoint by your laſt will made in writing, ſigned with your moſt gratious hand, if it ſhall be thought by your highnes moſt conuenient ſo to be: or els the ſaid iſſues and heirs ſhall be at and in the gouernance of ſuch of your counſellors and nobles of your realme, as your maieſtie ſhall name and appoint by your laſt will made in writing,and ſigned with your moſt gratious hand,as is aforeſaid. And if anie perſon or perſons by writing,printing,or exterior déed or act, directlie or indirectlie, procure or doo, or cauſe to be procured, or doone anie thing or things, to the let or diſturbance of the ſame: that then euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be high treaſon, and the offendors being thereof conuicted, ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death and loſſe of inheritance,priuileges of ſanctuaries, fréeholds, intereſts, for yéeres,goods,chattels,and debts, in ſuch maner and forme as is aboue ſpecified in caſes of treaſon afore mentioned.

And for the more ſure eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of your moſt roiall maieſtie, according to the tenor and forme of this act. Be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that as well all the nobles of your realme ſpirituall and temporall, as all other your ſubiects now liuing and being, or that héereafter ſhall be at their full ages, by the commandement of your maieſtie, or of your heires,or ſucceſſors,at all times héereafter from time to time when it ſhall pleaſe your highnes, or your heires or ſucceſſors to appoint, ſhall make a corporall oth in the preſence of your highnes, or your heires or ſucceſſors, or before ſuch other as your maieſtie or your heires or ſucceſſors will aſſigne for the ſame,for the kéeping,obſeruing,defending,auowing,and mainteining of this act,and of all things that ſhall be doone by your highnes by authoritie thereof,according to the tenor of an oth héereafter inſuing: that is to ſaie,Ye ſhall ſweare to beare faith,truth, and obedience alonelie to the kings maieſtie,ſupreme head in earth vnder God of the church of England, during his life, and to his heires of his bodie of his moſt deare and intierlie beloued lawfull wife quéene Jane,begotten and to be begotten and procreated: and further to the heires of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, according to the limitation in the ſtatute made for ſuretie of his ſucceſſion in the crowne of this realme,in the parlement begun and holden at Weſtminſter in the eight daie of June, in the eight and twentith yéere of the kings moſt gratious reigne. And alſo for lacke of ſuch heires, to ſuch perſon and perſons as the kings highnes ſhall limit & appoint to ſuccéed to the crowne,by vertue and authoritie of the ſame act,and not to anie other within this realme, nor forren authoritie, power or potentat. And in caſe anie other oth be made or hath béene made by you to anie perſon or perſons,that then ye to repute the ſame as vaine and adnihilat. And that to your cunning, wit,and vttermoſt of your power,without guile,fraud,or other vndue maner,ye ſhall obſerue,kéepe,mainteine,and defend the ſaid act of ſucceſſion made in the ſaid parlement, begun and holden at Weſtminſter in the ſaid eight daie of June, in the ſaid eight and twentith yéere of the kings moſt roiall reigne,and all the whole effects and contents thereof, and all things that ſhall be doone by the kings highnes by authoritie of the ſame,and all other acts and ſtatutes made in confirmation, or for execution of the ſame,or of anie thing therin conteined: and this ye ſhall doo againſt all maner of perſons,of what eſtate,dignitie,degrée, or condition ſoeuer they be: & in no wiſe doo or attempt, nor to your power ſuffer to be doone,or attempted directlie or indirectlie, anie thing or things priuilie or apertlie,to the let,hinderance,damage,or derogation thereof, or of anie part of the ſame,or of anie thing or things that ſhall be doone by the kings highnes, by vertue or authoritie of the ſaid act, by anie maner of meanes, or for anie maner of pretenſe, ſo helpe you God, All ſaints,and the holie Euangeliſts.

¶ And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that all maner your ſubiects,as well ſpirituall as temporall,ſuing liuerie, or Ouſter le maine, out of the hands of your highnes, or of your heires or ſucceſſors,or doing anie fealtie to your highnes, or to your heires or ſucceſſors, by reaſon of tenure of their lands,ſhall ſweare the ſaid corporall oth aboue mentioned. And that they nor anie of them,ſhall hereafter haue anie liueries,Ouſtre le maine,or reſtitution out of your hands,nor out of the hands of your heirs or ſucceſſors,till they ſhall haue made the ſaid corporall oth,in forme aboue rehearſed. And if anie perſon or perſons, being commanded by authoritie of this act, to make the ſaid oth afore limited,obſtinatlie or wilfullie refuſe that to doo,or will proteſt & ſaie, then they ſhall be examined vpon anie interrogatories, that ſhall be obiected to them, for or concerning this act, or anie thing therein conteined, that they be not bound to declare their thought and conſcience, and ſtifie thereon abide: that then euerie ſuch perſon ſo doing, for euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be taken and accepted for offendor in high treaſon: and that euerie ſuch refuſall ſhall be déemed and adiudged high treaſon, and the offendor therein, being as afore is limited, lawfullie conuicted or atteinted thereof by the lawes of this realme,ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death,loſſes and forfeitures, and alſo loſe priuileges of ſanctuaries, in like maner and forme as is aboue mentioned, for the treaſons afore limited by this act.

And be it further enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement,that if it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie at anie time héereafter, by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, or by his laſt will made in writing, and ſigned with his moſt gratious hand, to aduance anie perſon or perſons of his moſt roiall bloud to anie title,ſtile, or name of anie eſtate, dignitie or honor, whatſoeuer it be, & to giue to them,or to anie of them anie caſtels,honors,manors,lands,tenements,liberties, franchiſes,or other hereditaments,in fée ſimple,fée taile,or for terme of their liues, or the life of anie of them: that then all and euerie ſuch letters patents and laſt will of his highnes, ſo to be made to anie ſuch perſon or perſons of his bloud,ſhall be good and effectuall to them and euerie of them,according to the tenor,purports,and effects of euerie ſuch letters patents and laſt will. And that the ſaid perſon and perſons, and euerie of them, ſhall haue & inioy as well all ſuch titles, ſtiles, and names of honor, dignitie and eſtats, which ſhall be conteined, and expreſſed in anie ſuch letters patents or laſt will of the kings highneſſe, as ſuch caſtels, honors, manors, lands, tenements, liberties, franchiſes, and all other hereditaments, which ſhall be ſpecified and mentioned in euerie ſuch letters patents or laſt will, in ſuch maner,forme,faſhion,and condition, and according to ſuch eſtate or eſtates in the law,as ſhall be expreſſed and limited in euerie ſuch letters patents or laſt will, in as large and ample maner,to all intents and purpoſes,as if the titles, ſtiles, and names of honor, dignitie, and eſtate,and the caſtels,honors,manors,lands,tenements, liberties, franchiſes,& other hereditaments,which ſhall be compriſed in anie ſuch letters patents or laſt will to be made, were alreadie giuen by good and ſufficient letters patents, to ſuch perſon or perſons of the kings bloud, by their ſpeciall names and ſurnames, and ratified and confirmed by authoritie of this preſent parlement, or as if the names of ſuch perſon and perſons,ſo being of the kings bloud, and ſuch titles,ſtiles,names,caſtels,honors,manors,lands,tenements,liberties,franchiſes,or other hereditaments,had béene ſpeciallie named and expreſſed in this act, and giuen to ſuch perſon and perſons of the kings bloud by their proper names and ſurnames, by ſufficient words, termes, clauſes,and ſentences,immediatlie by authoritie of this preſent parlement. Sauing to all and euerie perſon and perſons, and bodies politike, and to their heires, aſſignes, and ſucceſſors, other than to the kings highneſſe,his heires or ſucceſſors, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, poſſeſſion, rents, annuities, fées,offices,commons,rights, intereſts, petitions, conditions, and all other hereditaments, which they or anie of them maie or mought claime of, in, or to anie the ſaid titles, ſtiles, names, caſtles, honors, manors, lands, tenements, liberties, franchiſes, and other hereditaments, conteined or mentioned in anie ſuch letters patents, or laſt will, in as large and ample maner, as if this act had neuer béene had nor made.

And be it finallie enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that this preſent act,and euerie clauſe,article,and ſentence compriſed in the ſame,ſhall be taken and accepted according to the plaine words and ſentences therein conteined,and ſhall not be interpreted nor expounded by colour of anie pretenſe or cauſe,or by anie ſubtill arguments,inuention,or reaſons,to the hinderance,diſturbance,or derogation of this act,or anie part thereof : anie thing or things, act or acts of parlement héeretofore made,or héereafter to be had, doone, or made, to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And that euerie act,ſtatute,law,prouiſion,thing and things,héeretofore had or made,or héereafter to be had,doone,or made,contrarie to the effect of this ſtatute,ſhall be void and of no value nor force.

An act for continuance of the ſtatutes againſt the carriage of braſſe,lattin,and copper out of this realme ; and for making of gables and ropes,for the winding of wools,and againſt killing of weinlings vnder the age of two yeares.

Chap. 8.

WHere in the laſt parlement begun and holden at London, the third daie of Nouember, in the xxi.yeare of the kings moſt gratious reigne, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuerſe prorogations, vntill the diſſolution thereof, it was ordeined and eſtabliſhed amongſt other things, one act for reſtreining the carriages of braſſe,lattin, and copper out of this realme : and alſo one other act was made in this parlement for the true making of gables,halſers,and ropes : one other act for true winding of wools : and one other act to reſtreine killing of weinlings, bullocks, ſteres,or heifers,being vnder the age of two yeares.All which foure ſeuerall acts were made to continue and indure to the next parlement,as by the ſaid acts more plainlie appeareth. For as much as the ſaid ſeuerall acts, and euerie of them,be neceſſarie for the commonwealth of this realme,be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement,that the ſaid foure ſeuerall acts, and all clauſes,articles, and prouiſions therein conteined,ſhall from henſeforth be and ſtand good and effectuall, and to indure and continue vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act for continuance of the ſtatutes of periurie, for making of gailes,for pewterers, and for ſowing of flax and hempe.

Chap. 9.

WHere in the parlement begun and holden at London the third daie of Nouember,and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by prorogation vnto the fiftéenth daie of Ianuarie, in the xxiij. yeare of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight,it was then in that ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, one act made and eſtabliſhed,for the attaints to be ſued for puniſhment of periurie vpon vntrue verdicts, which act was then made to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement. And where alſo in the ſaid ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement,one act was made and eſtabliſhed for making of gailes in diuerſe ſhires of this realme,which act was then made to continue and indure for one yéere next after the end of the ſame parlement. And where alſo in the time of the ſame parlement, one other act was made concerning pewterers,which act was alſo made to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement. And alſo in the time of the ſaid parlement one other act was made concerning ſowing of flax and hempe,which act alſo was made to continue and indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſaid foure ſeuerall acts more plainlie appeareth. For as much as the ſaid foure acts be good and beneficiall for the commonwealth of this realme, be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement,that the ſaid foure acts and euerie of them,and all clauſes,articles, and prouiſions therein conteined,ſhall ſtand,continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, and be obſerued and kept to the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act extinguiſhing the authoritie of the biſhop of Rome.

Chap.10.

FOr as much as notwithſtanding the good and wholeſome lawes, ordinances, and ſtatutes heeretofore made, enacted and eſtabliſhed by the kings highneſſe our moſt gratious ſoueraigne lord, and by the whole conſent of his high court of parlement, for the extirpation, abolition, and extinguiſhment out of this realme, and other his graces dominions, ſeigniories, and countries, of the pretended power and vſurped authoritie of the biſhop of Rome, by ſome called the pope, vſed within the ſame or elſewhere, concerning the ſame realme, dominions, ſeigniories, or countries, which did obfuſcat and wreſt Gods holie word and teſtament a long ſeaſon from the ſpirituall and true meaning thereof, to his worldlie and carnall affections, as pompe, glorie, auarice, ambition, and tyrannie, couering and ſhadowing the ſame with his humane and politike deuiſes, traditions, and inuentions, ſet forth to promot and ſtabliſh his onelie dominion, both vpon the ſoules and alſo the bodies and goods of all chriſtian people, excluding Chriſt out of his kingdome and rule of mans ſoule, as much as he maie, and all other temporall kings and princes out of their dominions, which they ought to haue by Gods law, vpon the bodies and goods of their ſubiects: whereby he did not onelie rob the kings maieſtie, being onelie the ſupreme head of this his realme of England immediatlie vnder God, of his honor, right and preheminence, due vnto him by the law of God, but ſpoiled this his realme yearlie of innumerable treaſure, and with the loſſe of the ſame deceiued the kings louing & obedient ſubiects, perſuading to them by his lawes, buls, and other his deceiuable meanes, ſuch dreames, vanities, and fantaſies, as by the ſame manie of them were ſeduced and conueied vnto ſuperſtitious and erronious opinions: ſo that the kings maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this realme, being ouer wearied and fatigated with the experience of the infinit abhominations and miſcheefes, proceeding of his impoſtures, and craftilie colouring of his deceits, to the great damages of ſoules, bodies, and goods, were forced of neceſſitie for the publike weale of this realme, to exclude that forren pretended power, iuriſdiction, and authoritie, vſed and vſurped within this realme, and to deuiſe ſuch remedies for their releefe in the ſame, as dooth not onelie redound to the honor of God, the high praiſe and aduancement of the kings maieſtie and of his realme, but alſo to the great and ineſtimable vtilitie of the ſame. And notwithſtanding the ſaid wholeſome lawes ſo made, and heeretofore eſtabliſhed, yet it is commen to the knowledge of the kings highneſſe, and alſo to diuerſe and manie his louing, faithfull, and obedient ſubiects, how that diuerſe ſeditious and contentious perſons, being imps of the ſaid biſhop of Rome and his ſee, and in heart members of his pretended monarchie, doo in corners and elſewhere as they dare, whiſper, inculke, preach, and perſuade, and from time to time inſtill into the eares and heads of the poore ſimple and vnlettered people, the aduancement and continuance of the ſaid biſhops feined and pretended authoritie, pretending the ſame to haue his ground and originall of Gods law, whereby the opinions of manie be ſuſpended, their iudgments corrupted and deceiued, and diuerſitie in opinions augmented and increaſed, to the great diſpleaſure of almightie God, the high diſcontentation of our ſaid moſt dread ſoueraigne lord, and the interruption of the vnitie, loue, charitie, concord and agreement, that ought to be in a chriſtian region and congregation. For auoiding whereof, and repreſſion of the follies of ſuch ſeditious perſons, as be the means and authors of ſuch inconueniences. Be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons, dwelling, demurring, inhabiting, or reſiant within this realme, or within anie other the kings dominions, ſeigniories, or countries, or the marches of the ſame, or elſewhere within or vnder his obeizance and power, of what eſtate, dignitie, preheminence, order, degree, or condition ſoeuer he or they be, after the laſt daie of Julie, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1536, ſhall by writing, cifring, printing, preaching, or teaching, deed or act, obſtinatlie or maliciouſlie, hold or ſtand with, to extoll, ſet forth, mainteine or defend the authoritie, iuriſdiction or power of the biſhop of Rome, or of his ſee, heeretofore claimed, vſed, or vſurped within this realme or in anie dominion or countrie, being of, within, or vnder the kings power or obeizance, or by anie pretenſe obſtinatlie or maliciouſlie inuent anie thing, for the extolling, aduancement, ſetting forth, maintenance, or defenſe of the ſame, or anie part thereof, or by anie pretenſe obſtinatlie or maliciouſlie attribute anie maner of iuriſdiction, authoritie, or preheminence to the ſaid ſee of Rome, or to anie biſhop of the ſame ſee for the time being within this realme, or in anie the kings dominions or countries: that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo dooing or offending, their aidors, aſſiſtants, comfortors, abettors, procurers, mainteiners, fautors, counſellors, concealors, and euerie of them, being thereof lawfullie conuicted, according to the lawes of this realme, for euerie ſuch default and offenſe ſhall incur and run into the dangers, penalties, paines, and forfeitures, ordeined and prouided by the ſtatute of prouiſion and premunire, made in the ſixteenth yeere of the reigne of the noble and valiant prince king Richard the ſecond, againſt ſuch as attempt, procure or make prouiſion to the ſee of Rome or elſewhere, for any thing or things, to the derogation or contrarie to the prerogatiue roiall, or iuriſdiction of the crowne and dignitie of this realme.

Refuſe
Treaſon

And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, limited or commanded by authoritie of this act, to make the ſaid oth, or commanded by anie other perſon or perſons, authorized by the kings highneſſe commiſſion, vnder his great ſeale, or his ſeale ordeined for cauſes eccleſiaſticall, to make the ſaid oth, obſtinatlie refuſe that to doo : that then euerie ſuch offenſe and contempt ſhall be high treaſon, and the offendors thereof being lawfullie conuicted, ſhall ſuffer pains of death, and other forfeitures, penalties, and loſſes, as is limited and accuſtomed in caſes of high treaſon, by anie lawes or ſtatutes of this realme héeretofore made.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that this act, nor anie thing or things in the ſame rehearſed, mentioned, or compriſed, be in anie wiſe preiudiciall, hurtfull, or derogatorie to the ceremonies, vſes, and other laudable & politike ordinances, for a tranquillitie, diſcipline, concord, deuotion, vnitie, and decent order héeretofore in the church of England vſed, inſtituted, taken, and accepted, nor to anie perſon or perſons accordinglie vſing the ſame or anie of them.

Iſles

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that this act, concerning the biſhop of Rome, or anie thing to be doone by his vſurped authoritie, ſhall no further bind nor extend to and vpon the kings ſubiects of his iſles of Jerſeie, Gernſeie, and Alderneie, in anie other maner, forme, or condition, than it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe, with the aduiſe of his moſt honorable counſell, vpon conſideration and examination of the eſtate and diſpoſition of his ſaid iſles, and the commonwealth of the ſame, héereafter to eſtabliſh, ordeine, and declare vnto them by his gratious letters patents vnder his great ſeale : and that the ſaid letters patents, and euerie thing therein to be conteined, ſhall be of the ſame effect, ſtrength, and vertue, as if they had béene paſſed and enacted by authoritie of parlement, anie thing in the ſaid act conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for reſtitution of the firſt fruits in time of vacation to the next incumbent.

Chap.11.

FOr as much as in the ſtatute of the paiment vnto the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, of the firſt fruits of ſpirituall promotions, offices, benefices, and dignities, within this realme, and other the kings dominions, expreſſe mention and declaration is not had ne made, from what time the yeare ſhall be accounted, in which the firſt fruits ſhall be due and paiable to his highneſſe, that is to wit, whether immediatlie from the death, reſignation, or depriuation of euerie incumbent, or from the time of admiſſion or new taking of poſſeſſion in euerie ſuch promotion.

And alſo by reaſon that in the ſame ſtatute it is not declared, who ſhall haue the fruits, tithes, and other profits of the ſaid benefices, offices, promotions, and dignities ſpirituall, during the time of vacation thereof, diuerſe of the archbiſhops and biſhops of this realme, haue not onelie, when the time of perceiuing and taking of tithes (that is to ſaie, wooll, lambe, corne, and haie, and tithes vſuallie paid at the holie time of Eaſter) hath approched, deferred the collation of ſuch benefices, as haue beene of their owne patronage, but alſo haue vpon preſentations of clerks, made vnto them by the iuſt patrons, protracted and deferred to inſtitute, induct, and admit the ſame clerks, to the intent that they might haue and perceiue to their owne vſe, the ſame tithes growing during the vacation: ſo that through ſuch delaies (ouer and aboue the firſt fruits, which be iuſtlie due to the kings highneſſe) they haue beene conſtreined alſo to loſe all or the moſt part of one yeares profits of their benefices and promotions, and to ſerue the cure at their and their freends proper coſts and charges, or vtterlie to forſake and giue ouer their benefices and promotions, to their great loſſe and hinderance. For reformation whereof, it is ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueréigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid yeare in which the firſt fruits ſhall be paid to the kings grace, ſhall begin and be accounted immediatlie after the auoidance or vacation of anie ſuch benefice or promotion ſpirituall afore rehearſed. And that the tithes, fruits, oblations, obuentions, emoluments, commodities, aduantages, rents, and all other whatſoeuer reuenues, caſualties, or profits, certeine and vncerteine, afferring or belonging to anie archdeaconrie, deanrie, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, hoſpitall, wardenſhip, prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, benefice, dignitie, or office (chantries onlie excepted) within this realme, or other the kings dominions, growing, riſing, or comming, during the time of vacation of the ſame promotion ſpirituall, ſhall belong and after to ſuch perſon, as ſhall be therevnto next preſented, promoted, inſtituted, inducted or admitted, and to his executors, toward the paiment of the firſt fruits to the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors: anie vſage, cuſtome, libertie, priuilege, or preſcription to the contrarie had, vſed, or being in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

First fruit Vacation

Biſhop

¶ And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie archbiſhop, biſhop, archdeacon, ordinarie, or anie other perſon or perſons to their vſes and behoofe, at anie time heeretofore ſith the firſt daie of Maie laſt paſt, haue perceiued, receiued, or taken, or at anie time heereafter doo perceiue, receiue, or take the fruits, tithes, obuentions, oblations, emoluments, commodities, reuenues rents, aduantages, profits, or caſualties, comming, growing, or belonging, or which heereafter ſhall come grow, after, or belong, to anie archdeaconrie, deanrie, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, hoſpitall, wardenſhip, prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, benefice, dignitie, or office (chantries onelie excepted) within this realme, or other the kings dominions, during the vacation of ſuch archdeaconrie, deanrie, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, hoſpitall, wardenſhip, prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, benefice, dignitis, or office, chantries onelie excepted. And the ſame vpon reaſonable requeſt from henſeforth to be made, dooth not render, reſtore, ſatiſfie, content, and paie to the next incumbent, being lawfullie inſtituted, inducted, or admitted to ſuch archdeaconrie, deanrie, prebend, parſonage, or vicarage, or other promotion, benefice, dignitie or office ſpirituall, except before excepted: or doo let or interrupt the ſaid incumbent to haue the ſame: that then euerie archbiſhop, biſhop, archdeacon, ordinarie, or other perſon ſo dooing, ſhall forfeit and looſe the treble value of ſo much as he ſhall then haue receiued of the fruits of euerie prebend, parſonage, vicarage, hoſpitall, wardenſhip, prouoſtſhip, or other ſpirituall promotion, whereof he ſo ſhall perceiue, receiue, or deteine, let, or interrupt the incumbent, to perceiue, receiue, and haue the fruits, tithes, obuentions, oblations, emoluments, commodities, reuenues, rents, aduantages, profits, or caſualties: the moitie of which forfeiture ſhall be to the king our ſoueréigne lord, and the other moitie thereof to the incumbent of the ſame prebend, parſonage, or vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion, to be recouered in anie of the kings courts, by action, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in which action or ſute the defendent ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be vnto the defendent allowed.

Incumbēt

Reteiner

Prouided alwaie, that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie archbiſhop, biſhop, archdeacon and ordinarie, their officers and miniſters, to reteine in his or their cuſtodie, ſo much of the tithes, fruits, obuentions, oblations, emoluments, commodities, aduantages, rents, reuenues, caſualties and profits, as ſhall amount to paie vnto ſuch perſon or perſons, as hath or ſhall ſerue or keepe the cure of ſuch archdeaconrie, deanrie, prebend, parſonage, or vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion, during the vacation, his or their reaſonable ſtipend or ſalarie. And alſo for the collection, gathering, and leuieng of ſuch tithes, fruits, emoluments, rents, and other profits, riſing and growing during the vacation aforeſaid: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Incumbent die Glebe

Prouided alſo and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in caſe anie of the incumbents aforeſaid happen to die, and before his death hath cauſed anie of his glebe lands to be manured and ſowen at his proper coſts and charges with anie corne or graine: that then in that caſe, all and euerie of the ſame incumbents may make and declare their teſtaments of all the profits of the corne growing vpon the ſame glebe lands, ſo manured and ſowen: anie thing conteined in this preſent act in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

And where alſo before this time diuerſe and manie parſons, vicars, and other ſpirituall perſons, being ſeized, for terme of their liues, of and in the ſaid ſpirituall promotions aforenamed, as well for great ſummes of monie to them before hand paid, as for other cauſes and conſiderations, haue let in farme for terme of yeares by ſufficient writings, their ſaid parſonages, vicarages, and other ſpirituall promotions,or part thereof,vnto diuerſe and manie of the kings ſubiects,and after ſuch leaſes by them ſo made, the leaſſors thereof haue oftentimes vſed to reſigne their ſaid benefices or ſpirituall promotions,ſo demiſed and letten in farme, by reaſon of which reſignation,and other the acts of the ſaid leaſors, the ſaid benefices and other ſpirituall promotions haue bin void, and the title and intereſts of the ſaid leaſes hath beene thereby adnihilat and of none effect in the law,contrarie to right and good conſcience. For reformation thereof, and for a quietneſſe the better héereafter to be had and continued betwéene the kings ſubiects: be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement,that from the foreſaid firſt daie of Maie laſt paſt, no maner of ſuch leaſe, by ſufficient writing héeretofore made, nor héereafter to be made by anie ſpirituall perſon within this realme of England, Wales, or the marches of the ſame, to anie laie perſon of anie parſonage, vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion aforeſaid within this realme, vpon which leaſe the rent and ſeruices reſerued,with other the yearelie charges of the leaſe, as in ſeruing the cure and otherwiſe,ſhall amount within fortie ſhillings by the yeare, of as much as the ſaid parſonage,vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion aforeſaid, ſo letten, is rated and valued at vpon the kings bookes,for paieng the firſt fruits,ſhall be adiudged void, adnihilat or determined, by reaſon of anie ſuch reſignation or other auoidance of the ſaid benefice or ſpirituall promotion ſo letten by the onelie act of the ſaid leaſor,but that euerie ſuch leaſée or grantée of anie ſuch benefices or ſpirituall promotions aforeſaid,their executors or aſſignes,ſhall haue and may inioy their termes and intereſts of and in the ſame, for the terme of ſix yeares to be accounted next and immediatlie after the ſaid auoidance,if the ſaid leaſor doo ſo long liue, and the leaſe ſo by him before made,doo ſo long continue and indure.And that after ſuch auoidance,the ſucceſſor or ſucceſſors of euerie ſuch leaſor, ſhall and maie diſtreine for the rent and ſeruices ſo reſerued, and haue their actions of debt,and all other aduantages by waie of action, entrée, or otherwiſe, againſt the ſaid leſée, his executors or aſſignes, for recouerie of the ſaid rent and couenants vpon the ſaid leaſe reſerued, as the leaſor thereof might haue had,if no ſuch auoidance had béene had.

And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if héereafter it happen anie ſuch leaſor to deceaſſe and die before the end of the terme by him ſo made, and that there be one yeare at leaſt to come of the ſaid terme: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the leaſée thereof,his executors or aſſignes,to hold and inioy their ſaid leaſe to the end of the ſame yeare wherein he is ſo entered at the time of his ſaid leaſors death,if his ſaid leaſe doo ſo long continue,bearing and paieng vnto the ſucceſſor of euerie ſuch leaſor,all ſuch rent and ſeruices,as for the remnant of the ſaid yeare ſhall vpon euerie ſuch leaſe be due: for the recouerie thereof,the ſaid ſucceſſor ſhall and may haue all ſuch waies and aduantages as before is limited and giuen to the ſucceſſor, where his predeceſſor maketh ſuch leaſe and reſigneth.

Succeſſor

Prouided alwaie that euerie ſucceſſor after the death of his predeceſſor, maie and ſhall haue vpon one moneths warning after the time of his induction,the manſion houſe of euerie ſuch parſonage,vicarage, or other ſpirituall promotion aforeſaid,with the glebe belonging to the ſame not being ſowen at the time of his ſaid predeceſſors death,for maintenance of his houſhold,deducting therefore in his rent as héeretofore hath béene borne for the ſame,or as it is reaſonablie worth,any thing in this ſaid act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Vacation

Prouided alwaie,that if the fruits of the vacation of the ſaid ſpirituall promotions be not ſufficient to paie the curats ſtipend and wages for ſeruing the cure the vacation time, that then the ſame to be borne and paid by the next incumbent within fourtéene daies next after that he hath the poſſeſſion of the ſaid promotions ſpirituall.

An act declaring the limits of the kings palace of Weſtminſter.

Palace

FOraſmuch as the kings palace at Weſtminſter, builded and edified there, before the time of mind, by and nigh vnto the monaſterie and abbeie of ſaint Peter at Weſtminſter in the countie of Middleſex,is and of long time hath béene in vtter ruine and decaie: and that our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, king of England and of France,defendor of the faith,lord of Ireland, and ſupreame head in earth of the church of England, hath latelie obteined and purchaſed one great manſion place and houſe, ſometime parcell of the poſſeſſions and inheritance of the archbiſhop of Yorke, ſituat and being in the towne of Weſtminſter, in the ſame countie, not much diſtant from the ſame ancient palace. And the kings highneſſe now of late vpon the ſoile of the ſaid manſion place and houſe, and vpon the ground therevnto adioining, moſt ſumptuouſlie and curiouſlie hath builded and edified manie and diſtinct, beautifull,coſtlie,and pleaſant lodgings,buildings, and manſions, for his graces ſingular pleaſure,comfort,and commoditie,to the great honor of his highneſſe & of his realme, therevnto adioining hath made a parke,walled and inuironed with bricke and ſtone, and therein hath deuiſed and ordeined manie and ſingular commodious things, pleaſures, and other neceſſaries,moſt apt and conuenient to apperteine onelie to ſo noble a prince,for his ſingular comfort,paſtime, and ſolace: be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all the ſaid ſoile, ground,manſion,and buildings,and the ſaid parke, with all other things, commodities and pleaſures therevpon made, builded and deuiſed as is aforeſaid,and alſo the ſoile of the ſaid ancient palace, ſhall be from henſeforth the kings whole palace at Weſtminſter,and ſo to be taken, déemed,reputed,called and named the Kings palace at Weſtminſter for euer. And that the ſame palace ſhall from henſeforth extend and be as well within the ſoile and places afore limited and appointed for the ſame, as alſo in all the ſtreet or waie leading from Charing croſſe, vnto the ſanctuarie gate at Weſtminſter aforeſaid, and in all the houſes, buildings, lands and tenements on both the ſides of the ſame ſtreet or waie from the ſaid croſſe vnto Weſtminſter hall, ſituat, lieng, or being betwene the water of the Thames of the eaſt part, & the ſaid parke wall of the weſt part, and ſo forth through all the ſoile, precinct and limits of the ſaid old palace.

Bounds

¶ And that the ſaid palace now made by the authoritie of this act, ſhall from henſeforth haue and inioy within the precinct, limits and bounds before expreſſed and declared of and for the ſame, all ſuch and like prerogatiues, liberties, preheminences, iuriſdictions, and priuileges, as to the kings ancient palace within this realme, haue at anie time héeretofore belonged, vſed, or of right apperteined. And that the ſame old and ancient palace of Weſtminſter, from henſeforth be reputed, déemed, and taken, onelie as a member and parcell of the ſaid new palace, made by this act, as is aforeſaid: anie preſcription, record or vſage héeretofore had, vſed, or allowed, to the contrarie notwithſtanding. Sauing to all and ſingular perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, their heires and ſucceſſors, and euerie of them, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, poſſeſſion, rents, reuerſion, remainder, diſtreſſe, action, leaſe, leaſes, grants, annuities, ſutes, petitions and conditions, in ſuch maner and forme as they or anie of them, their heires and ſucceſſors, or the heires and ſucceſſors of anie of them haue had, ſhould, might, or ought to haue had in the premiſſes, or anie parcell thereof, if this act had neuer béene had ne made: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Priuileges

Rights

Prouided alwaies that this preſent act, nor anie thing therein conteined, be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to William Babington, kéeper of our old palace of Weſtminſter, his heires nor aſſignes, for or concerning his ſaid office, but it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid William Babington, his heires and aſſignes, to haue, hold, occupie, exerciſe and inioy the ſaid office of kéeper of the ſaid palace at Weſtminſter, with all commodities, profits, aduantages, and other emoluments, riſing or growing of the ſame office, in as large and ample maner as if this preſent act had not béene made: anie thing in this preſent act to the contrarie héeretofore notwithſtanding.

Office

An act compelling ſpirituall perſons to keepe reſidence vpon their benefices.

Chap. 13.

WHere in the parlement begun at London, the third daie of Nouember, in the one and twentith yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiorned and proroged to the palace of Weſtminſter, the ſeuentéenth daie of December then next inſuing, amongſt other good acts and ordinances, then and there by the authoritie of the ſaid parlement, it was eſtabliſhed, ordeined, and enacted, that as well euerie ſpirituall perſon then being promoted to anie archdeaconrie, deanrie, or dignitie in anie monaſterie or cathedrall church, or other church conuentuall or collegiall, or being beneficed with anie parſonage or vicarage, as all and euerie ſpirituall perſon and perſons, which ſhould after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, which was in the foreſaid xxi. yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, be promoted to anie of the ſaid dignities or benefices, with anie parſonage or vicarage, ſhould from the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell be perſonallie reſident and abiding at and vpon his ſaid dignitie, prebend, or benefice, or at one of them at the leaſt. And in caſe anie ſuch ſpirituall perſon, at anie time after the ſaid feaſt, kept not reſidence at one of his ſaid dignities, prebend, or benefices (as is aforeſaid) but abſent himſelfe wilfullie by the ſpace of one moneth togither, or by the ſpace of two moneths, to be accounted at ſeuerall times in anie one yeare, and make his reſidence and abiding in anie other places by ſuch time: that then he ſhall forfeit for euerie ſuch default ten pounds ſterling, as in the ſame act more plainelie dooth appeare. In which act among other prouiſions conteined and ſpecified in the ſame, it was prouided, that the ſaid act of non reſidence ſhould not in anie wiſe extend ne be preiudiciall to anie ſcholer or ſcholers, being conuerſant and abiding for ſtudie without fraud or couin at anie vniuerſitie within this realme or without, as by the ſame prouiſion dooth alſo appeare more at large. Siſhens the making of which good act and ſtatute, diuerſe and manie perſons, being beneficed with cure of ſoule (as is aforeſaid) and being not apt to ſtudie, by reaſon of their age or otherwiſe, ne neuer intending before the making of the ſaid act to trauell in ſtudie within anie of the ſaid vniuerſities for the increaſe of learning, but rather minding and intending their owne eaſe, ſingular lucre and pleaſure, by the ſame prouiſion colourablie to defraud the ſame good ſtatute and ordinance, doo dailie and commonlie reſort and repaire to the ſaid vniuerſities of Oxenford and Cambridge, and to either of them, where they vnder the ſaid pretenſe and colour of ſtudie doo continue and abide, liuing diſſolutelie, nothing profiting themſelues by ſtudie at all in learning, but conſume the time in idleneſſe, and in other paſtimes and inſolent pleaſures, giuing occaſion and euill example thereby to other yoong men and ſtudents within the ſaid vniuerſities, little or nothing regarding their cure and charge of ſoule, contrarie to the mind and intent of the makers of the foreſaid good ſtatute and ordinance. And alſo diuerſe and manie old beneficed men haue and doo continuallie remaine there, neuer exerciſing nor practiſing their learning, to the example of vertue and maintenance of the common weale, in diſcharge of their conſcience, according to their dutie, hauing neuertheleſſe and occupieng ſuch roomes and commodities, as were inſtituted and ordeined for the maintenance and releeſe of poore ſcholers, to the great hinderance and detriment of the ſame. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that all & ſingular ſpirituall perſon and perſons, which now be, or heereafter ſhall be to anie benefice or benefices promoted as is aforeſaid, being aboue the age of xl. yeares, the chancellor, vicechancellor, commiſſarie of the ſaid vniuerſities, or anie of them, wardens, deans, prouoſts, preſidents, rectors, maiſters, principals and other head rulers of colleges, halles, and other houſes or places corporat within the ſaid vniuerſities, or anie of them, doctors of the chaire, readers of diuinitie in the common ſchooles of diuinitie, in anie of the ſaid vniuerſities onelie excepted, ſhall be reſident and abiding at and vpon one of their ſaid benefices, according to the intent and true meaning of the ſaid former act, vpon ſuch paine and penalties as be conteined in the ſaid former act, made and appointed for ſuch beneficed perſons for their non reſidence. And that none of the ſaid beneficed perſons, being aboue the age aforeſaid, except before excepted, ſhall from henſeforth be excuſed of their non reſidence vpon the ſaid benefices for that they be ſtudents or reſiant within the ſaid vniuerſities, or anie of them, anie prouiſo, or anie other clauſe or ſentence, ſpecified or conteined in the ſaid former act of non reſidence, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie heereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Non reſi.

And ouer this be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all & ſingular ſuch beneficed perſons being vnder the age of xl. yeares, reſiant and abiding within the ſaid vniuerſities, or anie of them, ſhall not inioy the priuilege & libertie of non reſidence, conteined in the prouiſo of the ſaid former act, made for the ſcholers and ſtudents of the ſaid vniuerſities or anie of them, vnleſſe he or they be preſent at the ordinarie lecture or lectures, aſwell at home in their houſes as in the common ſchoole or ſchooles, and in their proper perſons keepe ſophems, problems, diſputations, and other exerciſes of learning, and be opponent and reſpondent in the ſame, according to the ordinances and ſtatutes of either of the ſaid vniuerſities, where he or they ſhall be ſo abiding or reſiant, anie thing conteined in the ſaid prouiſo or former act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie that this act ſhall begin to take effect at the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, and not before.

Readers

Age

Prouided alwaie, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to anie perſon or perſons, which now is or heereafter ſhall be readers of anie publike or common lecture in diuinitie, law ciuill, phyſicke, philoſophie, humanitie, or of anie the liberall ſciences, or publike or common interpretors or teachers of the Hebrue toong, Chaldeie, or Greeke, in what ſo euer college or place of anie of the ſaid vniuerſities the ſaid perſons for the time being, ſhall read the ſaid common or publike lectures: nor yet to anie perſon or perſons, which are about the age of xl. yeares, which ſhall reſort to anie of the ſaid vniuerſities to proceed doctors in diuinitie, law ciuill, or phyſicke, for the time of their proceedings & executing of ſuch ſermons, diſputations or lectors, which they be bound by the ſtatutes of the vniuerſities, there to doo for the ſaid degrees ſo obteined.

An act limiting the priſes of wines.

Chap.14.

Gaſcoine Fr. wine Gallon

Sweet wines

BE it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon or perſons ſhall ſell anie Gaſcoine, Guion or French wines aboue eight penſe the galon, that is to ſaie: a penie the pint, two penſe the quart, foure penſe the pottell, and eight penſe the galon, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie pint to be ſold aboue the ſaid priſe foure penſe, and for euerie quart ſold aboue the ſaid priſe, eight penſe, and for euerie pottell ſo ſold aboue the ſaid priſe, twelue penſe, and for euerie galon ſo ſold aboue the ſaid priſe afore limited two ſhillings. And that no malmſeis, romneis, ſacks, or other ſweet wines ſhall be ſold by retaile aboue twelue penſe the galon, ſix penſe the pottell, three penſe the quart, and three halfe penſe the pint, vpon paine to looſe and forfeit iij.s.iiij.d. for euerie galon, xx.d. for euerie pottell, xij.d. for euerie quart, and vj.d. for euerie pint that ſhall be ſold contrarie to this act.

L. chancel.

Priſes

¶Prouided alwaie that the lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, lord priuie ſeale, and the two cheefe iuſtices of either bench, or v. iiij. or iij. of them, ſhall haue power and authoritie by their diſcretions, to ſet the priſes of all kind of wines, that is to ſaie, of the priſes of the but, tun, pipe, hogſhead, poncheon, teers, barrell, or rundlet, when it ſhall be ſold in groſſe, ſo that they or anie of them cauſe the priſes by them ſet to be written, and open proclamation thereof to be made in the kings court of chancerie openlie in the terme time, or elſe in the citie, borough or towne where anie ſuch wines ſhall be ſold in groſſe: anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie heereof notwithſtanding.

Proclam.

Forfeit

¶And it is further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, after ſuch priſes be ſet and put in writing by the ſaid lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, lord priuie ſeale, and the two cheefe iuſtices, or by fiue, foure, or three of them, & proclamation thereof had (as is aforeſaid) doo ſell anie wines in groſſe by anie fraud or couin, contrarie to the ſaid priſes ſo ſet and proclamed: that then euerie offendor in that behalfe ſhall looſe and forfeit for euerie veſſell by them ſold in groſſe contrarie to the ſaid priſes, fortie ſhillings, the one halfe of all which forfeitures to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe thereof if it be within anie citie, borough, or towne corporat, to be to the maiors, ſhiriffes, bailifs, or other head rulers of ſuch cities, boroughs or towns corporat. And if it be without citie, borough or towne corporat, then to be to ſuch of the kings ſubiects as will ſue for the ſame, & that euerie ſuch forfeiture ſhall be recouered by originall writ of debt, bill, plaint, or information. In which ſute no wager of law ſhall be admitted, nor anie protection or eſſoine allowed.

Iuſtices of p. Head officers.

¶ And it is alſo enacted, that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire of this preſent realme, and all maiors, ſhirifs, bailifs, and other head officers in cities, boroughs, and towns corporat, that is to ſaie, euerie of them within the limits of their commiſſions and authorities, as well within franchiſes as without, ſhall haue power and authoritie to examine, heare, inquire, and determine the defaults of ſuch as ſhall attempt to ſell anie wines in groſſe, or by retale, contrarie to this act, and to puniſh the offendors by impriſonment or otherwiſe at their diſcretions.

Veſſels Contents

¶ And where as in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yeare of the reigne of king Richard the third, among other things it was eſtabliſhed, ordeined, and enacted, that euerie tun of wine ſhould conteine two hundred fiftie and two gallons, euerie but of malmſeie ſhould conteine one hundred twentie ſix gallons, euerie pipe one hundred twentie ſix gallons, euerie tertion or poncheon lxxxiiij. gallons, euerie hogſhead lxiij. gallons, euerie téerſe xli. gallons, and euerie barrell xxxj. gallons & a halfe, and euerie rondlet xviij. gallons & a halfe. And that no veſſell ſhould be put to ſale till it were gauged, vpon paine of forfeiture, as by the ſame ſtatute it doth appeare more at large. Neuertheleſſe great deceit is dailie vſed in ſelling of wines and oiles in caſks and veſſels, not bearing the contents aboue limited, to the great loſſe of the kings poore ſubiects. For remedie whereof, it is enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid eſtatute made in the firſt yeare of king Richard the third, and all other eſtatutes heretofore made for the true gauging and meaſuring of wines, oils, honie, or anie other liquors, which eſtatutes afore this time be not repealed nor expired, ſhall ſtand in their ſtrength and vertue, and be put in due execution, according to their tenors and effects in euerie behalfe.

Admerall Triall Commiſſion

WHere traitors, pirats, théeues, robbers, murderers, and confederators vpon the ſea, manie times eſcaped vnpuniſhed, becauſe the triall of their offenſes hath heretofore béene ordered, iudged, & determined before the admerall or his lieutenant or commiſſarie, after the courſe of the ciuill lawes, the nature whereof is, that before anie iudgement of death can be giuen againſt the offendors, either they muſt plainlie confeſſe their offenſes (which they will neuer doo without torture or pains) or els their offenſes be ſo plainlie and directly proued by witneſſe indifferent, ſuch as ſaw their offenſes committed, which cannot be gotten but by chance at few times, becauſe ſuch offendors commit their offenſes vpon the ſea, and at manie times murder and kill ſuch perſons, being in the ſhip or bote where they commit their offenſes, which ſhould witneſſe againſt them in that behalfe, and alſo ſuch as ſhould beare witneſſe be commonlie mariners and ſhipmen, which becauſe of their often voiages and paſſages in the ſeas, depart without long tarieng and protraction of time, to the great coſts and charges as well of the kings highneſſe, as ſuch as would purſue ſuch offendors. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all treaſons, felonies, robberies, murders, and confederacies hereafter to be committed in or vpon the ſea, or in anie other hauen, riuer, créeke, or place, where the admerall or admerals haue or pretend to haue power, authoritie, or iuriſdiction, ſhall be inquired, tried, heard, determined and iudged in ſuch ſhires and places in the realme, as ſhall be limited by the kings commiſſion or commiſſions to be directed for the ſame, in like forme and condition as if anie ſuch offenſe or offenſes had béene committed or doone in or vpon the land, & ſuch commiſſions ſhall be had vnder the kings great ſeale directed to the admerall or admerals, or to his or their lieutenant, deputie and deputies, and to thrée or foure ſuch other ſubſtantiall perſons as ſhall be named or appointed by the lord chancellor of England for the time being, from time to time, and as oft as néed ſhall require, heare and determine ſuch offenſes, after the common courſe of the lawes of this land, vſed for treaſons,felonies,robberies,murders and confederacies of the ſame done and committed vpon the land within this realme.

Prouided alwaie,that whenſoeuer anie commiſſion ſhall be directed vnto the fiue ports for the inquiſition and trials of anie of the offenſes,expreſſed in this act,that euery ſuch inquiſition & triall to be had by vertue of ſuch commiſſion ſhalbe made & had by the inhabitants in the ſaid fiue ports, or the members of the ſame,anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act for the releaſe of ſuch as haue obteined pretended licences and diſpenſations from the ſee of Rome.

Chap.16.

WHere the biſhop of Rome and his predeceſſors, of his and their couetous and ambitious mind,to the intent to aduance & inrich themſelues and the ſee of Rome, to the great impoueriſhing of this relme of England, & other the kings dominions, contrarie to Gods law, the lawes & ſtatutes of this realme,and in derogation of the imperiall crowne of this ſaid relme, haue heretofore wrongfullie pretended, extorted, vſed, and exerciſed within the ſame diuers and manie vſurped powers, iuriſdictions and authorities,during and by the which time the ſaid biſhop and his predeceſſors arrogantlie & vniuſtlie haue taken vpon them for great ſummes of monie, and other profits to them giuen,to grant vnto the kings ſubiects and other inhabitants within this realme and other the kings dominions,manie diuers and ſundrie authorities,immunities, faculties,priuileges,licences,indulgences and preheminences,of diuers kinds,natures and qualities, which although they proceeded by an vniuſt and vſurped authoritie, haue beene vnto now of late by the ſubiects of this realme timerouſlie and ignorantlie accepted,receiued,vſed,and erroniouſlie put in exerciſe and execution: the which vſurped authoritie iuriſdiction and power, is now iuſtlie, trulie,and ought to be cleerelie and abſolutelie extinguiſhed, extirped and aboliſhed within this realme and other the kings dominions.And for as much as all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons bodies politike and corporat,which vnlawfullie & without anie maner of authoritie or iuſt ground heretofore haue timerouſlie and ignorantlie accepted,receiued, vſed,and erroniouſlie put in execution and exerciſe the ſaid faculties,immunities,authorities,priuileges,licences, indulgences,and preheminences,haue now ſincere,pure and perfect intelligence and knowledge of the ſaid vſurped authoritie, iuriſdiction and power: and that the ſaid faculties, authorities, priuileges, licences, and indulgences, ſo as is aforeſaid, accepted, receiued, vſed and erroniouſly exerciſed, were and bæne to all intents & purpoſes clærelie void, fruſtrat, and of none effect. Albeit if they ſhould be impeached or interrupted of ſuch priuileges, liberties, preheminences, authorities, iuriſdictions, profits, and other commodities, which they now haue, vſe, and exerciſe by colour of ſuch vaine and void licences, diſpenſations and faculties, it ſhould be to their intollerable inquietations & vtter vndoing. Wherfore be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all buls, bræues, faculties, & diſpenſations, of what names, natures, or qualities ſoeuer they be of, heretofore had or obteined of the biſhop of Rome, or of anie his predeceſſors, or by the authoritie of the ſæ of Rome, by or to anie ſubiects, reſiants, or bodies politike or corporat of or in this realme, or of or in anie other the kings dominions, ſhall from henſeforth be clærelie void and of no value, force, ſtrength, nor vertue, and ſhall neuer hereafter be vſed, admitted, allowed, pleaded, or alleaged in anie places or courts of this relme, or of anie other the kings dominions, vpon the pains conteined in the ſtatute of prouiſion and premunire, made in the xvj. yeare of the reigne of king Richard the ſecond. Yet notwithſtanding at the moſt humble petition and interceſſion of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, it maie pleaſe the kings maieſtie of his moſt gratious benignitie, goodneſſe, and bleſſed diſpoſition, that it maie be enacted by authoritie of this parlement, that all mariages, had and ſolemnized within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, before the third daie of Nouember, in the xxvj. yere of the kings moſt gratious reigne, wherof there is no diuorſe or ſeparation had by the eccleſiaſticall lawes of this realme, and which mariages be not prohibited by Gods lawes, limited and declared in the act made in this preſent parlement, for the eſtabliſhment of the kings ſucceſſion, or otherwiſe by holy ſcripture, ſhall by authoritie of this preſent parlement be good, lawfull, and effectuall, and ſhall be from the beginning of ſuch mariages reputed, eſtæmed, taken, adiudged, receiued, approued and allowed by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, to all and ſingular purpoſes, effects and intents, as good, as ſufficient, and as vailable, as though no impediment of matrimonie had euer bin betwæne them that haue contracted and ſolemnized ſuch mariages, and that all children procreated and to be procreated in and vnder ſuch mariages, ſhall be lawfull to all intents and purpoſes.

And that it maie be alſo enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all archbiſhops and biſhops of this realme, or of anie the kings dominions conſecrated, and at this preſent time taken and reputed for archbiſhops and biſhops, maie by authoritie of this preſent parlement, and not by vertue of any prouiſion or other forren authoritie, licence, facultie or diſpenſation, kæpe inioie, and reteine their archbiſhopriks, and biſhopriks, in as large and ample maner, as if they had bæne promoted, elected, confirmed and conſecrated, according to the due courſe of the laws of this realme. And that euerie archbiſhop and biſhop of this realme, and of other the kings dominions, maie miniſter, vſe, and exerciſe all and euerie thing and things, perteining to the office or order of an archbiſhop and biſhop, with all tokens, enſigns and ceremonies thervnto lawfullie belonging. And that all eccleſiaſticall perſons of the kings relme and dominions, which at this time be taken, had, and reputed for abbats, priors, abbaſſes, prioreſſes, and other heads of religion (which be not, neither ſhall be excluded from their dignities, by the late act of ſuppreſſion) and the religious perſons liuing vnder their obedience, and all perſons now taken and reputed as maiſters, preſidents, prouoſts, and wardens of cathedrall churches and colleges with the companies and fellowſhips of the ſame, all præſts and clerks, which haue receiued anie of the eccleſiaſticall orders, all archdeacons and deans, and other hauing offices, cures, and dignities ſpirituall, maie by authoritie of this act, and not by the vertue of anie forren power or authoritie, adminiſter, vſe, and exerciſe all things perteining to their dignities, offices, orders, cures, religions and fellowſhips, and maie lawfullie hereafter vſe all tokens, enſigns, and ceremonies which they haue béene accuſtomed to vſe in times paſt (ſo it be not expreſlie againſt the lawes of God and this realme) anie thing or things conteined in anie act or acts made ſithens the beginning of this preſent parlement to the contrarie of anie the premiſſes in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ And where diuers and manie of the kings ſaid ſubiects, haue purchaſed and obteined manie diſpenſations, buls, bræues, and faculties of the biſhop of Rome, for the time being, or by authoritie of the ſæ of Rome, as pluralities, vnions, trialities, appropriations, commendams, exemptions, and other buls, bræues, & faculties, for diuers cauſes & matters, other than be afore expreſſed, which be of no ſtrength or vertue, it maie therefore pleaſe the kings maieſtie, that it maie be enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie his ſaid ſubiects during the time of one whole yere next after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, maie inioie, vſe, and haue by authoritie of this preſent act, and not by the vertue of the ſaid buls, bræues, and faculties, all & euerie the effects conteined and ſpecified in ſuch buls, bræues and faculties, in all ſuch caſes onlie as maie be diſpenſed with by the archbiſhop of Canturburie, by authoritie of the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme. And that it maie be further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie the kings ſaid ſubiects, bringing, rendring, and deliuering to ſuch perſons of his counſell, or of the maiſters of his chancerie, as the kings highneſſe ſhall name and appoint, anie buls, bræues, or anie other faculties, concerning anie the premiſſes: that then if it ſhall appeare to ſuch perſons as the kings highneſſe ſhall ſo name and appoint to receiue ſuch buls, faculties and bræues, after due examination thereof had, that the effects conteined and ſpecified in ſuch buls, faculties and bræues, or anie part thereof maie be lawfullie granted by the ſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie, by authoritie of the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, that then and in euerie ſuch caſe the kings ſaid ſubiects, making humble ſute to haue the effects conteined in the ſaid buls, breeues, and faculties to be granted vnto them, ſhall haue, receiue, and obteine of the chancellor of England, or keeper of the great ſeale for the time being, by ſufficient writing in due forme to be made, and to be ſealed vnder the kings great ſeale, all and euerie ſuch effects conteined and ſpecified in ſuch buls, breeues, and faculties, as maie be lawfullie granted by the ſaid archbiſhop of Canturburie, by authoritie of the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, paieng onlie for the ſealing of euerie ſuch writing, twentie ſhillings and foure penſe. And ouer that for the reaſonable coſts for pains of the writing thereof, three ſhillings foure penſe and not aboue, and for the pains taken for due examination of euery ſuch buls, breeues, and faculties, three ſhillings foure penſe and not aboue. And that this preſent act ſhall be ſufficient and immediat warrant to the chancellor or keeper of the great ſeale for the inſealing and deliuerie of ſuch licences, faculties, diſpenſations, and other writings, which ſhall be made, granted and ſealed vnder the kings great ſeale, by vertue and authoritie of this act.

Chancellor

¶ And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſuch licence, diſpenſation, facultie, confirmation, or other writing, to be had, made, or granted vnder the kings great ſeale, out of the ſaid court of chancerie by authoritie of this act, in forme as is aboue rehearſed, ſhall be good and effectuall to the ſaid parties ſuing for the ſame, according to the tenor and effects thereof, and ſhall be admitted, accepted and allowed in all courts and places of this realme. and in all other the kings dominions, anie vſage, preſcription, forren lawes, cuſtoms, or ordinance to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act giuing authoritie to ſuch, as ſhall ſucceed to the crowne of this realme, when they come to the age of xxiiij. yeares, to make fruſtrat ſuch acts as ſhall be made afore in their time.

Chap.17.

FOr as much as lawes and ſtatutes may happen hereafter to be made within this realme, at parlements holden at ſuch time as the kings of the ſame ſhall happen to be within age hauing ſmall knowledge and experience of their affairs, to the great hinderance and derogation of the imperiall crowne of this realme, and to the vniuerſall damage of the common wealth of the ſubiects of the ſame. Be it therfore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if the imperiall crowne of this realme, after the deceaſe of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, whoſe life our Lord long preſerue, deſcend, come, or remaine, to the heirs of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, or to anie perſon to be limited by his highneſſe, as of verie right it muſt and ought to doo, according to the lawes of this realme eſtabliſhed for the ſame, the ſaid heirs or ſuch perſon being within the age of foure and twentie yeares, and that then anie act or acts of parlement ſhall happen to be made and eſtabliſhed in anie parlement, that then ſhall be holden before ſuch heirs or heirs, perſon or perſons, then being in poſſeſſion of the ſaid crowne, ſhall be of their full ages of foure and twentie yeares: that then euerie ſuch heire or heirs of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, or ſuch perſon ſo poſſeſſed of the crowne, and being within the ſame age of foure and twentie yeares, ſhall haue full power & authoritie at all times after they ſhall come to their ſaid full ages of xxiiij. yeres, by their letters patents vnder the great ſeale of England, to reuoke, adnull, and repeale all and ſingular ſuch acts made and eſtabliſhed by their roiall aſſents in anie parlement holden during the time that they were within their ſaid age of xxiiij. yeares, their roiall aſſents had to the ſame, during the time that they were within the ſaid age of xxiiij. yeares, or anie act or acts hereafter to be made to the contrarie therof notwithſtanding. And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch repeale, adnullation and reuocation of anie act or acts, that ſhall be made and eſtabliſhed in anie parlement, holden before the time that ſuch heirs or perſon poſſeſſed of the crowne, ſhall be of the ſaid age of xxiiij. yeares, ſhall be as good and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes, as though it had beene doone by authoritie of parlement.

An act concerning ioint tenants, and tenants in common.

The firſt chapter.

FOꝛ as much as by the common lawes of this realme diuers of the kings ſubiects,being ſeized of manoꝛs,lands,tenements and hereditaments, as iointenants,oꝛ as tenants in common, with other of anie eſtate of inheritance,in their owne rights, oꝛ in the right of their wiues, by purchaſe, deſcent oꝛ otherwiſe, and euerie of them ſo being ioint tenants, oꝛ tenants in common,haue like right, title, intereſt, and poſſeſſion in the ſame manoꝛs, lands,tenements,and hereditaments foꝛ their parts oꝛ poꝛtions iointlie oꝛ in common vndiuidedly togither with other,and none of them by the law doth oꝛ maie know their ſeuerall parts oꝛ poꝛtions in the ſame, oꝛ that is his oꝛ theirs by it ſelfe vndiuided, and can not by the lawes of this realme otherwiſe occupie oꝛ take the pꝛofits of the ſame,oꝛ make anie ſeuerance,diuiſion oꝛ partition thereof,without other of their mutuall aſſents and conſents,by reaſon whereof,diuers and manie of them,being ſo iointlie and vndiuidedlie ſeized of the ſaid manoꝛs,lands,tenements,and hereditaments,oftentimes of their peruers,couetous,and malicious minds and wils,againſt all right,iuſtice, equitie and good conſcience, by ſtrength & power haue not onlie cut and fellen downe all the woods and trées growing vpon the ſame,but alſo haue extirped,ſubuerted, pulled downe and deſtroied all the houſes, edifices and buildings, medowes, paſtures,commons,and the whole commodities of the ſame,and haue taken and conuerted them to their owne vſes and behoofs,to the open wꝛong and diſheriſon, and againſt the minds and wils of other,holding the ſame manoꝛs,lands,tenements,and hereditaments,iointlie oꝛ in common with them,and they haue béene alwaies without aſſured remedie foꝛ the ſame.

Iointenants & Tenants in common

Be it therefoꝛe enacted by the king our moſt dꝛead ſoueraigne loꝛd, and by the aſſent of the loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall,and by the commons in this pꝛeſent parlement aſſembled, that all ioint tenants and tenants in common that now be,oꝛ hereafter ſhall be,of anie eſtate oꝛ eſtates of inheritance in their owne rights,oꝛ in the right of their wiues,of anie manoꝛs, lands, tenements oꝛ hereditaments, within this realme of England, Wales, oꝛ the marches of the ſame, ſhall and maie be coacted and compelled by vertue of this pꝛeſent act,to make partition betwéene them of all ſuch manoꝛs,lands,tenements and hereditaments as they now hold,oꝛ hereafter ſhall hold, as ioint tenants oꝛ tenants in common,by wꝛit De participatione facienda,in that caſe to be deuiſed in the king our ſoueraigne loꝛds court of chancerie,in like maner and foꝛme as coparceners by the common lawes of this realme haue béene and are compelled to doo,and the ſame wꝛit to be purſued at the common law.

Writ of partition

Pꝛouided alwaie and be it enacted,that euerie of the ſaid ioint tenants oꝛ tenants in common, and their heirs,after ſuch partition made,ſhall and maie haue aid of the other, oꝛ of their heirs, to the intent to dereigne the warrantie paramount,and to recouer foꝛ the rate, as is vſed betwéene coparceners after partition made by the oꝛder of the common law,anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act that fiſhing in anie ſeuerall pond,ſtew,or mote,with an intent to ſteale fiſh out of the ſame is felonie.

Chap.2.

WHere as diuers and manie of the loꝛds, knights, eſquiers, gentlemen, and other the kings ſubiects within this his realme,at their great coſts and charges haue cauſed to be made within their ſeuerall grounds manie ponds, ſtewes, and motes, and ſtoꝛed them with diuers kinds of fiſhes,as pikes,bꝛemes,carps,tenches,& other fiſhes,whereof they haue thought to haue had great commoditie, as well foꝛ the pleaſure of their fréends,as foꝛ their owne commoditie and pꝛofit towards the neceſſarie finding of their houſes, diuers and manie light and vnreaſonable perſons of this relme,being of no good rule noꝛ honeſtie, little oꝛ nothing regarding God,the feare of their ſoueraigne loꝛd the kings highnes, noꝛ his laws, haue not onlie fiſhed the ſaid ponds, ſtews and motes, as well by night as by daie, with nets, hooks, and baits of diuers ſorts, but alſo with great number of miſruled perſons haue entred into ſuch grounds, and there with great violence haue broken vp the heads of the ſame ponds, ſtewes, and motes, and deſtroied and taken the fiſh of the ſaid ponds, ſtewes, and motes, to the great diſpleaſures and loſſes of the owners of the ſaid ponds, ſtewes, and motes, and contrarie to all good reaſon, right and conſcience. Wherefore be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that as well all maner of fiſhings with anie nets, hooks, or baits, of what kind ſoeuer they be, in anie ſeuerall pond, ſtew, or mote, with an intent to ſteale fiſh out of the ſame, doone or committed at anie time after the feaſt of the natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next comming, that is to ſaie in the one and thirtith yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, from the houre of ſix in the euen tide, vnto the houre of ſix in the morning, againſt the wils and minds of the owners or poſſeſſioners of ſuch ponds, ſtewes, or motes, as alſo the vnlawfull breaking vp of the head of anie ſeuerall pond, ſtew, or mote, by daie or by night, after the ſaid feaſt, without colour of title ſo to doo, whereby anie fiſh of the ſame pond, ſtew, or mote, is taken or deſtroied, againſt the will or mind of the owner or poſſeſſioner of the ſame, be to all intents deemed, taken, and adiudged felonie: and that thoſe perſons ſo offending, ſhall haue and ſuffer all ſuch pains of death and puniſhments, as other felons ought to haue and ſuffer for felonie by the courſe of the lawes of this realme.

An act concerning the amending of the riuer and port of Exceſter.

Chap.4.

IN most humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your highneſſe your true and faithfull ſubiects, the maior bailifs, and commonaltie of your citie of Exceſter, that where of old antiquitie as well the citizens and dwellers within your ſaid citie as all others, both denizens and ſtrangers, aplien and comming from anie parts of beyond the ſea, or of this realme, to your port of Exceſter, haue had courſe & recourſe with their ſhips, botes & veſſels, goods and merchandizes in the riuer of Exceſter to & from the high ſea, vnto your ſaid citie, to the great commoditie, common wealth and profit of your ſaid citie, and all the countrie therabout, as by diuers records & writings remaining as well in your ſaid citie, as alſo at Weſtminſter plainlie dooth appeare, which commoditie of long time hath béene ſo deſtroied & letted by weirs and driuing of ſands & grauell by courſe of the water into the ſaid riuer, and other lets and noiances, that at this daie, and of long time paſt, ſhips, botes, and veſſels, haue not had ne yet can haue their courſe to & from your ſaid citie, as of old time they haue had, by reaſon whereof your ſaid ſuppliants of long time haue béene and yet be compelled and inforced to carrie their goods and merchandizes from the ſhips, botes, and veſſels, to your ſaid citie by land, to their yéerelie charges of 400 marks ſterling and aboue, beſides great hurts and loſſes taken in their ſaid goods and merchandizes by the cariers of the ſame, which hath not onelie béene, and yet dailie is to the great hurt, decaie, and impouriſhing of the merchants of your ſaid citie, but alſo of the countrie thereabouts by reaſon of the ouerflowing and drowning of the medowes, paſtures, and ground lieng by the ſaid riuer, with the high ſprings of the ſea, and the floods of the freſh water comming to the ſaid riuer, and by reaſon of which charges ſuſteined in carieng their goods and merchandizes by land vnto the ſaid citie, as is beforeſaid, the merchants and owners of the ſaid wares and merchandizes, are driuen to ſell the ſame much more déerer than they would doo if the ſaid merchandizes might be conueied and brought vnto the ſaid citie by water, to the great hurt and preiudice of all your graces ſubiects in the ſaid parts. For reformation whereof, it maie pleaſe your highneſſe, of your moſt noble and abundant grace, with the aſſent of your lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, to enact, ordeine, and eſtabliſh, that it maie and ſhall be lawfull at all times after the feaſt of Eaſter now next comming, to your ſaid ſuppliants, maior, bailifs, and commonaltie of your ſaid citie of Exceſter, and their ſucceſſors, to plucke downe, dig, mine, breake, banke and caſt vp all and all maner of weirs, rocks, ſands, grauell, and other lets and noiances whatſoeuer they be in the ſaid riuer, and alſo in other places and ground conuenient and neceſſarie for the ſame, whoſe ſoeuer they be, lieng betwéene your ſaid citie and the high ſea, and further to doo and make all other things requiſit and neceſſarie, whereby the ſaid ſhips, botes and veſſels maie haue their ſure courſe and recourſe in the ſaid riuer to and from your ſaid citie, and there to charge and diſcharge the ſaid goods and merchandizes without let or diſturbance of anie perſon or perſons, giuing and paieng therefore vnto the lord or lords, owner or owners of the ſoile where ſuch digging and mining ſhall be, in recompenſe and ſatiſfaction of and for the land and ground ſo to be digged and mined, after the rate of twentie yéeres purchaſe, or elſe as much for the ſame as ſhall be adiudged, ordeined and determined by the kings iuſtices of aſſiſe in the countie of Deuon for the time being, the election and libertie of which recompenſe and ſatiſfaction ſo to be had, to be at the choiſe of the lords and owners of the ſaid lands and tenements, without anie let, deniall, vexation or trouble of the ſaid lord or lords, owner & owners, or anie other perſon or perſons, by ſute in the law, or otherwiſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of xx.li. of lawfull monie of England, for euerie time that they or anie of them doo attempt the contrarie therof, whereof the one halfe ſhalbe to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, & the other halfe to him or them that will ſue therfore by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in anie the kings courts, wherin the partie defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor in the ſaid action, actions or ſutes, anie eſſoine, licence, nor protection ſhall be allowed. And alſo giuing and paieng to the tenants, farmers and occupiers of ſuch land or ground for ſuch hurt and loſſes, as they or anie of them ſhall ſuſteine and haue by the ſame, as much as ſhall be aſſeſſed, adiudged and determined by the ſaid iuſtices of aſſiſes in the ſaid countie of Deuon for the time being, or by ſuch perſons as by them ſhall be aſſigned and deputed for the ſame, the ſaid recompenſe and ſatiſfaction as well concerning the lords and owners of the ſaid land and ground, as to the tenants, farmars & occupiers of the ſame, to be paid by the maior, bailifs, and commonaltie of the ſaid citie for the time being, and their ſucceſſors, within the ſpace of ſix weeks next after the rating, aſſeſſing, and determining of the ſame, vnleſſe that the maior, bailifs, and commonaltie of the ſaid citie and their ſucceſſors, can otherwiſe compound or agree with the lords, owners, tenants, farmars and occupiers of ſuch land & ground, or with anie of them. And in caſe it happen the maior, bailifs, and commonaltie of the ſaid citie, to make default of paiment of the ſaid recompenſe and ſatiſfaction, and reſiſt to paie the ſame, as is before rehearſed, that then the lord, lords, owner, owners, tenants, farmars or occupiers of ſuch land or ground, that is greeued therewith, and to whom the ſatiſfaction and recompenſe ought to be paid, ſhall & maie lawfullie commenſe, affirme, or take his or their action of debt by the courſe of the common law, againſt the maior, bailifs, and commonaltie of the ſaid citie for the time being, and their ſucceſſors for the recouerie of the ſame in anie countie within this realme, at the will and pleaſure of the partie greeued, and like proceſſe therupon to be had as in actions of debt at the common law, grounded vpon contract or ſpecialties hath vſed to be had, in the which actions of debt, ſute or ſutes to be had, no wager of law, eſſoine, licence, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

An act whereby the kings manor of Hampton court is made an honour, and a new chaſe thereto belonging.

Chap.5.

The tenor of the l. patents

FOr as much as it hath pleaſed the king our moſt excellent and moſt dread ſoueraigne lord, of late to erect, build and make a goodlie, ſumptuous, beautifull and princelie manor, decent and conuenient for a king, and the ſame hath ornated with parks, gardens, orchards, and other things of great commoditie and pleaſure thereunto adioining, meet and pertinent to his roiall maieſtie, moſt requiſit for the proſperous continuance of his moſt roiall perſon, which the ſubiects of this his realme moſt intirelie aboue all worldlie things cheerfelie deſire of almightie God: his grace inſuing the aduancement and amplification of his reaſonable and princelie commodities, to be nie vnto his ſaid manor, heretofore of late hath aſſigned and limited a certeine territorie or ground for a chaſe thereof to be made, for nouriſhing, generation, and feeding of beaſts of venerie, and foules of warren: and for furniture and perfection thereof, the kings maieſtie by indenture made betweene his grace on the one part, and ſir Richard Page knight, Thomas Hennage eſquier, John Carleton, John Agmondſham, Thomas a Downe gentleman, Robert Alectour, Robert Hamond, and diuers other honeſt and ſubſtantiall men, named in the ſaid indenture, for and in the name of all free tenants, hauing anie eſtate of inheritance, and in the name of all cuſtomarie tenants, hauing anie eſtate of inheritance by cuſtom, of or in any lands or tenements within the precincts of the ſaid territorie or ground, limited & aſſigned for the ſaid chaſe & warren, hath certeinlie and plainlie declared the precincts, limits, ambits, and bounds of the ſame territorie or ground, and his graces liberties, priueleges and commodities to be had in and vpon the ſame, the tenor of which ſaid indenture hereafter plainlie and fullie inſueth, that is to ſaie. This indenture made the firſt daie of October, in the xxix. yeere of the reigne of our moſt excellent and moſt dread ſoueraigne lord Henrie the viij. by the grace of God king of England and France, defendor of the faith, lord of Ireland, and in earth ſupreme head of the church of England, betweene the ſame our ſoueraigne lord the king of the one partie, & ſir Richard Page knight, Thomas Hennage eſquier, John Carleton, John Agmondſham, Thomas a Downe gentleman, Robert Alectour, Robert Hamond, Thomas Stragford, Richard Wiker, John a Gate the elder, John a Gate the yonger, William Stakford, John Boughton, Richard Biers, German Bandall, John Wolſe, William Floiter, Richard Hunt, John Conis, Robert Parker, William Tice, Richard Whetelcie, Robert Nortrige, John Machin, John Baron, Richard Woodclerke the yonger, John Cleere, John Greentree, Richard Heiward, Chriſtopher Pomfret, Richard Woolſe, John Bulworth, Thomas Driuer, Thomas Horringham, John Nortrige, William Weſt, John Hardwin, Richard Newman, John Hamond the yonger, John Blake, John Dalie, George Thew, Clement Jared, John Hamond the elder, Ambroſe Greentree, Walter Caluerlie, Richard Nele, Lionell Browne, Robert Hall, Thomas Marſh, Thomas Shete, John Beriman, John London, John Woodhouſe, John Greene, and John Woolſe, for and in the name of all free tenants, hauing anie eſtate of inheritance, and in the name of all cuſtomarie tenants, hauing anie eſtate of inheritance by cuſtome of and in anie lands or tenements within the lordſhips, manors, towns and villages of Eaſtmulſeie, Weſtmulſeie, Walton, Eſher, Weibridge, and part of Cobham, and other pariſhes, villages, and hamlets, whatſoeuer they be within the limits of the chaſe that is named to be called Hampton court chaſe, of the other part witneſſeth that where our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king hath of late erected, builded, and made within the countie of Middleſex, a goodlie ſumptuous houſe, beautifull and princelie manour, meet and conuenient for a king, and the ſame indued with parks, orchards, garden, and other great commodities and pleaſures thereunto adioining and belonging, and his grace intending the proſperous continuance and preſeruation as well of his moſt roiall perſon, as for the furniſhing of the manour with manifold things of pleaſure, for the diſport, paſtime, comfort, and conſolation of his highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, his graces pleaſure is to erect and make a chaſe about the ſaid manor, for the increaſe of venerie and foule of warren, which chaſe ſhall be called Hampton court chaſe: and that the ſaid lordſhips, manors, townes and villages of Eſtmulſeie, Weſtmulſeie, Walton, Eſher, Weibridge, and part of the towne or village of Cobham, in the countie of Surreie, and all lands, tenements, medows, leſues, woods, and paſtures, lieng and being within the limits, metes, and bounds, heereafter declared, ſhall be had, reputed and taken within the ſaid chaſe, and to be parcell thereof to all intents and purpoſes, which metes and bounds are limited, appointed, and doo extend as followeth: that is to wit, at and from the Thames ſide, on the ſouth ſide of the manor of Hampton court, directlie as the pale ſhall be newlie erected, made, and ſet to Cobham, & ſo forth, as the pale ſhall lead and be ſet about Cobham parke pale, of Biſlet parke, & from thenſe following the ſame pale to the water of Weie, and ſo forth by the ſouth ſide of the riuer of Weie, and the riuer of Thames, vnto the firſt commenſement and beginning of the ſaid pale, therfore it is condeſcended, granted, concluded, and fullie agreed, betweene the ſaid parties to theſe indentures by theſe preſents. And our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king in accompliſhment of his graces pleaſure, by theſe preſents, dooth ordeine, make, erect, publiſh, and declare the ſaid chaſe. And that the ſaid lordſhips, manors, towns, and villages, of Eſtmulſeie, Weſtmulſeie, Walton, Eſher, Weibridge, and part of Cobham, and all lands, tenements, medows, woods, leſues, and paſtures, lieng and being within the limits, metes, and bounds aforenamed, ſhall be from henſeforth free chaſe, and warren, for all maner beaſts of venerie and foule of warren, and ſhall haue all ſuch and like liberties, iuriſdictions, and preeminences, as anie ancient chaſe or forreſt within this realme hath or of right ought to haue: and euerie perſon and perſons, that ſhall fortune heereafter to treſpaſſe or offend within the ſaid new chaſe, ſhall incur and run into like danger, penalties, loſſe, and forfeiture, as if the ſame offenſe had beene doone or committed in anie other chaſe or forreſt within this relme of England: and that the ſaid new chaſe from henſeforth named and called Hampton court chaſe. And it is further condeſcended, granted, and agreed, betweene the ſaid parties by theſe preſents, and our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, for him, his heires & ſucceſſors, promiſeth, granteth, and agreeth, to and with the ſaid ſir Richard Page, Thomas Hennage, John Carleton, John Agmondſham, Thomas a Downe, & all other the ſaid tenants and freeholders, their heires & aſſignes, that it ſhalbe lawfull to the ſame ſir Richard Page, Thomas Hennage, John Agmondſham, John Carleton, Thomas a Downe, and other the tenants aboue named, and to all other perſons, being freeholders within the ſaid chaſe, to euerie of them, their heires and aſſignes, to fell, cut downe, and carie awaie, at all time & times, heerafter at his or their pleaſure, all & euerie parcell of his or their woods, groues, coppies, and ſprings, growing and being within the ſaid chaſe, without licence of the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, or of anie officer within the ſaid chaſe, and without let and interruption of the ſame officers, or anie of them. And alſo that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid ſir Richard Page, Thomas Hennage, John Carleton, John Agmondſham, Thomas a Downe, and other the tenants aboue named, & all other perſons as well free holders as copie holders, as cuſtomarie tenants within the limits of the ſaid chaſe, & to euerie of them, their heires & aſſignes, at all time & times heereafter, to make their hedges and fenſes about their corne, growing vpon their owne ground within the ſaid chaſe, at their owne will & pleaſure, to keepe out the deare thereof, during all ſuch time onelie, as the corne ſhall grow vpon the ſame ground. And that the officers of the ſaid chaſe during the ſame time, ſhall ſuffer the ſame hedges & fenſes to ſtand and to remaine to the intent aboueſaid. And after euerie ſuch time as the corne ſhall be ſerued and carried awaie, it ſhall be lawfull to the officers of the ſaid chaſe, to make deare leapes & breakes in the ſaid hedges and fenſes, for and to the intent that the deare maie haue courſe & recourſe into the ground, where the corne was ſowen for their feeding, during all ſuch time as the ſame lands ſhall be & remaine vnſowen. And in conſideration thereof, our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, for him, his heires & ſucceſſors, is pleaſed and contented, that his and their officers of the reuenues within the limits of the ſame chaſe, ſhall yeerelie for euer at euerie paiment, defalke, allow, and deduct the third part of the free rent, that euerie freeholder ought to paie for their ſeuerall freeholds, within the limits of the ſame chaſe. And alſo the kings highneſſe is pleaſed and contented, that where anie cuſtomarie tenant, or tenants, hauing anie eſtates of inheritance in anie cuſtomarie lands or tenements within the ſaid chaſe, after the cuſtome of anie manor there, whereof the ſame cuſtomarie lands or tenements beene holden, for the which cuſtomarie lands or tenements, the next heire of euerie ſuch cuſtomarie tenant, after the death of his anceſtor, by and according to the ſame cuſtome ought to paie fine, in euerie ſuch caſe the kings officers of the reuenues within the ſaid chaſe, ſhall defalke, deduct and allow to the next heire of euerie ſuch tenant, dieng ſeiſed of anie cuſtomarie lands or tenements within the limits of the ſaid chaſe, the moitie or halfe of euerie ſuch fine, that he by the ſaid cuſtome ought to paie for his lands there, the ſame fine to be rated and aſſeſſed after the rate of the fine that the ſame tenant ſo dieng ſeiſed, laſt paied to the lord thereof, for the ſame lands or tenements and not otherwiſe. And that the moitie of euerie ſuch fine be conteined in euerie copie that heereafter ſhall be made to anie ſuch tenant by the officers of the courts of euerie ſuch manor within the limits of the ſaid chaſe. And the ſaid ſir Richard Page, Thomas Hennage, John Carleton, John Agmondſham, Thomas a Downe, and other the tenants and freeholders of the ſaid lordſhips, manors, townes and villages of Eaſtmulſeie, Weſtmulſeie, Walton, Eſher, Weibridge, and part of Cobham, doo couenant and grant, and euerie of them for him and his heires couenanteth and granteth to and with our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, his heirs and ſucceſſors, that they and all other the tenants and freeholders within the limits of the ſaid chaſe and euerie of them, ſhall at all times heereafter ſtand to, obeie, performe and keepe within the ſaid chaſe, all and ſingular ſuch laws, ordinances, penalties, fines & americiaments as apperteine to a chaſe, and all ſuch as heereafter ſhall be prouided or made by anie law or ſtatute concerning the preſeruation or maintenance of the ſaid chaſe: except and onelie reſerued to the ſaid tenants all ſuch liberties and commodities before by theſe preſents vnto them appointed and limited within the ſaid chaſe. In witneſſe whereof, our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king to the one part of theſe preſent indentures, remaining with the ſaid free holders and cuſtomarie tenants, hath cauſed his great ſeale of England to be put: and to the other part of the ſame indenturs, remaining with our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, the ſaid freeholders & cuſtomarie tenants, as well for themſelues, as in the name of all other tenants and inhabitants within the limits of the ſaid chaſe, haue put to their ſeales the daie & yeere aboue written. Be it therefore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the ſaid indenture ſhall perſiſt, continue and abide good, effectuall and in full ſtrength and vertue, according to the word, tenor and effect thereof. And that the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, ſhall haue and inioie their liberties and priuileges, commodities and pleaſures of free chaſe and warrant for all maner of beaſts of venerie, and fowles of warrant, within and vpon the ſaid townes, villages and pariſhes of Eſmulſeie, Weſtmulſeie, Walton, Eſher, Weibridge, and part of Cobham, and in all other places and grounds lieng or being within the precincts, limits and bounds of the ſaid territorie or ground limited and aſſigned by the ſaid indenture for the ſaid chaſe and warrant. And that the ſame territorie or ground ſhall be called, named and knowne by the name of Hampton court chaſe. And that all and ſingular tranſgreſſors and offendors taken, knowne or proued to haue committed or doone anie maner of offenſe, within or vpon the ſaid chaſe or warrant, contrarie to the forme or effect of anie part of the ſaid indenture, ſhall incur and fall into like dangers, penalties and forfeitures, as anie other like offendors, committing or dooing anie wrong, treſpaſſe or offenſe in anie other foreſt or chaſe within this realme, maie doo or ſhall doo.

And becauſe that the ſaid manor of Hampton court is thus, as is aforeſaid, decorated and inuironed with things of high and princelie commodities; be it further enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the manor of Walton vpon Thames in the ſaid countie of Surreie, being parcell of the duchie of Lancaſter, and the manor of Walton Legh in the ſaid countie of Surreie, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of Giles Legh eſquire deceaſed, and the houſe of Otland, and all lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices and hereditaments in Weibridge, Walton & Chartſeie, in the ſaid countie of Surreie, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of Iohn Rede, ſonne and heire to William Rede, and the manors of Biflete and Weibridge in the ſaid countie of Surreie, being parcell of the duchie of Cornewall, and all the lands & tenements in Walton & Weibridge aforeſaid, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of Iohn Goldwell and his wife, and all thoſe lands and tenements in Walton aforeſaid, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of Iohn Carlton, and the manor of Eſtmulſeie in the ſaid countie of Surreie, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of the preſident and the ſcholers of Corpus Chriſti college in Oxford, and the manor of Mulſeie in the ſaid countie of Surreie, which late belonged to the late monaſterie of Marten, in the ſaid countie of Surreie, and the manor of Sandon in the ſaid countie of Surreie, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of the maiſter and brethren of the hoſpitall of ſaint Thomas ſpittle in Southworke, in the ſaid countie of Surreie, and the manor of Weſton in the ſaid countie of Surreie late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of the abbeſſe and conuent of the monaſterie of Barking in the countie of Eſſex, and the manor of Imworth in the ſaid countie of Surreie, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of Thomas duke of Norfolke, and the manor of Eſher in the ſaid countie of Surreie, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of the reuerend father in God Stephan biſhop of Wincheſter: and the lands and hereditaments with the appurtenances called Heiwood, lieng within the ſaid chaſe, which late belonged to the late priorie of Newarke in the ſaid countie of Surreie. And all thoſe manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, lieng within the ſaid chaſe, which ſir Richard Page knight hath latelie bargained and ſold vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king: and all lands, tenements and hereditaments, which be the ſaid Richard Pages, lieng and being within the ſaid chaſe: and all other manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices and hereditaments, within the limits and territorie of the ſame chaſe, which the kings highneſſe before this time hath obteined, bought or purchaſed of anie perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat. And all the fee farme or yeerelie rent or annuitie of the borough or towne of Kingſton vpon Thames in the ſaid countie of Surreie, and the manors of Hanworth and Kenton, otherwiſe called Coldkennington, and the parke of Hanworth and Coldkennington in the countie of Middleſex. and the manor of Feltham in the ſaid countie of Middleſex, which manor of Feltham was late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of the maiſter and brethren of the hoſpitall of Burtoulazer in the countie of Leiceſter, and the manor of Tedington in the ſaid countie of Middleſex, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of the abbat & conuent of the monaſterie of Weſtminſter in the countie of Middleſex: and all lands, tenements and hereditaments, lieng in the pariſh of Hampton in the ſaid countie of Middleſex, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of Thomas Arthur, Thomas Gone, John Vnidale, John Vpton, Thomas Ellis, and John Lewis, or of anie of them: and all lands, tenements and hereditaments in the pariſh of Hanworth in the ſaid countie of Middleſex, late purchaſed by the kings highneſſe of John Williams, John Combes, Richard Harris, William Cooper, Robert Wats, Thomas Fitzwater, Richard Lawrence, Thomas Carpenter, John Bicks, Paule Cooke, and the perſon of the pariſh of Hanworth aforeſaid, or of anie of them: and all the lands & tenements in Kenton in the ſaid countie of Middleſex, latelie purchaſed by the ſaid our ſoueraigne lord the king of the maiſter & brethren of the hoſpitall of Sauoie in the countie of Middleſex: and all other manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments in Kingſton, Hanworth, Kenton, Coldkennington, Feltham, Tedington and Hampton, which our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king before this time hath bought, purchaſed or obteined of anie perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat, ſhall from henſforth be perpetuallie vnited, annexed, deemed, reputed and taken to be part, parcell and members of the ſaid manor of Hampton court. And that the ſame manor of Hampton court, togither with all other the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, & other the premiſſes aboue rehearſed and ſpecified, ſo vnited & annexed to the ſame manor of Hampton court, ſhall from henſforth be named, called, accepted and taken the honor of Hampton court. And that the ſaid manor of Hampton court ſhall from henſeforth be the cheefe and capitall place and part of the ſaid honor of Hampton court.

¶Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid honor and chaſe of Hampton court, and all manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments and other the premiſſes aboue rehearſed, ſhall from henſeforth be in the order, ſuruei e, rule and gouernance of the court of augmentations of the reuenues of our ſoueraigne lord the kings crowne, and to be granted, let and ſet to farme by the officers and miniſters of the ſame court, in ſuch maner and forme as other the manors, lands, and tenements appointed to the ſame court, beene or ought to be letten or granted. And that all the farms, iſſues, reuenues and profits, comming and growing of the premiſſes, and of euerie part thereof, ſhalbe taken and & receiued to the kings vſe, by the miniſters and officers of the ſame court, in ſuch maner and forme as is vſed and had of other manors, lands and tenements, committed to the order, ſuruei e & gouernance of the ſaid court of augmentations: anie act, ſtatute, ordinance, cuſtome or vſe heretofore had, made or vſed to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Surueie.

¶And furthermore be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſingular the tenants, as well freeholders and copiholders, or other, and all and ſingular perſons, which owe ſute to anie of the ſaid manors, or to anie leet or lawdaie, to be holden within the precinct of anie of them, and the heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes of euerie of the ſaid tenants, ſhall doo their ſutes, ſeruices, and cuſtomes, and paie their rents to the ſaid ſundrie manors, and in ſuch times as they did and ought to doo before the making of this preſent act. And that the ſaid tenants and ſuters or anie of them, or the heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes of them or anie of them, at anie time heereafter ſhall not be charged nor chargeable to or with anie other ſeruices, ſutes, cuſtoms, rents, or other charges, nor be compelled to doo or paie the ſame in anie other place or places, nor anie of the ſeuerall tenures changed, altered or charged, otherwiſe than they were or ought to doo or be before the making of this act, or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. Sauing alwaie and reſerued to all and ſingular free tenants and cuſtomarie tenants of anie lands, tenements and hereditaments, lieng or being within the precinct, limits and bounds of the ſaid chaſe, called Hampton court chaſe, ſpecified and declared by the ſaid indenture, and to the heirs, ſucceſſors and aſſignes of euerie of them, all and ſingular liberties, profits, commodities and aduantages to them apperteining, according to the true intent and pleaſure of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, ſignified and declared by the ſame indenture, anie thing in this act aboue written notwithſtanding.

Tenants

Free tenãts

Prouided alwaie, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, their heirs, executors, ſucceſſors or aſſignes, for anie leaſes, demiſes, grants or couenants heretofore had, made or granted to them or anie of them, of the ſaid manors and other the premiſſes, or anie part or parcell thereof, by anie perſon or perſons, being owners of the ſaid manors, lands and tenements and other the premiſſes, or anie part or parcell thereof, or by anie of their anceſtors or predeceſſors, or by anie perſon or perſons lawfullie authorized by them or anie of them, for anie demiſe, leaſe or grant thereof made.

Leaſes
Couenants

¶Sauing alwaie to all and euerie perſon and perſons, their heires, ſucceſſors, executors and aſſignes, other than ſuch perſons as were parties or priuie to the bargains, ſales, gifts or grants of the ſaid manoꝛs and other the pꝛemiſſes, oꝛ anie part therof, and their wiues, their heirs and ſucceſſoꝛs, and the wiues, heirs and ſucceſſoꝛs of euerie of them, all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, poſſeſſion, leaſe, leaſes, farme oꝛ farms, foꝛ terme of life, liues, yéers oꝛ otherwiſe, and all grants, liberties, rents, charges, pꝛofits, couenants, and all other commoditie and commodities, which they oꝛ anie of them haue, might oꝛ ought to haue, oꝛ hereafter ſhall oꝛ ſhould haue, in, of oꝛ to the pꝛemiſſes, oꝛ anie part oꝛ parcell of them, in ſuch maner and foꝛme, as though this act, oꝛ anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof had neuer béene had noꝛ made, anie thing in this pꝛeſent act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Duchie of Coꝛnewall

¶And foꝛaſmuch as the ſaid manoꝛs of Biſlete and Weibꝛidge, befoꝛe the making of this act were parcell of the duchie of Coꝛnewall, and now ſeparat and taken from the ſame by reaſon of this act: be it therefoꝛe enacted by authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that the manoꝛ of Shippon with the appurtenances, in the countie of Berke, which latelie belonged to the late monaſterie of Abendon in the ſaid countie of Berke now diſſolued, ſhall from henſefoꝛth be vnited and annexed to the ſaid duchie of Coꝛnewall, and ſhalbe accepted and taken foꝛ and as part and parcell of the ſame duchie of Coꝛnewall, in ſuch like maner and foꝛme to all intents and purpoſes, as the ſaid manoꝛs of Biſlete and Weibꝛidge were befoꝛe the making of this act, and that the ſame manoꝛ of Shippon and the iſſues, reuenues and pꝛofits thereof, ſhall from henſefoꝛth be ſurueied, receiued and anſwered by and befoꝛe ſuch perſons, officers and miniſters, and in ſuch like maner and foꝛme, as other the manoꝛs, lands, tenements and hereditaments, parcell of the ſaid duchie of Coꝛnewall, be and ſhall be ſurueied, receiued and anſwered.

¶Pꝛouided alwaie, that this act oꝛ anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not be pꝛeiudiciall oꝛ hurtfull to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, their heirs, executoꝛs, ſucceſſoꝛs oꝛ aſſignes, oꝛ anie demiſes, leaſes, offices, grants oꝛ couenants heretofoꝛe had, made oꝛ granted to them oꝛ anie of them, of the ſaid manoꝛ of Shippon, oꝛ anie part oꝛ parcell thereof, by our ſouereigne loꝛd the king, oꝛ by anie other perſon oꝛ perſons, being owner oꝛ owners of the ſame manoꝛ of Shippon, this act oꝛ anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act that ſuch as were religious perſons, maie purchaſe, ſue and be ſued in all maner of actions.

Chap.6.

BE it enacted by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement, that all and ſingular ſuch religious perſons, aſwell men as women pꝛofeſſed, of what oꝛder, rule oꝛ habit ſoeuer they were, which be oꝛ hereafter ſhall be put at their liberties from the danger, ſeruitude and condition of their religion and pꝛofeſſion, whereunto they were pꝛofeſſed by reaſon of ſuppꝛeſſion, diſſoluing, foꝛfeiture by attaindoꝛ, rendering oꝛ otherwiſe giuing to the hands of the kings maieſtie, oꝛ anie other the ſame monaſteries, abbeis, pꝛioꝛies, oꝛ other religious houſes oꝛ places, wherin the ſame religious perſons were pꝛofeſſed, ſhall by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement, from and after the firſt daie of the ſame parlement, and from and after the time that they were oꝛ ſhall be put at ſuch libertie, haue frée libertie to purchaſe to them and their heirs in fée ſimple, fée taile, foꝛ terme of life, foꝛ yéers oꝛ at will, manoꝛs, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, and other hereditaments and things whatſoeuer they be, in like maner and foꝛme, as though they oꝛ anie of them had neuer béen pꝛofeſſed noꝛ entered into anie ſuch religion. And furthermoꝛe, that they the ſame religious perſons, and euerie of them, ſhall be made able by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent act, to ſue and be ſued in all maner of actions, plaints and ſutes whatſoeuer they be, of and foꝛ anie matter oꝛ cauſe growing ſithens and after the time of their ſeuerall dereignment oꝛ departing out of their religion, in all courts and places within this realme, as other the kings ſubiects be. And furthermoꝛe that they and euerie of them, ſhall and maie from henſefoꝛth vſe and exerciſe, receiue, haue, take and inioie all and euerie lawfull thing and things to be growne, fall oꝛ happened to them oꝛ anie of them, after the ſaid dereignment oꝛ departing out of their religion, in as large and ample maner, foꝛme and condition, as if they had neuer béene pꝛofeſſed noꝛ entred into religion, the ſame pꝛofeſſion of religion, oꝛ anie law, cuſtome oꝛ vſe within this realme to the contrarie therof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Pꝛouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that none of the ſame religious perſons ſhall oꝛ maie at anie time héerafter be taken, déemed oꝛ iudged foꝛ oꝛ as heire oꝛ heirs, oꝛ inheritable to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, to anie purpoſe, reſpect, conſtruction, oꝛ intent in the law, noꝛ that they noꝛ anie of them by vertue of this act be receiued, admitted oꝛ déemed able in the law, to demand, challenge, receiue oꝛ take anie manoꝛs, lands, tenements oꝛ hereditaments, oꝛ anie other thing oꝛ things, by reaſon of oꝛ foꝛ anie foꝛmer title, right, intereſt, matter oꝛ cauſe, had made oꝛ growne to anie reſpect oꝛ purpoſe, befoꝛe the ſaid ſeuerall dereignments oꝛ departings out of their religions. Noꝛ that anie of the ſaid religious perſons being pꝛeſts, oꝛ ſuch as haue auowed religion at xxj. yéeres oꝛ aboue, and thereto then conſented, continuing in the ſame anie while after, not dulie pꝛouing by witneſſe oꝛ other lawfull means ſome vnlawfull cohertion oꝛ compulſion done to them oꝛ anie of them foꝛ making of anie ſuch vow, oꝛ conſtreining them to remaine in their religion, be inabled by vertue of anie woꝛds, clauſe oꝛ ſentence befoꝛe in this act expꝛeſſed, to marrie oꝛ take anie wife oꝛ wiues, but that they and euerie of them be cleerlie excluded and put from the ſame to all intents and purpoſes, anie thing befoꝛe in this act conteined to the contrarie hereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Marriage

An act concerning the continuance of the ſtatute for puniſhment of beggers and vagabonds, and of certeine other ſtatutes.

Where in the parlement begun and holden at London the third daie of Nouember, in Chap. 7.
the xxj. yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouerigne lord king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, & there holden and continued by diuers prorogations vntill the diſſolution thereof, an act was made and eſtabliſhed, declaring and concerning aſwell how aged, poore and impotent perſons, compelled to liue by almes, Poore ſhould be ordered & vſed, and alſo how vagabonds and mightie ſtrong beggers ſhould be whipped and puniſhed: and at the ſaid parlement one other act was made and eſtabliſhed for the reſtraint of carrieng and conueieng of horſſes & mares out of this realme: and alſo at the ſaid parlement Horſſes one other act was made & eſtabliſhed for puniſhment of Welſhmen, attempting aſſaults or affraies Welſhmen vpon anie the inhabitants of Hereford, Gloceſter or Shropſhire: and alſo at the ſaid parlement one other act was made & eſtabliſhed for puniſhment of the vice of buggerie, declaring ſuch Buggerie offenſe to be felonie, which ſaid foure ſeuerall acts were alſo made to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame foure ſeuerall acts more plainlie appéereth. And where alſo in the ſaid parlement one other act was made and ordeined among other things, for reſtraining the carriages of braſſe, lattin and copper out of this realme: and alſo one other act was there made in the Braſſe ſaid parlement for the true making of gables, halſers and ropes: and alſo one other act for the true Gables winding of wools: and one other act to reſtraine killing of wainlings, bullocks, ſteeres or heifars, Wools being vnder the age of two yéeres, which ſaid foure ſeuerall acts laſt before remembred, were then Wainlings made to indure and continue vnto the next parlement, as by the ſame foure ſeuerall acts more plainlie appéereth.

And where alſo in the ſaid parlement one other act was made and eſtabliſhed for the attaints Attaints to be ſued for puniſhment of periurie vpon vntrue verdicts: and alſo one other act was there made in the ſaid parlement concerning pewterers: and alſo one other act was there made in the ſaid Pewterers parlement concerning ſowing of flax and hempe: all which ſaid thrée ſeuerall acts laſt before rehearſed, Flax were then made and ordeined to continue & indure to the laſt date of the next parlement, as by the ſame thrée ſeuerall acts more plainlie at large is ſhewed and maie appeere. And where alſo in the ſaid parlement one other act was made and eſtabliſhed for making of gaoles in diuers Gaols ſhires of this realme, which ſame act was then made to continue and indure for one yere next after the end of the ſame parlement, as by the ſame act more plainlie appéereth. And where alſo in the parlement begun & holden at Weſtminſter the viij. date of June, in the xxviij. yéere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſoucreigne lord king Henrie the eight, & there continued and kept vntill the diſſolution thereof, it was ordeined & enacted, that all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts aboue remembred, and euerie of them ſhould continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, and alſo be obſerued & kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therin conteined more plainlie appéereth. And for as much as all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts be good and beneficiall for the commonwealth of this realme: be it therefore enacted and ordeined by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts, and euerie of them, and all clauſes, articles and prouiſions in them and euerie of them conteined, ſhall continue Continuation and indure in their force and ſtrength, and be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act that proclamations made by the kings highnes, with the aduiſe of his honorable counſell, ſhalbe obeied and kept as though they were made by act of parlement.

For as much as the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, for diuers conſiderations, by the aduiſe of Chap. 8.
his counſell hath héeretofore ſet forth diuers and ſundrie his graces proclamations, aſwell for and concerning diuers and ſundrie articles of Chriſts religion, as for an vnitie and concord to be had amongſt the louing and obedient ſubiects of this his realme and other his dominions, and alſo concerning the aduancement of his commonwealth and good quiet of people, which neuertheleſſe diuers and manie froward, wilfull and obſtinat perſons, haue wilfullie contemned and broken, not conſidering what a king by his roiall power maie doo: and for lacke of a direct ſtatute & law to coherce offendors to obeie the ſaid proclamations, which being ſtill ſuffered ſhould not onelie incorage offendors to the diſobedience of the precepts and lawes of almightie God, but alſo ſound too much to the great diſhonor of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie (who maie full ill beare it) and alſo giue too great hart and boldneſſe to all malefactors and offendors: conſidering alſo that ſudden cauſes and occaſions fortune manie times, which doo require ſpéedie remedies, and that by abiding for a parlement, in the meane time might happen great preiudice to inſue to the realme: and weighing alſo that his maieſtie (which by the kinglie and regall power giuen him by God, maie doo manie things in ſuch caſes) ſhould not be driuen to intend the libertie and ſupremitie of his regall power and dignitie by wilfulnes of froward ſubiects: it is therefore thought in maner more than neceſſarie, that the kings highneſſe of this realme for the time being, with the aduiſe of his honorable counſell, ſhould make and ſet forth proclamations for the good and politike Proclam.
order and gouernance of this realme of England, Wales, and other his dominions from time to time, for the defenſe of his regall dignitie, & the aduancement of his commonwelth, & good quiet

of his people, as the caſes of neceſſitie ſhall require. And that an ordinarie law ſhould be prouided by the aſſent of his maieſtie & parlement, for the due puniſhment, correction & reformation of ſuch offenſes and diſobediences. Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this parlement, with the kings maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons aſſent, that alwaies the king for the time being, with the aduiſe of his honorable counſell, whoſe names heerafter follow, or with the aduiſe of the moſt part of them, maie ſet foorth at all times by authoritie of this act, his proclamations vnder ſuch penalties & pains, and of ſuch ſort, as to his highnes & his ſaid honorable counſell or the more part of them, ſhall ſeeme neceſſarie and requiſit. And that thoſe ſame ſhall be obeied, obſerued and kept, as though they were made by act of parlement, for the time in them limited, vnleſſe the kings highnes diſpenſe with them or anie of them vnder his great ſeale.

Diſpenſatiõ

How this act ſhall be vnderſtood

¶ Prouided alwaies, that the words, meaning and intent of this act, be not vnderſtand, interpretat, conſtrued or extended, that by vertue of it any of the kings leege people, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, bodies politike and corporat, their heirs or ſucceſſors, ſhould haue anie of his or their inheritances, lawfull poſſeſſions, offices, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, goods or chattels, taken from them or anie of them: nor by vertue of the ſaid act ſuffer anie paines of death, other than ſhalbe herafter in this act declared: nor that by anie proclamation to be made by vertue of this act, anie acts, common lawes, ſtanding at this preſent time in ſtrength and force, nor yet anie lawfull or laudable cuſtoms of this realme, or other his dominions, ne anie of them, ſhalbe infringed, broken or ſubuerted: & ſpeciallie all thoſe acts ſtanding this houre in force, which haue been made in the kings highneſſe time: but that euerie ſuch perſon & perſons, bodies politike and corporat, their heirs and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, their inheritances, lawfull poſſeſſions, offices, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, goods & chattels, ſhall ſtand and be in the ſame ſtate and condition to euerie reſpect and purpoſe, as if this act or prouiſo had neuer beene had ne made: except ſuch forfeitures, pains and penalties, as in this act, & in anie proclamation which hereafter ſhalbe ſet foorth by authoritie of the ſame, ſhalbe declared and expreſſed.

And except ſuch perſons which ſhall offend any proclamation to be made by the kings highnes, his heirs or ſucceſſors, for and concerning anie kind of hereſies againſt chriſtian religion.

Shiriffe

¶ Furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that to the intent the kings ſubiects ſhould not be ignorant of his proclamation, euery ſhiriffe or other officer and miniſter, to whom anie ſuch proclamation ſhalbe directed by the kings writ vnder his great ſeale, ſhall proclame or cauſe the ſame to be proclamed within xiiij. daies after the receipt thereof in foure ſeuerall market towns, if there be ſo manie, or elſe in ſix other townes, places or villages within the limits of their authoritie.

Proclama.

¶ And they to cauſe the ſame proclamations to be fixed and ſet vp openlie vpon places conuenient in euerie ſuch towne, place or village, vpon paine & penaltie of ſuch ſum and ſums of monie or impriſonment of bodie, as ſhalbe conteined in the ſaid proclamation or proclamations.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, which at anie time hereafter doo wilfullie offend and breake, or obſtinatlie not obſerue & keepe anie ſuch proclamation, or anie article therin conteined, which ſhall proceed from the kings maieſtie, by the aduiſe of his counſell, as is aforeſaid, that then all and euerie ſuch offendor or offendors, being therof within one halfe yeere next after their or his

And that execution ſhalbe had doone and made againſt euerie ſuch offendor and offendors, with the addition of names or ſurnames, townes or counties, myſterie or occupation of the ſaid offendors, by ſuch order, proceſſe, waies and means, and after ſuch maner, forme and condition, as by the kings highneſſe & the ſaid counſell ſhalbe deuiſed and thought moſt conuenient for example of ſuch offendors.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that none offendor, which ſhall offend contrarie to the forme of anie ſuch proclamations, ſhall incur the danger and penaltie therof, except ſuch proclamation or proclamations be had, doone or made in ſuch ſhire or countie where the offendor hath or ſhall dwell, or be moſt conuerſant within a yéere before. And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the lord chancellor, the lord priuie ſeale, & either of them, with the aſſent of vj. of the afore named, ſhall haue power & authoritie by their diſcretions, vpon euerie information to be giuen to them or to either of them touching the premiſſes, to cauſe proceſſe to be made againſt all & ſingular ſuch offendors, by writs vnder the kings great ſeale, or vnder his graces priuie ſeale, in forme following, that is to ſaie. Firſt by proclamation vnder a paine of a penaltie by the diſcretion of the aforeſaid chancellors appointed for the awarding of proceſſe, & if he appéere not to the ſame without a lawfull excuſe, then the ſaid chancellors to award one other proclamation vpon allegiance of the ſame offendor, for the due examination, triall & conuiction of euerie ſuch perſon & perſons as ſhall offend contrarie to this act, for the due execution to be had of & for the ſame, in maner and forme as is aboue remembred, except it be within the libertie of the countie palantine of the duchie of Lancaſter. And in caſe it ſo be, then to paſſe by the chancellor of the kings duchie of Lancaſter, vnder the ſeale of the ſaid duchie, with the aſſent of ſix at the leaſt of the aforenamed counſellors.

Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons doo commit anie offenſe, contrarie to the forme and effect of this act, and after the ſame offenſe doone or committed, doo obſtinatlie, willinglie or contemptuouſlie auoid & depart out of this relme, for and to the intent that he will not anſwer to ſuch offenſe or offenſes by him committed and doone contrarie to this act, that then euerie ſuch wilfull and contemptuous perſon auoiding or departing out of this relme, ſhalbe adiudged a traitor, & his fact high treaſon, & ſhall haue and ſuffer ſuch pains of death, and alſo forfeit goods and chattels, lands and tenements, as in caſe of high treaſon. Sauing to all and ſingular perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, their heirs and ſucceſſors, and to the heirs and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, other than ſuch perſon and perſons, their heirs and ſucceſſors and the heirs and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, that ſhall offend contrarie to this act, and therevnto obſtinatlie, willinglie or contemptuouſlie auoid and depart out of this realme, as is aforeſaid, all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, rents, reuerſions, remainders, leaſe, leaſes, grants, annuities, offices, commons, profits, commodities, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, in and to all and ſingular ſuch honors, caſtels, manors, lands, tenements and other hereditaments, which anie ſuch offendor or offendors ſhall haue at the time of his or their offenſe or offenſes of treaſon committed, or at anie time after, in ſuch like maner, forme and condition, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this act had neuer béene had nor made: anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie in awiſe notwithſtanding.

Rights

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons offending contrarie to this act, doo willinglie and contemptuouſlie withdraw, abſent, eloine or ſecretlie hide himſelfe within anie part of this realme or anie of the kings dominions, by the ſpace of two moneths next after anie writ of proclamation ſhalbe made directlie & proclamed againſt him or them as afore is rehearſed, and therof by anie conuenient or reaſonable meane maie haue knowledge, ſo that by eloining of himſelfe his offenſe cannot be examined, tried & iudged within the ſaid time of eightéene moneths: that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending, ſhall ſtand and be as a perſon conuicted of the offenſes againſt him obiected, & alſo loſe and paie all and euerie ſuch forfeiture, ſums of monie, and alſo ſuffer ſuch impriſonment as to the ſame offenſe ſhall apperteine.

And be it further enacted, that if it happen our ſoueraigne lord the king to deceaſe (whoſe life God long preſerue) before ſuch time as that perſon which ſhalbe his next heire or ſucceſſor to the imperiall crowne of this realme, ſhall accompliſh & come to the age of eightéene yéeres, that then all and ſingular proclamations, which ſhalbe in anie wiſe made & ſet forth in anie part of this realme or other the kings dominions, by vertue of this act, within the foreſaid yéers of the ſaid next heire or ſucceſſor, ſhall be ſet forth in the ſucceſſors name then being king, and ſhall import or beare vnderwritten the full names of ſuch of the kings honorable counſell then being, as ſhall be the deuiſors or ſetters forth of the ſame, which ſhall be in this caſe the whole number afore rehearſed, or at the leaſt the more part of them, or elſe the proclamations to be void and of none effect.

Prouided alſo, that if anie proclamation or proclamations héerafter ſhalbe directed by vertue of this act to the iuſtices of the peace of anie ſhire or countie, that then within 14 daies after the receipt thereof, the ſame iuſtices ſhall & maie by their diſcretions diuide themſelues in ſundrie parts & places within the limits of their commiſſion, for the due & ſpéedie execution of the contents of the ſame proclamation or proclamations, & they and euerie of them dooing or cauſing to be doone with conuenient ſpéed in their ſundrie limits, as much as in them reaſonablie dooth lie or reſt to be doone for the due and ſpéedie execution of the ſame proclamation or proclamations: then euerie ſuch of the ſame iuſtices as ſo ſhall doo by his diligence, or as much as in him reaſonablie reſteth to be doone, ſhalbe diſcharged and exonerated againſt the kings highnes, his heirs & ſucceſſors, of & for euerie penaltie & paine limited & appointed by the ſame proclamation to euerie of the ſame iuſtices.

Iuſt. of p.

Prouided alſo, that no iuſtices of peace ſhall be charged héereafter by vertue of anie ſuch proclamation, with or for anie paine or penaltie, for not dooing or executing of the ſame proclamations, but onelie in the ſhire or countie where anie ſuch iuſtices of peace ſhall or doo inhabit, dwell or be moſt conuerſant or abiding.

Prouided alſo, that the forſaid counſellors appointed or to be appointed by vertue of this act, or anie part thereof by the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, to and for the hearing and determination of euerie offenſe, committed contrarie to anie of his or their proclamation or proclamations, ſhall from time to time, knowing the kings determinat pleaſure firſt therein, haue full power and authoritie to diminiſh or mitigat the penalties of the ſumme or ſums of monie, which ſhall be conteined in anie of the ſaid proclamations hereafter to be made by the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors.

An act authorizing the kings highneſſe to make biſhops by his letters patents.

Chap. 9.

FOr as much as it is not vnknowne, the ſlouthfull and vngodly life which hath béene vſed among all thoſe ſorts, which haue borne the name of religious folke, and to the intent that from henſeforth any of them might be turned to better vſe, as hereafter ſhall follow, whereby Gods word might the better be ſet forth, children brought vp in learning, clerks nouriſhed in the vniuerſities, old ſeruants decaied to haue liuings, almes houſes of poore folke to be ſuſteined in, readers of Gréeke, Hebrue & Latine to haue good ſtipend, daily almes to be miniſtred, mending of high waies, exhibition for miniſters of the church. It is thought therfore vnto the kings highnes moſt expedient & neceſſarie, that mo biſhopriks, collegiall & cathedrall churches ſhall be eſtabliſhed in ſtéed of theſe aforeſaid religious houſes, within the foundation whereof theſe other titles afore rehearſed, ſhall be eſtabliſhed. Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that his highneſſe ſhall haue full power & authoritie from time to time, to declare & nominat by his letters patents or other writings to be made vnder his great ſeale, ſuch number of biſhops, ſuch number of cities, ſées for biſhops, cathedrall churches & dioceſſes, by metes & bounds, for the exerciſe and miniſtration of their epiſcopall offices & adminiſtration, as ſhall apperteine, & to indow them with ſuch poſſeſſions, after ſuch maner, forme & condition, as to his moſt excellent wiſdome ſhall be thought neceſſarie and conuenient. And alſo ſhall haue power and authoritie to make and deuiſe tranſlations, ordinances, rules and ſtatutes, concerning them all and euerie of them, and further to doo all and euerie other thing and things, whatſoeuer it be, which ſhall be deuiſed and thought requiſit, conuenient and neceſſarie by his moſt excellent wiſdome and diſcretion, for the good perfection and accompliſhment of all and ſingular his ſaid moſt godlie and gratious purpoſes and intents, touching the premiſſes, or anie other charitable or godlie déeds to be deuiſed by his highneſſe concerning the ſame. And that all and ſingular ſuch tranſlations, nominations of biſhops, cities, ſées, and limitation of dioceſſes for biſhops, erections, eſtabliſhments, foundations, ordinances, ſtatutes, rules, and all and euerie other thing and things which ſhall be deuiſed, compriſed and expreſſed by his graces ſundrie and ſeuerall letters patents or other writings vnder his great ſeale, touching and concerning the premiſſes, or anie of them, or anie circumſtances or dependences thereof, neceſſarie and requiſit for the perfection of the premiſſes, or anie of them, ſhall be of as good ſtrength, force, value and effect to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch things as ſhall be ſo deuiſed, expreſſed and mentioned in his letters patents or other writings vnder his great ſeale had béene doone, made and had by authoritie of parlement.

An act concerning placing of the lords in the parlement chamber, and other aſſemblies and conferences of counſell.

Chap. 10

FOr as much as in all great counſels and congregations of men, hauing ſundrie degrées and offices in the commonwealth, it is verie requiſit & conuenient that an order ſhould be had and taken for the placing and ſitting of ſuch perſons as bin bound to reſort to the ſame, to the intent that they, knowing their places, maie vſe the ſame without diſpleaſure or let of the counſell. Therefore the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, although it apperteineth vnto his prerogatiue roiall, to giue ſuch honor, reputation and placing to his counſellors, and other his ſubiects, as ſhall be ſéeming to his moſt excellent wiſdome, is neuertheles pleaſed and contented for an order to be had and taken in this his moſt high court of parlement, that it ſhall be enacted by the authoritie of the ſame, in maner and forme as hereafter followeth.

K. children
Cloth of eſtate

First it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée or condition ſoeuer he or they be of (except onlie the kings children) ſhall at anie time hereafter attempt or preſume to ſit or haue place at any ſide of the cloth of eſtate in the parlement chamber, neither of the one hand of the kings highneſſe, nor of the other, whether the kings maieſtie be there perſonallie preſent or abſent, & foraſmuch as the kings maieſtie is iuſtlie & lawfullie ſupreme head in earth vnder God of the church of England, & for the good exerciſe of the ſaid moſt roiall dignitie and office, hath made Thomas lord Cromwell & lord priuie ſeale his vicegerent, for good and due miniſtration of iuſtice to be had in all cauſes and caſes touching the eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, and for the godlie reformation and redreſſe of all errors, hereſies and abuſes in the ſaid church. It is therefore alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid lord Cromwell, hauing the ſaid office of vicegerent, and all other perſons which hereafter ſhall haue the ſaid office of the grant of the kings highnes, his heirs or ſucceſſors, ſhall ſit & be placed aſwell in this preſent parlement, as in all parlements to be holden herafter, on the right ſide of the parlement chamber, & vpon the ſame fourme that the archbiſhop of Canturburie ſitteth on, & aboue the ſame archbiſhop and his ſucceſſors, and ſhall haue voice in euerie parlement to aſſent or diſſent, as other the lords of the parlement.

Vicegerent

Archbiſhop of Cantur.

And it is alſo enacted, that next to the ſaid vicegerent ſhall ſit the archbiſhop of Canturburie, & then next him on the ſame fourme and ſide ſhall ſit the archbiſhop of Yorke, and next to him on the

fourme and ſide, the biſhop of London: and next to him on the ſame ſide and fourme the biſhop of Dureſme: and next to him on the ſame ſide and fourme the biſhop of Wincheſter; and then all the other biſhops of both prouinces of Canturburie and Yorke, ſhall ſit, and be placed on the ſame ſide after their ancienties, as it hath béene accuſtomed.

London. Dureſme. Wincheſter.

And foraſmuch as ſuch other perſonages, which now haue, and héereafter ſhall happen to haue other great offices of the realme, that is to ſaie, the offices of the lord chancellor, the lord treaſuror, the lord preſident of the kings moſt honorable counſell, the lord priuie ſeale, the great chamberleine of England, the conſtable of England, the marſhall of England, the lord admerall, the grand maiſter or lord ſteward of the kings moſt honorable houſhold, the kings chamberleine, and the kings ſecretarie, haue not héeretofore béene appointed and ordered for the placing and ſitting in the kings moſt high court of parlement by reaſon of their offices: it is therefore now ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the lord chancellor, the lord treaſuror, the lord preſident of the kings counſell, and the lord priuie ſeale, being of the degrée of barons of the parlement, or aboue, ſhall ſit and be placed aſwell in this preſent parlement, as in all other parlements héereafter to be holden, on the left ſide of the ſaid parlement chamber, on the hither part of the fourme of the ſame ſide aboue all dukes, except onelie ſuch as ſhall happen to be the kings ſonne, the kings brother, the kings vncle, the kings nephue, or the kings brothers or ſiſters ſonnes.

Barons of parlement.

Chamber.

¶ And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the great chamberleine, the conſtable, the marſhall, the lord admerall, the great maſter or lord ſteward, and the kings chamberleine, ſhall ſit, and be placed after the lord priuie ſeale, in maner and forme following, that is to ſay, euerie of them ſhall ſit and be placed aboue all other perſonages being of the ſame eſtates or degrees that they ſhall happen to be of, that is to ſaie, the great chamberleine firſt, the conſtable next, the marſhall third, the lord admerall fourth, the grand maiſter or lord ſteward the fift, and the kings chamberleine the ſixt.

Secretarie.

¶ And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings chéefe ſecretarie, being of the degrée of a baron of the parlement, ſhall ſit and be placed afore and aboue all barons, not hauing anie of the offices afore mentioned: and if he be a biſhop, that then he ſhall ſit and be placed aboue all other biſhops, not hauing anie of the offices aboue remembred.

Dukes.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all dukes not afore mentioned, marqueſſes, earles, vicounts, and barons, not hauing anie of the offices aforeſaid, ſhall ſit and be placed after their ancientie, as it hath béene accuſtomed.

¶ And it is further enacted, that if anie perſon or perſons, which at anie time héereafter ſhall happen to haue anie of the ſaid offices of lord chancellor, lord treaſuror, lord preſident of the kings counſell, lord priuie ſeale, or chéefe ſecretarie, ſhalbe vnder the degrée of a baron of the parlement, by reaſon whereof they can haue no intereſt to giue any aſſent or diſſent in the ſaid houſe, that then in euerie ſuch caſe ſuch of them as ſhall happen to be vnder the ſaid degrée of a baron, ſhall ſit and be placed at the vppermoſt part of the ſacks, in the midſt of the ſaid parlement chamber, either there to ſit vpon one fourme, or vpon the vppermoſt ſacke, the one of them aboue the other, in order as is aboue rehearſed.

Trials. Peers.

¶ Be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that in all trials of treaſons by péers of this relme, if anie of the péers that ſhall be called héereafter to be triers of ſuch treaſons, ſhall happen to haue anie of the offices aforeſaid, that then they hauing ſuch offices, ſhall ſit and be placed according to their offices, aboue all the other péers that ſhall be called to ſuch trials, in maner and forme, as is aboue mentioned and rehearſed.

¶ And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that aſwell in all parlements, as in the ſtarchamber, and in all other aſſemblies and conferences of counſell, the lord chancellor, the lord treaſuror, the lord preſident, the lord priuie ſeale, the great chamberleine, the conſtable, the marſhall, the lord admerall, the grand maiſter or lord ſteward, the kings chamberleine, and the kings chéefe ſecretarie, ſhall ſit and be placed in ſuch order and faſhion, as is aboue rehearſed, and not in anie other place, by authoritie of this preſent act.

An act authoriſing the kings highneſſe newlie to allot certeine towneſhips in Wales.

Chap 11.

WHere in the parlement begun and holden at London the third daie of Nouember, the xxi. yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden & continued by diuerſe prorogations vnto the fourth daie of Februarie, in the xxvii. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, and then and there holden & continued vnto the diſſolution thereof, one act & ordinance was made in the ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement holden the ſaid fourth daie of Februarie, whereby amongſt diuerſe other things, diuerſe ſhires & counties were newlie made & named within the dominion & principalitie of Wales, and diuerſe townes, pariſhes, lordſhips, commots and cantreds within the ſaid dominion & principalitie were allotted, appointed and limited to the ſaid ſeuerall ſhires and counties, as by the ſame act more plainlie & particularlie among other things appeareth. And foraſmuch as by credible information it was come into the kings knowledge, after the making of the ſaid act, the ſame lordſhips, towns, pariſhes, commots, hundreds and cantreds were not indifferentlie allotted and limited to the ſhires named in the ſaid act, for the commoditie of the kings ſubiects inhabited therein, it was therefore ordeined & enacted by authoritie of the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the eight daie of June, in the xxviij.yéere of the kings reigne, that the kings highneſſe, during the time of thrée yeeres next after the end of the ſame parlement, ſhould haue power and authoꝛitie by wꝛiting vnder his great ſeale, to allot, appoint, aſſigne and limit to euerie of the ſhires named in the ſaid act, ſuch and ſo manie loꝛdſhips, townes, pariſhes, hamlets, hundꝛeds, commots & cantreds, as his maieſtie by his moſt high wiſdome, ſhould thinke conuenient and agreable, foꝛ the eaſe and commoditie of his louing ſubiects the inhabitants of the ſaid dominion and pꝛincipalitie. And ſhould likewiſe haue power and authoꝛitie to name and aſſigne the ſhire townes in euerie of the ſaid ſhires named in the ſaid act: and that euerie ſuch limitation, appointment, nomination and aſſignement to be made by the kings highneſſe in that behalfe, by authoꝛitie of the ſaid act, ſhould be as good and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes, as though it had béene doone and made, plainlie and particularlie by authoꝛitie of parlement, anie thing conteined in the ſaid act in the ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement holden in the fourth day of Februarie, in the xxvij.yeere, oꝛ any thing oꝛ things to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding. And foꝛaſmuch as the time of thrée yéeres limited to the kings maieſtie by the ſaid act, made in the xxviij.yéere of his graces reigne, is nigh expired, & that his highneſſe hath had ſuch great affairs, and vrgent cauſes to doo, concerning the ſtate and wealth of this realme, that by occaſion thereof his maieſtie hath had no conuenient time noꝛ leaſure to accompliſh and execute the power and authoꝛitie committed to his highneſſe by the ſaid act, made in the ſaid xxviij.yeere of his reigne: be it therefoꝛe enacted by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent parlement

Thrée yeers. that his maieſtie, during the ſpace of other thrée yeeres next after the firſt daie of this pꝛeſent parlement, ſhall haue power & authoꝛitie to doo, vſe, execute and accompliſh all & euerie thing & things limited and appointed to his maieſtie to be doone, vſed and accompliſhed by the ſame act made in the ſaid xxviij.yéere of his graces reigne, in as large & ample maner, in euerie condition, as his maieſtie might haue doone, vſed & accompliſhed within the ſaid time of thrée yéeres, limited by the ſame act, as is afoꝛeſaid; and that euerie ſuch limitation, appointment, nomination & aſſignement to be made by the kings highnes in that behalfe, by authoꝛitie of this pꝛeſent act, during the ſpace of the ſaid other thrée yeers, next after the firſt day of this pꝛeſent parlement, ſhalbe as good & effectuall, to all intents & purpoſes, as though it had bin doone and made plainlie and particularlie by authoꝛitie of parlement.

An act concerning wrongfull taking of hawks egs and birds out of the neſt, finding and taking vp of the kings hawks, hunting in the kings forreſt, parke or chaſe, or other ground incloſed, and killing of connies within anie lawfull warren of the kings.

Chap. 12. WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the xj.yéere of the reigne of the noble pꝛince of famous memoꝛie king Henrie the ſeuenth, it was oꝛdeined, and amongſt other things enacted & eſtabliſhed, that no man, of what condition oꝛ degrée ſoeuer he be, ſhould take, oꝛ cauſe to be taken the egs of any falcon, goſhawke, oꝛ laner, out of the neſt, vpon paine of impꝛiſonment by one yéere, and further, to fine at the kings will. Notwithſtanding which eſtatute, diuerſe idle & euill diſpoſed perſons, little oꝛ nothing regarding oꝛ fearing the paine in the ſame eſtatute conteined, haue not deſiſted to take egs of falcons, goſhawks and laners, out of the neſts, to the vtter deſtruction of the increaſe of the ſame falcons, goſhawks and laners, if due reformation in that behalfe be not pꝛouided. In conſideration whereof, it is oꝛdeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd, the loꝛds ſpirituall & tempoꝛall, and the commons in this pꝛeſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoꝛitie of the ſame, that if anie perſon oꝛ perſons, of what eſtate, degrée oꝛ condition ſoeuer he oꝛ they be, after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our ladie next comming,

Egs. Birds. vnlawfullie oꝛ wꝛongfullie take, oꝛ cauſe to be taken anie eg oꝛ egs of anie falcon, goſhawke oꝛ laner, oꝛ the birds of anie falcon, goſhawke, oꝛ laner oꝛ laneret, out of, oꝛ from anie neſt oꝛ neſts of anie falcon, goſhawke oꝛ laner, within anie of the honoꝛs, caſtles, manoꝛs, lands, tenements, woods oꝛ other grounds whatſoeuer they be, of the kings highneſſe foꝛ the time being, whereof his ſaid highneſſe is ſeized in demeane poſſeſſion oꝛ reuerſion, oꝛ whereof he taketh the rents, iſſues, reuenues oꝛ pꝛofits, that then the ſame offenſe and offenſes, and euerie of them, ſhalbe adiudged & taken to be felonie, and the offendoꝛ and offendoꝛs therein, being therof lawfullie conuicted & attain-

Pꝛouided alwaies, that this act oꝛ anie thing therein befoꝛe oꝛdeined and enacted, extend not, noꝛ be in anie wiſe pꝛeiudiciall oꝛ hurtfull to anie perſon oꝛ perſons, which after the ſaid feaſt of the

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛitie afoꝛeſaid, that if any perſon oꝛ perſons, after the ſaid

Felonie.

Prouided alwaies, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, be or ſhalbe in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, that heereafter ſhall find and take vp anie of the ſaid hawks of the king our ſouereigne lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, and by chance negligentlie or caſuallie againſt his or their will, looſe the ſame hawke or hawks: or if the ſame hawke die againſt his or their will, before they can or maie deliuer the ſame hawke, as is aforeſaid.

And where alſo iuſtice and equitie requireth, that euerie inheritor & poſſeſſor of manors, lands, or tenements within this relme of England, ſhould according to their eſtates or poſſeſſions peaceablie and quietlie haue, take and inioy the profits, reuenues and commodities of the ſame, as well in things of high pleaſure, as in things commonlie valuable, without iniurie, rapine, or other extort wrong to be committed and doone to anie of them, within or vpon the ſame, and in eſpeciall of and in things of pleaſure, as in hunting within forreſt, parke or chaſe of the kings, the queenes, the princes, or of anie other of the kings lawfull children for the time being, ordeined and prouided for or concerning his highneſſe, or their pleaſure: be it therefore ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of our ladie next comming, at anie time of the daie, that is to ſaie, betweene the time of the ariſing of the ſun, and going downe of the ſame, with his face hid or couered with hood or viſor, or with his face painted, or himſelfe otherwiſe diſguiſed, to the intent that he would not be knowne, wrongfullie enter into anie forreſt, parke or chaſe of the kings highneſſe, the queenes, the princes, or of anie other of the kings ſaid children for the time being, or into anie other ground of his or theirs, incloſed with wall or pale, ordeined and vſed for keeping and nouriſhing of deere, to the intent to ſteale anie of the ſame deere, and by anie meane of hunting, or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, by ſtealth, ſlea or take anie of the ſame deere, or driue or chaſe any of them out of the ſame forreſt, chaſe, parke, or other ground incloſed, as is aforeſaid, ordeined & vſed for keeping and nouriſhing of deere, as is aforeſaid, to the intent to ſteale the ſame deere: or if anie perſon, after the ſaid feaſt laſt before remembred, at anie time of the daie, as is aforeſaid, with his face hid or couered with hood or viſor, or with his face painted, or himſelfe otherwiſe diſguiſed, to the intent that he would not be knowne, take, kill or ſlea with anie haie or other net, or with anie firret or purſnet, anie of the connies or rabbets, being within anie ground, ſoile or place, being lawfull warren of the kings highneſſe, the queenes, the princes, or of anie other the kings ſaid children for the time being, and being kept or vſed as warren for the mainteinance and nouriſhing of connies and rabbets, or in forme aforeſaid, take, kill or ſlea anie connies or rabbets, being within any of the kings parks, his heirs & ſucceſſors, or within anie parke of the queens, the princes, or of anie other of the kings ſaid children for the time being. Except it be ſuch perſon or perſons, as hath or ſhall haue the ſaid connies and rabbets in farme, or ſhalbe licenced by the writing of the king, the queene, the prince, or of anie other of the kings ſaid children, ſo to doo: or if after the ſaid feaſt, anie perſon or perſons, at anie time in the night, that is to ſaie, betweene the time of the going downe of the ſun, and ariſing of the ſame, wrongfullie enter into any forreſt, chaſe, parke or other ground incloſed, as is aforeſaid, of the kings highneſſe, the queenes, the princes, or of anie other of the kings ſaid children for the time being, incloſed, ordeined and vſed for the keeping & nouriſhing of deere, to the intent to ſlea, ſteale, and take anie of the deere of the ſaid forreſt, chaſe or parke, or other ground incloſed, as is aforeſaid, ordeined and vſed for the finding of deere, or by anie meane of hunting or otherwiſe, to the intent to ſteale at anie time of the night, as is aforeſaid, ſlea, or take anie of the deere being in the ſame: or by anie meane in the ſaid night time, chaſe, or driue out of anie ſuch forreſt, chaſe, parke or other ground incloſed, as is aforeſaid, of the kings highnes, his heires and ſucceſſors, or of the queenes, the princes, or of anie other the kings ſaid children for the time being, anie of the deere of the ſame, to the intent to ſteale the ſame deere: or at anie time of the night aboue written, take, kill, or ſlea with anie haie or other net, or with anie firret or purſnet, anie of the connies or rabbets in anie ground or ſoile, being a lawfull free warren of the kings highnes for the time being, and being kept & vſed as a warren, as is aforeſaid, or take, kill or ſlea in forme next aforeſaid, anie connies or rabbets, in anie of the parks of the kings highneſſe, his heirs or ſucceſſors, or of the queenes, the princes, or of anie other of the kings ſaid children for the time being: except he or they that ſhall ſo offend, hath or ſhall haue the ſame connies in farme, or otherwiſe licenced, as is aforeſaid: that then euerie ſuch offendor and offendors for their offenſes, by them or anie of them committed and doone, contrarie to the purport and effect of this act, ſhall be

Viſitation Ordinaris

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that ſuch of the ſaid late monaſteries, abbathies, priories, nunries, colleges, hoſpitals, houſes of friers, & other religious and eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, and all churches and chapels to them or anie of them belonging, which before the diſſolution, ſuppreſſion, renouncing, relinquiſhing, forfeiting, giuing vp or comming vnto the kings highnes, were exempted from the viſitation or viſitations, & all other iuriſdiction of the ordinarie or ordinaries within whoſe dioceſſe they were ſituat or ſet, ſhall from henſeforth be within the iuriſdiction & viſitation of the ordinarie or ordinaries, within whoſe dioceſſe they or anie of them be ſituat and ſet, or within the iuriſdiction and viſitation of ſuch perſon or perſons, as by the kings highneſſe ſhall be limited and appointed: this act or anie other exception, libertie or iuriſdiction to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Duke of Norfolke

¶ And where before this time it hath pleaſed the kings maieſtie, at the contemplation & humble petition of the right noble Thomas duke of Norfolke, to giue his roiall aſſent of licence by his graces word without anie maner of letters patents or other writing, to purchaſe and receiue to him & to his heires for euer, of William Flatberie, late abbat of the monaſterie of Sipton in the countie of Suffolke, & conuent of the ſame late monaſterie now being diſſolued, all the ſame monaſterie, togither with all and ſingular manors, lordſhips, lands, tenements, woods, waters, commons, courts, leets, aduouſons, patronages, parſonages, vicarages, chantries, free chapels, tithes, portions of tithes, penſions, annuities, rents, ſutes, ſeruices, reuerſions, remainders, and all other things, which were the hereditaments or the poſſeſſions of the ſaid late monaſterie, whereſoeuer they laie or were within the realme of England. And in like wiſe our ſaid ſouereigne lord gaue like licence by his graces word vnto the right honorable George lord Cobham, to purchaſe & receiue to him and to his heires for euer, of the late maiſter and brethren of the college or chantrie of Cobham in the countie of Kent, now being vtterly diſſolued, the ſite of the ſame college or chantrie, and all and ſingular their hereditaments and poſſeſſions, as well temporall as eccleſiaſticall, whereſoeuer they laie or were within the realme of England.

Be it therefore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the act aboue written, or anie thing therin conteined, ſhall not be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to the ſaid duke, & lord Cobham, or to either of them, or to the heirs or aſſignes of either of them, but that the ſame duke & lord Cobham, and either of them ſundrilie, & the heirs and aſſignes of either of them, ſhall and maie haue, hold, receiue and inioie the premiſſes by them ſundrilie purchaſed or receiued, according to the purports & effects of ſuch euidences, writings and conueiances, as they or anie of them ſundrilie haue cauſed to be deuiſed and made to them, or to their vſes for the ſame. Sauing alwaie and reſeruing to all and ſingular perſons & bodies politike, and to their heires and ſucceſſors, other than the ſaid late abbat and conuent, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſaid late maiſter & brethren, & their ſucceſſors & the founders of the ſame monaſterie, or of the ſaid college or chantrie, and the heires of either of them, and all donors, granters or augmentors of them, or of either of them, & the heires & aſſignes of either of them, all ſuch rights, titles, poſſeſſions, rents, ſeruices, fees, offices, annuities, corrodies, liueries, leaſes, and all other their ſuch intereſts, profits and commodities, as they or anie of them had, ſhould or ought to haue, of, to or in anie of the premiſſes ſundrilie purchaſed or receiued by the ſaid duke, or lord Cobham, if this preſent act had neuer beene had or made, anie thing in the ſame act to the contrarie being in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Rights

An act for aboliſhing of diuerſitie of opinions in certeine articles concerning chriſtian religion.

Chap.14.

WHere the kings moſt excellent maieſtie is by Gods law ſupreme head immediatlie vnder him of this whole church and congregation of England, intending the conſeruation of the ſame church and congregation in a true, ſincere and vniforme doctrine of Chriſts religion, calling alſo to his bleſſed and moſt gratious remembrance, as well the great and quiet aſſurance, proſperous increaſe, and other innumerable commodities, which haue euer inſued, come and followed of concord, agreement and vnitie in opinions, as alſo the manifold perils, dangers and inconueniences, which haue heertofore in manie places and regions, eſpeciallie of matters of chriſtian religion: and therefore deſiring, that ſuch an vnitie might and ſhould be charitablie eſtabliſhed in all things touching and concerning the ſame, as the ſame ſo being eſtabliſhed might chieflie be to the honor of almightie God, the verie author and fountaine of all true vnitie and ſincere concord, and conſequentlie redound to the commonwelth of this his highneſſe moſt noble realme, and of all his louing ſubiects and other reſiants and inhabitants of or in the ſame: hath therefore cauſed and commanded this his moſt high court of parlement, for ſundrie and manie vrgent cauſes and conſiderations, to be at this time ſummoned, and alſo a ſynod and conuocation of all the archbiſhops, biſhops, and other learned men of the clergie of this his realme, to be in like maner aſſembled.

And for as much as in the ſaid parlement, ſynod and conuocation, there were certeine articles, matters and queſtions proponed and ſet forth touching chriſtian religion, that is to ſaie, Firſt whether in the moſt bleſſed ſacrament of the altar remaineth after the conſecration, the ſubſtance of bread and wine, or no. Secondlie, whether it be neceſſarie by Gods law, that all men ſhould communicat with both kinds or no. Thirdlie, whether preeſts, that is to ſaie, men dedicat to God by preeſthood, maie by the law of God marrie after or no. Fourthlie, whether vow of chaſtitie or widowhead, made to God aduiſed by man or woman, be by the law of God to be obſerued or no. Fiftlie, whether priuat maſſes ſtand with the law of God, & be to be vſed & continued in the church and congregation of England, as things whereby good chriſtians maie and doo receiue both godlie conſolation, and wholeſome benefits or no. Sixtlie, whether auricular confeſſion is neceſſarie to be reteined, continued, vſed and frequented in the church or no.

The kings moſt roiall maieſtie, moſt prudentlie pondering and conſidering, that by occaſion of variable and ſundrie opinions and iudgements of the ſaid articles, great diſcord and variance hath ariſen, as well amongſt the clergie of this his realme, as amongſt a great number of the vulgar people, his louing ſubiects of the ſame: and being in a full hope and truſt, that a full and perfect reſolution of the ſaid articles, ſhould make a perfect concord and vnitie generallie amongſt all his louing and obedient ſubiects, of his moſt excellent goodneſſe not onelie commanded, that the ſaid articles ſhould deliberatlie and aduiſedlie, by his ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, and other learned men of his clergie, be debated, argued and reaſoned, and their opinions therein to be vnderſtand, declared and knowne, but alſo moſt gratiouſlie vouchſafed in his owne princelie perſon, to deſcend and come vnto his ſaid high court of parlement and counſell, and there like a prince of moſt high prudence, and no leſſe learning, opened and declared manie things of high learning and great knowledge, touching the ſaid articles, matters and queſtions for an vnitie to be had in the ſame. Wherevpon after a great and long deliberat and aduiſed diſputation and conſultation, had and made concerning the ſaid articles, as well by the conſent of the kings highnes, as by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and other learned men of his clergie in their conuocations, and by the conſent of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, it was and is finallie reſolued, accorded and agreed in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie.

Sacrament.

¶ Firſt, that in the moſt bleſſed ſacrament of the altar, by the ſtrength and efficacie of Chriſts mightie word (it being ſpoken by the preeſt) is preſent reallie vnder the forme of bread and wine, the naturall bodie and bloud of our ſauiour Jeſu Chriſt, conceiued of the virgin Marie: and that after the conſecration there remaineth no ſubſtance of bread or wine, nor anie other ſubſtance, but the ſubſtance of Chriſt, God and man.

Communiõ

Secondlie, that the communion in both kinds is not neceſſarie Ad ſalutem by the law of God to all perſons: and that it is to be beleeued and not doubted of, but that in the fleſh vnder the forme of bread, is the verie bloud, and with the bloud vnder forme of wine, is the verie fleſh as well apart as though they were both togither.

Marriage

¶ Thirdlie that preeſts, after the order of preeſthood receiued, as afore, maie not marrie by the law of God.

Vowes

¶ Fourthlie, that vowes of chaſtitie, widowhead, by man or woman made to God aduiſedlie, ought to be obſerued by the law of God: and that it exempteth them from the liberties of chriſtian people, which without that they might inioie.

Priuat maſſes

¶ Fiftlie, that it is meet and neceſſarie, that priuat maſſes be continued and admitted in this the kings Engliſh church and congregation, as whereby good chriſtian people, ordering themſelues accordinglie, doo receiue both godlie and goodlie conſolations and benefits: and it is agreeable alſo to Gods law.

Auricular confeſſion

¶ Sixtlie, that auricular confeſſion is expedient and neceſſarie to be reteined and continued, vſed and frequented in the church of God: for the which moſt godlie ſtudie, paine and trauell of his maieſtie, and determination and reſolution of the premiſſes, his moſt humble & obedient ſubiects, the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, not onelie render and giue vnto his highneſſe their moſt high and hartie thanks, and thinke themſelues moſt bounden to praie for the long continuance of his graces moſt roiall eſtate, but alſo being deſirous that his moſt godlie enterpriſe maie be well accompliſhed and brought to a full end and perfection, and ſo eſtabliſhed, that the ſame might be to the honor of God, and after to the common quiet, vnitie and concord to be had in the whole bodie of this realme for euer: moſt humblie beſeechen his roiall maieſtie, that the reſolution and determination aboue written of the ſaid articles, maie be eſtabliſhed and perpetuallie perfected by authoritie of this preſent parlement. It is therefore ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons within this realme of England, or anie other the kings dominions, after the twelfe daie of Julie next comming, by word, writing, imprinting, ciphering, or in anie other wiſe, vnder forme of bread is not the verie bloud of Chriſt: or that with the bloud vnder the forme of wine, is not the verie fleſh of Chriſt, aſwell apart as though they were both togither: or by anie the means aboueſaid, or otherwiſe, preach, teach, declare or affirme the ſaid ſacrament to be of other ſubſtance than is aboueſaid, or by anie means contemne, depraue or deſpiſe the ſaid bleſſed ſacrament: that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending, their aidors, comfortors, counſellors, conſentors and abettors therein, being thereof conuicted in forme vnderwritten by the authoritie aboueſaid, ſhalbe deemed and adiudged heretikes. And that euerie ſuch offenſe ſhalbe adiudged manifeſt hereſie: and that euerie ſuch offendor & offendors ſhall therefore haue and ſuffer iudgement, execution, paine and pains of death, by waie of burning without any abiuration, clergie or ſanctuarie, to be therefore permitted, had, allowed, admitted or ſuffered: and alſo ſhall therefore forfeit and loſe to the kings highnes, his heirs & ſucceſſors, all his or their honors, manors, caſtels, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, poſſeſſions, and all other his or their hereditaments, goods and chattels, farms and freeholds, whatſoeuer they be, which anie ſuch offendor or offendors ſhall haue at the time of anie ſuch offenſe or offenſes committed or doone, or at anie time after, as in caſes of high treaſon.

Preach

¶ And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid xij. daie of Julie, preach in anie ſermon or collation, openlie made to the kings people, or teach in anie common ſchole, or to other congregation of people, or being called before ſuch iudges, and according to ſuch forme of the law, as hereafter ſhall be declared, doo obſtinatlie affirme, vphold, mainteine or defend, that the communion of the ſaid bleſſed ſacrament in both kinds, that is to ſaie, in forme of bread and alſo of wine, is neceſſarie for the health of mans ſoule, to be giuen or miniſtred, or ought or ſhould be giuen or miniſtred to anie perſon in both kinds: or that it is neceſſarie ſo to be receiued or taken by anie perſon (other than by preeſts being at maſſe, and conſecrating the ſame:) or that anie man after the order of preeſthood receiued, as aforſaid, maie marrie & maie contract matrimonie: or that any man or woman, which vnaduiſedlie hath vowed or profeſſed, or ſhould vow or profeſſe chaſtitie or widowhead, maie marrie, or maie contract matrimonie: or that priuat maſſes be not lawfull or not laudable, or ſhould not be celebrated, had, nor vſed in this realme, nor be not agreeable to the lawes of God: or that auricular confeſſion is not expedient and neceſſarie to be reteined and continued, vſed and frequented in the church of God: or if anie preeſt after the ſaid twelfe daie of Iulie, or anie other man or woman which aduiſedlie hath vowed, or after the ſaid daie aduiſedlie doo vow chaſtitie or widowhood, doo actuallie marrie or contract matrimonie with anie perſon, that then all and euerie perſon & perſons, ſo preaching, teaching, obſtinatlie affirming, vpholding, mainteining or defending, or making mariage or contract of matrimonie as is aboue ſpecified, be and ſhall be by authoritie aboue written, deemed and iudged a felon and felons. And that euerie offendor in the ſame being therefore dulie conuicted or atteinted by the lawes vnderwritten, ſhall therefore ſuffer paines of death as in caſes of felonie, without anie benefit of clergie, or priuilege of church or ſanctuarie to him or hir to be allowed in that behalfe, and ſhall forfeit all his or hir lands and goods as in caſes of felonie. And that it ſhall be lawfull to the patron or patrons of anie maner of benefice, which anie ſuch offendor at the time of his ſaid conuiction or atteindor had, to preſent one other incumbent thereunto, as if the ſame perſon ſo conuicted or atteinted, had beene bodilie deceaſſed.

Felonie.

¶ Be it alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid (not giuing aduantage or detriment to anie article afore rehearſed) that if any man which is or hath bin preeſt, or heerafter ſhalbe, at any time after the ſaid twelfe daie of Iulie, doo carnallie vſe and accuſtome anie woman, or keepe hir as his concubine, as by paieng for hir boord, mainteining hir with monie, arraie, or anie other gifts or means, to the euill example of other perſons, that then euerie ſuch offendor being therof dulie conuicted or atteinted by the lawes mentioned in this act, ſhall forfeit & loſe all his goods and chattels, benefices, prebends, and other ſpirituall promotions and dignities, and alſo ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment of his bodie at the kings will and pleaſure. And that euerie of the ſaid benefices, prebends and other promotions and dignities, ſhall be to all intents and purpoſes vtterlie void, as if the ſaid offendor had reſigned or permuted. And if anie ſuch offendor or offendors at any time after the ſaid conuiction or atteindor, eftſoones commit, doo, or perpetrat the ſaid offenſes or anie of them next afore rehearſed, and be thereof dulie conuicted or atteinted by the lawes aforeſaid, that then all and euerie ſuch offenſe and offenſes ſhall be déemed and adiudged felonie, and the offendor and offendors therein ſhall ſuffer pains of death, and loſe and forfeit all his and their goods, lands, and tenements, as in caſes of felonie, without hauing anie benefit of clergie or ſanctuarie.

Women.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that thoſe women, with whom all & ſingular the foreſaid préeſts ſhall in anie of the foreſaid waies haue to doo with, or carnallie know, as is aforeſaid ſhall haue like puniſhment as the préeſts.

Biſhops.

¶ And for full and effectuall execution of the premiſſes before deuiſed, ordeined and enacted by this act. Be it furthermore enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that immediatlie after the ſaid twelfe daie of Iulie next comming, ſundrie commiſſions ſhall be made from time to time, into euerie ſhire of this realme and Wales, and in and to ſuch other places within the kings dominions, as ſhall pleaſe his maieſtie to be directed to the archbiſhop or biſhop of the dioceſſe, and to his chancellor or commiſſarie, and to ſuch other perſons as ſhalbe named by his highneſſe, or by ſuch other as his maieſtie at his pleaſure ſhall appoint to name the ſame: which archbiſhop or biſhop, his chancellor or commiſſarie & other perſons ſo to be named, or thrée of them at the leaſt, whereof the archbiſhop or biſhop, or his chancellor or commiſſarie to be one, ſhall hold & kéepe their ſeſſions within the limits of their commiſſion foure ſeuerall times of the yéere at the leaſt, or oftner if they ſhall thinke it expedient by their diſcretions, and ſhall haue power and authoritie by vertue of this act, and their ſaid commiſſion, as well to take information and accuſation by the oths and depoſitions of two able and lawfull perſons at the leaſt, as to inquire by the oths of twelue men, of all and ſingular the hereſies, felonies, contempts & other offenſes aboue written, committed, doone or perpetrat within the limits of their commiſſion. And that euerie ſuch accuſation and information conteining the matter, names, ſurnames and dwelling places of the offendors, & the daie, yéere, place and countie when and wherein their offenſes were committed, ſhall be of as good force and effect in the law as if the matter therein conteined had bin preſented by verdict of twelue men.

Viſitations.

Iuſtices of peace.

¶ And neuertheleſſe it is further enacted, that euerie of the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, and euerie of their chancellors, commiſſaries, archdeacons and other ordinaries hauing anie peculiar eccleſiaſticall iuriſdictions within this realme or in Wales, or in anie other the kings dominions, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, as well to inquire in their viſitations and ſenis, as there and elſwhere within their iuriſdictions, at anie other time or place, to take accuſations & informations as is aforeſaid, of the hereſies, felonies, contempts and offenſes aboue mentioned, doone, committed or perpetrated within the limits of their iuriſdictions & authorities. And that euerie ſuch accuſation, information and preſentment ſo taken or had as is aforeſaid, ſhall be of as good force and effect, as if the matter therein conteined had béene preſented before the iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions. And alſo that iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, and euerie ſteward, vnderſteward and deputie of ſteward of anie léet or lawdaie, in their léet or lawdais ſhall haue like power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to inquire by the oths of twelue lawfull men, of all and ſingular the hereſies, felonies, contempts and other offenſes aboue written, doone, perpetrat or committed within the limits of their commiſſions and authorities.

Recog.

¶ And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons afore whom anie preſentment, information or accuſation ſhall be made & taken as is aforeſaid, ſhall examine the accuſers what other witneſſe were by and preſent at the time of dooing and committing of the offenſe whereof the information, accuſation or preſentment ſhall be made, and how manie other than the accuſers haue knowledge thereof. And ſhall haue power and authoritie to bind by recognizance to be taken afore them, as well the ſaid accuſers as all ſuch other perſons whome the ſame accuſers ſhall declare to haue knowledge of the offenſes by them preſented or informed, euerie of them in fiue pounds to the king our ſoueraigne lord, to appéere before the commiſſioners afore whom the offendor or offendors ſhall be tried at the daie of the triall of ſuch offendors.

Informat
Accuſations

And that all and ſingular indentures, preſentments, accuſations, informations and recognizances, taken and had as is aforeſaid, within twentie daies next after the taking of the ſame, ſhall be certified in due forme by writing vpon parchment by the taker or takers thereof, vnder his or their ſeales vnto anie one of the ſaid commiſſioners, to be appointed as is aforeſaid, within the limits of whoſe commiſſion the hereſies, felonies, contempts and offenſes, whereof any ſuch preſentment, inditment, information or accuſation ſhall be taken or had, as is aboue written, ſhall be committed, done and perpetrat. And if anie perſon or perſons which héereafter ſhall happen to take anie ſuch accuſation, information, preſentment or recognizance as is aboueſaid, doo make default of the certificat thereof contrarie to the forme aboue rehearſed, that then euerie perſon and perſons ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to our ſouereigne lord the king for euerie ſuch default, ten pounds.

Certificat.

Proceſſe.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners or thrée of them at the leaſt as is aboueſaid, by vertue of this act & their commiſſion, ſhall haue full power & authoritie to make like proceſſe againſt euerie perſon or perſons, indicted, preſented or accuſed, in forme as is aboue remembred, as is vſed & accuſtomed in caſes of felonie, & that as well within the limits of their commiſſion, as into all other ſhires & places of the realme of Wales & other the kings dominions, as well within liberties as without, & the ſame proceſſe to be good & effectuall in the law as in caſes of felonie. And vpon the appéerance of anie of the offendors, ſhall haue full power & authoritie by vertue of this act, & the ſaid commiſſion to heare & determine the foreſaid hereſies, felonies, contempts or other offenſes, according to the lawes of this realme, and the effects of this act.

Commiſſ.

¶And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that euerie of the ſaid commiſſioners vpon anie ſuch accuſation, preſentment or information, ſhall indeuor himſelfe effectuallie, without affection, dread or corruption, to apprehend and take the offendors, and after the apprehenſion of anie ſuch offendor or offendors, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to commit them to ward. And that the ſaid commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to let anie perſon or perſons ſo accuſed or preſented, vpon ſufficient ſureties by their diſcretions, to baile for their appéerance to be tried according to the tenor, forme and effect of this act.

¶And further it is enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that if any perſon or perſons which héereafter ſhall be named and aſſigned to be commiſſioner or commiſſioners as is aboueſaid, be accuſed, indicted or preſented, of or for any the offenſes aboue written, that then all and euerie ſuch commiſſioner or commiſſioners, ſo accuſed, indicted and preſented, ſhalbe examined, put to anſwer, and tried of, and vpon any ſuch offenſe, according to the tenor and effect of this act, before ſuch other perſon or perſons as it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to name, aſſigne and appoint by his gratious commiſſion to heare and determine the ſame.

Challenge.

¶And it is further enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that no perſon nor perſons, which at any time héereafter ſhall be accuſed, indicted or preſented as is aboueſaid, ſhall be admitted to the chalenge of anie perſon or perſons, which ſhall be impanelled for the triall of his or their offenſe for anie matter or cauſe, other than for malice or enmitie, which chalenge ſhall forthwith be tried in like maner as other chalenges be vſed to be tried in caſes of felonie.

Forren plees.

¶And it is further enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that all forren plées triable by the countrie, which at any time héereafter ſhall be pleaded by anie perſon or perſons héereafter to be arreigned or put to anſwer vpon anie accuſation, inditment or preſentment, or for anie of the offenſes aboue ſpecified, or of, or for anie of them, ſhall be tried before the ſame commiſſioners afore whom ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be arreigned or put to anſwer, and by the iurors that ſhall trie the ſaid offenſe or offenſes without anie further reſpect or delaie.

Officers.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that all maiors, ſhirifs, ſtewards, bailifs of liberties, gaolers, and other officers and miniſters, of what name, degrée or condition ſoeuer they be, and euerie of them, ſhall from time to time trulie and diligentlie receiue, and ſerue all & all maner the proceſſes, precepts and commandements to them or any of them by the ſaid commiſſioners, or anie of them to be made, giuen or directed, touching or concerning the premiſſes or anie parcell thereof, and ſhall alſo from time to time be obedient and attendant vnto the ſaid commiſſioners for the time being, for the due execution of this preſent act, or of anie thing therein conteined.

Commiſſ.

And it is alſo enacted, that euerie perſon, which ſhalbe named to be commiſſioner in the ſaid commiſſion, after that he hath knowledge therof, ſhall effectuallie put his diligence & attendance in and about the execution of the ſaid commiſſion, & before that he ſhall take vpon him the execution of the ſame commiſſion, ſhall take a corporall oth before the lord chancellor of England for ỹ time being, or before him or them to whom ỹ ſaid lord chancellor ſhall direct the kings writ of Dedimus poteſtatē, to take ỹ ſame, the tenor of which oth héereafter inſueth. Ye ſhall ſweare that ye to your cunning, wit & power, ſhall trulie & indifferentlie execute ỹ authoritie to you giuen by the kings commiſſion made for correction of heretiks & other offendors mentioned in ỹ ſame commiſſion, without any fauor, affection, corruption or malice to be born to any perſon or perſons, as God you help & all ſaints.

Oth.

Refuſe

Forf.

And in caſe that any of the ſaid perſons named to be commiſſioners, refuſe to take the ſaid oth, or willinglie abſent or eloine himſelfe from the taking of the ſaid oth, then euerie ſuch perſon ſo offending, and the ſame offenſe extreated or certified into the kings excheker by the ſaid lord chancellor, or by him or them to whom anie ſuch writ of Dedimus poteſtatem, as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe directed, ſhall forfeit and loſe to our ſaid ſoureigne lord the king for euerie time ſo offending, fiue marks of lawfull monie.

Commiſſ. Bookes.

And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that the ſaid commiſſioners & euerie of them ſhall from time to time haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to take into his or their kéeping and poſſeſſion, all and all maner of bokes, which béene and haue béene, or héereafter ſhall be ſet forth, read and declared within this realme or other the kings dominions, wherein is or béene conteined or compriſed, anie clauſe, article, matter or ſentence, repugnant or contrarie to the tenor, forme or effect of this preſent act, or anie of the articles conteined in the ſame: and the ſaid commiſsioners or thrée of them at the leaſt, to burne or otherwiſe deſtroie the ſaid bookes or anie part of them, as vnto the ſaid commiſsioners or vnto thrée of them at the leaſt, ſhall be thought expedient by their diſcretions.

Parſons ſhall read this act. ¶ And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that euerie parſon, vicar, curat or pariſh préeſt of euerie pariſh church within this realme or other the kings dominions, or his or their deputie, vpon the ſundaie next after the firſt daie of September next inſuing, and ſo from thenſeforth once in euerie quarter of the yéere at the leaſt, ſhall openlie, plainlie and diſtinctlie read this preſent act in the pariſh church, where he is parſon, vicar, curat, pariſh préeſt or deputie, vnto his or their pariſhioners then aſſembled togither to heare diuine ſeruice. And that euerie ſuch parſon, vicar, curat or pariſh préeſt, making default of reading this act contrarie to the forme aforſaid, ſhall forfeit vnto our ſaid ſouereigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, for euerie ſuch default xl s. ſterling, ſauing to all and ſingular perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, their heirs and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them (other than all and ſingular ſuch perſon and perſons that ſhall be héereafter conuicted or atteinted of, or for anie of the offenſes or contempts aboue ſpecified, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them) all ſuch right, title, claime, intereſt, entrée, poſſeſsion, rents, reuerſions, fées, annuities, commons, offices, profits and demands whatſoeuer, as they or anie of them haue, or then at the time of the ſaid conuiction or atteindor had, ſhall haue, of, in, or to anie honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, liberties, franchiſes, aduowſon and other hereditaments which anie ſuch perſon or perſons being ſo conuicted or atteinted, as aforeſaid, had or were intituled to haue at the time of their offenſe or offenſes committed, or at anie time after, and that in as ample maner, forme & condition, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this act had neuer béene had nor made, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Rights.

Eſcheats. ¶ Prouided alwaie, that the lords ſhall not haue ne claime anie eſcheats of any offendor or offendors that ſhall be iudged to be burned by authoritie of this act.

¶ And bicauſe diſputations and doubts might perhaps riſe héereafter vpon the words in this act, that is to ſaie, Aduiſedlie made to God. Be it therfore prouided and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, theſe words in the act, that is to ſaie, Aduiſedlie made to God for vowes of chaſtitie or widowhood, ſhall be alonlie taken, expounded and interpreted, to bind ſuch perſon or perſons and none other, ſauing préeſts, to and by the ſame, which at the time of anie of their ſo vowing, being therto admitted, were or ſhalbe of the age of one and twentie yéeres or aboue, and then did or doo conſent, ſubmit themſelues or condeſcend to the ſame, and continue or continued in obſeruation of it anie while after, vnleſſe anie ſuch perſon or perſons doo or can dulie proue any vnlawfull cohercion or compulſion doone to them or any of them for making of anie ſuch vow. An act how by the kings grant, lands, tenements, &c: maie be by will, teſtament, or otherwiſe diſpoſed, and concerning wards and primer ſeiſons.

The firſt chapter.

WHere the kings moſt roiall maieſtie in all the time of his moſt gratious and noble reigne hath euer béene mercifull, louing and beneuolent, & moſt gratious ſouereigne lord, vnto all and ſingular his louing and obedient ſubiects, and at manie times paſt hath not onelie ſhewed and imparted to them generallie by his manie and often great and beneficiall pardons héeretofore by authoritie of his parlements granted, but alſo by diuers other waies and meanes great and ample grants and benignities in ſuch wiſe, as all his ſaid ſubiects bin moſt bounden to the vttermoſt of all their powers and graces by them receiued of God, to render and giue vnto his maieſtie their moſt humble reuerence and obedient thanks and ſeruices, with their dailie and continuall praier to almightie God for the continuall preſeruation of his moſt roiall eſtate in moſt kinglie honor and proſperitie: yet alwaies his maieſtie being repleat and indued by God with grace, goodneſſe and liberalitie, moſt tenderlie conſidering that his ſaid obedient and louing ſubiects cannot vſe or exerciſe themſelues according to their eſtates, degrées, faculties and qualities, or to beare themſelues in ſuch wiſe as that they maie conuenientlie kéepe and mainteine their hoſpitalities and families, nor the good educations & bringing vp of their lawfull generations which in this realme (laud be to God) is in all parts verie great and aboundant, but that in maner of neceſsitie as by dailie experience is manifeſted and knowen, they ſhall not be able of their proper goods,chattels,and other moueable ſubſtance to diſcharge their debts,and after their degrees ſet forth and aduance their children and poſterities. Chap 3.

WHere in the laſt parlement begun and holden at London the third daie of Nouember in the one & twentith yeare of the kings moſt gratious reigne,& from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter,and there holden and continued by ſundrie prorogations. It was enacted amongſt other things that all forren plées, triable by the countrie, which ſhould be pléeded by anie perſon or perſons, arreined vpon anie indictment for anie petit treaſon,murder,or felonie,ſhall be tried before the ſame iuſtices, afore whom ſuch perſon ſhould be arreined,and by the ſame iurors of the countie, that ſhall trie the petit treaſon, murder or felonie, without anie further delaie. And that no perſon or perſons arreined for anie petit treaſon,murder, or felonie,ſhould be admitted to anie peremptorie chalenge,aboue the number of twentie,which act was made to indure to the end of the next parlement,as by the ſaid act amongſt diuers clauſes & prouiſions conteined in the ſame more plainlie is expreſſed. And where alſo in the ſame parlement it was enacted, that no perſon or perſons, which ſhould happen to be found guiltie after the lawes of this realme, for anie maner of petit treaſon,or for anie wilfull murder of malice prepenſed, or for robbing of anie churches,chapels,or other holie places, or for robbing anie perſon or perſons in their dwelling houſes or dwelling place, the owner or dweller in the ſaid houſe, his wife, his children or ſeruants then being within, and put in feare and dread by the ſame, or for robbing of anie perſon or perſons in or néere about the high waie,or for wilfull burning of anie dwelling houſes or barnes wherin anie corne or graine ſhall happen to be,nor that anie perſon or perſons being found guiltie of anie abbetment,procuring, helping, mainteining or counſelling of anie ſuch petit treaſon,murders,or felonies,ſhould be admitted to the benefit of their clergie, ſuch as be within holie orders, that is to ſaie, of the orders of ſubdeacon,or aboue alonelie except, with manie other clauſes and prouiſions conteined in the ſaid act, as by the ſame act more plainelie appéereth, which act was alſo made to continue and indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement. And where alſo in the ſame parlement it was further enacted that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons,which ſhould happen to be indicted of anie petit treaſon, wilfull burning of houſes, murder, robberie, or burgularie, or other felonie,according to the tenor and meaning of the ſaid eſtatute next aboue rehearſed, & therevpon arreined,did ſtand mute of malice or froward mind,or chalenge peremptorie aboue the number of twentie perſons,or will not anſwer directlie to the ſame indictment and felonie, where vpon they ſhall be arreined,that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſhould loſe the benefit and priuilege of their clergie.And it was alſo ordeined by the ſame act, that if anie perſon or perſons be indicted and found guiltie for ſtealing of anie góods or chattels, in anie countie of this realme, or being indicted ſtand mute of malice,or chalenge peremptorie aboue the number of twentie perſons, or will not anſwer directlie to the law, ſhould alſo lóoſe the benefit of their clergie, in like maner & forme as they ſhould haue dóne, if they had béene indicted, arreined, & found guiltie in the ſame countie, where the ſame robberie or burgularie were dóne, if it ſhall appéere to the iuſtices by euidence or examination,that the ſaid felons or robbers arreined afore them, ſhould or ought to haue loſt their clergie by force of the ſaid eſtatute, in caſe they had béene found guiltie of the ſame felonies or burgularies,in the ſame ſhire where they were committed,as by the ſaid act amongſt other things more at large is expreſſed. And where alſo in the ſaid parlement it was further ordeined, that the deteſtable vice of buggerie, committed with mankind or beaſt, ſhould be felonie, & that the offendors therein ſhould lóoſe the priuilege of their clergie, which act was made to indure to the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act amongſt other things it appéereth more at large. And where alſo in the parlement begun & holden at Weſtminſter the eight daie of Iune, in the 28 yéere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, & there continued and kept vntill the diſſolution thereof; it was ordeined and enacted,that all & ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts aboue remembred,& euerie of them,ſhould continue and indure in their force & ſtrength,and alſo be obſerued and kept vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement. And it was alſo ordeined by the

WHere as before this time diuerſe and ſundrie perſons haue ſued executions, as well vpon iudgements for them giuen of their debts or damages, as vpon ſuch ſtatutes merchants, ſtatutes of the ſtaple,or recognizances,as haue béene to them before made, recognized and knowledged, and therevpon ſuch lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, as were liable to the ſame execution, haue beene by reaſonable extent to them deliuered in execution for the ſatiſfaction of their ſaid debts and damages, according to the lawes of this realme: neuertheleſſe it hath béene oftentimes ſéene,that ſuch lands, tenements, and hereditaments, ſo deliuered and had in execution,haue béene recouered or lawfullie deueſted,taken awaie or euicted,from the poſſeſſion of the ſaid recouerers, obligées, or recognizees, their executors or aſſignes before ſuch time as they haue béene fullie ſatiſfied and paid of their debts and damages, without anie maner fraud, deceipt, couin, colluſion, or other default inthe ſaid recouerers, obligées, or recognizees, their executors, and aſſignes, by reaſon whereof the ſaid recouerers, obligees, and recognizées, haue béene therby ſet cléerelie without remedie by anie maner ſute of the law to recouer or come by anie ſuch part or parcell of their ſaid debts & damages, as was behind,and not by them leuied or receiued before ſuch time as the ſaid lands, tenements, and other hereditaments ſo by them had in execution, were recouered, lawfullie deueſted, taken or euicted out of and from their poſſeſſions, as is aforeſaid, to their great hurt and loſſe, and much ſéeming to be againſt equall iuſtice, and good conſcience. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if héereafter anie ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, as be or ſhall be had and deliuered to anie perſon or perſons in execution as is aforeſaid, vpon anie iuſt and lawfull title, matter, condition, or cauſe, wherewithall the ſaid lands, tenements, and hereditaments, were liable, tied,and bound at ſuch time as they were deliuered and taken into execution, ſhall happen to be recouered,lawfullie deueſted,taken or euicted,out, of,and from the poſſeſſion of anie ſuch perſon & perſons as now haue and hold,or hereafter ſhall haue & hold the ſame in execution as is aforeſaid, without anie fraud,deceipt,couin,colluſion,or other default of the ſaid tenant,or tenants by execution before ſuch time as the ſaid tenants by execution,their executors or aſſignes ſhall haue fullie & wholie leuied or receiued the ſaid whole debt & damages,for the which the ſaid lands, tenements & other hereditaments,were deliuered & taken in execution,as is aforſaid,then euerie ſuch recouerer, obligée, and recognizée, ſhall and maie haue and purſue a writ of Scire facias out of the ſame court, from whenſe the ſaid former writ of execution did procéed againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, as the ſaid writ of execution was firſt purſued, their heires, executors, or aſſignes, of ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, as were or béene then liable or charged to the ſaid execution, returnable into the ſame court at a certeine daie, being full fortie daies after the date of the ſame writ. At which daie if the defendent being lawfullie warned, make default, or appéere, and doo not ſhew and plead a ſufficient matter or cauſe, other than the acceptance of the ſaid lands, tenements, and hereditaments by the ſaid former writ of execution, to bar, auoid, or diſcharge the ſaid ſute for the reſidue of the ſaid debt, and damages, remaining, vnleuied, or vnreceiued by the former execution: then the lord chancellor, or other ſuch iuſtice or iuſtices, before whom ſuch writ of Scire facias ſhall be returneable, ſhall make eftſoones a new writ or writs out of the ſaid former record of iudgement, ſtatute merchant, ſtatute ſtaple, or recognizance, of like nature and effect, as the ſaid former writ of execution was for the leuieng of the reſidue of all ſuch debt and damage as then ſhall appéere to be vnleuied, vnſatiſfied or vnpaid of the whole ſumme or ſummes in the ſaid former writ of execution conteined, anie law, cuſtome, or other thing, to the contrarie hereof héeretofore vſed in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act for triall of felonies vpon conueieng of horſſes into Scotland.

Chap. 6.

WHere at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fifteenth dai[illegible] Januarie, in the thrée and twentith yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord the king that now is, amongſt other things it was enacted by authoritie of the ſame parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the feaſt of S. George the martyr next inſuing, did ſell, exchange, or deliuer within the realme of Scotland or in anie place or ground, called the batable ground, betwéene England & Scotland, to thoſe of anie Scottiſhmen, anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, without licence obteined of the kings highnes by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale ſo to doo, or ſell, exchange or deliuer to anie Scottiſh man within this realme of England, Wales, the towne of Barwike or the marches of the ſame, or in anie of the ſaid batable ground, to the intent to be conueied into Scotland, anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, without ſpeciall licence obteined of the kings highnes by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale ſo to doo: that then the ſame ſale, exchange, or deliuerie, of ſuch horſſe, gelding, or mare, contrarie to the ſame preſent act, ſhould be iudged and déemed by the law, felonie, aſwell in the ſellers, exchangers, or deliuerers, as alſo in him or them, to whome the ſame ſale, exchange, or deliuerie ſhall be made, and that it ſhall be lawfull to the warden and wardens of the eaſt, weſt, & middle marches for the time being, in their warden courts, as alſo the kings iuſtices of his peace, in their quarter ſeſſions, in euerie ſhire of the realme, to inquire heare, & determine all and euerie ſuch felonies, after like maner as is vſed in other felonies at the common law, whether the ſame ſales, exchanges, or deliueries be made, had, or done by anie perſon or perſons contrarie to the ſame act in the realme of Scotland, or in anie part of the ſaid batable grounds, or within the realme of England. And for that the ſaid ſtatute is doubtfull, whether the warden or wardens of the ſaid marches haue authoritie by the words compriſed in the ſaid act, to heare & determine the ſale, exchange, or deliuerie of anie horſſe, gelding, or mare, in England or Scotland, to yͤ vſe of anie Scottiſh man as felonie. Therfore it is now enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, & the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and by the commons of this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that it ſhall be lawfull to the warden and wardens of the eaſt, weſt, and middle marches, for the time being, and euerie of them, in their warden courts, to heare and determine all and euerie ſuch felonious act or acts, doone and committed within their limits by anie perſon or perſons, in like maner as they doo and haue vſed to heare & determine march treaſons, whether the ſame exchanges or deliueries be made, had, or doone by anie perſon or perſons contrarie to the ſaid ſtatute of the realme of Scotland, or in anie part of the batable grounds.

An act for the true paiment of tithes and offerings.

Chap. 7.

WHere diuers and manie perſons inhabiting in ſundrie counties & places of this realme, and other the kings dominions, not regarding their duties to almightie God, and to the king our ſouereigne lord, but in few yéeres paſt more contemptuouſlie and commonlie, preſuming to offend and infringe the good and wholſome laws of this realme, and gratious commandements of your ſaid ſouereigne lord, than in times paſt hath béene ſéene or knowen, haue not letted to ſubtract & withdraw the lawfull & accuſtomed tithes of cornes, haie, paſturages, and other ſort of tithes and oblations, commonlie due to the owners, proprietaries and poſſeſſors of the parſonages, vicarages, and other eccleſiaſticall places, of and within the ſaid realme and dominions, being the more incouraged thereto, for that diuerſe of the kings ſubiects being lais perſons hauing parſonages, vicarages, and tithes to them and to their heires, or to them and to the heires of their bodies lawfullie begotten, or for terme of life or yéeres, cannot by the order & courſe of the eccleſiaſticall lawes of this realme, ſue in anie eccleſiaſticall court for the wrongfull withholding and deteining of the ſaid tithes or other duties, nor cannot by the order of the common lawes of this realme haue anie due remedie againſt anie perſon or perſons, their heires or aſſignes, that wrongfullie deteineth or withholdeth the ſame, by occaſion whereof, much controuerſie, ſute, variance, and diſcord is like to inſurge and inſue among the kings ſubiects, to the great detriment, damage, and decaie of manie of them, if conuenient and ſpéedie remedie therefore be not had and prouided.

¶ Wherefore it is ordeined and enacted by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular perſons of this his ſaid realme, or other his dominions, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer he or they be, ſhall fullie, trulie and effectuallie diuide, ſet out, yéeld, or paie, all and ſingular tithes, offerings aforeſaid, according to the lawfull cuſtomes and vſages of the pariſhes and places, where ſuch tithes or duties ſhall grow, ariſe, come or be due. And in caſe that it ſhall happen anie perſon or perſons of his or their vngodlie and peruerſe will and mind, to deteine or withhold anie of the ſaid tithes or offerings or part or parcell thereof, then the parſon or partie being eccleſiaſticall or laie perſon, hauing cauſe to demand or haue the ſaid tithes or offerings, being therby wronged or greeued, ſhall and maie conuent the perſon or perſons ſo offending, before the ordinarie, his commiſſarie or other competent miniſter, or lawfull iudge of the place where ſuch wrong ſhall be doone, according to the eccleſiaſticall lawes. And in euerie ſuch caſe of matter or ſute, the ſame ordinarie, commiſſarie, or other competent miniſter or lawfull iudge, hauing the parties or their lawfull procurators before him or them, ſhall & maie by vertue of this act procéed to the examination, hearing and determination of euerie ſuch cauſe or matter ordinarilie or ſummarilie, according to the courſe & proces of the ſaid eccleſiaſticall lawes, and therevpon maie giue ſentence accordinglie. And in caſe that anie of the parties, for anie cauſe or matter concerning that ſute, doo appeale from the ſentence, order, & definitiue iudgement of the ſaid ordinarie or other competent iudge, as is aforeſaid: then the ſame iudge by vertue of this act, forthwith vpon ſuch appellation made, ſhall adiudge to the other partie the reaſonable coſts of his ſute therein before expended, and ſhall compell the ſame partie appellant to ſatiſfie and paie the ſame coſts ſo adiudged by compulſorie proces, and cenſures of the ſaid lawes eccleſiaſticall, taking ſuertie of the other partie to whom ſuch coſts ſhall be adiudged, and paid, to reſtore the ſame coſts to the partie appellant, if after the principall cauſe of that ſute of appeale ſhall be adiudged againſt the ſame partie, to whom the ſaid coſts ſhall be yelden: and ſo euerie ordinarie or other competent iudge eccleſiaſticall, by vertue of this act ſhall adiudge coſts to the other partie vpon euerie appeale to be made in anie ſute or cauſe of ſubtraction or detention of anie tithes or offerings, or in anie other ſute to be made for or concerning the dutie of ſuch tithes or offerings.

¶ And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons after ſuch ſentence definitiue giuen againſt them, obſtinatlie & wilfullie refuſe for to paie their tithes or duties, or ſuch ſums of monie ſo adiudged, wherein they be condemned for the ſame, that then two iuſtices of the peace of the ſame ſhire, whereof one to be of the Quorum, ſhall haue authoritie by this act, vpon information, certificat, or complaint to them made in writing by the ſaid eccleſiaſticall iudge that gaue the ſame ſentence, to cauſe the ſame partie ſo refuſing, to be attached & committed to the next gaole, and there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, till he or they ſhall haue found ſufficient ſureties to be bound by recognizance, or otherwiſe before the ſame iuſtices, to the vſe of our ſouereigne lord the king, to performe the ſaid definitiue ſentence and iudgement.

¶ Prouided alwaies & be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall be ſued, or otherwiſe compelled, to yéeld, giue, or paie anie maner of tithes, for anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which by lawes or ſtatutes of this realme are diſcharged, or not chargeable with the paiment of anie ſuch tithes.

London

¶ Prouided alſo and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall in anie wiſe bind the inhabitants of the citie of London and ſuburbes of the ſame, for to paie their tithes and offerings within the ſame citie and ſuburbs, otherwiſe than they ought or ſhould haue doone before the making of this act: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Diſeiſon

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that in all caſes, where anie perſon or perſons, which now haue, or which héereafter ſhall haue anie eſtate of inheritance, fréehold, terme, right or intereſt, of, in or to anie parſonage, vicarage, portion, penſion, tithes, oblations, or other eccleſiaſticall or ſpirituall profit, which now be, or which héereafter ſhall be made temporall or admitted, to be, abide, and go to or in temporall hands, and laie vſes and profits by the law or ſtatutes of this realme, ſhall héereafter fortune to be diſeiſed, deforſed, wronged, or other wiſe kept, or put from their lawfull inheritance, eſtate, ſeiſon, poſſeſſion, occupations, terme, right or intereſt, of, in or to the ſame, or of in or to anie parcell thereof by anie other perſon or perſons, claiming or pretending to haue intereſt or title in or to the ſame: that then in all and euerie ſuch caſe or caſes the perſon or perſons ſo diſeiſed, deforſed or wrongfullie kept, or put from his or their right or poſſeſſion, as is afore rehearſed, their heires, wiues, and ſuch other to whom ſuch iniurie or wrong ſhall be doone or committed, ſhall and maie haue their remedie in the kings temporall courts or other temporall courts, as the caſe ſhall require, for the recouerie, getting, or obteining of ſuch inheritance, eſtate, fréehold, ſeiſon, poſſeſſion, terme, right or intereſt, by writs originall of Prec. que reddat aſſ. of nouell diſſeiſon, mort danc. Quod ei deforciat, writs of dower or other writs originall, as the caſe ſhall require to be deuiſed & granted in the kings court of chancerie of euerie ſuch parſonage, vicarage, portion, penſion or other profit called eccleſiaſticall, or ſpirituall, ſo to be demanded according to the nature & cauſe of the ſute therof, in like maner and forme as they ſhould, ought, or might haue had, of or for lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, in ſuch maner to be demanded. And that writs of couenant and other writs for fines to be leuied and all other aſſurances, to be had, made, or conueied of anie ſuch parſonage, vicarage, portion, penſion, or other profit called eccleſiaſticall or ſpirituall, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be hereafter deuiſed and granted in the ſaid chancerie, according as hath beene vſed for fines to be leuied, and aſſurance to be had, made or conueied, of lands, tenements, or other hereditaments. And that all iudgements to be giuen vpon anie of the ſaid writs originall ſo to be deuiſed or granted, of or for anie the premiſſes or anie of them: and all fines to be leuied and knowledged in anie of the kings ſaid courts thereof, ſhall be of like force and effect in the law, to all intents and purpoſes, as iudgements giuen and fines leuied of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, in the ſame courts, vpon writs originall therefore duelie purſued and proſecuted, albeit no ſuch forme of writs originall out of the ſaid court of chancerie haue heretofore proceeded or beene awarded.

An act againſt ſellers and buiers of pheſants and partriges.

Chap. 8.

FOr the increaſe of pheſants and partriges within this realme, and for the good paſtime of the kings maieſtie and his nobles and gentlemen in the ſame: be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon or perſons after the firſt daie of September next comming, ſhall ſell or buie anie pheſant or partrige, vpon paine that euerie ſeller and buier ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie pheſant ſold and bought contrarie to this act vj.s. viij.d. And for euerie partrige ſold and bought contrarie to this act iij.s. iiij.d. The moitie of which forfeiture to be to the kings highnes, and the other moitie thereof to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame by originall writs, bill, plaint, or information. In which none eſſoine, protection, nor wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

¶ Prouided alwaie, that euerie perſon and perſons, may ſell pheſants and partriges to the officers and miniſters of the honorable houſhold of the kings, queenes, the princes and of all the kings children: and that the ſame officers and miniſters of ſuch houſholds, and euerie of them, maie lawfullie buie pheſants and partriges to be ſpent in any of the ſaid houſholds, as they might before the making of this act, any thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. This act to indure till the laſt daie of the next parlement.

An act againſt maintenance, embracerie, &c: and againſt vnlawfull buieng of titles.

Chap. 9.

THe king our ſoueraigne lord calling to his moſt bleſſed remembrance, that there is nothing within this realme that conſerueth his louing ſubiects in more quietneſſe, reſt, peace, and good concord, than the due and iuſt miniſtration of his lawes, and the true and indifferent trials of ſuch titles and iſſues as beene to be tried according to the lawes of this realme, which his moſt roiall maieſtie perceiueth to be greatlie hindered and letted by maintenance, embracerie, champertie, ſubornation of witneſſes, ſiniſter labor, buieng of titles and pretenſed rights of perſons not being in poſſeſſion, wherevpon great periurie hath inſued, and much inquietneſſe, oppreſſion, vexation, trouble, wrongs, and diſinheritance hath followed among his moſt louing ſubiects, to the great diſpleſure of almightie God, the diſcontentation of his maieſtie, and to the great hinderance and let of iuſtice within this his realme. For the auoiding of all which miſdemeanors and buieng of titles and pretenſed rights, and to the intent that iuſtice maie be more fullie and indifferentlie miniſtred, and the truth in cauſes of contention plainlie tried betweene his ſubiects of this realme: be it enacted by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from henſefoorth all ſtatutes heeretofore made, concerning maintenance, champertie and embracerie, or anie of them, now ſtanding and being in their full ſtrength and force, ſhall be put in due execution, according to the tenors and effects of the ſame ſtatutes.

¶ And ouer that be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon nor perſons, of what eſtate, degree, or condition ſo euer he or they be, ſhall from henſefoorth bargen, buie, or ſell, or by anie waies or means, obteine, get, or haue, anie pretenſed rights or titles, or take promiſe, grant, or couenant, to haue anie right or title of anie perſon or perſons, in or to anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, but if ſuch perſon or perſons, which ſhall ſo bargen, ſell, giue, grant, couenant, or promiſe the ſame, their anteceſſors, or they, by whome he or they claime the ſame, haue beene in poſſeſſion of the ſame, or of the reuerſion or remainder thereof, or taken the rents or profits thereof, by the ſpace of one whole yeare next before the ſaid bargen, couenant, grant, or promiſe made, vpon paine that he that ſhall make anie bargen, ſale, promiſe, couenant, or grant, to forfeit the whole value of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ſo bargened, ſold,

And furthermore,that no maner of perſon or perſons, of what eſtate,degree,or condition ſo euer he or they be,do hereafter vnlawfullie mainteine, or cauſe or procure anie vnlawfull maintenance in anie action,demand,ſute,or complaint in anie of the kings courts of the chancerie, the ſtarchamber,White hall,or elſewhere,within anie of the kings dominions of England or Wales, or the marches of the ſame,where anie perſon or perſons haue, or hereafter ſhall haue authoritie by vertue of the kings commiſſion,patent,or writ,to hold plea of lands,or to examine,heare,or determine anie title of lands,or anie matter or witneſſes concerning the title,right,or intereſt,of anie lands,tenements,or hereditaments. And alſo that euerie perſon or perſons,of what eſtate, degree,or condition ſo euer he or they be,that do hereafter vnlawfullie reteine for maintenance of anie ſute or plea,anie perſon or perſons,or embrace anie freeholders or iurors,or ſuborne any witneſſe by letters,rewards,promiſes,or by anie other ſiniſter labour or means,for to mainteine any matter or cauſe,or to the diſturbance or hindrance of iuſtice,or to the procurement or occaſion of anie maner of periurie by falſe verdict or otherwiſe in anie maner of courts aforeſaid, vpon paine of forfeiture of euerie ſuch offenſe ten pounds. The one moitie thereof vnto the king our ſoueraigne lord,and the other moitie to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information,in anie the kings courts,in which action,no eſſoine, protection,wager of law, nor iniunction ſhall be allowed.

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that it ſhall be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons,being in lawfull poſſeſſion by taking of the yearlie farme,rents,or profits,of or for anie manors,lands,tenements,or hereditaments,to buie,obteine,get,or haue,by anie reaſonable waie or means the pretenſed right of title of anie other perſon or perſons,hereafter to be made, to,of,or in ſuch manors,lands,tenements,or hereditaments, whereof he or they ſhall ſo be in lawfull poſſeſſion: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Reteinors

¶ And for the due execution of this preſent act, be it further enacted by authoritie aboueſaid, that the iuſtices of aſſiſe of euerie circuit within this realme, and elſewhere within the kings dominions,ſhall in euerie countie within their circuits,two times in the yeare, that is to ſaie,in the time of their ſittings,for the taking of aſſiſes or deliuerie of the gaoles, cauſe open proclamation to be made,aſwell of this preſent act,and of euerie thing therein conteined,as alſo of all other ſtatutes heretofore made againſt vnlawfull maintenance,champertie,embracerie, or vnlawfull reteinors,to the intent that no maner of perſon or perſons hearing the ſame, ſhould be ignorant or miſcogniſant of the dangers and penalties therein conteined and ſpecified.

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act ſhall not extend to charge anie perſon or perſons with anie of the penalties mentioned in the ſaid act, for anie offenſe by him or them committed contrarie to the ſaid act,except the ſame perſon or perſons ſo offending be ſued thereof by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in anie of the kings courts, within one yeare next after the ſame offenſe by him or them committed as is aforeſaid.

An act for the moderation of the puniſhment of incontinencie of preeſts and women offending with them.

Chap. 10.

WHere in the firſt ſeſſion of this preſent parlement,begun and holden at Weſtminſter the xviij. daie of Aprill,in the xxxj.yeare of the kings moſt noble reigne,and there continued vnto the xxviij. day of Iune then next following, in certeine ordinances there made for aboliſhing of diuerſitie of opinions in diuerſe articles concerning chriſtian religion,amongſt other things it was & is enacted, that if anie man, which then was or had bin a preeſt,at any time from or after the xij. daie of Iulie then next inſuing, did carnallie keepe or vſe anie woman,to whom he then was or had bin married, or with whome he had contracted matrimonie,or openlie be conuerſant, keepe companie & familiaritie with anie ſuch woman, to the euill example of other perſons,euerie ſuch carnall vſe,copulation, open conuerſation, keeping of companie and familiaritie,be & ſhould be deemed and adiudged felonie, aſwell againſt the man as the woman,and that euerie ſuch perſon ſo offending,ſhould be inquired of,tried,puniſhed, ſuffer,loſe & forfeit all and euerie thing and things,as other felons made and declared by the ſaid act,& as in caſe of felonie. And where in the ſaid act it is alſo further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that if anie man which then was or had beene preeſt,or after that ſhould be: at anie time after the ſaid xij.day of Iulie,did carnallie vſe or accuſtome anie woman,or keepe hir as his concubine, as by paieng for hir bord, mainteining hir with monie,araie,or any other gifts or means,to the euill example of other perſons,that then euerie ſuch offendor being thereof dulie conuict or atteinted by the lawes mentioned in the ſaid act,ſhould forfeit and loſe all his goods and chattels,benefices,and prebends,and other ſpirituall promotions and dignities, and alſo ſhould haue and ſuffer impriſonment of his bodie at the kings will and pleaſure. And that euerie of the ſaid benefices, prebends,and other ſpirituall promotions and dignities ſhould be to all intents & purpoſes vtterlie void, as if the ſaid offendor had reſigned and permuted. And if anie ſuch offendor or offendors at anie time after the ſaid conuiction or attaindor, eftſoones did commit, doo, or perpetrat the ſaid offenſes, or anie of them next before rehearſed, and be thereof dulie conuicted or attainted by the lawes mentioned in the ſaid act, that then all and euerie ſuch offenſe and offenſes ſhould be deemed and adiudged felonie, and the offendor or offendors therein ſhould ſuffer paines of death, and looſe and forfeit all his and their goods, lands, and tenements, as in caſes of felonie, without hauing any benefit of clergie or ſanctuarie: and that thoſe women, with whome all and ſingular the foreſaid preeſts ſhould in anie of the foreſaid waies haue to doo with or carnallie know, as is aforeſaid, ſhould haue like puniſhment as the preeſts, as by the ſaid act amongſt other things it manifeſtlie appeareth. Our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king gratiouſlie conſidering, that albeit that the incontinent liuing of preeſts, from whome all good example of vertue & good liuing moſt ſpeciallie ſhould proceed, to the good inſtruction and edifieng of other chriſtian people, is highlie to the diſpleaſure of almightie God, and great occaſion of increaſe of like ſinfull liuing to all other the kings ſubiects, yet the ſaid puniſhment therefore prouided by paines of death is verie ſore and too much extreame. Wherefore the kings maieſtie is contented and pleaſed, that with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, it be ordeined and enacted by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid clauſe and clauſes aboue written in the act before rehearſed, conteined, concerning felonie and paines of death, and other penalties and forfeitures, for and vpon the firſt and ſecond conuiction or attaindor of anie preeſt or woman for anie of the ſaid offenſes in the ſame clauſes of the ſaid act mentioned, ſhall be from henſeforth void and of none effect. And alſo that it be ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie ſuch offendor as is aboue written, heereafter ſhall happen to be dulie conuicted or attainted by the lawes mentioned in the foreſaid act, of or vpon anie of the crimes and offenſes afore written, that then euerie ſuch offendor ſo being conuicted or attainted, ſhall from henſeforth vpon his firſt conuiction or attaindor, onelie forfeit and looſe to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, all his goods, chattels and debts. And if the ſame offendor at the time of that his firſt conuiction or attaindor, haue anie mo benefices or eccleſiaſticall dignities or promotions than one: then the ſame offendor ſo conuicted or attainted, ſhall forfeit and looſe for terme of his life, all iſſues, reuenues and profits of his ſaid benefices or other eccleſiaſticall dignities or promotions (except one of the ſame benefices or other eccleſiaſticall dignities or promotions.) And if it ſhall fortune anie ſuch offendor or offendors at anie time after his ſaid firſt conuiction or attaindor, to commit, doo, or perpetrat any of the ſaid offenſes before rehearſed, be thereof eftſoones dulie conuicted or attainted by the lawes aforeſaid, that then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall onelie looſe and forfeit to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, all his goods, chattels and debts, and alſo during his life all the iſſues and profits of his lands, eccleſiaſticall dignities, benefices, offices, and promotions, to be had, leuied, perceiued and taken to the kings vſe. And if it ſhall fortune anie ſuch offendor or offendors, at any time after his ſaid ſecond conuiction or attaindor, to commit, doo, or perpetrat anie of the offenſes before written, and be alſo thereof dulie conuicted or attainted by the lawes aforeſaid, that then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall onelie forfeit and looſe to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, all his goods, chattels and debts, and alſo during his life all the iſſues and profits of all his lands and tenements, and of all his eccleſiaſticall dignities, benefices, offices, and promotions, to be had, leuied, perceiued and taken, to the kings vſe, and alſo ſhall further haue and ſuffer continuall impriſonment of his bodie during his life. And euerie woman being ſole and vnmarried, with whome anie preeſt ſhall ſo offend in anie of the offenſes aboue written, ſhall forfeit for hir firſt conuiction or attaindor, of or vpon anie of the crimes or offenſes aforeſaid, all hir goods, chattels and debts. And for hir ſecond conuiction or attaindor, of or vpon anie of the crimes or offenſes aforeſaid, all hir goods, chattels and debts, and alſo the one halfe of all the iſſues, reuenues, and profits of all hir lands, tenements, and hereditaments, by all the terme of hir life. And for hir third conuiction or attaindor, of or vpon anie of the crimes or offenſes aforeſaid, ſhee ſhall forfeit all hir goods, chattels and debts, and alſo during hir life, all the iſſues and profits of all hir lands and tenements, and alſo ſhall further ſuffer impriſonment of hir bodie by all the terme of hir life. And if the woman with whome anie preeſt ſhall ſo offend in anie of the offenſes aboueſaid be married: that then for euerie hir conuiction or attaindor of or vpon anie of the crimes or offenſes aforeſaid, ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment of hir bodie by all the terme of hir life, at the kings will and pleaſure: anie thing conteined in this ſaid former act to the contrarie of the ſaid penalties in this act mentioned in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning ſtealing of hawkes egs, connies, and deere.

FOraſmuch as iuſtice and equitie requireth, that euerie inheritor and poſſeſſor of manors, lands or tenements within the realme of England, ſhould according to their eſtates or poſſeſſions, peaceablie and quietlie haue, take, and inioy, the profits, reuenues and commodities of the ſame, as well in things of pleaſure, as in things commonlie valuable, without iniurie, rapine, or other extort wrong to be committed or doone to anie of them within or vpon the ſame. And where in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the eleuenth yeare of the reigne of the noble prince of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeauenth, it was ordeined and amongſt other things enacted, that no man of what condition or degrée ſo euer he be, ſhould take or cauſe to be taken, the egs of anie falcon, goſhawke or lanerd out of the neſt, vpon paine of impriſonment by one yéere, and further to fine at the kings will. The premiſſes notwithſtanding, diuerſe idle and euill diſpoſed perſons haue not deſiſted nor forborne to take egs of falcons, goſhawks, and lanerds out of the neſts, nor to take & ſteale deare, connies and rabbets, by daie and by night, whereof manie times haue inſued manſlaughters and other great hurts and inconueniences, and the increaſes of the ſaid kinds of hawks within this realme béene in maner deſtroied, and the priſes of the ſaid connies and rabbets (which be one of the commodious vittels of this relme) much inhanſed, to the common hurt and preiudice of all the kings ſubiects of the ſame. Be it therefore ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our ladie ſaint Marie next comming, vnlawfullie or wrongfullie, take or cauſe to be taken anie eg or egs of anie falcon or goſhawke, or lanerd, or the birds of anie falcon, goſhawke, or lanerd, out or from anie neſt or neſts of anie falcon, goſhawke or lanerd, within anie wood, ground, or place of anie other perſon or perſons within this realme, that the ſame offenſe and offenſes, and euerie of them, ſhall be adiudged & taken to be felonie. And the offendor and offendors therein being thereof lawfullie conuicted and atteinted, ſhall haue and ſuffer paines of death, and ſhall looſe and forfeit their goods and chattels, lands and tenements, as in caſes of felonie, by the courſe of the common lawes of this realme.

¶ Be it alſo enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons, after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of our ladie next comming, at anie time of the daie, that is to ſaie, betwéene the time of the ariſing of the ſun, and the going downe of the ſame, with his face hid and couered, with hood or viſor, or with his face painted, or himſelfe otherwiſe diſguiſed, to the intent that he would not be knowne, wrongfullie take, kill, or ſlea, anie déere within anie parke or cloſed ground vſed for déere, or with anie haie or other net, or with any firret or purſnet, anie of the connies or rabbets being within any parke or ground cloſed for maintenance or kéeping of déere, or in anie place being a lawfull warren, except it be ſuch perſon or perſons as hath or ſhall haue the kéeping, or be maiſter of the game of ſuch parks or ground cloſed for deere, or that haue or ſhall haue the ſaid connies and rabbets in farme, or ſhall be lawfullie licenced ſo to doo. Or if anie perſon or perſons at anie time of the night, that is to ſaie, betwéene the time of going downe of the ſun, and ariſing of the ſame, take, kill, or ſleie, anie déere within anie parke or cloſed ground for deere, or with anie haie or other net, or with anie firret or purſenet, anie of the connies or rabbets in anie parke, cloſed ground, or warren, as is aboue written, except it be ſuch perſon or perſons, as hath or ſhall haue the kéeping, or be maiſters of the game of ſuch parks or cloſed grounds, or that haue, or for déere, ſhall haue the ſaid connies and rabbets in farme, or ſhall be lawfullie licenced ſo to doo, that all ſuch offenſes and euerie of them, ſhall be adiudged and taken to be felonie, and the offendor and offendors therein being thereof lawfullie atteinted, ſhall haue and ſuffer ſuch paines of death, and ſhall looſe and forfeit their goods and chattels, lands and tenements, as in caſes of felonie by the courſe of the common lawes of this realme.

An act concerning ſanctuaries, priuileges of churches and churchyards.

Chap.12.

The kings moſt roiall maieſtie, calling to his moſt bleſſed remembrance, how that manie idle and euill diſpoſed perſons within this his realme and in other his graces dominions, nothing regarding the feare of God, nor the puniſhment of the kings lawes, hæretofore haue done, and do dailie commit and perpetrat wilfullie, as well great, ſundrie, and deteſtable murders, robberies, and alſo other great and heinous offenſes, to the great diſpleaſure of almigh-tie God, to the ſubuerſion of all good and politike order: wherevnto ſuch malefactors are partlie inſtigated and mooued, and the more bold and willing ſo to offend by certeine licentious priuileges and other liberties hæretofore granted to diuerſe places and territories within this his realme, commonlie called ſanctuaries, to which ſuch wilfull offendors hæretofore haue had refuge and tuition of their liues and bodies, after the ſaid miſchæfous offenſes perpetrated and done, from the iuſt and condigne puniſhment of his graces lawes, both contrarie to the expreſſe word of God, and the common tranquillitie of this his graces realme and the publike wealth and ſuertie of the ſame. Wherefore his grace of his accuſtomed goodneſſe, neither minding the incouraging nor continuall mainteining of ſuch miſchæfous and wilfull malefactors and offendors, neither againe the vtter aboliſhment and extinguiſhment of all ſanctuaries, and the priuileges of the ſame, verie expedient and conuenient to be had and continued in euerie commonwealth, by the law of mercie, for ſome cauſes and offenſes.

The kings highneſſe is contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by his highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all maner of ſanctuaries & places priuileged, which hæretofore haue bin vſed, reputed or taken for anie maner of ſanctuarie, except pariſh churches, and their churchyards, cathedrall churches, hoſpitals, and churches collegiat, and all chapels dedicated and vſed as pariſh churches, and the ſanctuaries to them and euerie of them belonging, and except ſuch places and territories as hæreafter ſhall be declared, appointed, and named, to be places of tuition and priuilege by this preſent act, ſhall be vtterlie extinguiſhed, adnulled, void, and of none effect, for anie ſuch libertie or priuilege of ſanctuaries, to all purpoſes and intents. Anie lawes, licences, eſtatutes, cuſtoms, priuileges, preſcriptions, allowances, or any other thing or things hæretofore vſed or admitted to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶And furthermore the kings roiall maieſtie of his accuſtomed goodneſſe, mercie, and benig-nitie, is pleaſed and contented that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from henſeforth theſe places and territories hæreafter expreſſed and declared, that is to ſaie, Wels in the countie of Summerſet, Weſtminſter, Mancheſter, Northampton, Norwich, Yorke, Darbie, and Lanceſton, ſhalbe from henſeforth admitted, allowed and taken to be places of priuilege and tuition for terme of life, of and for all and ſingular offendors and malefactors, of what ſo euer qualitie, kind, or natures all and euerie their offenſes be or ſhall be, for the which their ſaid offenſes and crimes, the paines and puniſhment of death ſhould inſue by the ſtatute, lawes or cuſtoms of this realme, other than ſuch as hæreafter by this preſent act be excepted and forepriſed, that is to ſaie, that it be enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that from henſeforth the ſaid pariſh churches or church yards, cathedrall churches, hoſpitals, churches collegiat, and all other chapels dedicated, vſed as pa-riſh churches, nor anie of them, nor the cemitories to them or anie of them belonging, nor the ſaid places and territories before in this preſent act rehearſed and declared for places of refuge and tuition, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend to giue anie maner tuition, defenſe, immunitie, libertie, or priuilege to anie maner of perſon or perſons, which at anie time hæreafter ſhall perpetrat, commit, or do, anie maner of wilfull murder, or which ſhall commit or do anie rauiſhment of or to anie woman, or which ſhall commit anie maner of burgularie, or which ſhall commit or do anie maner of robberie in the high waie, or nære vnto the ſame, or to anie perſon which ſhall commit or do anie robberie in any houſe, putting the owner his wife, children, ſeruants, or any other within the ſame in feare of life. And alſo excepted and forepriſed all felonious burning of houſes or barnes with corne, and alſo all robberies of churches, chapels, or other halowed places. And alſo forepriſed and excepted all and ſingular abbetters, procurers and counſellors to anie of the foreſaid offenſes before ſpecified and excepted, before the ſaid offenſes committed and done. And alſo excepted and forepriſed all other offendors committing or perpetrating anie offenſes where ſanctuarie or cleargie is not allowable by the lawes of this realme, or where ſanctuarie or clergie is taken awaie by anie former ſtatute or law.

Places allowed to be ſanctuaries.

Offenſes

¶And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if at anie time hæreafter anie perſon or perſons do take anie refuge or ſanctuarie in anie pariſh church or churchyard, cathedrall church, hoſpitall, church collegiat, or other chapell dedicat, commonlie vſed as pariſh churches, or in the cemitorie to any of them belonging, for any offenſe, other than ſuch as be excepted & forpriſed by this act, that then the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo taking ſanctuarie and refuge, ſhall and may abide and remaine there by the ſpace of xl. daies, as hath bin heertofore vſed, vſing himſelfe in all points 40 daies according to the lawes & ſtatutes of the realme, vnleſſe the coroner in the meane time repaire vnto him Abiuratiō for the taking of his abiuration, in which caſe vpon repaire of the ſaid coroner, he ſhall and may abiure after the lawes and eſtatutes of this realme, to anie of the ſaid territories and priuileged places before named, not being full of the number, as heereafter to euerie of the ſaid places by this act ſhall be appointed, there to abide and remaine during his life, vſing himſelfe in ſuch like order, condition and faſhion in all things and points as heeretofore hath beene ordered and appointed by the ſtatutes and lawes of this realme, for and concerning the good order of ſanctuarie perſons to be obſerued, vſed, and kept, within priuileged ſanctuaries, or elſe to loſe the benefits of their ſaid priuilege, and vpon the penalties compriſed in the ſaid eſtatutes.

¶ And it is further enacted, that if the coroner of the ſhire or place where anie perſon or perſons Coroner ſhall take anie refuge or ſanctuarie in anie of the ſaid churches or churchyards, cathedrall churches hoſpitals, churches collegiat, chapels dedicat, commonlie vſed as pariſh churches, or anie cemitories to them or anie of them belonging, vpon reaſonable requeſt to him made, doo refuſe to come in conuenient time vnto ſuch perſon being in ſanctuarie, as aforeſaid, there to take his confeſſion and abiuration, according to the lawes of this relme, that then the ſaid coroner for euerie ſuch default Forfeit ſhall loſe and forfeit to our ſoueraigne lord the king C. s.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the chancellor of England for the Chancelor time being, within the ſpace of one yeare next following, ſhall haue power and authoritie by this Commiſſi. act, to award ſeuerall commiſſions vnder the kings great ſeale of England, vnto ſuch diſcreet perſons, as he ſhall thinke meet by his diſcretion to make perambulations, and to appoint, ſet foorth, Bounds and limit certeinlie how far and where the bounds and limits of euerie of the ſaid priuileged places and territories before rehearſed, ſhall extend, and that the ſame bounds and limits ſo by the ſaid commiſſioners to be ſet foorth, limited and appointed, ſhall be returned vnder the ſeales of the ſaid commiſſioners into the kings court of chancerie, there to remaine of record for the certeine knowledge of the bounds and limits of the ſaid priuileged places and territories. And that after the ſame limitations ſo to be made and returned, the ſaid priuileged places appointed by this act, ſhall ſerue and be alowed onelie within the ſame limits and bounds ſo returned, and not elſewhere within the reſidue of the citie or towne where ſuch limits ſhall be appointed.

Officers ¶ And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in euerie of the ſaid priuileged places and territories, the officer or gouernor of the ſaid priuileged place and territorie by the kings highneſſe to be appointed, & euerie of them, for the good gouernance & ordering of the ſame places & territories ſhall dailie call or cauſe to be called, by himſelfe or his deputie, all & euerie of the ſaid priuileged perſons in euerie of the ſaid places and territories by their names, & if anie of the ſaid priuileged perſons doo make default iij. ſeuerall daies togither, & doo not perſonallie appeare at anie of the ſaid three daies, hauing no lawfull excuſe to the contrarie, that then euerie ſuch priuileged perſon, making default of his appearance as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit the priuilege of all and euerie of the ſaid priuileged places and territories: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding. ¶ And further it is enacted, that if any of the ſaid abiured or priuileged perſons within the time he ſhall be in anie of the ſaid priuileged places or territories, as a priuileged man, fortune to commit, perpetrat, or doo, anie maner of felonie or other offenſes, for the which the penaltie of death ſhould inſue by the lawes & ſtatutes of this relme: that then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall for euer loſe the benefit and priuilege as well of the ſaid place, as of all other priuileged places and ſanctuaries before named: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Loſſe of priuilege ¶ And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall not be at anie one time aboue the number of xx. of the ſaid priuileged perſons heereafter to be admitted & receiued into Number anie one of the ſaid priuileged places and territories aforeſaid. And that if anie perſon heereafter doo abiure to any of the ſaid priuileged places & territories, according to the purueie of this act, the Abiure perſon ſo abiuring ſhall be vſed, conducted, conueied and brought from conſtable to conſtable, directlie according to the order of the lawes heeretofore vſed for the conducting of abiured perſons to their ports after their abiurations, vntill ſuch time as the ſaid perſon ſo abiuring, be brought to the gouernor of the ſaid priuileged place wherto he ſhall be ſo abiured, or to his deputie: & if at the bringing thither of the ſaid abiured perſon it ſhall appeare and be trulie declared by the regiſter there to be kept of the names of the ſaid priuileged perſons then being in the ſaid priuileged place, that the ſaid priuileged place is then full of his ſaid number of the ſaid priuileged perſons, being then there lawfullie priuileged, according to the purueie of this act: then the ſaid gouernor of the ſaid priuileged place, or his deputie, ſhall declare and ſhew vnto the ſaid abiured perſon, ſo being brought thither, and to the ſaid officer that bringeth and conducteth him thither, that the ſaid abiured perſon maie not be there receiued, for that that the ſaid priuileged place is then alreadie full of his ſaid number, and thereupon ſhall command the ſaid conſtable or other officer, to conduct, lead, and deliuer the ſaid abiured perſon to the conſtable or other officer or officers of the next towne adioining Conſtable to the ſaid priuileged place, leading directlie toward the next of the ſaid other priuileged places or territories, and the ſame abiured perſon ſo to be deliuered from conſtable to conſtable, officer or officers of euerie townſhip, tending toward the ſame next priuileged place, vnto ſuch time as the ſame perſon be thither conducted,and there deliuered to remaine as aforeſaid.And that the gouernor of the ſaid priuileged place where ſuch refuſall was had,or his deputie,ſhall make an entrie in the ſaid regiſter of the whole matter,that is to ſaie, what day and yeare the ſaid abiured perſon was brought thither vnto him,and by what officer,and for what cauſe he did refuſe the receiuing of him, & to which of the other ſaid priuileged places the ſaid abiured perſon was from thenſe appointed to be brought and conueied,and ſhall before the departure of the ſaid abiured perſon,deliuer to him a true copie of the ſaid entrie,to the intent he maie deliuer the ſame to the gouernor of the ſaid other priuileged place,to the which he ſhall be conducted and brought,or to his deputie.And that the ſaid gouernor of that ſame priuileged place,if that ſame place be not then full of his number as is afore rehearſed,ſhall receiue the ſaid abiured perſon vpon the ſight of his ſaid bill,there to remaine during his life as a priuileged perſon,according to the purueie of this eſtatute.And that like order and faſhion be alwaies obſerued and kept for the conducting and conueieng of all abiured perſons from euerie of the ſaid priuileged places being full of their ſaid number,at the time of the bringing thither of anie ſuch abiured perſon, to the next other of the ſaid places, vntill ſuch time as the ſaid abiured perſon be receiued into one of the ſaid priuileged places not hauing his full number according to the purueie of this act.And that euerie gouernor of the ſaid priuileged places being negligent,& not doing his dutie according to the purueie of this act, and euerie conſtable & other of the kings officers,refuſing to receiue or to conduct ſuch abiured perſon as is aforeſaid,ſhall forfeit and loſe to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king for euerie of their defaults in that behalfe fortie ſhillings.

Forfeit

¶ Prouided alwaies,that this act nor anie thing therin conteined,ſhall not extend or be taken to miniſh or appaire,or to augment or inforce the priuilege or libertie, which anie perſon or perſons haue alreadie taken,clamed,or obteined in any place or places within this realme heretofore vſed, allowed,or admitted for places of ſanctuarie,priuilege or tuition,but the ſame to ſtand for them in like force and effect, neither better nor worſſe than it was before the making of this note, anie thing heerein conteined to the contrarie heereof notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the breed of horſſes of higher ſtature.

Chap. 13.

Forasmuch as the generation and breed of good and ſtrong horſſes within this realme,extendeth not onelie to a great helpe of defenſe of the ſame, but alſo is a great commoditie and profit to the inhabitants thereof,which now is much decaied and diminiſhed, by reaſon that in forreſts,chaſes,moores,marſhes,heths, commons, and waſt grounds within this realme, little ſtoned horſſes & nags of ſmall ſtature and of little value, be not onlie ſuffered to paſture and feed therevpon,but alſo to couer and leape mares feeding there,wherof commeth in maner no profit or commoditie.For reformation whereof,and for the increaſe and breed of better & ſtronger horſſes, heerafter to be had within this realme : be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord,the lords ſpirituall & temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame,that no commoner or commoners within anie forreſt,chaſe,moore, marſh, heath,common, or waſt ground,nor anie officer or officers of or within anie of the ſaid forreſts or chaſes, nor anie other perſon or perſons what ſo euer he or they be at anie time after the laſt daie of march, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1543, ſhall haue or put to paſture into or vpon anie ſuch ground,forreſt,chaſe,moore,marſh,heath, common, or waſt ground, anie ſtoned horſſe or horſſes, being aboue the age of two years,and not being of the altitude & height of fifteene handfull, to be meaſured from the loweſt part of the hoofe of the forefoot vnto the higheſt part of the wither, and euerie handfull to conteine foure inches of the ſtandard,to paſture,feed,or be in or vpon anie of the ſaid forreſts,chaſes,commons, moores,marſhes,heaths,or waſt grounds,within anie of the ſhires and territories of Norffolke,Suffolke, Cambridge, Buck. Huntingdon, Eſſex,Kent,Southamſhire, North. Wilſhire, Oxford, Barkeſhire, Worceſter, Gloceſter, Summerſet, Northwales, Southwales,Bedford,Warwike,Northhampton,Yorkeſhire, Cheſhire, Staffordſhire,the countie of the citie of Yorke,the towne & liberties of Gloceſter, the countie of the towne of Kingſton vpon Hull,the countie palantine of Lancaſter, the countie of Salop. Leiceſter, Hereford, & Lincolne,or within anie of them,nor ſhall put to feed or paſture anie ſtoned horſſe or horſſes, being aboue the ſaid age of two yeares,and not being of the altitude & height of xiiii. handfull to be meaſured,as is aboueſaid,within or vpon anie like ground or grounds as bin aboue written, lieng or being within anie other ſhire of this realme,nor within anie of them, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid horſſe or horſſes,which ſhall be ſo found in or vpon anie ſuch ground, forreſt, chaſe, moore, marſh,heath,common,or waſt ground,at anie time after the ſaid laſt daie of March,which ſhall be in the ſaid yeere of our Lord God 1543,contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute.And it ſhall be lawfull to euerie perſon and perſons that ſhall find anie ſuch horſſe or horſſes, contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute, to ſeize the ſame in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie, the ſaid perſon and perſons ſo finding anie horſſe or horſſes, contrarie to this act in anie forreſt, chaſe, common, moore,marſh,heath,or waſt ground, within the ſaid ſhires or other limits aforeſaid, or in anie of them, ſhall firſt go vnto the keeper or keepers of the ſame forreſt or chaſe, to his deputie or deputies, or to the conſtable,bailiffe,headborough, burſholder, or tithing man of anie towneſhip next adioining vnto the ſaid place where the ſaid horſſe or horſſes ſhall be : and ſhall command, or require him or them, or anie of them, in the kings behalfe, to go with him or them , to

¶ And it is further enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid,that if anie of the ſaid keepers,their deputie or deputies,bailiffes,conſtables,headboroughs,burſholders,or tithing men,or any of the ſaid three other honeſt men,which ſhall be required to be at the meaſuring of the ſaid horſſe or horſſes, as is before ſaid,doo refuſe to doo as is aforeſaid,or elſe doo not trulie meaſure ſuch horſſe and horſſes,that then euerie ſuch bailiffe, keeper, deputie or deputies, conſtable, headborough, burſholder, and tithing man,and the ſaid three honeſt perſons to be named as is aforeſaid, and euerie of them not dooing,and refuſing to doo his or their dutie in the premiſſes, ſhall forfeit and looſe xl. s. for euerie time ſo refuſing to doo,or not dooing as is aforeſaid, the one halfe thereof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king,and the other halfe thereof to be to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie court of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, by bill, or plaint of debt, information,or otherwiſe, in which action none eſſoine,wager of law,or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Eſcape

¶ Prouided alwaie that this act ſhall not extend to any ſtoned horſſe or horſſes,that ſhall happen once in anie yeare after the ſaid laſt daie of March,to breake,eſcape,or go out of anie ſeuerall paſture or ground againſt the will and mind of the owner or poſſeſſor of ſuch horſſe or horſſes,in anie of the ſaid forreſts,chaſes,moores, marſhes, heths, commons or waſt grounds, ſo that the ſaid horſſe or horſſes,ſo breaking, eſcaping, or going out, doo not remaine or abide in the ſaid forreſts, chaſes,moores, marſhes, heths, commons, or waſt grounds, or anie of them, by the ſpace of foure daies,next after ſufficient and open notice and knowledge giuen at the dwelling houſe of the owner of the ſaid horſſe or horſſes,or of the open publication thereof made vpon a ſundaie,or other feſtiuall daie, in the pariſh church where the owner or poſſeſſor of ſuch horſſe dooth dwell.

Driuing of grounds

Forfeit

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that all forreſts,chaſes, commons, moores, marſhes,heths,and waſt grounds,within this relme of England & Wales,and the marches of the ſame and euerie of them, ſhall be driuen at the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, or within fifteene daies then next after,and ſo yeerelie to be driuen by the lords, owners, or poſſeſſors of the ſaid forreſts,chaſes,or by the officers of the ſame,and by the conſtables, headboroughs, bailiffes,burſholders,and tithing men,within whoſe offices and precincts and limits,the commons, moores marſhes, heths, and waſt grounds,being out of forreſts and chaſes,be or lie vpon paine of xl.s. to be forfeited to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king by euerie of the ſaid officers,bailiffes, conſtables,headboroughs,burſholders,and tithing men,as often and at euerie time , as the ſaid drift ſhall be omitted or left vndoone,or not effectuallie doone within fifteene daies after the ſaid feaſt of S.Michaell the archangell as is aforeſaid.And it ſhall alſo be lawfull to the ſaid lords, owners and poſſeſſioners of the ſaid forreſts and chaſes, by the officers of the ſame, and by the conſtables, bailiffes,headboroughs,burſholders,and tithing men,and euerie of them, within the limits of their offices,to make like drift of the ſaid forreſts,chaſes,commons, moores, marſhes, heaths, and waſt grounds at anie other ſeaſon and time of the yeare, whenſoeuer and as often as they ſhall thinke meet and conuenient.

Preſentments

And it is further enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire, riding,and other place in their quarter ſeſſions, to be kept and holden by vertue of the kings commiſſion of the peace to them directed, and all ſtewards of leets and lawdaies in the ſame leets and lawdaies,ſhall haue authoritie by this act,to inquire of defaults, contempts, omiſſions,and offenſes,contrarie to the effects aboue written,and euerie of them.And all preſentments thereof to be found in anie of the ſaid leets & lawdaies, ſhall be certified by the ſteward or deputie ſteward or courtholder of the ſame leet or lawdaie in the next generall ſeſſions of the peace to be holden in the countie where ſuch preſentment ſhall be found or had, or vnto the Cuſtos rotulorum of the ſame ſhire, within fortie daies next after that preſentment made, which iuſtices of peace in their quarter ſeſſions of the peace,ſhall haue power and authoritie by this act, to heare and determine euery ſuch preſentment before themſelues found,or in any of the ſaid leets or lawdaies to be preſented and certified as is aforeſaid, aſwell by examination as otherwiſe;& if any ſuch ſteward, deputie ſteward or courtholder aforeſaid,imbeſill or conceale anie ſuch preſentment,or doo not certifie the ſame as is aforewritten,euerie of them ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and looſe for euerie ſuch offenſe xl.s.The one halfe of euerie ſuch forfeiture,& euerie other of the forfeitures afore written, to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other halfe to the perſon or perſons that will ſue for the ſame, before the ſaid iuſtices of peace in their ſaid quarter ſeſſions, by bill or information, which iuſtices ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to heare and determine euerie ſuch offenſe, as well by examination as otherwiſe, as is before mentioned.

¶And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, ſhall haue, or put to paſture anie horſſes, gelding or mare infect with ſcab or mangie, in, to, or vpon anie of the ſaid forreſts, chaſes, moores, marſhes, heaths, commons, waſt grounds or common feelds, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie horſſe, gelding or mare ſo infect, paſturing in anie of the ſaid grounds ten ſhillings, which offenſe ſhall be inquirable and preſentable before the ſteward in euerie leet as other common annoiances be, and the forfeiture therefore to be to the lord of the ſame leet where the ſaid offenſes ſhall be preſented.

Infect horſſes.

Prouided alwaie, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend nor be preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons hauing any ſtoned horſſe and horſſes vnder the heights and altitudes aboue mentioned, for or concerning the hauing or putting anie of the ſaid horſſes to feeding in or vpon anie common or other waſt grounds where anie mares or fillies not vſed nor ſuffered to be fed, paſtured or kept.

An act for maintenance of the nauie of England, and for certeine rates of freights.

Chap.14.

FOraſmuch as it is euidentlie and notoriouſlie knowen, that the more part of this our ſoueraigne lord the kings realme of England, and the confines and dominions of the ſame, is, and hath beene compaſſed and inuironed by and with the great ſeas, ſo that neither the kings léege people and ſubiects of this his ſaid realme, nor yet anie others of anie forren realmes or countries can or maie conueie or tranſport their wares, goods, merchandizes and commodities in, to, and from the ſaid realme, by ouer or alongſt the ſaid ſeas, but onelie by ſhips. And where the nauie or multitude of ſhips of this realme in times paſt hath beene and yet is verie profitable, requiſit, neceſſarie and commodious, as well for the intercourſe of merchants tranſporting and conueieng their wares and merchandizes as is aboueſaid, & a great defenſe and ſuretie of this realme in the time of war, as well to offend as defend, and alſo the maintenance of manie maiſters, mariners, and ſeamen, making them expert and cunning in the art and ſcience of ſhipmen and ſailing, and they their wiues and children haue had their liuings of and by the ſame, and alſo hath been the cheefe maintenance and ſupportation of the cities, townes, villages, hauens and creeks néere adioining vnto the ſea coaſts and the kings ſubiects, bakers, brewers, butchers, ſmithes, ropers, ſhipwrights, tailors, ſhoomakers, and other vittellers and handicraftſmen, inhabiting and dwelling neere vnto the ſaid coaſts, haue alſo had by the ſame a great part of their liuings, and the ſame nauie and multitude of ſhips is now of late maruellouſlie appaired and decaied, and by occaſion thereof not onelie a great multitude of the kings leege people, which thereby had their liuing, be now miniſhed and impouriſhed, but alſo the townes, villages and inhabitations néere adioining vnto the ſea coaſts beene vtterlie fallen in ruine and decaie. For reformation whereof, it was ordeined and enacted by a ſtatute made in the fiſt yeere of the reigne of the right noble king Richard the ſecond, that none of the kings léege people ſhould ſhip merchandize in anie other ſhip than in an Engliſh ſhip, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid merchandize ſo ſhipped. And after that by one other eſtatute made in the ſixt yeere of the ſaid moſt noble king, it was enacted that for default of Engliſh ſhips, euerie man might ſhip their merchandizes in ſtrangers ſhips. And after that at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fourth yéere of the late noble king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, it was ordeined and enacted that no perſon ſhould carrie or bring anie wines of Gaſcoine or Guian, or Tholouſe woad into England, Wales, Ireland, Calis, or the marches thereof, or Barwike, but alonelie in ſhips of England, Wales, Ireland, Calis, or marches thereof, or Barwike, and that the maiſter and mariners of the ſame ſhips or the moſt part of them ſhould be of the ſame countries, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame wine and woad. And after at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter the fifteenth daie of Ianuarie in the 23 yéere of the moſt noble reigne of our now ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, it was ordeined and enacted that the ſaid eſtatutes, and euerie thing in them conteined ſhould ſtand in their full ſtrength, force and effect, ſo that from henſeforth no perſon ſhould attempt to doo contrarie to the tenors of anie of the ſaid eſtatutes vpon the paine conteined in the ſame. as in the ſame ſtatutes is more plainlie expreſſed and declared. Yet notwithſtanding diuers and ſundrie perſons not regarding the maintenance of the ſaid nauie, nor yet the commodities and profits comming and growing vnto this realme by occaſion of the ſame for their owne ſingular lucre and aduantage haue not feared nor dread to offend the ſaid lawes and good ordinances. Wherefore the kings maieſtie hauing great zeale and tender reſpect vnto the commonwealth of this his realme, willeth that it be enacted by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid eſtatutes and all and euerie thing in them conteined, be ſtand and continue in their full ſtrength, force and effect. So that from henſeforth no perſon or perſons ſhall attempt to doo anie thing contrarie to the tenors and effects of the ſaid good and laudable eſtatutes, vpon the pains in the ſame conteined and expreſſed.

And for primage and lodemanage vj d. ſterling of euerie tun, with all auerages accuſtomed after the old vſe and cuſtome of Engliſh ſhips.

Owners.

¶And further be it enacted by yͤ authoritie aforſaid, that if any owner, maiſter or purſer of any ſhip or veſſell of this realme or the dominions therof, or anie of them being freighted vnto or from the ſaid hauen or port, or the riuer of Thamis or anie of the places aboue rehersed, doo exact or take of anie merchant or his factor, ſeruant, or anie of them, anie other more or larger freight or ſums of monie in the name of freight than is aboue limited & appointed by this act, or otherwiſe infringe or breake the ſame act, or anie thing therein conteined, that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute, ſhall forfeit and loſe double ſo much as he or they ſhall ſo receiue and take, ouer and aboue the rate and ſums before rehersed, the one halfe thereof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof to be to any ſuch perſon or perſons that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, information or otherwiſe in anie of the kings courts of record, in which action no eſſoine, protection ne wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted in anie of the courts abouesaid.

¶Prouided alwaies, that this act ne anie thing therein conteined or ſpecified concerning the ſaid rates or ſums for the freight aboue rehearſed, ſhall not extend to bind or charge anie owners, maiſter, purſers or mariners of anie ſhip or veſſell for the freighting or lading thereof into or from anie port or hauen within this realme of England, other than the ſaid port of London, in maner and forme before ſpecified.

War.

¶Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that at what time anie war ſhall happen to be mooued or had betweene this realme of England and anie other exterior potentats, forren princes, their realms or ſubiects, or betweene anie other outward kingdoms or dominions, by occaſion and meanes whereof the ſaid owners ſhall be more charged for the furniture of their ſhips and veſſels, as well with vittels, more number of men and artillerie, for the ſure conducting, conueiance and tranſportation of the merchandizes, goods and wares laden in the ſame, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the ſame owners to receiue, take and haue ſuch more and greater ſum or ſums of monie ouer and aboue the rates aforeſaid, for the freight of their ſhips and veſſels as the merchants & they ſhall be agreed vpon, any thing or things conteined and limited in the ſaid rate ſpecified in this preſent act, or anie other thing in the ſame act conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that if at anie time héereafter it ſhall be concluded, couenanted, bargained, condeſcended or agréed betwéene anie merchants, their factors and ſeruants, or anie of them, and anie owner, maiſter or purſer of anie ſhip or veſſell of this realme or the dominions of the ſame, that anie ſuch owner, maiſter or purſer be contented to receiue, take, and haue any leſſe ſum or ſums of monie vnder the rates aboueſaid, for the freight of their ſhips and veſſels as aboueſaid, that then euerie ſuch concluſion, couenant, bargaine, condeſcent and agréement ſhall ſtand and be good and effectuall, anie thing or things limited in the ſaid rate ſpecified in this preſent act, or anie other thing or things in the ſame act conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Strangers.

¶And where alſo our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king of his owne bounteous liberall mind and princelie diſcretion, now of late hath commanded that no perſon nor perſons being ſtrangers or denizens, conueieng or tranſporting anie goods, wares or merchandizes into anie port, créeke or other place of this realme, or out of the ſame, ſhould for a certeine time paie anie other more or larger cuſtome and ſubſidie than his graces louing and naturall ſubiects then vſed and were accuſtomed to doo and paie at that preſent time (cuſtome and ſubſidie for wools onelie excepted) ſince which commandement ſo giuen and knowen, ſundrie gréeuous complaints haue béene made, as well to the kings maieſtie as alſo to his moſt honorable counſell by diuers of his graces louing ſubiects, that the merchants eſtrangers and their factors hauing excéeding benefit, profit and commoditie, by reaſon of the ſaid commandement, haue doone and doo dailie lade and conueie their goods, wares and merchandizes brought within this realme from out of the ſame, in and vpon ſtrangers ſhips of other realmes, in ſuch numbers at ſundrie ports, hauens, riuers and places of this realme and the dominions of the ſame, that the owners of ſhips, their maiſters, mariners, ſeamen, ſhipwrights and great multitude of other his graces ſubiects be greatlie impouriſhed, to their extreame loſſes and damages, whereby no little detriment and decaie hath and is like to inſue to the ſaid nauie of this his graces realme of England and the dominions thereof. diſcommoditie as well of his ſaid nauie as of the people, and with moſt godlie mind intending as well the commonwealth of his graces ſaid nauie & people, as alſo the ſucceſſe and effect of his ſaid commandement doth enact by his moſt roiall aſſent & by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth all and euerie perſon and perſons that is, or be ſtrangers, or aliens borne out of this realme of England or in anie other place out of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings obeizance being denizens or not denizens, their factors, atturnies, miniſters and ſeruants, that anie time héereafter doo lade or ſhall cauſe to be laden anie wares, goods or merchandizes, of what kind, nature or qualitie ſoeuer it ſhall be, in anie ſhip, bottome or veſſell of this realme of England commonlie called an Engliſh ſhip, bottome or veſſell during the time in the ſaid proclamation conteined, ſhall not be compelled to paie or cauſe to be paid anie other cuſtome or ſubſidie, but onelie according to the ſaid proclamation. And in caſe that anie ſtranger or alien borne out of this realme of England or other our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings obeizance, being denizen or not denizen, at anie time héereafter freight or lade, or cauſe to be freighted or laden anie ſhip, bottom, or veſſell of anie ſtranger or outlandiſh perſon with anie wares or merchandize from this relme of England to any outward parties, that then the ſame ſtranger or alien ſhall content and paie, or cauſe to be contented and paid to the king our ſouereigne lord his heirs and ſucceſſors, all ſuch and like cuſtoms and ſubſidies, as ſtrangers and aliens borne in other realms haue vſed to paie according to the ancient cuſtoms, vſages and lawes of this realme of England, any thing in this preſent act or in the ſaid proclamation conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Certificat.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that if there be no ſuch ſhip or veſſell of this realme of England or the dominions of the ſame, at, or in the port, hauen or place where the ſaid ſtrangers, aliens or denizens, their ſeruants or factors would freight and lade their wares and merchandizes towards the outward regions, that then if the ſaid ſtrangers or denizens, their factors, atturnies or ſeruants, before he or they doo lade, freight or conueie yͤ ſame goods, wares, commodities or merchandizes into any ſtrange or ſtrangers ſhip or veſſell, doo notifie and declare the ſame lacke or want of the ſame Engliſh ſhips and veſſels vnto the lord high admerall of England for the time being, or his lieutenant, deputie or deputies, if that anie of them be reſiant, at, or in the ſame port or place of lading, or if the ſaid lord high admerall, ne anie ſuch his lieutenant, deputie or deputies, be not reſiant, at, or in the ſaid port or place, then if they make notice or declaration thereof to the cuſtomer and controller of the ſame port or hauen, or to their deputie or deputies, and doo obteine and cauſe a certificat to be made vnder the ſeale of him to whome ſuch notice and declaration is made of lacke of Engliſh ſhips, as is abouesaid, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the ſtrangers and denizens, their factors and atturnies, for lacke and wanting of the ſaid Engliſh ſhip and veſſels, to freight and lade their ſaid wares and merchandizes in anie ſtrange ſhip or veſſell at that time being in the ſame port or hauen, and to paie none other ſubſidies and cuſtomes therefore, but as the Engliſh merchants being the kings naturall ſubiects, doo vſe and ought to doo by the lawes and cuſtomes of this realme of England: anie article or clauſe to the contrarie thereof in this preſent act conteined, in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Publiſh voiages.

¶ And further be it enacted by authoritie abouesaid, that all and euerie owner & owners, maiſter and maiſters, and other gouernors of Engliſh ſhips or veſſels, or any of them minding and intending to make anie voiage or ſailing from the port of London into the parties beyond the ſeas, with his or their ſhip or veſſell, ſhall make notice and declaration of his or their ſaid mind & intent of ſailing and voiage in writing, and affix the ſame writing vnto ſome poſt or other open place or places in Lumbardſtréet, there to remaine by the ſpace of ſeuen daies, declaring in the ſame writing to what place or port he or they ſhall ſo intend to ſaile or make his or their voiage, and of the name of the ſhip and ſhips in the which he or they intend to ſaile, to the intent that merchants maie haue perfect knowledge to prepare ſuch wares as they or any of them will haue conueied into ſuch parties beyond the ſeas. And alſo that the ſaid owner and owners, maiſter and maiſters, & other gouernors, or anie of them intend or make his or their departure from the ſaid port of London after the freighting or lading of the ſame ſhip or ſhips at ſuch time and as ſoone as wind and weather will ſerue, according to the charter partie to be made betwéene the ſaid owner or maiſter, and the merchants without protract of time.

¶ And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that the ſaid owner and owners, maiſter and maiſters, and other gouernor or gouernors of ſhips and euerie of them, to his or their power, and forſomuch as in him or them ſhall be, ſhall ſée and prouide that all wares & merchandizes which ſhall be by the ſaid merchants, their factors or ſeruants, or anie of them brought into anie ſhip or veſſell, ſhall be honeſtlie and in good order ſaued and kept.

Negligence.

¶ Prouided alwaie & be it enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that if anie merchant ſtranger or other find himſelfe agréeued or damnified by negligent kéeping of yͤ ſaid merchandizes or wares, or by long delaieng or protracting of the time in taking the voiage by the ſaid owner, his factor, maiſter, or any the mariners of the ſaid ſhip, otherwiſe than ſhalbe agréed betwixt the ſaid merchant, his factor, atturnie or ſeruant, & maiſter or owner, in or by yͤ ſaid charter partie (not being letted by wind or wether) ſhall & maie haue his remedie by waie of complaint before yͤ lord admerall of England for yͤ time being his lieutenant or deputie againſt the ſaid owner or owners, maiſter or maiſters, gouernor or gouernors, or his or their factor or factors, which lord admerall for the time being, his lieutenant or deputie ſhall and maie ſummarilie and without delaie take ſuch order and direction therein, as ſhall be thought to his or their diſcretions moſt conuenient and according to right and iuſtice in that behalfe.

An act concerning archbiſhops, biſhops, their chancellors, commiſſaries, archdeacons, and their officials, to be in the commiſſion of the act concerning the abolition of erronious opinions in chriſtian religion.

Chap. 15.

Commiſſiōs

WHere in the parlement holden and begun at Weſtminſter the xxviij. daie of Aprill in the xxxj. yeare of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, and there continued vntill the xxviij. daie of Iune then next following, amongſt diuers other things a godlie act was made by authoritie of the ſame parlement, touching the aboliſhment of diuerſitie of opinions concerning chriſtian religion, and for the full and effectuall execution of the ſame act, it was then and there enacted by the ſame authoritie, that immediatlie after the twelfe daie of Iulie then next following, diuers and ſundrie commiſſions ſhould be made from time to time into euerie ſhire within this realme and Wales, and into ſuch other places within the kings dominions, as ſhould pleaſe his maieſtie to be directed to the archbiſhop or biſhop of the dioceſſe, and to his chancellor and commiſſarie, and to ſuch other perſons as ſhould be named by the kings highneſſe, or by ſuch other as his maieſtie at his pleaſure ſhould appoint to name the ſame. Which archbiſhop or biſhop, his chancellor or commiſſarie, and other perſons ſo to be named or thrée of them at the leaſt, whereof the archbiſhop or biſhop, or his chancellor or his commiſſarie to be one, ſhould hold and keepe their ſeſſions in the limits of their commiſſion, foure ſeuerall times of the yeare at the leaſt, or oftener, if they ſhould thinke it expedient by their diſcretions, and ſhould haue power and authoritie by vertue of the ſaid act, and their commiſſion, as well to take information and accuſation by the oths and depoſitions of two able and lawfull perſons at the leaſt, as to inquire by the oths of twelue men, of all and ſingular the hereſies, felonies, and contempts, and other offenſes mentioned and declared in the ſame act, committed, doone, or perpetrated within the limits of their commiſſions, as by the ſame act among other things therein conteined more at large, it dooth and maie appeare. And for ſo much that as well the dioceſſe of the ſée of Yorke, as other dioceſſes within this realme, béene verie wide and large, extending into diuers ſhires, and beene diuided into ſeuerall ridings, wapentakes, and ſokes, and in euerie one of them, béene and heretofore vſuallie haue béene, particular commiſſions for the peace, and alſo in diuers of the ſaid dioceſſes beene diuers peculiar iuriſdictions of ordinarie powers, by reaſon whereof the archbiſhops and biſhops, chancellors and commiſſaries, or anie of them, being in the Quorum, in the ſaid commiſſions concerning chriſtian religion, made according to the ſaid act, can not conueniently be at ſuch ſeſſions as neceſſarily be to be holden by vertue of the ſame commiſſions, becauſe of the long diſtance of the places, where theſe ſeſſions beene to be holden within the ſaid dioceſſe, according to the tenour of the ſaid act. Whereby diuers of the ſame ſeſſions haue beene omitted or deferred, contrarie to the true meaning of the ſaid act. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and by the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that in all and ſingular commiſſions, hereafter to be made within this relme, Wales, or other the kings dominions, from time to time concerning the premiſſes, there ſhall be aſſigned to be commiſſioners with the archbiſhop or biſhop, chancellor or commiſſarie, the archdeacons and officials of euerie dioceſſe, and archdeacons iuriſdictions, and ſuch other perſon or perſons as it ſhall pleaſe the kings highnes or the chancellor of England for the time being, to name and appoint to be of the Quorum, which ſaid archbiſhop or biſhops, chancellors, commiſſaries, and officials of archdeacons & other ſuch perſon and perſons ſo to be named by the king our ſoueraigne lord, or by the chancellor of England for the time being, ſhall haue by force of this act and ſuch commiſſion to them hereafter to be made and directed, the ſame and like power and authoritie, to doo and execute all things declared in the ſaid act and ſtatute to all intents and purpoſes, and in as ample and large maner and forme as the ſaid archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor and commiſſarie or anie of them maie or ought to doo by vertue of the ſaid former act or commiſſion to them made or directed.

And ouer that be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie commiſſion and commiſſions hereafter to be made and directed to anie archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor, commiſſarie, archdeacon and officiall of archdeacon, or to anie of them, for the execution of the premiſſes by the ſame names or dignitie of office, that is to ſaie, archbiſhop, biſhop, chancellor, commiſſarie, archdeacon, and officiall of archdeacon, or of anie of them, omitting and leauing out their chriſtian names and ſurnames, ſhall be good and effectuall in the law to all intents and purpoſes. And that they and euerie of them, and euerie ſucceſſor of euerie of them, in euerie ſuch dignitie and office, ſhall haue by the ſame name of dignitie and office, full power and authoritie to heare and determine, to award and execute all things conteined in euerie ſuch commiſſion to them directed, in like maner and forme as they might haue doone if they had beene named by their chriſtian names and ſurnames, with additions of their dignities or offices full expreſſed in the ſame commiſſion. And that euerie ſuch commiſſion ſhall extend and be executed as well within euerie peculiar iuriſdiction & place priuileged or hauing liberties or franchiſes (and being no ſhire in it ſelfe) being or lieng within the dioceſſe and ſhire or other limit ſpecified in anie ſuch commiſſion, as els where without the ſame.

An act concerning ſtrangers.

Chap.16.

The king our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord calling vnto his bleſſed remembrance the infinit number of ſtrangers and aliens of forren countries and nations, which dailie doo increaſe and multiplie within his graces realme & dominions in exceſſiue numbers, to the great detriment, hinderance, loſſe, and impoueriſhment of his graces naturall leeges and ſubiects of this his realme, and to the great decaie of the ſame, remembring alſo the manifold acts and good ſtatutes, which haue beene heretofore made, as well by his moſt noble progenitors, as by his owne moſt roiall maieſtie, for reformation of the ſame in diuers and ſundrie parlements, that is to wit: firſt, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of king Richard the third, where it was enacted, that no perſon not borne vnder the ſame kings obeizance, nor made denizen, taking vpon him to be an artificer or handicraftsman, ſhould take nor occupie anie houſe or chamber within this realme, nor abide or remaine in the ſame, nor ſoiorne with anie ſtrange perſon, not being borne vnder the obeizance of the ſame king, as is aforeſaid, nor exerciſe or occupie anie craft or manuell occupation within this ſame realme, but that ſuch ſtrangers ſhould depart from this ſame realme within a certeine time appointed by the ſaid eſtatute, vnleſſe they were reteined in ſeruice to or with anie ſubiects or lieges of the king onelie which were expert in the crafts or occupations, vnder paine to forfeit all their goods. And that no perſon not being borne vnder the ſaid kings obeizance, nor made denizen being an artificer or handicraftsman ſhould make anie cloth within this realme. And alſo that no ſuch ſtranger ſhould ſell anie wares within this realme but onelie in groſſe, and not by retale, vnder paine of forfeiture of the ſaid wares. And moreouer, that no perſon not being borne vnder the ſaid kings obeizance, abiding in anie houſe or chamber within this realme, occupieng anie handicraft after a certeine time in the ſaid act limited ſhould take anie ſeruant to worke with him, except it were his ſonne or daughter, or elſe one of the ſubiects of the ſaid king, and borne vnder his obeizance, vnder paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch default twentie pounds, as in the ſaid act amongſt other things more plainlie appeareth. And where alſo in the fourteenth and fifteenth yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, it was enacted, that no ſtranger borne out of his graces obeizance, were he denizen or not denizen, vſing anie handicraft or occupation within this realme, ſhould take anie apprentiſe, except the ſame apprentiſe were borne within his graces dominions and obeizance, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch apprentiſe ſo taken, ten pounds. And that alſo no ſtranger or alien borne, vnder like paine, vſing anie handicraft within this realme after a certeine time limited in the ſaid act, ſhould take or haue anie iourniman or couenant ſeruant, except ſuch iourniman or couenant ſeruant were borne vnder his graces obeizance, & that all maner of aliens borne as well being denizens as not being denizens, inhabiting within the citie of London or a certeine ſpace about the ſame, ſhould be vnder the ſearch and reformation of the wardens of the fellowſhips of handicrafts within the ſaid citie of London, or as in the ſaid eſtatute among other things more plainlie appeareth. And where alſo in the parlement of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord holden at Weſtminſter in the 21 yere of his moſt gratious reigne it was enacted among other things, that no ſtranger ſhould keepe anie mo ſeruants ſtrangers but only ij. at one time, & that all denizens then made, or after to be made, which would inhabit within the ſaid citie of London, or within a certeine circuit of the ſame, & would there keepe anie houſe, or occupie any craft or occupation, ſhould be contributorie to & with the kings graces ſubiects of the ſame craft or occupation within the ſaid citie of London, paieng bearing and ſuſteining ſuch charges of the ſame craftſmen, as in the ſame act is conteined, and that they ſhould alſo preſent themſelues at the common hall or meeting place of the ſaid crafts in the citie of London, and there to take a corporall oth before the maiſter and wardens of the ſame craft to be true to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king and his heirs. And alſo that no ſtranger artificer or handicrafts man, borne out of his graces allegiance, not being denizen, ſhould ſet vp or kéepe anie houſe, ſhops, or chambers, wherein they ſhould exerciſe anie handicraft or myſterie within this realme, vpon like penalties as béene mentioned in the ſaid former eſtatute. And that alſo no ſtranger nor denizen not being borne within this realme, ſhould aſſemble in anie companie, fellowſhip, congregation or conuenticle, but onelie in the common hall of their crafts with his graces ſubiects of the ſame craft, vpon like paine as is aforeſaid, as in the ſaid acts and ſtatutes among manie other things more plainlie appeareth. All which good wholeſome and beneficiall acts and ſtatutes, béene in maner infringed, fruſtrated and defrauded, chéefelie by the means of diuers letters patents obteined by the craftie ſutes, inuentions, and practiſes of ſuch ſtrangers, latelie made denizens, in great number, which letters patents do conteine that euerie ſuch denizen ſhall be as frée as Engliſhmen naturallie borne within the kings graces dominions and obeizance, anie acts or ſtatutes made or to be made to the contrarie notwithſtanding, by reaſon whereof, the ſaid denizens refuſe to obeie and performe ſuch orders and directions as in the ſaid former eſtatutes were limited preſcribed and declared, as well to and for ſuch ſtrangers borne out of the kings obeizance, as at that time were made denizens, or that after ſhould be made denizens, to the great hinderance and decaie of the handicrafts men, being the kings graces naturall léeges and ſubiects. For reformation whereof, the kings moſt roiall maieſtie is contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by his moſt gratious highneſſe, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled and by authoritie of the ſame, that all maner of ſtrangers borne out of his graces obeizance, which heretofore haue béene made denizens, or that hereafter be made denizens, from and after the firſt daie of September next comming ſhall be bound & obedient by and vnto all the foreſaid acts and ſtatutes, and to all the contents of the ſame, and to all other acts and ſtatutes of this realme heretofore made, now being in their force and not repealed, anie letters patents or ordinances heretofore made or hereafter to be made to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And that alſo in all and euerie letters patents of or for the making of anie denizen, from and after the laſt daie of this preſent parlement to be made to anie ſtranger not being borne vnder the kings graces obeizance, ſhall be conteined a prouiſo that he or they to whome ſuch letters patents ſhall be ſo made and granted, ſhall be bounden and obedient by and vnto all the acts and eſtatutes of this realme as is aforeſaid, and to all and euerie the contents of the ſame, except it ſhall be the kings moſt gratious pleaſure to grant to anie ſuch alien anie ſpeciall liberties or priuileges more or otherwiſe than is conteined in the ſaid eſtatutes. And in that caſe all ſuch liberties and priuileges ſo to be granted to anie ſuch alien, contrarie to the forme of anie of the ſaid eſtatutes, ſhall be plainlie, wholie and particularlie expreſſed, ſpecified and declared by ſpeciall words as well in the bill aſſigned with the kings grace his hand, for obteining of anie ſuch grant as in the letters patents to be made out of the chancerie for and concerning the ſame.

The abbreuiation and limitation of Trinitie terme.

Chap.21.

Where the terme called Trinitie terme of long time hath beene, and yet is yeerelie vſed to be holden and kept in ſuch time and ſeaſon of the yeere, that by occaſion thereof not onelie great perill and danger of infection of the plage, and ſundrie other ſickneſſes, haue happed to the kings louing ſubiects, aſwell nobles as other, but alſo hath beene, and yet is a great impediment and let to a great multitude of the kings poore ſubiects, for prouiſion and gathering in of harueſt, and other their neceſſarie buſineſſe, and liuings, in that ſeaſon of the yeere moſt expedient to be exerciſed. The kings moſt roiall maieſtie hauing eſpeciall reſpect, aſwell to the health as to the wealth of his people, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, ordeineth, enacteth & eſtabliſheth, that in the ſaid Trinitie terme ſhalbe foure common daies of returne onelie, and not aboue, that is to ſaie, the firſt daie of returne ſhall be, and be called In craſtino ſanctæ trinitatis, the ſecond daie of returne of the ſame terme ſhall be, and be called In octabis ſanctæ trinitatis, the third daie of returne of the ſame terme ſhalbe, and be called In quindena ſanctæ trinitatis, and the fourth daie of returne of the ſame terme ſhall be, and be called A die ſanctæ trinitatis in tres ſeptimanas.

Foure returnes.

¶ And that the ſame daies of returne ſhalbe obſerued and kept in all our ſouereigne lord the kings high courts of record heereafter to be holden at Weſtminſter, or other place or places at the aſſignement, appointment, or agreement of our ſouereigne lord his heires or ſucceſſors: and that from or after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, there ſhall not be, nor be called anie daies of returne In craſtino ſancti Iohannis Baptiſtæ, Octabis ſancti Iohannis Baptiſtæ, nor Quindena ſancti Iohannis Baptiſtæ, nor anie of them.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that the ſaid terme of the holie Trinitie, ſhall yeerelie for euer, from the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, begun the mondaie next Trinitie ſundaie, whenſoeuer it ſhall happen to fall, for the keeping of the eſſoines, proffers, returns, and other ceremonies heetofore vſed and kept, in like maner and forme as in times paſt hath beene vſed to be doone in the daie of returne commonlie called In octabis ſanctæ trinitatis. And that the full terme of the ſaid Trinitie terme ſhall yeerelie for euer, begin & take his commenſement the fridaie next after Corpus Chriſti daie, in ſuch and like maner and forme to all purpoſes, intents and reſpects, as heeretofore hath beene vſed the wedneſdaie next after Corpus Chriſti daie. And that from and after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, the ſaid ſecond and third daies of returne called Octabis ſanctæ trinitatis and Quindena ſanctæ trinitatis, ſhall take their commenſement, and begin as in times paſt hath beene vſed.

Beginning of the terme.

¶ And that the ſaid fourth daie called A die ſanctæ trinitatis in tres ſeptimanas ſhall take his commenſement, and begin from the ſaid Trinitie ſundaie into three weeks then next following, and ſhall haue his returne with the fourth daie, as is accuſtomed in other like daies of returne.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that if after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, anie writ in anie reall action come in or be returnable into anie of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings courts In octabis ſancti Hilarii, then daie ſhall be giuen In craſtino ſanctæ trinitatis. If In quindena ſancti Hilarii, in octabis ſanctæ trinitatis. If In craſtino purificationis beatæ Mariæ, in quindena ſanctæ trinitatis. If In octabis purificationis beatæ Mariæ, then A die ſanctæ trinitatis in tres ſeptimanas.

And if after the ſame feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, anie writ in anie reall action come into anie of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings courts returnable In craſtino ſanctæ trinitatis, then daie ſhall be giuen In craſtino animarum. If In octabis ſanctæ trinitatis, in craſtino ſancti Martini. If In quindena ſanctæ trinitatis, in octabis ſancti Martini. If A die ſanctæ trinitatis in tres ſeptimanas, in quindena ſancti Martini.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that if after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, anie writ of dower come into anie of our ſouereigne lord the kings courts, and be returnable In quindena paſchæ, then daie ſhall be giuen In craſtino ſanctæ trinitatis. If A die paſchæ in tres ſeptimanas, in octabis ſanctæ trinitatis. If A die paſchæ in vnum menſem, in quindena ſanctæ trinitatis. If A die paſchæ in quinque ſeptimanas, or In craſtino aſcenſionis Domini, then daie ſhall be giuen vnto the daie of A die ſanctæ trinitatis in tres ſeptimanas.

And if after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, any writ of dower come into anie of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings courts of record, or In craſtino ſanctæ trinitatis, then daie ſhall be giuen In octabis ſancti Michaelis. If In octabis ſanctæ trinitatis, in quindena ſancti Michaelis. If in quindena ſanctæ trinitatis, a die ſancti Michaelis in tres ſeptimanas. If a die ſanctæ trinitatis in tres ſeptimanas, a die ſancti Michaelis in vnum menſem, or otherwiſe, as is appointed, limited, and declared by the ſtatute of Marlebridge, in chap.xii. thereof made and prouided.

And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all common writs and proceſſes, as well perſonall as mixt, which ſhall fortune to be returnable in the ſaid Trinitie terme, ſhall haue & keepe the ſaid returns of Craſtino ſanctæ trinitatis, octabis ſanctæ trinitatis, quindena ſanctæ trinitatis, and a die ſanctæ trinitatis in tres ſeptimanas, or anie one of them.

Daies of returne.

¶ Prouided alwaies, and it is further enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that in ſuch and like caſes and proceſſes as ſpeciall daies haue beene vſed to be appointed, aſſigned and giuen for the returning of writs and proceſſes, it ſhall be lawfull to the iuſtices of euerie of the kings ſaid courts of record, for the time being, in all the proceſſes by them awarded, to aſſigne & appoint ſpeciall daies of returnes, as by their diſcretions ſhalbe thought conuenient.

Daies of aſſiſe.

¶ Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that the daies in aſſiſe of darraine preſentment, and in plee of Quare impedit, limited and appointed by the ſtatute of Marlebridge, and alſo the daies to be giuen in attaint limited in the ſtatute made in the fiſt yeere of the reigne of the noble king Edward the third, being not contrariant to the tenor of this act, ſhall be holden firme and ſtable, and ſhall ſtand in their full force and effect.

An act concerning the accounts of biſhops and other for the tenth granted to the kings maieſtie.

IN moſt humble wiſe beſéeching your moſt roiall maieſtie, your humble ſubiects, the archbiſhops and biſhops of this your realme, that where in the parlement begun at London, the third daie of Nouember in the one and twentith yéere of your moſt gratious reigne, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there holden & continued by diuerſe prorogations, vnto the third daie of Nouember, in the ſix & twentith yeere of your moſt noble reigne, it was enacted by authoritie of the ſame parlement amongſt other things, that your maieſtie, your heires and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, for more augmentation and maintenance of the roiall eſtate of your imperiall crowne and dignitie of ſupreme head of the church of England, ſhould yéerelie haue, take, poſſeſſe & inioy, vnited and knit to your imperiall crowne for euer, one yéerelie rent or penſion, amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, farmes, tithes, offerings, emoluments, and of all other profits, aſwell called ſpirituall, as temporall, then apperteining or belonging, or that héereafter ſhould belong to anie archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbaſie, monaſterie, priorie, archdeaconrie, deanrie, hoſpitall, college, houſe collegiat, prebend, cathedrall church, collegiat church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, frée chapell, & other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, of what name, nature, or qualitie ſoeuer they then were, within anie dioceſſe of this your realme, or in Wales, the ſaid penſion or annuall rent to be yeerelie paid for euer to your maieſtie, your heires and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, as in the ſaid act more plainlie appeareth.

¶ And furthermore it was enacted by the ſaid authoritie in the ſame parlement, that after a certificat made into your excheker, and tax ſet in ſuch maner and forme, as by the ſaid act is limited euerie archbiſhop and biſhop then being, and after that to be, ſhould be charged and chargable to leuie, collect and receiue within their proper dioceſſe, aſwell in place exempt as not exempt, all ſuch ſums of monie, wherewith the dignities, benefices, and other promotions ſpirituall afore named within their dioceſſe chargable by the ſaid act, ſhould be ſet, taxed and charged towards the paiment of the ſaid yéerelie penſion, and ſhould paie and content the ſaid ſums of monie before the firſt daie of Aprill to the treaſuror of your chamber, for the time being, or to anie other perſon or perſons whom it ſhould pleaſe your highneſſe to appoint to receiue the ſame: and that the treaſuror, chancellor, chamberleine, and barons of your excheker, ſhould cauſe yeerlie proceſſe to be made by their diſcretions for non paiment of the ſaid penſion and yéerelie rent, as by the ſaid act among other things more at large appeareth. And foraſmuch as ſince the making of the ſaid act, all and ſingular abbaſies, priories, monaſteries, and other religious houſes, which were then conuentuall, being cléerlie diſſolued and commen to your highneſſe by authoritie of parlement, and otherwiſe by your lawes, whereby the ſaid yeerelie rents and penſions, which before that time were of them ſeuerallie to be paid, be now not paiable or leuiable: and alſo that the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, vpon certificat made into the ſaid excheker, by reaſon of the ſaid act made in the ſaid ſix and twentith yeere of your reigne, béene charged and chargable with the ſaid yéerelie rents or penſions of the tenth of diuerſe and manie perſons, which were certified into your ſaid excheker by the commiſſioners aſſigned to tax and aſſeſſe the ſaid ſpirituall dignities and promotions, to haue perpetuities and chanteries, and other ſalaries, where neuer anie ſuch chanterie or perpetuall ſalarie was founded or ordeined, and manie chanteries, and other perpetuities ſpirituall, then being in Eſſe, béene ſince that time vtterlie diſſolued and extincted: and alſo manie prebends, parſonages, and vicarages, béene double certified by the ſaid commiſſioners, and ſome certified to be in places where none ſuch be In rerum natura, and ſome by wrong names, or otherwiſe miſcertified, and alſo ſome parts of the profits and emoluments, which did then belong to ſome dignities, parſonages, vicarages, cathedrall churches, and collegiat churches, as in proxes, ſynadals, oblations and indulgences, pardons, and other profits be now decaid and diminiſhed by ſundrie meanes, and manie chanteries, and other ſmall promotions ſpirituall béene ſince that time decaid and extinguiſhed, and no préeſts thereon abiding. And alſo ſince the making of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid xxvi. yéere, there haue béene aſſurances made to your maieſtie by ſome of the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, of parcell of their poſſeſſions, charged with the ſaid rent or penſion, and parcell of the ſaid poſſeſſions charged with the paiment of the ſaid yéerelie rent or penſion, béene come to your hands by other lawfull means. By reaſon whereof, and of manie other cauſes, doubts and ambiguities, which doo dailie riſe concerning the premiſſes, the ſaid collectors cannot leuie the ſaid yéerelie rents or penſions, concerning manie promotions or profits ſpirituall, certified in your ſaid exchequer by the ſaid commiſſioners, and yet that notwithſtanding, the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, for lacke of ſufficient warrant and authoritie to the barons of your ſaid exchequer, for their diſcharge in that behalfe, béene greatlie prolonged and letted in yéelding of their accounts in your ſaid exchequer, of the ſaid annuall rent or penſion, and put to great coſts and charges, to their great inquietneſſe, charges, loſſes and troubles, where they haue nothing allowed them, or to anie of their officers, for the collecting, leuieng, gathering or paieng of the ſaid annuall rents or penſions, to the vſe of your highneſſe. It maie therefore pleaſe your highneſſe by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that it maie be enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, or anie of them, their deputies, or other accountants, or anie of them, that now be, or héereafter ſhall be chargable with the collection of the ſaid annuall rent or penſion, or of any part or portion thereof, ſue and allege by the oth of anie of the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, or other accountants, or anie other perſon or perſons authoriſed to account for anie of them, before the treaſuror, chancellor and barons of your exchequer, or before the more part of them, or before ſuch other perſons, as it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to appoint to heare the ſame account, that they or anie of them, for anie of the cauſes abouesaid, or for anie other ſufficient cauſe or matter, by anie of them to be alleged, can not or maie not in anie wiſe lawfullie leuie ſuch particular ſum or ſums of monie of the ſaid annuall rent or penſion, as they or anie of them now be, or héereafter ſhalbe chargable and charged with, and no matter apparant there ſhewed to the contrarie for your highneſſe by anie of your ſargents at the law, or by your atturnie generall for the time being, or by anie other for your maieſtie; that then your ſaid treaſuror, chancellor and barons, or the more part of them, or ſuch other perſons, as ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, ſhall by vertue and authoritie of this act, haue full power and authoritie by their diſcretions to accept and allow that allegation, and thervpon thereof to diſcharge the accountant, or elſe by their diſcretions to direct the kings writ vnto anie of the kings courts, for to certifie vnto them the truth thereof. And thervpon the ſaid treaſuror, chancellor and barons, or the more part of them, or ſuch perſons, as ſhalbe therevnto appointed by the kings highneſſe, further to heare and examine the ſame matter and cauſe by witneſſe and depoſitions of ſuch as can informe the court of the ſaid other perſons, as ſhalbe therevnto appointed by the kings highneſſe of the truth thereof, or by anie other waies and meanes that they can beſt deuiſe: and if néed require, to award commiſſions by their diſcretions to certeine indifferent perſons, in euerie ſuch dioceſſe, where anie ſuch matter or cauſe ſhalbe alleged without anie charge aſking or taking for the making of the ſame commiſſions ſo to be awarded; which ſaid commiſſioners ſhall and maie by vertue of their commiſſions, haue full power and authoritie to examine the ſame matter & cauſe ſo alleged by anie of the ſaid biſhops or other accountants for them, and in their diſcharge by the oths of ſuch perſons as ſhall haue perfect notice thereof, or otherwiſe, and thervpon to make certificat thereof to the ſaid treaſuror, chancellor and barons, or to the more part of them in the ſaid exchequer, or to ſuch other perſons, as therevnto ſhalbe appointed by the kings highneſſe: and vpon certificat ſo made of the ſaid matter, or if by anie other matter or certificat it ſhall appeare to the ſaid treaſuror, chancellor and barons, or to the more part of them, or to ſuch other perſons as therevnto ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, that the ſaid matter, and the allegations thereof, be good and true; then the ſaid treaſuror chancellor and barons, or the more part of them, or the ſaid ſuch other perſons, as therevnto ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, thervpon to make a cléere and ſufficient deduction, allowance, determination and diſcharge to anie of the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, and other accountants, and to euerie of them, of and for the ſame, without further ſute or delaie, and the ſame allowance and diſcharge, to cauſe to be entred in that court, there to remaine of record, as by their diſcretions ſhalbe thought requiſit from time to time, without further ſute, charge, or other inquieting of anie of the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, or other accountants, or anie of them, or anie of the ſucceſſors or executors of anie of them in that behalfe.

¶ And that it maie be further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that in caſe it be héereafter certified by commiſſion, or otherwiſe, by ſufficient and probable witneſſes, had and found before the ſaid treaſuror, chancellor & barons or before the more part of them, or before ſuch other perſons, as therevnto ſhalbe appointed by the kings highneſſe, that anie benefice, chanterie, hoſpitall, or other eccleſiaſticall promotion is omitted, and not ſpecified, or not certified by or in the ſaid originall or former certificat: that then vpon due proofe, information, knowledge or certificat thereof, by any of the ſaid archbiſhops or biſhops, or otherwiſe made or declared before the ſaid treaſuror, chancellor or barons, or before the more part of them, or before ſuch other perſons, as therevnto ſhalbe appointed by the kings highneſſe, of anie ſum or ſums of monie concerning the premiſſes, ſo omitted, and not charged for lacke of knowledge or certificat thereof, whereof the king of right ought to be anſwered. The ſaid treaſuror, chancellor and barons, or the more part of them, or ſuch other perſons, as therevnto ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, ſhall make a ſufficient entrie thereof, to be annexed to and with the ſaid originall of the ſame tenth, and therevpon to charge the ſaid accountants to make, leuie and anſwer thereof yeerelie from henſefoorth, ſo that the kings highneſſe maie be trulie anſwered thereof from time to time, according to his lawfull title in that behalfe.

The ſubſidie of the clergie of the prouince of Canturburie.

Chap.23.

WHere the prelats and clergie of the prouince of Canturburie, haue louinglie and liberallie for certeine conſiderations, giuen & granted to the kings maieſtie a ſubſidie of foure ſhillings of the pound, to be taken and leuied of all & ſingular their ſpirituall promotions within the ſame prouince, during the terme of two yeers now next inſuing, in certeine maner & forme, with diuerſe exceptions and prouiſions ſpecified and conteined in a certeine inſtrument by them thereof made and deliuered vnto the kings highneſſe, vnder the ſeale of the archbiſhop of Canturburie, as in the ſame inſtrument exhibited in this preſent parlement more plainlie doth appeare, the tenor whereof inſueth in theſe words.

¶ The prelats and clergie of the prouince of Canturburie, calling to remembrance, not onelie the great libertie and freedome that they haue by their deliuerance from the yoke and bondage of the vſurped power of the biſhop of Rome, which by the moſt gratious goodnes and diuine wiſdome of our moſt dread and naturall ſoueraigne lord the kings maieſtie, is moſt lawfullie and righteouſlie cleerelie baniſhed and extinguiſhed out of this realme: and that therefore the biſhop of Rome ceaſeth not dailie moſt maliciouſlie to imagine how to prouoke forren princes to take part with him to reuenge his ſaid moſt vnlawfull and wrongfull quarels; but alſo the great exceſſiue and ineſtimable charges which the kings highnes hath by reaſon thereof beene at, and is dailie, and muſt continuallie be hereafter, in making of hauens, blockhouſes, and other diuerſe fortreſſes for the defenſe and tuition of this his realme, and his moſt louing ſubiects in the ſame: haue of their owne meere, louing, tender mind and good will, giuen and granted, and by theſe preſents do giue & grant vnto the kings maieſtie a ſubſidie towards his ſaid charges, in maner and forme following: that is to ſaie: That euerie archbiſhop, biſhop, deane, archdeacon, prebendarie, prouoſt, maiſter of college, maiſter of hoſpitall, parſon, vicar, chanterie preeſt, and other gouernors, and euerie of them, and euerie other perſon and perſons of whatſoeuer name or degree he or they be, inioieng anie ſpirituall promotion, or other temporall poſſeſſions to the ſame ſpirituall promotion annexed, now not diuided or ſeparated by act of parlement or otherwiſe, from the poſſeſſion of the clergie, ſhall paie to the kings highneſſe for euerie pound that he maie yeerelie ſpend by reaſon of the ſaid ſpirituall promotion, the ſum of foure ſhillings ſterling. And for the true and certeine knowledge of the yeerelie values of the ſaid promotions, and euerie of them, whereof the paiment ſhould be made, the rate, taxation, valuation and eſtimation alreadie made and certified in the excheker, for the paiment of the perpetuall diſme, concerning all ſuch promotions as yet remaine in poſſeſſion of the clergie, or anie other not yet diuided by act of parlement or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be followed and obſerued without making anie new valuation, rate, taxation, or eſtimation, other than in the ſaid certificat is comprehended.

¶ Prouided alſo, that no perſon paieng firſt frutes, ſhalbe charged with anie part of this ſubſidie, during the yeere of that his promotion.

¶ The ſaid prelats and clergie alſo granten, that this ſubſidie of foure ſhillings of the pound of the yeerelie cleere value, of euerie promotion taxed, as afore, ſhalbe paid to the kings maieſtie within two yeeres next inſuing the date hereof, at the receipt of his excheker, or within anie other places where it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to appoint: that is to ſaie: two ſhillings of euerie pound, at ſuch daies and time of the yeere, as the perpetuall diſme is now, by tenor of the act of parlement ordered, to be contented and paid.

¶ The ſaid prelats and clergie alſo grant, that euerie preeſt hauing a penſion by reaſon of the diſſolution of anie of the late monaſteries, colleges or hoſpitals, or anie other incorporation within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, ſhall likewiſe paie to the kings highneſſe foure ſhillings of euerie pound of their ſaid penſions, within the ſaid two yeeres. And that for the ſure paiment thereof, a deduction and retention of the ſaid iiij s. be made in the hands of the paiers of the ſaid penſion after the proportion of ij s. of the pound, ech of the ſaid two yeers to be deliuered and paid to the kings vſe, at ſuch time, and to ſuch perſon as the ſubſidie of iiij s. ſhalbe paid vnto.

¶ The ſaid prelats and clergie further grant, that euerie preeſt receiuing annuall ſtipend, being no perpetuitie within the ſaid prouince, ſhall paie to the kings vſe vj s. viij d. in euerie of the ſaid two yeeres, at the ſame daies, and vnder the ſame penalties, as the reſt of the clergie do paie for their promotions.

¶ The ſaid prelats and clergie alſo grant, that euerie archbiſhop and biſhop, and the ſee being vacant, euerie deane and chapter of that ſee void, ſhall be collectors of this ſubſidie within their proper dioceſſes, & ſhall haue full power & authoritie by the kings maieſtie & the parlement, to vſe all ſuch waies, means and proceſſe, as be preſcribed in the act of perpetuall diſme for the collecting and leuieng of the ſame, & ſhall account thereof before the barons in the kings excheker, or in ſuch other place as it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe to appoint, in ſuch wiſe, and after ſuch forme onelie, as the ſaid archbiſhop and biſhops be now charged for the collection of the perpetuall diſme: whereby is meant, how the lacke and default of paiment, of and for anie particular promotion, ſhall onelie charge the incumbent, and ſuch as be bound to paie the ſame, and that vpon ſuch paines, as be prouided in that act of perpetuall diſme, againſt them that make default in that behalfe: and that the archbiſhop, biſhop, or deane & chapter, gathering that they can receiue, and making paiment therof, ſhall for the reſt not by them receiued, be diſcharged by the certificat made in ſuch forme & faſhion as in the act of perpetuall diſme is limited & preſcribed. And vj.d. of euerie pound, wherewith the collector ſhalbe charged in his account cléerelie to be paid into the ſaid receipt, or in ſuch other place as ſhall pleaſe the kings highnes to appoint, ſhalbe allowed to the ſame collector in his ſaid account of the ſame, for the charges of collection, portage, ſafe conuieng and paieng of the ſaid ſubſidie.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this ſubſidie ſhall not be demanded nor leuied out of anie benefice or college, ſituat and ſet within the vniuerſities of Cambridge or Oxford, or of anie benefice or other reuenues vnto anie college of Cambridge or Oxford vnited & appropried, nor of the colleges of Eaton nigh Windſor, nor of the college of Wincheſter founded by William Wickham ſometime biſhop of Wincheſter, nor of anie church or benefice, or other reuenues to the ſaid colleges, or to anie of them annexed, appropried, or otherwiſe apperteining.

¶ Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that no ſpirituall promotion, or anie lands or reuenues annexed to the ſame, being charged by this grant or act of the prouince of Canturburie, ſhall be charged or made contributorie to anie fiftéene, or other ſubſidie granted to the kings highnes of the laie fée in the ſeſſion of this preſent parlement, or héereafter to be made during the terme of the ſaid two yéeres.

¶ For certeine cauſes and conſiderations concerning the true and ſpeedie collection & paiment of the ſame ſubſidie to be had: be it enacted by the kings highneſſe, by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid gift and grant, and euerie matter, ſum of monie, clauſe and ſentence in the ſaid inſtrument conteined, be ratified, eſtabliſhed and confirmed by authoritie aforeſaid.

¶ And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that euerie perſon that ſhall be appointed to the collection and gathering of the ſaid ſubſidie, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to leuie, take and perceiue the ſame ſubſidie by authoritie of cenſures of the church, or by diſtreſſe vpon the poſſeſſion of farmars or owners of the lands and tenements chargable by this act, to the paiment of any ſum or ſums of monie, or otherwiſe by the diſcretion of the collectors therof. And that no repleuie, prohibition or Superſedeas ſhall be allowed or obeied for anie perſon or perſons making default of paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, contrarie to the tenor of the grant thereof, vntill ſuch time as they haue trulie ſatiſfied and contented all ſuch part and portion as to them in that behalfe apperteineth. And in euerie ſuch farmar or farmars, that ſhall héereafter fortune to be charged to and with the paiment for anie part of the ſaid ſubſidie, ſhall by the authoritie aforeſaid, be allowed, and reteine in his hands as much in his yéerelie farme and rent, as the ſum which he ſhall fortune to paie for his lord or leaſor, ſhall extend and amount vnto: anie writing, couenant, bond, or other thing had or made to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And for the leuieng of the ſaid ſubſidie of foure ſhillings of the pound, and for the yéerelie penſions which anie préeſt or other perſon or perſons, which héeretofore haue bin religious, or taken for religious perſons, doo or ſhall receiue at the court of the augmentations, the chancellor of the ſame court, for the time being, ſhall yéerelie during the ſaid two yéeres, deteine or reteine in his hands, or cauſe to be deteined or reteined in the hands of other the officers and miniſters of the ſame court, to the kings vſe, for euerie pound of the ſame penſions two ſhillings, and it ſhall well and trulie paie or cauſe to be paid in the ſaid excheker, or elſe where the kings highneſſe ſhall appoint, without anie delaie or charge to be made or ſuſteined in that behalfe.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie other perſon or perſons, which paie or be chargable to paie anie yéerelie rent, penſion or penſions, to anie préeſt, or other perſon or perſons, which héeretofore haue béene religious, or taken for religious perſons, chargable to the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which doo ſo paie, or héereafter ſhall paie anie of the ſaid yéerelie rents, penſion or penſions, ſhall not onelie during the ſaid two yéers, reteine in his hands yéerelie to the kings vſe, for euerie pound of the ſame yéerelie rents, penſion or penſions, two ſhillings, and the ſame well and trulie paie or cauſe to be paid yéerelie, during the ſame two yéeres, vnto the ordinarie of the ſame dioceſſe, or to the collector of the ſaid ſubſidie, there to the kings vſe, but alſo ſhall yéerelie, during the ſame two yéeres, before the feaſt of the Purification of our bleſſed ladie, certifie vnder his or their ſeale or ſeales into the ſaid excheker, or els where it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to appoint, the names & ſurnames of all and ſingular ſuch préeſts or other perſons religious, or héeretofore taken for religious perſons, as is aforeſaid, and the true yéerelie rents or penſions which they or anie of them be intituled to haue or receiue yéerelie, as is aforeſaid. And that the chancellor for the time being of the kings court of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne, ſhall likewiſe yéerlie during the ſaid two yéers, before the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our ladie, certifie vnder the ſeale of the ſame court, not onelie the names and ſurnames of all and ſingular préeſts, and other perſons chargable for their ſaid ſeuerall rents and yéerelie penſions to the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie in the ſaid excheker, or elſe where it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to appoint, but alſo the true and iuſt yeerelie ſum and ſums of the ſame yeerelie rents and penſions, with the names and ſurnames of the perſons chargable to the paiment thereof. And that the archbiſhop and biſhop of euerie dioceſſe within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, ſhall yeerelie during the ſaid two yeeres before the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our ladie the virgin, certifie vnder his ſeale into the ſaid excheker, or elſe where it ſhall pleaſe the king to appoint, the names and ſurnames of all and ſingular ſtipendarie preeſts, being within anie of their dioceſſes chargable to the paiment of the ſaid ſubſidie, as is aforeſaid, and alſo the names and ſurnames of euerie ſuch perſon & perſons, with whom he or they do dwell & take any ſtipend or wages.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons which within the ſaid two yeers ſhall giue and paie anie ſtipend or wages to any ſuch preeſts, as is aforeſaid, ſhall for the inſufficiencie or default of euerie the ſame preeſt or preeſts, being in ſeruice & wages with him, at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord, be charged and chargable to and with the paiment of ſix ſhillings eight penſe for the ſame yeere.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid archbiſhop, biſhops, and all other perſons chargable to and with the collection of the ſaid ſubſidie of foure ſhillings the pound within the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, ſhall haue vpon euerie paiment therof made in the kings excheker, or elſe where the kings maieſtie ſhall appoint a ſufficient acquitance in writing of ſuch perſon or perſons as the kings maieſtie ſhall appoint for the receit therof; the ſame acquitance witneſſing the receipt of as much of the ſame ſum of the ſame ſubſidie, as ſhalbe by anie of them ſo receiued, & euerie ſuch acquitance in writing ſealed & ſubſcribed with the name or names of euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſo by the kings appointment ſhall receiue anie of the ſaid ſums of monie ſhalbe as good & effectuall in the law, & alſo a ſufficient diſcharge to all intents, conſtructions & purpoſes, as if it were made by act of parlement: & that euerie perſon & perſons which ſhall haue and receiue anie ſuch acquitance, ſhall paie but onelie ſix penſe for euerie of the ſame acquitances.

¶ Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that all and euerie grant and grants of all and euerie ſum and ſums of monie, which heereafter ſhalbe granted to the kings highneſſe by the clergie of the prouince of Yorke, ſhalbe of the ſame ſtrength, force and effect in all things, as the aforeſaid grant made by the ſaid prouince of Canturburie, and ſhall be taxed, certified, collected, gathered and leuied, according to the tenor, forme & effect of this preſent act of parlement to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, and in ſuch maner, as though it were ſpeciallie, plainelie and particularlie expreſſed and rehearſed in this preſent act, by expreſſe words, termes and ſentences in their ſeuerall natures and kinds.

An act concerning the lands and goods of the hoſpitals of S. Iohns of Ieruſalem in England and Ireland to be heereafter in the kings hands and diſpoſition.

Chap.24. THe lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, hauing credible knowledge that diuers and ſundrie the kings ſubiects called knights of the Rhodes, otherwiſe called knights of ſaint Iohns, otherwiſe called friers of the religion of ſaint Iohn of Hieruſalem in England, and of a like houſe being in Ireland, abiding in the parties of beyond the ſea, and hauing as well out of this realme as out of Ireland and other the kings dominions, yeerelie great ſums of monie for maintenance of their liuings, haue vnnaturallie and contrarie to the dutie of their allegiances, ſuſteined and mainteined the vſurped power and authoritie of the biſhop of Rome latelie vſed and practiſed within this realme and other the kings dominions, and haue not onelie adhered themſelues to the ſaid biſhop being common enimie to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and to this his relme vntrulie vpholding, acknowledging and affirming maliciouſlie and traitorouſlie, the ſame biſhop to be ſupreme and cheefe head of Chriſts church by Gods holie word, intending thereby to ſubuert and ouerthrow the good and godlie lawes & ſtatutes of this realme, their naturall countrie, made and grounded by authoritie of holie church by the moſt excellent wiſdome, policie and goodneſſe of the kings maieſtie, with the whole aſſent and conſent of the realme, for the aboliſhing, expulſing and vtter extincting of the ſaid vſurped power and authoritie, but alſo haue defamed and ſlandered as well the kings maieſtie as the noble men, prelats, and other the kings true and louing ſubiects of this relme, for their good and godlie proceeding in that behalfe, haue therefore deepelie pondered and conſidered that like as it is and was a moſt godlie act of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, and the ſaid noble men, prelats, and commons of this realme, vtterlie to expulſe and aboliſh not onelie from this realme, but alſo from other the kings dominions the ſaid vſurped power and authoritie of the biſhop of Rome, and alſo the hypocritike and ſuperſtitious religions in this realme, and other the kings dominions being his members and adherents hauing their originall erection and foundation by the ſaid vſurped authoritie, by expulſing whereof Gods holie word neceſſarie for increaſe of vertue & ſaluation of chriſtian ſoules, is not onelie purelie and ſincerelie aduanced and ſet forth, but alſo the extort exactions of innumerable ſummes of monie, craftilie exhauſted out of this relme and of other the kings dominions, by the colour of the ſaid vſurped authoritie is remoued and taken awaie, to the ineſtimable benefit and commoditie of the kings louing ſubiects, ſo in like maner of wiſe it ſhould be moſt dangerous to be ſuffred or permitted within this realme, or in anie other the kings dominions, anie religion being ſparks, leaues, and imps of the ſaid root of iniquitie, conſidering alſo that the iſle of Rhodes, whereby the ſaid religion tooke their old name and foundation is ſurpriſed by the Turke.

And that it were and is much better that the poſſeſſions in this relme, and in other the kings dominions apperteining to the ſaid religion, ſhould rather be imploied and ſpent within this relme, and in other the kings dominions, for the defenſe and ſuretie of the ſame, than conuerted to and among ſuch vnnaturall ſubiects which haue declined not onlie from their naturall dutie of obedience, that they ought to beare vnto the king their ſouereigne lord, but alſo from the good lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, their naturall countrie, dailie dooing and attempting priuilie, and craftilie all that they can to ſubuert the good and godlie policie, in the which thanks be to God and to our moſt dread ſouereigne lord, this realme & all other the kings dominions now ſtand in. In conſideration whereof, the ſaid lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, moſt humblie beſeechen the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, that it maie be enacted by his highneſſe and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that the corporation of the ſaid religion, as well within this relme, as within the kings dominions & land of Ireland, by whatſoeuer name or names they be founded, incorporated or knowne, ſhall be vtterlie diſſolued and void to all intents & purpoſes. And that ſir William Weſton knight, now being prior of the ſaid religion within this realme of England, ſhall not be named or called from henſeforth prior of ſaint Iohns of Ieruſalem in England, but ſhall be called by his proper name of William Weſton knight without further addition touching the ſaid religion. And that likewiſe Iohn Rauſon knight, now being prior of Kilmainam in Ireland, ſhall not be called or named from henſeforth prior of Kilmainam in Ireland, but onelie by his proper name of Iohn Rauſon knight without further addition touching the ſaid religion, nor that anie of the brethren or confreres of the ſaid religion in this realme of England, & land of Ireland, ſhall be called knights of the Rhodes, nor knights of ſaint Iohns, but ſhall be called by their owne proper chriſtian names and ſurnames of their parents, without anie other additions touching the ſaid religion.

Corporation diſſolued

And be it furthermore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if the ſaid William Weſton, or anie of his brethren or confreres of the hoſpitall or houſe of S. Iohn of Ieruſalem in England now abiding and dwelling within this relme of England, or anie other perſon or perſons being members profeſſed of or in the ſaid hoſpitall now dwelling within the ſaid realme at anie time after the firſt daie of Iulie next comming, doo vſe or weare within this realme or elſe where, in or vpon anie apparell of their bodies anie ſigne, marke or token hertofore vſed & accuſtomed or hereafter to be deuiſed for the knowledge of the ſaid religion, or make anie congregations, chapters or aſſemblies, touching the ſame religion, or mainteine, ſupport, vſe or defend anie liberties, franchiſes, or priuileges heretofore granted to the ſaid religion by authoritie of the biſhop of Rome, or of the ſee of the ſame, that then euerie of them ſo offending, ſhall incur and run into the pains, forfeitures, and penalties, ordeined and prouided by the ſtatute of prouiſion and premunire, made in the xvj. yeare of king Richard the ſecond. And if the ſaid Iohn Rauſon knight or anie his brethren or confreres of the ſaid hoſpitall or houſe of Kilmainam in Ireland, or anie other perſon or perſons, being members profeſſed of or in the ſaid hoſpitall of Kilmainam, now abiding and dwelling within the ſaid land of Ireland at anie time after the laſt daie of September next comming doo vſe or weare within this realme, or within the ſaid land of Ireland or elſe where, in or vpon anie apparell of their bodies, anie ſigne, marke or token hertofore vſed and accuſtomed, or hereafter to be deuiſed for the knowledge of the ſame religion, or make anie congregations, chapters, or aſſemblies, touching the ſame religion, or mainteine, ſupport, vſe, or defend anie maner of liberties, franchiſes or priuileges heretofore granted to the ſame by authoritie of the biſhop of Rome, or of the ſee of the ſame, that then euerie of them ſo offending ſhall incur and run into the pains, forfeitures and penalties, ordeined and prouided by the ſaid ſtatute of prouiſion and premunire, made in the ſaid ſixteenth yeare of king Richard the ſecond.

And be it likewiſe enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that if anie the knights or confreres of the ſaid religion being the kings naturall ſubiects, which now inhabit, abide and dwell out of anie the kings dominions, at anie time after the firſt daie of Februarie next comming, doo offend in anie of the articles or offenſes next aboue reherſed that then euery of them ſo offending ſhall incur and run into the pains, forfeitures penalties next aboue remembred.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings maieſtie his heirs and ſucceſſors, ſhall haue and inioie all that hoſpitall, manſion houſe, church, & all other houſes, edificions, buildings and gardens to the ſame belonging, being next to the citie of London in the countie of Middleſex called the houſe of S. Iohns of Ieruſalem in England, & alſo all that hoſpitall, church, and houſe of Kilmainam in the land of Ireland, and all and ſingular caſtles, honours, manors, meſes, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, woods, medowes, paſtures, parks, warrens, liberties, franchiſes, priuileges, parſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, knights fees, aduouſons, commanderies, preceptories, contributions, reſponſions, rents, titles, entrees, conditions, couenants, and all other poſſeſſions and hereditaments, of what natures, names, or qualities ſoeuer they be, and whereſoeuer they be or lie within this realme of England, or within the land of Ireland, or elſe where within anie the kings dominions; which apperteined or belonged to the ſaid religion, or to the priors, maiſters, or gouernors, knights or other miniſters, profeſſed of or in the ſame by the pretenſe or in the right of the ſaid religion, and all and ſingular goods, chattels, debts, arrerages of rents and farms, and all other things reall and perſonall, whatſoeuer they be, whereof or wherevnto anie of the ſaid priors, brethren or confreres, or perſons profeſſed in the ſaid religion,

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, by the agreement and aſſent of the kings moſt excellent goodneſſe, that the ſaid William Weſton, during his naturall life, ſhall haue and inioie to his owne vſe out of the premiſſes yearelie one annuall rent or penſion of one thouſand pounds to be paid to him or his aſſigns at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, and the Annuntiation of our ladie, by euen portions, and alſo ſhall haue to his own vſe ſuch reaſonable portion of the goods and chattels apperteining to the ſame religion, as it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie of his moſt excellent goodneſſe to limit and appoint of the ſame. And that the ſaid John Rauſon knight ſhall haue and inioie to his owne vſe, out of ſuch poſſeſſions as he now hath in England and Ireland, one annuall penſion of fiue hundred marks, to be paid to him or to his aſſigns, at the feaſts aforeſaid by euen portions, and likewiſe ſhall haue to his owne proper vſe ſuch reaſonable portion of the goods of the ſaid religion, as ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie of his moſt excellent goodneſſe to limit and appoint for the ſame. And that Clement Weſt, being one of the confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioie during his naturall life, one annuitie or penſion of 200 pounds. And that Thomas Pemberton another of the confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioie yearelie during his naturall life, one yearelie penſion of lxxx.li. And that Giles Ruſſell another of the ſaid confreres, ſhall haue and inioie yearelie during his naturall life, one yearelie penſion of one hundred pounds. And that George Ailmer another of the ſaid confreres, ſhall haue & inioie yearelie during his naturall life one yerelie penſion of 100 li. And that John Sutton another of the confreres of the ſaid religion ſhall haue and inioie yearelie during his life naturall, one yearelie penſion of 200 li. And that Edward Belingham another of the confreres of the ſaid religion ſhall haue and inioie yearelie during his naturall life, one yearelie penſion of one 100 li. And that Edward Browne another of the confreres of the ſaid religion ſhall haue and inioie yearelie during his naturall life one yearelie penſion of fiftie pounds. And that Edmund Huſe, another of the confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioie yearelie during his life naturall, one yearelie penſion of one hundred marks. And that Ambroſe Caue an other of the confreres of the ſaid religion ſhall haue and inioy yéerelie during his naturall life one yéerelie penſion of one hundred marks. And that Thomas Copledike an other of the confreres of the ſaid religion ſhall haue and inioy during his naturall life one yéerelie penſion of fiftie pounds. And that Cuthbert Leighton an other of the confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioy yéerlie during his naturall life one yéerlie penſion of thréeſcore pounds. And that Richard Broke another of the confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioy yéerelie during his naturall life, one penſion of one hundred marks. And that Henrie Poole another of the confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioy yéerelie during his naturall life one yéerelie penſion of two hundred marks. And that William Tyrell another of the confreres of the ſaid religion ſhall haue and inioie yearelie during his naturall life, one yerelie penſion of xxx.li. And that John Rauſon another of the confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioie yéerelie during his naturall life one yerelie penſion of two hundred marks. And that Anthonie Rogers, Oſwald Maſſingberd, James Huſe, Thomas Thornell, Nicholas Hupton, Philip Babinton, Henrie Jerad, Dunſtan Nudegate Nicholas Lambert, and Dauid Gonſon being confreres profeſſed in the ſaid religion and hauing at this preſent time no maner of certeintie towards their liuing, ſhall haue & inioie euerie of them yearelie, one yearelie penſion of ten pounds. The ſaid ſeuerall yearelie penſions to be paid at the feaſts of ſaint Michaell the archangell and the Annuntiation of our ladie by euen portions as is aforeſaid. And ouer this, euery of the ſaid confreres aboue named and mentioned, ſhall haue to their owne proper vſes ſuch reaſonable portions of the goods and chattels being in their hands and poſſeſſions, apperteining to the ſaid religion, as it ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to limit and appoint to euerie of them of the ſame.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie the kings ſubiects being profeſſed in the ſaid religion, be negligentlie forgotten or omitted out of this preſent act for lacke of knowledge of their names, that yet neuertheleſſe euerie of them ſo forgotten, and not now preſentlie named or remembred, ſhall haue and inioie ſuch honeſt, conuenient and reaſonable yearelie penſion and portion of goods as ſhall pleaſe the kings maieſtie to limit and appoint in that behalfe.

Prouided alwaies that none of the ſaid priors or confreres of the ſaid religion, ſhall haue and inioie anie of the penſions afore ſpecified, except ſuch of them as be the kings true and faithfull ſubiects, anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that John Mapleſden otherwiſe called John Mableſton clerke, ſubprior of the ſaid religion of the ſaid hoſpitall of S. John of Jeruſalem in England, William Ermſted clerke maiſter of the Temple of London, Walter Limſeie and John Winter, chaplens there, and euerie of them ſhall haue, perceiue, and inioie during their naturall liues all ſuch manſion houſes, ſtipends and wages, and all other profits of monie in as large or ample maner as they or anie of them now lawfullie haue the ſame, without let or interruption of the king our ſouereigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, or anie other his officers or miniſters, the ſaid maiſter and two chaplens of the Temple doing their duties and ſeruices there, as they haue accuſtomed to doo.

Wages

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid William Weſton and John Rauſon, and euerie of the ſaid brethren or confreres afore named, and the ſaid ſubprior and the ſaid maiſter of the Temple and two chaplens, and euerie of them, being the kings true and faithfull ſubiects vpon their reaſonable ſutes and petitions, ſhall haue ſufficient letters patents of the ſaid ſeuerall yearelie annuities, penſions, manſions, ſtipends and wages, and other profits of monie to them limited by authoritie of this act, vnder the kings great ſeale without anie fine or fée to be paid to the kings vſe for the ſame.

L. patents

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid brethren or confreres of the ſaid religion, and all other obediencers being members of the ſaid religion ſhall be acquited and diſcharged of their obedience, that they haue vſed to beare & giue vnto the ſaid William Weſton, or to the ſaid John Rauſon, or to anie other of the ſaid religion by the ordinances, vſages, rules, or ſtatutes of the ſaid religion. And that as well the ſame William Weſton & John Rauſon as the ſaid brethren or confreres of the ſaid religion called knights, as is aforeſaid, and euerie of them being the kings ſubiects borne in this realme of England or in the land of Jreland or elſe where, within anie the kings dominions ſhall be inhable to ſue & be ſued by their own ſaid proper names and ſurnames, and haue ſuch capacitie, and other fréedome, liberties, and priuileges to all intents and purpoſes in as large & ample maner, forme, faſhion and condition, as in the firſt ſeſſion of this preſent parlement was ordeined & enacted for religious perſons, anie ſtatutes, ordinances, lawes cuſtoms, vſages, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all priuileges of ſanctuaries heretofore vſed or clamed in manſion houſes and other places commonlie called ſaint Johns hold, and all other ſanctuaries heretofore vſed in any place within this realme, or in Jreland, which heretofore hath béene belonging to anie of the ſaid hoſpitals ſhall ſtand and be vtterlie void and of none effect, for or concerning anie ſanctuarie, priuileges of ſanctuarie, there to be had or vſed. The priuileges of common churches and churchyards, applied and vſed to Gods ſeruice, and burials of chriſtian people onlie excepted.

Sanctuaries

And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforſaid, that all the ſaid manors, meſes, lands, tenements, and all and ſingular other poſſeſſions, priuileges, liberties, franchiſes and other hereditaments, granted to the kings maieſtie by this act, ſhall be in ſuruei, rule, order & gouernance of the chancellor and other miniſters and officers of the court of the augmentations of the reuenues of the kings crowne in like maner, forme, faſhion and condition, as the poſſeſſions of the lands of the abbies, monaſteries or priories ſuppreſſed or ſurrendred béene.

Suruei Augmentat.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons as be now confreres of the ſaid hoſpitall or hoſpitals, and at this preſent time out of this realme ſhall before the feaſt of Pentecoſt, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God one thouſand fiue hundred fortie and one, returne into the ſame and here perſonallie preſent themſelues to the kings maieſtie or to the lord chancellor of England, the lord treaſuror, the lord preſident of the kings counſell, and the lord priuie ſeale, or two of them for the time being at the leaſt, both knowledging themſelues to be his highneſſe true and loiall ſubiects, and declaring themſelues to be content willinglie to obſerue, kéepe, and mainteine all the lawes and ſtatutes of this relme, as to good and true ſubiects apperteineth, or elſe the ſame confrere or confreres, making default of ſuch his repaire and preſentment as is beforeſaid, ſhall in no wiſe clame and inioie anie penſion by vertue of this act, anie thing in the ſame conteined notwithſtanding, vnleſſe the perſon or perſons ſo making default of repare and appéerance, can ſhew and declare themſelues to haue béene deteined, or by a neceſſarie meane impeached and letted of their will, purpoſe, and deſire to haue come hither, and to haue accompliſhed the whole contents of this ſtatute accordinglie.

An act declaring the diſſolution of the kings pretenſed mariage with the ladie Anne of Cleue.

Chap.25.

THe lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, calling to their remembrance the manifold deteſtable conflicts, inteſtine battels, mortalities of people and diſheriſons, which heretofore haue ſprongen and growne in this realme by occaſion of diuerſitie of titles to the crowne of the ſame, which moſt chéefelie grew and inſurged by doubts of mariages, and of the vncerteintie of the ſucceſſion of the ſame, conſidering alſo that (thanks be to God) all maner of titles béene now conioined, conſolidat, vnited, and veſted alonelie in the kings moſt roiall perſon, ſo that his maieſtie is, and ſtandeth preſentlie a iuſt and vndoubted, pure and perfect king of this his realme, againſt whome none impediment or obiection can or maie be by anie maner of means alleaged: and that it apperteineth to the office and policie of all ciuill bodies of realms and countries moſt cheefelie, next to their duties to God, to foreſee and prouide for the ſuretie and certeintie of the ſucceſſion of their kings and cheefe gouernours, for as much as vpon the certeintie thereof dependeth their whole common welth, reſt, peace, and tranquillitie. And latelie vnderſtanding that great ambiguities, doubts and queſtions haue beene moued in the mariage ſolemnized betweene the kings maieſtie and the ladie Anne of Cleue, whereby great trouble and inconueniences might hereafter ſpring and grow in this realme, to the imminent danger of the deſtruction of the ſubiects thereof, if remedie ſhould not be ſpeedilie prouided for the ſame. The temporall lords and commons haue therefore made their moſt humble interceſſion and petition to the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, that it might pleaſe his highneſſe of his accuſtomable goodneſſe to commit the eſtate of his ſaid mariage, with all the circumſtances and dependence thereof, vnto the prelats and clergie of this realme, to be ſearched, examined, defined and determined by them, according to the truth, iuſtice, & equitie, in ſuch wiſe as ſhould ſtand with Gods pleaſure, the kings honour, and the wealth and tranquillitie of this realme, to whoſe moſt humble ſute and petition his maieſtie condeſcended and agreed, and therupon by his commiſſion vnder his highneſſe great ſeale, committed the examination of his mariage to the archbiſhops of both the prouinces of Canturburie and Yorke, and to the prelats and clergie of the ſame, by authoritie whereof, the ſaid archbiſhops, prelats & clergie, haue aſſembled themſelues togither in their ſynod, and after long examination and conſultation in and vpon the validitie and inualiditie of the ſaid mariage, haue reſolued, declared, and defined by great aduiſe and deliberation, and by their whole common aſſent, as by an inſtrument by them made and exhibited vnto the kings maieſtie, vnder the ſeales of the ſaid archbiſhops, and with the approbations and teſtimonies of foure ſundrie notaries autentike therunto, ſubſcribed with their ſundrie ſignets more plainlie appeareth, the tenor of which inſtrument hereafter fullie inſueth in theſe words.

The inſtrument

¶ To the moſt excellent moſt high and mightie prince, and our ſoureigne lord Henrie the viij. king of England and France, defendor of the faith, lord of Ireland, ſupreme head in earth vnder Chriſt of the church of England, Thomas and Edward by the ſufferance of God archbiſhops of the prouinces of Canturburie and Yorke, with all reuerence, honour, and due ſubiection, health, and felicitie. Whereas your moſt excellent maieſtie at the inſtances and requeſt of the nobles & commons of your noble realme, hath by your graces letters commiſſionals, dated the ſixt daie of Iulie in the xxxij. yeare of your reigne, committed vnto vs and other our brethren, biſhops of both prouinces together, with the deans, archdeacons, and clergie of the ſame, coniunctlie and apart, that we ſhould by mature deliberation diſcuſſe the caſe of matrimonie which betweene your moſt excellent maieſtie and the noble ladie Anne of Cleue, is manie waies doubtfull and perplexed, and ſhould furthermore determine what we thought true and iuſt, and what your maieſtie might doo in the ſame, and that we ſhould ſignifie vnto your highneſſe in a writing autentike what we had don therein, as in the ſaid letters is conteined more euidentlie and at large.

We therfore both in our owne name, and in the name of our ſaid brethren the biſhops, and the clergie haue thought good to ſignifie to your moſt excellent maieſtie, and doo ſignifie by theſe preſents, that we & our ſaid brethren, biſhops of both prouinces together, with the deans, archdeacons and clergie aſſembled by vertue & ſtrength of your graces ſaid letters, commiſſionals and congregat to make a ſynod vniuerſall of this relme after we had heard, examined, weied & diſcuſſed ſuch things as haue beene proponed, alleaged, affirmed, and prooued vnto vs, haue with a common and ſeuerall aſſent & conſent of all & ſingular declared and determined your maieſtie not to be bound by the ſaid pretenſed mariage, which is of it ſelfe naught & of no force, ſo as your maieſtie without tarieng for anie other iudgment may with the authoritie of your church at your pleaſure & arbitrie contract and conſummat matrimonie with anie woman, not prohibited by Gods law to contract with your highnes the foreſaid pretenſed mariage with the ladie Anne notwithſtanding, and that likewiſe the ſaid ladie Anne notwithſtanding the pretended mariage with your highnes, which we determin to be no obſtacle, maie at hir pleaſure contract matrimonie with anie other perſon not forbidden to contract with hir by Gods laws, which determination made by vs & the whole clergie we witneſſe, profeſſe & affirme, like as alſo they with vs haue witneſſed, profeſſed, & with ſubſcription of their names confirmed to be true, iuſt, pure & honeſt, proceeding from the ſincere iudgment of our conſcience. To the execution of which determination the ſaid clergie hath with vs moſt perfectlie, wholie, and effectuallie aſſented & conſented, like as we eftſoons conſent and aſſent by theſe preſents. And the ſaid ladie Anne being aduertiſed by certeine noble men, of the requeſt of the nobilitie and commons made to the kings highneſſe, to commit the examination, definition, & determination of his graces mariage with the ſame ladie Anne to the archbiſhops, biſhops and clergie did then of hir owne frée will aſſent and conſent therunto, and moreouer ſithens that time hauing knowledge and cléere vnderſtanding of the reſolution, definition, and determination with the particularities thereof made by the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, and clergie, hath in preſence of certeine noble men, as the ſame noble men haue openlie in this court of parlement teſtified and declared, not onlie trulie confeſſed & knowledged amongſt other circumſtances that ſhe remaineth not carnallie knowne of the kings highneſſe bodie, but alſo hath agreed and fullie ſubmitted hir ſelfe to the ſame determination, as to a thing purelie, trulie, iuſtlie, indifferentlie and honorablie dóne, defined and determined by the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops and clergie. And hir ſaid confeſſion and agréement ſhe hath alſo ſignified by a letter ſubſcribed with hir owne hand, which letter and inſtrument hath béene openlie read, declared and publiſhed to the ſaid lords and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, in both houſes of the ſaid parlement. In conſideration whereof the ſaid lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, moſt humblie beſéechen the kings moſt roiall maieſtie that it maie be aſſented, declared and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, as well for the ſuretie and certeintie of his highneſſe poſteritie and ſucceſſion, as for the wealth, quietnes, reſt and tranquillitie of this realme, that the marriage betwéene his highnes and the ſaid ladie Anne of Cleue is cléerelie void and of no force, value ne effect. And that his maieſtie is at his libertie and pleaſure to contract matrimonie and marrie with anie other woman, not prohibited by the law of God to marrie with his highnes. And that the ſaid ladie Anne, notwithſtanding the ſaid pretenſed marriage betwene the kings maieſtie and the ſame ladie Anne, at hir libertie and pleaſure maie contract matrimonie and marrie with anie other perſon not prohibited by the law of God to marrie with hir. And that ſuch marriage which the kings maieſtie héerafter ſhall ſolemnize and conſummat with anie woman, not prohibited by the laws of God to marrie with his highnes, & the poſteritie and ſucceſſion procreated of ſuch marriage ſhalbe góod, pure, perfect and lawfull, the ſaid pretenſed marriage betwene his highnes and the ſaid ladie Anne, or anie other thing or things to the contrarie therof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And that the ſaid ladie Anne ſhall not be named & called within this realme, nor in anie other the kings dominions or elſe where, the kings wife nor quéene of this realme. And that all letters patents made by his highnes vnto the ſaid ladie Anne, in conſideration of the ſame pretenſed marriage for hir dower and iointor, or otherwiſe, be void and of none effect.

L. patents void

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, dignitie or condition ſoeuer he or they be, after the firſt daie of September next comming, by writing or imprinting, or by anie other exterior act, word or déed, directlie or indirectlie accept or take, iudge or beléeue the ſaid pretenſed marriage, had betwéene his maieſtie & the ſaid ladie Anne of Cleue, to be góod, lawfull, or of anie effect: or by words, writing, printing, déed or act, procure or doo, or cauſe to be procured or dóne, anie thing or things, to or for the interruption, repeale or adnullation of this act, or of anie thing therein conteined: that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée or condition ſoeuer he or they be, and their aidors, counſellors, mainteinors and abettors, and euerie of them, for euerie ſuch offenſe before ſpecified, ſhalbe adiudged high traitors, and euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be adiudged high treaſon, and the offendors therein, their aidors, counſellors, mainteinors and abettors, and euerie of them, being lawfullie conuict of anie ſuch offenſe by preſentment, verdict, confeſſion or proceſſe, according to the cuſtoms and lawes of this realme, ſhall ſuffer pains of death as in caſes of high treaſon. And that alſo euerie ſuch offendor, being conuict, as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit to his highnes, and his heires and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, all ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, annuities and hereditaments, which they had in poſſeſſion as owners, or were ſole ſeized of, by or in anie right, title or means, or anie other perſon or perſons had to their vſe of anie eſtate of inheritance at the daie of ſuch treaſons and offenſes by them committed and dóne: and ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit to his highnes, and to his ſaid heirs, as well all maner ſuch eſtate of fréehold and intereſt for yéeres of lands and tenements, as all other góods, chattels & debts which they had at the time of their conuiction or attaindor of anie ſuch offenſe. Sauing alwaies to euerie ſuch perſon and perſons and bodies politike, and their heires, aſſignes and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them, other than ſuch perſons as ſhall be ſo conuicted and attainted, and their heirs and ſucceſſors, and all other claiming to their vſes, all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, poſſeſſion, condition, rents, fées, offices, annuities and commons, which they or anie of them ſhall haue in or vpon anie ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities or hereditaments, that ſhall ſo happen to be loſt and forfeited by reaſon of anie conuiction or attaindor for anie the treaſons and offenſes aboue rehearſed at the time of the ſaid treaſons and offenſes committed, or at anie time after.

Chap.25.

Where the kings roiall maieſtie of his bleſſed and gratious diſpoſition, like as his highneſſe is our ſoueraigne léege lord and ſupreme head of the church of England, ſo his grace taketh the care and ſolicitude therof, moſt diligentlie foreſeing and prouiding all that can be to the quiet, vnion, concord, proſperitie, welth and furtherance of the ſame, conſidering alſo that nothing ſo much troubleth the commonwealth, and hindereth quiet & concord, as diuerſitie in opinions and beléefe, ſpeciallie in things that concerne almightie God & his religion. And of his prudence and wiſdome well weighing that out of ſundrie outward parts and places there haue ſprong, béene ſowne and ſet forth diuers and ſundrie hereticall, erroneous and dangerous opinions and doctrins in the religion of Chriſt, whereby ſome of his graces léege people might be not onelie diſquieted, and moued to variances, ſtrifes, commotions or ſeditions among themſelues, to the vtter deſtruction and vndooing of themſelues and of their whole poſteritie for euer, but alſo induced and allured to vnfaithfulnes, miſbeléefe, miſcreance & contempt of God, to the vtter confuſion & damnation of their ſoules, vnles by his maieſties prouidence ſome good remedie ſhould be ordeined for the ſame: hath of his bountifull roiall clemencie therefore appointed, eſtabliſhed & ordeined the archbiſhops & ſundry biſhops of both prouinces of Canturburie & Yorke within this his relme, and alſo a great number of the beſt lerned, honeſteſt & moſt vertuous ſort of doctors of diuinitie, men of diſcretion, iudgement and good diſpoſition of this ſaid relme, to the intent that according to the verie goſpell & law of God, without anie parciall reſpect or affection to the papiſticall ſort, or any other ſect or ſects whatſoeuer they be, they ſhould declare by writing and publiſh as well the principall articles and points of our faith and beléefe, with the declaration, true vnderſtanding and obſeruation of ſuch other expedient points as by them with his graces aduiſe, counſell and conſent ſhall be thought néedfull and expedient: and alſo for the lawfull rites, ceremonies and obſeruation of Gods ſeruice within this his graces relme. And for as much as the true definition, determination and declaration thereof requireth ripe and mature deliberation and aduiſe, and that ſo high and godlie things maie not raſhlie be defined, determined and ſet forth, nor be aſtrict or reſtreined to this preſent ſeſſion or anie other ſeſſion of this parlement, but from time to time be defined, determined, concluded and publiſhed as the caſe ſhall require, and as his maieſtie with the aduiſe of his moſt honorable counſell, and ſuch as his highnes hath appointed, or ſhall from time to time appoint to the ſame, ſhall thinke moſt conuenient. Be it therefore enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the kings maieſtie with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie determinations, declarations, decrées, definitions, reſolutions and ordinances, as according to Gods word and Chriſts goſpell, by his maieſties aduiſe and confirmation by his letters patents vnder his graces great ſeale, ſhall at anie time herafter be made, ſet forth, declared, decréed, defined, reſolued and ordeined by the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops and doctors now appointed, or other perſons héereafter to be appointed by his roiall maieſtie or els by the whole clergie of England, in and vpon the matter of Chriſts religion, and the chriſtian faith, and lawfull rites, ceremonies and obſeruations of the ſame, ſhall be in all and euerie point, limitation and circumſtance thereof, by all his graces ſubiects and other reſiants & inhabitants within this his graces realme & other his graces dominions, fullie beléeued, obeied, obſerued and performed to all purpoſes, intents, conſtructions & interpretations, vpon the paines and penalties therein to be compriſed, as if the ſame determinations, declarations, decrées, definitions, reſolutions and ordinances, and euerie of them, with the pains and penalties compriſed, had béene, were or ſhould be by expreſſe words, terms and ſentences, plainlie and fullie made, ſet forth, declared, rehearſed and conteined in this preſent act: anie vſe, cuſtome or ſtatute héeretofore had, vſed, obſerued or accuſtomed to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Chap.30.

FOraſmuch as the partie plaintifs and demandants in all maner of actions and ſutes as well reall as perſonall at the common law of this realme,before this time haue bin greatlie delaied and hindered in their ſutes and demands by reaſon of the craftie, ſubtill, ⁊ negligent pleadings of the plaintifs or demandants, defendants or tenants where anie action or demand hath béene ſued had or made as well in miniſtring of their declarations and bars, as alſo in their replications,reioinders,rebutters,ioining of iſſues, and other pleadings to the great hurt delaie and hinderance of the ſaid plaintifs or demandants or to the vexation of the defendants or tenants.

¶In ſo much that when the iſſues ioined in the ſame actions betwéene the parties to the ſame hath béene tried and found by the verdict of thirtéene or more indifferent perſons for the ſaid plaintifs or demandants,or for the tenants or defendants,and the iuſtices readie to giue iudgement for the ſaid parties, whome the ſaid iſſue was found. The ſame parties haue béene compelled by the courſe and order of the common law of this realme afore this time,to replead and the ſaid verdicts ſo giuen as is afore rehearſed,to be taken as void ⁊ of none effect, ſomtime bicauſe the iſſues haue béene miſioined and ieofaile,and ſomtime by taking aduantages of the parties owne miſpleading, or in the purſuing,miſconueieng or diſcontinuing of proceſſe of anie of the parties, and for diuers other cauſes the which is thought as well a great ſlander to the ſaid common law of this realme, and to the miniſters of the ſame, as alſo a plaine delaie and hindrance vnto the ſaid parties,in that they ſhould not haue their iudgements when the iſſue hath béene found and tried as is aforeſaid,to their great coſts and charges. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth if anie iſſue be tried by the oth of twelue or more indifferent men for the partie plaintiſe or demandant, or for the partie of the tenant or defendant in anie maner of action or ſute at the common law of this realme in anie the kings courts of record, that then the iuſtice and iuſtices by whome iudgement thereof ought to be giuen,ſhall procéed and giue iudgement in the ſame, anie miſpleading,lacke of colour, inſufficient pleading or ieofaile, anie miſcontinuance or diſcontinuance, or miſconueieng of proceſſe, miſioining of the iſſue, lacke of warrant of atturnie of the partie againſt whome the ſame iſſue ſhall happen to be tried, or anie other default or negligence of anie of the parties, their counſellors or atturnies, had or made to the contrarie notwithſtanding, and the ſaid iudgements thereof ſo to be had and giuen,ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength and force to all intents and purpoſes, according to the ſaid verdict without anie reuerſell or vndoing of the ſame by writ of error,or of falſe iudgement,in like forme as though no ſuch default or negligence had neuer béene had or committed.

An act for the auoiding of recoueries by colluſion by tenants for terme of life.

Chap.31.

WHere diuers perſons being ſeized of lands,tenements and hereditaments as tenants by the curteſie of England,or otherwiſe for terme of life or liues,haue héeretofore permitted and ſuffred other perſons by agréement or couin betwéene them had, to recouer the ſame lands ⁊ tenements and other hereditaments againſt the ſame particular tenants in the kings court,by reaſon whereof thoſe perſons to whom the reuerſion or remainder thereof hath belonged,haue after the deaths of the ſame particular tenants béene driuen to their actions for the recontinuance and obteining of the ſaid lands and tenements ſo recouered, to their great and importable charges, coſts and expenſes, and ſomtime haue beene cléerelie diſherited of the ſame to their manifeſt iniurie and wrong in that behalfe.

Recoueries by couin.

For remedie whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all ſuch recoueries héereafter to be had or proſecuted by agréement of the parties, or by couin as is aforeſaid, againſt anie ſuch particular tenant of anie lands, tenements or hereditaments, whereof the ſame particular tenant is or héeraſter ſhall be ſeized as tenant by the courteſie of England, tenant in taile after poſſibilitie of iſſue extinct, or otherwiſe for terme of life, ſhall from henſeforth as againſt ſuch perſon or perſons to whom the reuerſion or remainder therof ſhall then apperteine, and againſt their heirs and ſucceſſors be cléerelie and vtterlie void and of none effect, anie law or vſage heertofore had to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Recouerie.

¶Prouided alwaie that this act nor any thing therin conteined ſhall extend or be preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons that ſhall héeraſter by good title recouer anie lands, tenements or hereditaments, without fraud or couin againſt anie ſuch particular tenant, as is before mentioned by reaſon of anie former right or title, nor to auoid anie recouerie héereafter to be had againſt anie ſuch particular tenant by the aſſent and agréement of thoſe in the reuerſion or remainder, ſo that the ſame aſſent and agréement doo appeere of record in the kings court, but that all and euerie ſuch recouerie and recoueries, ſo to be had or proſecuted vpon former rights or titles, or by the aſſents or agréements of thoſe in the reuerſion or remainder appéering of record as is aforeſaid, ſhall ſtand and be in like force, ſtrength and effect, as they were before the making of this act, anie thing héerein conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning ioint tenants for terme of life or yeeres.

Chap.32.

FOraſmuch as in the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the xxviij daie of Aprill, and there continued till the xxviij daie of Iune, the xxxj yéere of the kings moſt noble and victorious reigne that now is, it was amongſt other things there enacted and eſtabliſhed, that all ioint tenants and tenants in common, that then were or héereafter ſhould be of anie eſtate or eſtates of inheritance in their owne rights, or in the right of their wiues of anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments within this realme of England, Wales or marches of the ſame, ſhall and maie be coacted and compelled by vertue of the ſaid act, to make partition betwéene them of all ſuch manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, as they then held or héeraſter ſhould hold as ioint tenants or tenants in common, as more plainlie at large appeereth by the ſaid ſtatute. And foraſmuch as the ſaid eſtatute doth not extend to ioint tenants and tenants in common for terme of life or yéeres, neither to ioint tenants and tenants in common where one or ſome of them haue but a particular eſtate for terme of life or yeers, & the other haue eſtate or eſtates of inheritance, of and in anie manors lands, tenements & hereditaments. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, & by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all ioint tenants and tenants in common, and euerie of them which now hold or héeraſter ſhall hold iointlie or in common for terme of life, yéere or yéers, or ioint tenants or tenants in common where one or ſome of them haue or ſhall haue eſtate or eſtates for terme of life or yéeres with the other that haue or ſhall haue eſtate or eſtates of inheritance or fréehold in anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, ſhall and maie be compellable from henſeforth by writ of partition to be purſued out of the kings court of chancerie vpon his or their caſe or caſes, to make ſeuerance and partition of all ſuch manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments which they hold iointlie or in common for terme of life or liues, yeere or yeeres, where one or ſome of them hold iointlie or in common for terme of life or yéers with other, or that haue an eſtate or eſtates of inheritance or fréehold.

An act concerning grants of reuerſions to take aduantage of the conditions to be performed by the leaſſee.

WHere before this time diuers as well temporall as eccleſiaſticall and religious perſons haue made ſundrie leaſes, dimiſes and grants to diuers other perſons of ſundrie manors, lordſhips, farmes, meaſes, lands, tenements, medowes, paſtures or other hereditaments, for terme of life or liues, or for terme of yéeres by writing vnder their ſeale or ſeales concerning certeine conditions, couenants and agréements, to be performed as well on the part and behalfe of the ſaid leſſées and grantées, their executors and aſſigns, as on the behalfe of the ſaid leſſors and grantors their heires and ſucceſſors. And forasmuch as by the common law of this realme no ſtranger to anie couenant, action or condition ſhall take anie aduantage or benefit of the ſame by anie means or waies in the law, but onlie ſuch as be parties or priuie thereunto, by the reaſon whereof as well all grants of reuerſions, as alſo all grants and patents of the king our ſouereigne lord, of ſundrie manors, lordſhips, granges, farmes, meaſes, lands, tenements, medowes, paſtures or other hereditaments late belonging to monaſteries and other religious and eccleſiaſticall houſes diſſolued, ſuppreſſed, renounced, relinquiſhed, forfeited, giuen vp, or by other means come to the hands and poſſeſſion of the kings maieſtie ſince the fourth daie of Februarie, the xxvij yeere of his moſt noble reigne, be excluded to haue anie entrée or action againſt the ſaid leaſſées & grantées, their executors or aſſigns, which the leaſſors before that time might by the law haue had againſt the ſame leaſſées for the breach of anie condition, couenant or agréement compriſed in the indentures of their ſaid leaſes, dimiſes and grants. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that as well all and euerie perſon & perſons, and bodies politike, their heirs, ſucceſſors and aſſigns, which haue or ſhall haue anie gift or grant of our ſaid ſouereigne lord by his letters patents of anie lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, rents, parſonages, tithes, portions, or anie other hereditaments, or of anie reuerſion or reuerſions of the ſame, which did belong & apperteine to anie of the ſaid monaſteries and other religious and eccleſiaſticall houſes, diſſolued, ſuppreſſed, relinquiſhed, forfeited, or by anie other means come to the kings hands ſince the ſaid iiij daie of Februarie, the xxvij yeere of his moſt noble reigne, or which at anie time heretofore did belong or apperteine to anie other perſon or perſons, and after came to the hands of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, as alſo all other perſons being grantées or aſſignées to or by our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, or to, or by anie other perſon or perſons, then the kings highneſſe, & the heires, executors, ſucceſſors and aſſigns, and euerie of them, ſhall & maie haue and inioy like aduantage againſt the leaſſées, their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, by entrée for non paiment of the rent, or for doing of waſt, or other forfeiture, and alſo ſhall and maie haue and inioy all & euerie ſuch like, and the ſame aduantage, benefit and remedies by action onlie for not performing other conditions, couenants or agréements conteined and expreſſed in the indentures of their ſaid leaſes, dimiſes or grants, againſt all and euerie the ſaid leaſſées and farmors, and grantées, their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, as the ſaid leaſſors or granters themſelues, or their heirs or ſucceſſors, ought, ſhould or might haue had and inioied at anie time or times, in like maner and forme as if the reuerſion of ſuch lands, tenements or hereditaments had not come to the hands of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, or as our ſaid ſouereigne lord his heires and ſucceſſors, ſhould or might haue had and inioied in certeine caſes, by vertue of the act made at the firſt ſeſſion of this preſent parlement, if no ſuch grant by letters patents had béene made by his highneſſe.

¶ Moreouer be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all farmors, leaſſées, and grantées of lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, rents, parſonages, tithes, portions or anie other hereditaments for terme of yéeres, life or liues, their executors, adminiſtrators & aſſigns, ſhall and maie haue like action, aduantage & remedie againſt all and euerie perſon & perſons, and bodies politike, their heirs ſucceſſors & aſſigns, which haue or ſhall haue anie gift or grant of the king our ſouereigne lord, or of any other perſon or perſons of the reuerſion of the ſame manors, lands, tenements & other hereditaments ſo letten, or any parcell therof for anie condition, couenant or agréement conteined or expreſſed in the indentures of their leaſe and leaſes, as the ſame leaſſées or anie of them might and ſhould haue had againſt the ſaid leaſſors and granters, their heires or ſucceſſors, all benefits and aduantages of recoueries in value by reaſon of anie warrantie in déed or law, by voucher or otherwiſe onelie excepted.

Leaſſees.

¶ Prouided alwaies that this act nor anie thing or things therein conteined, ſhall extend to binde or charge anie perſon or perſons for the breach of anie couenant or condition compriſed in anie ſuch writing as is aforeſaid, but for ſuch couenants and conditions as ſhall be broken or not performed after the firſt daie of September next comming, and not before, anie thing before in this act conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act that iuſtices of the foreſts maie make deputies.

An act for the expoſition of the ſtatute of fines.

Fines.
Proclamat.
Bar.

FOraſmuch as in the fourth yéere of the reigne of the late king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, father of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, it was among manie good and ſundrie ſtatutes & ordinances then made for the commonwealth enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, the forme and maner how fines ſhould be leuied with proclamations in the kings court before his iuſtices of his common place, and that ſuch fines with proclamations ſo had and made, to the intent to void all ſtrifes and debates, ſhould be a finall end and conclude as well priuies as ſtrangers to the ſame, certeine perſons excepted and ſaued, as in the ſame eſtatute more plainlie appeereth. Sithens which time, by diuerſitie of interpretation, and expounding of the ſame eſtatute, it hath béene and yet is by ſome maner of perſons doubted and called in queſtion, whether fines with proclamations leuied or to be leuied before the ſaid iuſtices by anie perſon or perſons hauing or claiming to haue in anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments compriſed in the ſame fine in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, remainder or in vſe, anie maner of eſtate taile, ſhould immediatlie after the ſaid fine leuied, ingroſſed, and proclamation made, bind the right heire and heirs of ſuch tenant in taile, and euerie other perſon and perſons ſeized or claiming to their vſe or vſes, by occaſion whereof diuers debates, controuerſies, ſutes and troubles haue béene begun, moued and had within this realme, and more be like to inſue, if remedie for the ſame be not prouided. For the eſtabliſhment and reformation whereof, and for the ſure and ſincere interpretation of the ſaid eſtatute in auoiding all dangers, contentions, controuerſies, ambiguities and doubts that héereafter maie inſurge, grow or happen. Our ſoueraigne lord the king with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, hath enacted and ordeined, that all and ſingular fines as well héeretofore leuied as héereafter to be leuied before the ſaid iuſtices with proclamations according to the ſaid eſtatute by anie perſon or perſons of full age of one and twentie yeers, of anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, before the time of the ſame fine leuied, in anie wiſe intailed to the perſon or perſons ſo leuieng the ſame fine, or to anie the anceſtor or anceſtors of the ſame perſon or perſons, in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, remainder, or in vſe, ſhall be immediatlie after the ſame fine leuied, ingroſſed, and proclamation made, adiudged, accepted, déemed and taken to all intents and purpoſes a ſufficient bar and diſcharge for euer againſt the ſaid perſon and perſons and their heirs claiming the ſame lands, tenements & hereditaments, or anie parcell thereof onlie by force of anie ſuch intails, & againſt all other perſons claiming the ſame, or anie parcell thereof onlie to their vſe, or to the vſe of anie maner of heire of the bodies of them, anie ambiguitie, doubt or contrarietie of opinion, riſen or growen vpon the ſaid eſtatute to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Heires.
Women.

¶ Prouided alwaie that this act nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to bar or exclude the lawfull entrie, title or intereſt of anie heire or heires, perſon or perſons héeretofore giuen or héereafter to be giuen, growen or accrewed to them or anie of them, in, or to anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments by reaſon of anie fine or fines héeretofore leuied or héereafter to be leuied by anie woman after the death of hir husband, contrarie to the forme, intent and effect of the eſtatute made in the xj yéere of the ſaid late king Henrie the vij, of any manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments of the inheritance or purchaſe of the ſaid husband, or of anie of his anceſtors, giuen or aſſigned to any ſuch woman in dower for terme of life or in taile, in vſe or in poſſeſſion, but that the ſame act made in the ſaid xj. yéere of the ſaid late king Henrie the vij, ſhall ſtand, remaine and be in full ſtrength and vertue in euerie article, ſentence and clauſe therein conteined in like maner and forme as though this preſent act had neuer béene had ne made.

Fines.

¶ Prouided alſo that this act ne anie thing therein conteined, doo extend to anie fine or fines at anie time héeretofore leuied or héereafter to be leuied, of anie lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, the poſſeſſioners and owners wherof by reaſon of anie expreſſe words conteined in anie ſpeciall act or acts of parlement made or ordeined ſithens the ſaid fourth yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late king Henrie the vij, ſtand, be bounden or reſtrained from making anie alienations, diſcontinuances or other alterations of anie of the ſame lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments conteined in the ſaid fine or fines, but that all and euerie ſuch fine and fines at anie time héeretofore leuied or héereafter to be leuied by anie ſuch perſon or perſons, or their heire of anie ſuch lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, ſhall be of ſuch like force and ſtrength in the law, and of none other effect than the ſame fine ſo leuied, ſhould haue beene if this preſent act had neuer beene had nor made anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alſo that this act nor anie thing therin conteined, ſhall extend to anie fine or fines heretofore leuied of anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, now in ſute demand or variance in anie of the kings courts, or whereof anie charters, euidences or miniments concerning the ſame, be now in demand in the kings high court of chancerie, nor to anie fine or fines heeretofore leuied of anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which before the firſt daie of this preſent parlement haue beene recouered, gotten or obteined by reaſon of anie iudgement, entre, decree, arbitrement or other lawfull means, contrarie to the purport, intent, or effect of anie ſuch fine or fines thereof heeretofore leuied, nor to anie fine or fines heeretofore leuied or heereafter to be leuied by anie perſon or perſons of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, before the time of the leuieng of the ſame fine giuen, granted or aſſigned to the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo leuieng the ſame fine, or to anie of his or their anceſtors in the taile by vertue of anie letters patents of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, or anie of his progenitors, or by vertue of anie act or acts of parlement, the reuerſion wherof at the time of the ſame fine or fines ſo leuied being in our ſaid ſouereigne lord his heires or ſucceſſors: but that euerie ſuch fine and fines ſhall be of like force, ſtrength and effect, as they were or ſhould haue beene if this act had neuer beene had nor made.

An act for recouerie of arrerages of rents by execution of tenant in fee ſimple.

Chap. 37.

Forasmuch as by the order of the common law the executors or adminiſtrators of tenants in fee ſimple, tenants in fee taile, and tenants for terme of liues, of rents ſeruices, rents charges, rent ſeckes, and fee farmes, haue no remedie to recouer ſuch arrerages of the ſaid rents or fee farmes, as were due vnto their teſtators in their liues, nor yet the heires of ſuch teſtator, nor anie perſon hauing the reuerſion of his eſtate after his deceaſſe, maie diſtreine or haue anie lawfull action to leuie anie ſuch arrerages of rents or of fee farmes, due vnto him in his life, as is aforeſaid. By reaſon whereof the tenants of the demeane of ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, out of the which ſuch rents were due and paiable, who of right ought to paie their rents and farmes, at ſuch daie and termes as they were due, doo manie times keepe, hold, and reteine ſuch arrerages in their owne hands, ſo that the executors and adminiſtrators of the perſons to whome ſuch rents or fee farmes were due, cannot haue or come by the ſaid arrerages of the ſame, towards the paiment of the debts, and performance of the will of the ſaid teſtators. For remedie whereof be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the executors and adminiſtrators of euerie ſuch perſon or perſons vnto whom anie ſuch rent or fee farme, is or ſhall be due, and not paid at the time of his death, ſhall and maie haue an action of debt for all ſuch arrerages, againſt the tenant or tenants that ought to haue paid the ſaid rent or fee farmes, ſo being behind, in the life of their teſtator, or againſt the executors and adminiſtrators of the ſaid tenants. And alſo furthermore it ſhall be lawfull to euerie ſuch executor and adminiſtrator of anie ſuch perſon or perſons, vnto whom ſuch rent or fee farme ſhall be due and not paid at the time of his death as is aforeſaid, to diſtreine for the arrerages of all ſuch rents, and fee farmes vpon the lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, which were charged with the paiment of ſuch rents or fee farmes and chargeable to the diſtreſſe of the ſaid teſtator, ſo long as the ſaid lands, tenements, or hereditaments continue, remaine, and be in the ſeiſon or poſſeſſion of the ſaid tenant in demeine, who ought immediatlie to haue paid the ſaid rent or fee farme ſo being behind to the ſaid teſtator, in his life, or in the ſeiſon or poſſeſſion of anie other perſon or perſons, claiming the ſaid lands, tenements, and hereditaments, onelie by and from the ſame tenant, by purchaſe, gift, or deſcent, in like maner and forme as their ſaid teſtator might or ought to haue doone in his life time, and the ſaid executors and adminiſtrators ſhall for the ſame diſtreſſe, lawfullie make auowrie vpon their matter aforeſaid.

An act concerning precontracts of mariages and touching degrees of conſanguinitie.

Chap.38.

WHereas héeretofore the vſurped power of the biſhop of Rome, hath alwaies intangled and troubled the meere iuriſdiction and regall power of this realme of England, and alſo vnquieted much the ſubiects of the ſame, by his vſurped power in them, as by making that vnlawfull which by Gods word is lawfull both in mariages and other things as héereafter ſhall appeere more at length, and till now of late in our ſoueraigne lords time, which is otherwiſe by learning taught than his predeceſſors in times paſt long time haue béene, hath ſo continued the ſame, whereof yet ſome ſparks be left, which héereafter might kindle a greater fire, and ſo remaining his power not to ſéeme vtterlie extinct. Therefore it is thought moſt conuenient to the kings highneſſe, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, that two things ſpeciallie for this time be in this preſent parlement, with the commons of his realme aſſembled, with diligence prouided for, whereby manie inconueniences hath inſued, and manie mo might inſue and folow, as where heretofore diuerſe and manie perſons after long continuances togither in matrimonie without anie allegation of either of the parties, or anie other at their mariage, why the ſame matrimonie ſhould not be good, iuſt, and lawfull, and after the ſame matrimonie ſolemnized and conſummat by carnall knowledge, and alſo ſometime fruit of children inſued of the ſame mariage vpon pretenſe of a former contract made, and not conſummat by carnall copulation, for proofe whereof two witneſſes by that law were onelie required, béene diuorſed and ſeparat, contrarie to Gods law, and ſo the true matrimonie both ſolemnized in the face of the church, and conſummat with bodilie knowledge, and confirmed alſo with the fruit of children had betwéene them, cléerelie fruſtrat and diſſolued. Further alſo by reaſon of other prohibitions than Gods law admitteth, for their lucre by that court inuented, the diſpenſation whereof they alwaies reſerued to themſelues, as in kinred or affinitie betwéene couſin germans, and ſo to fourth and fourth degrée, carnall knowledge of anie of the ſame kin or affinitie before in ſuch outward degrées, which elſe were lawfull and be not prohibited by Gods law, and all becauſe they would get monie by it, and kéepe a reputation of their vſurped iuriſdiction, whereby not onelie much diſcord betwéene lawfull maried perſons hath (contrarie to Gods ordinance) ariſen, much debate and ſute at the law with the wrongfull vexation and great damage of the innocent partie hath béene procured, and manie iuſt mariages brought in doubt and danger of vndooing, and alſo manie times vndoone, and lawfull heires diſherited, whereof there had neuer elſe (but for his vaine glorious vſurpation) béene moued anie ſuch queſtion, ſince fréedome in them was giuen vs by Gods law, which ought to be moſt ſure and certeine. But that notwithſtanding mariages haue béene brought into ſuch an incertentie thereby, that no mariage could be ſo ſurelie knit and bounden, but it ſhould lie in either of the parties power and arbitre, caſting awaie the feare of God by means and compaſſes to prooue a precontract, a kinred, and aliance or a carnall knowledge, to defeat the ſame, and ſo vnder the pretenſe of theſe allegations afore rehearſed, to liue all the daies of their life in deteſtable adulterie, to the vtter deſtruction of their owne ſoules, and the prouocation of the terrible wrath of God, vpon the places where ſuch abhominations were vſed and ſuffered. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouéreigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that from the firſt daie of the moneth of Iulie next comming, in the yeere of our Lord God a thouſand fiue hundred and fortie, all and euerie ſuch mariages as within this church of England ſhall be contracted betwéene lawfull perſons, as by this act we declare all perſons to be lawfull, that be not prohibited by Gods law to marie, ſuch mariages being contract and ſolemnized in the face of the church, and conſummat with bodilie knowledge or fruit of children, or child, being had therein betwéene the parties ſo maried, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent parlement aforeſaid, déemed, iudged and taken to be lawfull, good, iuſt, and indiſſoluble notwithſtanding anie precontract or precontracts of matrimonie not conſummat, with bodilie knowledge, which either of the perſons ſo maried or both ſhall haue made with anie other perſon or perſons before the time of contracting that mariage which is ſolemnized and conſummat, or whereof ſuch fruit is inſued or maie inſue as afore, and notwithſtanding anie diſpenſation, preſcription, law, or other thing granted or confirmed by act or otherwiſe, and that no reſeruation or prohibition, Gods law except, ſhall trouble or impeach anie mariage without the Leuiticall degrées. And that no perſon of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer

Hoſtelers

Foraſmuch as by occaſion that at a parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the thirtéenth yéere of the reigne of king Richard the ſecond, amongſt other things it was ordeined and enacted, that no hoſteler or inholder ſhould make anie horſbread within his houſe nor els where, but that the bakers ſhould make ſuch horſbread, & that the aſſiſe therof ſhould alſo be made of reaſonable weight, as by the ſame act it maie more plainlie appéere. And alſo ſithens that at another parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the fourth yéere of the reigne of king Henrie the fourth, amongſt other things it was alſo ordeined and enacted, that if anie hoſteler or inholder did make anie horſbread contrarie to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute & act of Richard the ſecond, and the ſame dulie proued againſt him, the ſame hoſteler or inholder from time to time ſhould forfeit the treble value of all ſuch horſbread made by him in his houſe or els where, as by the ſaid act more plainelie alſo it maie appéere: diuerſe and manie incommodities and miſcheefs, haue inſued therevpon to the kings ſubiects that haue traueled & iourneied with their horſſes within this realme of England. Be it therefore now ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that from henſeforth it maie & ſhall be lawfull for euerie hoſteler or inholder dwelling in anie towne or village, being a throughfare or common paſſage within this realme, & being no citie, towne corporat, or market towne, wherin anie common baker exerciſing the occupation of baking, and hath béene prentiſe at the ſaid occupation by the ſpace of ſeuen yéeres is dwelling, to make within his houſe horſbread ſufficient, lawfull & of due aſſiſe, according as the priſe of the graines of corne that now is, and héereafter ſhall be from time to time, anie thing or things mentioned in the ſaid acts or ſtatutes of king Richard the ſecond, or Henrie the fourth to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if the horſbread which anis of the ſaid hoſtelers or inholders héereafter ſhall make, be not ſufficient, lawfull and of due aſſiſe according to the priſe of graines of corne, as is aboueſaid: then the iuſtices of peace in euerie ſhire, libertie, or franches within this realme, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, to inquire, heare, and determine the ſaid defaults and offenſes of the ſaid hoſtelers and inholders hereafter to be committed againſt the forme of this preſent ſtatute, and to ſeaſſe ſuch fines and make like proces therevpon, as they commonlie vſe to doo vpon preſentments of treſpas againſt the peace. And that alſo likewiſe the ſhirifs in their turnes, and ſtewards in there léets and lawdaies ſhall haue full power & authoritie, to inquire and determine euerie ſuch default and offenſe of hoſtelers againſt the forme of this preſent ſtatute héereafter to be committed within the limits of their iuriſdictions.

An act concerning barbors and ſurgeons to be of one companie.

Chap. 42.

The king our ſoueraigne lord by the aduiſe of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, by all their common aſſents dulie pondering among other things neceſſarie for the commonwealth of this realme, that it is verie expedient and néedfull to prouide for men expert in the ſcience of phyſike and ſurgerie, for the health of mans bodie, when infirmities and ſicknes ſhall happen, for the due exerciſe and maintenance wherof good and neceſſarie acts be alreadie made and prouided. Yet neuertheles, for as much as within the citie of London, where men of great experience as well in ſpeculation, as in practiſe of the ſcience and facultie of ſurgerie, be abiding and inhabiting, and haue more commonlie the dailie exerciſe and experience of the ſame ſcience of ſurgerie, than is had or vſed within anie parties of this realme: and by occaſion therof manie expert perſons be brought vp vnder them, as their ſeruants apprentiſes & others, who by the exerciſe & diligent information of their ſaid maiſters, as well now as héereafter ſhall exerciſe the ſaid ſcience within diuers other parties of this realme, to the great reléefe, comfort & ſuccor of much people, & to the ſure ſafegard of their bodilie health, their limits & liues. And foraſmuch as within the ſaid citie of London, there be now two ſeuerall and diſtinct companies of ſurgeons, occupieng and exerciſing the ſaid ſcience and facultie of ſurgerie, the one companie being commonlie called the barbors of London, and the other companie called the ſurgeons of London. Which companie of barbors be incorporated to ſue and to be ſued by the names of maiſters or gouernors of the myſterie and commonaltie of the barbors of London, by vertue and authoritie of the letters patents vnder the great ſeale of the late king of famous memorie king Edward the fourth, dated at Weſtminſter the foure and twentith daie of Februarie in the firſt yeere of his reigne, which afterward as well by our moſt dread ſouereigne lord, as by the right noble and vertuous prince king Henrie the ſeuenth, father vnto the kings moſt excellent highneſſe now being, were and be confirmed, as by ſundrie letters patents thereof made amongſt other things in the ſame conteined more at large maie appeere. And the other companie called the ſurgeons be not incorporat, nor haue anie maner corporation, which two ſeuerall and diſtinct companies of ſurgeons were neceſſarie to be vnited and made one bodie incorporat, to the intent that by their vnion and often aſſemblie togither, to the good and due order, exerciſe, and knowlege of the ſaid ſcience or facultie of ſurgerie, ſhould be as well in ſpeculations as in practiſe, both to themſelues and all other their ſaid ſeruants and apprentiſes, now and heereafter to be brought vp vnder them, and by their learning and diligent and ripe informations, more perfect, ſpeedie and effectuall remedie ſhould be than it hath beene or ſhould be, if the ſaid two companies of barbors and ſurgeons ſhould continue ſeuered aſunder, and not ioined togither, as they before this time haue beene and vſed themſelues not medling togither. Wherefore in conſideration of the premiſſes be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, and by the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and by the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid two ſeuerall and diſtinct companies of ſurgeons, that is to ſaie, both the barbors and the ſurgeons, and euerie perſon of them being a freeman either of the ſaid companies, after the cuſtome of the ſaid citie of London and their ſucceſſors, from henſeforth immediatlie be vnited and made one entier and whole bodie corporat, and one commonaltie perpetuall, which at all times heereafter ſhall be called by the name of maiſters or gouernors of the myſterie and commonaltie of barbors and ſurgeons of London, for euermore and by none other name: and by the ſame name to implead and be impleaded before all maner of iuſtices, in all courts, in all maner of actions and ſutes. And alſo to purchaſe, inioy, and take to them and to their ſucceſſors, all maner of lands, tenements, rents, and other poſſeſſions whatſoeuer they be, and alſo ſhall haue a common ſeale to ſerue for the buſineſſe of the ſaid companie and corporation for euer. And by the ſame name peaceablie, quietlie and indifferentlie haue poſſeſſion and inioy to them and to their ſucceſſors for euer, all ſuch lands and tenements, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, which the ſaid companie or commonaltie of barbors haue and inioy to the vſe of the ſaid myſterie and commonaltie of barbors of London. And alſo ſhall peaceablie and quietlie haue and inioy all and ſingular benefits, grants, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, and free cuſtoms, and alſo all maner of other things at anie time giuen or granted vnto the ſaid companies of barbors or ſurgeons, by whatſoeuer name or names they or anie of them were called, and which they or anie of them now haue, or anie of their predeceſſors haue had by acts of parlement, letters patents of the kings highneſſe, or other his moſt noble progenitors, or otherwiſe by anie lawfull meanes had at anie time afore this preſent act in as large and ample maner and forme, as they or anie of them haue had, might or ſhould inioy the ſame, this vnion or coniunction of the ſaid companies togither notwithſtanding. And as largelie to haue & inioy the premiſſes, as if the ſame were and had beene ſpeciallie and particularlie expreſſed and declared with the beſt and moſt cleereſt words and termes in the law, to all intents and purpoſes: and that all perſons of the ſaid companie now incorporat by this preſent act, and their ſucceſſors, that ſhall be lawfullie admitted and approued to occupie ſurgerie after the forme of the ſtatute in that caſe ordeined and prouided, ſhall be exempt for bearing of armor, or to be put in anie watches or inqueſts. And that they and their ſucceſſors ſhall haue the ſearch, ouerſight, puniſhment, and correction, as well of freemen as of forrens, for ſuch offenſes as they or anie of them ſhall commit, or doo againſt the good order of barbarie or ſurgerie, as afore this time among the ſaid myſterie and companie of barbors of London hath beene vſed and accuſtomed, according to the good and politike rules & ordinances by them made and approued by the lord chancellor, treaſuror, and two cheefe iuſtices of either bench, or anie three of them after the forme of the ſtatute in that caſe ordeined and prouided.

¶ And further be it anacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſters or gouernors of the myſterie and commonaltie of barbors and ſurgeons of London, and their ſucceſſors yeerelie for euer after their ſaid diſcretions, at their free libertie and pleaſure ſhall and maie haue and take without contradiction foure perſons condemned, adiudged, and put to death for felonie by the due order of the kings law of this realme for anatomies without anie further ſute or labor to be made to the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors for the ſame. And to make inciſion of the ſame dead bodies or otherwiſe, to order the ſame after their ſaid diſcretions at their pleaſures, for their further and better knowledge, inſtruction, inſight, learning and experience in the ſaid ſcience or facultie of ſurgerie. Sauing vnto all perſons their heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch right, title, intereſt and demand, which they or anie of them might lawfullie claime or haue in or to anie of the lands and tenements with the appurtenances, belonging vnto the ſaid companie of barbors and ſurgeons or anie of them, at anie time afore the making of this act, in as ample maner and forme as they or anie of them had or ought to haue had heeretofore: anie thing in this preſent act compriſed to the contrarie hereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ And for as much as ſuch perſons being of the myſterie or facultie of ſurgerie, oftentimes medle and take into their cure and houſes ſuch ſicke and diſeaſed perſons as béene infected with the peſtilence,great pocks and ſuch other contagious infirmities,do vſe or exerciſe barbarie,as waſhing,or ſhauing,and other feats therevnto belonging,which is verie perilous for infecting the kings liege people, reſorting to their ſhops & houſes there being waſhed or ſhauen. Wherefore it is now enacted,ordeined and prouided by the authoritie aforeſaid,that no maner perſon within the citie of London, ſuburbs of the ſame, and one mile compaſſe of the ſaid citie of London, after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God next comming,vſing anie barbarie or ſhauing, or that hééreafter ſhall vſe anie barbarie or ſhauing within the ſaid citie of London, ſuburbs,or one mile circuit of the ſame citie of London,he nor they nor none other for them to his or their vſe,ſhall occupie anie ſurgerie,letting of bloud,or anie other thing belonging to ſurgerie, drawing of téeth onelie except. And furthermore in like maner whoſoeuer that vſeth the myſterie or craft of ſurgerie within the circuit aforeſaid, as long as he ſhall fortune to vſe the ſaid myſterie or craft of ſurgerie, ſhall in no wiſe occupie nor exerciſe the feat or craft of barbarie or ſhauing, neither by himſelfe nor by none other for him to his or their vſe: and moreouer that all maner of perſons vſing ſurgerie for the time being as well fréemen as forens, aliens and ſtrangers within the ſaid citie of London, the ſuburbs thereof, and one mile compaſſe of the ſame citie of London, before the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming,ſhall haue an open ſigne on the ſtreat ſide where they ſhall fortune to dwell, that all the kings liege people there paſſing by, maie know at all times whither to reſort for their remedies in time of neceſſitie . And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next comming, preſume to kéepe anie ſhop of barbarie or ſhauing within the citie of London, except he be a fréeman of the ſame corporation and companie.

¶ And furthermore at ſuch times hééretofore accuſtomed, there ſhall be choſen by the ſame companie foure maiſters or gouernors of the ſame corporation or companie, of the which foure, two of them ſhall be expert in ſurgerie, & the other two in barbarie, which foure maiſters & euerie of them ſhall haue full power and authoritie from time to time, during the ſaid office, to haue the ouerſight,ſearch,puniſhment and correction,of all ſuch defaults & inconueniences as ſhall be found among the ſaid companie, vſing barbarie or ſurgerie, as well of fréemen as forens, aliens and ſtrangers within the citie of London & the circuit aforeſaid, after their ſaid diſcretions.And if anie perſon or perſons vſing anie barbarie or ſurgerie at anie time hééreafter, offend in anie of these articles aforeſaid : then for euerie moneth the ſaid perſons ſo offending, ſhall loſe forfeit and paie fiue pounds,the one moitie thereof to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie to anie perſon that will or ſhall ſue therfore by action of debt,bill,plaint or information in anie the kings courts, wherein no wager of law,eſſoine or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed in the ſame.

An act concerning ſhire daies in the countie palantine of Cheſter.

Chap.43.

WHere it is enacted and eſtabliſhed in the ſeuen and twentith yéere of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is,as well for the increaſe and augmentation of góod rule & order to be had and dóone in the countie palantine of Cheſter and other ſhires,as for adminiſtration of iuſtice amongſt the kings ſubiects there,that the lord chancellor of England,or the lord kéeper of the great ſeale for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie from time to time, to nominat & appoint iuſtices of peace,iuſtices of Quorum, and iuſtices of gaole deliuerie, as well within the ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter and other ſhires and parties of Wales by commiſſion vnder the kings great ſeale, which perſon named ſhall haue full power & authoritie to inquire, heare, and determine all maner thing and things inquireable,preſentable,or determinable before iuſtices of peace, iuſtices of Quorum, and iuſtices of goale deliuerie in other ſhires of this realme of England,and to dóo,vſe and execute euerie thing and things as other iuſtices of peace,Quorum,& gaole deliuerie dóo in other ſhires of England, and that they ſhall kéepe their ſeſſions there as they dóo in other ſhires of England vpon like penaltie as hath beene ordeined for ſuch abuſes in ſuch iuſtices in other ſhires of England,anie law,act, ſtatute, vſage,cuſtome,priuilege,preſcription or libertie to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding,as in the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid 27 yéere amongſt other things more plainlie appéereth. By reaſon of which act it is now vſed to kéepe ſeſſions in the ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter as it is vſed in other ſhires of England,alſo it is vſed in the ſaid countie palantine of Cheſter, that the iuſticer of the ſame for the time being, hath yéerlie time out of mind, vſed to kéepe the ſhires or countie daies in maner & forme folowing(that is to ſaie)one yéere eight ſhires or countie daies,& another yeere nine ſhires or countie daies,to the which the gentlemen free holders and ſutors of the ſaid countie are bounden of ancient cuſtome and dutie to appeere, and giue their attendance to ſerue the king, which ſhires and countie daies come verie oftentimes in the yeere. And now by reaſon of the ſaid new ſtatute of iuſtices of the peace had in the ſaid countie, the ſaid gentlemen, freeholders and ſuters of the ſaid countie, being bounden of their ſaid old cuſtome and law to giue their attendance and apparance to the ſaid ſhires and counties daies, are now bounden alſo to giue their apparance and attendance at foure quarter ſeſſions, and other priuie ſeſſions in the ſaid countie: by meane whereof the ſaid apparance and attendance commeth ſo often and thicke togither, that at manie times they cannot depart from the one court and attend their buſineſſe ſcarſelie one daie or ſometime leſſe, but they moſt againe ride to ſerue the other court which is to painefull, chargeable, intollerable and importune for anie man to ſuſteine and abide. In conſideration whereof be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that from henſeforth the law and adminiſtration of iuſtice, and all other things in yͤ ſaid countie in time paſt, vſed to be had at the ſaid ſhire daies ſhall be holden, had, made, doone and executed by the iuſtice of the ſaid countie for the time being at two times in the yeere onelie, that is to wit, at the ſeſſions next after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, and at the ſeſſions next after Eaſter yeerelie for euer, during ſo manie daies at euerie of the ſaid times as neede ſhall require, in like maner and forme, as it is now vſed and executed in the countie palantine of Lancaſter: and that no actions, ſute, or proceſſe now or heereafter to be depending in the ſaid counties, ſhall be thereby diſcontinued, hurt or impared, nor anie aduantage therein to be taken by error, diſcontinuance of proceſſe, ne otherwiſe, but the ſame to proceede after the ſame new order: and that from henſeforth the ſaid old order, rule and cuſtome, in holding of the ſaid counties or ſhire daies, ſhall vtterlie ceaſe and determine for euer: anie act, ſtatute, preſcription, grant, vſage, cuſtome, priuilege, law, libertie, conſtitution or confirmation, heeretofore had, made, accuſtomed, or vſed, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act that the towne of Roiſton is reduced to one new pariſh.

Chap. 44.

FOr as much as the towne of Roiſton is a market towne, ſituat and builded togither and extendeth it ſelfe into fiue ſeuerall pariſhes, whereof neuer a pariſh church of them is within two miles of the ſaid towne, & ſome of them be three miles diſtant from the ſame, by reaſon whereof the poore inhabitants and townesmen there being pariſhioners of the ſaid fiue pariſh churches, diuers and ſundrie times through the abſence of their parſons and curats, in ſuch caſes of neceſſitie when their preſence to the comfort and conſolation of their pariſhioners is moſt requiſit and behouefull, cannot haue the ſacraments and ſacramentals to be miniſtred according to the laudable cuſtome of holie church to their great perils and ieopardies. And alſo for aſmuch as the ſaid towne of Roiſton is a great and a common thoroughfare for the kings ſubiects and liege people trauelling from manie and ſundrie parties of this realme, and in the ſaid towne is alſo the inhabitants of the market, whereunto great & frequent reſort is of all the inhabitants of the countrie thereunto adioining, and yet the ſaid ſubiects ſo trauelling, nor anie of the inhabitants ſo reſorting, can haue anie maſſe or other diuine ſeruice in the ſaid towne, if their deuotion ſhould that require: and ouer this the ſaid great diſtance of the towne from the pariſh churches aforeſaid is verie diſcommodious and painefull to all and ſingular the inhabitants there, and moſt ſpeciallie to the impotent, ſicklie and aged people, which be not able to trauell to the ſaid churches ne anie of them, to heare that diuine ſeruice. All which diſcommodities and inconueniences were litle preiudiciall to the ſaid towne, at ſuch time as the late priorie there ſtood, the church of which priorie the poore inhabitants of the ſaid towne haue bought to their great charges, to the intent to haue the ſame their pariſh church and therein to haue dailie maſſe and other diuine ſeruices to be celebrated and doone. In conſideration of which premiſſes it maie pleaſe the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, of his moſt excellent goodnes, that it maie be enacted by his highnes with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid church late being parcell of the ſaid priorie of Roiſton, ſhall be the pariſh church for all and ſingular the inhabitants of the ſaid towne of Roiſton. And that the ſaid church ſhall be named and called from henſeforth the pariſh church of S. Iohn the Baptiſt, in the towne of Roiſton, and that one parcell of ground nigh or by the ſaid church, be prouided and incloſed at the charges and coſts of the ſaid inhabitants for a cemitorie or churchyard for burials of chriſten people in the ſame, and that the inhabitants of the ſame towne ſhall be pariſhioners onelie to the ſame church, and be diſcharged of anie further reſort or repaire to anie of the ſaid fiue pariſh churches diſtant from the ſaid towne as is aforeſaid, and that the parſons and curats of the ſaid fiue pariſh churches, and euerie of them and the ſucceſſors of euerie of them, ſhall be diſcharged of the cure of the ſaid inhabitants.

And that alſo the ſame vicar and his ſucceſſors ſhall haue and perceiue all the tithes, offerings, oblations, obuentions, and other eccleſiaſticall duties and rights that ſhall grow and be due by the cuſtoms of this realme and eccleſiaſticall lawes of the ſame, to be paid had or made by the inhabitants of the ſaid towne, except onlie the tithes of corne, haie, wooll, lambe and calfe, which tithes of corne, haie, wooll, lambe and calfe, ſhall from henſeforth be paied and ſatiſfied by authoritie of this act to the perſons and curats of the ſaid fiue pariſh churches, in like maner, forme, and condition, as héretofore it hath béene accuſtomed, the erection of the ſaid vicarage of Roiſton, or anie other thing or things conteined or ſpecified in this act in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

¶ And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the perſons and curats of the ſaid fiue pariſh churches and euerie of them, and the ſucceſſors of euerie of them, ſhall haue their remedie and remedies by authoritie of this act, to ſue, demand, aſke, and recouer in the kings court of chancerie, the ſaid tithes of corne, haie, wooll, lambe and calfe, ſubtracted or denied to be paied by anie perſon or perſons, or els ſuch remedie and remedies to ſue, demand, aſke, or recouer the ſame tithes in like maner, forme, faſhion and condition as they or anie of them ſhould, ought or might haue doone or had, if this act had neuer béene had ne made.

¶ Prouided alwaies that this preſent act ſhall take none effect nor be put in execution, vntill ſuch time as the kings maieſtie hath named and preſented one able parſon to be vicar of the ſaid pariſh church of Roiſton in maner and forme aforeſaid.

Chap.45.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the third daie of Nouember in the ſix and twentith yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread, naturall and ſoueraigne liege lord Henrie the eight, by the grace of God king of England and France, defendor of the faith, lord of Ireland, & in earth ſupreame head of the church of England, it was enacted, ordeined & eſtabliſhed, that the kings highnes his heires & ſucceſſors kings of this realme, ſhould haue & inioy from time to time to indure for euer of euerie ſuch perſons, which at anie time after the firſt daie of Ianuarie then next comming, ſhould be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated or by anie other meanes appointed to haue anie archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, college, hoſpitall, archdeaconrie, deanrie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, fréechapell, or other dignitie, benefice, office or promotion ſpirituall within this realme and els where within anie the kings dominions of what name, nature or qualitie ſoeuer they were, or to whoſe foundation, patronage or gift ſoeuer they did belong, the firſt fruits, reuenues & profits for one yéere of euerie ſuch archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, college, hoſpitall, archdeconrie, deanrie prouoſtſhip, prebend, parſonage, vicarage, chanterie, fréechapell, or other dignitie, benefice, office, or promotion ſpirituall afore named, whereunto anie ſuch perſon or perſons after the ſaid firſt daie of Ianuarie be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated, or by anie other means appointed: & that euerie ſuch perſon & perſons before anie actuall or reall poſſeſſion or medling with the profits of anie ſuch archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, hoſpitall, deanrie, prouoſtſhip, prebend, perſonage, vicarage, chanterie, fréechaple, priorie or other dignitie, benefit, office or promotion ſpirituall ſhould ſatiſfie, content & paie, or compound or agrée to paie to the kings vſe, at reſonable daies, vpon good ſureties the ſaid firſt fruits & profits for one yéere. And alſo by the ſame act it was further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid that the kings maieſtie his heirs & ſucceſſors kings of this realme, for more augmentation & maintenance of the roiall eſtate of his imperiall crowne & dignitie of ſupreame head of the church of England, ſhould yéerelie haue, take, & inioy & receiue, vnited and knit to his imperiall crowne for euer, one yéerelie rent or penſion amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, farms, tithes, offerings, emoluments & of all other profits as well called ſpirituall as temporall then apperteining or belonging, or that after the making of the ſaid act ſhould belong to any archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbacie, monaſterie, priorie, archdeconrie, deanrie, hoſpitall, college, houſe collegiat, prebend, cathedrall church, collegiat church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chantrie, fréechapell or other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, of what nature or qualitie ſoeuer they were within anie dioces of this realme or in Wales, the ſaid penſion or annuall rent to be paied yéerelie for euer to our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors kings of this realme at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, as by the ſame act amongſt diuers other things therein conteined more plainlie is ſhewed and maie appéere.

¶ And for the more ſuretie and eſtabliſhment thereof, and to the intent that the kings maieſtie his heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall be the better ſerued in obteining the premiſſes, and alſo from henſeforth be trulie and iuſtlie anſwered, contented and paid yéerelie, of all that which to his highneſſe, his heires, or ſucceſſors, apperteineth or belongeth, or héereafter ſhall apperteine or belong by vertue, and according to the tenor of the ſaid act. Be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed, by the kings maieſtie, by the aſſent of his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, in maner and forme as héereafter followeth, that is to ſaie.

Court of firſt fruits

Seale

First the king our ſouereigne lord, by the authoritie aforeſaid, maketh, erecteth, and eſtabliſheth, a certeine court commonlie to be called for euer the court of the firſt fruits and tenths, which court by the authoritie aforeſaid, continuallie and for euer ſhall be a court of record, and ſhall haue one ſeale to be ingrauen and made after ſuch forme, faſhion, and maner, as ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, and ſhall remaine and be ordered as héereafter ſhall be declared.

Chancel.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be one certeine perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, which ſhall be chancellor of the ſame court, and ſhall be chéefe and principall officer of the ſame court, and ſhall be called the chancellor of the firſt fruits and tenths, and ſhall haue the kéeping of the ſaid ſeale to be aſſigned of and for the ſaid court.

Treaſuror

Atturneie

Auditors

Clerke

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be one perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the kings treaſuror of the firſt fruits & tenths, and ſhall be the ſecond officer of the ſame court. And that there ſhall be one perſon to be learned in the law of this land to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be the kings atturneie of the firſt fruits and tenths, and ſhall be the third officer of the ſame court. And that there ſhall be two perſons to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be named the kings auditors of the firſt fruits and tenths, and ſhall be officers of the ſame court. And that there ſhall be one clerke to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe to be clerke of the ſame court, which ſhall make all bonds, writings, and other ordinarie proceſſe and entries out and from the ſame court.

Meſſẽger

¶ And that there ſhall be one other perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the meſſenger of the ſaid court.

Huſher

¶ And one other perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the huſher of the ſame court, which meſſenger and huſher, and euerie of them, ſhall haue ſuch like profits and aduantages, as the meſſenger and huſher of the kings duchie chamber at Weſtminſter, haue and perceiue: and the ſaid chancellor which ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, ſhall take a corporall oth afore the lord chancellor of England for the time being, after the tenor inſuing.

Oth of the chancellor

¶ Yée ſhall ſweare, that ye well and trulie ſhall ſerue the king in the office of the chancellorſhip of the firſt fruits and tenths, and ſhall miniſter equall iuſtice to rich & poore, to the beſt of your cunning, wit, & power, and that yée ſhall diligentlie procure all things which maie honeſtlie & iuſtlie be to the kings aduantage and profit, & to the augmentation of the rights and prerogatiues of his crowne, and trulie vſe the kings ſeale appointed to your office: and alſo indeuour your ſelfe to the vttermoſt of your power, to ſée the king trulie and iuſtlie anſwered yearelie, of all ſuch rents, reuenues, and profits, which ſhall or may ariſe, grow, or be due to the king in our office: and from time to time deliuer with ſpéed ſuch as ſhall haue to doo afore you: and that yée ſhall not take nor receiue of anie perſon, anie gift or reward in anie caſe or matter depending before you, or wherein the kings highneſſe ſhall be partie: whereby anie preiudice, hinderance, loſſe or diſheriſon, ſhall grow or be to the kings highneſſe, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth

¶ Alſo the ſaid treaſuror ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor of the ſaid court, according to the tenor inſuing. ¶ Yée ſhall ſweare, that yée ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king our ſouereigne lord and his people in the office of the treaſuror of this court, and yée ſhall reaſonablie and honeſtlie procure the kings profit, & doo right to all maner of people, poore and rich, in thoſe things which touch your office and the kings receipt of his monie: yée ſhall trulie keepe, diſpend, paie, and deliuer a true declaration and account thereof ſhall make from time to time without anie concealment, according to this act made for the ſtabliſhment of this court: and further ſhall doo euerie thing that of right apperteineth to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth

¶ Alſo the ſaid attturneie ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor, according to the tenor héereafter inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that yée ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king as his atturneie in all courts, for or concerning anie matter or cauſe that ſhall concerne or touch the rents, reuenues, profits, or hereditaments, limited to the ſuruete and gouernance of this court, and procure the kings profit thereof: and that yée ſhall trulie counſell the king and chancellor of this court in all things concerning the ſame, to the beſt of your cunning, wit, and power: and with all ſpéed and diligence from time to time, at the calling of the ſaid chancellor, yée ſhall indeuor your ſelfe for the hearing and determination indifferentlie of ſuch matters and cauſes as ſhall depend before the ſaid chancellor: and that yée ſhall not take anie gift or reward in anie matter or cauſe depending in the ſame court, or elſewhere, wherein the king ſhall be partie, whereby the kings maieſtie ſhall be hurt, hindered, or diſherited. And further yée ſhall doo to your power, wit, and cunning, all and euerie thing that of right apperteineth to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

¶ Alſo.

Oth

¶ Alſo the ſaid auditors and euerie of them, ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor of the ſaid court, after the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that yée trulie ſhall ſerue the king in your office, and true allowances make to euerie perſon which ſhall be accountant before you: and you ſhall not take nor receiue of poore nor rich, anie gift or reward in anie matter or cauſe depending or to be diſcuſſed in the ſame court, but ſuch as ſhall be ordinarie apperteining to your office, whereby the king ſhall be hurt, hindered, or diſherited: and yée ſhall doo euerie thing which ſhall be apperteining to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth

¶ Item that the ſaid clerke of the ſaid court, ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor after the tenor inſuing. ¶ Yée ſhall ſweare that yée ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king in your office of clerke of the counſell of this court, and trulie doo and execute all and euerie thing & things which yée ought to doo by reaſon of your office, according to the forme and effect of this act, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Surueie

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid firſt fruits and tenths, & all the reuenues and profits thereof, which now be or héereafter ſhall grow or be by anie manor of meanes, ſhall be from henſefoorth in the order, ſurueie and gouernance of the court & miniſters of the ſame.

Obligat.

Proceſſe Execution

Fees

¶ Alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid chancellor in all places, & the ſaid treaſuror, atturneie, and auditors, or two of them in the ſaid court of the ſaid chancellor being abſent, and alſo ſuch commiſſioners, deputies, and ſubſtitutes, as the ſaid chancellor ſhall aſſigne, appoint, and depute in anie ſhires or places of this realme, ſhall haue power to compound and to take obligations to the kings vſe of anie perſon or perſons, and of his ſuerties for the ſure paiment of the ſaid firſt fruits, or for anie other cauſe or matter concerning the premiſſes determinable within the ſame court. And that all ſuch obligations and writings obligatorie of what ſum ſo euer they be ſhall be taken in maner and forme abouеſaid, & none otherwiſe: and ſhall be of the ſame ſtrength, force, vertue, qualitie, and effect, to all intents and purpoſes, as writings obligatorie héeretofore made by anie laie perſon, by authoritie of the ſtatute of the ſtaple béene or ought to be: and that like proceſſe and executions thereupon, ſhall be made out of the ſaid court for the leuieng of the debts due or héereafter to be due by vertue of the ſaid writings obligatorie againſt anie perſon ſpirituall or temporall, as hath béene accuſtomed to be made againſt anie laie perſon, vpon certificat of writings obligatorie of the ſaid ſtatute of the ſtaple: and that all obligations héereafter to be taken concerning the premiſſes, contrarie to the tenor of this act, ſhall be void and of none effect. And that no perſon ſhall be compelled to paie for anie writing obligatorie to be made for anie cauſe touching the ſaid court, aboue eight penſe, and for anie acquitance aboue foure penſe. And that the ſaid chancellor for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to award vnder the ſeale to be appointed to the ſaid court in the kings name, ſuch proceſſe and precepts, with reaſonable paines to be therein limited, as be now commonlie vſed in the court of the kings duchie chamber of Lancaſter being at Weſtminſter, againſt euerie perſon and perſons whatſoeuer they be, for and concerning the intereſt, right, & title of the kings maieſtie, his heires & ſucceſſors of or for anie tenths, reuenues, profits, account, receipt, or other cauſe in anie wiſe touching or concerning anie thing appointed to the order & ſurueie of the ſaid court or anie part thereof, for and on the behalfe of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, or of or for anie debt riſing & growing by occaſion of the ſame.

Office

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid treaſuror, atturneie, and auditors, ſhall diligentlie from time to time, attend vpon the ſaid chancellor in the ſaid court, for the hearing and ordering of matters and cauſes in the ſame court for the time of the foure termes of the yeare vſuallie kept for the law at Weſtminſter, and procure with all diligence, that all debts, duties and other profits, being in the ſurueie and gouernance of the ſaid court, ſhall be trulie & iuſtlie paid & anſwered to the ſaid treaſuror of the ſaid court, to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, without concealing anie part thereof: and ſhall alſo cauſe and procure proceſſe to be made againſt ſuch as ſhall be indebted to the kings highneſſe, and their ſuerties, of and for anie part thereof from time to time, as the time or caſe ſhall require without anie delaie.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid clerke, particular meſſenger and huſher, and euerie of them, ſhall vpon reaſonable warning at all times and places, from time to time, giue attendance vpon the ſaid chancellor for the time being, for the due execution and expedition of the premiſſes, without anie delaie, vpon ſuch paines as ſhall be aſſeſſed by the kings maieſtie vpon information thereof giuen by the ſaid chancellor to his highneſſe.

Conceale

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the ſaid officers, appointed for the ſame court, doo conceale or withdraw willinglie, anie debts, duties, tenths, reuenues, or other profits, falling, growing or comming to the king, by reaſon of the firſt fruits and tenths, or by reaſon of anie other thing appointed by this act to be within the ſurueie and order of the ſaid court, that then the ſaid officer and officers ſo offending, ſhall loſe to the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the double value of the thing ſo concealed or withdrawne.

Acquitan.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by authoritie abouеſaid, that the ſaid treaſuror for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie by this act to giue his acquitance of and for ſuch monie & obligation as he ſhall receiue of them to the kings vſe, for and concerning the firſt fruits and tenths, and other things appointed to the order of the ſaid court: and that this ſaid acquitance ſhall be from henſefoorth a ſufficient acquitance and diſcharge, aſwell for the diſcharge of the parties againſt the kings highnes his heires and ſucceſſors, for paiment of ſo much monie, as alſo to the auditor for the time being, and to euerie of them, for making due allowance of the ſame. And that anie acquitance hereafter to be made concerning the premiſſes, by anie perſon or perſons, contrarie to the tenor, forme, and effect of this preſent act, ſhall be void and of none effect.

Account

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that the ſaid treaſuror, before the twentith day of March next after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, ſhall yeerelie declare trulie his whole account to the ſaid chancellor and auditors, or to the ſaid chancellors and one of the ſaid auditors, which chancellor and auditors, or chancellor and one of the ſaid auditors, ſhall by this act haue authoritie to take and determine the ſame account before the laſt daie of Julie next inſuing: vpon which determination of account, the ſaid treaſuror within one moneth next inſuing the determination of the ſaid account, ſhall trulie content and paie to the kings vſe, all ſuch ſums of monie by him receiued, as ſhall appeare to be due to the kings highneſſe and vnpaid vpon the ſame account, after which determination, the ſaid auditors, or one of them, ſhall ingroſſe the ſame into parchment, and the ſame ſo ingroſſed, ſhall returne into the office of the ſaid court of firſt fruits & tenths before the laſt daie of Februarie next after the determination of the ſame account, there for to remaine as the kings records.

Alowance

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid, that the ſaid treaſuror from time to time vpon this account, ſhall be allowed aſwell of ſuch fees as ſhall be limited vnto him for the exerciſe of his office, as of and for all ſuch ſummes of monie as he ſhall paie to anie patentie or patenties of anie office, fee, or annuitie, that ſhall be granted or giuen vnder the ſeale of the ſaid court, and alſo of all ſuch monie as he ſhall paie to anie other perſon or perſons, by vertue of the kings warrant or bill aſſigned, and alſo of all ſummes of monie as he ſhall be commanded to paie by anie bill aſſigned or ſubſcribed by the hand of the ſaid chancellor for the time being, vpon ſuch conſiderations as ſhall be thought conuenient by his diſcretion, of or for anie cauſe, thing, or matter, concerning the ſaid court whatſoeuer it ſhall be, and that the ſaid auditors or one of them, taking accounts of the ſaid treſuror, ſhall haue authoritie & power to allow to the ſaid treſuror the premiſſes & euerie of them.

Proceſſe

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all maner of proceſſe that ſhall be made out of the kings excheker, or out of anie other court other than the court made by authoritie of this preſent act, to or againſt anie perſon or perſons, for anie debt, tenth, iſſues, and profits, concerning the premiſſes or anie part thereof, from henſeforth to be due, limited in this act to be in the ſurueie, order, and gouernance of the ſaid court, made by this act and miniſters thereof, ſhall be cleerlie void and of none effect, to all intents and purpoſes.

Fees

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid chancellor and officers of the ſaid court, ſhall take ſuch fees for the ſeales and writings to be made and granted out of the ſaid court at the ſute of the parties if any ſuch happen to be, and for appeerances, as the chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter and officers there conuenientlie vſe to take for the ſame.

Forfeit.
Contempt
Attachment

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons, called by the kings proceſſe of the ſame court, to appeare at Weſtminſter in the ſame court within the terme at a certeine daie to him prefixed in the proceſſe, appeare and haue a daie giuen in the ſaid court to make anſwer to the matters againſt them obiected in the ſame court on the kings behalfe, depart the court before anſwer made, and atturneie put into the court, with the aſſent of the court for proſecuting the matter with effect, ſhall forfeit to the kings grace his heires and ſucceſſors, ſuch fine as ſhall be vpon him ſet for his contempt and offenſe in that behalfe, as the ſaid chancellor, treaſuror and atturneie of the ſaid court, or two of them ſhall thinke conuenient by their diſcretions to be leuied of his lands and tenements, goods and chattels to the kings vſe. And in caſe the partie to whom anie ſuch proceſſe ſhall be directed, doo make default at the firſt daie of his appeerance: that then attachment ſhall be awarded out of the ſaid court, directed to the ſhiriffes of ſuch countie, as it ſhall ſeeme to the ſaid chancellor moſt expedient, to attach the bodie of the ſame perſon making default as is aboueſaid, & to bring his bodie into the ſaid court at ſuch daie, within anie of the foure terms, as vnto the ſaid chancellor for the time being ſhall be thought conuenient by his diſcretion.

Accounts

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as manie accounts of the firſt fruits and tenths, as bin cleerlie accounted and not returned into the kings excheker, and alſo as manie other accounts of the ſaid firſt fruits and tenths as be not fullie accounted & ingroſſed, ſhall be ingroſſed and returned within two yeares next inſuing, into the ſaid court of the firſt fruits and tenths, there to remaine as the kings records. And that the chancellor and auditors of the ſaid court for the time being, ſhall haue full authoritie and power, to heare, examine, and determine, all and all maner of accounts heeretofore made concerning the ſaid firſt fruits and tenths.

Certificat.

¶ And foraſmuch as diuerſe religious houſes within this realme and other the kings dominions, be now diſſolued, and the poſſeſſions thereof lawfullie commen vnto the kings hands & others by his graces gift, bargen, grant and aſſignement, by reaſon whereof, and reaſon of miſcertificat of the ſaid poſſeſſions, and of the tenth concerning as well the ſame poſſeſſions, as other poſſeſſions of ſpirituall perſons into the kings excheker, the archbiſhops, biſhops, and other accountants vpon their accounts, be and of long time haue beene greatlie charged, vexed and troubled. For remedie whereof, be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the originall of the certificat of the whole tenth, certified into the kings excheker, and all other records there concerning the ſame, ſhall be deliuered into the ſaid court of the firſt fruits and tenths, there to remaine as the kings records: and that the ſaid chancellor ſhall haue full power and authoritie, by vertue of this act, from time to time, to write vnder the ſeale of office appointed to the ſaid court, vnto the treaſuror and barons of the ſaid excheker, and alſo vnto all other officers & miniſters of all the kings courts for to certifie anie matter of record, or other ſufficient cauſe remaining afore them concerning the premiſſes for the true proofe and triall thereof into the ſaid court of firſt fruits and tenths. And the ſaid chancellor, treaſuror, and auditor or auditors, vpon a certificat thereof, or elſe vpon the examination of witneſſes to be taken, aſwell by commiſſion as otherwiſe, or by other ſufficient proofs or diſcharge, alledged, ſhewed, and prooued afore them by the ſaid archbiſhops, biſhops, or other accountants, ſhall by authoritie aforeſaid, haue full power and authoritie by their diſcretions, to make allowance, defalcation, diſcharge, and full determination vnto them and euerie of them in his or their ſaid accounts concerning the premiſſes, according as of right apperteineth.

Allowance.

Monie ¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſummes of monie heereafter to be paid by anie archbiſhop, biſhop, or other perſon or perſons, chargeable to or with the collection, leuieng, or receipt of the tenth granted to the kings highneſſe by authoritie of the ſaid act thereof made in the ſaid xxvj. yeare of his moſt noble reigne, ſhall from henſeforth for euer be paid to the treaſuror of the ſaid court of the firſt fruits and tenths, at ſuch daies and times as are limited and appointed in the ſaid act, and to none other perſon nor perſons. And that if anie paiment or paiments thereof, heereafter be otherwiſe made without the kings highneſſe ſpeciall aſſignement or warrant in writing thereof made: that then the ſaid paiment or paiments ſhall be void and of none effect.

Certificat. ¶ And it is alſo enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that all certificats heereafter to be made by anie archbiſhop or biſhop, or by anie other perſon or perſons, limited and charged to the collection and paiment of the ſaid tenths, by the authoritie of the ſaid act, of the grant thereof to our ſaid soueraigne lord the kings maieſtie, ſhall from henſeforth for euer be made and certified into the ſaid court of firſt fruits and tenths, as they ſhould or ought before the making of this act to haue beene made and certified into the kings excheker, by authoritie of the ſaid act of the grant of the ſaid firſt fruits and tenths, and that the ſame certificats, and euerie of them, ſo héereafter to be made and certified into the ſaid court, ſhall be and ſtand of ſuch like ſtrength and effect to all intents and purpoſes, as they and euerie of them ſhould haue béene if they had beene certified & made into the kings ſaid court of excheker, before the making of this act. And that vpon all certificats heereafter to be made into the ſaid court of firſt fruits and tenths, proceſſe ſhall be made out of the ſaid court by the diſcretion of the chancellor of the ſaid court for the time being, for the leuieng and true contentation and paiment of the kings duties in that behalfe, in ſuch wiſe as the kings highneſſe may be trulie ſatiſfied thereof, of thoſe perſons that ſhall be chargeable therewith by the authoritie of the ſaid act of the grant of the ſaid firſt fruits and tenths, and all certificats héereafter to be made concerning anie the premiſſes into the kings excheker, ſhall be void and of none effect.

Proceſſe

¶ Prouided that this act, or anie article, clauſe, or ſentence therein conteined, extend not to anie rents or tenths now paiable, or héereafter to be paid in the kings court of augmentations of the reuenues of his crowne, by reaſon of anie of the kings graces letters patents, acts of parlement, or otherwiſe.

The eſtabliſhment of the court of the kings wards.

Chap. 46.

FOraſmuch as the kings highneſſe hath beene héeretofore, and héereafter is like to be yearelie anſwered of great rents, reuenues, and profits, which to his maieſtie hath or ſhall grow, aſwell by reaſon of ſuch perſons as haue béene or heereafter ſhall be in ward to his highneſſe, as alſo by meane of ideots and fooles naturall now remaining or being, or that heereafter ſhall remaine or be in his graces cuſtodie, and alſo for licences to marrie, made and to be made to women being his graces widowes, and fines made for them for marrieng without his graces licence: all which the premiſſes of right apperteineth to his maieſtie, in the right of the imperiall crowne of this realme. For the more ſuertie & eſtabliſhment thereof, and to the intent the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors ſhall be the better ſerued, in obteining or hauing the cuſtodie of the bodies of his highneſſe wards, and their honors, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments into his graces cuſtodie and gouernance, during the minoritie of ſuch wards, and alſo ſhall be yeerlie as well trulie anſwered, contented, & paid, of, & for the ſale of the bodies of the wards, & the lands bargained for them during the ſaid minoritie, & of other the premiſſes, as of the rents, farms, iſſues and profits, riſing, comming and growing, or which héereafter ſhall ariſe and grow, of all & ſingular the caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, belonging, and which héereafter ſhall riſe and belong to the king, his heires and ſucceſſors, by reaſon of the ſaid wards and other the premiſſes, in ſuch court, place, maner, forme, and condition, as héereafter ſhall be limited, declared and appointed. Be it enacted, ordeined & eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of the kings maieſtie, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, in maner and forme as héereafter followeth in articles, that is to ſaie.

Court of the kings wards. ¶ Firſt the king our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, by the authoritie aforeſaid, ordeineth, maketh, eſtabliſheth, and erecteth a certeine court, commonlie to be called for euer the court of the kings wards, which court by authoritie aforeſaid, continuallie and for euer ſhall be a court of record, and ſhall haue one ſeale to be ingraued and made after ſuch forme, faſhion and maner, as ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, and ſhall remaine and be ordered as héereafter ſhall be declared.

Maiſter

Seale

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be one certeine perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, which ſhall be maiſter of the ſame court, and ſhall be chéefe and principall officer of the ſame court, and ſhall be called maiſter of the wards, and ſhall haue the kéeping of the ſaid ſeale to be aſſigned for the ſaid court.

Atturneie

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be one perſon to be learned in the lawes of this land to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the kings atturneie of the ſaid court, and ſhall be the ſecond officer of the ſame court.

Receiuor

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be one perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the kings receiuor generall of the lands of his wards, and ſhall be the third officer of the ſame court.

Auditors

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be two perſons to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called the auditors of the lands of his graces wards, and ſhall be called the fourth officer of the ſame court.

Clerks

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhall be two clerkes to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe to be clerkes of the ſame court, which ſhall make all indentures, bargens, and leaſes, to be made and granted of the kings wards lands, record all appéerances, and make all ordinarie proceſſe and entries out and from the ſaid court.

Meſſẽger

Huſher

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that there ſhall be one other perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be the meſſenger of the ſaid court. And one other perſon to be named and aſſigned by the kings highnes, which ſhall be called the huſher of the ſame court, which meſſenger and huſher, and either of them, ſhall haue ſuch like profits and aduantages, as the meſſenger and huſher of the kings duchie chamber at Weſtminſter haue and perceiue.

¶ Alſo the ſaid maiſter of the kings wards, which ſhalbe appointed by the kings highnes, ſhall take a corporall oth afore the lord chancellor of England for the time being, after ẏ tenor inſuing.

Oth

¶ Yée ſhall ſweare, that ye well & trulie ſhall ſerue the king in the office of the maiſter of the kings wards, and ſhall miniſter equall iuſtice to rich and poore, to the beſt of your cunning, wit, and power, and that yée ſhall diligentlie procure all things which maie honeſtlie and iuſtlie be to the kings aduantage and profit, and to the augmentation of the rights and prerogatiues of his crowne, and trulie vſe the kings ſeale appointed to your office: and alſo indeuour your ſelfe to the vttermoſt of your power, to ſée the king trulie and iuſtlie anſwered yearelie, of all ſuch rents, reuenues, iſſues, & profits, which ſhall or may ariſe, grow, or be due to the king in your office: & from time to time deliuer with ſpéed ſuch as ſhall haue to doo afore you: and that yée ſhall not take nor receiue of anie perſon, anie gift or reward in anie caſe or matter depending before you, or wherein the kings highneſſe ſhall be partie: whereby anie preiudice, hinderance, loſſe or diſheriſon ſhall grow or be to the kings highneſſe, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth

¶ Alſo the ſaid atturneie ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid maiſter of the wards, according to the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that yée well and trulie ſhall ſerue the king as his atturneie in all courts, for and concerning anie matter or cauſe that ſhall concerne the poſſeſſions and hereditaments, limited to the ſurueie and gouernance of this court, and procure the kings profit thereof: and that yée ſhall trulie counſell the king and the maiſter of this court in all things concerning the ſame, to the beſt of your cunning, wit, and power: and with all ſpéed and diligence from time to time, at the calling of the ſaid maiſter, yée ſhall indeuor your ſelfe for the hearing and determination indifferentlie of ſuch matters and cauſes as ſhall depend before the ſaid maiſter: and that yée ſhall not take anie gift or reward in anie matter or cauſe depending in the ſame court, or elſewhere, wherein the king ſhall be partie, whereby the kings maieſtie ſhall be hurt, or hindered, or diſherited. And further yée ſhall doo to your power, wit, and cunning, all and euerie thing that of right apperteineth to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth

¶ Alſo the ſaid receiuor generall ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid maiſter of the ſaid court, according to the tenor inſuing. ¶ Yée ſhall ſweare, that yée ſhall well & trulie ſerue the king our ſoueraigne lord & his people in the office of the generall receiuor of this court, & yée ſhall reaſonablie & honeſtlie procure the kings profit, & doo right to all maner of people, poore and rich, in thoſe things which touch your office and the kings receipt of his monie: yée ſhall trulie kéepe, diſpend, paie, and deliuer, and true declaration and account thereof ſhall make from time to time without anie concealment, according to this act made for the ſtabliſhment of this court: and further ſhall doo euerie thing that of right apperteineth to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth

¶ Alſo the ſaid auditors ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid maiſter, after the tenor inſuing. ¶ Ye ſhall ſweare that yée trulie ſhall ſerue the king in your office, and true allowance make to euerie perſon which ſhall be accountant before you: and you ſhall not take nor receiue of poore nor rich, anie gift or reward in anie matter or cauſe depending or to be diſcuſſed in the ſame court, but ſuch as ſhall be ordinarie apperteining to your office, whereby the king ſhall be hurt, hindered, or diſherited, and yée ſhall doo euerie thing which ſhall be apperteining to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

¶ Alſo all particular auditors that ſhall belong & be appointed to the ſaid court, ſhall take a like corporall oth before the ſaid maiſter of the wards: yée ſhall ſweare, as is before in the next article.

¶ Alſo all particular receiuors, appointed by the ſaid maiſter, atturneie, receiuer generall, and auditors or thrée or two of them, whereof the maiſter to be one, to receiue anie reuenues and profits within the ſurueie of the ſame court, ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid maiſter of the wards after the tenor inſuing:

Oth

¶ Yée ſhall ſweare, that yée trulie ſhall ſerue the king in your office and nothing conceale, but true account make of all ſuch reuenues, rents, ſums of monie and other profits, wherewith yée ſhall be lawfullie charged by reaſon of your office, yée ſhall make no petition, or aſke allowance, but ſuch as ſhall be góod, iuſt, true, and reaſonable, and alſo trulie content and paie to the king, all ſuch ſummes of monie as ſhall come to your hands: and yée ſhall dóo all and euerie thing and things, which yée ought to dóo by reaſon of your office, according to the forme and effect of this act, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth

¶ Alſo the ſaid clerke of the counſell of the ſaid court, and euerie of them, ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid maiſter after the forme inſuing. ¶ Yée ſhall ſweare that yée ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king in your offices of clerkes of the counſell of this court, and trulie dóo and execute all and euerie thing and things which yée ought to dóo by reaſon of your office, according to the forme and effect of this act, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

¶ Alſo that all ſurueiors & feodaries that ſhalbe appointed by the ſaid maiſter, atturneie, receiuor generall, & auditors of the ſaid court, or thrée or two of them, whereof the maiſter to be one, ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid maiſter. Yée ſhall ſweare, &c. Vt in proximo articulo præcedente.

Wards

Surueie

¶ Alſo be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all wards which the kings highnes now is or héereafter ſhall be intituled to haue with their manors, lands, tenements, rents, remainders, reuerſions, ſeruices, and all other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, aſwell in poſſeſſion as in reuerſion, and all reuenues, iſſues and profits of the ſame, and euerie part thereof for the time the ſame ſhall be or ought to be in the kings poſſeſſion, ſhall be in the order, ſurueie, and gouernance of the ſaid court, and the miniſters of the ſame, in maner and forme as by this act is declared & limited.

Sale of wards

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the wards, atturneie, receiuor generall and auditors or thrée of them, whereof the ſaid maiſter ſhall be one for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie to make ſale and grant of the kings wards, and euerie of them from time to time, and of ſuch part and portion of the lands in poſſeſſion and reuerſion or anie of them, during the minoritie and nonage of the ſame ward that ſhall be ſo ſold or granted, and as long as the ſame lands and reuerſion ſhall remaine or be in the kings hands, as they ſhall thinke moſt conuenient: the ſame ſale and grant to paſſe by the kings bill aſſigned, which bill aſſigned, ſhall be warrant ſufficient to the chancellor of England for the time being, to make forth the kings letters patents vnder the great ſeale of England, according to the tenor of the ſame bill, paieng for the ſame all and ſingular like fées for ſeales and writings, as heeretofore hath béene vſed and accuſtomed to be paid for the ſame in the chancerie, and to the ſignet and priuie ſeale, and to euerie of them.

Woodſale

Reparations.

Leaſes

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the wards for the time being, with the aduiſe of the ſaid atturneie and receiuor generall or one of them, ſhall haue authoritie without the kings bill aſſigned, to make woodſales to the kings vſe of all vnderwoods vpon anie of the kings wards lands, being lawfullie in the kings poſſeſſion, and to take & appoint timber for the neceſſarie reparations of all the caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, and parkes of the ſaid wards, and ſhall alſo haue like power and authoritie in the kings name to make leaſes during the minoritie of the ſaid wards: and further as is aboue written by their diſcretions, of all and ſingular lordſhips, manors, lands, and tenements, remaining in the kings hands and poſſeſſion, belonging to the ſaid wards and euerie parcell thereof, yéelding to the kings highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors, ſuch rents as by the ſaid maiſter of the wards, atturneie, receiuor generall, and auditors or thrée of them, whereof the ſaid maiſter to be one, ſhall be thought conuenient by their diſcretions and ſurueie.

Officers

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the wards for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie by this act to make and appoint all and ſingular particular receiuors, feodaries, and ſurueiors in euerie ſhire, and alſo fées for the executing of the ſame vnder the ſeale of the ſame office, in ſuch wiſe as the ſame officers maie be alwaies remoouable at the diſcretion of the ſaid court.

Allowances.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the wards for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie by this act, to make allowance likewiſe of the coſts of all commiſſioners, particular receiuors, ſurueiors, auditors, counſellors, and feodaries, and euerie of them, by his bill aſſigned, which bill ſhall be warrant ſufficient to the auditors belonging to the ſame office, to make due allowance of the ſame.

Obligat.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the wards in all places, and the ſaid atturneie, receiuor generall, and auditors, or two of them in the ſaid court, the ſaid maiſter being abſent, ſhall haue power and authoritie to take obligations to the kings vſe, of euerie particular receiuor, which ſhall be aſſigned for the ſaid court, and of his ſuertie for ſure paiment of his receipts: and alſo to take obligations to the kings vſe, aſwell of euerie farmar, bailiffe, or other accountants, for the true paiment of their receipts, and of euerie perſon and perſons which ſhall be indebted to the kings highneſſe for anie arrerages of his or their receipts, farmes or charges as of anie other perſon or perſons, for anie other cauſe or matter concerning the premiſſes, determinable within the ſame court. And that all ſuch obligations and writings obligatorie, of what ſum ſo euer they be, ſhall be of the ſame ſtrength, vertue, force, qualitie and effect, to all intents and purpoſes, as writings obligatorie hæretofore made by anie laie perſon by authoritie of the ſtatute of the ſtaple, bin or ought to be: and that vpon certificat héereafter to be made in the kings chancerie of anie ſuch writings obligatorie, to be taken for ſuch paiments, like proceſſe and executions ſhall be thereupon had and made againſt anie perſon ſpirituall and temporall as hath béene accuſtomed to be made againſt anie laie perſon, vpon certificat of writings obligatorie of the ſaid ſtatute of the ſtaple.

Proceſſe

¶ Alſo that the ſaid maiſter of the wards for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to award vnder the ſeale to be appointed to the ſaid court in the kings name, ſuch proceſſe and precepts, with reaſonable paines to be therein limited, as be now commonlie vſed in the court of the kings duchie chamber of Lancaſter being at Weſtminſter, againſt euerie perſon and perſons whatſoeuer they be, for and concerning the intereſt, right, and title of the kings maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors, of, in or for anie wards lands, tenements, rents, accounts, receits, ſeruices, or other cauſe in anie wiſe touching or concerning anie thing appointed to the order and ſurueie of the ſaid court or anie part thereof, for and on the behalfe of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, or to or for anie debt riſing and growing by occaſion of the ſame.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid atturneie, receiuor generall, and auditors, ſhall diligentlie from time to time, attend vpon the ſaid maiſter in the ſaid court, for the hearing and ordering of matters & cauſes in the ſame court for the time of the foure termes of the yeare, vſuallie kept for the law at Weſtminſter, & procure with all diligence, that all rents, farms, profits, caſualties, improuements, & other emoluments of the wards marriages, idiots, and of all manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, being in the ſurueie & gouernance of the ſaid court, ſhall be trulie and iuſtlie paid and anſwered to the ſaid receiuor of the ſaid court, to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, without concealing anie part thereof: and ſhall alſo cauſe and procure proceſſe to be made againſt ſuch as ſhall be indebted to the kings highneſſe, and their ſuerties, of and for anie part thereof from time to time, as the time or caſe ſhall require without anie delaie.

¶ And be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid clerkes, particular receiuors, auditors, ſurueiors, meſſenger and huſher, and euerie of them, ſhall vpon reaſonable warning, giue at all times and places, from time to time, attendance vpon the ſaid maiſter for the time being, for the due execution & expedition of the premiſſes, without delaie, vpon ſuch pains as ſhall be aſſeſſed by the kings maieſtie vpon information thereof giuen by the ſaid maiſter to his highneſſe.

Conceale.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the ſaid officers, appointed for the ſame court, doo conceale or withdraw willinglie, anie rents, reuenues, caſualties, or other profits, falling, growing or comming to the king, by the minoritie of anie of his graces wards, or by reſon of anie other thing appointed by this act of the ſaid court, that then the officers ſo offending, ſhall loſe to the king our ſaid ſouereigne lord the double value of the thing concealed or withdrawne.

Accounts

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the auditors generall of the wards lands, and euerie of them for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie to examine the accounts of all particular accountants, taken by anie particular auditor or auditors, vpon anie part of the wards lands, idiots lands, and of other things appointed by this act to the order of the ſaid court, and to allow and diſalow all that ſhall be reaſonable within the ſaid accounts, as largelie as to the ſaid maiſter of the wards, atturneie, receiuor generall, and auditors, or thrée of them, whereof the ſaid maiſter to be one, ſhall be thought expedient and neceſſarie: & that euerie of the ſaid particular accountants for the yeare to be ended at the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, yearelie for euer, ſhall make and finiſh his account, and certifie the ſame into the ſaid court before the firſt daie of Februarie, next after the ſame feaſt inſuing, and to the receiuor generall of the ſaid court, of all ſuch ſummes of monie as ſhall appeare to be due to the king by the ſame account.

Acquitan.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that the ſaid receiuor generall for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie by this act, to giue his acquitance of & for ſuch monie and obligations as he ſhall receiue of them to the kings vſe, for the wards lands, idiots lands, and other things appointed to the ſaid court: and that this ſaid acquitance ſhall be from henſeforth ſufficient acquitance and diſcharge, aſwell for the diſcharge of the parties againſt the kings highnes his heires & ſucceſſors, for paiment of ſo much monie, as alſo to the auditor for the time being, for making due allowance of the ſame.

Accounts

¶ Alſo be it ordeined by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid receiuor generall, before the twentith day of March next after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell, ſhall yéerelie declare trulie his whole account to the ſaid maiſter of the wards, atturneie, and to one or both of the ſaid auditors generall, of the wards lands, which maiſter atturneie, and one or both of the ſaid auditors, ſhall by this act haue authoritie to take and determine the ſame account before the laſt daie of Julie next inſuing: vpon which determination of account, the ſaid receiuor generall within one moneth next inſuing the determination of the ſame account, ſhall trulie content and paie to the kings vſe, all ſuch ſums of monie, as ſhall appeare to be due to the kings highneſſe and vnpaid vpon the ſaid account. After which determination, the ſaid auditors, or one of them, ſhall ingroſſe the ſame into parchment, and the ſame ſo ingroſſed, ſhall returne into the office of the wards, before the laſt daie of Februarie next after the determination of the ſame account, there to remaine as the kings records.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the particular auditors, and other officers, counſellors and miniſters of the ſame court for the the time being, ſhall yéerelie perceiue and take by the hands of the ſaid receiuor generall, particular receiuors and all other officers and miniſters accountant all and ſingular ſuch debts, rewards, profits, and commodities, aſwell for their attendance vpon the ſaid maiſter for the time being, and for making of bookes, declarations, and values as for other matters, counſels, and cauſes, of for and concerning the ſaid court, and alſo for expenſes, coſts and charges of the ſaid auditors and particular receiuors & euerie of them, yéerelie riding their ſeuerall circuits and limitation, in as ample and large maner and forme, as to the ſaid maiſter of the wards, atturneie, receiuer generall, and auditors, or thrée of them (whereof the ſaid maiſter to be one) ſhall be thought conuenient to be appointed by their diſcretions.

Allowance.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid generall receiuer from time to time vpon his account, ſhall be allowed aſwell of ſuch fées as ſhall be limited vnto him for the exerciſe of his office, as of and for all ſuch ſummes of monie as he ſhall paie to anie patentée or patentées of anie office, fée, or annuitie, that ſhall be granted or giuen vnder the ſeale of the ſaid court, and alſo of all ſuch monie as he ſhall paie to anie other perſon or perſons by vertue of the kings warrant or bill aſſigned: and alſo of all ſuch ſums of monie as he ſhall be commanded to paie by anie bill aſſigned or ſubſcribed by the hand of the ſaid maiſter for the time being, vpon ſuch conſiderations as ſhall be thought conuenient by his diſcretion, as well for the finding and exhibition of the kings wards in his graces cuſtodie, as of or for any other cauſe, thing, or matter concerning the ſaid court of the wards whatſoeuer it ſhall be: & that the ſaid auditors taking accounts of the ſaid receiuer generall, and of anie of the ſaid particular receiuors, ſhall haue power and authoritie to allow to the ſaid receiuer generall, the premiſſes and euerie part of them, and alſo to allow to euerie particular receiuer and other accountants, aſwell their fées, wages, and all other ſuch ſums of monie as they or anie of them ſhall paie, of, for, in & about, anie buildings or reparations of the wards lands to be made vpon anie warrant to be directed from the ſaid court, as all other honeſt petitions & allowances, in as large and ample maner as the ſaid maiſter of the wards, atturneie, & auditors, or two of them, whereof the ſaid maiſter to be one, ſhall thinke moſt expedient.

Proceſſe

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that all maner of proceſſe that ſhall be made out of the kings excheker, to or againſt anie perſon or perſons, for anie farme, rents, iſſues, or profits, concerning the premiſſes, or anie part thereof, or anie other thing limited in this act, to be in the ſurueie, order and gouernance of the ſaid court and the miniſters thereof, ſhall be cléerlie void and of none effect to all intents and purpoſes.

Monie

¶ Alſo be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the monie, and obligations taken for monie by the ſaid maiſter for the ſale of the kings wards, and other things appointed by this act to the order of the ſaid court, and alſo the monie and obligations taken for monie by the ſaid receiuer generall of the kings rents, and for widowes fines for their licence to marrie, and other caſualties of the wards lands, idiots lands, for iſſues, profits, & debts, yearelie growing to the kings highneſſe by reaſon of the premiſſes, ſhall be yéerelie paid and deliuered to the hands of the treaſurer of the kings chamber for the time being, or elſewhere to whom it ſhall pleaſe the kings highneſſe his heires or ſucceſſors, to giue authoritie by commiſſion vnder his great ſeale, to receiue the ſame: and that a bill ſubſcribed with the hand of the ſaid treaſuror or other commiſſioner ſhall be a ſufficient acquitance and diſcharge to the maiſter and receiuer vpon all and euerie paiment by them to be made, and alſo to the auditors there for the allowance of the ſame. And that the ſame maiſter and receiuor generall, ſhall once in the yeare declare vnto the kings maieſtie the profits and eſtate of the ſaid office.

Acquitan.

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter & officers of the ſaid court, ſhall take ſuch and like fées for the ſeales and writings to be made & granted out of the ſaid court, at the ſute of the parties as they now vſe to take, that is to ſaie: for the fées of all proceſſes at the ſute of the parties vnder the priuie ſeale of the ſaid court, two ſhillings ſix penſe. And for the fées of all commiſſions directed out at the ſute of the parties two ſhillings ſix penſe. And for recording of all apparances foure penſe and no more.

Fees

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter by the aduiſe of the ſaid atturneie, receiuer generall, and auditors and thrée of them, whereof the ſaid maiſter to be one of them, ſhall haue authoritie by this act, to ſurueie all the kings widows, and to treat, common and conclude, as well with all and euerie of the kings widows that now be, or that heereafter ſhall be, and that haue married themſelues without the kings licence, or that heereafter ſhall happen to marie themſelues without the kings licence, for their reaſonable fines to be made to the kings vſe, and to tax and aſſeſſe the ſame by their diſcretion, according to the ſtatute of Prærogatiua regis, the ſame fines to be paid to the receiuor generall of the wards lands, as the ſame maie appeare yéerelie in his account.

Widows

¶ Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter by the aduiſe of the ſaid atturneie, receiuer generall, and auditors, or thrée of them, ſhall haue authoritie by this act, to ſurueie, gouerne, and order, all and ſingular idiots and naturall fooles, now being in the kings hands or that heereafter ſhall come and be in the kings hands: and alſo to ſurueie and order all the manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, whatſoeuer now being in the kings hands, or in the hands of anie other perſon or perſons, to their vſes, or to the vſe of anie of them that héereafter ſhall come and be in the kings hands, his heires and ſucceſſors, in the right of anie of them, by

reaſon of his graces prerogatiue roiall, and alſo by the aduiſe of the ſaid atturnie, receiuer generall and auditors, or thrée or two of them, to let and ſet the manors, lands and tenements to the kings vſe for the time of the kings intereſt for ſuch rent and fine as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought conuenient. The finding and kéeping of the ſaid perſons, their wiues and children, and the reparations of their houſes and lands alwaie to be conſidered in the doing thereof, the ſame rents and fines reſerued to the kings grace to be paid alwaies to the hands of the receiuer generall of the wards lands for the time being, as the ſame maie appéere in his accounts, and be recorded in the court of wards.

Leaſes.

Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the maiſter of the kings liueries ſhall paſſe no liuerie with anie perſon or perſons that be or that haue béene, or héereafter ſhall be the kings wards, vnto ſuch time they ſhall receiue knowledge from the court of the kings wards, what caſe the accounts, tenants and farmars of the wards lands ſtand in with the kings highneſſe, and what ſuretie and order is taken therefore and for the rates to the kings vſe. And that euerie ward hauing his liuerie, ſhall within ſix months next after the liuerie had, bring the ſame liuerie to the auditors of the wards for the time being, or to one of them, to haue the ſame there inrolled for the diſcharge of the lands againſt the kings highneſſe, according to the tenor of the ſaid liuerie, and ſhall paie for the inrolment thereof ſuch reaſonable ſum of monie as ſhalbe appointed by the ſaid maiſter of the wards, ſo that it excéed not the ſum of ten ſhillings.

Liuerie.

Inrolment.

¶Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie perſon and perſons, to whom the kings highnes ſhall grant the cuſtodie and wardſhip of anie his graces wards, ſhall vpon his bill aſſigned thereof, ſue forth his patent within foure months next after the aſſignment of the ſaid bill, or elſe the ſame bill and the effect thereof to be vtterlie void and of no force.

¶Alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that the generall receiuer & chéefe auditors of the ſaid court for the time being, ſhall yéerlie perceiue & take as well by the hands of the generall receiuer, as by the hands of all & ſingular particular receiuers, and all other officers & miniſters accountant within the ſurueie of the ſaid court for the time being, all and ſingular ſuch ſums of monie for ſuch like diets, rewards, profits and commodities, as well for their attendance vpon the ſaid court, and for making and writing of bookes, declarations and values, as for their expenſes, coſts and charges of the ſame generall receiuer and auditors, and euerie of them for the time being, yéerlie riding their ſeuerall circuits and limits, in as large and ample maner and forme as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid maiſter of the wards and atturnie of the ſaid court by their diſcretions. And that the ſaid auditors for the time being ſhall haue power and authoritie yéerelie from time to time to allow the ſame.

¶And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that as manie accounts of the kings wards lands, idiots lands, wards for mariages of widowes, and licences for the ſame, as bin cléerelie accounted and not returned into the kings excheker, and alſo as manie other accounts of the wards lands, idiots lands, fines for marieng of widowes, and licences for the ſame, as bin not yet fullie accounted and ingroſſed, ſhalbe ingroſſed and returned within thrée yéers next comming into the office of the wards, there to remaine as the kings records. And that the kings highneſſe ſuruetors generall of his graces lands, and auditors of his graces wards, lands & euerie of them, ſhall be thereof diſcharged againſt the kings maieſtie, of and for the returne of the ſame accounts into his graces excheker, anie act, ſtatute or ordinance héeretofore made to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Accounts.

¶And it is further enacted & eſtabliſhed by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the wards for the time being, ſhall haue authoritie by this act, with the aduiſe of the atturnie & receiuer generall of the ſame court or one of them, to call at all times before them into ẏ office of the wards by the proceſſe of the ſame court, all & euerie perſon & perſons which is or hath bin the kings ward, intruding or entring into or vpon his or their lands, or vpon anie part therof, after his or their full age of xxj yéers, and before that he or they haue ſued and obteined liuerie or Ouſter le maine, for the ſame, out of the kings hands vnder his great ſeale, as well to make anſwer for his or their intruſion vpon the kings poſſeſſion, as to make paiment to the kings receiuer generall of the ſame office of all ſuch rents, iſſues & profits by him or them taken at anie time after his or their ſaid full age of xxj yéeres, and before liuerie ſued for the ſame out of the kings hands in forme aforeſaid.

¶And be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons called by the kings proceſſe of the ſame court to appéere at Weſtminſter in the ſame court, within the terme at a certeine daie to him prefixed in the proceſſe to appéere, and haue daie giuen in court to make anſwer to the matters obiected againſt him in the ſame court on the kings behalfe, depart the court before anſwer made, & atturnie put into the court with aſſent of the court for proſecuting the matter with effect, ſhall forfeit to the kings grace, his heirs & ſucceſſors, ſuch fine as ſhalbe ſet vpon him for his contempt and offenſe in that behalfe, as the ſaid maiſter, atturnie and receiuer generall, or two of them ſhall thinke conuenient by their diſcretions to be leuied of his lands and tenements, goods and chattels to the kings vſe.

Contempt.

¶Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that Iohn Perin, which by the kings letters patents hath bin héeretofore and now is auditor of his graces wards lands, ſhall continue and be one of the two auditors in this act before mentioned during the terme of his naturall life, anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act that the biſhop of Norwich ſhall be charged with the collection of the kings tenth in his dioceſſe.

Chap.47.

WHere in the parlement holden in the xxvi yeere of our ſouereigne lord the king that now is, among other it was ordeined and enacted, that the kings maieſtie his heires & ſucceſſors kings of this realme, for more augmentation & maintenance of the roiall eſtate of his imperiall crowne & dignitie of ſupreme head of the church of England, ſhould yeerelie take, haue, inioy and receiue vnited and knit to his imperiall crowne for euer, one yeerelie rent or penſion amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, farmes, tithes, offerings, emoluments, & of all other profits as well called ſpirituall as temporall, then apperteining or belonging, or that after that time ſhould belong to any archbiſhoprike, biſhoprike, abbeie, monaſterie, priorie, archdeaconrie, deanrie, hoſpitall, college, houſe collegiat, prebend, cathedrall church, collegiat church, conuentuall church, parſonage, vicarage, chantrie, frée chapell or other benefice or promotion ſpirituall, of what name, nature or qualitie ſoeuer they were within anie dioceſſe of this relme or in Wales, ẏ ſaid penſion or annuall rent to be yéerlie paid for euer to our ſaid ſouereigne lord, to his heirs and ſucceſſors kings of this realme, at the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God, which then ſhould be in the yeere of our Lord God 1535, and to be paid yeerlie by ſuch as ſhould be appointed to haue the collection thereof by the ſaid act, in ſuch maner and forme as héereafter ſhould be limited by the ſaid act before the firſt daie of Aprill yéerlie next inſuing after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Lord God. And that euerie archbiſhop and biſhop then being, or that héereafter ſhould be charged and chargeable, to leuie, collect and receiue within their proper dioceſſe, as well in places exempt as not exempt, all ſuch ſums of monie wherewith the dignities, benefices and other promotions ſpirituall aforenamed within their dioceſſe chargeable by the ſaid act, ſhould be ſet taxed and charged towards the paiment of the ſaid yéerelie penſion, and ſhould paie and content the ſaid ſums of monie yéerelie before the firſt daie of Aprill to the treaſuror of the kings chamber for the time being, or to anie other perſon or perſons whome it ſhould pleaſe the kings highneſſe to appoint to receiue the ſame. And that euerie of the ſaid archbiſhops and biſhops, their executors and adminiſtrators, and the poſſeſſions of their dignities and churches, ſhould ſtand charged & chargeable for the ſure paiment of ſuch ſums of monie as they ſhould collect and receiue of the ſaid yeerelie rent and penſion, as by the ſaid act more plainlie it doth appéere.

And by like act of parlement holden in the xxvii yéere of our ſaid ſouereigne lords reigne, the biſhop of Norwich that now is, and his ſucceſſors, were cléerelie acquited and diſcharged of and for the collection of the ſaid yeerlie tenth, that was then or ſhould be due and leuiable to the kings vſe within his ſaid dioceſſe of Norwich, of any perſon or perſons, or bodies politike or corporat, chargeable to the yéerlie paiment of the ſaid tenth, the act made for the ſame collection of tenth to the contrarie notwithſtanding, as by the ſame act it will alſo appéere. But foraſmuch as the kings highneſſe in recompenſe of diuers and ſundrie lordſhips and manors, parcell of the ſaid biſhoprike giuen vnto his grace by act of parlement, hath vnited and knit to the ſée of the ſaid biſhoprike of Norwich, the monaſterie of S. Benets with diuers other poſſeſſions, being of a greater yéerelie value than the ſaid lordſhips and manors ſo to his grace giuen were. It maie be by the authoritie of this preſent parlement ordeined and enacted, that from henſefoorth the biſhop of Norwich that now is, and his ſucceſſors biſhops there, and in the time of vacation of the ſaid biſhoprike, the deane and the chapter of the cathedrall church of Norwich, ſhall collect and gather togither the ſaid annuall rent or penſion of all the promotions ſpirituall within the ſaid dioceſſe, as well in places exempt as not exempt, and all and ſingular ſuch ſums of monie ſo by him or them to be collected and gathered, to paie yeerlie to the hands of the treaſuror of the firſt fruites and tenths before the ſaid firſt daie of Aprill, and thereof yeerlie to account before the barons of the kings eſcheker, and to haue like allowance and diſcharge vpon the ſame account by the acquitance of the ſaid treaſuror, as other biſhops and collectors of the ſaid tenths haue had or ſhall haue, the act made in the ſaid xxvii yéere of our ſaid ſouereigne lords reigne, to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the caſtle of Douer, caſtle wards, and other munitions thereabout.

Chap.48.

WHere the caſtle of Douer whereof the kings maieſtie is verie owner in the right of the imperiall crowne of this his realme, is not onelie a verie honorable, ſtrong and defenſible fortreſſe, ſet and ſtanding next vnto the ſea on the eaſt parts and frontiers of this his realme, but alſo is ſo neceſſarie a thing for the defenſe and ſafegard of the ſame, that it maie not in anie wiſe be lacked or forborne, therefore the king our ſouereigne lord hath hitherto to his great coſts and charges repared and ſuſteined the ſame, and alſo continuallie kéepeth and mainteineth therein a great number of ſoldiors there alwais kéeping watch & ward, furniſhed ſufficientlie with harneſſe, artillerie and other munitions of war for ſafegard of this realme toward, & for the continuall ſuſtentation of which ſaid caſtle & furniture of the ſame our ſaid ſouereigne lord & his moſt noble progenitors kings of this realme, haue had time out of mind manie ſundrie reuenues, & namelie rents commonlie called caſtle wards, due & to be paid by reaſon of the ſame caſtle, of, & for diuers other caſtles, manors, lordſhips, lands, tenements and hereditaments holden of the king and his ſaid progenitors, that is to ſaie, ſome of them holden of the conſtablerie of the ſame caſtle and others,holden ſeuerallie of the honors of Creucure, Hagenet, Fobert & other honors being members of the ſaid caſtle of Douer, which ſaid rents called caſtle wards,bin at this preſent time much decaied & diminiſhed by reaſons & cauſes vnder written, that is to ſaie,bicauſe that diuers of the manors, lands & tenements which were holden of the ſaid caſtle,be come to the poſſeſſion of our ſaid ſouereigne lord in eſtates of inheritance, & others haue bin giuen by his grace or his ſaid progenitors to diuers their ſubiects to be holden by other ſeruices,and diuers other be,& more héerafter ſhalbe in the poſſeſſion of the kings maieſtie by reaſon of wardſhip,primer ſeizon,purchaſe,exchange or otherwiſe,by gift of any eſtate of inheritance,wherby ſome of the ſaid rents called caſtle wards by the lawes of this realme, be & ſhall be vtterlie extincted for euer, & manie other of the ſame rents by long times ſhalbe ſuſpended and not due to be paid; by occaſion wherof the ſaid caſtle & the officers & the ſoldiors therof cannot be nor ſhalbe ſuſteined,as héertofore honorablie they haue bin,vnleſſe conuenable remedie therefore be prouided. In conſideration wherof,our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king is contented & pleaſed,that it be ordeined & enacted by authoritie of this parlement, that where the tenants and owners of the caſtles,manors lands & tenements which bin holden of the ſaid caſtle of Douer,& lie in manie ſhires of this relme, far diſtant from the ſame caſtle,bin bounden by their tenures therof to paie & yéeld at the ſame caſtle of Douer the ſaid rents called caſtle wards,at diuers & ſundrie daies of the yéere, to their great coſts & charges, and vpon great penalties & forfeitures commonlie called in the ſaid caſtle of Douer ſurſiſes, all and ſingular thoſe tenants which now hold or héerafter ſhall hold anie lands, tenements and hereditaments by the ſaid ſeruice,to paie the ſaid rents called caſtle wards, ſhall yéeld and paie the ſame rents from and after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming to the king our ſouereigne lord,his heirs and ſucceſſors at the kings court of the excheker, yéerlie in the feaſt of S. Simon and Iude, or within xv daies next after that feaſt, and not at the ſaid caſtle of Douer,nor to the conſtable or other officer or miniſter of the ſame caſtle.

Tenants.

Rents.

¶And be it enacted, that if anie tenant maketh default of paiment of ſuch rent contrarie to the forme of this act,then euerie tenant ſo making default of paiment, ſhall yéeld and paie to our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king his heires and ſucceſſors,for euerie ſuch his default,the double of his rent,that is to ſaie,twiſe his rent then being due to be paid without anie other ſurſiſe, penaltie or forfeiture for non paiment thereof. And that euerie of the ſaid tenants which hold anie of their lands, tenements or hereditaments by the ſeruice, to make , repare and build anie houſe or houſes within the ſaid caſtle, ſhall doo and performe the ſame according to their ſaid duties and tenures.

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that during all ſuch time as any lands,tenements or hereditaments holden of the ſaid caſtle of Douer by rent of caſtle ward,ſhall be in the hands or cuſtodie of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, or of anie of his heirs or ſucceſſors kings of this realme,by reaſon of wardſhip, primer ſeizon or otherwiſe, that by & for all ſuch time the ſame lands,tenements and hereditaments,and euerie tenant and owner thereof, and the heirs and ſucceſſors and aſſigns of euerie of them ſhall be diſcharged of the ſaid rent called caſtle ward, againſt the king and his ſaid heires and ſucceſſors for euer, without anie paiment thereof for anie ſuch time to be made or yéelden at anie time after the ſame lands, tenements or hereditaments ſhall be diueſted,ſued or had out or from the kings hands or poſſeſſion.

¶And bicauſe that the more readie and vndelaied paiments héereafter ſhalbe had and made to all officers,miniſters and ſoldiors of the ſaid caſtle of Douer for the time being, without anie defalcation, abridgment or reſtreint of any of their fées,ſtipends,ſalaries or wages in any wiſe to be made.Be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the conſtable of the ſaid caſtle of Douer and euerie of his ſucceſſors being conſtables of the ſame caſtle,ſhall haue as annexed,vnited & appropriated to the ſame office from henſeforth for euer an annuall or yéerlie rent of one hundred and thréeſcore pounds of lawfull monie, to be paid yéerlie to the ſame conſtable or his lawfull deputie or aſſigne in the citie of Canturburie, at the doors of the common hall there called the court hall of the kings reuenues of the augmentations of his crowne, yéerelie growing and comming within the countie of Kent by the hands of the kings generall receiuer for the time being,of the ſaid reuenues of that countie in the feaſts of S. Michaell the archangell, the Natiuitie of our Lord God,the Annuntiation of our ladie S. Marie, & the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt,or within thrée daies next inſuing euerie of the ſame feaſts by euen portions yéerlie to be paid. And be it further enacted, that if the kings ſaid generall receiuer for the time being, doo not fullie paie to the conſtable or to his lawfull deputie or aſſigne,the ſaid annuall rent of one hundred and thrée ſcore pounds,according to the tenor of this act before written,except therof to be reteined by the ſaid receiuer onlie eight penſe for the making of this acquitance of euerie of his paiments, then the ſame receiuer ſhall forfeit and loſe to the ſaid conſtable for the time being, for euerie ſuch default of paiment therof ſo to be made at anie time or place of paiment therof before limited,fiue pounds of lawfull monie,for which penaltie and all arrerages of the ſaid annuall rent,the ſaid conſtable ſhall haue his remedie by action of debt Scire facias to be grounded vpon this act,or any other lawfull remedie to be purſued againſt the ſaid receiuer for the time being in any competent court of the kings lawes,in which ſute none eſſoine,protection or wager of law ſhall lie or be allowed.

and places of great defenſe within the limits of the fiue ports and their members, or betweene the ſame in the ſhires of Kent & Suſſex, for the ſafegard and ſuretie of this his realme & ſubiects of the ſame. Our ſaid ſoueraigne lord willing the ſame new made caſtles, blockhouſes, bulworks and other defenſible houſes and places to be well, ſurelie and ſafelie kept, and fulfilled with ſuch and as manie officers, miniſters, ſoldiors, gunners and other perſons, as his maieſtie hath ordeined and eſtabliſhed, and héerafter ſhall ordeine and eſtabliſh, to be and remaine, at and in euerie or anie of them. And that euerie of the ſame perſons ſhall dailie and nightlie, and from time to time continuallie doo his office and dutie in and at the ſame, without anie extortion, oppreſſion or other iniurie, offenſe or miſbehauior by them or anie of them to be done or committed by ſea or by land, to or vpon anie whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, to or vpon any of their ſhips, botes, goods or chattels, hath ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the warden of the ſaid fiue ports, Fiue ports. and conſtable of the ſaid caſtle of Douer, which now is and commonlie héertofore hath béene one perſon, and euerie of his ſucceſſors, being warden of the ſaid ports, and his lieutenant for the time being, or either of them, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to ſurueie, view, and controll as often as by his diſcretion he ſhall thinke neceſſarie or expedient, all and ſingular Capteins. capteins, kéepers and other head officers of euerie of the ſaid new caſtles, blockhouſes, bulworks and other defenſible houſes and places, and all ſoldiors, gunners and miniſters, and perſons of anie of them, and all the artilleries, ſtores and munitions of war in anie of them being, and by his diſcretion as well ſhall examine euerie of the ſaid capteins, kéepers, officers, ſoldiors, gunners, miniſters and perſons by their oths vpon a booke or otherwiſe, as well of ſuch offenſes, crimes, miſorders, omiſſions and defaults as ſhall be thought by him neceſſarie to be inſearched, tried or knowen, as alſo of all exerciſes, waſtes, imbezelings, miſkéepings and miſuſing of the ſaid artilleries, ſtores and munitions, and ſhall command and inioine them and euerie of them by his diſcretion, to make reformation and redreſſe therein, as by his diſcretion ſhall be conſidered to ſtand with reaſon and equitie. And if the importancie or vrgencie of the cauſe or matter ſhall ſo require, the ſaid conſtable ſhall make relation and notification thereof to the kings maieſtie or to his honorable counſell.

And alſo be it enacted, that if anie of the ſaid capteins, kéepers, officers, ſoldiors, gunners, miniſters or other perſons of anie of the ſaid new caſtles, blockhouſes, bulworks or other defenſible houſes or places, in anie wiſe reſiſt, contemne, diſobeie, or otherwiſe offend againſt the ſaid warden of the ſaid fiue ports for the time being in anie of the premiſſes, then it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid warden to commit euerie ſuch offendor to ward into the ſaid caſtle of Douer, or elſe where in the ſaid ports or their members, there to remaine by the diſcretion of the ſaid warden. And if anie ſuch perſons ſo once puniſhed ſhall eftſoones offend in anie of the premiſſes againſt the ſaid warden, then euerie ſuch offendor ſhall therefore forfeit and looſe at the kings pleaſure his ſaid office, roome & ſeruice, and ſhall further be puniſhed at the pleaſure of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king.

Receiuer. Prouided alwaie and be it enacted, that the ſaid generall receiuer maie kéepe and reteine in his hands ſo much of the kings reuenues as ſhall amount for ſatiſfaction of the ſaid yeerelie rent to be paid as is aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo as well be diſcharged and allowed for the paiment thereof, as of and for ſuch coſts and expenſes as he ſhall ſuſteine by occaſion of the ſame, as by the diſcretion of the chancellor and miniſters of the ſaid court of augmentation ſhall be thought reaſonable vpon the account of the ſaid generall receiuer.

An act concerning the kings moſt gratious generall and free pardon.

Chap. 49. The kings moſt roiall maieſtie prudentlie conſidering that albeit his highneſſe of his moſt excellent pitie, benignitie, and mercie manifold times héertofore, mercifullie and liberallie hath granted his moſt frée and generall pardon to all and ſingular his ſubiects, by the which his maieſtie hath remitted and releaſed innumerable and ineſtimable ſubſtance and profits which he might haue lawfullie taken and had by the lawes and cuſtomes of this his realme, truſting by his often remiſſion, pardon and mercie miniſtred to his ſubiects, to allure offendors from vice to vertue, and that they would put their diligent deuoirs to amend and reforme their abuſes. Yet neuertheleſſe, his louing and obedient ſubiects ſithens his laſt moſt gratious and liberall pardons to them granted, haue incurred into innumerable penalties, loſſes, forfeitures and damages, whereof none or few of them are able to make full recompenſe or condigne ſatiſfaction to his highneſſe if his maieſtie ſhould procéed againſt them by due courſe of his lawes, truſting that now from henſefoorth they will eftſoones amend and beware the incurring of the foreſaid dangers and perils, ſéeing they haue had ſo manie admonitions and gentle warnings: and perceiuing alſo the great zeale and affection which his louing ſubiects beare vnto him, and his dignitie roiall, as by manie waies in this preſent parlement they haue declared and ſhewed. In conſideration whereof, and truſting as afore, the kings highneſſe to ſhew vnto his louing ſubiects that he doth can and will conſider when he is both kindlie and louinglie handled of them vpon his méere motion, and declare alſo his tender loue and affection which he beareth vnto his nobilitie and ſubiects, according to his accuſtomable goodneſſe, is contented and pleaſed at this time to extend his pitie, mercie & benignitie to all and ſingular his ſubiects of this his realme of England, Wales, the iſles of Jerneſie and Garneſie, Barwike and Calis, and the marches of the ſame, by waie of his frée pardon and remiſſion as héereafter followeth, loweth,rather coueting their amendments by gentle and mercifull means,than to be inriched by their euill deeds and offenſes.

And for that his ſaid free pardon to be had, taken, and inioied to and by them and euerie of them,by vertue of this preſent act,his grace is fullie and reſolutelie contented and pleaſed,that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie, that all and euerie of his ſaid ſubiects,as well ſpirituall as temporall of this his realme of England,Wales,the ſaid iſles of Ierneſeie and Gerneſeie,Barwike and Calais,and the marches of the ſame,the heirs,ſucceſſors,executors,and adminiſtrators of them and euerie of them,and all and ſingular bodies in anie maner of wiſe corporat,cities,boroughs,ſhires,ridings,hundreds,laths,rapes,wapentakes,towns,villages,and tithings,and euerie of them, and the ſucceſſor and ſucceſſors of euerie of them,ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent parlement acquited, pardoned, releaſed,and diſcharged againſt the kings highneſſe,his heirs,ſucceſſors,and executors, and euerie of them of all manner of hereſies, treaſons, felonies, robberies, offenſes, contempts, treſpaſſes, wrongs,deceipts,miſdemenors,forfeitures,penalties,and profits,ſums of monie,pains of death, pains corporall and pecuniarie, and generallie of all other things,cauſes, quarels, ſutes,iudgements,and executions in this preſent act hereafter not excepted nor forpriſed,which maie be or can be by his highneſſe in anie wiſe or by anie meane pardoned before and vnto the firſt daie of Iulie in the xxxii.yeare of his moſt gratious reigne,to euerie or anie of his ſaid ſubiects bodies corporat cities,boroughs,ſhires,ridings,hundreds,laths,rapes,wapentakes,towns,villages,and tithings, or anie of them.

Alſo the kings highneſſe is contented that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement,that the ſaid free pardon ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law, to euerie of his ſaid ſubiects,bodies corporat,and other before rehearſed,and to euerie of them by the ſaid generall words before rehearſed,in and againſt all things which be not hereafter in this preſent act excepted,as the ſame pardon ſhould haue beene,if all offenſes,contempts,forfeitures,cauſes,matters, ſutes, quarels,iudgements,executions,penalties,and all other things not hereafter excepted,had beene particularlie,ſingularlie,ſpeciallie and plainlie named,rehearſed and ſpecified, and alſo pardoned by proper and expreſſe words and names in their kinds,natures,and qualities, by words and terms thereunto requiſit to haue bin put in and expreſſed in this preſent act of free pardon. And that his ſaid ſubiects nor anie of them,nor the heirs,executors or adminiſtrators of anie of them, nor anie of the ſaid bodies corporat,and others before named,or anie of them,be nor ſhall be ſued, vexed or inquieted in their bodies,goods,lands,or chattels,for anie maner matter, cauſe, contempt, miſdemenor,forfeiture,treſpaſſe,offenſe,or anie thing ſuffered, doone or committed before the ſaid firſt daie of Iulie,againſt his highneſſe,his crowne,dignitie,prerogatiue,law, or ſtatutes, but onelie for ſuch matter,cauſes,and offenſes as be plainlie rehearſed in the exceptions in this preſent act hereafter mentioned,and for none other,anie ſtatute or ſtatutes,laws,cuſtoms, vſes,or preſident heretofore had,made,or vſed to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Alſo the kings highneſſe of his bounteous liberalitie by authoritie of this preſent parlement, granteth and freelie giueth to euerie of his ſaid ſubiects,and to euerie of the ſaid bodies corporat, and other before rehearſed and to euerie of them,all ſuch goods,chattels,debts,fines,iſſues,profits, amerciaments,forfeitures,and ſums of monie by anie of them forfeited,which to his highneſſe doo or ſhould belong or apperteine, by reaſon of anie offenſe,contempt,treſpaſſe,miſdemenor,matter, cauſe or quarell ſuffered,doone or committed by them or anie of them, before the ſaid firſt daie of Iulie,which be not hereafter plainlie forepriſed and excepted in this preſent act, and all and euerie the kings ſaid ſubiects,and all and ſingular bodies corporat,and other before reherſed, may by him or them ſelfe,or his or their deputie or deputies,or by his or their atturneie or atturnies according to the lawes of this realme,plead and miniſter this preſent act of free pardon for his or their diſcharge of and for euerie thing that is by vertue of this preſent act pardoned,diſcharged, giuen, or granted,without anie fee or other thing in anie wiſe paieng to anie perſon or perſons, for writing or entree of the iudgement,or other cauſe concerning ſuch plee,writing or entree,but onelie twelue penſe to be paid to the officer or clerke,that ſhall enter the plee,matter or iudgment for the parties diſcharge in that behalfe,anie ſtatute or vſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And furthermore the kings highneſſe is contented and pleaſed,that it be enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement,that his ſaid free pardon by the generall words before rehearſed, ſhall be reputed,deemed,adiudged, allowed and taken in all maner courts of his,and elſwhere, as well in the words and clauſes of the exceptions and forepriſes ſpecified in this preſent act, as in all and ſingular other clauſes,words,and ſentences,mentioned and rehearſed in the ſaid free pardon, moſt beneficiallie and auaileablie to all and ſingular his ſaid ſubiects bodies corporat and others before rehearſed,and to euerie of them, and moſt ſtronglie inbar and diſcharge againſt his highneſſe,his heirs,ſucceſſors,and executors,in euerie thing, without anie obſtacle, ambiguitie, challenge,or other delaie,whatſoeuer it ſhalbe,to be made,pleaded,obiected,or alleaged by the king our ſoueraigne lord,his heirs,ſucceſſors,or executors,or by his or any of their generall atturnie,or atturnies,or by anie perſon or perſons for his highneſſe,or any of his heirs ſucceſſors or executors.

And furthermore it is enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord and by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie officer or clerke of anie of his highneſſe courts, commonlie called the kings bench,chancerie, and common place, or of his excheker, or anie other officer or clerke of anie other of his courts within this realme, at anie time after the firſt daie of Auguſt next comming,which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God 1540,make out,or write out anie maner writs or other proceſſes,or anie extreats,ſummons,or other precepts,whereby anie of the ſaid ſubiects,or anie of the ſaid bodies corporat or other before rehearſed,or anie of them,ſhall be in anie wiſe arreſted,attached,diſtrained,ſummoned or otherwiſe vexed, inquieted or greeued in his or their bodies,lands,tenements,goods,or chattels,or in anie of them for or becauſe of any maner thing pardoned or diſcharged by vertue of this act of free pardon,he ſo offending and thereof lawfullie condemned,ſhall yeeld and paie for recompenſe thereof to the partie ſo greeued or offended, triple damages,accounted as parcels of theſe damages,all coſts of the ſute, and neuertheleſſe all and ſingular ſuch writs,proceſſe,extreats,and precepts ſo to be made,for or vpon anie maner thing pardoned or diſcharged by this preſent act of free pardon ſhall be vtterlie void and of none effect.

Excepted alwaies and forepriſed out of this generall and free pardon,all and all maner of hereſies and erronious opinions touching or concerning plainlie directlie and onelie, the moſt holie and bleſſed ſacrament of the altar,and all maner ſuch high treaſons doone,and committed by anie perſon or perſons, by anie ouert deed, writing or printing onelie againſt the kings moſt roiall perſon,and all ſutes,puniſhments,executions,forfeitures & penalties,for or by reaſon or occaſion of anie of them,all pretenſed and voluntarie murders, all robberies of churches, all raſing of records,and all outlagaries,promulged or had vpon or againſt anie perſon or perſons,of and for any of the cauſes abouеſaid,excepted.

And alſo except all titles and actions of Quare impedit,all rauiſhments and withholdings of the kings wards,wards lands at anie time growne to the kings hands,and not yet diſcharged, all waſts of the kings woods,all concelements of cuſtoms and ſubſidies.all incloſures and decaies of houſes of huſbandrie made,doone,committed or permitted,contrarie to the forme and effect of any ſtatute or ſtatutes heretofore made,and alſo all iſſues,profits,amerciaments, fines, and other penalties which now be due,or after ſhall be due, grow or be forfeited for anie ſuch incloſure or decaies.And all intruſions had,made or doone ſith the firſt date of March laſt paſſed, and all and ſingular debts other than debts vpon recognizances,being alredie forfeited for ſuretie of peace, good abearing,or for non appearance at anie date or place.

And excepted and forepriſed out of this pardon all accounts and all actions, ſutes and impetitions for the ſame,and all arrerages of accounts and debts due for the ſame, and all homages and releefs,rents ſeruices, and arrerages of the ſame, not doone or not paid, and all debts which were due to the moſt noble king of famous memorie king Henrie the ſeuenth, or to anie perſon or perſons to his vſe by anie condemnation, recognizance, obligation, or otherwiſe, and all and ſingular other forfeitures being due to our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, by anie penall ſtatute or ſtatutes,which be conuerted into the nature of debt by iudgement, or by agreement of the offendor, and all forfeitures and other penalties and profits growne or due by reaſon of anie offenſe or act committed or doone contrarie to anie ſtatute or ſtatutes, or contrarie to the common law whereof anie ſeizure is made, or anie information is giuen in the kings exchequer, or anie ſute there commenſed, or whereof the kings highneſſe by his bill ſigned or otherwiſe heretofore hath made anie gift or aſſignment to anie of his ſeruants. And alſo excepted all iſſues, forfeited fines,amerciaments,aſſeſſed,taxed,ſet,extreated or iudged ſeuerallie or particularlie, extending to the ſumme of one hundred ſhillings or aboue.And that all and ſingular other fines,aſwell fines Pro licentia concordandi, as other and all other iſſues and amerciaments, as well reall as other, which ſeuerallie or particularlie extend not to the ſame ſum of one hundred ſhillings,whether they be totted or not totted, taken to the charge of the ſhiriffe or not taken to his charge, extreated, or not extreated,whether they be turned into debt or not into debt, and not being leuied nor receiued by anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs,bailiffe,miniſters, or other officers, ſhall be fullie, cleerelie and plainlie pardoned and diſcharged againſt the king our ſoueraigne lord,his heirs and ſucceſſors for euer,by this preſent act of free pardon.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that in caſe it be obiected to or againſt anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs,or other accountants in the kings court of exchequer,or in anie other his courts, that anie ſhiriffe or ſhirifs or other officers accountant, hath receiued or taken anie ſuch fines, iſſues,and amerciaments by this preſent act pardoned and acquited, that then euerie ſuch ſhiriffe and ſhirifs and other accountants,ſhall be diſcharged,releaſed,pardoned and acquited thereof by his or their oth without anie further triall in that behalfe.

Prouided alwaie that this preſent act of free pardon,nor anie thing therein conteined, in anie wiſe extend to diſcharge,remit or acquit anie perſon or perſons for anie ſuch iſſues,fines, or amerciaments of C. s. or vnder, as anie ſhiriffe heretofore hath accounted before the barons of the kings exchequer or elſe where.and paid the ſame iſſues,fines and amerciaments, vpon his or their ſaid account determined to the kings vſe,and haue his or their Quietus for the ſame.

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement,that all and euerie perſon and perſons which haue tended or ought to ſue liuerie out of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the kings hands,of anie manors,lands,tenements & hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, ſhall ſue his or their liuerie and liueries out of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the kings hands of his or their manors, lands,tenements,and hereditaments,anie article,act or acts,thing or things in this preſent act of generall and free pardon compriſed and ſpecified to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alwaie that this act of generall and free pardon or anie thing therein conteined, extend not to Thomas Cromwell earle of Eſſex, Margaret counteſſe of Saliſburie, Arthur lord Liſle, Honor ladie Liſle his wife, Leonard lord Graie, Walter lord Hungerford, Richard biſhop of Chicheſter, Edward Courtneie, ſonne to the late marques of Exceſter, Henrie Poole ſonne to the lord Mountacue, Nicholas Wilſon preeſt, William Bird vicar of Bradford, Giles Heron, Margaret Tirrell wife of William Tirrell, Richard Fetherſton, Thomas Abell, Edward Powell preeſt, Lawrence Cooke late prior of Dancaſter, William Horne late laie brother of Carthuſe, Chriſtofer Ioie, Clement Philpot, Iohn Woollar, Edward Corbet now priſoner, Iohn Browne his ſeruant, Edmund Brindholme preeſt, Thomas Tichet, William Steuins, William Hawkins late of Calis, Robert Barns preeſt, Thomas Garrard preeſt parſon of Honie lane, William Ierome preeſt, Richard Mancheſter preeſt, William Moore harper, Darbie Ginning, Edmund Serton, Charls Carow, Anthonie Baugegood, Adam Damplip, Henrie Goderike parſon of Hothfeeld in Kent, nor to anie perſon nor perſons which heretofore haue beene attainted by authoritie of parlement, or by iudgement at the common law, of anie maner of high treaſon. And alſo except and forepriſed all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons as haue beene heretofore excepted and forepriſed by name or names in anie generall pardon, or in anie other pardon giuen or granted by our ſaid ſoucreigne lord the king, and all ſuch perſon and perſons which haue heretofore fled for their offenſes of treaſon out of this realme of England and other the kings dominions of the ſame, and alſo excepted out of this free pardon Iohn Ginden.

¶ Prouided alwaie that all maner of treaſons committed or doone by anie perſon or perſons in the parties beyond the ſea, or in anie other place out of the kings dominions, be and ſhall be by authoritie aforeſaid excepted and forepriſed out of this generall and free pardon. And alſo except out of the ſaid pardons theſe hereſies and erronious opinions hereafter inſuing, that is to ſaie, That infants ought not to be baptized, and if they be baptized that they ought to be rebaptized when they come to lawfull age, That it is not lawfull for a chriſtian man to beare office or rule in the commonwelth, That no mans lawes ought to be obeied, That it is not lawfull for a chriſtian man to take an oth before anie iudge, That Chriſt tooke no bodilie ſubſtance of our bleſſed ladie, That ſinners after baptiſme cannot be reſtored by repentance, That euerie maner of death with the time and houre thereof is ſo certeinlie preſcribed, appointed and determined to euerie man of God, that neither anie prince by his ſword can alter it, ne anie man by his owne wilfulneſſe preuent or change it, That all things be common and nothing ſeuerall. Except alſo and forpriſed out of this generall pardon Gregorie Buttolph preeſt and Richard Farmour of Eſton in the countie of Northhampton, and Robert Iewet late keeper of Newgate.

An act concerning counterfeit letters or priuie tokens to receiue monie or goods in other mens names.

The firſt chapter.

FOr as much as manie light and euill diſpoſed perſons not minding to get their liuings by truth, according to the lawes of this realme, but compaſſing and deuiſing dailie how they maie vnlawfullie obteine and get into their hands and poſſeſſions, goods, chattels and iewels of other perſons for the mainteinance of their vnthriftie liuing. And alſo knowing that if they come to anie of the ſame goods, chattels and iewels by ſtealth, that then they being thereof lawfullie conuict, according to the lawes of this relme, ſhall die therefore, haue now of late falſlie and deceitfullie contriued, deuiſed and imagined priuie tokens and counterfeit letters in other mens names, vnto diuers perſons their ſpeciall freends and acquaintances, for the obteining of monie, goods, chattels, and iewels of the ſame perſons their freends and acquaintances, by colour thereof, the ſaid light and euill diſpoſed perſons haue deceitfullie and vnlawfullie obteined and gotten great ſubſtance of monie, goods, chattels, and iewels into their hands and poſſeſſions, contrarie to right and conſcience.

For reformation thereof, be it ordeined and enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons, of what eſtate or degree ſoeuer he or they be, at anie time after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming, falſlie and deceitfullie obteine or get into his or their hands or poſſeſſion anie monie, goods, chattels, iewels, or other things of anie other perſon or perſons, by colour and means of anie ſuch falſe token or counterfeit letter made in anie other mans name as is aforeſaid, that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending and being thereof lawfullie conuict by witneſſes, taken before the lord chancellor of England for the time being, or by examination of witneſſes or confeſſion taken in the ſtarchamber at Weſtminſter before the kings moſt

Iuſtices of peace

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that as well the iuſtices of aſſiſe for the time being,as alſo two iuſtices of peace in euerie countie,whereof one to be of the Quorum, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to call and conuent by proceſſe or otherwiſe,to the ſaid aſſiſes or generall ſeſſions,anie perſon or perſons being ſuſpected of any the offenſes aforeſaid, and to commit him or them to ward, or let him or them to baile till the next aſſiſes or generall ſeſſions, there to be examined and further to be ordred by their diſcretions as is aboueſaid.

Prouided alwaies and be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that iuſtices of the peace within euerie citie,borough,towne and franchiſes within this realme or other the kings dominions,ſhall haue like iuriſdiction power and authoritie at their generall ſeſſions,and otherwiſe to doo and execute all and euerie thing and things in all points as other iuſtices of the aſſiſes in their circuits,or iuſtices of peace in the counties by vertue of this act be limited and appointed to doo and execute for the puniſhment and correction of like offendors,as by this aforeſaid act is ſpecified and declared.Sauing to the partie gréeued by ſuch deceit ſuch remedie by waie of action or otherwiſe of and for the ſame monie, goods,chattels,iewels,or other things ſo obteined, as he might haue had if this act had neuer béene had ne made,anie thing in the ſame conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Calis

¶ Prouided alwaies and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that the kings highneſſe counſell of his towne of Calis,or thrée of them for the time being,ſhall haue ſuch and like authoritie for the examination,bailment and puniſhment of ſuch offendor or offendors, and for ſuch offenſes hereafter to be committed and doone within the towne and marches of Calis and countie of Guiſnes,as the forſaid iuſtices of aſſiſe,or iuſtices of peace haue by force of this act within their iuriſdictions and authorities.

An act concerning buieng of fiſh vpon the ſea.

Chap.2.

WHere manie and diuers towns and ports by the ſea ſide,in the counties of Kent and Suſſex, as well of the fiue ports and members of the ſame as other, haue in times paſt béene in great wealth and proſperitie, well builded and inhabited with a great multitude of people, by reaſon of vſing and exerciſing the craft and feat of fiſhing, whereby the ſaid ports and towns were able to make among themſelues a great number of botes and ſhips, and alſo manie good mariners to the ſaid botes belonging,the which ſaid mariners were not onlie put to the ſaid diligent labour and exerciſe of fiſhing, but alſo they were put in dailie experience and knowledge of the coſtes of the ſea,as well within this realme as in other parties beyond the ſea, by the which practiſe it was not onlie great ſtrength to this realme, by reaſon of bringing vp and increaſing of mariners whenſoeuer the kings grace had néed of them,but alſo a great welth to the realme and aboundance of ſuch,wherby our ſouereigne lord the king,the lords, gentlemen and commons were alwaies well ſerued of fiſh in market towns of a reaſonable price, and alſo by reaſon of the ſame fiſhing manie men were made & grew rich,and manie poore men & women had thereby their conuenient liuing,to the ſtrength increaſing & wealth of this realme. And where manie and diuers of the ſaid fiſhermen,for their ſingular lucre & aduantage doo leaue the ſaid craft of fiſhing, and be confederat with Picards,Flemings,Normans & Frenchmen, and ſomtime ſaile ouer into the coſts of Picardie and Flanders,and ſometime doo méet the ſaid Picards and Flemings halfe the ſea ouer,& there for redie monie of the coine of this realme,doo merchant & buie the ſaid French fiſh of the ſame ſtrangers amounting to the ſum yearelie of twentie thouſand marks, and aboue, and ſo come and make their ſales in diuers coſtes and créeks within this realme at their pleaſure, where if they did not ſo,the ſame Picards & Flemings would bring the ſame fiſh ouer themſelues, and ſell it in this realme to the kings ſubiects,much better cheape and for leſſe monie, if the ſame botes and people of this realme would not regrate the ſaid fiſh, the which is to the great impoueriſhing of the kings people, conueieng and miniſhing of the kings coine out of this realme,contrarie to the lawes and ſtatutes,to the great diminution of the kings nauie,fiſherbotes and mariners,and alſo to the deſtruction,deſolation & vtter vndooing of ſuch ports & towns by the ſea ſide, and depopulation of the people of this realme,& the debilitie & weakeneſſe therof.In conſideration wherof,be it enacted,ordeined & eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no maner of perſon,Engliſh,denizen nor ſtranger,now dwelling,or they which at anie time hereafter ſhall dwell or inhabit within anie of the fiue ports,créeks,lims,or members of the ſame, or within anie other place within this realme, ſhall from the firſt daie of Auguſt now next comming, buie anie freſh fiſh of anie ſtranger in the ſaid parties of Flanders,Zeland, Picardie or France,or vpon the ſea betwéene ſhore & ſhore, or in anie other place beyond the ſea, to put to ſale within this realme,to anie perſon or perſons, vpon paine of euerie perſon ſo dooing at anie time, to forfeit for euerie time ſo dooing x. li. whereof the one halfe to be to our ſouereigne lord the king,

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euerie fiſher eſtranger, to come and reſort into euerie hauen, port, créeke or other place within this relme with their fiſh, and the ſame fiſh to be put to ſale without let or impediment of anie perſon or perſons, at all times and as oft as ſhall pleaſe them. An act for folding of clothes in Northwales.

Chap 3.

WHere a certeine kind and ſort of Welſh clothes called whites, ruſſets and kenets, made and wrought in Northwales, and Orceſter hundred adioining to Northwales, of long time haue béene and be ſo craftilie and hard rolled togither, that the buier thereof can not perceiue nor diſcerne the vntrue making and bredth thereof, to the great hurt, deceipt and inpoueriſhing of the kings true and louing ſubiects. For remedie whereof be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lord, his lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that all and euerie the ſaid clothes, from and after the feaſt of the Natiuitie of ſaint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, that ſhalbe brought to anie common markets or faires to be vttered and ſold, ſhall be folded either in pleights or cuttell, as the clothes of all other countries of this realme commonlie haue béene vſed and be vſed, to the intent that the buiers thereof maie plainlie ſée and perceiue the bredth and goodnes of ſuch cloth and clothes that he ſhall buie. And that euerie péece of the ſaid clothes, which after the ſaid feaſt ſhalbe brought to anie market or faire to be vttered and ſold, contrarie to the forme abouesaid, ſhall be forfeited: that is to ſaie, the moitie or one halfe thereof to the vſe of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other moitie therof to anie of the kings ſubiects which will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection nor eſſoine, or anie other dilatorie plée admitted or allowed.

An act concerning pewterers.

WHere at the parlement begun at London the 3 daie of Nouember, in the 21 yéere of the reigne of the king our ſoueraigne lord, and from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter and there holden, and from that time continued by diuers prorogations vnto the 15 daie of Ianuarie in the 25 yere of his moſt noble reigne: it was ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the kings maieſtie, his lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in the ſaid parlement then aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon nor perſons from that time then inhabiting, or which after that time ſhould inhabit within this realme, ſhould buie, or otherwiſe take by exchange for other wares, anie maner wares made or héerafter to be made out of this realme, of tin or mixt with tin, as platters, diſhes, ſaucers, pots, baſens, ewers, flagons, goblets, ſalts, ſaltſellers, ſpoons, or anie other thing made of tin or pewter, as aforeſaid, whatſoeuer it were, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame wares in whoſe hands ſoeuer it might be found or taken, & alſo lawfull monie currant in this realme to the full value thereof, the one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to be to the vſe of the kings highnes, and the other halfe to the vſe of the finders of the ſame: and further it was enacted, that it ſhould be lawfull to the maiſter & wardens of the pewterers, aſwell within the citie of London, as within euerie other citie, borough or towne within this realme, where ſuch wardens were, & where no ſuch wardens were, to the head officer or gouernor, head officers or gouernors of the ſame citie, borough or towne for the time being, to appoint diuers perſons, moſt expert in knowledge of the ſame, to make ſearch & ſeizure, & to take into their hands & poſſeſſion all ſuch wares as thereafter ſhould be brought contrarie to yͤ true intent & effect of the ſaid act, in whoſe ſoeuer hands or poſſeſſions anie ſuch ſhould be found: & it was alſo enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that no perſon nor perſons occupieng yͤ ſaid craft or occupation of pewterers within this relme, ſhould ſet on worke or reteine in his or their ſeruice any perſon or perſons to be his or their prentiſe or iorniman ſtranger borne out of this realme, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch prentiſe & iorniman x.li. ſterling:

and that no ſtranger borne out of this realme ſhould occupie, exerciſe or vſe from the feaſt of Pentecoſt then next comming, the ſaid craft of pewterers, ne worke anie maner of veſſels or other ware aforeſaid, to be made of tin & pewter within anie place or places of this realme, vpon paine of forfeiture of x.li. ſterling, and alſo vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame pewter or tin ſo wrought in whoſe hands ſoeuer it ſhould be found or taken: and it was further enacted by the ſaid authoritie, that no perſon nor perſons being borne within this relme, then occupieng or exerciſing the ſaid craft of pewterers, ſhould from thenſeforth reſort into anie ſtrange regions or countries, there to vſe, teach or exerciſe the ſaid craft of pewterers, vpon paine to loſe the priuilege and benefit of an Engliſhman. And if in caſe anie of the kings ſubiects at that time being dwelling in anie ſtrange countrie or region, & there occupieng the ſaid craft of pewterers, did not repaire into this realme within thrée moneths next after requeſt & warning to him to be giuen by writing ſealed with the common ſeale of the wardens of the ſaid craft within the ſaid citie of London, & here in this relme continuallie from thenſeforth dwell & inhabit, that then and from henſeforth he ſhould be reputed and taken as no Engliſhman, but ſhould ſtand & be from henſeforth out of the kings protection: & it was then futher enacted, that where ſundrie euill diſpoſed perſons, which commonlie were called haukers, by authoritie of the kings letters patents or placard, did not onelie go about from place to place within this relme, vſing buieng & ſelling of braſſe & pewter, and by colour & pretenſe of the ſame licences or placards, did not onelie vſe vnlawfull & deceiuable weights and beams, but alſo did vſe to ſell both braſſe & pewter which was not good, nor truelie or lawfullie mixt or wrought, to the great deceipt of the kings true léege people, contrarie to the forme & effect of a good and laudable act & ſtatute made in the 4 yéere of the kings ſaid moſt noble reigne, that all ſuch licences and placards afore that time, had, made or granted to anie ſuch perſon or perſons, contrarie to the true meaning, forme & effect of the ſaid eſtatute, ſhould be from thenſeforth by the authoritie of the ſaid parlement, cléerelie void & of none effect. And where as in the ſaid act of parlement concerning the ſaid craft of pewterers and braſiers made in the ſaid 4 yéere, for diuers cauſes and conſiderations in the ſame act conteined, amongſt other things it was expreſſed, that no perſon nor perſons vſing the ſaid craft of pewterers or braſiers, ſhould from henſeforth ſell or change anie pewter or braſſe new or old, at anie place or places within this realme, but onelie in open faires or markets, or in their owne dwelling houſes, but if they were deſired by the buiers of ſuch wares, vpon paine of forfeiture for euerie ſuch default ten pounds. And ſo then the ſame forfeiture was to the onelie vſe of the kings highnes, & the partie ſearching or finding the ſame, was not intituled to haue anie benefit thereby: it was not knowne that anie perſon or perſons had taken anie pains to inſearch or make anie inquirie thereof, by reaſon whereof diuers and manie euill diſpoſed perſons, then vſing buieng and ſelling as well of braſſe as pewter, and not regarding the ſaid good act nor the ſaid penaltie, went dailie about from village to village, towne to towne, and from houſe to houſe, to ſell ſuch pewter and braſſe which was not good, and alſo vſed deceiuable weight and beams, as they did before the making of the ſaid act, to the great hurt and deceipt of the kings true léege people & ſubiects. Wherefore it was enacted by the authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that as well the moitie of the ſaid forfeiture of ten pounds limited in the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid 4 yéere, as alſo the moitie of all other forfeitures and penalties expreſſed and ſpecified in the ſaid acts and euerie of them, ſhould be to the vſe of the kings highnes, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie of the ſame forfeitures and penalties and euerie of them, to the vſe of him or them that would ſeize, find or preſent the ſame forfeitures or anie of them, or that would ſue for the ſame in anie competent court or courts within this realme, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, wherein the defendant ſhould in no wiſe be admitted to wage his law, or anie protection or eſſoine to anie perſon or perſons, which ſhould be impeached to haue offended contrarie to the forme and effect of this eſtatute, ſhould be allowable, as in the ſaid act more plainlie appeereth, which act was appointed to indure onelie to the end of the next parlement then next following: and which act was after renewed in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the 28 yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, to indure vntill the end of the next parlement then next following: & which act was alſo renewed at the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the 31 & 32 yéers of our ſaid ſouereigne lords reigne, to indure vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement then next inſuing.

Praien therfore in this preſent parlement our ſaid ſouereigne lords true and obedient ſubiects the pewterers of this his ſaid realme, & other the true commons of the ſame, becauſe the ſame act is beneficiall & neceſſarie for the commonwelth of this realme, that it maie be enacted by the king our ſaid ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, for as much as the ſame act and euerie thing therin conteined is good & beneficiall to the commonwelth of this realme, that all and euerie the ſaid acts and ſtatutes, & all and euerie article, ſentence & clauſe compriſed in the ſame, maie from henſeforth ſtand & abide in as full ſtrength and effect for euermore from henſeforth to indure, according to the purport, tenor and effect of the ſame act and acts, as though the ſaid articles, ſentences and clauſes were ſpeciallie limited, recited or declared in this preſent act. And that no perſon ne perſons from henſeforth buie or take by exchange, or otherwiſe take into or within this realme, to the intent to ſell anie ſuch things or wares aboue rehearſed, made or to be made out of this realme, vpon pains of like forfetures and penalties, as are and were expreſſed in the ſaid ſeuerall acts, the ſame penalties and forfeitures to be leuied, as is afore expreſſed.

Continuation.

¶And that it maie be further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons doo vnlawfullie withſtand, interrupt, diſturbe or let the maiſter & wardens, or their deputie of the ſaid craft of pewterers for the time being, or the head officer or gouernor, head officers or gouernors of cities, towns & boroughs within this realme, wherin no ſuch maiſter and wardens are or ſhalbe, or anie of them in ſearching, ſeizing & taking into their hands & poſſeſſions ſuch wares as ſhall happen to be bought or brought into this relme, contrarie to the purport and effect of the ſaid eſtatute, made in the ſaid 25 yéere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, that then euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending, in letting, diſturbing or withſtanding the ſaid ſeizure or taking of ſuch wares as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie time ſo dooing the ſum of v.li.ſterling: the one halfe wherof ſhalbe to the kings vſe, and the other halfe to him or them that will or ſhall ſue for the ſame by action of debt, writ, bill, plaint or information in anie the kings courts of record: in which action or ſute, no protection, priuilege nor wager of law ſhall be allowed nor admitted.

An act concerning keeping of great horſſes.

WHere in a parlement begun & holden at Weſtminſter the 28 daie of Aprill, in the 31 yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord, and from that daie continued & prorogued by diuers prorogations to the 11 daie of Maie, in the 32 yéere of the reigne of our ſaid moſt dread ſouereigne lord, and then finiſhed and ended, it was ordeined and enacted in the ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement holden in the ſaid 32 yéere of the king amongſt other things, that the nobles and other ſubiects of this realme hauing parks, ſhould kéepe mares, and find ſtallands for bréed and increaſe of horſſes for defenſe of this realme, after ſuch rate and faſhion, as by the ſaid act is more plainelie expreſſed. Sithens the making whereof there is begun a good number of bréed of horſſes, which by continuance is like in ſhort time much to increaſe for the ſure defenſe of this realme, if prouiſion were made for the kéeping and ſuſtentation of ſuch horſſes within this realme, and in other the kings dominions, after they be bred and come to age to doo ſeruice. And for as much as horſſes able for the wars, be conuenient and neceſſarie to be kept & mainteined by the nobles and other ſubiects of this realme, hauing anie dignitie, eſtate, poſſeſſions, or other great ſubſtance for the maintenance of the ſame: it maie therefore pleaſe the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, to ordeine and enact by authoritie of the ſame, that euerie archbiſhop and duke of this realme, from and after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, which ſhall be in the yéere of our Lord God a thouſand fiue hundred fortie foure, ſhall haue, find and kéepe, ſuſteine and mainteine of their owne proper horſſes, & at their proper coſts & expenſes 7 ſtoned trotting horſſes for the ſaddle, euery horſſe of the ſame to be in age of thrée yéeres and vpwards, in height fourtéene handfuls, reckoning and accounting to euerie handfull foure inches of the ſtandard, to be meaſured from the nether part of the haire of the hough, vnto the vpper part of the widerſons, that is to ſaie, the vpper part of the ſhoulders: vpon paine that euerie archbiſhop and duke, lacking the number of the ſaid horſſes to them aboue limited, after the ſaid feaſt by the ſpace of thrée moneths, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euerie horſſe ſo lacking, as often as they or anie of them ſhall ſo lacke them by the ſaid ſpace of thrée moneths, twentie pounds: the one moitie therof to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other moitie to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, originall writ or information in anie of the kings courts, in which ſutes the defendants ſhall not wage their law, nor anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be admitted or allowed. And that euerie marques and earle of this realme, and alſo euerie biſhop of this realme, the yéerelie value of whoſe biſhoprike is of the yéerelie value of a thouſand pounds or aboue, ſhall after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, haue, find, kéepe, ſuſteine and mainteine of their proper horſſes, & at their proper charges and expenſes fiue ſtoned trotting horſſes for the ſaddle, of the age and height aforeſaid, vpon the paine aboue ſpecified, to be loſt and recouered to the vſe and in ſuch forme as is afore remembred. And that euerie other biſhop of this realme, whoſe biſhoprike is of the yeerlie value of a thouſand marks or aboue: and euerie vicount & baron hauing lands, tenements, fées, annuities, or offices for terme of his life, to the cléere yéerelie value of a thouſand marks or aboue, vpon like paine, as is aforeſaid, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michaell, haue, find, kéepe, ſuſteine and mainteine thrée ſtoned trotting horſſes for the ſaddle, of the age and height afore mentioned, vpon the paine aboue ſpecified, to be loſt, forfeit and recouered in maner and forme as is aforeſaid. And that euerie other biſhop, vicount, & baron of this realme not afore mentioned: and alſo euerie ſpirituall perſon, hauing benefices or promotions to the yéerelie value of 500 marks: and euerie temporall perſon, hauing lands, tenements, offices, fées or annuities, for terme of his life, in his owne right or his wiues, to the yéerelie value of ſix hundred marks, after the ſaid feaſt of ſaint Michaell, ſhall haue, find, kéepe, ſuſteine and mainteine two ſtoned trotting horſſes for the ſaddle, in maner and forme and vpon the paine afore rehearſed: and that euerie other ſpirituall perſon, being vnder the degrée of a biſhop, hauing benefices or promotions to the cléere yéerelie value of a hundred pounds or aboue, and not to the yéerelie value of fiue hundred marks: and all & euerie other perſon temporall not afore mentioned, whoſe wife after the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next herafter mentioned in this act, ſhall weare anie gowne of ſilke, or whoſe wife ſhall weare anie French hood or bonet of veluet, with anie habiliment paſte, or edge of gold, perle or ſtone, or any chaine of gold about their necks or in their partlets, or in any apparell of their bodie, ſhall after the feaſt of S. Certificats

¶And for the better obſeruation of this act , be it further ordeined by authoritie aforeſaid,that euerie ſhiriffe in anie ſhire of this relme,ſhall doo his diligence & good indeuor to ſearch & know by vertue of his office, all defaults doone or committed by anie perſon or perſons, in lacking of horſſes contrarie to this act, as ſhall happen within the ſhire where he is ſhiriffe, and ſhall once in the yéere,that is to ſaie in the terme of ſaint Michaell,certifie the ſaid defaults, if anie be,in the kings excheker, by writing vnder his ſeale, to the intent that proceſſe maie be made againſt the offendors accordinglie. And that euerie ſuch certificats of the ſhiriffe, ſhall be of as good force and effect againſt the offendors of this act, as anie information thereof in the ſaid excheker.And in caſe anie ſhalbe conuict vpon anie ſuch certificats by confeſſion or triall,according to the courſe of the law, then the ſhiriffe making ſuch certificats,ſhall haue one moitie of the forfeiture, and the kings maieſtie the other moitie thereof.

One yeere

¶Prouided alwaies, that no perſon ſhall be impeached, moleſted or troubled for anie offenſe doone contrarie to this act,by bill,action,information,preſentment or certificats of the ſhiriffe,vnleſſe that ſuch bill,action,information, preſentment or certificats be made or had within one yéere next after the offenſe doone contrarie to this act : anie thing in this act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Sons of dukes,&c.

¶Prouided alwaies,that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to anie ſons & heirs apparant of anie duke,marques,earle,vicount or baron, nor to the ſons or heirs apparant of anie other perſon,hauing lands,tenements or hereditaments to the yéerelie value of 600 marks or aboue,to bind or compell anie ſuch heirs apparant,to find or keepe anie horſſes by vertue of this act in the life of their fathers, except ſuch ſons & heirs apparant haue lands, tenements, annuities, fées,or offices,to the yéerelie value of 500 marks,but that euerie ſuch ſons and heirs apparant,except before excepted,maie doo as they did or might doo afore the making of this act : anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

500. marks land

¶Prouided alwaies,that if anie ſuch ſonne and heire haue lands, tenements, hereditaments, fées,offices or annuities for terme of life in his owne right,or in the right of his wife, to the cleere yéerelie value of 500 marks,that then ſuch ſons and heirs hauing ſuch lands,tenements,hereditaments,fées,offices or annuities,to the cleere yéerlie value of 500 marks,as is aforſaid,ſhall find, keepe,ſuſteine & mainteine one trotting horſſe for the ſaddle,in forme aforeſaid, vpon the paine of xx.li. to be loſt and forfeit for euerie thrée moneths that anie ſuch ſonne and heire ſhall lacke and want a trotting ſtoned horſſe,as is aforeſaid.

Wiues Apparell

¶And be it prouided & enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that if the wife of anie perſon or perſons weare anie veluet in the lining or other part of hir gowne,other than in the cufs or purfles of ſuch gowne,or els weare anie veluet in hir kirtell,or weare anie peticote of ſilke,that then the huſband of euerie ſuch wife,ſhall find one ſtoned horſſe of the ſtature aboue in this act recited,or ſhall incur the abouesaid penaltie and forfeiture of x.li.to be leuied and recouered,as is afore declared.

Wiues abſenting themſelues

¶Prouided alſo that this act or anie thing therein conteined , ſhall not extend to charge anie perſon or perſons,whoſe wife or wiues ſhall weare anie of the apparell or things aboue rehearſed, during the time ſuch wife or wiues ſhall be diuorſed from hir or their huſband or huſbands, or ſhall willinglie abſent hir ſelfe from hir ſaid huſband, and during ſuch abſence ſhall weare anie of the apparell or other things afore recited.

Heires Wards

¶Prouided alwaies, that heirs within the age,being wards,whoſe lands,tenements and hereditaments amount to the yeerelie value of 200 li. ſhall not be compelled by authoritie of this act, till they come to their full age, to keepe anie horſſes, although the wiues of ſuch heires within age weare anie gowne of ſilke, or anie French hood or bonet of veluet,with anie habiliment paſſe or edge of gold,pearle or ſtone,or anie chaine of gold about their necks or in their partlets,or in anie apparell of their bodie: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Horſſes killed

¶Prouided alſo,that if all or any the horſſes kept by vertue of this act,ſhall happen to be killed maimed, or loſt in the ſeruice of the kings wars, that then in euerie ſuch caſe the owners of ſuch horſſe or horſſes, ſo killed, maimed, periſhed or loſt in the wars, ſhall haue libertie by the ſpace of two yeeres next after ſuch chance of killing, maiming, periſhing or loſing their horſſes, to prouide other horſſes in their ſted and place of the horſſes ſo killed, maimed, periſhed or loſt in the wars, without anie danger, loſſe or penaltie of this act, anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

¶Prouided alſo that cart horſſes, or ſumpter horſſes, ſhall not be taken, reputed or reckoned for ſuch horſſes, which anie perſon is or ſhalbe bounden to keepe by vertue of this act.

An act concerning crosbowes and handguns.

Chap. 6.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the xv. daie of Januarie, in the xxv. yeere of the kings moſt gratious reigne, and there continued and kept vntill the xxx. daie of March then next inſuing, among diuerſe and ſundrie wholeſome & laudable acts, ſtatutes and ordinances, one ſtatute and ordinance was made and ordeined for the auoiding and eſchuing of ſhooting in croſbowes and handguns: ſince the making of which act diuerſe malicious and euill diſpoſed perſons, not onlie preſuming wilfullie and obſtinatlie the violation and breach of the ſaid act, but alſo of their malicious & euill diſpoſed minds and purpoſes, haue wilfullie & ſhamefullie committed, perpetrated and done diuerſe deteſtable and ſhamefull murders, robberies, felonies, riots and routs with croſbows, little ſhort handguns, and little haquebuts, to the great perill, and continuall feare and danger of the kings moſt louing ſubiects, and alſo diuerſe keepers of foreſts, chaſes and parks, aſwell of our ſaid ſouereigne lord, as other his nobles and commons, and diuerſe gentlemen, yeomen and ſeruingmen now of late haue laid apart the good and laudable exerciſe of the long bow, which alwaies heeretofore hath bin the ſuretie, ſafegard and continuall defenſe of this realme of England, and an ineſtimable dread and terror to the enimies of the ſame. And now of late the ſaid euill diſpoſed perſons haue vſed, and yet do dailie vſe to ride and go in the kings high waies, and elſwhere, hauing with them croſbows and little handguns readie furniſhed with quarrels, gunpowder, fire and touch, to the great perill and feare of the kings moſt louing ſubiects. For reformation thereof, be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, in maner and forme following: that is to ſaie; That no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate or degrée he or they be, except he or they in their owne right, or in the right of his or their wiues, to his or their owne vſes, or anie other to the vſe of anie ſuch perſon or perſons, haue lands, tenements, fées, annuities or offices, to the yeerelie value of one hundred pounds from or after the laſt daie of June next comming, ſhall ſhoot in anie croſbow, handgun, haquebut or demie hake, or vſe or keepe in his or their houſes, or elſwhere, anie croſbow, handgun, haquebut, or demie hake, otherwiſe, or in anie other maner than is héereafter in this preſent act declared, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time that he or they ſo offend contrarie to this act, ten pounds.

of earth,or in the time of war,as is abouesaid,vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch offenſe x li. The one moitie of all which forfeitures and penalties in this preſent act aboue ſpecified, ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moitie thereof to the partie that will ſue for the ſame,by bill,plaint, action of debt or information in anie of the kings courts of record,in which ſute no eſſoine,protection,nor wager of law ſhalbe allowed.

Gentlemen. Buts.

¶ Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhalbe lawfull from henſefoorth to all gentlemen, yeomen and ſeruingmen of euerie lord or lords ſpirituall or temporall,and of all knights,eſquires and gentlemen,and to all the inhabitants of cities,boroughs,and market townes of this realme of England,to ſhoot with any handgun,demie hake or haquebut at anie butt or banke of earth,onlie in place conuenient for the ſame,ſo that euerie ſuch handgun,demie hake and haquebut,be of the ſeuerall lengths aforeſaid,and not vnder. And that it ſhalbe lawfull to euerie of the ſaid lord and lords,knights, eſquires and gentlemen, and the inhabitants of euerie citie,borough,and market towne,to haue and keepe in euerie of their houſes anie ſuch handgun or handguns of the length of one whole yard, or anie haquebut,or demie hake of the length of three quarters of a yard, as is aforeſaid, and not vnder, to the intent to vſe & ſhoot in the ſame at a butt or banke of earth onelie,as is abouesaid,whereby they and euerie of them by the exerciſe thereof in forme abouesaid, maie the better aid and aſſiſt to the defenſe of this realme, when need ſhall require : this preſent act,or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhalbe lawfull to euerie perſon & perſons, which dwelleth & inhabiteth in anie houſe ſtanding & being ſet diſtant two furlongs from anie citie,borough or towne,to keepe and haue in his ſaid houſe, for the onelie defenſe of the ſame, handguns,haquebuts,and demie hakes,being of the ſeuerall lengths aforeſaid,and not vnder,and to vſe and exerciſe to ſhoot in the ſame at anie butt or banke of earth neere to his houſe, and not otherwiſe : anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Licences void.

¶ And furthermore the kings moſt louing ſubiects, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,moſt humblie doo beſeech the kings maieſtie,that it be further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that all letters patents,fraternities,and alſo all other placards,licences,and bils aſſigned, heeretofore had, made or ſigned by his highneſſe,or by anie other authorized by his highneſſe letters patents, vnder his great ſeale, to giue licence and placard to ſhoot in croſbowes and handguns,or anie of them, ſhalbe from & after the ſaid laſt daie of Iune, fruſtrat,void,and of none effect.

Repeale.

¶ And alſo that it maie be further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid xxv. yeere of the kings moſt gratious reigne, and all other ſtatutes heeretofore made & prouided for the auoiding & reſtreint of ſhooting in croſbowes and handguns, or for anie of them, or for the vſing and keeping of the ſame,be from henſefoorth vtterlie void and of none effect.

¶ Prouided alwaies,that euerie proceſſe,ſute or information conceiued,commenſed, and now depending, for anie offenſe doone contrarie to the forme of the ſaid ſtatute, made in the ſaid xxv. yeere of the kings moſt noble reigne,or of anie other ſtatute,made or prouided for & concerning the ſhooting in croſbowes & handguns,not repealed,and for the keeping of the ſame, ſhalbe as good and effectuall to the parties that haue commenſed the ſame, and ſhall ſtand and be in ſuch forme, effect, degree and condition,as if this act had neuer beene made.

Parks, &c.

¶ Prouided alſo,that this act,or anie thing therin conteined,be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie perſon or perſons,now being,or that heerafter ſhalbe appointed by the kings highneſſe,to keepe, receiue, or take anie croſbowes or handguns, that ſhalbe forfeited or taken within the precinct or libertie of the kings foreſts,parks or chaſes,but that he or they may lawfullie keepe and reteine the ſame croſbowes or handguns from time to time, vntill ſuch time as the further pleaſure of the kings highneſſe in that behalfe be to euerie ſuch perſon ſhewed and declared.

Croſbowmakers. Gunmakers

¶ Prouided alſo,that this act extend not to the makers of croſbows or handguns,but that they maie lawfullie keepe croſbowes and handguns, haquebuts, and demie hakes in their houſes, and ſhoot in the ſame,onelie for prooving & aſſaieng of them at a butt or banke of earth in the place conuenient, and not otherwiſe : ſo that the ſaid handguns, haquebuts,and demie hakes be of the ſeuerall lengths in ſtocke and gun,as is aboue limited.

Merchants.

¶ Prouided alſo,that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, extend not,or be preiudiciall to anie merchants,which haue or ſhall haue anie croſbowes,handguns,haquebuts,and demie hakes, or any of them,to ſell within this realme,and to none other vſe : ſo that the ſame handguns,haquebuts, and demie hakes be of the ſeuerall lengths in gun & ſtocke, as is aboue limited, & not vnder.

Proclamat.

¶ Prouided alſo,that no maner of perſon run in anie danger,or take hurt,by reaſon of any penaltie or forfeiture conteined in this act, vntill ſuch time as proclamation be made of the ſame act, within the countie, where the partie that ſhall or maie offend contrarie to this act, dwelleth by the ſpace of twentie daies next after the making of the ſaid proclamation.

¶ Prouided alſo, that if anie maner of perſon bring or cauſe to be brought with him into his lodging,or in,or to anie other mans houſe, anie croſbow or handgun,that then the penaltie and forfeiture,if anie ſuch be, or heereafter ſhall be forfeited by reaſon of this act,to run, and be onlie vpon the bringer of the ſaid croſbow and handgun, and not to the owner of the ſame lodging or houſe, if the ſaid owner of the ſaid lodging or houſe cauſe the ſaid bringer thereof to take and to carrie away the ſaid croſbow or handgun againe with him at his departing : anie thing in this act made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons, from or after the laſt daie of June next comming, ſée or find anie perſon or perſons offending or dooing contrarie to the forme and effect of this act, that then it ſhalbe lawfull to euerie ſuch perſon or perſons perceiuing, finding or ſeeing any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending contrarie to the forme of this act, to arreſt and attach euerie ſuch offendor or offendors, and to bring or conueie the ſame to the next iuſtice of the peace of the ſame countie where the ſaid offendor or offendors ſhalbe found ſo offending. And that the ſame iuſtice of peace, vpon a due examination and proofe thereof before him had or made, by his diſcretion, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to ſend or commit the ſame offendor or offendors to the next gaole, there to remaine till ſuch time as the ſaid penaltie or forfeiture ſhall be trulie contented and paid by the ſaid offendor: the one moitie of the ſame penaltie to be paid to the kings highneſſe, and the other moitie thereof to the firſt bringer or conueier of the ſaid offendor to the ſame iuſtice of peace.

Perſons offendors ſhall be arreſted.

¶And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhalbe lawfull to all iuſtices of the peace in their ſeſſions, and to all ſtewards and bailifs in their ſeuerall léets and lawdaies, to inquire, heare and determine euerie ſuch offenſe, after the ſaid laſt day of June, to be committed and doone contrarie to the tenor of this preſent act: ſo that alwaies no leſſe fine than ten pounds be aſſeſſed vpon euerie ſuch preſentment & conuiction made according to the due courſe of the law, the ſame fine ſo by the ſame iuſtices of peace vpon euerie ſuch preſentment & conuiction made before them in their ſeſſions, to be paid and leuied onelie to the kings vſe, and the one moitie of euerie fine to be aſſeſſed by the ſtewards or bailifs of anie leet or lawdaie, vpon euerie preſentment & conuiction before them to be made, to be paid and leuied to the vſe of the king our ſouereigne lord. And the other moitie, the one halfe to the owner of the ſaid léet or lawdaie by diſtreſſe or action of debt, and the other halfe of the ſame ſecond moitie of the ſame fine, to be to the partie that will purſue for the ſame, in anie of the kings courts, by bill, plaint, information or action of debt, in the which none eſſoine, protection, nor wager of law ſhall be allowed.

Juſtice of p.

¶And be it further enacted, that if anie iurie being ſworne and charged to inquire for the king our ſouereigne lord, before anie iuſtices of the peace, or ſtewards of léets or lawdaies, of any offenſes committed or doone contrarie to this preſent act, doo wilfullie conceale anie of the ſame offenſes, that then the ſaid iuſtices, ſtewards or bailifs, before whom anie concealement ſhalbe had and doone, ſhall haue authoritie by vertue of this preſent act, from time tc time to charge and ſweare an other iurie of twelue or more good & ſubſtantiall honeſt perſons, to inquire of euerie ſuch concealement. And if anie ſuch concealement be found and preſented by the ſaid iurie ſo charged to inquire of the ſame, that then euerie one of the ſaid firſt iurie that ſo did conceale the ſame, ſhall léeſe & forfeit for euerie ſuch concealement of euerie ſuch offenſe xx.s. All which forfeitures and penalties of xx.s. for euerie ſuch concealement of euerie ſuch offenſe ſo found and preſented before the ſame iuſtices of peace, ſhall wholie be leuied and paid to the kings vſe. And the moitie of all the ſame forfeitures and penalties of xx.s. ſo found and preſented before the ſtewards or bailifs of anie léet or lawdaie, ſhall be leuied and paid to the vſe of the owner of the ſaid leet or lawdaie by diſtreſſe or action of debt: and the other moitie thereof to be to the partie or parties that will ſue for the ſame by action, information, bill or plaint, in anie of the kings courts, in the which actions, informations, bils or plaints, no wager of law, eſſoine, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

¶Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons héereafter in anie part doo offend or doo contrarie to the purueiw and remedie of this act, wherevpon cauſe of action for the ſame offenſe ſhalbe giuen to the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, or to anie other perſon or perſons that will ſue by vertue of this act for the puniſhment of the ſaid offenſe or forfeitures, that if the king our ſouereigne lord, his heirs or ſucceſſors, within one yéere next & immediatlie after ſuch offenſes & forfeitures had & made, doo not purſue their action or actions, ſo giuen by this act, or cauſe examination vpon ſuch defaults and offenſes to be had and made before their counſell, or other preſentments thereof to be had, according to the meaning of the ſame act: and euerie other perſon, which héereafter by vertue of this act, maie haue action or actions, ſute or information vpon this ſtatute, within halfe a yéere next and immediatlie after ſuch offenſes or forfeits had and made do not commenſe their ſutes, informations, actions or preſentments, of & vpon the ſaid forfeits, by action or otherwiſe, as in this preſent act is limited and declared: that then aſwell the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, after one yéere next after ſuch offenſes and forfeits had and made, if no ſute in his or their name be taken, by action or otherwiſe, as is before expreſſed, before the ſame yéere ended & determined, as euerie other perſon after halfe a yéere next after like offenſes and forfeits had and done in the forme aforeſaid, if no ſute therevpon be taken by none of them, in forme aboue declared, be vtterlie excluded and debarred of their ſaid ſutes, actions, informations and examinations to them giuen by vertue of the ſaid act: and the parties and euerie of them ſo offending, ſhall be of all ſuch offenſes and forfeits cleerelie diſcharged and quit: anie thing in this act compriſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Sea coſtes. Borders. Calis. ¶ Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this preſent act, ne anie thing therein conteined, ſhall in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall vnto the kings ſubiects reſident or inhabiting neere vnto the coſtes of the ſea, in anie part of this realme, their houſes being not aboue fiue miles diſtant from the ſame coſtes: nor alſo to anie of the kings ſaid ſubiects, inhabiting within twelue miles of the borders of Scotland: nor to anie the kings ſubiects inhabitants of the towne & marches of Calis: nor to any of the inhabitants of the iles of Ierſie, Garneſie, Angleſie, & the iles of Wight & Man, but that it ſhalbe lawfull for euerie of the ſaid inhabitants at all times héereafter, to haue, exerciſe, and vſe their handguns, haquebuts, and demie hakes, of the lengths aboueſaid, within the limits and iles aboueſaid, ſo that it be at no maner of déere, hearne, ſhouelard, fezant, partridge, wild ſwan, or wild elke, or anie of them: this preſent act or anie thing therin conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Seruant. ¶ Prouided alſo that this act ne anie thing therein conteined, be in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to anie ſeruant or perſon, that hereafter from the ſaid laſt daie of Iune, ſhall bend, beare, carrie, charge, vſe or aſſaie, anie croſbow, or anie handgun, demie hake or haquebut, of the lengths abouеſaid, by the commandement of his lord or maiſter, ſo that the ſaid ſeruant or perſon do not ſhoot at anie fowle, déere, or other game, of what kind or nature ſoeuer they be: nor alſo to anie ſuch ſeruant, perſon or perſons, that ſhall after the ſaid laſt day of Iune, beare or conueie any croſbow, handgun, haquebut, or demie hake, of the lengths aforeſaid, to anie place or places by the commandement of his lord or maiſter, that maie ſhoot by authoritie of this act, to be amended, repared, deliuered or aſſaid, ſo that the ſaid ſeruant or other perſon, ſo bringing or conueieng the ſaid croſbow, handgun, haquebut, or demie hake, haue readie to ſhew to euerie perſon requiring the ſight therof, one licence in writing ſealed or ſubſcribed by his ſaid lord or maiſter, to carrie & conueie the ſame croſbow, handgun, haquebut, or demie hake, to the intent to be amended, repared, aſſaid or deliuered, as is aforeſaid.

Owners of ſhips. ¶ Prouided alwaies, that this act, or anie thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to anie owner of anie ſhip, for hauing or keeping of anie handgun, haquebut, or demie hake of the ſeuerall lengths in this act expreſſed, or vnder, onelie to be had and occupied within anie their ſhip or other veſſell, or for the carriage and recarriage of them, or of anie of them on land, or keeping of them, for the onelie exerciſe and occupieng of them within their ſaid ſhip or veſſell: anie thing in this act to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Chap.7.

An act concerning the conueiance of braſſe, lattin, and bell mettall ouer the ſea.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the third daie of Nouember, in the xxi. yéere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, amongſt other things it was enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhould from thenſefoorth carrie or conueie anie braſſe, copper, lattin, bell mettall, gun mettall, ne ſhroffe mettall into anie part or parts beyond the ſea, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid mettall, as by the ſaid act more plainlie appeareth. Since the making of which eſtatute diuerſe perſons, as well Engliſhmen as ſtrangers, haue by deceipt ſubtillie obteined licences of the kings highneſſe, to carrie ouer bell mettall, & other broken mettall, ſurmiſing the ſame mettals not to be méet for making of guns, and other engins of warre, nor for implements neceſſarie for houſhold, which ſurmiſe is proued vntrue, as the common experience thereof dailie declareth: ſo that all other realms and countries be full of artillerie and munitions, and this realme is like to lacke, if more haſtie remedie to ſtop the conueiance of the ſame be not further prouided than is in the ſame act. Wherefore maie it pleaſe the kings highneſſe, & the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, to enact that no perſon or perſons from henſefoorth ſhall carrie or conueie, by water or otherwiſe, anie braſſe, copper, lattin, bell mettall, pan mettall, gun mettall, nor ſhroffe mettall, whether it be cleane or mixed (tin and lead onelie excepted) into anie part beyond the ſea, or into anie outward realme or dominion whatſoeuer it be, vpon paine to forfeit the double value of the ſame mettall ſo carried and conueied, the one halfe thereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by writ, bill, plaint, or information, in the which no eſſoine or protection ſhall be allowed.

Tranſport mettall. Forfeit.

¶ And further be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, for the true meaning of this eſtatute, that

that the arriuall, diſcharge and deliuerie of the ſaid mettals in anie parts beyond the ſea, or in any other forren realme or dominion, ſhall be tried and determined within this realme, in ſuch countie or place where the ſaid mettall or mettals were ſhipped or firſt carried, with like proceſſe and determination as all other informations or actions to be tried and adiudged within this relme, or as the ſame ſut had beene done within this realme and dominion.

Tranſport. Cuſtomers. Obligation. Certificat.

¶ And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon nor perſons at anie time hereafter, ſhall ſhip or carie anie of the ſaid mettals afore rehearſed, to carie or diſcharge the ſame in anie part of this realme, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons before the ſhipping therof do declare and manifeſt vnto the cuſtomer of ſuch port or creeke, where the ſame mettall ſhall be ſhipped, the true weight of all ſuch mettall as ſhalbe ſhipped, and alſo ſhall make a ſufficient obligation in the law, in the which he ſhalbe bounden to the ſaid cuſtomer to the kings vſe, in ſuch ſum as ſhall amount to the double value of the ſaid mettall ſo declared & manifeſted, with condition, that the ſame ſhall be diſcharged at ſome port or creeke within this realme, and in no other place, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame, in manner and forme aboue rehearſed. And that euerie ſuch perſon or perſons that ſhall ſhip ſuch mettall, and be and ſhall be bounden, as is aforeſaid, ſhall within eight months next after the ſhipping therof, bring a true certificat from the cuſtomer of the port, creeke or place, where he or they ſhall happen to diſcharge the ſame mettall, teſtifieng that the ſame mettall ſo ſhipped, and the true weight thereof, is there diſcharged: which certificat the cuſtomer of ſuch place, where the ſaid mettall ſhalbe diſcharged, ſhall vpon the diſcharge therof make and deliuer to the partie ſo diſcharging, or to his factor without anie delaie.

Cuſtoms.

¶ And be it further enacted, that if anie cuſtomer or his deputie, by couine or by anie other vntrue meane, do make any falſe or vntrue certificat concerning the ſaid diſcharging of ſuch mettall contrarie to the true meaning of this act, that then ſuch cuſtomer ſo falſlie or vntrulie certifieng, as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe his office, & alſo the value of the goods ſo concealed out of the ſaid certificat.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that if the ſaid mettall by tempeſt of weather be drowned, or by enimies or pirats robbed and ſpoiled, and that ſufficientlie prooued without fraud or couine before the cuſtomer and controller, or their ſufficient deputies, in the port where the partie or parties ſo ſhipped the mettals aforeſaid, or anie of them, by the ſaid partie or parties, or their executors, that then he or they ſo bringing ſuch ſufficient proofe, ſhall haue his obligation to him deliuered, or elſe he and his executors therof to be acquited and cleerelie diſcharged: anie thing in this act to the contrarie conteined notwithſtanding.

¶ Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act ſhall onlie take his effect, and be put in execution from and after the firſt daie of Aprill next comming.

An act againſt coniurations, witchcrafts, ſorcerie and inchantments.

Chap. 8.

Where diuerſe and ſundrie perſons vnlawfullie haue deuiſed and practiſed inuocations and coniurations of ſpirits, pretending by ſuch meanes to vnderſtand and get knowledge for their owne lucre, in what place treaſure of gold & ſiluer ſhould or might be found or had in the earth or other ſecret places, and alſo haue vſed and occupied witchcrafts, inchantments and ſorceries, to the deſtruction of their neighbors perſons and goods: and for execution of the ſaid falſe deuiſes and practiſes haue made or cauſed to be made diuerſe images and pictures of men, women, children, angels or diuels, beaſts or fowles, and alſo haue made crownes, ſcepters, ſwords, rings, glaſſes, and other things: and giuing faith and credit to ſuch fantaſticall practiſes, haue digged vp and pulled downe an infinit number of croſſes within this relme, and taken vpon them to declare and tell where things loſt or ſtollen ſhould be become, which things cannot be vſed and exerciſed, but to the great offenſe of Gods law, hurt and damage of the kings ſubiects, and loſſe of the ſoules of ſuch offendors, to the great diſhonor of God, infamie and diſquietneſſe of this realme. For reformation thereof, be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that if any perſon or perſons, after the firſt daie of Maie next comming, vſe, deuiſe, practiſe or exerciſe, or cauſe to be vſed, deuiſed, practiſed or exerciſed anie inuocations or coniurations of ſpirits, witchcrafts, inchantments or ſorceries, to the intent to get or find monie or treſure, or to waſt, conſume or deſtroie any perſon in his bodie, members or goods, or to prouoke anie perſon to vnlawfull loue, or for anie other vnlawfull intent or purpoſe, or by occaſion or colour of ſuch things, or anie of them, or for deſpite of Chriſt, or for lucre of monie, dig vp or pull downe anie croſſe or croſſes, or by ſuch inuocations or coniurations of ſpirits, witchcrafts, inchantments or ſorcerie, or anie of them, take vpon them to tell or declare where goods ſtollen or loſt ſhalbe become: that then all and euerie ſuch offenſe and offenſes from the ſaid firſt daie of Maie next comming, ſhalbe deemed & adiudged felonie: and that all and euerie perſon and perſons offending, as is aboueſaid, their counſellors, abettors and procurers, and euerie of them, from the ſaid firſt daie of Maie, ſhalbe deemed, accepted, and adiudged a felon and felons. And the offendor and offendors contrarie to this act, being therof lawfullie conuict before ſuch as ſhall haue power and authoritie to heare and determine felonies, ſhall haue and ſuffer ſuch paines of death, loſſe and forfeitures of their lands, tenements, goods and chattels, as in caſes of felonie, by the courſe of the common lawes of this realme, & alſo ſhall loſe the priuilege of the clergie and ſanctuarie.

Witchcraft. Croſſes. Felonie.

An act for the maintenance of artillerie, debarring vnlawfull games.

Chap. 9.

Moſt humblie complaining ſhew vnto your highneſſe your dailie orators, the bowiers, fletchers, ſtringers and arrowhead makers of this your realme, that where for the aduancement and maintenance of archerie, the better to be mainteined and had within the ſame, and for the auoiding of diuerſe and manie vnlawfull games and plaies, occupied & practiſed within this realme, to the great hurt and let of ſhooting and archerie, diuers good and lawfull ſtatutes haue béene deuiſed, enacted & made, amongſt which one was made in a parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yéere of your moſt gratious reigne, and the ſame act made perpetuall in the parlement there holden in the ſixt yeere of your ſaid reigne, the which good and laudable act notwithſtanding, diuerſe and manie ſubtile, inuentatiue & craftie perſons, intending to defraud the ſame eſtatutes, ſince the making therof, haue found, and dailie find manie and ſundrie new & craftie games and plaies, as logating in the féelds, ſlide thrift, otherwiſe called ſhoue grote, aſwell within the citie of London, as elſwhere in manie other and diuerſe parts of this realme, keeping houſes, plaies and allies for the maintenance thereof, by reaſon whereof archerie is ſore decaid, and dailie is like to be more & more miniſhed, and diuers bowiers and fletchers for lacke of worke gone and inhabit themſelues in Scotland and other places out of this realme, there working and teaching their ſcience, to the puiſſance of the ſame, to the great comfort of ſtrangers, and detriment of this realme. And where alſo your graces ſubiects, bowiers, fletchers, & other artificers afore named, from time to time reſort, repaire, and come out of all places of this your realme, vnto the citie of London, for lacke of liuing, and doo inhabit nigh the ſame citie, or in the ſuburbs of the ſame citie, and in the ſtréets & lanes of the ſame citie, being no frée men of the ſame citie, nor bearing neither ſkot, lot, nor other charges within your ſaid citie, as other citizens and frée men of the ſame citie doo and are bound to doo, and by their oths are ſworne to doo, and which citizens & frée men of your ſaid citie of the myſteries and crafts before rehearſed, which haue bin brought vp as prentiſes from their youth, dwelling within the frédome of your ſaid citie of London, are alwaies in readineſſe to furniſh your graces affairs when they ſhalbe commanded: by reaſon of the which reſorting & abode of ſuch forrens and ſtrangers of the myſteries and crafts before rehearſed, in the ſuburbs, ſtréets & lanes of the ſame citie, other cities, townes, villages, and places within this realme remaine & be vnfurniſhed of artificers & craftſmen before rehearſed, to the great decaie of the archerie of this realme. And foraſmuch as it appeareth by the preamble of the ſaid ſtatute enacted the ſaid third yéere, which was eſtabliſhed and made perpetuall in the foreſaid ſixt yéere of your moſt gratious reigne, that your highneſſe calling to your moſt noble and gratious remembrance, that by the feate and exerciſe of the ſubiects of this your realme, in ſhooting in long bowes, there hath continuallie growen and bin within the ſame great number & multitude of good archers, which hath not onelie defended this realme, and the ſubiects therof, againſt the cruell malice and danger of their outward enimies in time heretofore paſt, but alſo with little number and puiſſance, in regard, haue doone manie notable acts and diſcomfitures of war, againſt the infidels and other, and furthermore ſubdued and reduced diuers and manie regions and countries to their due obeiſance, to the great honor, fame and ſuretie of this realme and ſubiects, and to the terrible dread and feare of all ſtrange nations, anie thing to attempt or doo to the hurt or damage of them or anie of them: yet neuertheleſſe archerie, and ſhooting in long bowes was little vſed, but dailie did miniſh, decaie and abate more and more, for that much part of the commonaltie and poore people of this realme, wherby of old time the great number and ſubſtance of archers hath growne and multiplied, were not of power or abilitie to buie them long bowes of yew to exerciſe ſhooting in the ſame, and to ſuſteine the continuall charge thereof, and alſo by meanes and occaſion of cuſtomable vſage of tennis plaie, bowles, cloſh, and other vnlawfull games prohibited by manie good & beneficiall eſtatues, by authoritie of parlement in that behalfe prouided and made, great impoueriſhment hath inſued, and manie heinous murders, robberies and felonies were committed and doone, and alſo the diuine ſeruice by ſuch miſdoers on holie and feſtiuall daies not heard or ſolemnized, to the high diſpleaſure of almightie God, as by the foreſaid preamble more plainelie maie appeare. It maie therefore be enacted by your highneſſe, the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that euerie man being the kings ſubiect, not lame, decrepit, nor maimed, nor hauing anie other lawfull or reaſonable cauſe or impediment, being within the age of thréeſcore yéeres (except ſpirituall men, iuſtices of one bench and of the other, iuſtices of the aſſiſe, and barons of the eſcheker) ſhall from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, vſe and exerciſe ſhooting in long bowes, and alſo haue a bow and arrowes readie continuallie in his houſe, to vſe himſelfe, and doo vſe himſelfe in ſhooting: and alſo the father gouernors and rulers of ſuch as be of tender age, doo teach and bring them vp in the knowledge of the ſame ſhooting: and that euerie man, hauing a man child or men children in his houſe, ſhall prouide, ordeine, and haue in his houſe, for euerie man child, being of the age of ſeuen yéeres and aboue, till he ſhall come to the age of ſeuentéene yeeres, a bowe and two ſhafts, to induce and learne them and bring them vp in ſhooting, and ſhall deliuer all the ſame bowe and arrowes vnto the ſame yoong men, to vſe and occupie. And if the ſame yoong men be ſeruants, that then their maiſters ſhall abate the monie, that they ſhall paie for the ſame bowes and arrowes of their wages. And after all ſuch yoong men ſhall come to the age of ſeuentéene yéeres, euerie of them ſhall prouide and haue a bowe and foure arrowes continuallie for himſelfe at his proper coſts and charges, or elſe of the gift or prouiſion of his friends, and vſe and occupie the ſame in ſhooting, as is before rehearſed. And if the maiſter ſuffer anie of his ſeruants taking wages, being in his houſhold, and vnder the age of xvij.yeers, or the father ſuffer anie of his ſonnes, being in houſhold, and vnder the age of xvij.yeers, to lacke a bow and two arrowes, contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute, by the ſpace of one month togither: then the maiſter or father, in whom ſuch negligences ſhall be, ſhall for euerie ſuch default forfeit vj.s.viij.d. And that euerie ſeruant, paſſing the age of xvij.yéers, & vnder the age of xl.yeers, and taking wages, which can or is able to ſhoot, and ſhall lacke a bow & foure arrowes, by the ſpace of one moneth togither, ſhall for euerie ſuch default forfeit and looſe vj.s.viij.d.

Pricks. Flight. Bowes of yew. Buts. Forfeit.

¶ Be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no man vnder the age of xxiiij. yeers, ſhall ſhoot at anie ſtanding pricke, except it be at a rouer, whereat he ſhall change at euerie ſhoot his marke, vpon paine for euerie ſhoot dooing yͤ contrarie, iiij.d. And that no other perſon aboue the ſaid age of xxiiij.yeers, ſhall ſhoot at anie marke of xj.ſcore yards or vnder, with any prickſhaft or flight, vnder the paine to forfeit for euerie ſhoot vj.s.viij.d. And that no perſon vnder the age of xvij.yeers, except he, or his father or mother haue lands or tenements to the yeerelie value of x.li. or be worth in mouables the ſum of xl. marks ſterling, ſhall ſhoot in anie bow of yew which ſhalbe bought for him after the feaſt of the Purification of our ladie next comming, vnder the paine to looſe and forfeit vj.s.viij.d. And alſo that buts be made on this ſide the feaſt of S. Michaell the archangell next comming, in euerie citie, towne and place, by the inhabitants of euerie ſuch citie, towne and place according to the law of ancient time vſed. And that the inhabitants and dwellers in euerie of them be compelled to make and continue ſuch buts, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie thrée moneths ſo lacking xx.s. And that the ſaid inhabitants ſhall exerciſe themſelues with long bowes in ſhooting at the ſame, and elſwhere, in holidaies and other times conuenient.

Elme bows.

¶ And to the intent that euerie perſon may haue bowes of meane priſe, be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie bowier dwelling out of the citie & ſuburbs of London, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our ladie next comming, for euerie bow that he maketh of yew, make foure other bowes méet to ſhoot in, of elme, witch hazell, aſh, or other wood apt for the ſame, vnder the paine to looſe and forfeit for euerie ſuch bow ſo lacking, iij.s.iiij.d. And euerie bowier dwelling within the ſaid citie or ſuburbs of London, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of the Purification of our ladie next comming, for euerie bow of yew that he ſhall make, ſhall alſo make two other bowes apt for ſhooting of aſh, elme, witch hazell, or other wood méet for the ſame, vnder like paine and forfeiture.

Priſes of bowes. Bow ſtaues.

¶ And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no bowier ſhall ſell anie bow of yew for anie perſon being betwéene the age of viij.yéers and xiiij.yeers, aboue the priſe of xij.d. And that the ſame bowiers ſhall haue bowes of yew of all priſes from vj.d. the péece to xij.d. the péece, for youth betwéene the ſaid ages of vij.yeers and xiiij.yéers. And likewiſe haue bows of yew for youth betwéene the age of xiiij.yéers and xxj.yéers, and ſhall ſell the ſame at reaſonable priſes. And moreouer that no bowier ſhall ſell or put to ſale to anie the kings ſubiects anie bow of yew of the tar called elke, aboue the priſe of iij.s.iiij.d. vnder the paine to forfeit xx.s. for euerie bow ſold to the contrarie, aboue the ſaid priſe of iij.s.iiij.d. as appeareth by a ſtatute made in the xxij. yeere of the reigne of king Edward the fourth, the fourth chapter. And that all bow ſtaues of yew héereafter to be brought into this relme, ſhalbe ſold open and not in bundles nor cloſe, to the intent the buiers of them maie haue perfect knowledge of the goodneſſe of them, and giue the better priſe for them if they be ſo worth.

Fletchers.

¶ And furthermore be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that fletchers of London and the ſuburbs of the ſame, maie at their libertie ſell ſeaſonable timber to euerie fletcher of the countrie, without falling into anie penaltie or danger to anie of their wardens for ſo dooing, and that all ordinances and other laws made or to be made by their wardens or otherwiſe to the contrarie, ſhall be henſeforth cleerelie fruſtrat and void.

Forreners.

¶ And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the bowiers, fletchers, ſtringers & arrow head makers, repairing and reſorting vnto the ſaid citie or the ſuburbs of the ſame, and there making their dwelling or abiding, being not frée men of the ſaid citie, bearing neither ſkot nor lot within the ſaid citie, ſhall at all times by the appointment of your graces moſt honorable counſell, the lord chancellor of England for the time being, lord treaſuror, or the lord priuie ſeale, or one of them, go and inhabit ſuch cities, boroughs & townes, as be deſtitute of ſuch artificers, and there to exerciſe, occupie and practiſe their ſaid crafts and faculties, for the mainteinance of artillerie and archerie. And if anie ſuch perſon, to whom warning ſhall be ſo giuen by the kings moſt honorable counſell, the lord chancellor, the lord treaſuror, or the lord priuie ſeale, as is aforeſaid, to depart vnto other townes or places of the ſaid realme of England, from the ſaid citie of London, the ſuburbs, ſtréets, lanes and places néere the ſame, refuſe to accompliſh the ſame, that then he or they ſo refuſing, ſhall forfeit for euerie daie that he ſhall make his abode contrarie to this act, fortie ſhillings.

Aliens. Tranſport.

¶ Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no ſtranger borne out of the kings obeiſance, not being denizen, ſhall conueie, or doo to be conueied, giue, ſell or exchange into anie parts out of the kings obeiſance, anie long bowes, arrowes or ſhafts, without the kings ſpeciall licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame, whereſoeuer they ſhalbe taken, or the value thereof, within the kings power, and vpon paine of impriſonment, without baile or mainpriſe, vnto ſuch time as he or they ſo being in ward, haue made a reaſonable fine to the king for his or their offenſes afore the iuſtices of peace, or two of them in the ſeſſions in the ſame countie, where he or they ſhall be com-committed to ward, or find ſufficient ſuretie for the paiment of the ſame fine. And that no maner of perſon, not being borne within the kings obeiſance, nor made denizen, vſe within the kings obeiſance ſhooting with long bowes, without the kings licence, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch bowes, arrowes and ſhafts, as they ſhalbe founden ſo ſhooting with, and euerie of the kings ſubiects maie haue authoritie to take and ſeize the ſame forfeitures to his owne vſe. And that iuſtices of aſſiſe of gaole deliuerie, iuſtices of peace, and ſtewards of franchiſes, leets & lawdais, haue power to inquire of all the premiſſes in their ſeſſions, leets and lawdaies, and heare and determine the ſame, and alſo by their diſcretion examine all perſons, lacking and not hauing bowes, ſhafts and arrowes according to the forme aforeſaid.

Vnlawfull games.
Placard.
Recognisāce

¶ Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons, of what degrée, qualitie or condition ſoeuer he or they be, from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt now next comming, by himſelfe, factor, deputie, ſeruant, or other perſon, ſhall for his or their gaine, lucre or liuing, keepe, haue, hold, occupie, exerciſe or mainteine anie common houſe, allie or place of bowling, coiting, cloiſh, cailes, halfe bowle, tennis, diſing, table or carding, or anie other maner of game prohibited by anie ſtatute heeretofore made, or anie vnlawfull new game now inuented or made, or anie other vnlawfull game heereafter to be inuented, found, had or made, vpon paine to forfeit and paie for euerie daie keeping, hauing or mainteining, or ſuffering anie ſuch game to be had, kept, executed, plaied or mainteined within any ſuch houſe, garden, allie, or other place, contrarie to the forme & effect of this ſtatute xl. s. And alſo euerie perſon vſing & hanting anie of the ſaid houſes and plaies, and there plaieng, to forfeit for euerie time ſo dooing vj. s. viij. d. And if any perſon heereafter ſue for anie placard, to haue common gaming in his houſe, contrarie to this ſtatute, that then it ſhalbe conteined in the ſame placard, what game ſhalbe vſed in the ſame houſe, & what perſons ſhall plaie therat, & euerie placard granted to the contrarie, to be void; and alſo that the partie obteining anie ſuch placard, before he put the ſame in execution, ſhalbe bound with ſufficient ſureties with him by recognizance in the chancerie, in a certeine ſum to be appointed by the diſcretion of the lord chancellor of England, that he ſhall not vſe ẏ ſaid placard contrary to the forme therof.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid,that it ſhall be lawfull to euerie noble man and other hauing manors,lands,tenements, or other yearelie profits, for terme of life in his owne right or in his wiues right,to the yearelie value of 100 pounds, or aboue, to command, appoint or licence by his or their diſcretion,his or their ſeruants or familie of his or their houſe or houſes,for to plaie within the precinct of his or their houſes gardens or orchards,at cards,dice, tables,bowles, or tenis, as well among themſelues as others repairing to the ſame houſe or houſes. And that they ſo plaieng by commandement appointment or licence, as is aforeſaid, ſhall not incur anie danger or penaltie conteined in this act for the ſame, this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all informations, actions and ſutes,now depending in anie of the kings courts for or concerning anie penaltie or forfeiture conteined in anie of the ſaid ſtatutes by this act repealed,and no iudgement therein yet giuen, the ſame informations,actions,and ſutes ſhall be.remaine and ſtand as good and effectuall in the law to all intents,conſtructions and purpoſes,as if this act had neuer béene had ne made, any thing in this act conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the execution of certaine ſtatutes.

Chap.10.

FOr as much as before this time diuers and ſundrie good lawes, ſtatutes, prouiſions and ordinances haue béene made by the kings maieſtie our naturall ſouereigne lord and other his moſt noble progenitors, for the increaſe and aduancement of the publike and commonwelth of this realme of England, and of his highneſſe ſubiects of the ſame, amongſt which ſome ſpeciall notable and profitable lawes, ſtatutes, ordinances and prouiſions be verie requiſit, conuenient, and expedient for the ſame commonwelth dulie and diligentlie to be put in dailie exerciſe and execution.And ſuch as haue bin & be authorized to put in due & iuſt execution ſuch ſpeciall and notable laws, ſtatutes and ordinances, and to correct and puniſh the infringers and contemners therof,in ſuch wiſe as is limited by the ſame, haue bin verie remiſſe & negligent in doing their offices,to the great detriment,hurt & preiudice of the commonwelth. For reformation whereof,be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame, that all and ſingular the iuſtices of peace within anie ſhire, citie, borough, or place within this realme of England, Wales, or anie other the kings dominions, ſhall yearelie at the generall ſeſſions of the peace to be holden next after the feaſt of Eaſter, aſſemble themſelues together, that is to ſaie euerie number of them within the limits of their commiſſions, wherein they be named iuſtices of peace, and at & vpon ſuch their aſſemblie, ſhall diligentlie together amongſt themſelues peruſe, examine, ſtudie & know the effects and true intents of the laws, ſtatutes, ordinances and prouiſions hereafter ſpecified, that is to ſaie, the lawes & ſtatutes heretofore made and prouided, concerning or in anie wiſe touching vagabonds, reteinors, giuing liueries, ſigns, tokens, or badges, mainteinance, imbracerie, bowſtaues & archerie, vnlawfull games, foreſtallers and regrators, vittell, vittellers, and inholders and euerie of them, and of all ſtatutes and laws made in this preſent parlement touching the ſame or anie of them, and after the peruſing and deliberat vnderſtanding of the ſaid lawes, ſtatutes and ordinances, they ſhall deuiſe amongſt themſelues how the ſame maie be beſt put in due and iuſt execution, and for the better procéeding therein, they ſhall diuide and ſeuer themſelues limiting and aſſigning alwais the number of two of them at the leaſt or more, into hundreds, wapentakes, rapes, commots or number of townes and villages by their diſcretions. And that the ſaid iuſtices ſo diuided, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall in euerie quarter of the yeare from & after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming, hold & kéepe within the limits of their diuiſion, one ſeſſions beſide the generall quarter ſeſſions for the peace, the ſaid one ſeſſions to be kept & holden alwais within the limits of their diuiſion, at and in one ſuch daie as by them ſhall be appointed, ſo that it be alwais ſix wéeks at the leaſt before the quarter ſeſſions. And that all proceſſe & procéedings in euerie of the ſaid ſeſſion ſo to be holden ſhalbe be continued from ſeſſions to ſeſſions. And that the ſaid iuſtices, or two of them at the leaſt at & in euerie ſuch ſeſſions ſhall haue power & authoritie to inquire as well by the oths of xij. men, inhabitants within the limits of their diuiſion, as by anie information giuen to them by anie perſon or perſons of all defaults, offenſes, and contempts doone or committed or hereafter to be doone or committed againſt the forme of any of the ſtatutes aforſaid, and to heare & determine the ſame, & ſhall alſo haue power & authoritie vpon anie preſentment or information touching the premiſſes or anie of them, to make proceſſe by Venire facias, one capias, and an exigent vnder the ſeales of the ſame iuſtices or ij. of them, againſt euerie ſuch perſon & perſons againſt whome anie ſuch information or preſentment ſhall be had for their appearance before them in their ſeſſions to be holden as is aforeſaid, to anſwer to ſuch information or preſentment as ſhall be there had or made. And if the perſon or perſons accuſed by information or preſentment, ſhall be conuict vpon anie ſuch information or preſentment, by confeſſion or verdict of xij. men, that then the ſaid iuſtices of peace or two of them, afore whom ſuch conuiction ſhall be had, ſhall haue power & authoritie to giue iudgement againſt euerie ſuch offender and offendors ſo conuict of ſuch pains by impriſonment, or ſuch pains, loſſes and forfeitures of monie or both, or anie of them, as are limited in the ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes for ſuch offenſes whereof they ſhalbe ſo conuict, and cauſe execution thereof to be made and had accordinglie. And alſo the ſaid iuſtices of peace, or two of them, at and in their ſaid ſeſſions to be holden as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue power and authoritie to correct and reforme the panels of iuries for any inquiries to be made afore them touching the ſaid ſtatutes or anie of them, in like maner and forme as iuſtices of gaole deliuerie and of peace maie doo in their ſeſſions, by vertue of a ſtatute thereof made in the third yeare of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord the kings reigne that now is, & that the ſhirifs & other miniſters hauing power to returne panels, ſhall make his or their returns according to ſuch reformation and correction of the iuſtices aforeſaid, vpon the paine limited by the ſame ſtatute.

¶ And it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons be conuict as is aforſaid, by anie information afore the ſaid iuſtices or two of them, within the limits of their diuiſion, that then the one moitie of the pains loſſes & forfetures of monie of the offendors ſo conuict, ſhall be to the kings maieſties vſe, and the other moitie thereof to the partie that purſueth ſuch information, according to the tenors and effect of the ſaid ſeuerall ſtatutes. And if any conuiction be had by reaſon or vpon anie preſentment, that then the kings maieſtie ſhall haue the whole pains, fines, and forfeitures of the offendors, all which pains, fines, loſſes and forfeitures of monie to be due to the king, by reaſon of anie conuiction as is aforeſaid, together with all iſſues, fines and amerciaments afore the ſaid iuſtices within the limits of their diuiſion ſhall be leuied by the ſhiriffe or his miniſters, by a ſcedule indented to be made betwéen ſuch iuſtices or two of them, afore whome ſuch pains, loſſes and forfeitures, fines, iſſues and amerciaments ſhall be loſt and forfeit, and the ſaid ſhirifs, the one partie of which ſcedule ſhalbe certified by the ſaid iuſtices or two of them yerelie in the terme of ſaint Michaell, into the kings excheker, to the intent that the ſhiriffe ſhall there anſwer the ſame to the kings vſe.

Iuſtices of peace

Coſts

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie of the ſaid iuſtices of peace ſhall haue for holding of euerie of their ſaid ſeſſions as is aforeſaid foure ſhillings for their coſts, and the clerke of the ſeſſions by them to be appointed, for the making and writing of the proceſſe and extracts of the ſeſſions, for euerie ſeſſions two ſhillings to be paid by the hands of the ſhiriffe, of the kings part and portion of the pains, loſſes and forfeitures, and of the iſſues, fines, and amerciaments aforeſaid.

¶ Prouided alwaies that iuſtices of peace in cities, boroughs and towns corporat, not being ſhires or counties of themſelues, ſhall aſſemble once in the yeare with the iuſtices of the ſhire, where ſuch cities boroughs or towns corporat be, and ſhall be limited to execute this act within the citie, borough, or towns corporat, where they ſhall be iuſtices of peace, and not elſe where.

Prouided alſo, that no information of preſentment ſhall be had or taken by the ſaid iuſtices of peace, ſo diuided by authoritie of this act, but for ſuch offenſes, defaults or contempts as beene or ſhall be doone within the limits of their diuiſion.

Apparell

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid iuſtices of peace ſo diuided, or two of them within the limits of their diuiſion ſhall haue full power and authoritie to examine, inquire, heare and determine by information & triall as is aforeſaid, all defaults & contempts which after the feaſt of the natiuitie of our Lord next comming, ſhalbe doone or committed by anie ſeruants commonlie called yongmen or groomes, husbandmen, laborers & artificers or anie of them, againſt the tenour forme and effect of the ſtatutes & lawes made for exceſſiue apparell, and to correct and puniſh the offendors therein, being thereof conuict afore them as is aforeſaid, according to ſuch pains, forfeitures and puniſhments as is limited by the ſaid lawes and ſtatutes of apparell, to be leuied paid and certified as is aforeſaid.

Iuſtices

And it is further enacted by the authoritie abouesaid, that as well the iuſtices of aſſiſe, as the iuſtices of Cheſter, and the kings iuſtices of Northwales and Southwales, in all & ſingular their circuits, ſhall haue full authoritie and power by the force of this preſent act, to inquire as well by information, as by preſentment before them, of the defaults, contempts, omiſſions, negligences, fauours, affections, corruptions, and other things whatſoeuer they ſhall be, of all and ſingular the ſaid iuſtices of peace, which ſhall not diligentlie, trulie and dulie, ſee, put & cauſe the ſaid good lawes ſtatutes, ordinances and prouiſions to be put in vre, exerciſe, and perfect execution according to the effects as well of the ſaid ſtatutes hertofore made as of this preſent act, and to heare, examine and determine the ſame as is aforeſaid, and to aſſeſſe ſuch fines vpon the ſaid iuſtices of peace, and vpon euerie of them, being conuict of anie defaults, negligences and offenſes, as is aforeſaid, as to their diſcretions ſhall be thought expedient for the qualitie and quantitie of their offenſes.

Shirifs

And be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all ſhirifs, bailifs, conſtables, hedboroughs, and all and ſingular other officers and miniſters whatſoeuer, as well within liberties as without, ſhall be attendant, aiding and aſſiſting to all and ſingular the ſaid iuſtices of peace, in and for the due execution of this act, vpon paine to make ſuch fines as the ſaid iuſtices of peace or two of them ſhall be aſſeſſed to the kings vſe by their diſcretions.

Prouided alwaies that this ſtatute ſhall not bind anie iuſtice of peace or of Quorum, to aſſemble or execute anie thing in this act, or in anie other ſhire, citie, borough or place, than in ſuch ſhire, citie, borough or place where he ſhalbe reſident and dwelling at the time when ſuch aſſemblie ſhall be made by vertue of this act.

Lords

Prouided alſo that ſuch lords and other which being iuſtice of peace or Quorum, be or ſhall be of the kings priuie counſell, attendant vpon his roiall perſon, or anie principall officer of his highneſſe houſe, attendant vpon his office, and other which ſhall happen to be occupied in his highneſſe ſeruice, by his maieſties commandement, ſhall not be compelled to aſſemble with the iuſtices of peace or Quorum, in anie ſhire, citie, or borough, or otherwiſe bounden to doo or exerciſe by authoritie of this act, that they be bound to doo afore the making of this act, anie thing or things conteined in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo that the iuſtices of either bench, barons of the kings excheker, the kings atturnie and ſolicitor, and all other iuſtices, officers & miniſters being bounden to attend at the terms, ſhall not during their ſuch attendance, be compelled to hold or keepe anie ſeſſions in the limits diuided to them, vpon the aſſemblies of the iuſtices of peace, as is aforeſaid.

Seſſions

And to the intent that the ſaid iuſtices, barons, and all other officers and miniſters aforeſaid, maie the better be once in the yeare at euerie aſſemblie aforeſaid. It is therefore ordeined by authoritie of this act, that the quarter ſeſſions holden after Eaſter, ſhalbe yerelie kept vpon the tueſdaie next after Lowſundaie in euerie ſhire of this realme, Wales and other the kings dominions.

¶This act to continue to the latter end of the next parlement.

An act for butchers to ſell at their libertie by weight or otherwiſe.

Chap.11

IN moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your highneſſe, the wardens, maiſters and fellowſhip of butchers of your citie of London, and all other the butchers within this your realme of England, that where in your parlement holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation the xxiiij yeere of your moſt noble reigne, it was enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed by your maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parlement then aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame parlement, that euerie perſon which ſhould ſell by himſelfe or anie other, the carcaſes of beefs, porke, mutton or veale, or anie part or parcell thereof, after the firſt daie of Auguſt then next inſuing, ſhould ſell the ſame by lawfull weight called haberdepois, and none otherwiſe, the ſaid fleſh to be cut out in reaſonable peeces, according to the requeſt of the buier, in like faſhion as afore that time was vſed without fraud or couin, and that euerie perſon which by himſelfe or anie other, ſhould ſell anie fleſh of the ſaid carcaſes, ſhould haue with him where he ſhould make ſale of the ſaid fleſh, ſufficient beame ſcales & weights ſealed, called haberdepois, for true ſeruing of the buiers. And that after the ſaid firſt day of Auguſt no perſon nor perſons ſhould take or cauſe to be taken for anie pound weight of fleſh of the carcaſes of beefe or porke by him or them to be ſold aboue the priſe of one halfepenie, nor for anie pound weight of fleſh of the carcaſes of mutton or veale, aboue the priſe of one halfpenie and halfe farthing, without deceit or couin, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie pound not ſold by weight, or aboue the ſaid priſe limited, and for euerie default doone contrarie to the true meaning of the ſaid act iij s. iiij d. the one moitie thereof to be to your highneſſe, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint or information, in which ſute none eſſoine, wager of law nor protection ſhould be allowed. The heads, necks, inwards, portnances, legs nor feet to be accounted as part of the carcaſes aforeſaid, but ſuch to be ſold by a lower priſe, as by the ſaid act among other things more plainlie appeereth, which act was in all things by your ſaid orators well, dulie, iuſtlie and trulie executed, according to the tenor and purport of the ſame, vntill your graces parlement holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation the xxvij yeere of your moſt noble reigne, at which time it was then and there, for, and vpon diuers good cauſes and conſiderations, enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that from the xij daie of Aprill in the yeere of our Lord God 1536, vntill the xxiiij daie of Aprill, which ſhould be and was in the yeere of our Lord God 1540, all butchers and other ſelling fleſh by retaile, maie lawfullie kill and ſell all maner beefe, porke, mutton and veale being good and wholeſome for mans bodie at their pleaſures and liberties, as freelie and liberallie as they or anie of them did or might haue doone at anie time before the ſaid eſtatute made the xxiiij yeere of your moſt noble reigne, and alſo before an other ſtatute concerning the ſame made the xxv yeere of your moſt noble reigne, without anie loſſes, paine or impriſonment, forfeiture or penaltie to be by them or anie of them, or the ſucceſſors of them or anie of them, had, loſt, borne or ſuſteined in that behalfe during the time before reherſed, the ſame eſtatutes or anie of them to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And that the ſame eſtatutes and either of them, and euerie clauſe, ſentence and article in them or either of them conteined, ſhould be in ſuſpect and not put in execution during the ſame terme, as by the ſaid act made the ſaid xxvij yeere of your moſt noble reigne, among other things more plainlie appeereth: which acts before reherſed concerning the ſelling of fleſh by weight, as is aforeſaid, if they ſhould heereafter be put in execution, and your ſaid orators compelled to ſell fleſh by weight, according to the purport, tenor and effect of the ſaid eſtatute, made the xxiiij yeere of your moſt noble reigne, ſhould be to the vtter vndooing of your ſaid orators for euer. It maie therefore pleaſe your maieſtie that it maie be by your highneſſe and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, that the ſaid ſtatutes made in the xxiiij and xxv yeere of your moſt noble reigne, maie be repealed, adnihilated, made fruſtrat and void againſt your orators, and all other your ſubiects. And that it maie from henſeforth be lawfull vnto all your ſaid ſubiects to ſell their vittels from time to time by themſelues, their wiues and ſeruants, to all maner of perſons that will buie the ſame in like maner and forme as they might haue doone before the making of the ſaid eſtatutes or anie of them, without anie danger, paine, penaltie or forfeiture to be had for the ſame, anie thing in the ſaid eſtatutes or anie of them conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

miniſters of his moſt honorable houſhold, and by his maieſties ſeruants of the cheker roll: and if his maieſtie ſhall happen to remoue from ſuch his palace or houſe, or other houſe or houſes where ſuch offenſes were done before the triall or determination thereof, then ſuch offenſes might not lawfullie be tried, heard and determined by and before the ſaid officers, but be remitted to be tried and determined by the order of the common lawes of this realme, by reaſon wherof the puniſhment of the ſaid offendors in ſuch caſes hath beene long delaied, and ſometime their offenſes forgotten and not remembred, and ſo eſcape vnpuniſhed. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that all treaſons, miſpriſion of treaſons, murders, manſlaughters, bloudſheds, and malicious ſtrikings, by reaſon wherof bloud is or ſhalbe ſhed againſt the kings peace, which hath beene done ſince the feaſt of All ſaints laſt paſt, or heereafter ſhall be done within anie the palaces or houſes of his highnes or his heires, or anie other houſe or houſes, at ſuch time as his maieſtie hath beene ſince the ſaid feaſt of All ſaints, or heereafter ſhall happen to be then demurrant or abiding in his roiall perſon, ſhall be from henſeforth inquired of, tried, heard & determined within anie the kings palaces or houſes, other houſe or houſes, where his maieſtie or his heirs ſhall herafter repaire vnto or be abiding, in maner and forme following, that is to ſaie, before the lord great maiſter or lord ſteward for the time being of the kings moſt honorable houſhold, and of his heirs and ſucceſſors: and in the abſence of the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward of the houſhold, before the treaſuror & controller for the time being of the kings moſt honorable houſhold, and of his heires and ſucceſſors, and ſteward of the marſhalſeie for the time being, or two of them, whereof the ſteward of the marſhalſeie for the time being to be one, by vertue of their offices, without any commiſſion or other authoritie or power, other than by the authoritie of this preſent act, to be giuen vnto them or anie of them which ſteward of the marſhalſeie ſhall be for euer from time to time aſſigned and appointed by writing vnder the ſeale of the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward for the time being: and whether the kings maieſtie or his heires hath or at anie time heereafter ſhall be remoued from the palace, houſe or houſes where ſuch offenſes were or ſhall be done, or not remoued before they be inquired of, tried, heard and determined: yet ſuch offenſes ſhall by the authoritie of this act, allwaies from henſeforth be inquired of, tried, heard and determined before the kings maieſties and his heirs officers and miniſters of houſhold before named, or two of them, as is aboueſaid, by the inquiſition and verdict of his highneſſe, and his heires houſhold ſeruants in his or their cheker roll, in maner and forme as before and heerafter is expreſſed in this preſent act, and at ſuch palace houſe and houſes where his maieſtie or his heires ſhall be at anie time heereafter demurrant or abiding. And that all ſuch returns of proceſſe, and all executions and iudgements concerning the premiſſes, ſhall be had and done by the officers before and heereafter expreſſed, and in maner and forme as before and heerafter in this preſent act is conteined. And that all inquiſitions vpon the view of perſons ſlaine, or heereafter to be ſlaine within anie the kings ſaid palaces or houſes, or other houſe or houſes aforeſaid, ſhall be by authoritie of this act, had and taken heereafter for euer, by the coroner for the time being of the houſhold of our ſouereigne lord the king or his heires, without anie adioining or aſſiſting of an other coroner of anie ſhire within this realme, by the oth of twelue or mo of the yeomen officers of the kings and his heirs moſt honorable houſhold, returned by the two clearks controllers, the clearks of the cheque, and the clerks marſhals, or one of them for the time being of the ſame houſhold, to whome the ſaid coroner of the ſame houſhold ſhall direct his precept, which coroner of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings houſhold, ſhall be from time to time named, appointed and aſſigned by the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward for the time being, and that the ſaid coroner of the ſaid houſhold ſhall from time to time for euer without delaie, certifie vnder his ſeale and the ſeales of ſuch perſons as ſhall be ſo ſworne before him, all ſuch inquiſitions, indictments and offices, vpon the view of all dead bodies being ſlaine at anie time ſith the feaſt of All ſaints aforſaid, or which herafter ſhall be ſlaine within anie the kings ſaid palaces or houſes, or other houſe or houſes aforeſaid, before the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, and in his abſence before the treaſuror, controller and ſteward of the marſhalſeie aforeſaid, or before two of them, whereof the ſaid ſteward of the marſhalſeie to be one: and that ſuch inquiſitions and offices ſo certified, ſhall be deemed, adiudged and taken for euer as good and effectuall in the law to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as anie inquiſition taken vpon the view of the bodie of anie perſon being dead, by anie coroner of anie countie of this realme, hath beene or ſhall be adiudged or taken.

Clerks

Summons

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that the ſaid two clerks controllers, clerks of the cheque, and clerks marſhals for the time being of the kings ſaid houſhold, and of his heires or one of them for euer, vpon a precept to them or to anie of them heereafter to be made by the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, or in the abſence of the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, by the ſaid treaſuror and controller of the kings moſt honorable houſhold, and the ſaid ſteward of the marſhalſeie, or by two of them, whereof the ſaid ſteward of the marſhalſeie to be one, ſhall haue full power to ſummon, warne and returne the names of foure and twentie perſons, being yeomen officers of the kings ſaid houſhold, and of his heires and the ſaid cheker roll, to inquire of ſuch treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, murders, manſlaughters, and other malicious ſtrikings, by reaſon wherof bloud is or ſhalbe ſhed againſt the kings peace, before the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, & in his abſence before the ſaid treaſuror, controller & ſteward of the marſhalſeie, or before two of them at the leaſt, wherof the ſteward to be one. And that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, and in his abſence to the ſaid treaſuror, controller, and the ſaid ſteward aforeſaid, or two of them, whereof the ſaid ſteward to be one, before whome ſuch returns ſhall be ſo made, as is aforeſaid, to cauſe ſuch number of the ſaid foure and twentie perſons ſo returned vpon the number of twelue perſons, as to him or them ſhall ſeeme expedient, to inquire of ſuch treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, murders, manſlaughters, and other malicious ſtrikings, by reaſon whereof bloud is or ſhall be ſhed againſt the kings peace within the ſaid palaces or houſes, or other the ſaid houſe or houſes, ſith the ſaid feaſt of All ſaints, or at anie time heereafter ſhall be committed or doone within the ſaid palace or houſe, or other the ſaid houſe or houſes. And if anie perſon or perſons be indicted by the ſaid iurie, ſo ſworne before them, as is aforeſaid, or by inquiſition before the ſaid coroner of the ſaid houſhold, & certified before the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, or in the abſence of the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, before the ſaid treaſuror controller and ſteward, or before two of them, whereof the ſaid ſteward to be one, as is aforſaid: that then immediatlie without delaie the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, and in his abſence the ſaid treaſuror, controller and ſteward, or two of them, whereof the ſaid ſteward to be one, before whome the ſaid preſentment, inquiſition or indictment ſhall be ſo found or certified by the ſaid coroner of the ſame houſhold, ſhall arreigne before them all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons ſo indicted, according to the courſe of the common law of this realme, and forthwith after iſſue ioined betweene the king our ſoueraigne lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the priſoner ſo arreigned the ſame daie and place, or anie other daie and place, at the pleaſure of the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, and in his abſence at the pleaſure of the ſaid treaſuror, controller and ſteward of the marſhalſeie, or two of them, as is aforeſaid, ſhall make an other precept to the ſaid clerks controllers, clearks of the cheque, and clerks marſhals for the time being of the ſaid houſhold, or to one of them, to ſummon and returne one other iurie of foure and twentie perſons, to appeere before the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward, and in his abſence before the ſaid treaſuror, controller & ſteward of the marſhalſeie, or before two of them, wherof the ſame ſteward to be one, at ſuch daie, time & place, and vpon ſuch paine as ſhall be then limited & appointed of the ſeruants & gentlemen officers of the kings chamber, his heirs & ſucceſſors, & of the ſame houſhold which now take or heerafter ſhall take wages by the kings cheker roll. And that the ſaid lord grand maiſter or lord ſteward (if he be there preſent) or in his abſence the ſaid treaſuror, controller and ſteward of the ſaid marſhalſeie, or two of them, whereof the ſame ſteward to be one, before whome ſuch iurie ſhall be ſo returned, ſhall cauſe twelue of the ſame iurie to be ſworne without anie maner of challenge to be had or allowed for anie maner of cauſe, to anie of the ſaid iurie (malice onelie excepted) truelie to be tried betwene our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king and his heires, and ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall be ſo indicted and arreigned of ſuch treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, murders, manſlaughters, & other malicious ſtrikings, by reaſon whereof bloud is or ſhalbe ſhed againſt the kings peace, or of anie of them. And if anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted & arreigned, be found giltie of anie treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, murders or manſlaughters: that then all and euerie ſuch perſon & perſons ſo found giltie, ſhall haue iudgement of life and member, and ſuffer ſuch pains of death, and ſhall forfeit all their manors, lands, tenements, goods & chattels, in like maner and forme as if the ſame perſon and perſons had béene found giltie of anie the ſaid offenſes by the order of the common lawes of this realme, without allowing to anie ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo found giltie of anie of the ſame offenſes, the benefit of his or their clergie, or priuilege of anie ſanctuarie. And if anie perſon or perſons ſo arreigned be found giltie for malicious ſtriking, by reaſon wherof bloud is, hath beene, or ſhall be ſhed againſt the kings peace within the ſaid palace or houſe, or anie other houſe, or anie other the ſaid houſe or houſes: that then euerie ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall from henſeforth haue iudgement by the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward (if he be preſent) & in his abſence by the other before named, before whom ſuch perſon or perſons ſhalbe ſo found giltie to haue his right hand ſtriken off, before the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward (if he be there preſent) & in his abſence before the ſaid treaſuror, controller and ſteward of the marſhalſeie, or two of them at the leaſt, wherof the ſaid ſteward to be one, and at ſuch place and time as he or they, before whom ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be ſo found giltie, ſhall appoint execution to be doone, and the ſame execution to be doone by ſuch perſon as the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward (if he be there preſent) and in his abſence as the ſaid treaſuror, controller, and ſteward of the marſhalſeie, or two of them, wherof the ſteward to be one, ſhall name or appoint, & alſo ſhall haue iudgement to haue perpetuall impriſonment during his life, and ſhall paie fine and ranſome at the kings maieſties pleaſure, his heirs and ſucceſſors.

Mute

¶And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon or perſons ſo indicted of treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, murder, manſlaughter, or other malicious ſtriking, by reaſon whereof bloud is, hath béene or ſhall be ſhed againſt the kings peace, as is aforeſaid, and thereof be arreigned, & obſtinatlie refuſe to anſwer directlie to the ſame offenſes whereof he or they be ſo indicted, or if ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted & arreigned ſtand mute, & will not ſpeake, then ſuch perſon & perſons ſo refuſing to anſwer and ſtanding mute, ſhalbe conuict, iudged and déemed giltie of the thing whereof he or they is or ſhalbe ſo indicted or arreigned, & ſhall haue iudgment to haue like pains of death and other pains, puniſhments, executions, forfeitures, loſſes and ſeizures of lands, tenements, goods & chattels for the ſame, as he or they ought or ſhould haue had for ſuch like offenſes, as if he or they were or ſhould be found giltie thereof by the verdict of twelue men,

Clerks Crier

¶And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that the ſaid clerks, controllers, clerks of the cheque & clerks marſhall, or one of them for the time being, ſhall from time to time name, aſſigne and appoint a crier to make proclamations, and to call the iuries, and to doo other things as becommeth a crier of a court to doo belonging to that office.

Noblemen Seruants

¶Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act before rehearſed concerning malicious ſtrikings, by reaſon whereof bloud is, hath béene or ſhall be ſhed againſt the kings peace, ne the pains & forfeitures before rehearſed for the puniſhment of the ſame, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie noble man, ne to anie other perſon or perſons, that ſhall happen to ſtrike his or their ſeruants within the ſaid palaces or houſe, or anie other houſe or houſes aforſaid, or within the limits of the ſame, with his or their hands or fiſts, or with anie ſmall ſtaffe or ſticke, for correction and puniſhment for anie offenſes committed and doone, or to be committed and doone, ne to anie of the kings officers or ſeruants that ſhall ſtrike anie perſon within the ſame palace or houſe, or anie other houſe or houſes aforeſaid, although by reaſon of the ſaid ſtroke or ſtrokes there happened to be anie bloudſhed of ſuch perſon as ſhall ſo be ſtriken, except yͤ perſon ſo ſtriken doo die of the ſame ſtroke, within one yere next after the ſame ſtroke giuen.

Triall Peeres

¶Prouided alſo & be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid, that the triall of péeres of this relme for committing or dooing anie offenſes in this act before mentioned, ſhall be as it hath béene vſed in times paſt: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Marſhalſy

¶Prouided alſo, that the libertie and iuriſdiction of the marſhalſeie court & circuit of the virge ſhall be in all points, priuileges and authorities vſed by the miniſters and officers of the ſame, in as full and as ample maner as it hath béene héeretofore lawfullie vſed, for murders, felonies, offenſes and all treſpaſſes, contracts and other ſutes whatſoeuer they be: anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Coroner

¶And for as much as before this time one Richard Staverton of Lincolns inne gentleman, was commanded & appointed by the kings maieſtie to occupie the office of the coroner of his ſaid houſe, by force whereof he hath continued officer in the ſame by the ſpace of 16 yéers or more: be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid Richard Stauerton ſhall haue, occupie & inioie the ſaid office of coroner during his life, togither with all ſuch profits and commodities as before this time hath béene due and apperteining in anie wiſe to the ſame. And after his deceaſe the ſaid coroner alwaies to be made, aſſigned and appointed by the ſaid lord great maiſter or lord ſteward for the time being.

¶And for that héereafter it might be doubted, how far the limits and bounds of the ſaid houſe or houſes ſhould extend or be taken, within which limits or bounds anie the ſaid offenſes, which haue béene committed or doone ſith the ſaid feaſt of All ſaints, or héereafter ſhall be committed or doone, for the which all and euerie perſon and perſons ſo offending, ſhould haue and ſuffer the pains,penalties and forfeitures,as is aforeſaid. For plaine declaration thereof, and for the auoiding of all doubts and queſtions which maie heereafter happen to ariſe,of,for,or vpon the ſame, be it enacted by the authoritie aforſaid,that the limits and bounds of the ſaid houſe and houſes, within which anie the offenſes aforeſaid now committed or doone ſith the ſaid feaſt of All ſaints, or heereafter to be committed or doone, ſhall be puniſhed as is aforeſaid, ſhall extend and be taken within theſe places inſuing,and in none other,that is to ſaie; within anie edifices,courts,places,gardens or orchards,or houſes,within the ports,ward of anie of the houſe or houſes aboue reherſed, or within anie gardens,priuie walks,orchards,tiltyards,woodyards,tennis plaies,cockfights,bowling allies,neere adioining to anie of the houſes aboue rehearſed,& being part of the ſame, or within two hundred foot of the ſtandard of anie outward gate or gates of anie of the houſes aboue rehearſed, commonlie vſed for paſſage out or from anie the houſe or houſes aboue rehearſed.

¶Prouided alwaie that this act ſhall not take effect, or be put in execution till from and after the firſt daie of Maie next inſuing, except onlie for murders and manſlaughters, for the which offenſes of murder and manſlaughter,the ſame to take effect from the feaſt of All ſaints laſt paſt,according to the tenor and effect of the ſaid act.

¶Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act before rehearſed concerning malicious ſtrikings,by reaſon whereof,bloud is,hath beene or ſhall be ſhed againſt the kings peace,ne the pains and forfeitures before reherſed for the puniſhment of the ſame, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie noble man, ne to anie other perſon or perſons that ſhall happen to ſtrike his or their ſeruants within the ſaid palaces or houſe, or anie other houſe or houſes,place or places aforeſaid,or within the limits of the ſame, with his or their hands or fiſts,or with anie ſmall ſtaffe or ſticke,for correction & puniſhment,for anie offenſes committed and doone,or to be committed and doone,ne to anie of the kings officer or officers,that in executing of his or their office,ſhall ſtrike anie perſon or perſons with his or their hands or fiſts, or with anie ſmall ſtaffe or ſticke, or with anie ſtaffe commonlie called a tipſtaffe within the ſame palace or houſe,or anie other palaces or houſes,or places aforeſaid,ne to anie other perſon or perſons that in dooing ſeruice at anie triumph or anie other time of ſeruice by the kings commandement, or of anie his graces counſell, or other his graces head officers, ſhall happen for the executing of their ſaid ſeruice,to ſtrike anie perſon or perſons with his or their hands or fiſts,or with anie ſmall ſtaffe or ſticke,or with anie ſtaffe commonlie called a tipſtaffe, within the ſame palace or houſe, or anie other palaces or houſes,or place or places aforeſaid,although by reaſon of yͤ ſame ſtroke or ſtrokes there happen to be anie bloudſhed of ſuch perſon as ſhall be ſo ſtricken,except the perſon ſo ſtricken doo die of the ſame ſtroke within one yeere next after the ſtroke ſo giuen.

An act concerning certeine lordſhips tranſlated from the countie of Denbigh,to the countie of Flint.

Chap.13.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxij yeere of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord king Henrie the viij that now is, it was amongſt other enacted, that notwithſtanding eight countie daies in one yeere,and nine countie daies another yeere,were before that time holden & kept within the countie palantine of Cheſter,before the iuſticer of the ſame countie,that from that time foorthward the ſaid iuſticer ſhould hold and keepe but onlie two ſeſſions euerie yeere within yͤ ſame countie, th'one halfe wherof to be kept after Michaelmas, & the other after Eaſter,& that from thenſeforth all the ſaid countie daies ſhould cleerlie ceaſe & determine for euer,as by the ſame act at large more plaine appeereth. And foraſmuch as within the ſame countie palantine it hath not bin vſed nor ſeene,that the ſhirife of the ſame countie hath kept anie ſhire court for determination of plaints,and calling the exigends,as is commonlie vſed in other ſhires of this realme,there was therfore neuer ſithens the making of the ſaid act,anie exigend of felonie or other cauſe proclaimed within the ſaid countie,to the no little hinderance of iuſtice,& to the great boldnes of offendors. For reformation wherof,be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord,by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,& by the authoritie of yͤ ſame,that the ſhirife of yͤ ſame countie for the time being, after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming,ſhalbe bounden to keepe his ſhire court in yͤ ſhire hall of yͤ ſaid countie euerie month for euer,for determination of plaints & actions vnder xl s.& for proclamations and alling of exigends & other neceſſarie cauſes as is vſed in other ſhires of this realme of England, and that two head coroners for the bodie of the ſaid ſhire ſhall be elected and choſen by vertue of the ſaid writ, De coronatore eligendo, to be awarded out of the excheker of Cheſter, which coroners ſhall be bound to ſit with the ſaid ſhirife at the ſaid courts, to giue iudgements vpon vtlaries, and to doo all other things as apperteineth.

Seſſions.

¶And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid two ſeſſions in forme aforeſaid, to be holden within the ſaid countie, ſhall and maie be holden at ſuch time and times, as by the ſaid iuſticer or his deputie ſhalbe appointed, as well before the ſaid feaſts of Eaſter and Michaelmas as anie other time, according as is moſt commonlie vſed in other ſhires of this realme, ſo alwais open proclamation be thereof made by the ſpace of xv daies at the leaſt, before the firſt daie of the keeping of the ſame ſeſſions.

Proclamat.

¶And where the lordſhips, townes and hamlets of Hop and Aſſaph, haue of old time be reputed, accepted and taken as part and parcell of the countie of Flint, and ſo haue béene continued vntill now of late, that by an act of parlement made in the xxvij yéere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord the kings maieſtie that now is, the ſame were aſſigned to the countie of Denbigh. And alſo where parcell of the pariſh of Hawarden is at this daie and of old time hath bin, accepted taken and vſed as part of the ſaid countie of Flint, and the reſidue of the ſaid pariſh of Hawarden is and alwaies hath bin without the precinct, limits and iuriſdiction of the ſame countie. Be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that as well the ſaid lordſhips, townes & hamlets of Hop, Aſſaph and the ſaid whole pariſh of Hawarden, togither with the lordſhip of the ſame, as alſo the lordſhips, townes and pariſhes of Moldeſdale, Mereford and Oſeleie, and all the lands, tenements and hereditaments within the precinct and limits of the ſame, or anie of them, ſhall from henſeforth be reputed, accepted, taken & adiudged to be within the ſaid countie of Flint, as a member, part & parcell of the ſame countie of Flint, and not of or within anie other countie or ſhire, anie ſtatute, ordinance, law, or cuſtome héertofore had or vſed to the contrarie therof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Tallages.

¶Prouided alwaies that the inhabitants and tenants of the ſaid lordſhips, townes, hamlets, and pariſhes of Hop, Aſſaph, Moldeſdale, Mereford and Hawarden, ſhall paie their miſes and tallages, when and as oft as the ſame ſhall be due, with the inhabitants of ſuch ſhire or ſhires as before time hath béene accuſtomed. And that the ſaid lordſhips of Hop, Moldeſdale, Mereford, Oſeleie and Hawarden, with the whole and entire pariſh of Hawarden, and all the grounds, lands, tenements and hereditaments within the precinct and limits of the ſame, ſhall from henſeforth be called, taken and accepted the hundreds of Moldeſdale in the countie of Flint. And that the ſaid lordſhip of Aſſaph with all the grounds, lands, tenements and hereditaments within the precinct and limits of the ſame, ſhall be taken, accepted and adiudged to be as part and parcell of the hundred of Ruthland in the ſame countie.

An act concerning falſe propheſies vpon declaration of names, armes or badges.

Chap. 14

Where diuers and ſundrie perſons making their foundation by propheſies, haue taken vpon them a knowledge as it were what ſhall become of them, which beare in their armes, cognizance or badge, féelds, beaſts, foules or anie other thing or things which haue béene vſed or accuſtomed to be put in anie of the ſame, or in & vpon the letters of their names, haue deuiſed, deſcanted and practiſed to make folke thinke that by their vntrue geſſes it might be knowen what good or euill things ſhould come, happen or be doone by or to ſuch perſons, as bare and had ſuch badges or cognizances, or had ſuch letters in their names to the great perill & deſtruction of ſuch noble perſonages of whome ſuch falſe propheſies haue or ſhould héereafter be ſet forth, wherby in times paſt manie noble men haue ſuffred, and (if their prince would giue any eare therto) might hap to doo héerafter. For remedie wherof be it enacted by the kings highnes, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement, that if any perſon or perſons print or write, or elſe ſpeake, ſing or declare to anie other perſon of the king, or of anie other perſon, after the firſt daie of Iulie next comming, any ſuch falſe propheſies vpon occaſion of any armes, féelds, beaſts, foules & other ſuch like things, accuſtomed in armes, cognizances, badges or ſignets, or by reaſon of letters of the name of the king, or of anie other perſon, to the intent to ſet forth ſuch propheſies, that then euerie ſuch offenſe ſhalbe déemed felonie, & the offendors therin, and their counſellors and abbettors, and euerie of them, being thereof conuict by the order of the common law, afore ſuch as haue or ſhall haue power & authoritie to heare and determine felonies ſhall ſuffer ſuch pains of death, forfeitures of lands, tenements, goods and chattels as in caſes of felonie at the common law is determined and appointed, without priuilege of clergie or ſanctuarie to be allowed to them or anie of them.

Sanctuarie

An act touching the tranſlation of ſanctuarie from Mancheſter to Weſtcheſter.

Chap. 15

Where at the parlement begun at Weſtminſter the xxviij daie of April, in the xxxj yeere of our ſoueraigne lord the kings moſt noble & victorious reigne, and there continued by diuers prorogations vnto the xxv daie of Maie, in the xxxij yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, & holden vnto the xxiiij daie of Iulie in the ſaid xxxij yeere, at which daie the ſaid parlement was by his proceſſe authoritie finiſhed & ended, at which ſaid parlement amongſt manie other things by his highneſſe, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, it was enacted that the towne of Mancheſter in the countie of Lancaſter amongſt other towns & places from thenſeforth ſhould be admitted, allowed and taken to be ſanctuarie,and a place of priuilege and tuition for terme of life,of all and ſingular offendors and malefactors,of whatſoeuer qualitie,kind or nature all & euerie their offenſes be, for the which ſaid offenſes and crimes,the pains & puniſhment of death ſhould inſue by the ſtatutes, lawes & cuſtoms of this realme,other than ſuch as by & in the ſaid act of parlement be expreſſed and forpriſed. And where the ſaid towne of Mancheſter is and hath a long time bin a towne well inhabited, & the kings ſubiects inhabitants of the ſame towne well ſet a worke in making of cloths,as well of linnen as of woollen,wherby the inhabitants of the ſaid towne haue obteined, gotten and come vnto riches and wealthie liuings, and haue kept and ſet manie artificers and poore folks to worke within the ſaid towne, and by reaſon of the great occupieng, good order, ſtreict and true dealing of the inhabitants of the ſaid towne,manie ſtrangers as well of Ireland as of other places within this realme, haue reſorted to the ſaid towne with linnen yarne, wools and other neceſſarie wares for making of cloths to be ſold there,and haue vſed to credit and truſt the poore inhabitants of the ſame towne which were not able & had not redie monie to paie in hand for the ſaid yarns,wools & wares, vnto ſuch time the ſaid creditees with their induſtrie, labor & pains, might make cloths of the ſaid wools,yarne and other neceſſarie wares,and ſold the ſame to content and paie their creditors,wherein hath conſiſted much of the commonwealth of the ſaid towne, and manie poore folks had liuing and children,and ſeruants there vertuouſlie brought vp in honeſt and true labor,out of all idleneſſe. And foraſmuch as of neceſſitie the ſaid linnen yarne muſt lie without as well in the night as in the daie continuallie for the ſpace of one halfe yeere to be whited, before it can be made cloth, and the woollen cloths there made muſt hang vpon the tainter to be dried before it can be dreſſed vp, and for the ſafegard thereof, it is and ſhall be expedient and neceſſarie, that ſubſtantiall, honeſt, iuſt, true and credible perſons be and ſhould dwell in the ſaid towne, and no maner of light perſon or perſons there to be inhabitants. And where alſo manie ſtrangers inhabiting in other towneſhips and places,haue vſed cuſtomablie to reſort to the ſaid towne of Mancheſter, with a great number of cottons to be vttered and ſold to the inhabitants of the ſame towne,to the great profit of all the inhabitants of the ſame, & thereby manie poore people haue bin well ſet a worke,as well with dreſſing & freezing of the ſaid cottons as with putting to ſale the ſame. And foraſmuch as diuers light and euill diſpoſed perſons ſince the making of the ſaid eſtatute,for certeine offenſes by them committed and doone, haue now of late reſorted and made their abode within the ſaid towne of Mancheſter and liued in idleneſſe,not alonelie giuing euill occaſion to honeſt and true laborers and ſeruants,within the ſaid townes to liue in ſuch ſort of idleneſſe, but alſo haue allured & deuiſed diuers ſeruants and laborers within the ſaid towne,to practiſe & vſe vnlawfull games, whereby they haue conſumed and miſpent their maiſters goods being in their hands,and ouer that ſince the reſort of the ſaid perſons to the ſaid towne,there hath bin committed and doone diuers thefts and felonies, as in felonious breaking of walke mils,and ſtealing cloths thither brought to be fulled, and alſo in ſtealing of yarne laid out to be whited,and in ſtealing and cutting downe great peeces of cloths from the tainters,as well by night as by daie,to the great impoueriſhment of the owners therof,ſo that they be not able to keepe their credit with their ſaid creditors, by reaſon whereof the ſaid Iriſhmen and other which heerbefore haue vſed to bring and ſell their wools,yarne and other neceſſarie wares for making of cloths to the inhabitants of the ſaid towne,and to credit them for the paiment thereof,as before is expreſſed,doo now withdraw themſelues with their ſaid wares, and will not bring nor ſell the ſame wares in the ſaid towne,nor to the inhabitants thereof, without readie paiment in hand, and the ſaid perſons which vſed to bring thither the ſaid cottons, doo alſo withdraw themſelues, which ſhall be to the vtter decaie and deſolation of the ſaid towne within ſhort time, if the ſaid offendors and ſanctuarie men, and ſuch other, ſhall be ſuffered to make their abode within the ſaid towne. And alſo foraſmuch as the ſaid towne of Mancheſter is not walled, whereby the ſaid ſanctuarie men maie or can ſafelie be kept in the night ſeaſon, but that they maie and doo continuallie eſcape out of the ſame towne by night,and commit ſundrie great robberies and felonies vpon the kings louing and obedient ſubiects, repairing to the ſame towne, and after their ſaid felonies and robberies ſo committed, maie without anie let of wall or fortreſſe, enter in euerie part and quarter of the ſame towne. And alſo foraſmuch as there is neither maior, ſhirife, bailife, nor other head officer or officers within the ſame towne, other than a ſteward being officer immediatlie vnder the cheefe lord of the ſame towne, by reaſon whereof or by whome the ſaid ſanctuarie men might be the more in dread,or better puniſhed after their ſaid robberies or euill doings, nor yet anie priſon houſe or gaole ſafelie to keepe them in after their ſaid offenſes and euill doings. Therefore be it ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled,and by authoritie of the ſame,that the ſaid former act of parlement concerning the priuilege, ſanctuarie and tuition for the ſaid offendors onlie within the ſaid towne of Mancheſter,ſhall and maie be from the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S.Iohn Baptiſt now next comming,repealed,adnihilat and made fruſtrat. And the ſaid towne Repeale. of Mancheſter from the ſaid feaſt of S.Iohn Baptiſt,ſhall be of like condition,eſtate and qualitie, diſcharged of the ſaid ſanctuarie and priuilege, as the ſame towne was before the making of the ſaid former act,anie thing,ſentence,clauſe or article conteined in the ſaid former act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And that it maie be ordeined and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that the citie of Weſtcheſter, in the countie of Cheſter, which is well inhabited, hauing no ſuch trade of merchandize, and hath a ſtrong gaile within the ſame citie, for puniſhment of malefactors, and alſo there is in the ſame citie a maior, bailiffs and other head officers, amongſt other townes and places from henſeforth maie be admitted, allowed and taken to be a ſanctuarie, and a place of priuilege and tuition for terme of life, of all and ſingular offendors and malefactors, of whatſoeuer qualitie, kind and nature all and euerie the ſaid offenſes be, for the which ſaid offenſes and crimes, the pains and puniſhment of death ſhould inſue by the ſtatutes, lawes and cuſtoms of this realme, other than ſuch as by and in the ſaid act of parlement be expreſſed and forepriſed.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this act or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to repell, adnihilat or make void the ſaid former act of parlement made in the ſaid xxxij yeere of our ſaid soueraigne lord the king concerning anie ſanctuarie or priuileged places, limited in the ſaid former act, other than onlie the ſaid towne of Mancheſter.

Mancheſter

¶ And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the conſtables of the ſaid towne of Mancheſter for the time being, taking and aſſociating with them twentie of the inhabitants of the ſaid towne by their diſcretions, ſhall haue the ſafe conduction, leading & bringing of all ſanctuarie men, now or héereafter before the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. John Baptiſt next comming, being in the ſaid towne, to conduct, lead and ſafe bring from the ſaid towne of Mancheſter to the foreſaid citie of Weſtcheſter, there to remaine as ſanctuarie men, and to be deliuered to the maior and shiriffs of the ſaid citie of Weſtcheſter, by indenture to be made betwéene the foreſaid conſtables and the ſaid maior and ſhiriffs there for the time being, in which indentures ſhall be compriſed and ſpecified the names of all ſuch ſanctuarie perſons as ſhall be ſo deliuered, and that the ſaid ſanctuarie perſons and euerie of them, ſhall be in all places meane betwéene Mancheſter and Weſtcheſter, in the time of their ſaid conduction leading and bringing from Mancheſter to Weſtcheſter, as they and euerie of them had béene and remained ſanctuarie perſons in Mancheſter aforeſaid.

Indenture.

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if héerafter vpon any reaſonable matter or cauſe it ſhall appéere to the kings maieſtie by information or otherwiſe, that the ſaid citie of Cheſter is not méet to ſanctuarie, nor for a place of priuilege and tuition for the ſaid offendors and malefactors as béene aboue remembred, or for ſuch like of their conditions, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the kings highneſſe, by his graces proclamation, to extinct and determine the ſaid ſanctuarie within the ſaid citie of Cheſter, and cléerelie to diſcharge the ſame citie thereof, and therevpon to appoint, ordeine & make one other towne or place to be ſanctuarie, and a place of priuilege and tuition for the ſaid offendors and malefactors, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Chap.16.

Where as for the moſt part in all the ſhires and counties of this realme of England, there be and haue béene certeine priuat commodities growing and riſing onelie within the ſaid ſhires or counties, by the which onelie commodities politikelie prouided for and continued, the cities and townes within the ſaid ſhires and counties, and the inhabitants of the ſame, be and haue béene without anie forren aid or ſuccor plentiouſlie and wealthilie kept, mainteined, defended and preſerued, all which commodities by the deceit and ſubtill practiſes as well of merchants ſtrangers, as of diuers other couetous and euill conſcioned perſons, haue béene and be manie times cleerelie deſtroied and ſubuerted, to the great loſſe and decaie as well of the ſaid cities and townes within euerie ſuch ſhires and counties, as of the inhabitants of the ſame. Amongſt the which ſaid cities, townes, ſhires and counties, hauing priuat commodities, the citie of Norwich and diuers other, and manie townes in the countie of Norfolke, hath beene alwaies héeretofore kept, preſerued and mainteined, and the poore men and other dwellers and inhabitants in the ſame, godlie, honeſtlie and vertuouſlie brought vp, occupied and exerciſed by a commoditie growing and riſing onlie within the ſaid countie, that is to ſaie, the making and weauing of worſteds and other cloths, which hath béene made & wouen of the yarne called worſted yarne, ſpun of the woll growing and comming of the ſhéepe onelie within the countie of Norfolke, and in no place elſe where. And foraſmuch as the ſaid commoditie of making and weauing of worſteds within the ſaid citie of Norwich and countie of Norfolke, by the deceit and craftie practiſes of the great multitude of regrators and buiers of the ſaid yarne called worſted yarne, is wholie decaied and taken awaie from the ſaid dwellers and inhabitants in the ſaid citie and ſhire, that is to ſaie, in that that the ſaid regrators doo by the ſaid yarne buie ſmall parcels of manie men, & after that they haue ſo by little and little bought a great quantitie of the ſaid yarne, doo cauſe it to be wouen or otherwiſe wrought in the ſaid citie or countie, but doo ſell, ſend and carie awaie the ſame yarne out of this realme of England, into France, Flanders & ſuch other like places beyond the ſea, wherewith the ſaid yarne, ſtrangers not being borne vnder the kings dominions, doo make and weaue ſais, ruſſels, worſted, and diuers and ſundrie other clothes and things, the which after they haue ſo made and wouen, the ſaid ſtrangers doo ſell againe to vs Engliſhmen within this ſaid realme of England, to their great profit, lucre and aduantage, and to the cleere decaie and deſtruction of the ſaid commoditie: by reaſon wherof the ſaid citie of Norwich, & other the ſaid townes in the ſaid countie of Norfolke, are not onlie moſt likelie to be brought to vtter ruine and decaie, and the poore men & other dwellers and inhabitants of the ſame, which haue béene heertofore ſet on worke, kept & mainteined onelie by the ſaid commoditie, illuded & deceiued thereof, but alſo are verie like to be left deſtitute & vnprouided of a liuing, or anie maner of art or occupation by the which they ſhalbe able within the ſaid citie or countie to acquire to themſelues, their wiues and children, anie honeſt waie and trade to liue. Be it therefore ordeined and enacted by the aſſent of the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, & the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon ne perſons from henſeforth ſhall buie ne cauſe to be bought within the ſaid citie of Norwich or countie of Norfolke, anie yarne called worſted yarne, ẏ which ſhalbe ſpun within the ſaid citie or countie, but onelie ſuch perſon and perſons being weauers or other artificers, the which ſhall weaue or otherwiſe worke, or cauſe to be wouen or otherwiſe wrought the ſaid yarne ſo bought within the ſaid citie and countie, in the ſaid citie of Norwich, or ſome other market towne or towns, or els where within the ſaid countie of Norfolke, vpon the paine of forfeiting for euerie pound weight of yarne called worſted yarne, ſo bought within the ſaid citie of Norwich or countie of Norfolke, & not wouen or otherwiſe wrought within the ſaid citie or countie, as is aforeſaid, 40 s. the one halfe thereof to our ſouereigne lord the king, & the other halfe to him or them that ſhall ſo take the ſaid yarne, or ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in which ſute none eſſoine, protection ne wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

And where alſo in the laſt ſeſſion of the ſame parlement begun at Weſtminſter the xij daie of Aprill, in the ſaid 31 yéere of the kings moſt noble reigne, & there by diuers prorogations continued vntill the 24 daie of Iulie, in the 32 yéere of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the kings reigne, there was one other act was made and eſtabliſhed for & concerning the reformation of miſpleading, ieofailes & atturneis, which ſame act with the prouiſo therein conteined, were made to indure vntill the laſt daie of the next parlement, as by the ſame act and prouiſo amongſt other things therein conteined more plainlie appéereth. And for as much as all & ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts aboue mentioned, be good and beneficiall for the commonwealth of this realme: be it therefore enacted & ordeined by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all and ſingular the ſaid ſeuerall acts and euerie of them, and all clauſes, articles & prouiſions in them and euerie of them conteined, ſhall continue and indure in their force and ſtrength, & be obſerued and kept in all things vnto the laſt daie of the next parlement.

Water hempe

Forfeit

¶ Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that it ſhall not be lawfull to anie perſon or perſons at anie time héereafter, to water anie maner of hempe or flax in anie riuer, running water, ſtreame, brooke or other common pond where beaſts be vſed to be watered, but onelie in the ground or pits for the ſame ordeined, & to be ordeined, made and prouided, or els in other their owne ſeuerall ponds, vpon paine euerie perſon & perſons offending or dooing contrarie to the tenor, meaning & purport of this eſtatute, to looſe & forfeit for euery time ſo dooing 20 s. the one halfe thereof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king, and the other halfe therof to the partie gréeued, or to anie other the kings ſubiects that will ſue for the ſame forfeiture in anie court of record, léet or lawdaie, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in which ſute no protection, wager of law, eſſoine, or other dilatorie plée ſhall be admitted or allowed.

An act for the true making of karſies.

WHere at the parlement holden at London the third daie of Nouember, in the xxj. yéere of our moſt dred ſoueraigne lord the kings moſt gratious reigne that now is, & from thenſe adiourned to Weſtminſter and there continued by ſundrie prorogations vnto the 4 daie of Februarie in the 27 yéere of his ſaid graces reigne, it was ordeined and enacted, in the ſeſſion of the ſaid parlement, in the ſaid 27 yeere amongſt other things, that after the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next inſuing after the making of the ſaid act, euerie clothier within this realme ſhould ſet his ſeale of lead vnto euerie cloth and karſie that ſhould be readie made and dreſſed to be put to ſale, in which ſeale of lead ſhould be conteined the true and iuſt content of the length of euerie of the ſame cloths or karſies, as it ſhould be dulie found by euerie buier of the ſame, vpon due proofe therof to be tried by the water. And in caſe vpon anie ſuch proofe to be made by anie buier of them at the water, there ſhould be found leſſe and ſmaller content in length, than ſhould be conteined and ſpecified in euerie of the ſaid ſeales, that then euerie ſuch clothier, making ſuch default, ſhould looſe and forfeit vnto euerie ſuch buier of the ſame, the double value of ſo much cloth as ſhould want or lacke of his ſaid content in length, at the onelie ſight and iudgement of anie two indifferent perſons that ſhould meaſure the ſaid cloths & karſies. And furthermore it was enacted by the ſaid act, that euery karſie ſo to be put to ſale, ſhould conteine in bredth one yard within the liſt, vpon due proofe thereof to be tried by the water, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch karſie lacking of the ſaid content in bredth 20 d. as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined more at large it is expreſſed and maie appéere. Which ſaid act, if it ſhould be put in execution, ſhould not alonelie grow and be to the great loſſes and decaie of the kings highneſſe cuſtoms, but alſo to the great hinderance, hurt and impoueriſhment of the kings louing and obedient ſubiects, & ſpeciallie of thoſe inhabiting within the countie of Berkſ. Southt. Oxfordſhire, Surreie, Suſſex, and Yorkeſhire, where there are a great number of courſe karſies made, being of the value of 30 ſhillings the péece or there about: which karſies are made of courſe wooll, and are commonlie ſold for 20 d. or 22 d. the yard coloured, of which courſe ſort of karſies there are commonlie made in the ſaid counties 500 againſt one fine karſie, by the making and working whereof a great number of the kings ſubiects are ſet a worke and get their liuings, which courſe karſies are vttered into the far parties beyond the ſea, and few or none vttered in this realme, and haue not béene vſed ſith the remembrance of man to be made of ſuch content in bredth, as is limited in the ſaid eſtatute, for that the wooll and yarne whereof the ſaid karſies are made, be of ſuch kinds and properties, as well by reaſon of the courſeneſſe of the wooll, as alſo for the manifold difference of ſundrie ſpinnings of the ſame, and for diuers other conſiderations, the karſies thereof made can not be ſo certeinlie wrought, as the ſame ſhould and might kéepe anie true or iuſt certeintie of length or bredth throughlie, when it ſhall come to the water, although the workers and makers of the ſame doo put thereunto the beſt of their forces and diligence, as by experience and proofe therof hath béene dulie prooued, and is now right well perceiued: by occaſion wherof the makers & workers of ſuch courſe karſies, ſhould be compelled either to forſake their myſteries of making of ſuch courſe karſies, whereby manie thouſand perſons dwelling within this realme, and ſpeciallie within the counties aboue reherſed, now hauing good and competent liuings ſhould be vnoccupied and fall to idlenes, or els to incur the danger and penaltie of the ſaid eſtatute to their vtter vndooing.

¶ For remedie wherof, be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, & by authoritie of the ſame, that from henſefoꝛth it ſhall and maie be lawfull to all and euerie of the kings ſubiects, to make, worke, & put to ſale at their libertie and pleaſure, all maner of ſuch coloured karſie and karſies which ſhalbe ſold at or for xx.d. or xxij.d. the yard or vnder, and not aboue, of ſuch lengths & bredths as they did, might or were woont to doo before the making of the ſaid act, made in the ſaid 27 yeere of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings reigne, or anie other act, without incurring or running into anie danger or penaltie for the ſame, the ſaid act made in the ſaid 27 yeere, or anie thing therein conteined, or anie other act or ſtatute made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Coloured karſies

¶Prouided alwaie, that all maner of karſies to be made, wrought and put to ſale within this realme, of the colours of blacke, marble, ruſſet and white (which ſaid colours be commonlie ſold and retailed within this relme) ſhall be made of ſuch content in bredth, as is limited in the ſaid former act, vpon paine in the ſame former act conteined, anie thing in this preſent act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶And it is further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie perſon or perſons, which ſhall make or worke anie karſies of the priſes aboue rehearſed or vnder, ſhall at all times hereafter from time to time, make the ſame karſies trulie without deceipt, and that they or anie of them doo nor ſhall falſlie or vntrulie make or ſtop anie maner karſies with flox, thrums, or other deceiuable thing or things, to the deceipt of anie perſon or perſons, nor ſhall by colour of anie libertie to them giuen, or other matter compriſed in this eſtatute, make, worke and put to ſale anie coloured karſie or karſies of the priſes aboue rehearſed, which ſhall conteine anie leſſe in bredth than three quarters of a yard and one naile within the liſt, to be tried at the water, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie karſie ſo falſlie made or ſtopped with flox, thrums, or other deceiuable thing or things, to the deceipt of anie perſon or perſons twentie ſhillings, and vpon paine to forfeit for euerie ſuch coloured karſie of the priſe aboue reherſed to be made and put to ſale, not conteining three quarters of a yard and one naile in bredth within the liſt, to be tried at the water, as is aforeſaid twentie penſe, the one halfe of which forfeitures to be to our ſouereigne lord the king, and the other halfe thereof to be to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, wherin the defendant ſhall not be receiued to wage his law, nor anie eſſoine nor protection for ſuch defendant to be allowed.

Forfeit

¶Prouided alwaie, that the ſaid former act made in the ſaid 27 yeere, and all clauſes and articles in the ſame conteined (other than concerning the bredth of coloured karſies of the priſes afore rehearſed) ſhall ſtand and be in their full ſtrength and effect, and be kept and obſerued according to the tenor and purport of the ſame act.

Continuation

¶Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the alneger of euerie countie ſhall & maie lawfullie ſeale euerie of the ſame colored karſies of the priſes aboueſaid, in like maner & forme as he or they ſhould or might haue doon, if yͤ ſaid former act had neuer bin had nor made.

Alneger

¶Prouided alſo, that none of the ſaid karſies of the priſes afore limited, nor anie other karſie or brode cloth made within this realme to be vttered & ſold, ſhall be put to ſale, before that they and euerie of them ſhall be ſealed by the alneger with the kings ſeale as hath beene accuſtomed.

An act expounding a certeine ſtatute concerning ſhipping of cloths.

Chap. 19.

WHere in the parlement begun & holden at London the 3 daie of Nouember, in the 21 yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread ſouereigne lord king Henrie the eight, & from thenſe adiorned to Weſtminſter, and there alſo holden and continued by diuers prorogations vnto the 4 daie of Februarie, in the 28 yeere of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the kings reigne, and there then holden vntill the diſſolution thereof: it was by act of parlement ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that euerie white woollen cloth ſold for 4 pounds and vnder, & euerie coloured cloth ſold for 3 pounds and vnder, might be carried and conueied into the parties of beyond the ſea, there to be ſold at the pleaſure of the buiers of the ſaid cloth and cloths, vnbarbed, vnſhorne and vnrowed, anie act or acts to the contrarie made notwithſtanding. And by the ſame act it was further enacted, that if anie perſon or perſons did ſend or conueie, or cauſe to be ſent or conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, anie white woollen cloth aboue the value of 4 pounds, or anie coloured cloth aboue the priſe of 3 li. vnrowed, vnbarbed and vnſhorne, in other forme than is aboue mentioned, that then the perſon or perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit the value of the ſaid cloths ſo carried and conueied into the parties of beyond the ſea, the one moitie of the ſame forfeiture to be to the vſe of our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king, and the other moitie to anie perſon which will or ſhall ſue by bill, writ or otherwiſe, againſt anie perſon for the ſame, and the defendant in anie plee vpon anie ſuch ſute or action be not admitted to wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine for anie ſuch defendant be allowed in the ſame, as by the ſame act more plainlie appeereth. Upon the interpretation and expounding of certeine words within the ſaid act, diuerſitie of opinions hath riſen amongſt ſome perſons, that if any perſon or perſons ſend or conueie, or cauſe to be ſent or conueied towards the parties of beyond the ſea, any white woollen cloth aboue the value of 4 pounds, or anie coloured cloth aboue the value of 3 li., vnrowed, vnbarbed or vnſhorne, whether the ſame cloth ſo ſent or the value thereof be forfeited, before the ſame cloth be carried or conueied into the parties of beyond the ſea. For a plaine declaration of the premiſſes, be it ordeined & enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that no perſon or perſons from henſeforth ſhall carrie or ſhip, or cauſe to be ſhipped in anie ſhip, bote, craie or veſſell, anie white woollen cloth aboue the value of 4 li. or any colored cloth aboue the value of 3 li. vnrowed, vnbarbed or vnſhorne, to the intent to be conueied into the parties beyond the ſea, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth or cloths, or the value thereof, the ſame forfeiture to be recouered in ſuch maner and forme as is afore mentioned.

An act for due proceſſe to be had in high treaſons, and in caſes of lunacie or madnes.

Chap. 20. FOraſmuch as ſometime ſome perſons being accuſed of high treaſons, haue after they haue béene examined before the kings maieſties counſell, confeſſed their offenſes of high treaſon, & yet neuertheles after the dooing of their treaſons, and examinations and confeſſions thereof, as is aforeſaid, haue fallen to madnes or lunacie, whereby the condigne puniſhment of their treaſons, were they neuer ſo notable and deteſtable, hath béene deferred, ſpared and delaied, and whether their madnes or lunacie by them outwardlie ſhewed were of truth, or falſlie contriued and counterfeited, it is a thing almoſt impoſſible certeinlie to iudge or trie. Be it therfore enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, to auoid all ſiniſter, counterfeit and falſe practiſes and imaginations, that maie be vſed for excuſe of puniſhment of high treaſons, in ſuch caſes where they be doone or committed by perſon or perſons of good, perfect & whole memorie at the time of ſuch their offenſes, that if anie perſon or perſons haue doone or committed, or héereafter ſhall doo or commit anie high treaſons when they were in good, whole and perfect memorie, and after their accuſation, examination, and confeſſion therof before anie the kings maieſties counſell, ſhall happen to fall to madnes or lunacie, that yet neuertheleſſe, if it ſhall appéere by the teſtimonie of foure of the kings counſell or mo, that ſuch perſons at the time of dooing their treaſon, and at the time of their accuſation, examination and confeſſion therof, were of good, perfect and whole memorie, and then not mad nor lunatike, but ſithens that time fallen to madnes or lunacie, and ſo certified into the kings chancerie by writing ſubſcribed with the names of foure of the ſaid counſell or

Commiſſ. mo: that then in euerie ſuch caſe, the kings maieſties commiſſion of Oier & determiner of the treaſons ſhalbe awarded out of the ſaid chancerie vnder his highnes great ſeale, into ſuch ſhire & place & to ſuch perſons, as it ſhall pleaſe the kings moſt roiall maieſtie to limit & appoint, in which commiſſion ſhalbe ſpeciallie mentioned & expreſſed the names of ſuch perſon or perſons who ſhall happen to be accuſed and examined of treaſon before anie the kings maieſties counſell, as is aforſaid,

Teſtimonie and an expreſſe mention, that by the teſtimonie of foure of the kings counſell, ſuch perſon or perſons ſo accuſed or examined of treaſon, were of good, perfect and whole memorie at the time of committing their offenſes, and at the time of their accuſation, examination and confeſſion thereof, and that ſithen that time they be become mad or lunatike. By vertue of which commiſſion, the commiſ-

Inquirie ſioners limited by the ſame commiſſion, ſhall haue power and authoritie to inquire of the treaſons doone by ſuch perſons, by the inhabitants or fréeholders of the ſhire where ſuch commiſſion ſhall be directed to, whereſoeuer the ſaid treaſons were doone or committed. And if ſuch perſon or perſons aforeſaid ſhall happen to be indicted of high treaſon, then the ſaid commiſſioners, without the perſonall appéerance or arreignment of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted, ſhall cauſe the ſhiriffe or his miniſters, or other hauing authoritie to returne proceſſe of ſuch caſes, to returne a panell before them of ſufficient and lawfull fréeholders of the ſhire where ſuch perſons ſhall be indicted, for the triall of their treaſons conteined in their indictment. And after returne of the panell, & appéerance of the iurie, the ſaid commiſſioners in the abſence of the ſaid perſon or perſons indicted, being mad or lunatike, without anie arreignment, anſwer or plée to the indictment, ſhall ſweare 12 of ſuch of the ſaid iurie as ſhall be returned before them, to trie whether the perſon or perſons indicted be giltie of the treaſons conteined in the indictment, or of anie of them, or not giltie, cauſing onelie the indictment to be read to the ſaid iurie, and after the reading thereof, cauſe and ſuffer vpon euidence to be giuen to the iurie, as well for the king, as for the partie touching the treaſons conteined in the indictment, as to their diſcretions ſhall ſéeme conuenient. Whereupon the iurie ſhalbe bounden to giue their verdict according to their euidence, as if the perſons indicted had bin preſent arreigned and pleaded to the ſame: and if it ſhall happen ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted to be found giltie by the ſaid iurie ſo charged to trie ſuch treaſons, that then the offendors of ſuch treaſons ſo found

Judgment giltie, ſhall haue ſuch iudgement & ſuffer ſuch paines of death, forfeitures of lands, goods, chattels, and all other things, as is commonlie limited in caſes of high treaſon, & as if ſuch perſons had bin of good and whole memorie, and perſonallie preſent arreigned and pleaded to their indictment, and had béene found giltie thereof, their madnes or lunacie, or their abſence, non arreignment, or not pleading to the ſaid indictment, in anie wiſe not letting nor withſtanding.

Peers ¶Prouided alwaie, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie of the péers of this realme ſhall happen to be accuſed & examined of high treaſon before anie the kings counſell, & doo confeſſe the ſame, & afterward fall to madnes or lunacie as is aforſaid, that then ſuch treſons doone and committed by anie péere of the realme, and by him or hir confeſſed vpon examination thereof before anie the kings counſell, as is aforeſaid, and their confeſſions, if they can write, ſubſcribed with their names, ſhall be inquired of by vertue of the kings commiſſion of Oier & determiner to be awarded in maner & forme aboue rehearſed. And if they ſhall happen to be indicted of high trea-

Triall ſon by vertue of ſuch commiſſion, yet neuertheles their triall ſhalbe alwaies had by their péers before the high ſteward of England, to be aſſigned by the kings highnes, & that the high ſteward to be aſſigned by the kings maieſtie in euerie ſuch caſe, ſhall haue the record of the indictment brought to him, and ſhall cauſe to be ſummoned to appéere before him the péeres of the realme, as hath bin accuſtomed at a daie & place by the ſaid high ſteward to be limited, at which daie and place the ſaid high ſteward, after the appearance of the peers before him, hauing the record of the ſaid indictment before him, ſhall in the abſence of the perſon indicted, which ſhall happen to be mad or lunatike, as is aforeſaid, and without his or hir arreignment or pleading to the indictment, cauſe the ſaid indictment to be read to the peers, & in their preſence cauſe to be declared by his diſcretion all maner of euidence & witnes touching the treaſons conteined in the ſaid indictment, & afterward charge the ſaid peeres vpon their faiths and duties of allegiance that they owen to the kings maieſtie, to trie whether the perſon indicted be giltie of the treaſons conteined in the indictments or anie of them, or not giltie: and if they ſhall find him or hir giltie, that then ſuch iudgement, execution and forfeitures ſhall be had, made & doone, as if ſuch perſon indicted had beene of good memorie, & perſonallie preſent arreigned & pleaded to the ſaid indictment, & had beene found giltie of the treaſons therein conteined, the madnes or lunacie of ſuch perſons in ſuch caſes, as is aforeſaid, notwithſtanding.

Judgement

¶And be it further enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that if anie perſon or perſons ſhall happen to be attainted & conuicted of high treaſon by authoritie of parlement, or by the due courſe of the common laws or ſtatutes of this realme, & afterwards fall to madnes or lunacie, that yet neuertheles they ſhall haue & ſuffer execution, their madnes or lunacie notwithſtanding. And if anie perſon or perſons ſhalbe attainted of high treaſon by the courſe of the common lawes or ſtatutes of this realme, that in euerie ſuch caſe euerie ſuch attaindor by the common law ſhalbe of as good ſtrength, value, force and effect, as if it had bin doone by authoritie of parlement: & that the kings maieſtie, his heirs and ſucceſſors ſhall haue as much benefit & aduantage by ſuch attaindor, aſwell of vſes, rights, entrees, conditions, as poſſeſſions, reuerſions, remainders, and all other things, as if it had beene doone and declared by authoritie of parlement, and ſhalbe deemed and adiudged in actuall and reall poſſeſſions of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, vſes, goods, chattels, and all other things of the offendors ſo attainted, which his highneſſe ought lawfullie to haue, and which they ſo being attainted, ought and might lawfullie loſe and forfeit if the attaindor had beene doone by authoritie of parlement, without anie office or inquiſition to be found of the ſame: anie law, ſtatute or vſe of this realme to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Execution

¶Sauing to all & euerie perſon & perſons, and bodies politike, and their heirs, aſſignes and ſucceſſors and euerie of them, other than ſuch perſon and perſons which heereafter ſhalbe attainted of high treaſon, and their heirs and aſſignes and euerie of them, and all and euerie other perſon and perſons claiming by them or anie of them, or to their vſes, or to the vſes of anie of them, after the ſaid treaſons committed, all ſuch right, title, vſe, poſſeſſion, entree, reuerſions, remainders, intereſts, conditions, fees, offices, rents, annuities, commons, leaſes, and all other commodities, profits and hereditaments whatſoeuer they or anie of them ſhould, might or ought to haue had, if this act had neuer beene had ne made.

Chap. 21.

AS their moſt humble wiſe beſeechen your moſt roiall maieſtie, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and all other your moſt louing and obedient ſubiects the commons of this your moſt louing and obedient ſubiects the commons of this your moſt high court of parlement aſſembled, that where beſides anie mans expectation ſuch chance hath hapned by miſtreſſe Katharin Howard, which your highneſſe tooke to your wife, both to your maieſtie cheeflie, and ſo conſequentlie to vs all, that the like we thinke hath ſcarſe beene ſeene, the likelihoods and apparances being ſo far contrarie to that which by euident & due proofe is now found true. Firſt, that it will pleaſe your maieſtie to take it in ſuch part as thereby ariſe not to vs all a greater inconuenience, which is the trouble of your hart and vnquietneſſe of your mind: for that ſhould be a ſhortening of that which we all ſhould repent & moſt deſire the contrarie. Secondlie, that it would pleaſe your maieſtie to pardon all your louing ſubiects, which ſince theſe matters came to their knowledge, haue deteſted and abhorred hir for this fact both in word, maner & deed, and of words vttered by them of hir & hir adherents not mainteinable in your lawes, conſidering that they did and doo it onelie for the great zeale and loue that they beare to your maieſtie, and the abhomination of the deteſtable fact. Thirdlie, that ſince it pleaſed your maieſtie vpon thoſe likelie outward apparances to take the ſaid miſtreſſe Katharine Howard to your wife and queene of your moſt excellent goodneſſe and for a godlie purpoſe, and alſo moſt liberallie to indue hir with great poſſeſſions for the maintenance of the ſame, thinking & taking hir at that time to be chaſt and of pure, cleane & honeſt liuing, the contrarie whereof is now dulie proued, both by hir owne confeſſion & others alſo: & that alſo ſhe after the marriage betwene your maieſtie and hir, tooke moſt traitorouſlie to hir ſeruice the ſame perſon with whom ſhe vſed that vicious life before, whoſe name was Francis Dereham, and vſed him in manie ſecret conferences & meſſages after, as by his confeſſion and attaindor dooth more plainlie appeere: calling alſo to hir ſeruice in roome of chamberer a woman which was priuie to hir noughtie life before, whereby ſhe hath ſhewed a great apparance and in maner a due proofe of will to returne to hir old & abhominable life with the foreſaid perſon: and yet ſhe not ſatiſfied with theſe abhominable carnall deſires, the end wherof how perillous it was & might haue beene to your maieſtie & perſon were hard to expreſſe, hath alſo ſince that time moſt traitorouſly confederated hir ſelfe with the ladie Jane Rochford widow, late wife of George Boleine knight, late lord Rochford, to bring hir vicious and abhominable purpoſe to paſſe with Thomas Culpeper eſquire, late one of the gentlemen of your graces priuie chamber, by whoſe means the queene brought to paſſe, that the

And alſo that the ſaid quéene Katharine, ladie Jane Rochford, Thomas Culpeper and Francis Dereham, and euerie of them, ſhall looſe & forfeit to your highnes and to your heires, all ſuch rights, title, intereſt, vſe & poſſeſſion, which they or anie of them had the 25 daie of Auguſt, in the 33 yéere of your reigne, or at any time ſithens, of, in, or to all ſuch their honors, manors, meſes, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, remainders, vſes, poſſeſſions, offices, rights, conditions and all other their hereditaments, of what names, natures or qualities ſoeuer they be, and that all ſuch rights, title, intereſt, vſe and poſſeſſion, which they or anie of them had or of right ought to haue the ſaid 25 daie of Auguſt, or anie time ſithens, of in or to the ſame honors, caſtles, manors, meſes, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, remainders, vſes, poſſeſſions, offices, rights, commodities and hereditaments, by the authoritie aforeſaid, ſhalbe déemed, veſted and iudged to be in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of your maieſtie, without anie office or inquiſition therof hereafter to be taken and found, according to the common laws of this your relme. to their vſes, or to the vſe of anie of them, or to the vſe of anie of their ſaid heirs, all ſuch right, title, vſe, poſſeſſion, intereſt, reuerſion, remainder, entrées, condition, fées, offices, rents, annuities, commons, and all other commodities and hereditaments, whatſoeuer they or anie of them might, could or ought to haue had if this act had neuer béene had ne made. And fourthlie, for as much as theſe foreſaid moſt abhominable and deteſtable high treaſons haue ſo much touched the perill of your moſt roiall perſon, the danger and trouble of this your whole realme, and in reſpect thereof it were requiſit that condigne puniſhment ſhould be had and ſpéedilie prouided for the reſt of them which yet haue not ſuffered, and not to be delaied nor protracted to the end or prorogation of this preſent parlement, which is moſt chéefelie called and ſummoned for other generall cauſes and matters for the wealth of this realme. Therefore your moſt humble and obedient ſubiects, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, moſt humblie beſéech your moſt roiall maieſtie, that when they with one aſſent be agréed & accorded vpon this act, for that it ſhould not be requiſit to trouble your maieſtie for acceſſe in your moſt roiall perſon to the vpper houſe, to aſſent to the ſame, nor conuenient that your maieſties roiall aſſent ſhould be protracted to the end or prorogation of this parlement, that then it maie pleaſe your maieſtie, for example of ſpéedie puniſhment of ſuch deteſtable & abhominable treaſons, to grant your

of the firſt deteſtable and abhominable treaſons, and yet not arreigned nor attainted of the ſame, that they now maie be by act of parlement conuicted & attainted of the ſame. And that ſéeing the lord William Howard, the ladie Margaret Howard his wife, Edward Walgraue, Katharine Tilneie, Alice Reſtwold, Jone Bulmer, Anne Howard, Robert Damport, Malin Tilneie, Margaret Benet, and William Aſhbie, were and be of the ſaid miſpriſion of high treaſon alreadie conuict & attainted by the due courſe of the common laws of this relme, as by the records therof more plainlie at large appéereth, that this their iuſt conuiction and attaindor maie alſo be approued by act of parlement: & that the ſaid Agnes ducheſſe of Norfolke, Katharine counteſſe of Bridgewater, lord William Howard, ladie Margaret Howard, Edward Walgraue, Katharine Tilneie, Alice Reſtwold, Jone Bulmer, Anne Howard, Robert Damport, Malin Tilneie, Margaret Benet, & William Aſhbie and euerie of them, ſhall loſe and forfeit to your highnes all their goods, chattels, leaſes for yéeres, monie, plate, iewels and debts, & haue impriſonment of their bodies during their liues: and alſo that all their manors, meſes, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions and hereditaments, ſhall be ſeized, remaine and continue into your maieſties hands during their naturall liues, if their titles and intereſts ſo long indure. And that your highnes ſhall be anſwered of the rents, reuenues, iſſues and profits thereof, from the firſt daie of October in the 33 yéere of your reigne, during their ſaid liues, if their titles and intereſts ſo long indure. Sauing to all and euerie perſon and perſons and bodies politike, and to the heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes of euerie of them, other than the ſaid Agnes ducheſſe of Norfolke, Katharine counteſſe of Bridgewater, lord William Howard, ladie Margaret Howard, Edward Walgraue, Katharine Tilneie, Alice Reſtwold, Jone Bulmer, Anne Howard, Robert Damport, Malin Tilneie, Margaret Benet and William Aſhbie, all ſuch right, title, vſe, poſſeſſion, intereſts, fées, offices, rents, annuities, commons, and all other hereditaments, commodities and profits, whatſoeuer they or anie of them might, ſhould or ought to haue had in or to the premiſſes, if this act had neuer béene had ne made.

¶Therefore be it enacted by the kings maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall & temporall, & the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all things conteined by expreſſe words in this their foreſaid petition, concerning or touching treaſons or miſpriſions, or depending vpon them, or longing to them, ſhall ſtand in full force of an act, according to their moſt humble requeſt & petition, anie former act made to yͤ contrarie notwithſtanding.

Roiall aſſent

¶And inſuing the foreſaid petition, concerning the kings roiall aſſent to be doone and had by the kings letters patents, to be aſſigned with the kings hand, and ſealed with his great ſeale, as is aforeſaid, and to auoid all doubts and ambiguities héereafter touching the ſame: be it declared by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the kings roiall aſſent, by his letters patents vnder his great ſeale, and aſſigned with his hand, and declared and notified in his abſence to the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and to the commons aſſembled togither in the high houſe, is and euer was of as good ſtrength and force, as though the kings perſon had béene there perſonallie preſent, and had aſſented openlie and publikelie to the ſame.

¶And be it alſo enacted, that this roiall aſſent, and all other roiall aſſents héerafter to be ſo giuen by the kings of this realme, and notified as is aforeſaid, ſhall be taken and reputed good and effectuall to all intents and purpoſes without doubt or ambiguitie, anie cuſtome or vſe to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Pardon

¶And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that all & euerie perſon or perſons, which haue not onelie by their words ſpoken, vttered and publiſhed, but alſo in their déeds doone, deuiſed and ſet forth by writings all that they could for bringing this high treaſon of the ſaid quéene & hir complices to light, and alſo to ſéeke and ſearch all due means for condigne puniſhment to be had for theſe horrible and deteſtable treaſons, miſpriſions and offenſes afore rehearſed, or otherwiſe haue ſpoken, deteſted and abhorred hir ſaid abhominable offenſes, ſhalbe cléerlie pardoned, acquited and diſcharged for the ſame againſt the kings highnes, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer.

¶And although it were not conuenient that ſuch a fréedome and libertie were giuen to ſubiects without good ground, as they might ſecretlie murmur, and with ſeditious ſlander openlie defame their quéene and miſtreſſe: ſo alſo were it vnméet and dangerous to the ſuretie of our ſoureigne lord and king (being a iuſt cauſe) to be conſtrained by anie law, to kéepe it and conceale it from him or ſome of his counſell, which of dutie both ſhould and ought ſhortlie after to notice the ſame vnto him: therefore be it enacted by the kings maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, that it ſhall be lawfull for anie of the kings ſubiects and léeges, if they themſelues perfectlie know, or by vehement preſumption may and doo perceiue anie will, act, or condition of lightnes of bodie in hir, which for the time being ſhall be quéene of this realme, that they maie lawfullie diſcloſe the ſame vnto his maieſtie or ſome of his counſell, which they thinke will diſcloſe the ſame vnto his highneſſe, anie act, ſtatute or law made to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶Prouided neuertheleſſe, that they ſhall not openlie blow abrode, nor priuatlie whiſper it in other folks eares, wherby a ſlander might riſe of hir till it be diuulged by the aſſent of his highnes or of his counſell.

Concealment

¶And it is further enacted, that if anie of the ſaid counſell being within the realme, doo conceale it and not diſcloſe it vnto his maieſtie, or ſome of his counſell reſiant or attendant in that time on his roiall perſon, by word or writing within xx. daies after anie of them ſhall heare of it, and if they be out of the realme, with as conuenient ſpeed and diligence as they maie: that then they to haue like puniſhment and forfeiture, as the offendors ſhould. And in caſe the ſaid counſell or anie of them doo heare or perceiue anie ſuch thing as afore is rehearſed, that then it ſhall be lawfull for them all or anie of them, after notice thereof giuen to the kings maieſtie, to imagine, ſeeke and proue all waies to their wits poſſible, to bring the matter and offenſe to true knowledge and light, and they ſo dooing to incur no danger of law or penaltie, anie act or ſtatute made heeretofore to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

¶ And furthermore be it enacted, for euiting of ſuch like hainous and abhominable treaſons, in caſe it fortune either the king our ſoueraigne lord that now is, or anie of his ſucceſſors, hereafter being kings of England, ſhould take a fanſie to anie woman, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer ſhe be, either ſubiect or reſiant within his dominions or realmes, in waie of mariage, thinking & eſteeming hir a pure & cleane maid, when indeed the proofe maie or after ſhall appeere contrarie, either by due teſtimonie confeſſion of the partie or parties, & yet ſhe neuertheles willinglie doo couple hir ſelfe with hir ſoueraigne lord & king in mariage, without plaine declaration before of hir vnchaſt life vnto his maieſtie: that then euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be deemed and adiudged high treaſon, & the offendor therin conuict by the order of the law, ſhall haue & ſuffer ſuch paines of death, losſes and forfeitures of lands, tenements, goods, chattels, and debts, as in caſes of high treaſon. Treaſon

¶ And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie perſon, ſubiect or reſiant within the relme, or in anie the kings dominions, hearing ſaie by honeſt report, or hauing perfect knowledge, that ſuch a woman being not chaſt, ſhall marie with hir ſoueraigne lord and king of this realme, to the danger of his moſt roiall perſon, & of his ſucceſſion, & doo not reueale and ſhew the ſame offenſe to the king for the time being, or to one of his priuie counſell, before ſuch mariage be had, if poſſiblie and conuenientlie be maie, or els within twentie daies next after that he ſhall haue certeine knowledge of ſuch mariage: that then euerie ſuch offenſe ſhall be taken and deemed miſpriſion of high treaſon, and the offendors conuict thereof by the order of the law, ſhall haue ſuch paines and ſuffer ſuch loſſes and forfeitures, as in caſes of miſpriſion of high treaſon. Miſpriſiõ

¶ And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if the queene or wife of the prince, moue, procure or ſtir anie perſon by anie writing, meſſage, words or tokens, or otherwiſe for that purpoſe, to vſe or to haue carnall knowledge with them: or if anie perſon doo moue, procure, or make means to the queene, or the wife of the prince, to vſe or haue carnall knowledge of them or anie of them: that then as well the queene and the wife of the prince ſo procuring or carnallie knowen, as euerie other perſon procuring, as is aforeſaid, or carnallie knowing the queene, or the wife of the prince, and their aidors, counſellors, and abettors, and euerie of them, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high traitors, and being conuict of ſuch offenſes, ſhall haue and ſuffer ſuch iudgement, paines of death, and forfeitures of lands, goods, chattels, and debts, as in caſes of high treaſon. Treaſon

Chap. 22.

WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter the ſeuen and twentith daie of Aprill, in the one and thirtie yeere of the reigne of our ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight, by the grace of God king of England, France, & Ireland, defendor of the faith, and of the church of England, and alſo of Ireland, in earth the ſupreame head, & from thenſe adiourned to Weſtminſter aforeſaid, by diuers prorogations, vntill the fiue & twentith daie of Maie, in the two & thirtith yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, and then & there holden, amongſt other things the kings graces court, called the court of the kings wards, was then & there by authoritie of the ſaid parlement, eſtabliſhed, made, and authorized into a court of record, as by an act thereof made in the ſaid parlement more plainlie appeereth. To the which court it ſeemeth to the kings maieſtie to be neceſſarie & verie expedient to haue the liueries, which ſhall be ſued within this his realme and other his dominions, incorporated & vnited, & alſo all indentures, ſcedules, bonds, & writings to be made in for and vpon liueries to be regiſtred and inrolled in the ſaid court, being a court of record, to the intent that ſuch indentures, ſcedules, bonds, and writings maie be there ſurelie and certenlie knowen, ſearched & vſed, as well for the king as the partie, as caſe ſhall require. In conſideration wherof, and for that it ſhall not onlie be honorable & commodious to the kings maieſtie, to haue all the proceedings of the ſaid liueries to be of record, but alſo greatlie to the comfort and profit of his graces ſubiects, that ſhall make anie ſearch for the ſame for his or their commodities. The kings highnes is therefore pleaſed & contented, that it be enacted by authoritie of this preſent parlement, that the office of the maiſter or maiſters of the liueries, with the circumſtances therof, ſhall be vnited annexed and kept vnto the ſaid court of the kings wards: and that the authoritie and office to compound for anie liueries, with the proceedings therin ſhall be from henſefoorth in the rule, power and gouernance of the ſaid court in maner and forme heereafter declared, anie law, cuſtome, patent, grant or vſage heeretofore had or vſed to the contrarie notwithſtanding. And that the maiſter of the kings wards for the time being, which is the cheefe and principall head officer of the ſame court, ſhall from henſefoorth for euer be maiſter of the kings wards and of the liueries, and that all other officers and miniſters appointed, or heereafter to be appointed in the ſame court of the kings wards, by authoritie of the ſtatute made of the erection of the ſame court, ſhall be called officers and miniſters of the kings court of his wards and liueries.

Vnion of offices

Compoſition for liberties

¶ And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings ſaid highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors from time to time ſhall make, name and appoint one officer and miniſter of and in the ſaid court, which ſhall be called the ſurueior of the kings liueries, and ſhall be the ſecond perſon of the ſame court. And, that the atturneie of the kings wards for the time being, which by the ſaid former act of the ſaid court of the kings wards, was appointed to be the ſecond perſon of the ſaid court, ſhall from henſeforth for euer ſtand and be the third perſon of the ſaid court of the kings wards and liueries. And all other officers and miniſters of the ſaid court to be placed as is limited in the ſame former act.

Surueior
Atturneie

¶ And further be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the kings highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors, maie from time to time, make, name and appoint an apt perſon to be clerke of the ſaid liueries, which ſhall make all indentures, ſcedules, obligations and writings of bargens héereafter to be made and granted for anie liueries, and that one part of the ſaid indentures and ſcedules, or other writings indented, neceſſarie for the ſame, ſhall remaine with the partie or parties, and ſhall be ſealed with the ſeale of the ſaid maiſter of the wards and liueries, and of the ſaid ſurueior of the ſaid liueries. And that the ſame indentures, obligations, & the accounts to be made vpon the ſame and euerie of them, from henſeforth ſhall be taken, ordered and vſed, and alſo be of the ſame force, ſtrength and effect, to all intents and purpoſes, as the obligations, indentures, and accounts be and ought to be by the ſaid former act. And that euerie ſuch perſon which in forme aforeſaid ſhall be appointed to be ſurueior of the ſaid liueries, ſhall take a corporall oth afore the ſaid maiſter of the kings wards and liueries for the time being after the tenor inſuing.

Clerke

¶ Yée ſhall ſweare, that ye ſhall well & trulie ſerue our ſoueraigne lord the king in the office of ſurueior of his graces liueries, and ſhall miniſter equall iuſtice to rich and poore, to the beſt of your power, wit, and knowledge, and that yée ſhall diligentlie procure all things which maie honeſtlie and iuſtlie be to the kings aduantage and profit, and to the augmentation of the rights and prerogatiues of his graces crowne, and from time to time deliuer with ſpéed ſuch as ſhall haue to doo afore you: and that yée ſhall not take nor receiue of anie perſon or perſons, anie gift or reward in any caſe or matter depending or to depend in the ſaid court of the kings wards, wherein the kings highneſſe ſhall be partie: whereby anie preiudice, hinderance, leſſe or diſherison ſhall or maie grow to the kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

¶ And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid clerke of the ſaid liueries ſhall take a corporall oth afore the ſaid maiſter of the wards and liueries for the time being: after the tenor héereafter inſuing.

Oth of the clearke

Yée ſhall ſweare that you ſhall well and trulie ſerue the king our ſoueraigne lord in your office of clerke of the liueries, and trulie doo and execute without delaie, fraud, or couin, all and euerie thing and things, which you ought to doo by reaſon of your ſaid office, according to the forme and effect of this preſent act, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

¶ And that all liueries which héereafter ſhall be ſued out of the kings graces hands, his heires and ſucceſſors, and out of the hands of anie of them, of anie caſtels, honors, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, remainders, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, ſhall be in the order, ſuruei̇e and gouernance of the ſaid court of the kings wards and liueries, and of the miniſters of the ſame.

Surueie

Liuerie

¶ And be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, hauing lands, or tenements aboue the yearelie value of fiue pounds, ſhall haue or ſue anie liuerie before inquiſition or office found before the eſchetor or other commiſſioner or commiſſioners, by vertue of the kings writ or commiſſion to be directed out of the kings chancerie or other courts, hauing authoritie to make ſuch writs or commiſſions for ſuing of liueries, which writs or commiſſions ſhall not paſſe out of the chancerie or anie other courts, but by a warrant or bill to be aſſigned & ſubſcribed with the hands & names of the ſaid maiſter ſurueior, atturneie, & receiuor, or thrée, two, or one of them, to be directed and deliuered to the chancellor of England, or to anie other chancellor or officer, hauing power to award ſuch writs. And if the lands and tenements, whereof anie inquiſition is to be had by vertue of anie ſuch writ or commiſſion, excéed the yéerelie value of fiue pounds, that then ſuch as ſue for ſuch writs or commiſſions, ſhall paie for the ſeale and writing thereof ſuch fées as hath béene accuſtomed. And if the ſaid lands and tenements, whereof anie ſuch inquiſitions and offices is to be found by vertue of anie ſuch writ or commiſſion, excéed not the ſaid yéerelie value of fiue pounds, then ſuch as ſhall ſue for ſuch writs or commiſſions, ſhall paie for the ſeale of euerie of them ſix penſe, and for the writing ſix penſe and not aboue.

Commiſſi.

Inquiſi. Offices

¶ And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all inquiſitions and offices to be found by vertue of anie ſuch writs or commiſſions, ſhall be returned by the eſchetors or commiſſioners, to whom ſuch writs or commiſſions ſhall be directed into the ſaid chancerie, or into ſuch other courts from whenſe ſuch writs or commiſſions were awarded, in ſuch maner and forme, and vpon ſuch paines as is limited by the lawes and ſtatutes of the realme in ſuch caſes. And that the clerks of the pettie bag ſhall receiue ſuch offices, and make a tranſcript thereof from time to time, to the ſaid maiſter of the wards and liueries, in like maner and forme as they are bounden and haue béene accuſtomed to doo into the kings excheker, and vpon ſuch paines as be limited and appointed by the lawes and ſtatutes of the realme in ſuch caſes.

Petty bag

¶ And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the wards and liueries, and the ſurueior, atturneie, and generall receiuor of the ſaid court, or thrée of them, whereof the ſaid

maiſter

Warrant

maiſter or ſurueior to be one, ſhall haue power and authoritie by vertue of this preſent act, after ſuch offices and inquiſitions found as is aforeſaid, to couenant and indent with euerie perſon and perſons for his and their liuerie of the caſtels, manors, lordſhips, lands, tenements, and hereditaments compriſed or not compriſed in ſuch offices, & to make and ſet the rate and priſe for the ſame, and to appoint and ſtall the daies of paiment thereof by obligation or obligations to be taken for the ſame to the king our ſouereigne lord, which obligation and obligations ſo made, and euerie of them, ſhall be góod and effectuall in the law, and ſhall be of like authoritie and ſtrength as obligations to be taken by authoritie of the ſame court of the kings wards be of, by vertue of the ſaid former act. And that all and ſingular bils for anie ſpeciall or generall liuerie to be ſued, aſſigned by the hands of the ſaid maiſter, ſurueior, atturneie, receiuor, or thrée of them, whereof the ſaid maiſter or ſurueior to be one, ſhall be a góod and ſufficient warrant, as well to the chancellor of England, as to the chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter, and to all other chancellors and officers, hauing power to paſſe liueries vnder anie of the kings ſeales, for the making out, ſealing and deliuerie of anie liueries, according to the tenor, purport, and effect of ſuch bils, with other clauſes of courſe neceſſarie for the ſame, anie law or cuſtome to the contrarie héereof notwithſtanding.

Fees

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the lord priuie ſeale, the lord great chamberleine, the kings chéefe and principall ſecretaries, the maiſter of the rols, & the kings clerks of the ſignet and priuie ſeale, the clerkes of the pettie bag, and all and euerie other officer and officers and clerks in the chancerie or elſewhere in anie other courts where ſuch liueries ſhall paſſe, ſhall haue and be paid all ſuch their fées, as hath béene accuſtomed: all which fées ſhall be receiued and paid by the hands of the clerkes of the pettie bag, if the liueries be ſued in the chancerie, or by other clerks, by whoſe hands liueries ſhall be written in other courts, anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Generall liuerie

¶ And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie perſon and perſons from henſeforth may ſue at their pleaſure a generall liuerie for anie manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, remainders, or other hereditaments, whereof the cléere yearlie value ſhall not excéed twentie pounds, after office thereof by writ or commiſſion found returned and certified as is aforeſaid.

Warrant

¶ Prouided alwaies that no ſuch liuerie ſhall paſſe or be ſued without a bill or warrant to be firſt obteined for the ſame from the ſaid maiſter of the wards and liueries, and the ſaid ſurueior, atturneie, and generall receiuor, or thrée of them, and ſigned and ſubſcribed with the names and hands of the ſaid maiſter, ſurueior, atturneie, and generall receiuor, or thrée of them, as is aforſaid.

Value

Fees

¶ And it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if the manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof a generall liuerie may be ſued by authoritie of this act, excéed the cléere yéerlie value of v. li. that then ſuch as ſhall ſue & haue ſuch generall liuerie for any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, excéeding the cléere yéerlie value of v. li. ſhall paie for the ſeale thereof xx. s. iiij. d. and all other ſuch fées as heeretofore in ſuch caſes hath bin accuſtomed in and vpon the ſuing of anie generall liuerie. And if the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, whereof anie ſuch generall liuerie ſhall be ſued, excéed not the cléere yéerelie value of v. li. that then euerie perſon and perſons ſuing for anie generall liuerie for anie lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, remainders or other hereditaments not excéeding the cléere yearelie value of v. li. ſhall paie ſuch fées as héereafter followeth and none other: that is to ſaie, for the ſeale of euerie ſuch liuerie xij. d. and to the clerkes of the pettie bag for the writing and inrolling thereof xx. d. and for the reſpit of homage in the hanaper viij. d. and to the lord great chamberleine xx. d. and to the maiſter of the rols xx. d. and to the clerke of the liueries for the warrant and inrolling of the liuerie xx. d.

Reſpit of homage

¶ And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall paie in the kings excheker or anie other courts for the reſpit of homage, of or for anie manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof the cléere yéerlie value excéedeth not v. li. aboue viij. d. and for the entring thereof and warrant of atturneie aboue iiij. d. And that the value of ſuch manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, not excéeding the yéerelie value of xx. li. ſhall be taken as it is limited in the offices founden thereof, except by the examination and certificat of the ſaid maiſter of the wards and liueries, and the ſaid ſurueior, atturneie, and generall receiuor, or thrée of them, as is aforeſaid, it ſhall otherwiſe appeare and be declared in anie of the kings courts.

Eſchetor

¶ And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that all and euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which ſhall be named and certified in the kings chancerie by the lord treaſuror of England, to be eſchetor, ſhall within one moneth next after his letters patents ſhall be offered vnto him, take vpon him the execution of the ſame office, or elſe appeare in the ſaid excheker, and ſhew a reaſonable cauſe whie he ought not ſo to dóo, and if any ſuch perſon ſo named and certified to be eſchetor, dóo not appeare as is aforeſaid, within one moneth next after notice to him giuen as is aforeſaid, nor ſhew anie reaſonable cauſe whie he ought not dóo the ſame: that then he ſhall lóoſe and forfeit for euerie ſuch default xx. li. to the king our ſouereigne lord, to be leuied to his maieſties vſe in anie his highneſſe courts of record.

Fees

¶ And be it alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no eſchetor after the firſt day of Maie next comming, ſhall ſit onelie by vertue of his office for inquirie of the tenure, title, or value of anie lands, tenements, or hereditaments, where the ſame lands, tenements or hereditaments bin of the value of v. li. by the yeare or aboue, and holden of the king, without the kings writ to be directed to him for the ſame, vpon paine to lóoſe and forfeit for euerie time that he ſhall ſit and make inquirie contrarie to the forme of this eſtatute v.li. Nor that no eſchetor ſhall take for the finding of anie office of anie manors,lands,tenements,or hereditaments, that ſhall not exceed the cleere yearlie value of v.li. aboue the ſum of xv.s. that is to ſaie, for the eſchetors fee vj.s. viij.d. and for the writing of the office iij.s. iiij.d.and for the charges of the iurie iij. s. and for the officers and miniſters that ſhall receiue the ſaid office in anie court of record ij.s. vpon paine that euerie eſchetor offending this act,ſhall looſe and forfeit for euerie time ſo offending v. li. and that the officers & miniſters of euerie court of record where ſuch inquiſitions ſhall be returned,being offered vnto them within one moneth next after the finding thereof,ſhall receiue and take the ſame, vpon paine to looſe and forfeit for euerie time offending this act v. li. The one moitie of all which forfeiture aforeſaid ſhall be to the king our ſouereigne lord, and the other moitie thereof to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts of record,in which ſute the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor anie protection or eſſoine ſhall be allowed.

Forfeit

Surueior

¶And it is alſo enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that if the ſaid ſurueior of the liueries, or the clerke of the ſame, doo willinglie withdraw or conceale anie record or profit that ſhall come or grow to the kings maieſtie,his heires or ſucceſſors, by reaſon of the ſame: that then he or they ſo offending ſhall looſe to the king our ſouereigne lord his heires and ſucceſſors, the double value of the thing ſo concealed or withdrawne, the ſame to be leuied and recouered againſt ſuch perſons ſo offending vpon an information thereof to be made by the partie greeued, and the ſame dulie proued in the ſame court of the wards and liueries.

Conceal.

Recogni.

¶ And alſo be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter for the time being, ſhall haue power and authoritie to take recognizances of all and euerie perſon and perſons, that ſhall be called into the court of the wards and liueries,to anſwer to anie matter alledged againſt them in the ſaid court,to make their dailie appeerance in the ſaid court, to anſwer to ſuch matter as to them then and there from time to time ſhall be alledged. And that all ſuch recognizances,of what ſum ſo euer they be,ſhall be as good & effectuall in the law to all intents and purpoſes, as recognizances taken in the kings high court of chancerie, or elſe where before anie iudge of record within this realme.And that the ſaid maiſter for the time being,with the aduiſe of the court, or of ſuch number of the ſame as then ſhall be preſent,ſo that they be two beſide the ſaid maiſter, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to moderat ſuch recognizances as be or ſhall be there forfeited, and to ſet fines for the ſame to the kings vſe, vnder the ſums conteined in the ſaid recognizances: the ſame fines to be leuied by like proceſſe of Scire facias,as by the ſtatute made in the xxvij.yeare of our ſouereigne lord the kings reigne,is giuen to the chancellor of the court of augmentation of the reuenues of his graces crowne. And that the ſaid maiſter for the time being, with the aduiſe aforeſaid,ſhall haue power & authoritie to commit to ward anie perſon or perſons for his or their diſobedience,contempt,or other offenſe made or to be made triable within the kings ſaid court of the wards and liueries, and vpon the ſaid matters ordered or decreed there, to deliuer them from priſon,and to cancell & make void all recognizances and obligations taken,or heereafter to be taken in the ſame court to the kings vſe,when & as often as the ſaid maiſter, with the aduiſe of the ſaid court or three of them,ſhall ſee & perceiue the matters & cauſes for the which anie ſuch recognizance or obligation hath or heereafter ſhall happen to be taken to be finiſhed & ended,and the kings grace his heires or ſucceſſors,or the partie therevpon ſatiſfied without anie other warrant for the ſame.

Value

¶And be it further enacted,that all and euerie ſuch heire and heires which heereafter ſhall be in caſe to ſue for liuerie,where the lands and tenements of the ſaid heire or heires exceed not the yeerlie value of v. li. that then euerie ſuch heire ſhall lawfullie ſue forth his generall liuerie by warrant to be made and had from the ſaid court of the kings wards and liueries as aforſaid,although there be none other inquiſition or inquiſitions thereof then had bin certified, & that this act ſhall be warrant ſufficient as well to the chancellor of England,chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter,and to all other chancellors and officers of the kings courts,hauing power to paſſe liueries vnder anie the kings ſeales,for the making out,ſealing,and deliuerie of anie liueries, according to the tenor, purport,& effect of ſuch bils,with other clauſes of courſe neceſſarie for the ſame, taking for the fees of euerie ſuch liuerie,as is afore expreſſed for the fees of liueries,not exceeding the yeerlie value of v.li.as though the ſame liuerie were made & ſued forth vpon an office found by vertue of ye kings writ,any law heeretofore made,or other thing in this preſent act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Warrant

¶And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforſaid,that all & euerie perſon and perſons,to whom the kings highneſſe ſhall grant anie liuerie in forme aforeſaid, to be ſued vpon his bill aſſigned thereof with the kings moſt gratious hand,or with the hands of the officers of his graces court of the wards & liueries as before is expreſſed,ſue forth his patent within three moneths next after the aſſignment of the ſaid bill,or elſe ye ſame bill & the effect thereof to be vtterlie void & of none effect.

Petty bag

¶Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid,that the clerkes of the pettie bag in the chancerie, ſhall not be compelled to certifie anie tranſcript of anie office into the kings excheker,but twiſe in the yeare, that is to ſaie : they ſhall certifie the tranſcripts of all offices, founden and returned into the chancerie betweene Eaſter and S.Michaell the archangell,yeerelie in the terme of S.Michaell : and the tranſcripts of all offices founden and returned into the ſaid chancerie betweene Michaelmas and Eaſter,they ſhall certifie into the ſaid excheker yeerlie in the terme of Eaſter and not otherwiſe, anie thing conteined in this ſtatute or in anie other ſtatute heeretofore made to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Coun. pal. of Lancaſt.

¶ Prouided alwaies, that this act nor anie thing therein conteined, ſhall in anie wiſe extend to be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie roialties, liberties, franchiſes, priuileges, preheminences, and iuriſdictions of the countie palantine and duchie of Lancaſter, or of any of them, but that the ſame roialties, liberties, franchiſes, priuileges, preheminences and iuriſdictions, and euerie of them, ſhall ſtill continue and remaine to the countie palantine and duchie of Lancaſter, as fullie, plenarlie and wholie, as they did before the making of this act, anie thing in the ſame act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act to proceed by a commiſſion of Oyer and determiner againſt ſuch perſons as ſhall confeſſe treaſon, &c. without remanding the ſame to be tried in the ſhire where the offenſe was committed.

Inquirie

Foraſmuch as diuerſe and ſundrie perſons vpon great grounds of vehement ſuſpicions, as well of high treaſon, pettie treaſon, and miſpriſions of treaſon, as of murders, be manie times ſent for from diuerſe the ſhires and places of this realme, and other the kings dominions, to the kings maieſties great charges and expenſes, to be examined before the kings highneſſe counſell vpon their offenſes, to the intent that conuiction or declaration of ſuch perſons ſhould ſpeedilie inſue, as the merits of their caſes ſhould require. And albeit that after great trauell taken in the examinations of ſuch perſons, it appeare to the ſaid counſell by confeſſion, witneſſe, or vehement ſuſpect, that ſuch perſons be rather guiltie of ſuch offenſes whereof they be ſo examined than otherwiſe: yet neuertheleſſe ſuch offendors ſo examined by the courſe of the common lawes of this realme, muſt be indicted within the ſhires or places where they committed their offenſes, and alſo tried by the inhabitants or fréeholders of ſuch ſhires and places, although by their confeſſions or ſufficient witneſſe, their offenſes be certeinlie knowne to the kings counſell: by reaſon whereof, beſide the trauell and paines of the kings maieſties counſell in ſuch caſes, the kings highneſſe is oftentimes put to great charges and expenſes, in remanding ſuch perſons to the countries where they offended, there to be indicted and tried of their offenſes. And ſometime the inhabitants and fréeholders of the ſhires or places where ſuch offenſes were doone, be compelled to appeare out of the ſhires & places for ſuch cauſes, to their great charges, for the triall or declaration of ſuch offenſes: and ſometime by occaſion of the charges for remanding of ſuch offendors to be indicted and tried by the courſe of the common law, ſuch offendors lie ſtill in priſon and be forgotten, whereby manie times by helpe of their confederats they eſcape vnpuniſhed, to the great courage and examples of euill dooers. Be it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lord, and by the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon or perſons, being examined before the kings counſell, or thrée of them, vpon anie maner of treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons or murders, doo confeſſe anie ſuch offenſes, or that the ſaid counſell, or thrée of them, vpon ſuch examination, ſhall thinke anie perſon ſo examined to be vehementlie ſuſpected of anie treaſon, miſpriſions of treaſons or murder: that then in euerie ſuch caſe by the kings commandement, his maieſties commiſſion of Oyer & determiner vnder his highneſſe great ſeale, ſhall be made by the chancellor of England to ſuch perſons, and into ſuch ſhires or places as ſhall be named and appointed by the kings highneſſe for the ſpéedie triall, conuiction, or deliuerance of ſuch offendors, which commiſſioners ſhall haue power and authoritie to inquire, heare, and determine, all ſuch treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons and murders, within the ſhires and places limited by their commiſſion by ſuch good and lawfull perſons as ſhall be returned before them by the ſhiriffe or his miniſter, or anie other hauing power to returne writs and proceſſe for that purpoſe, in what ſoeuer other ſhire or place within the kings dominions or without, ſuch offenſes of treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, or murders ſo examined, were doone or committed, and that in ſuch caſes, no challenge for the ſhire or hundred ſhall be allowed.

Challenge

¶ Prouided that vpon the triall of ſuch treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, and murders, the challenge to anie iuror for lacke of fréehold of the yéerelie value of fortie ſhillings, ſhall be allowed as hath béene accuſtomed.

Peeres

Triall.

¶ Prouided alſo that if anie the péeres of the realme, ſhall happen to be indicted of anie of the offenſes aforeſaid, by vertue of anie ſuch commiſſion to be granted by authoritie of this act, yet neuertheleſſe they ſhall haue their triall by péeres in like maner and forme as héeretofore hath bin vſed, anie thing in this act conteined, or anie thing to be doone by vertue thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding. And it is ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that peremptorie challenge ſhall not from henſeforth be admitted or allowed in anie caſes of high treaſon nor miſpriſion of high treaſon.

An act that no man ſhall be iuſtice of aſſiſe in his owne countrie.

Chap. 24.

WHere in the parlement holden in the viij. yeare of king Richard the ſecond it was enacted, ordeined & eſtabliſhed, that no man learned in the lawes of this ralme, ſhould from thenſforth be iuſtice of aſſiſe in the countrie where he dwelleth: and that the chéefe iuſtice of the common place, ſhould be from thenſeforth aſſigned among other iuſtices to the taking of the ſaid aſſiſes, but as the chéefe iuſtice of the kings bench there ſhould be doone and vſed, as hath béene vſed for the moſt part by the ſpace of one hundred yeeres next before, as by the ſaid act more at large it dooth and may appeare. Since the making of which ſaid good act and law, diuerſe iuſtices and men learned learned in the lawes of this realme,haue by their owne means,induſtrie and policie, and for their owne commoditie and eaſe,obteined contrarie to the forme of the ſaid act, to be iuſtices of aſſiſes in the countries and counties where they were borne, or were inhabiting, whereby ſome geloſie of their affection and fauour toward their kinſmen, aliance and freends within the ſaid countries or counties where they were ſo borne or inhabiting, hath bin conceiued and had againſt them by the kings moſt louing ſubiects of the ſame countries and counties. For reformation wherof,the kings moſt louing ſubiects,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, moſt humblie beſeech and deſire the kings maieſtie,& that it be enacted by the kings maieſtie, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by authoritie of the ſame, that no iuſtice nor other man learned in the lawes of this realme, ſhall at anie time from or after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, vſe nor exerciſe the office of iuſtice of aſſiſe within anie countie where the ſaid iuſtice was borne or dooth inhabit, vpon paine to forfeit for euerie offenſe doone contrarie to the forme of this preſent act,one hundred pounds,the moitie whereof to be to our ſoueraigne lord the king,and the other moitie thereof to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in anie of the kings courts,by bill,plaint,information,action of debt,or otherwiſe,in the which ſute no protection,eſſoine,nor wager of law ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Iuſtices Countie

¶ Prouided alwaie and be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act or anie thing heerein conteined,ſhall not extend,be conſtrued or interpretated, to touch or concerne anie perſon or perſons,that now are or heereafter ſhall be clerke or clerks of aſſiſes, and ſhall be aſſociat to anie iuſtice of aſſiſe, of or in anie countie, citie, or towne within this realme of England, wherein the ſame perſon or perſons,clerke or clerks ſo aſſociat,doo dwell or were borne,but that all and euerie clerke and clerks of aſſiſes, which now doo exerciſe or occupie,or heerafter ſhall exerciſe or occupie anie office of clerkeſhip of aſſiſes,ſhall and may exerciſe and occupie the ſame in anie countie, citie, or towne wherein the ſame clerke or clerks of aſſiſes doo dwell or were borne, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Clerks of aſſiſe.

¶ Prouided alſo that theſe termes,iuſtices of aſſiſes,or other perſons learned in the lawes of the realme,ſhall not extend or in any wiſe be interpretat to anie maiors,ſhiriffes,recorders,ſtewards, bailiffes, ſewters, or other officers being borne or dwelling within anie citie, borough, or towne within this realme of England,but that they may be iuſtices of aſſiſes of freſh force, or of other aſſiſes in the ſame citie,borough, or towne, where he or they doo or ſhall dwell or were borne, as they or any of them before this time haue or might haue beene,to all intents and purpoſes,any thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Interpre.

¶ Prouided alwaies,that this act nor anie thing therein conteined,ſhall be preiudiciall to any iuſtice or iuſtices of the one bench or the other, for taking, hearing, or determining aſſiſes in the ſaid courts in the one bench or the other, nor to anie iuſtice that ſhall take any aſſiſe by or vpon adiornement for difficultie of the ſame.

¶ Prouided alwaie & be it enacted, that anie clerke of aſſiſe,during the onelie time of the ſeſſion,of or for any aſſiſe or aſſiſes, or of or for any Niſi prius,ſhall not be of counſell with anie perſon or perſons within any circuit whereof he ſhall be clerke of aſſiſe,otherwiſe than to that office onlie apperteineth,vpon paine to forfeit for euerie time offending contrarie to this eſtatute x.li. the one moitie thereof to be to the king our ſoueraigne lord,and the other moitie to the partie greeued,to be ſued in any of the kings courts of record,by action of debt,bill,plaint,information,or otherwiſe,in which ſute no eſſoine,protection,wager of law,or other delatorie plee ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Clerke of aſſiſe.

¶ Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the authoritie aboueſaid,that this act or any thing therein conteined,extend not to the iuſtices,iuſtices clerke or clerks of aſſiſes within our ſoueraigne lord the kings duchie and countie palantine of Lancaſter, nor to anie of them that now be or heereafter ſhall be,but that the ſame iuſtices, iuſtices clerke and clerks, and euerie of them, ſhall & maie execute their offices and euerie of them,in ſuch maner and forme as they or any of them haue vſed to doo before the making of this preſent act,this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

An act for the making free certeine children borne beyond the ſea,and to put the ſame children in the nature of meere Engliſhmen.

Chap. 25.

WHere Thomas Pointz of London grocer,occupieng the feat of merchandize in the parties beyond the ſea,married there a woman of that countrie borne, and had by hir in lawfull matrimonie diuerſe children yet liuing, which intend by Gods grace to be the kings faithfull and obedient ſubiects: where alſo William Caſtelin of London mercer,occupieng in the parts of Leuant,within the citie of Chio in Grecia,tooke to his wife one Angleta,daughter of Michaell Villacho of the ſame citie,& had by hir in lawfull matrimonie a ſonne called Edward yet liuing, which likewiſe intendeth by Gods grace to be the kings faithfull & obedient ſubiect : and where alſo John Dimocke,late one of the gentlemen vſhers of the kings moſt honorable chamber, was in the parties beyond the ſea,that is to wit in Antwarpe in the countie of Braband, about the kings affaires,and there tooke to his wife Beatrice,daughter of one John van Clene, and had by hir in lawfull matrimonie a ſonne called John Dimocke yet liuing,which intendeth (God willing) to be the kings faithfull and obedient ſubiect. Wherefore be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the kings highneſſe,with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement ment aſſembled, and by the authoꝛitie of the ſame, that as well the ſaid John Dimocke, the ſonne of John Dimocke, and Edward Caſtelin, as all the ſaid childꝛen of the ſaid Thomas Pointz now boꝛne, and euerie of them, ſhall be from henſefoꝛth reputed and taken the kings naturall ſubiects, as lawfull perſons boꝛne within this realme of England, and as frée perſons, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if they and euerie of them had béene boꝛne within this relme of England, and alſo ſhall from henſefoꝛth by the ſaid authoꝛitie, be inabled and adiudged able to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, aſwell to demand, chalenge, haue and inioy lands, tenements and hereditaments, as heire oꝛ heirs to anie of his oꝛ their anceſtoꝛs, by reaſon onelie of anie deſcent, right oꝛ title, which after the firſt daie of this parlement ſhall deſcend, accrue, come oꝛ grow vnto them oꝛ to anie of them, and to haue and inioy lands, tenements and hereditaments by waie of purchaſe oꝛ gift of anie perſon oꝛ perſons, as alſo foꝛ to pꝛoſecute and defend all maner of actions and ſutes, and all other lawfull things whatſoeuer, to doo as liberallie, franklie, lawfullie, ſurelie and fréelie, as if they and euerie of them had béene naturallie boꝛne within this realme of England, and as anie other perſon oꝛ perſons naturallie boꝛne within this realme of England maie lawfullie doo, anie law, act, ſtatute, cuſtome, oꝛdinance oꝛ other thing whatſoeuer, had, made, doone, oꝛdeined, pꝛoclamed oꝛ pꝛouided to the contrarie héereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act to make fruſtrat certeine conueiances deuiſed by ſir Iohn Shelton.

Chap.26 WHere ſir John Shelton knight deceſſed, being a man of great poſſeſſions in his life time, by the aduiſe of ſiniſter counſell, pꝛactiſed, deuiſed and made by couine, diuerſe craftie déeds, eſtates, and other conueiances in the law, aſwell vnto himſelfe as to other perſons, of and in his manoꝛs, lands, tenements & hereditaments, in the counties of Noꝛfolke and Suffolke, not onlie to the intent to deceiue and exclude the kings maieſtie of his pꝛimer ſeizon, pꝛerogatiue, wardſhip & rights, of and in the pꝛemiſſes, but alſo to the intent to deceiue and exclude the nobles, and other the kings louing ſubiects of their wardſhip, reléefs, & ſuch like ſeruice, as ſhould accrue, grow, & come vnto them by reaſon of their tenoꝛs in the pꝛemiſſes: that is to wit; the ſaid ſir John Shelton, by his déed indented, bearing date the xv. daie of December, in the xxxj. yéere of the reigne of our ſouereigne loꝛd king Henrie the eight, did infeoffe of and in diuers of his manoꝛs, lands, tenements and hereditaments in the ſaid counties of Noꝛfolke and Suffolke, one John Minnes, to haue vnto him and to his heires, vpon condition that the ſame John Minnes within xv. daies then next inſuing, ſhould by his déed indented giue the ſame manoꝛs, lands, tenements and hereditaments to the ſaid ſir John Shelton and his aſſignes foꝛ terme of lxxxix. yéers then next following, without impechment of waſt, the remainder thereof after the ſame terme ended to Rafe Shelton gentleman, ſonne and heire apparant of John Shelton eſquire, ſonne & heire of the ſaid ſir John Shelton, and to the heires males of the bodie of the ſaid Rafe Shelton gentleman lawfullie begotten: and foꝛ default of ſuch iſſue, the remainder thereof to the heires males of the bodie of the ſaid ſir John Shelton lawfullie begotten, with diuerſe other remainders ouer, as by the ſaid déed indented, amongſt other things therein conteined moꝛe plainlie is ſhewed and maie appeare: and alſo the ſaid ſir John Shelton by another déed indented, bearing date the ſaid xv. daie of September, in the ſaid xxxj. yéere of our ſaid ſouereigne loꝛd the kings reigne, did giue diuerſe other of his manoꝛs, lands, tenements and hereditaments to the ſaid John Minnes to haue vnto him and to his heirs vpon condition, that the ſaid John Minnes within xv. daies then next following, ſhould by his déed indented giue the ſame manoꝛs, lands, tenements & hereditaments to dame Anne then wife of the ſaid ſir John Shelton foꝛ terme of hir life, the remainder thereof after the deceaſe of the ſaid ſir John Shelton foꝛ terme of his life, without impechment of waſt, and after his deceaſe the remainder thereof to the ſaid John Shelton eſquire without impechment of waſt, foꝛ terme of lx. yéeres (if he ſo long liued) and after the ſame terme determined, the remainder thereof to the ſaid Rafe Shelton gentleman, and to the heirs males of his bodie lawfullie begotten, and foꝛ default of ſuch iſſue the remainder thereof to the heirs males of the bodie of the ſaid ſir John Shelton lawfullie begotten, with diuerſe other remainders ouer. And moꝛeouer the ſaid ſir John Shelton by the ſame his déed indented, did giue diuers other of his manoꝛs, lands, tenements and hereditaments in the ſaid counties of Noꝛfolke and Suffolke to the ſaid John Minnes, to haue vnto him and to his heirs and aſſignes foꝛ euer, vpon condition that the ſame John Minnes within xv. daies then next following, ſhould by his déed indented, giue the ſame manoꝛs, lands, tenements and hereditaments to the ſaid dame Anne foꝛ terme of lxxxix. yéers then next following, and if the ſaid dame Anne ſhould foꝛtune to die within the ſame terme, then the remainder thereof to the ſaid ſir John Shelton his executoꝛs and aſſignes, during the reſidue of the ſame terme, and after the ſame terme ended, then the ſame pꝛemiſſes to remaine to the ſaid Rafe Shelton gentleman and to the heires males of his bodie lawfullie begotten, and foꝛ the default of ſuch iſſue, the remainder thereof to the heirs males of the bodie of the ſaid ſir John Shelton lawfullie begotten, with diuers other remainders ouer, as by the ſame déed indented amongſt other things therein conteined moꝛe plainelie is ſhewed and maie appeare.

And as it appeareth aſwell by wꝛiting as otherwiſe, the ſaid John Minnes, after that by his ſeuerall déeds indented, bearing date in the ſaid moneth of September, executed ſeuerall eſtates of and in all and ſingular the pꝛemiſſes, accoꝛding to the ſaid ſeuerall déeds of feoffment, with conditions therin conteined. And moꝛeouer the ſaid ſir John after that, declared his laſt will of and in the

premiſſes for and to the intent aforeſaid. All which matters after the death of the ſaid ſir John Shelton, being reuealed vnto the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, was by his graces commandement deliberatlie examined before the lords of his moſt honorable counſell, before whom vpon the examination thereof it plainlie appeared, aſwell by the confeſſions of the parties & deuiſors of the ſame writings & deeds, as otherwiſe, that the ſaid deeds, eſtates, will, and other conueiances made in the life of the ſaid ſir John Shelton, were deuiſed, had & made by couine, for and to the intent aforeſaid, by reaſon whereof the ſaid John Shelton eſquire, ſonne and heire of the ſaid ſir John Shelton, being aboue the age of xxj. yeers, at the time of the death of his ſaid father, did ſue a ſpeciall liuerie out of the kings maieſties hands, of and in all the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, as heire vnto the ſaid ſir John his father, as of record more plainlie appeareth. For the plaine declaration of the auoiding and adnihilating of the ſaid craftie and void deeds, eſtates, will and conueiances, deuiſed by fraud and couine, as is aforeſaid: be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all & ſingular the ſaid deeds, eſtates, will, & other conueiances had and made, as is aforeſaid, and the poſſeſſion and liuerie of ſeizon thervpon made and deliuered accordinglie, and alſo all and ſingular gifts, grants, remainders, reuerſions, articles, clauſes and words in them and euerie of them conteined, be deemed and adiudged cleerelie void and of none effect, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes. And that the ſaid ſir John Shelton, by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, be deemed, reputed and adiudged in actuall and reall poſſeſſion at the time of his death, of and in all and ſingular the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, of the ſame or like eſtate of inheritance, as if no ſuch deed or deeds, eſtates, will, or other conueiances had neuer bin had or made, and alſo of the ſame eſtate of inheritance, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as the ſame manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, were in the ſaid ſir John Shelton at or before the making of the ſaid ſeuerall deeds, eſtates, will, and other conueiances, the ſaid deeds, eſtates, will and conueiances, or anie of them, or anie thing in them, or any of them conteined to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Eſtates & grants made void.

¶ Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this act or anie thing therin conteined, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull vnto the ſaid dame Anne Shelton, for or concerning anie manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments aſſigned or appointed, ſithens the death of the ſaid ſir John, vnto the ſame dame Anne onlie for terme of hir life, by reaſon of award made by the high and mightie prince Thomas duke of Norfolke, lord treaſuror of England, or by anie couenant, bond or agreement had or made by the ſaid John Shelton eſquire ſince the death of the ſaid ſir John Shelton: anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for leaſes of hoſpitals, colleges, and other corporations to be good and effectuall with the conſent of the more part.

Chap. 27.

ALbeit that by the common lawes of this realme of England, all aſſents, elections, grants and leaſes, had made and granted by the deane, warden, prouoſt, maiſter, preſident, or other gouernor of anie cathedrall church, hoſpitall, college, or other corporation, by whatſoeuer name they be incorporated or founded with the aſſent and conſent of the more or greater part of their chapter, fellowes or brethren of ſuch incorporation, hauing voices of aſſent thervnto, as good and effectuall in the law, to the grants and leaſes of the ſame, as if the reſidue, or the whole number of ſuch chapter fellowes and brethren of ſuch corporation, hauing voices of aſſent, had therevnto conſented and agreed: yet the ſaid common lawes notwithſtanding, diuers founders of ſuch deanries, hoſpitals, colleges and corporations within this ſaid realme, haue vpon the foundation and eſtabliſhment of the ſame deanries, hoſpitals, colleges, and other corporations, eſtabliſhed & made amongſt other their peculiar acts, locall ſtatutes and ordinances, that if anie one of ſuch corporation, hauing power or authoritie to aſſent or diſſent, ſhould & would denie anie ſuch grant or grants, that then no ſuch leaſe, election or grant ſhould be had, granted or leaſed, and for the performance of the ſame, euerie perſon hauing power of aſſent to the ſame, haue beene, and be dailie therevnto ſworne, and ſo the reſidue maie not proceed to the perfection of ſuch elections, grants and leaſes, according to the courſe of the common lawes of this realme, vnleſſe they ſhould incur the danger of periurie. For the auoiding whereof, and for the due execution of the common law vniuerſallie within this realme, and euerie place in one conformitie of reaſon to be vſed: be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authoritie of this preſent parlement, that all and euerie peculiar act, order, rule and eſtatute heeretofore made, or heereafter to be made by anie founder or founders of anie hoſpitall, college, deanrie, or other corporation, at and vpon the foundation of anie ſuch hoſpitall, college, deanrie, or corporation, whereby the grant, leaſe, gift or election of the gouernor or ruler of ſuch hoſpitall, college, deanrie, or other corporation, with the aſſent of the more part of ſuch of the ſame hoſpitall, college, deanrie or corporation, as haue or ſhall haue voice of aſſent to the ſame, at the time of ſuch grant, leaſe, gift, or election heereafter to be made, ſhould be in anie wiſe hindered or let by anie one or more, being the leſſer number of ſuch corporation, contrarie to the forme, order, & courſe of the common law of this relme of England, ſhalbe from henſeforth cleerlie fruſtrat, void & of no effect. And that all oths heertofore taken by anie perſon or perſons of ſuch hoſpitall, college, deanrie, & other corporation, ſhalbe for & concerning the obſeruance of anie ſuch order, ſtatute or rule, demed void & of no effect. And that from henſeforth no maner perſon or perſons of any ſuch hoſpitall, college, deanrie, or other corporation, ſhalbe in anie wiſe compelled to take anie oth for the

An act for the chancellor of the duchie of Lancaſter,the chancellor of the augmentations, and certeine other noble men to reteine chapleins.

Chap. 28. WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxj. yeare of your moſt gratious reigne, it was amongſt other things ordeined and prouided, that certeine honorable perſons and other of your highneſſe counſellors and officers, as well ſpirituall as temporall, ſhould and might haue chapleins beneficed with cure, to ſerue and attend vpon them in their houſes, which chapleins ſhall not incur the danger of anie penaltie or forfeiture made or declared in the ſame parlement,for non reſidence vpon their ſaid benefices, or for obteining licences for diſpenſations of pluralities,in which act is no prouiſion made for anie the head officers of your graces ſeuerall courts of your duchie of Lancaſter, the courts of augmenations of the reuenues of your highneſſe crowne, the firſt fruits and tenths, the maiſter of your maieſties wards and liueries,the generall ſurueiors of your graces lands,and other your graces courts. In conſideration whereof it may pleaſe your maieſtie, that it may be enacted by your highnes with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parlement aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame,that the chancellor of the ſaid court of the duchie of Lancaſter,the chancellor of your highneſſe court of augmentations, the chancellor of your graces court of firſt fruits and tenths,the maiſter of your highneſſe wards and liueries, and euerie of your graces generall ſurueiors of your highnes lands,the treaſuror of your graces chamber,the treaſuror of your highnes court of augmentations,and the groome of your graces ſtole,and euerie of them,for the time being,ſhall and may reteine ſingularlie to euerie of them in his houſe, or attendant vpon his perſon,one chapleine hauing one benefice with cure of ſoules, which maie be abſent from his ſaid benefice,and not reſident vpon the ſame, the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid one and twentith yeare of your moſt gratious reigne, or anie other eſtatute, act, or ordinance made to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

Perſons authorized to keepe chapleins

Non reſidence.

¶Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that euerie of the ſaid chapleins ſo being beneficed as is aforeſaid,and dwelling with anie the officers aforenamed,ſhall perſonallie repaire two times in euerie yeare at the leaſt to his ſaid benefice & cure, & there to tarrie and abide by the ſpace of eight daies at euerie ſuch time at the leaſt, to viſit and inſtruct his ſaid cure, vpon the paine to forfeit for euerie time ſo failing xl.s. the one moitie thereof to the king our ſouereigne lord,the other to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame by action of debt,bill,plaint,or information in any of the kings courts of record,in which ſute no eſſoine,protection,or wager of law ſhall be allowed.

An act to enable perſons late religious to ſue and to be ſued.

Chap.29. WHere in the parlement holden at Weſtminſter,the xxviij. daie of Aprill,in the xxxj.yeare of the reigne of our ſouereigne lord Henrie the eight,by the grace of God king of England, France and Ireland,defendor of the faith,and of the church of England and alſo of Ireland in earth the ſupreame head:it was & is ordeined and enacted by authoritie of the ſaid parlement, that all and ſingular ſuch religious perſons, as well men as women profeſſed, of what order,rule,or habit ſo euer they were,which then were or after that time ſhould be put at their liberties from the danger,ſeruitude,and condition of their religion and profeſſion,whereunto they were profeſſed,by reaſon of ſuppreſſion, diſſoluing, forfeiture by atteindor, rendring or otherwiſe giuing to the hands of the kings maieſtie,their houſes,monaſteries,and poſſeſſions: ſhould by authoritie of the ſaid parlement,from and after the firſt daie of the ſame parlement,and from and after the time that they were or ſhould be put at ſuch libertie, haue frée libertie to purchaſe to them and to their heires,in fée ſimple,fée taile,for terme of life,for yeares or at will,manors,lands,tenements,rents,annuities,and other hereditaments and things whatſoeuer they were,in like maner and forme as though they or anie of them had neuer béene profeſſed nor entred into anie ſuch religion,and that the ſame religious perſons and euerie of them,by authoritie of the ſaid act of parlement,ſhould be able to ſue and to be ſued in all maner of actions, plaints & ſutes, whatſoeuer they were,of and for anie matter or cauſe growen ſithens & after yͤ time of their ſeuerall dereignments or departing out of their religion,in all courts,places,and iuriſdictions within this realme of England,as other the kings ſubiects were,and that they and euerie of them ſhould and might from that time vſe & exerciſe,receiue,take,haue and inioy all & euerie lawfull thing & things from thenſeforth to be growne,fallen or happened vnto them or anie of them, after the ſaid dereignement or departing out of their religion,in as large and ample maner,forme & condition,as if they had neuer bin profeſſed nor entred into religion,this ſame profeſſion or religion,or any law,cuſtome or vſe within the ſaid realme of England to the contrarie therof in any wiſe notwithſtanding, as by the ſaid act among other articles,clauſes and prouiſions more plainlie appéereth.And foraſmuch as diuerſe ambiguities & doubts dailie doo ariſe, whether yͤ ſaid act extend vnto ſuch late religious perſons as were in diuers late religious houſes and monaſteries, which by the kings highneſſe were immediatelie tranſported and tranſlated from their religion and old corporation into a new corporation, and neuer came and remained in his gratious hands, neither by ſuppreſſion, diſſoluing, forfeiture by atteinder, ne ſuch like, according to the wordes of the ſaide former acte. In auoiding of which ambiguities and doubtes: Be it now ordained and enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, and the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons of this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, and that the ſaid acte of parliament aboue remembred, made in the ſaid xxxi. yeere, ſhall extend as well to all ſuch perſons, which be liuing, that were religious perſons in anie of the ſaid houſes, which were ſo tranſlated and tranſported from one corporation into an other, which at anie time was profeſſed or were religious perſons, in anie of the ſaid houſes within this realme of England, and that they and euerie of them from the time of their ſaid ſeuerall deraignement and diſcharge of their ſaide profeſſions and religions, ſhall be in like qualitie eſtate condition and degree: and alſo ſhall take, haue, and enioy, like benefite, commoditie, profite and aduantage, and with like prouiſo onelie, and not otherwiſe, to euerie intent and in euerie thing, as anie other religious perſon or perſons, may and ſhall haue, take, and enioy by vertue of the ſaid former acte aboue remembred, the ſame profeſſion or religion, or anie cuſtome or vſe to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithanding. An acte confirming the auctoritie of the deane and chapiter of Lichfield, in making leaſes and other grauntes.

The xxx. Chapter.

Where before this time the chapiter vnto the ſee and biſhoprike of Couentrie and Lichfield, was the priour and couent of the late priorie or monaſterie of our bleſſed ladie of Couentrie, within the countie of the citie of Couentrie. And the deane and chapiter of the cathedrall church of Lichfield, in the countie of Stafford, by reaſon whereof all leaſes, grauntes, and eſtates, made in anie the manours, landes, tenementes, hereditaments, fees, offices, or anie other thing belonging or appertaining vnto the ſaid ſee and biſhoprike, or whereof the biſhop of the ſaid ſee of Couentrie and Lichfield, for the time being, was ſeaſed in the right of the ſaid biſhoprike, or going out of anie of the ſaid manours, landes, tenementes, or hereditaments, belonging vnto the ſame biſhoprike, which ſhould be good or of anie effect in the lawe, to buind his ſucceſſours in ſucceſſion after the death of the ſaid biſhop of the ſaide biſhoprike for the time being grauntour, leſſour, or giuer of anie the premiſſes, as is aforeſaid, ought to be made in writing by the ſame biſhop for time being vnder his ſeale, and in his life time to be alſo by writing ſealed with the common ſeale of the priour and couent for the time being of the ſaid late priorie or monaſterie of Couentrie, and alſo with the chapiter ſeale of the Deane and chapiter for the time being of Lichfield, ratified and confirmed: which ſaide priorie or Monaſterie of Couentrie diuers yeeres now paſt, was lawfullie diſſolued, extincte, and determined, albeit ſithence that time, diuers and ſundrie giftes, grauntes, and leaſes, haue bene made in writing of and in parcell of the premiſſes, or going out of the ſame, by the now biſhop of the ſaide biſhoprike, and alſo confirmed in writing by the deane and chapiter of Lichfield aforeſaide, vnder their chapiter ſeale. And for aſmuch as it is in doubt and queſtion amongſt diuers perſons, whether the confirmation of the ſaide deane and chapiter of Lichfield is ſufficient in the lawe, to make perfite and good ſuch giftes, grauntes, and leaſes, heretofore, ſithen the diſſolution of the ſaid late priorie, made or hereafter to be made in writing by the biſhop of the ſaid ſee, or biſhoprike of Couentrie and Lichfield for the time being, of anie manours lands tenements hereditamentes, or other thing belonging to the ſame biſhoprike, or going out of the ſame, & ratified & confirmed alſo in writing by the deane & chapiter of Lichfield aforeſaide, ſhould be good & effectuall in the lawe, to binde in ſucceſſion the ſucceſſours of the ſaide now biſhop, according to the tenour purporte and effecte of the ſame giftes, grauntes, leaſes and other writings, ſo made by the ſaide biſhop, and confirmed by the ſaid deane and chapiter of Lichfield, as is aforeſaide: by occaſion whereof, diuers of the kings ſubiectes, aſwell fermours and leſſees for terme of life, liues and yeeres, as other may be put to great vexations, ſuites, troubles, and loſſe of their goods, to their great impoueriſhment. In eſchewing of which ſaide ambiguities, queſtions, and doubtes, and of all ſuites vexations and troubles, that might enſue by meanes thereof: Be it enacted: ordained, and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that all and ſinguler giftes, grauntes, leaſes and other writings, at anie time ſithence the diſſolution of the ſaid late priorie or monaſterrie of Couentrie made, or hereafter to be made by the biſhop of Couentrie and Lichfield for the time being, in writing vnder his ſeale, of anie manours, landes, tenementes, hereditaments, offices, fees, or anie other thing belonging to the ſaide biſhoprike, or going out of the ſame premiſſes, and ratified and confirmed by the deane and chapiter of Lichfield for the time being in writing vnder their chapiter ſeale, ſhalbe and ſtand good and effectuall in the lawe, to binde in ſucceſſion the ſucceſſours of the ſaid biſhop, according to the tenours purportes and effectes of the ſame giftes grauntes and leaſes, made and hereafter to be made in writing by the ſaid biſhop of Couentrie and Lichfield for the time being,

Suites.

Prouided alwaies, that this acte or anie thing therein contained, do not extend to binde anie founder or giuer of anie mannours, landes, tenementes, or hereditamentes of the ſaide ſée and biſhoprike of Couentre and Lechfielde, or thereunto belonging, of for or concerning all ſuch actions and ſuites, as theie or anie of them maie, ſhould, or ought to haue by reaſon of anie alienation in ſée ſimple or in ſée taile, hereafteer to be made of anie the mannours, lands, tenements, and hereditamentes of the ſaide biſhopricke of Couentre and Lichfielde, or of anie parte thereof.

Copie holdes.

Prouided alſo, that this acte, or anie thing therein conteined, extend not to anie copihold lands of the ſame biſhopricke, letten out by copie of court roll after cuſtome and maner, but that the ſame copies, and the eſtate and eſtates of the copiholders therein, ſhall continue, remaine, and be of ſuch ſtrength and effect, as all other copiholders be accepted and taken by and in the law of this realme, and of no other ſtrength or effect.

Biſhop of Cheſter.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that this acte or anie thing therein contained, be not in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to the biſhop of Cheſter for the time being, nor yet to the deane and chapiter of Cheſter, for or concerning anie office or offices, belonging or apperteining vnto the ſame biſhopricke of Cheſter, or to the deane and chapiter of Cheſter aforeſaide.

An acte diſſeuering the biſhopricke of Cheſter, and of the Ile of Man, from the iuriſdiction of Canterburie, to the iuriſdiction of Yorke.

The xxxi. Chapter.

Where as the kinges highnes of his moſt gratious goodnes, aſwell for the aduancement of Chriſtes religion as for the better inſtruction of his ſubiectes in the lawes of God, hath by his letters patentes, bearing date the ſixtéene date of Iulie, in the xxxiii. yéere of his noble reigne, erected, founded aud eſtabliſhed in the late monaſterie of ſainct Werberge, in his citie of Cheſter, a cathedrall church, or biſhops ſée, willing the ſame to be named and called the biſhopricke or biſhops ſée of Cheſter, & to the ſame hath appointed limites and boundes of one perfect & entire dioceſe, ordeined & willing the ſame to be named & called the dioceſſe of Cheſter. And amongſt other thinges hath appropried, vnited, and annexed to the ſaid dioceſe of Cheſter, that archdeaconrie of Richmount, and all the iuriſdictions thereof, which archdeaconrie was late parcel of the dioceſe of Yorke, & moreouer hath the ſame whole and entire dioces of Cheſter, with all the limites and boundes, and all thinges annexed appropried and vnited to the ſame, decréed ordeined & eſtabliſhed to be of the prouince of the archbiſhop of Canterburie, & vnder the iuriſdiction metropoliticall of the ſame, as in the ſame letters patentes doth more largelie appeare. For as much as his ſaid highnes gratiouſlie conſidereth, that the ſaide archbiſhop of Canterburie hath a ſufficient number of dioceſſes, and ſuffragans vnder him and in his prouince, and that the archbiſhop of Yorke hath within the realme of Englande onelie two ſuffraganes, and moreouer, that if the ſaid dioceſe ſhould remaine vnder the ſaid archbiſhop of Canterburie, that than all this highnes ſubiectes of all that dioceſe of Cheſter, and ſo of the archdeaconrie of Richmount, ſhould be conſtrained for appelles to reſorte to the audience of Canterburie, which thing to manie of the ſaide dioceſe, and ſpeciallie to them of the archdeaconrie of Richmount, ſhould be by reaſon of long iourneie of almoſt iii. C. miles from ſome places thereof, intollerable fatigation and importable charges, and therefore tenderlie, like a moſt gratious prince ſtudieng and caring for his ſaid ſubiectes moſt commoditie quietnes & eaſe: vpon further deliberation hath with the aduiſe of his moſt honorable counſaile determined and ordained to remoue and diſſeuer the ſaid biſhoprike and dioceſſe of Cheſter, from the ſaide prouince and archbiſhoprike of Canterburie, and to vnite and annexe the ſame to the prouince and archbiſhoprike of Yorke, as a dioceſſe member and biſhoprike of the ſame: Be it therefore ordained enacted and eſtabliſhed by the kings highnes, and by the conſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that the ſaide whole and entire dioces or biſhoprike of Cheſter, and euerie parcell and member thereof, be from henceforth vnited and annexed to the prouince and archbiſhoprike of Yorke, as a dioces and biſhoprike of the ſame. And that from henceforth the ſaid dioces of Cheſter, and euerie parcell thereof, exempt aſwell as not exempt, be and be taken named and reputed to be of the prouince and archbiſhoprike of Yorke, and of the metropoliticall iuriſdiction of the ſame, to euerie effecte and purpoſe, according to the eccleſiaſticall lawes in this realme, and that the biſhop of the ſame, that now is, and all other his ſucceſſours ſhall be ſuffraganes to the archbiſhop of Yorke that now is, and his ſucceſſours, and to the ſame ſhall owe their obedience, and be vnder the iuriſdiction metropoliticall of the ſame as well they as the deane and chapiter of Cheſter, and all the archdeacons and the whole clergie, and all other the kings ſubiectes, being within the limits and boundes of the ſaid dioces, anie thing compriſed in the ſaid letters patentes of the erection of the ſaid dioces and biſhoprike of Cheſter, notwithſtanding. And from henceforward neither the ſaid biſhop of Cheſter, neither the clergie, nor anie other the kings ſubiectes, being of the ſaide dioces of Cheſter, ſhall recogniſe the archbiſhop of Canterburie as their metropolitane, but onelie the archbiſhop of Yorke, and his ſucceſſours and to the ſame ſhall obeie in all thinges according to the lawes, aſwell temporall as eccleſiaſticall in this realme.

Cheſter annexed to Yorke.

Be it alſo further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the kinges highnes, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that the biſhopricke and dioceſe of Man, in the Ile of Man, be alſo annexed, adioined, and vnited to the ſaid prouince and Metropoliticall iuriſdiction of Yorke, in all pointes and to all purpoſes and effectes, as the ſaid biſhopricke of Cheſter is annexed adioined and vnited to the ſame.

Man.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by our ſouereigne lorde the king with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that this acte be not preiudiciall to the archbiſhop of Canterburie now being, nor to his ſucceſſours, nor to the deane and chapiter of the ſame, nor to anie other biſhop or chapiter of this realme, but that all places, landes, promotions, poſſeſſions, aſwell ſpirituall as temporall, being and lieng without the boundes and limittes of the archdeaconries of Richmount and Cheſter, and without the boundes and limittes of the citie of Cheſter, and the countie of the ſame, and the counties of Lancaſter and Cheſter, or anie of them, ſhall be ſtill of the prouince of Canterburie, and of ſuch dioceſe and dioceſſes as theie were of afore the erection of the ſaid biſhoprick of Cheſter and of the iuriſdiction of the ſame, and not of the prouince of Yorke, nor ſhall be accompted to be anie parcell of the ſaid dioceſe of Cheſter, anie thing in this preſent acte, or in the booke of erection of the ſaid biſhopricke of Cheſter not withſtanding. Sauing to the biſhop of Cheſter, and his ſucceſſours, that his houſe at Weſton, being within the dioces of Couentre and Liechfield, ſhall be accompted and taken to be of his dioceſſe, and that he being reſident in the ſame, ſhall be taken and accompted as reſident in his owne dioceſſe, and for the time of his abode there, ſhall haue iuriſdiction in the ſame, likewiſe as all other biſhops haue in the houſes belonging to their ſees, where ſoeuer theie lie, in anie other biſhopricke within this realme for the time of their abode in the ſame, anie thing in this preſent acte and prouiſion to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

B. of Canterburie.

An acte for the pariſh church of Whitegate to be made a pariſh church of it ſelfe, and no parte of the pariſh of Ouer.

The xxxii. Chapter.

Where as by the diſſolution of the late monaſterie Valeroiall, within the countie of Cheſter, a certaine church, ſtanding at the abbeie gate of the ſaid late monaſterie, among other the poſſeſſions, landes, tenementes, and hereditamentes, of the ſaide late monaſterie, is commen vnto the handes and poſſeſſions of the kinges highnes, by reaſon that the ſaide church was belonging to the ſaid late monaſterie, which church before the time of remembraunce of man, by the vſurped bulles and auctoritie of the biſhop of Rome, was made and ordained to be a pariſh church, as well for all and euerie the tenauntes and inhabitauntes dwelling of, in, and vpon the demeanes of the ſaide late monaſterie, and of, in, and vpon all other new incroched ground within the liberties of the ſaid late monaſterie, and the granges of the ſame, as for diuers other the tenauntes of the ſaid late monaſterie, dwelling in Forewiſt, Gauill, Salterſwall, Ouer, Merton, the Brokehouſes, and all other houſes and granges, woods, waters, paſtures, and medowes, within the precint of the pariſh of Ouer, wherof the ſaid late abbote was perſon in the ſaide countie of Cheſter, by reaſon whereof the ſaide tenauntes and inhabitauntes haue continuallie time out of minde, come and reſorted vnto the ſaid pariſh church of Whitegate, within which time they haue continuallie receiued ſacramentes and ſacramentals at & in the ſaide pariſh church of Whitegate, and haue continuallie vſed to marie, burie, and chriſten within the ſame: And now of late at the diſſolution of the ſaid late monaſterie, the ſaide bulles and other writings, concerning the ſaid vſurped auctoritie, were by the kings ſurueiors burned and deſtroied, by occaſion whereof the vicar of the pariſh of Ouer, within the ſaid countie, would now diſturbe the ſaid tenauntes and inhabitauntes of their ſaid pariſh church, and would deduce them from their ſaide moſt accuſtomable pariſh church of Whitegate, vnto his ſaid church of Ouer, being foure or fiue miles diſtant from their ſaid houſes & tenementes, which not onelie ſhould be to the great paines trauaile and diſcommoditie of the ſaid tenauntes and inhabitantes, but alſo thereby might growe, that ſuch lawfull mariages ſhould be auoided as haue heretofore bene ſolemniſed in the face of the ſaide church of Whitegate, being as he affirmed, no pariſh church, women might alſo loſe their dowers, with manifold other loſſes gréuanſes and inconueniences, that were likelie to enſue vpon the ſame. In auoiding whereof be it enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, his lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that the ſaid church of Whitegate ſhall be the pariſh church for all and ſinguler the tenauntes and inhabitauntes aforeſaide: and that the ſaide church ſhall be named and called from henceforth, the pariſh church of our bleſſed ladie the virgin of Whitegate, and the aforeſaide tenauntes and inhabitantes, ſhall be diſcharged of anie further reſorte or repaire to the ſaide church of Ouer, and that the perſon vicar and curate, of the ſaid pariſh church of Ouer, and euerie of them, and the ſucceſſours of them and euerie of them, ſhall be diſcharged of the cure of the ſaide tenauntes and inhabitauntes.

Vicars.

First fruites.
Tenthes.
Tithes.

And be it further enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that one Richard Beuion clerke, now incumbent of the ſame church of Whitegate, and after him ſome other ſufficient and lawfull perſon to be named and appointed by the kings highnes, ſhall be vicar perpetuall in the ſaid pariſh church of Whitegate, and haue perpetuall ſucceſſion in the ſame, and that he and his ſucceſſours ſhall be called vicars of the pariſh church of our bleſſed ladie the virgin of Whitegate, and ſhall be inhabled by auctoritie of this acte, to ſue and be ſued by that name in all courtes and places in this realme: and that the aduouſon donation and preſentation of for ſaide vicarage, ſhall appertaine and belong to the kings highnes his heires & ſucceſſours: and that aſwell the ſaid new firſt vicar named as aforeſaid, as all other vicars hereafter to be named of the ſaid church of Whitegate, ſhall be preſented inſtituted and inducted to and by the ordinarie and ordinaries of the ſame place, where the ſaid church is ſituate, as other perſons and vicars of this realme bene accuſtomed: And ſhall paie the firſt fruites and tenthes of the ſaid vicarages vnto the kings highnes his heires and ſucceſſours, according to the rate and value thereof. And that alſo the ſame vicar and his ſucceſſours ſhall haue and perceiue all the tithes, offerings, oblations, obuentions and other eccleſiaſticall duties and rightes, that ſhall yéerelie grow & be due by the cuſtomes of the realme and eccleſiaſticall lawes of the ſame to be paied had or made by the aforeſaid tenauntes and inhabitauntes, except onelie the tithe of corne, which ſhall be paied and ſatiſfied from henceforth by auctoritie of this acte, to the kings highnes his heires ſucceſſours and patrones of the ſame.

An acte concerning the priuiledge of Kingſtowne vpon Hull.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

FOr as much as the kings towne vpon Hull is ſituate and builded in length vpon the hauen of the ſaide towne of the parte of the eaſt, and vpon the water of Humber of the parte of the ſouth, and for the ſafegard tuition and defence of the ſame the ſaide towne is compaſſed and incloſed with great walles diches and bankes from the ſontheaſt end of the ſaid hauen, as wel towardes Humber as of the weſt and of the north vnto the north ende of the ſaide hauen. And towardes the maintenance ſupportation & vpholding aſwell of the ſaid walles, diches, and bankes, as of other clowes, flowеſes, ietties, gutters, gootes, and other fortreſſes there made for the defence of the ſaide towne and of the ſaid hauen, the maior burgeſes and comminaltie of the ſaide towne of Hull, haue vſed time out of minde by their officers or miniſters of the ſame towne, to leuie take & haue of all inhabitantes of euerie ſuch townes in the counties of Suffolke and Norfolke, as pretend to be priuileged in the ſaide kings towne vpon Hull, of euerie laſt of herrings brought thither by ſhippe to be ſould xx. d. and for euerie hundred ſalteſiſh iiii. d. and for euerie laſt of ſprattes viii. d. And alſo of all inhabitantes of all other townes in the ſaide counties of Suff. and Norff. and elſewhere, of euerie laſt of herrings brought to the kings ſaide towne of Hull by ſhippe to be ſould ii. s. iiii. d. & for euerie hundred ſalteſiſh iiii. d. & for euerie laſt of ſprattes viii. d. Vnto now of late in the xxvii. yéere of ẏ reigne of our ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, it was enacted by auctoritie of parliament, that ẏ maior of ẏ ſaid towne of kingſtowne vpon Hull & his ſucceſſours, & all other officers and miniſters of & within the ſaid towne, ſhould from henceforth permitte and ſuffer all the inhabitauntes of the ſaid couties of Suffolke and Norfolke, and from any other place thither repairing with vitailes, at all times for euermore betwéene ẏ feaſtes of all ſaintes & the Annunciation of our ladie, liberallie & fréelie without interruption or impediment to conduct & bring their herrings & other fiſh to the ſaid towne, & there to vtter & ſell the ſame, as well by water as by land, by retaile or in groſſe, to whom ſoeuer & when, within the ſaid time before expreſſed, they or anie of them ſhall thinke moſt expedient for their owne profites and commodities, without anie maner of tole cuſtome impoſition or other exactions or charge to be demanded leuied or taken of the ſeller and buier of the ſame by the ſaide maior or anie other officers or miniſters of or within the ſaide towne or porte of the ſame, for the ſaid herring or other fiſh, or for the ſhips or other veſſels wherein the ſame herring or fiſh ſhould ſo be brought or conducted to the ſaid towne: except onelie ſuch ſummes of moneie as hereafter enſueth: that is to ſay, of euerie ſhip thither repairing with herrings or other fiſh, as is aforeſaid, being of the burden of twentie tunne or vnder, and not aboue fiue ſhillings: And of euerie ſhippe thither repairing with herrings or other fiſh, being aboue the full burden of twentie tunne, ſixe ſhillings foure pence and not aboue, as by the ſaid acte or ſtatute made in the ſaide ſeuen and twentie yeere more plainelie may appeare. Sithens which act of parliament made, as is aforeſaid, yͤ ſaid walles, diches, bankes, and alſo letties, clowes, ſloweſes, goottes, gutters, and other fortreſſes about the ſaide towne, as is aforeſaide, haue much fallen in ruine and decaie, becauſe the maior burgeſes and comminaltie of the ſaide towne, which haue moſt parte of their liuings by trade of marchandiſe beyond the ſea, be not able ne of power to mainteine the ſaid walles, diches, bankes, letties & other the premiſſes againſt the ſaide water, and to ſupporte and beare ſuch other great yeerelie expenſes, coſtes, and charges, as yeerelie chance within the ſaide towne, except they might haue towardes the ſame charges ſuch ſummes of moneie as they before time haue bene accuſtomed to haue of the ſaide fiſherman, and other inhabitantes as is aforeſaide. And if the ſaide walles, diches, and other the premiſſes ſhould not be maintained ſupported and defended againſt the ſaide water, it would be in concluſion the deſtruction & deſolation of the ſaide towne of Kingſtowne vpon Hull, which God defend. In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that the ſaide acte and ſtatute made in the ſaide xxvii. yeere, concerning exactions taken by the maior and comminaltie of the towne of Hull, and euerie thing therein contained, may be from henceforth fruſtrate and voide: And that from henceforth it ſhalbe lawfull to the maior and burgeſes of the kings ſaide towne vpon Hull, & their ſucceſſours maiors & burgeſes of the ſame, and all other officers and miniſters there for the time being from time to time, at all times hereafter, to receiue haue and take of all and euerie the inhabitauntes and fiſhermen of the ſaid counties of Suffolke and of Norffolke, and all other places to the ſaid towne of Hull, for ſuch herrings, ſprattes, ſalteſiſhe, and all other vitailes by them or anie of them hereafter to be brought to be ſould to the kings ſaide towne of Hull, ſuch ſummes of moneie as hereafter followeth, that is to ſay, for euerie laſte of herrings of euerie perſon priuileged xx. d. for the laſte: And for euerie hundred ſalteſiſh iiii. d. and for euerie laſte of ſprattes viii. d. And of euerie perſon not priuileged for euerie laſte of herrings ii. s. iiii. d. and for euerie hundred ſalteſiſh iiii. d. and for euerie laſte of ſprattes viii. d. as afore the ſaide acte ſo made in the xxviii. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſouereigne lords the king, the ſaide maior and burgeſes haue vſed and accuſtomed to take, anie thing expreſſed or contained in the ſaid acte to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

WHere the kings maieſtie of his moſt abundant goodnes hath by his letters patents, vnder his great ſeale of England, bearing date the vii. day of Iulie & in the nine & twentie yeere of his moſt gratious reigne, graunted to the maior and burgeſes of his borough of kings Line, in his countie of Norfolke, that they and their ſucceſſours ſhall haue and hould within the ſaid borough two faires or martes euerie yeere from thenceforth: that is to ſay, one faire the next day after the feaſt of the Aſſumption of our bleſſed ladie the virgine, to be holden and to endure by vi. dayes next, and immediatelie folowing the ſame day: the other of the ſaid faires or martes to be holden the next day after the feaſt of the Purification of our bleſſed ladie the virgin, and to endure by vi. dayes next immediatelie folowing the ſame day, as by the ſaid letters patentes amongſt other thinges more plainelie may appeare. For ſo much that as well the burgeſes and inhabitauntes of the ſaide borough of kings Line, as manie & diuers other perſons dwelling nigh the ſaid borough of kings Line, haue ſince the ſaid letters patentes made, regrated & gotten into their handes poſſeſſion great number of ſalteſiſh, as ling, lob, Cod, ſalt ſalmon, ſtockefiſh, and herring, to the great hinderance and loſſe of manie of the kings ſubiectes, that yeerelie haue repaired and comen to Stirbridge faire, Elie faire, and other faires and markets in the countie of Cambridge & Huntington, and other ſhires, for the prouiſion of ſalteſiſhe and herring for their houſholdes, and for the prouiſion of diuers other ſhires within this realme of

It be therefore enacted by the king our ſouereigne lorde, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that the graunt made by the ſaide letters patentes of the ſaid two faires or martes, with all liberties onelie concerning the ſame ſhalbe from henceforth fruſtrate voide and of none effecte: Sauing alwaies and reſeruing to the maior and burgeſſes of the borough of kings Line, in the countie of Norfolke, and their ſucceſſous, all other liberties franchiſes, commodities, profites, and all other thinges whatſoeuer compriſed or ſpecified in anie letters pattentes made by the king our ſouereigne lord, or by anie of his noble progenitors, or by anie other concerning the borough or towne of Line, by what name or names ſoeuer it is or hath bene called, or concerning the burgeſes and inhabitantes of the ſaid borough or towne of Line, or anie of them, or the ſucceſſours of anie of them, by what name or names ſoeuer they be or haue bene incorporate named or called, ſo that this acte or anie thing therein contained, ſhall not in anie wiſe extend or be expounded to make fruſtrate voide, or to take away any thing cauſe or matter but onelie the ſaid two faires or martes, anie thing contained in this acte to the contrarie in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An acte concerning the condites of Glouceſter.

The xxxv. Chapter.

Maior. Deane.

Digge ſpringes.

WHere before this time the towne of Glouceſter, now latelie called the citie of Glouceſter, and the inhabitantes and reſiantes within the ſame, haue bene reaſonablie furniſhed, comforted and refreſhed with good pure and cleane running water, iſſuing out of the heads of freſh ſprings, ſituate and being within one mile and halfe diſtant from the ſaid citie, in one hill there called Matſtones hill, otherwiſe called Robin hoods hill: And for the preſeruation & continuance of the ſaid heads and ſprings, there is and long time heretofore hath bene erected and builded by the inhabitants of the ſame new citie, ſundrie condite houſes of lime and ſtone and from thence the ſaide water hath bene conueied vnder earth in pipes of leade, into diuers places of the ſaid citie, and alſo to the cloiſter and houſes of the late diſſolued monaſterie of ſaint Peter in the ſame citie, now latelie tranſlated and eſtabliſhed by the kings maieſtie into a cathedrall church of a biſhop deane and chapiter, which ſaid freſh running water is and hath bene not onelie a great refreſhing comfort & commoditie to all the kings ſubiectes, inhabiting within the ſaid citie, but alſo a ſingular pleaſure to all eſtrangers repairing to the ſame: Till now of late the ſaid ſpringes haue bene and yet be much dried waſted & conſumed, ſo that through the debilitie and ſcarſitie of water in the ſaid ſpringes, littel or no water at this day commeth or runneth from theſe to the condites & vſuall places in the ſaid citie or minſter, by reaſon whereof if ſome ſpedie remedie be not foreſéene & prouided for the conueiance bringing & leading of other water ſprings now alſo being in the ſaid hill, not far diſtant from the ſaid olde heads, to the pipes gutters and trenches of the ſame olde heades, now leading and conueing the water to the ſaid citie and minſter, the kings ſubiectes inhabiting within the ſame citie, for lacke of the ſaid water ſhall be much greeued annoied and moleſted, for as much as freſh and pure running water is and hath bene noted to be one of the moſt neceſſaries comforte and refreſhing to all cities and townes within this realme. In conſideration whereof be it enacted by the king our ſouereigne lord, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming it ſhall be lawfull to the maior of the ſaide citie of Glouceſter for the time being, and alſo to the deane of the ſaid minſter or cathedrall church and their ſucceſſours, and the ſucceſſours of euerie of them, at all times after the ſaide feaſt of Eaſter, as néede ſhall require to digge and breake ground for the conueiance of the ſaide water in all places, in or vpon the ſaid hill, ſo that the place or places ſo broken digged or trenched, be not aboue halfe a mile diſtant from the places where the ſaide olde conduites heades be now alreadie builded and erected, and in ſuch places where it ſhall be thought moſt apt and neceſſarie by the artificers and workemen of the ſaide maior or deane for the time being, to ſearch or finde anie new ſpring heades in anie place within the ſaide precint afore mentioned. And vpon the ſame new ſpringes ſo found lawfullie to erecte and edifie new conduit houſes, and there to digge and make diches vaultes and trenches and other conuenient and neceſſarie thinges for the continuance thereof at all times hereafter, at the libertie and pleaſure of the ſaide maior and deane and their ſucceſſours for euermore. And alſo from the ſaid new ſpringes to conueie the water in pipes of leade gutters and trenches vnto the other pipes of lead appertaining to the ſaide olde conduits heades, and by ſuch or like policie and meanes to bring and conueie the whole water from all the ſaide heades and ſpringes, vnto the ſaid citie and minſter, for the common wealth vtilitie and reliefe of the ſame citie and minſter, and the inhabitantes of the ſame. And thus to be done and executed with the yéerelie maintenance and reparations of the ſame, as néede ſhall require from time to time alwaies hereafter. And further that the ſaid maior & deane & their ſucceſſours and euerie of them, for the digging & breaking of anie ſuch ground or ſoile in anie the places aforeſaid, and for the purpoſes aforeſaid ſhall within xx. daies next after anie ſuch ground broken by the labourers or workemen of the ſaid maior or deane, for the ententes and purpoſes aforeſaid, ſatiſfie content and paie vnto the owners or poſſeſſours of the ſaid ſoile or ground ſo broken or digged, as much moneie for the ſame digging & breaking, as ſhall be adiudged and taxed by the determination and iudgement of iii. or iiii. indifferent men, inhabiting within the pariſh, where the place ſo broken builded or trenched is or ſhall be, and that to be vſed for euermore hereafter. And the ſame iii. or iiii. men alwaies hereafter ſhall be choſen and named, aſwell by the owner or poſſeſſour of the ground ſo broken for the time being, as alſo by the ſaid maior or deane for the time being, by whoſe commaundement anie ſuch ground or ſoile ſhall be at anie time hereafter ſo digged or broken: And all ſuch ſummes as after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter ſhall be taxed by the ſaid iii. or iiii. men for the time being ſo named and choſen, for ſatiſfaction of anie ſuch treſpaſſe or treſpaſſes ſhall be paied and ſatiſfied by the ſaid maior or deane for the time being, within iiii. dayes next after the ſaid taxation or iudgement ſo made and yéelded, vpon paine of the ſaide maior or deane ſo offending denieng or refuſing the paiment thereof for euerie ſuch offence to forfeite xiii.s.iiii.d. the one halfe of which ſaid forfeiture ſhall be to the king our ſouereigne lorde, his heires and ſucceſſours, and the other moitie to anie of the kings ſubiectes that will ſue for the ſame by anie of the kings courtes of recorde by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in which action bill or plaint no wager of lawe protection nor eſſoine ſhall lie. And neuertheleſſe the partie, whoſe ground hereafter ſhall be broken for none paiment of all ſuch ſummes of moneie, as by the ſaid iii. or iiii. men for the time being, ſhall be taxed and adiudged for the dooing of anie ſuch treſpaſſe at anie time or times, ſhall haue an action of debt againſt the ſaid maior or deane, by whoſe commaundement anie ſuch ground ſhall be ſo broken, in anie of the kings courtes of recorde, for the recouerie of the ſame debt ſo taxed, in which action no wager of law protection or eſſoine ſhall lie. And if it ſhal hapen that the ſaid thrée or foure men hereafter ſo to be choſen, as is aforeſaid, doo not or ſhall not agrée in making anie ſuch taxation for anie ſuch offence or offences to be doone within the ſaid time of foure dayes to them afore limited, nor that the ſaide maior or deane for the time being, doo not offer or tender to the partie ſo greued, reaſonable amendes and ſatiſfaction for the breaking digging or trenching his or their ſaide ground, that then the partie or parties ſo gréeued, and whoſe landes or ſoile ſhall be ſo hereafter ſubuerted and broken, ſhall haue his lawfull remedie againſt the ſaide maior or deane for the time being, by whoſe commaundement anie ſuch ſoile or ground, ſhall be for the purpoſe aforeſaide digged or broken, by action of treſpaſſe, and to recouer damages for the ſame, anie thing in this preſent acte mentioned to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

yeares after their ſaid entre, or if they ſufficiently reedifie build and repaire the ſame voyd ground or grounds or decaied houſe or houſes within the ſaid three yeares to them limited by this act, and after they or their ſucceſſors, ſuffer the ſame houſe or houſes, voyd ground or grounds, to fall in ruine and decaie, and do not build and reedifie the ſame ſufficientlie within three yeeres after ſuch ruine or decaie, that then it ſhalbe lawfull to yͤ firſt owner or owners, poſſeſſor or poſſeſſors of ſuch void ground or grounds, decaied houſe or houſes, their heires or ſucceſſors, immediatly after yͤ ſaid three yeeres, to the ſaid maiors aldermen & burgeſſes, and other head officers as is afore limitted, expired, into the ſame houſes ground or grounds, curtilages, gardeins, and backſides to enter, and the ſame to retaine to them, their heires and ſucceſſors, as in their firſt eſtate, anie thing conteined in this preſent act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alway, that this act or anie thing therein conteined, be not in anie wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons, being at the time of the ſaid proclamation made vnder the age of xxi. yeares, or being feme couert, or in priſon, or beyond the ſea in the kinges warres, or in his other lawfull affaires, or to any perſon or perſons, not being then of whole and perfect memorie, during the time that ſuch perſon or perſons ſhalbe within age, maried, in priſon, or of no perfect memorie, or beyond the ſea, ſo that the ſame perſon or perſons, their heires or ſucceſſors, after that he or they come to their full age of xxi. yeares or be vnmaried, out of priſon, or come againe within this realme, or be of whole and perfect memorie, within three yeares then next inſuing, do reedifie the ſame deſolate or voyd grounds, or repaire the ſaid decaied houſes.

An act touching the honor of Ampthill.

The xxxvii. Chapter.

CONſidering that the kinges moſt excellent maieſtie mindeth and intendeth by the grace of God to erect build and edifie vpon his graces manour of Ampthill in the countie of Bedford, ſumptuous ſtatelie beautifull and princely buildinges ſtructures and edifices, and the ſame as his highneſſe hath alreadie with goodlie and parkely parkes, ſo hereafter with diuers and ſundrie other like thinges of pleaſure delite and commoditie, to bewtifie adorne, and decorate, mete apt and conuenient for the long conſeruation of the kinges moſt royall perſon at ſuch time and times as his maieſtie ſhall haue acceſſe to the ſame: It ſeemeth therefore verie behouefull expedient and requiſite, that not alonely to ſuch a palace royall, manours poſſeſſions and other hereditaments ſhould be knit vnited and annexed, correſpondent and agreeable to the worthineſſe and dignitie thereof, but alſo ought of all conueniencie in reaſon to be ornated and ſet forth with the name and title of an honour, thereby inſinuating and declaring, that the thing ſhalbe no leſſe honorable and princely in rich and faire poſſeſſions, than ſtately and commodious, as well in things of pleaſure, as in ſumptuous and coſtly buildinges. Wherefore be it enacted ordeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſouereigne lord, with the aſſent of the lords ſpirituall and temporal & the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that all and ſinguler manors, parks, meſſuages, ſites of monaſteries, granges, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, and all other hereditaments, liberties and commodities, lieng or being in the hamlets, townes and pariſhes of Ampthill, Milbroke, Fleetewike, Malden, Stepingley, Weſtoning, Houghton, Congeſt, Wiſhamſted, Littelington Huſbandcrauley, Rigemond cum Sageno, Aſpeley, Geys, Cliphill, Caynoo, Shefford, Craneſfield, Pollorhill, Harlington, Todington, Barton, Shitlington, Chalgraue, Mariſton, Wooburne, Euerſhall, Milton, Brian, Warden, Elſtow, Candewell, Domſtable, Salford, Holcote, Bedford, Wotton, Kempſton, and the manor of Colneworth in the ſaid countie of Bedford or in any of them, or elſe in the hamlets, townes or pariſhes of Newportpanell, Tikforth, Molſo, great Lidforth, litle Lidforth, Stewkley little Brickhill, Bowbrickhill, Wauendon, north Crauley, and Swanborne, or in anie of them in the countie of Buckingham, or elſwhere within the realme of England, belonging or apperteining to any manor lieng or being in any of yͤ towns or pariſhes aboue mentioned, whereof and of the which our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king is at this preſent ſeaſed of an eſtate of inheritance, ſhall from henſeforth be perpetuallie knit annexed and vnited to the ſaide manor of Ampthill, and be taken adiudged and deemed as part parcell and member of the ſame manor: and yͤ the ſame manor of Ampthill, togither with all maner lands, tenements and other yͤ premiſſes aboue recited, ſo vnited and annexed to the ſame manor, according as is aboue expreſſed, ſhall from henſeforth be perpetuallie called and named the honor of Ampthill. An act concerning the honour of Grafton,

The xxxviii. Chapter.

Landes vnited to Grafton.

FOꝛ diuers ſundꝛie vꝛgent and neceſſarie cauſes and conſiderations the kinges maieſtie ſpecialle mouing: Be it enacted oꝛdeined and eſtabliſhed by the king our ſoueraigne loꝛd with the aſſent of the loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall and the commons in this pꝛeſent parliament aſſembled, and by the auctoꝛitie of the ſame, that all thoſe his maieſties hundꝛeds of Wimberſley and Alfoꝛds how, and all thoſe his graces foꝛreſtes Whittilwod and Salwſey, and all that his chace of Yardley in the countie of Noꝛthampton with all and ſinguler their members rightes and appurtenances: and all that his highneſſe chaſe of Waddon in the countie of Buckingham, with all and ſinguler his rights, members, and appurtenances, and all & ſinguler manoꝛs, parks, meſſuages, ſcites of monaſteries and pꝛioꝛies, granges, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions ſeruices, and all other hereditaments liberties & commodities, lieng oꝛ being in yͤ hamlets, towns and pariſhes of Grafton, Hertwell, Aſhton, Rod, Coꝛtuall, Alderton, Stoke bꝛewern, Shittillanger, Shoꝛeſley, Bliſewoꝛth, Milton, Malleſwoꝛth, Tiffild, Palliſpery, Toſſetoꝛ, Eiſton Hulcote, Abſell, Eſcot, Aſcot, Daleſcot, Bugbꝛoke, Kuddiſthꝛup Collingthꝛigh, Hardingſton, Wotton, Wyken and Delapꝛey in the ſaid countie of Noꝛthampton: and in the Hamlets townes and pariſhes of Luffild, Hanſlap, Caſtelthoꝛpe, Harſham, Shenley, Littlehoꝛewode, Sneſloo, and little Lidfoꝛth, in the ſaid countie of Buckingham, and els where within the realme of England, belonging oꝛ appertayning to anie manours oꝛ hundꝛed, lieng oꝛ being in anie of the townes or pariſhes aboue mencioned, whereof and of the which our ſaid ſouereigne lord the king is at this preſent ſeaſed of an eſtate of inheritance, ſhall from henſeforth be perpetuall knit, annexed and vnited to the ſaid manor of Grafton, and be taken adiudged and deemed as part parcell and member of the ſame manour: And that the ſame manor of Grafton, togither with all maner lands tenements and other the premiſſes aboue recited, ſo vnited and annexed to the ſame manour, according as is aboue expreſſed, ſhall from henſeforth be perpetuallie called and named the honor of Grafton: and that the ſame which heretofore hath bene taken for the maner of Grafton, ſhall from the firſt date of Maie next comming be taken and adiudged the chiefe principall and capitall part and place of the whole honour of Grafton: And alſo that all & ſinguler other manours, meſſuages, lands, tenements, rents reuerſions, ſeruices, and other hereditamentes lieng and being in anie of the hamlets, townes or pariſhes aforeſaid, with all the rights members and appurtenances, whereof and of the which the king our ſouereigne lor his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhalbe at anie time hereafter ſeaſed of eſtate of inheritance by purchaſe eſchete forfeiture or otherwiſe, ſhall immediatlie after ſuch purchaſe, forfeiture, or other wiſe comming to the handes of his highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, be from time to time vnited, annexed deemed and adiudged to all intents and purpoſes, as part parcell and member of the ſaid honor of Grafton.

Tenants.

Rents.

And further be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſinguler the tenants, aſwell freeholders and copiholders as other, and all and ſinguler perſons, which owe ſute to anie of the ſaid manors, or to anie leete or lawday to be holden, within the precinct of any of them, and the ſucceſſors and aſſignes of euerie of the ſaid tenants, ſhall do their ſutes ſeruices and cuſtomes, and paie their rents to the ſaid ſundry manors, and in ſuch time as they did and ought to do before the making of this preſent act. And that the ſaid tenants and ſuters or anie of them, or the heires ſucceſſors or aſſignes of them or anie of them, at anie time hereafter, ſhall not be charged or chargeable to or with anie other ſeruices ſutes cuſtomes rentes or other charges, nor be compelled to do or paie the ſame in anie other place or places, nor anie of the ſeuerall tenures changed altered or charged otherwiſe than they were or ought to do, or be before the making of this act, anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Grants.

Prouided alwaie, that this act or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not be preiudiciall or hurtfull to anie perſon or perſons, their heires executors ſucceſſors or aſſignes, for any leaſes demiſes grants or couenants heretofore had made or granted to them or any of them, of the ſaide manors and other the premiſſes, or anie part or parcell thereof, or of anie leaſes grantes or couenants hereafter to be made or granted of any of the ſaid manors, lands, tenementes, and other the premiſſes, whereof the kings highneſſe his heires or ſucceſſors ſhall hereafter be ſeaſed of eſtate of inheritance by purchaſe forfeiture eſchete or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, lieng or being in anie of the ſaid hamlets townes or pariſhes by the owners of the ſaid manors lands tenements and other the premiſſes, or anie part or parcell thereof, or by anie of their anceſtors, or predeceſſors, or by any other perſon or perſons lawfullie auctoriſed by them or any of them, for any demiſe leaſe or grant thereof ſo made or to be made: Sauing alwaies to euerie perſon and perſons bodies politike and corporat, their heires ſucceſſors, executors, & aſſignes, other than ſuch bodies politike and corporat, and ſuch other perſons as were or hereafter ſhall be parties and priuies to the bargaines ſales, gifts or grants of the ſaid manors and other the premiſſes or anie part thereof: and their wiues being examined of the ſame according to the lawes of this realme, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the wiues ſo examined, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euerie of them all ſuch right title vſe intereſt poſſeſſion, leaſe, leaſes, ferme, fermes, for terme of life, liues or yeares, or otherwiſe: and all grants, liberties, rents, charges profits, couenantes and all and euerie other commoditie or commodities which they or any of them haue might or ought to haue, or hereafter ſhall or ſhould haue of in or to the premiſſes or anie part or parcell of them, in ſuch maner and forme, as though this act, or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof had neuer bene had nor made, any thing in this preſent act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Suruey.

Profits.

Be it alſo further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid honor of Grafton, and all the manors lands tenements hereditaments and other the premiſſes aboue rehearſed, ſhall from henſeforth be in the order ſuruey rule and gouernance of the court of augmentation of our ſaide ſouereigne lord the kings crowne, and to be granted, let and ſet to ferme by the officers and miniſters of the ſame court, in ſuch maner and forme as other the manors lands and tenements appointed to the ſame court, bene or ought to be letten or granted: And that all the fermes iſſues, reuenues, and profits comming and growing of the premiſſes and euerie part thereof, ſhalbe taken and receiued to the kings vſe by the miniſters and officers of the ſame court, in ſuch manner and forme as is vſed and had of other manors, lands, tenements and other hereditamentes, committed to the order, ſuruey and gouernance of the ſaid court of augmentation, any act, ſtatute, ordinance cuſtome or vſe heretofore had made or vſed to the contrarie therof notwithſtanding.

Swannimots.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that this act ne any thing therein conteined be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to the iuſtices, wardens, ſtewards, lieutenants and clerkes of the ſwannimotes of any forreſts, parks, or chaſes conteined in this act, for or concerning any of their offices powers or auctorities, but onelie for and concerning ſurueieng of woods and woodſales to be had and made in any of the ſaid parks forreſtes or chaſes, and yͤ puniſhment of the offendors therein, and the naming ruling and ordering of the verderors thereof.

And Woodes.

And it is further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the miniſter of the woods of the ſaid court of augmentations, or other officers of the ſame court, ſhall yearelie paie or cauſe to be paid of ſuch ſummes of monie as ſhall yearelie riſe and come of the woodſales to be made of or in the ſaid parks forreſtes and chaſes aforeſaid all and all maner of fees and wages as of old time hath bene accuſtomed to be paid for the exerciſing of anie office within the ſaid parks, forreſts and chaſes, according to a certificat by writing thereof to be made vnto the ſaid maiſter of the woodes by and from the iuſtices of the forreſtes or any of them or anie their deputie or deputies in the ſame office, ſealed and ſubſcribed by them or anie of them.

Reparations.

And it is alſo enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid maiſter of the woodes for the time being, ſhall make paiment of all and all maner of reparations needefull to be done in and vpon anie pale, raile and lodge, within anie of the ſaid parkes, forreſtes and chaſes, and aſſigne timber for the ſame vpon anie requeſt thereof to be made in writing, by and from the ſaid iuſtices of forreſtes: And the ſaid maiſter of the woodes ſhall allowe all maner of fewell and brouſe to be ſpent and occupied within the ſaid parks, forreſts and chaſes, as it hath bene of old time there vſed and accuſtomed.

And it is alſo prouided and enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the maiſter of the woods ſhall not make any woodſale within the parkes chaſes and forreſtes aforeſaid or any of them, but by the aſſent of the iuſtices of forreſts for the time being, within whoſe auctoritie ſuch forreſts chaſes and parks bene, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Duchie.

Leaſes.

Prouided alwaie and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid that the fermers, rentes, ſutes, and ſeruices of ſuch and as manie of the ſaid manors, landes, tenements, and hereditamentes, mentioned in this act, belonging to the duchie of Lancaſter and conntie palantine of Lancaſter or to either of them, ſhalbe anſwered and paid in the court of the duchie chamber at Weſtminſter, or to the receiuors generall and other miniſters of the ſame court, in like manner and forme as heretofore hath bene vſed and accuſtomed. And that all leaſes hereafter to be made of any of the ſame manors, landes, tenementes or hereditaments belonging to the ſaid duchie, ſhall be made vnder the ſeale of the duchie of Lancaſter in like maner and forme as heretofore hath bene vſed, this act or anie thing therein conteined to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

An act concerning the execution of the court of ſurueiors.

The xxxix. Chapter.

Where in the parliament holden at London, the xv. daie of Aprill, in the xiiii. yeare of the reigne of our moſt dread ſoueraigne lord the king that now is, and from thenſe proroged to Weſtminſter the laſt daie of Iulie, in the fifteenth yeare of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne lord, and there then holden, one act or eſtatute was made and ordeined by our ſaid ſoueraigne lord the king, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in the ſaid parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of the ſame, that diuers and manie honors caſtles lordſhips manours landes tenementes and other hereditaments, as well in England and Wales, as in Callis and the marches of the ſame, which in a Cedule to the ſaide act annexed be expreſſed, were appointed to be vnder the ſuruete letting and ſetting of diuers perſons by the kinges highneſſe commiſſion aſſigned, which by the ſaid act be named and called, the kings generall ſurueiors of all and ſinguler the premiſſes, before whome all receiuours bailifes and other officers and miniſters, and all other perſon and perſons ſhouldbe accountable, of and for all and euerie the premiſſes, as by the ſaid act more plainely at large maie appeare. The ſaid act to indure vntill the laſt daie of the parliament then next and immediatlie inſuing, which ſaide next parliament, begon at London the third daie of Nouember, in the one and twentie yeare of his graces moſt noble reigne, and from thenſe adiourned vnto Weſtminſter, and there alſo vpon diuers prorogations continued and holden the fourth day of Februarie, in the xxvii. yeere of his ſaid reigne: It was then and there by auctoritie of the ſame parliament ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that the ſaid former act ſhould from thenſeforth continue for euer, as by the ſame act amongſt other things therein conteined, more plainelie is ſhewed and maie appeare. And for as much as all and ſinguler the premiſſes be appertaining to the kings moſt roiall maieſtie, as in the right of his imperiall crowne of this realme, which crowne ſo being imperiall, it is verie neceſſarie, & expedient, that al poſſeſſions lands tenements and other hereditaments, being in any part parcell or member thereof, ſhould be of ſuch nature qualitie and condition, as one whole and perfit bodie vndiſmembred: ſo yͭ the officers thereof appointed by the kings highneſſe, ſhould haue no neceſſitie, to haue aid or aſſiſtance of the auctoritie and power of anie other court or iuriſdiction, of or for yͤ ordering ſurueieng ſetting letting of anie of the premiſſes, or for leuieng of all and ſinguler the fermes rents iſſues profits and commodities of the premiſſes, or for the determination and iudgment of any maner cauſe or cauſes that might happen to grow inſurge or riſe in of or about the ſame or anie part therof, wherein the kings maieſtie is partie. Therfore as well for the good ordering, and for more ſpeedie and due adminiſtration of iuſtice to be had of and concerning all and ſinguler ſuch the kings honors caſtles manors lands tenements & other hereditaments, preſts and ſums of mony compriſed in a Cedule ſigned or hereafter to be ſigned with yͤ kings ſigne manuell, nuell, with the iſſues and profits of the ſame, to be truelie anſwered to the kinges highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors. And to the intent the kings ſaid excellent maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors may the more trulie and ſpeedilie be anſwered contented and paid of the rents iſſues fermes reuenues and profits, riſing, comming and growing, or which hereafter ſhall riſe come or growe, of in and vpon all and ſinguler the honors caſtles lordſhips manors lands tenementes and other hereditaments aforeſaid, with other the premiſſes, which be compriſed in the ſaid Cedule, ſigned with the kings ſigne Manuell, or hereafter ſhall be expreſſed in anie other Cedule hereafter to be aſſigned, as is aforeſaid, in ſuch court place maner forme & condition, as hereafter ſhall be declared limited and appointed. Be it enacted ordeined & eſtabliſhed, by yͤ aſſent of the kings ſaid maieſtie, his lords ſpirituall & temporall and the commons in this his preſent parliament aſſembled, and by auctoritie of yͤ ſame, in maner & forme, as hereafter followeth in articles, That is to ſaie.

Firſt the king our ſoueraigne lord, by auctoritie aforeſaid, ordeineth maketh eſtabliſheth and erecteth a certaine court, commonly to be called, The court of the generall ſurueiors of yͤ kings lands, which court, by auctoritie aforeſaid, continuallie ſhall be a court of record, and ſhall haue one priuie ſeale to be ingrauen and made after ſuch forme faſhion and maner as ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, which ſaid ſeale ſhall remaine and be in the order and keeping of the ſame ſurueior, that ſhalbe firſt named in the kings letters patents, and in his abſence to be left to the next officer to be named in the ſaid letters patents, and in his abſence to the third officer to be named in the ſaid letters patents.

Court of generall ſurueiors.

Seale.

And be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that there ſhalbe certaine perſons to be named by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, which ſhalbe called the kings generall ſurueiors of the kings lands, and they ſo named by the kings highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors, ſhalbe one entire officer, and ſhalbe the firſt and principall officer of the ſaid court.

Surueiors

Alſo it is ordeined by auctoritie aforeſaid, that ſuch perſon as nowe is and hereafter ſhall be treaſurer of the kings chamber, ſhalbe alwaies treaſurer of the reuenues of the ſaide court, and ſhall be officer of the ſame court next vnto the ſaid ſurueiors.

Treaſurer.

Alſo there ſhall be one other perſon learned in the lawes of the land, to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhalbe called the kings attarnie of the ſaid court, and ſhall be the third officer in the ſaid court.

Kings attarnie.

Alſo there ſhall be one perſon to be named by the kings highneſſe and his heires, which ſhall be called the maiſter of the woods comming growing and being in and vpon the premiſſes or any part parcell or member thereof, and ſhall be the fourth officer of the ſame court.

Maiſter of woods.

Alſo there ſhall be as manie auditors in the ſame court, as by the kinges highneſſe and his heires ſhalbe appointed, which ſhalbe called auditors of the reuenues of the ſaid court.

Auditors.

And there ſhalbe likewiſe as manie receiuors in the ſame court, as by the kings highneſſe and his heires ſhall be named and appointed, which ſhall be called receiuors of ſuch reuenues: as to them ſhall be appointed by the kings letters patents.

Receiuors.

And there ſhalbe one perſon in the ſaid court, to be named by the kings highneſſe, which ſhall be called clerk of the ſame court: And one other perſon which ſhalbe called vſher of the ſame court: And one other perſon, which ſhall be called meſſenger of the ſame court, which clerke vſher & meſſenger ſhalbe named by the kinges highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and euerie of them ſhall haue ſuch yearlie fees rewards and profits, for the exerciſing of the ſaid ſeuerall offices, as yͤ clerke vſher and meſſenger of the duchy chamber at Weſtminſter haue had & perceiued before this time.

Clerke.
Vſher.
Meſſenger.

Alſo the ſaid ſurueiors, which ſhall be appointed by the kings highneſſe, ſhall take a corporall oth before my lord chancellor of England for the time being after yͤ tenor inſuing: Ye ſhal ſweare that ye well and truelie ſhall ſerue the king in the ſayd office of the generall ſurueiors of the reuenues of his court, called the court of generall ſurueiors of his graces lands, and ſhall miniſter equall iuſtice to rich and poore, to the beſt of your cunning witte and power: And that ye ſhall diligently procure all thinges which maie honeſtly and iuſtly be to the kings aduantage and profit, and to the augmentation of the rightes and prerogatiues of his crowne: and truelie vſe the kings ſeale appointed to your office: And alſo indeuour your ſelfe to the vttermoſt of your power, to ſee the king truely anſwered of all ſuche rentes reuenues iſſues and profits, which ſhall or maie riſe or grow in your office, and from time to time deliuer with ſpeede ſuch as ſhall haue to do before you. And that ye ſhall not take or receiue of anie perſon, anie gift or rewarde, in any cauſe or matter depending before you, or wherein the kings highneſſe ſhall be partie, whereby anie preiudice hinderance, loſſe, or diſheriſon ſhall grow or be to the kinges highneſſe, ſo help you God and all ſaints.

Oth.

Alſo that the ſaid treaſurer ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid chancellor, according to yͤ tenor inſuing, Ye ſhall ſweare, that ye ſhall well and truely ſerue the king our ſoueraigne lord and his people, in the office of treaſurer of his highneſſe court of generall ſurueiors, & ye ſhall reaſonably and honeſtly procure the kings profit, and do right to all maner of people poore and rich in thoſe things, which touch your office, and the kings treaſure ye ſhall truelie keepe & diſpend, and true declaration and account therof ſhall make from time to time without anie concealement, to and before ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall be named, and appointed by the kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors for the ſame and further ſhall do euerie thing, that of right appertaineth to your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints.

Oth.

Alſo

Oth. Alſo the ſaid atturneie ſhall take a corporall oth before the ſaid generall ſurueiors according to the tenor inſuing, Ye ſhall ſweare, that ye well and truelie ſhall ſerue the king in all places, for or concerning any matter or cauſe that ſhall concerne or touch the poſſeſſions and hereditaments limited to the ſuruey and gouernance of this court, and procure the kinges profit thereof: And ye ſhall truelie counſell the king and the ſurueiors and treaſurer of this court in all thinges concerning the ſame, to the beſt of your cunning wit and power, & with all ſpeed & diligence from time to time, at the calling of the ſaid ſurueiors and treaſurer, you ſhall indeuor your ſelf for the hearing and determination indifferently of ſuch matters and cauſes, as ſhall depend before the ſaid ſurueiors and treaſurer: And that ye ſhall not take anie gift or reward in anie matter or cauſe depending in the ſame court or els where, wherein the king ſhalbe partie, whereby the kings maieſtie ſhalbe hurted hindered or diſinherited: and further do all and euerie thing, that ſhall apperteine vnto your office, ſo helpe you God and all ſaints

Oth. Recogniſance.

Alſo the ſaid generall ſurueiors, treaſurer, attourneie, and maiſter of the woodes, or thrée of them, as is aboueſaid, ſhall haue power and auctoritie, to take recogniſances for all cauſes and matters now depending before the ſaid generall ſurueiors, or that hereafter ſhall depend in this court of generall ſurueiors, of for or concerning the premiſſes, or anie parcell thereof: or of and for anie debts, to be due to the king, or for anie apparance to be made in the ſaid court by reaſon of the ſame: and to cancell and diſcharge all ſuch recogniſances by their diſcretions. And alſo ſhall haue full power and auctoritie, to award vnder the priuie ſeale appointed to the ſame court, in the kings name ſuch proceſſe and precepts, with reaſonable paines to be therein limited, as be nowe commonlie vſed in the court of the kinges duchie chamber of Lancaſter, againſt euerie perſon or perſons whatſoeuer they be, for or concerning anie thing or things limited or appointed to the order or ſuruey of the ſaid court, for anie the cauſes or matters aforeſaid, and vpon anie contempt to puniſh the offender by impriſonment, or otherwiſe by their diſcretions.

Impriſonment.

Alſo it is ordeined by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid officers appointed to the ſaid court, ſhall diligentlie from time to time attend vpon the ſaid generall ſurueiors, in the ſaid court or els where, at the commandement of the ſaid ſurueiors, for the hearing and ordering of matters and cauſes concerning the ſame.

Receiuers.

And be it alſo enacted, that euerie of the ſaid receiuers generall and particuler, ſhall well diligentlie and effectually gather and leuy to the kings vſe all ſuch iſſues, fermes, debts, and profits as ſhalbe limited to his or their charge, and diſtraine for the ſame, if need ſo require: and that euery of the ſaid receiuers and auditors generall and particuler, ſo ioyned togither by the appointment of the ſaid court, or the moſt part of them, ſhall well and truely ſuruey all maner of reparations, néedfull to be done in or vpon anie of the ſaid manors lands, tenements or hereditamentes, limited and appointed by his or their charge: the ſaid reparation to be done to the kinges moſt profit and leaſt charge.

Suruey.

Rents.

And alſo it is ordeined by auctoritie aforeſaid, that all rents, fermes, iſſues, debts and profits of the ſaid honors, caſtles, lordſhips manors, lands, tenements: and of all other premiſſes, which be aſſigned to the order ſurueie and gouernance of the ſaid court, as they ſhall growe due and be paiable, ſhall be paid and deliuered at ſuch time, as hereafter in this act ſhall be declared, to the hands of the ſaid treaſurer, by euerie of the ſaid receiuers generall and particular, or by ſuch other as ſhall be indebted to the king, to be ſafely kept to the kings vſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of his or their offices and fées.

Auditors.

And alſo it is enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid auditors, as they ſhall be aſſigned, ſhall yearely ride to the partie to him or them to be limited, betwéene the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell and the Natiuitie of our lord, and take the account of all bailifes, reues, fermers, tenants and occupiers of the manors, lands, tenementes, and other hereditamentes, within the limits of his or their aſſignement. And immediatlie vpon euery ſuch account, ſo to be made and determined, or before the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuitie of our lord, the ſaid accountantes and euerie of them, ſhall well and truelie content and paie, or cauſe to be contented and paied to the receiuer thereunto deputed, or to be deputed, all ſuche debts duties and arrerages, as they and euerie of them ſhalbe found in, and charged with vpon euerie ſuch account, vpon paine of forfeiture of his or their offices and fées.

Receiuers.

Accounts.

Alſo be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that all receiuers and chamberlaines now accountants, and all other receiuers and chamberlaines, which hereafter ſhall be accountants, of or for anie the premiſſes conteined in the ſaid Cedule, vpon like paine as is aforeſaid, ſhall yearelie before the firſt daie of March make and finiſh their accounts, before the auditor or auditors, therunto to be aſſigned, of and for all thinges belonging to their offices, for the whole yeare ended at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell next preceding the ſaid firſt day of March: And immediatlie vpon the ſame account ſo to be made finiſhed and determined or before the xx. daie of March then next following, ſhall content and paie to the ſaid treaſurer, all ſuch duties, debts and arrerages, as they or anie of them ſhalbe charged with and found in, vpon the determination of euerie ſuch accompt, vpon like paine, as is aforeſaid.

Alſo it is enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid auditors receiuers generall and particular, at all times vpon warning giuen to them by the ſaide court, ſhall aſſemble together, as well for the ordering of the ſaide honors, caſtels, lordſhips, manors, landes, tenementes and other the premiſſes, as of the tenauntes of the ſame, from time to time, as the caſe ſhall require, as for the viewing and determination of the ſaide accountes to bee made thereof before the ſayde courte.

Accounts.

Alſo it is ordeined by auctoritie aforeſayde, that all the accountes of euerie yeere to be ended at the feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, of the ſayde receiuers chamberlaines, bailiffes, reues, fermours and occupiers of the ſayde honors, manors, landes, tenementes, and other hereditamentes aforeſaide, ſhall be well and perfectlie engroſſed in parchment by the ſaide auditours, and deliuered into the ſaide courte, ſafelie to be kept to the kings vſe euerie yeere yeerely before the natiuitie of ſaint John Baptiſt next enſuing the ſaide feaſt of ſaint Michaell the archangell, vpon paine to forfaite their office and fees.

Treaſurer. Account.

Alſo be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the treaſurer of the ſayde courte ſhall yeerelie accounte before the ſaide generall ſurueiours attourneie and maſter of the woods, or afore the moſt part of them, or afore ſuch perſon or perſons, as the kinges highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſours, ſhall therevnto name and appoint, as well of for and concerning all and euerie the receites, iſſues and profites of his office of treaſurerſhippe, of this courte, as of all and euerie the receites, iſſues, profites, debtes, and thinges concerning his office of treaſurerſhippe of the kinges Chamber: and that they ſo hearing the ſame accounte, ſhall haue full auctoritie and power, to allowe and diſallowe vnto the ſayde treaſurer all and euerie thing or thinges to be allowed and diſallowed vpon his account, as by their diſcretions ſhall be thought meete and conuenient.

Clarke of the petie bagge.

And bee it alſo enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the clarkes of the petie bagge in the kinges Chauncerie, ſhall extrete and certifie into the ſaide courte of generall ſurueiours a true and iuſt tranſumpt of all offices and inquiſitions hereafter to be founde and taken, of for and concerning anie caſtelles, honours, manours, landes, tenementes, hereditamentes or other poſſeſſions, which at anie time hereafter ſhall come and bee in the kinges handes and poſſeſſion by reaſon of anie attaindour conuiction or other forfaiture be it by writ commiſſion or otherwiſe retournable in the ſayde Chauncerie, in like maner and forme as they haue bene accuſtomed to doe in the kinges eſchequer in ſuch caſes, and vpon like paynes, and ſhall not from hence forth bee compelled to certifie anie tranſcriptes of ſuch offices or inquiſitions into the kinges eſchequer as they were accuſtomed, anie lawe ſtatute cuſtome or other thing or thinges to the contrarie thereof had or made in anie wiſe not withſtanding. And that all inquiſitions hereafter to bee taken Virtute Officii, for or concerning the premiſſes or anie of them, ſhall bee immediatlie retourned and certified into the ſayde courte of Surueyours and not elſe where, vpon lyke payne as is limitted and hath bene vſed for none certificate of ſuch offices into the kinges eſchequer, anie lawe vſe or cuſtome to the contrarie not withſtanding.

Inquiſitions.

Maſter of the woods.

And alſo be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaide maſter of the ſaide woods for the time being, ſhall ſuruey or cauſe to be ſurueied as well all the woods and vnderwoods, which be or hereafter ſhall bee within the order of ſuruey and rule of the ſayde courte, as all and ſinguler the woods and vnderwoods in the kinges forreſtes, chaſes, parkes and landes, of his highneſſe olde inheritaunce of his crowne from time to time, as he ſhall thinke conuenient by his diſcretion, and ſhall haue full power and auctoritie by the aſſent of the ſaide courte, without warraunt of the kings highnes, to make ſale and ſales of all and ſinguler the ſaid woods and vnderwoods, vpon open proclamations thereof to bee made in the church market or other place next adioining to the ſame woods ſo to be ſolde, foreſeeing alwaies that the ſaide woods bee fenſed from time to time, as neede ſhall require, for the increaſe thereof.

Woods ſales.

Timber,

Prouided alwaies that the ſaide ſales of woods doe not extende to great timber, without the kings warrant for the ſame.

Alſo be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaid, that all and ſinguler ſuch ſummes of money, as ſhall be receiued for the ſale of the ſaide woods, and vnderwoods or anie part of the ſame, ſhall be deliuered yeerelie before the feaſt of all ſaints by the ſaid maſter of the woods, to the treaſurer of the ſaid court for the time being to the kings vſe.

Reparations.

Alſo be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaide, that no timber or wood requiſite and neceſſarie for the reparations of anie the caſtels, manors, places, meſſuages, tenementes, pales, and railes of parkes, as well ſuch as be in the occupation, tenure and holding of anie the kinges fermours and tenauntes, as alſo all other which be in the kinges handes, being anie of the caſtelles, manors, places, meſſuages or tenementes aforſaide, ſhall be taken for the ſame, vnleſſe they be appointed and deliuered by the maſter of the ſaide woods for the time being, with the aſſent of the ſaide court, within whoſe ſuruey the ſaide woods are growing.

Accounts.

Alſo be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaide, that the maſter of the ſayde woods, ſhall make yeerelie in the terme of ſaint Michaell the archangell a full true and perfect account before the ſayde court, of all and euerie the woods as well of for and concerning all and euerie ſumme & ſummes of monie, concerning the ſaid office, as of and for all and euerie other thing and things that ſhall belong and appertaine to the ſame.

Alſo be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaide, that the ſaide generall ſurueiours and maſter of the ſaide woods for the time being, ſhall declare yeerely to the kinges highneſſe the profites and ſummes of monie comming growing and riſing of and vpon the ſale of all and ſinguler woods within his ſaide office.

Swannimotes.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that this act ne anie thing therein conteined, be in anie wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to the iuſtices wardens ſtewardes, lieutenaunts or clarkes of the ſwannimotes of anie forreſtes, parkes or chaſes, for or concerning anie of their offices powers or auctorities: but onlie for and concerning ſurueying of woods and woodſales to be had and made in anie parke foreſt and chaſe, and the puniſhment of the offenders therein, and the naming ruling and ordering of the verderours thereof.

Maſter of the woods.

And it is enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the maſter of the woods ſhall yeerely paie or cauſe to be paied of ſuch ſummes of mony, as ſhall yerely riſe and come of the ſaide woodſales, ſo to be made in parkes, forreſtes and chaſes of the kings olde inheritance of his graces crowne, all and all maner of fees and wages, as hath bene of olde time accuſtomed to be paide by the king for the exerciſing of anie office within the ſaide parkes, forreſts and chaſes, according to a certificat by writing thereof to be made vnto the ſaide maſter of the woods, by and from the iuſtices of forreſts or anie of them, or anie their deputie or deputies in the ſame office, ſealed and ſubſcribed by them or anie of them.

And it is alſo enacted by the auctoritie aforeſayde, that the ſayde maſter of the woods for the time being, ſhall make payment for all and all maner of reparations needfull to be done in and vpon anie pale raile and lodge within anie of the ſayde parkes, forreſtes and chaſes, and aſſigne timber for the ſame, vpon anie requeſt thereof to be made in writing by and from the ſaid iuſtices of forreſtes. And the ſayde maſter of the woods ſhall allowe all maner of fewell and brouſe to bee ſpende and occupied within the ſaide parkes, forreſtes and chaſes, as it hath bene of olde time there vſed and accuſtomed.

Woodſale.

And it is alſo prouided and enacted by the auctoritie aforeſayde, that the maſter of the woods ſhall not make anie wood ſale within the parkes, chaſes and forreſtes aforeſayde or anie of them, but by the aſſent of the iuſtices of forreſtes for the time being, within whoſe auctoritie ſuch forreſtes, chaſes and parkes bene, anie thing in this act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Proces.

Alſo it is enacted by auctoritie aforeſayde, that all maner of proces that ſhall bee made out of the kings eſchequer to or againſt anie perſon or perſons, for anie fermes, rentes, iſſues or profites, or other things concerning the premiſſes, or anie part thereof limitted by this act to be in the ſuruey order and gouernaunce of the ſaide courte and the miniſters thereof ſhall bee clerelie voyde and of none effect.

Alſo it is ordeined and enacted by auctoritie aforeſayde, that the ſaide generall ſuruciours and treaſurer ſhall yeerelie declare to the kinges highneſſe the ſtate of the cleare yeerely value of the ſayde honours caſtelles, lordſhippes manors, lands, tenementes, rents, pencions, porcions, tithes, and other hereditaments, and other the premiſſes, and what remaineth thereof in the handes of the ſaide treaſurer.

Attainder.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by auctoritie aforeſaide that all ſuch manors meſſuages, lands, tenementes, rentes, reuerſions & other hereditamenes, which in any maner of wiſe heretofore hath bene or hereafter ſhall be in the hands or poſſeſſion of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord the king, his heires or ſucceſſors, by auctoritie of anie atainder exchete or forfaiture, ſet lieng and being in the countie Palatine of Lancaſter, may at the free will libertie and pleaſure of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord be aſſigned, limitted and appointed vnto the order ſurueying letting and ſetting of the chaunceller and officers of his ſaide duchie, in as large and ample maner and forme as the ſayde chaunceller and officers of the ſaide duchie of Lancaſter, haue heretofore had vſed and exerciſed of or vpon anie the manors landes tenementes or hereditaments appertaining or in any wiſe belonging to the ſaide duchie, this act or any thing therein conteined to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Repeale.

And it is enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that as wel the ſaid act of the generall ſuruciors, made in the ſaid xxiiii. and xxv. yeeres, as alſo the ſaid act thereof made in the xxvii. yere of the reigne of our ſaide ſoueraigne lord king Henrie the eight that nowe is, and euery article clauſe and matter therein conteined, ſhall be from the firſt day of Maie, which ſhall be in the yere of our lord God, M.D.xlii. vtterly voide and of none effect.

Graunts.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that all leaſes grauntes proceſſe orders decrees and all and euery other thing or things heretofore lawfully executed and done by the ſaide generall ſuruciors and all and euerie other thing or things nowe remaining or depending before them vndiſcuſſed and vndetermined by vertue of the ſaide former acts, ſhall be of the ſame force value ſtrength and effect, as they nowe bee or ſhoulde haue bene, if this act had neuer bene had or made.

Prouided alſo that this act nor anie article clauſe or thing therein conteined, ſhall extende to anie lands tenements poſſeſſions or hereditaments, which nowe be or hereafter ſhall be in the ſuruaie rule order, and gouernaunce of the kings court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of his crowne, nor ſhall giue anie power vnto the ſayde courte of ſuruciours to make anie leaſe or to take anie account of or for the ſame anie thing conteined in this act to the contrarie thereof in anie wiſe notwithſtanding.

order direction decree and iudgement for the king his heires and ſucceſſors, for the recouerie attaining and hauing of all and ſinguler ſuch manors, landes, tenementes, rentes, annuities, offices, fees, profites, and hereditamentes, and all and euerie other thing and thinges, which the king his heires and ſucceſſors by and vpon ſuch examination and examinations, ought ſhould and ſhall be iuſtlie intitled to haue recouer poſſeede or enioy in fee ſimple or in fee taile: And the ſame decree direction order and iudgement to be good and effectuall in the lawe, to binde all parties and priuies to the ſame to all intentes and purpoſes. And where anie decree or iudgement which ſhall be giuen in the ſaid court of augmentacions for anie the premiſſes, extend to the loſſe of the kings patent or patents, their heires ſucceſſors, executors or adminiſtrators, but for terme of life or liues of the demaundant or demaundants, plaintife or plaintifes, or for terme of yeres the loſſe whereof the king is bounden and ought to recompence diſcharge or acquite by his letters patentes: then the ſaide Chaunceller of the augmentations ſhall haue full power and auctoritie to recompence or diſcharge the ſame in monie, as is aforeſaide, or elſe to recompence the ſame of the landes, tenementes, hereditamentes, and poſſeſſions limitted to the ſurueie and gouernaunce of the ſayde courte of augmentations, to bee graunted vnder the ſeale of the ſame courte by the diſcretion of the ſaide chaunceller, as ſhall ſeeme to him beſt for the kinges profite, without anie bill or warrant to be ſued or ſigned by or from the king for the ſame, And that euerie ſuch recompence ſatiſfaction & diſcharge to be made by auctoritie of this act, to anie perſon or perſons by the ſaid chaunceller as is aforeſaide, ſhall be good and effectuall againſt the king his heires and ſucceſſors, anie lawe vſage or cuſtome to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Penalties. And it is further enacted by the auctoritie aboueſaide, that euerie of the ſaid courtes ſhall haue full power and auctoritie, by force of this act, to ſet ſuch fines, penalties, and amerciamentes vpon parties, ſhirifes officers and other perſons, for his and their defaultes, contemptes, negligences or miſdemeanours, as vnto the ſaid courtes or vnto any of them ſhall be reaſonablie conſidered and thought expedient. Trialles. And that all and euerie triall and trialles of all and all maner ſuites, billes, plaintes, informations, declarations, complaintes, anſweres, replications, allegations, cauſes, matters, and iſſues or anie of them, to be purſued made or tried in the ſaide ſeuerall courtes or anie of them, ſhall be made and tried by due examination of witneſſe, writings, profes, or by ſuch other waies and meanes, as by the ſaide ſeuerall courtes, or by anie of them ſhall be thought expedient. Iudgements. And that all and euerie ſuch iudgement and iudgements decree or decrees examination and examinations ſhall be good perfect and in full ſtrength force and effect in the lawe to all intentes conſtructions and purpoſes.

Recogniſaunce. And where diuerſe and ſundrie perſons ſtande bounden to the kinges highneſſe in diuerſe great and notable ſummes of monie, by recogniſaunce or other bondes, in the ſayde ſeuerall courtes or debtes due to the kinges highneſſe, as well for the purchaſe of landes and woods and performance of conditions, as alſo for diuerſe and ſundrie other cauſes: and all be it the ſame perſons haue well and truelie ſatiſfied, contented and paied the ſame debtes or performed the conditions of the ſame recogniſaunce or other bondes, yet the ſame recogniſaunces or other bondes can not be made voyde without the kings eſpeciall warraunt, which ſhoulde be much vnquietnes to the kings maieſtie, and alſo verie chargeable to his graces ſubiectes, to ſue to his highnes from time to time for the ſame. In conſideration whereof, and for as much as the ſaide perſons being ſo bounden by recogniſaunce, or in other bondes, maie by diuerſe caſualties loſe their acquittaunces, whereby great daunger and perill maie growe to them their heyres executours and ſucceſſours: Bee it therefore enacted by the king our ſoueraigne lorde, with the aſſent of the lordes ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and Acquittaunce. by auctoritie of the ſame, that vpon the ſight of the acquitaunces, made or to be made for the payment of the ſayde debt or debtes or ſumme or ſummes of money, growen or to be growen, or due and ſufficient profe made or hereafter to bee made before the ſayde ſeuerall head officers for the time being of the ſaide ſeuerall courtes, as the caſe ſhall riſe or growe, or if the condition of the ſame recogniſaunce or bonde be performed or kept: That then euerie ſuch ſeuerall head officer, for that recogniſance taken or to be taken by him or anie of his predeceſſors, or of any other bonde for the time being within his charge and cure, ſhall haue full power and auctoritie to cancell and make voide the ſaide recogniſaunce or other bonde, calling to him ſuch of the ſame court as to him or them ſhall ſeeme moſt conuenient for the cancellation of the ſame recogniſance or bonde.

And be it enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaid, that the ſame cancellation ſo made, ſhall be a ſure and ſufficient diſcharge of the ſame recogniſaunce or other bonde, to all and euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, as do or ſhall ſtande bounden in the ſame recogniſaunce or bonde ſo cancelled againſt the kings highnes his heires executors and ſucceſſors for euer.

Officers. And be it further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſayde, that the ſame ſeuerall head officers for the time being, in euerie of their ſayde ſeuerall courtes ſhall haue full power and auctoritie to diſcharge cancell or make voyde by his or their diſcretion, all and ſinguler recogniſaunces nowe made or hereafter to be made in the ſaide courte, for anie apparaunce or other contempt: and that the ſame head officer or officers, and the parties ſo bounden and to be bounden, to be diſcharged againſt the king our ſaide ſoueraigne lord his heires executors and ſucceſſors for the cancellation of the ſame recogniſaunce.

And where the kings maieſtie ſithen the making of the ſame eſtatute in the ſaid twentie ſeuen yeere of his noble reigne, of his owne meere motion liberalitie and benignitie, hath freelie giuen and graunted by his ſundrie letters patentes vnder his great ſeale of England, vnto diuerſe and ſundrie of the nobles and lordes, as well ſpirituall as temporall of this his realme, and alſo vnto diuerſe and manie other perſons and bodies politike, to their heires or ſucceſſours, and to the heires of their bodies, or for terme of life or liues diuerſe and manie ſundrie honours, caſtels, manours, lands, tenements, rectories, penſions portions & other hereditaments, which then were in the order gouernaunce and ſurueie of the ſame courte of the augmentations of the reuenues of his graces crowne, or out of anie other of the ſayde ſeuerall courtes, reſeruing vnto his maieſtie his heires and ſucceſſours by the ſame letters patentes, one yeerelie rent in the name of one tenth, or the tenth part of the yeerelie value of the ſame premiſſes, or anie other tenth paiable and to be paied in the ſame courtes, or to the officers of the ſame courtes deputed and aſſigned for the ſame, at one certaine feaſt or daie in the ſame letters patentes mencioned and declared, which ſaide perſons ſo aduaunced, not withſtanding they haue ſithen and after the making of the ſame letters patentes peaciblie enioyed the ſame manors landes tenementes and hereditamentes ſo giuen, and thereof haue quietlie perceiued and taken the iſſues, reuenues and profites thereof: yet neuertheleſſe diuerſe of the ſame perſons haue not at the daies and feaſtes aſſigned and limitted vnto them in the ſame letters patentes, nor yet in long time after the ſame daies and feaſtes of paiment thereof, contented and paied in the ſame courtes, or to the officers of the ſame courtes aſſigned and deputed for the ſame, the ſaide yeerely rent or rentes ſo reſerued to the kings highnes, contrarie to their dueties, and againſt all reaſon and good conſcience. In conſideration whereof be it therefore nowe ordeined enacted and eſtabliſhed by the aſſent of the kinges maieſtie, the lordes ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled and by the auctoritie of the ſame, that if anie perſon of what eſtate degree or condition ſo euer he bee, or bodie politike, to whom the kings maieſtie hath by his letters patentes vnder his great ſeale of England, or vnder the great ſeale of the ſame courte of augmentation, giuen or graunted, or hereafter ſhall giue or graunt, with like reſeruation of rent or rentes, anie manors, lands, tenements, rectories or other hereditaments whatſoeuer, which were or hereafter ſhall be in the order gouernance and ſurueie of the ſame courtes, or anie of them, to be had to them and their heires or ſucceſſors, or for anie other eſtate of inheritance, or for terme of life or liues, yeelding and reſeruing to the ſame our ſaid ſouereigne lorde the king his heires or ſucceſſors, one yeerely rent at one certaine daie or feaſt in the ſame letters patents expreſſed, mencioned and declared, and to be paide into the ſame courts, that if the ſame perſons bodies politike their heires or ſucceſſors or aſſignes, or anie of them, do not truely content or paie or cauſe to be contented or paide vnto yͤ treaſurer of the ſaid ſeuerall courtes, or to the generall or particular receiuer of the ſame ſeuerall courtes, deputed and aſſigned for the ſame for the time being, to the vſe of the kings highneſſe, at the daie or feaſt limitted by the ſame letters patents, or within 3. moneths next and immediatly after the ſame day or feaſt of paiment therof, all ſuch ſummes of monie, which bene or hereafter ſhall be due reſerued to the kings maieſtie his heires and ſucceſſours, by the ſame letters patentes or by anie of them, or make ſufficient tender thereof to the ſaide treaſurer or generall or particular receiuer that then euerie of the ſame perſons, bodies politike, their heires ſucceſſors or aſſignes, for lacke and default of paiment of the ſame rent, to forfaite and loſe to the kings maieſtie his heires and ſucceſſors as much monie as the 4. part of the ſame rent ſo reſerued or hereafter to bee reſerued for one yeere, doth or ſhall amount vnto for and in the name, of one paine, ouer & aboue the ſame rent reſerued or hereafter to be reſerued. And if it happen the ſame perſons bodies politike their heires or ſucceſſors or aſſignes or anie of them do not within one halfe yeere next after the daie or feaſt expreſſed in the ſame letters patentes, content or paie, or lawfullie tender vnto the ſame treaſurer, or generall or particular receiuer, to the vſe of the kings maieſtie his heires or ſucceſſors, as well the ſaide yerelie rent ſo reſerued or hereafter to be reſerued, as alſo the ſaide ſumme of monie forfaited for and in the name of a peine, that then the ſame perſons bodies politike, their heires ſucceſſors or aſſignes ſo offending, ſhall forfaite & loſe to the kinges maieſtie his heires and ſucceſſors, ſo much monie as the moitie and halfe deale of the ſame rent reſerued or to be reſerued for one yeere, doth or ſhall amount vnto, ouer and aboue the ſaide rent reſerued or to be reſerued, and to forfaite and loſe for euerie halfe yeere after, ſo much monie as the whole rent reſerued or to be reſerued, for one whole yeere, doeth or ſhall amount vnto, vntill the ſame rent reſerued or to be reſerned, and the arrerages of the ſame, and alſo the ſaide ſummes of monie ſo forfaited and loſt for a peine, bene vnto the ſame treaſurer or generall or particular receiuer truelie ſatiſfied contented and paide, to the vſe of the kings highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors.

And be it alſo further enacted and ordeined by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that if anie of the ſame generall or particuler receiuer, which nowe be or hereafter ſhall be within anie of the ſaid courts, happen to paie to any perſon or perſons any annuitie pencion or other rent: that then if yͤ ſame perſon or perſons vpon the receipt thereof deliuer vnto the ſame generall or particuler receiuer one ſufficient and lawfull acquitance ſealed and ſigned teſtifieng the ſame receipte: that then the ſame generall or particuler receiuer, ſhall receiue the ſame acquitance, without taking or receiuing anie fee or rewarde for the making of the ſame. And if the ſame partie, to whom the ſaide generall or particuler receiuer hath ſo contented and paide anie ſuch annuitie, pencion, or rent, doe not bring with him one ſufficient acquitance ſigned and ſealed, teſtifieng the receipt of the ſame money, by reaſon whereof the ſame generall or particuler receiuer by him ſelfe or his clarke maketh one acquitance for the receipte of the ſame annuitie pencion or rent that then the ſame receiuer or his clarke, ſhall not receiue or take for the making of anie ſuch acquitance, which he ſhall ſo happen to make not aboue iiii.d. vpon paine to forfaite for euerie ſuch acquitance, which he ſhall happen to refuſe, being readie made and offered to be deliuered to him as is aboueſaide xx.s. and for euerie acquitaunce which hee ſhall hereafter happen to make for anie of the paiments aforeſayde, and to receiue for the making of the ſame acquitaunce aboue the ſaide ſumme of foure pence, to forfaite twentie ſhillinges, the one moitie to be to the king, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame. And alſo that the ſame generall or particuler receiuers or their deputies which hereafter ſhall happen to paie anie ſuch annuitie pencion or rent, ſhall not retaine or take of the partie, to whom he ſhall happen to paie the ſame, in the waie of rewarde or otherwiſe, not aboue the ſumme of foure pence for euerie pounde, which the ſame generall or particuler receiuer ſhall ſo happen to paie, vpon paine to forfaite vi.s.viii.d. for euerie penie, which he or they ſhall happen to receiue aboue the ſayde ſumme of foure pence for euerie pounde, which he or they ſhall ſo happen to paie: the one moitie of the ſame forfaiture to bee to the king, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame. And that all the ſaide ſuites concerning the ſaide forfaitures, may bee commenſed & purſued by bil information or action, in which ſuite none eſſoine protection or wager of lawe to be admitted.

Inrollements.

Fees.

Forfaite.

And be it further enacted, that if anie perſon or perſons hereafter happen to tender or offer vnto anie of the auditours of the ſame ſeuerall courtes for the time being, anie of the kings letters patentes, decrées of anie of the ſame ſeuerall courtes, grauntes, indentures of leaſes, as well for terme of yeeres, as for terme of life or liues, ſo to be enrolled before the ſame auditour, according to his office: that then the ſame auditour, vpon the ſame tender or offer, ſhall enroll the ſame, or as much of the ſame letters patentes decrees grauntes or indentures, as ſhall appertaine to his ſaid office. And if anie of the ſame auditours or anie of their clarkes, or anie other to their vſe, or to the vſe of anie of them, receiue and take for the inrollement of anie of the ſame letters patentes decrees, grantes or indentures, or for the allowaunce of the ſame aboue the ſumme of iii.s.iiii.d. that then the ſame auditour or his clarke ſo offending ſhall forfaite vi.s. viii.d. for euerie penie, which the ſame auditour or anie of them ſhall happen at anie time hereafter to receiue contrarie to the forme aforeſaide, the one moitie of the ſame forfaiture to be to the kinges highnes, and the other moitie to him that will ſue for the ſame by ſuch maner and forme as is aforeſaide.

Proclamation.

And be it alſo further enacted by the auctoritie aforeſaide, that euerie auditour of euerie of the ſaid ſeueral courts yerely in euery county within their ſaid ſeuerall limites, by the ſpace of twentie daies or more before their audite, ſhall proclaime and declare in foure ſeuerall markettes or other places, the place and daie, where and when they wil keepe their ſeuerall auditors in the ſame ſhire, vpon paine to forfeit for euery time ſo doing the contrarie v.li. the one moitie whereof to be to the kings highnes, and the other moitie to the partie that will ſue for the ſame in forme aforeſaide. And that alſo euery of the auditors of the ſaide ſeuerall courtes being ſeuerally aſſigned to their ſeuerall limittes, and euery of the particuler receiuers of the ſame ſeuerall courtes, being alſo ſeuerall aſſigned and ioyned with the ſame ſeuerall auditors in their ſaide ſeuerall limittes, after and betweene euery of the feaſtes of ſaint Michaell the archangell and Chriſtmas, ſhall direct and awarde their ſeuerall warrants and preceptes vnder their ſeales, to euery of the receiuers, bailifes, reues, and other officers whatſoeuer accomptable before the ſame auditors, and by the ſame warrant or precept to charge and commaunde in the name of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, euery of the ſaide receiuers, bailifes, reues and other officers, to appeare before them at one certeine daie and place in the ſame warrant or precept to them preſcribed, there to declare and make a iuſt and true accompt of all ſuch receiptes, whereof they be accomptable, and owe to accompt. And after if the ſame auditours and particuler receiuers doe repaire vnto the ſame place, and there keepe their audite, according to the ſame proclamations, precept and warrant: that then if anie receiuour, bailifes, reue, or other officer, beeing accomptable of or for anie of the manours, landes, tenementes or other whatſoeuer hereditamentes, nowe repayring, or which heereafter ſhall bee and remaine in the order, gouernaunce or ſuruey of anie of the ſame ſeuerall courtes, be lawfully warned, as well by the ſame proclamation, or by precept or warrant in writing and ſealed, and in the name of anie of the Auditours of the ſaid ſeuerall courts, perſonally to appeare by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient and lawfull deputie before the ſame Auditour and receiuour at one certeine daie and place, in the ſame warrant or precept preſcribed, there to make and declare a iuſt and a true accompte of all receiptes of his ſaide office. And if the ſame receiuour, reue, bailife and other officer, ſo being lawfully warned, doe not appeare before the ſame Auditour and receiuour at the ſame daie and place in the ſaide warrant expreſſed: Or if the ſame receiuour, bailife, reue, or officer, doe at the ſame daie and place to them preſcribed, appeare, and will not accompt before the ſame Auditour, according to the tenour and effect of the ſame precept or warrant, or if the ſame receiuour, bailife, reue, or other officer accomptable, doe by himſelfe or by his ſufficient and lawfull deputie appeare before the ſame Auditour and receiuour, and then and there enter into his or their accompt before the ſaide Auditour, and after the ſame accompt finiſhed and ended, if the ſame receiuour, bailife, reue, or other officer, doe not content and paye vnto the treaſurer of the ſame ſeuerall courtes, or to the generall or particuler receiuer of the ſame countie for the time being, as the caſe ſhall require, within three weekes nexte and immediately after the ſame accompt fully finiſhed and ended, all ſuch ſummes of money which vppon the determination of his ſaide accompt hee ſhall happen to bee founde in arrerages, and the ſame defaulte and contempt beeing duely prooued before the head officer or officers of the ſaide ſeuerall courtes for the time being: that then euery ſuch receiuour, bailife, reue, or officer, ſo offending to forfeit and loſe his ſaide office, and alſo his fee, which hee or they had and perceiued for the exerciſing of the ſame office.

Concealement. Proces.

And be it alſo further enacted by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that if anie of the ſaide receiuours, bailifes, reues or other officers, vppon the declaration of their ſaide accomptes doe willingly concele and withdrawe anie rent, reuenue, fine, heriot, or other caſualtie whatſoeuer it be, of the which he ought to haue made account, and the ſame duely approoued before the ſaide head officer or officers for the time being: that then euery ſuch receiuour, bailife, reue, or other officer ſo offending, to forfeit and loſe his ſaide office and fee, which he had for the exerciſing of the ſame, and alſo three times as much as he hath ſo concealed and withdrawen. And that the ſaide head officer or officers of the ſame ſeuerall courtes for the time being immediatly vpon certificat to him made of the ſame defaulte contempt or offence, ſhall awarde proceſſe in nature of attachement againſt the ſame receiuour, bailife, reue, or other officer, as well for the ſame arrerages remaining in the handes of the ſame receiuour, bailife, reue or officer, as alſo for the penaltie of their recogniſance or bonde, in which the ſame receiuour, bailife, reue, or officer ſtandeth bounden to our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, as alſo for the contempt and peine limitted and appointed by this act.

Suites.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaide, that in all actions and ſuites to be taken or purſued in anie the courtes aforeſaide, for the recouerie of anie dette or dettes, which nowe be or that hereafter ſhall happen to appertaine, accrue, remaine or be to the king, by reaſon of any attainder, outlawrie, forfeiture, gift of the partie, or by anie other collaterall way or meanes, it ſhall be ſufficient in the lawe to ſhewe and alledge in the ſaide ſuite generally, that the partie, to whome the ſaide det or dettes was due or did belong, ſuch yeere and daie did giue the ſame dette or dettes vnto the king, or was attainted, outlawed, or other offence, forfeiture, deede, act, or thing committed or done, by reaſon whereof the ſaide det or dettes did accrue and ought to remaine, come and be to the king. And that the ſame matter, ſo to be ſhewed, alledged or declared in a generalitie, without ſhewing and declaring the circumſtance thereof, ſhall be of as good force and effect in the lawe to all ententes, conſtitutions and purpoſes, as if the whole matter thereof had beene or were alledged and declared at large in euery point, according to the due order of the common lawes of this realme.

And be it alſo enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if anie ſuite be commenſed or taken, or anie proces be hereafter awarded for the king, for the recouerie of any the kings dettes: that then the ſame ſuite and proces ſhall be preferred before the ſuite of anie other perſon or perſons. And that our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde his heires and ſucceſſours, ſhall haue firſt execution againſt any defendant or defendants, of or for his ſaid dettes, before any other perſon or perſons, ſo alwaies that the kings ſaide ſuite be taken and commenced, or proces awarded for the ſaide dette, at the ſuite of our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king his heires or ſucceſſors, before iudgement giuen for the ſaide other perſon or perſons.

And be it enacted alſo by authoritie aforeſaid, that all manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, the which now be or that hereafter ſhall come and be in or to the hands, poſſeſſions, occupation or ſeaſon of anie perſon or perſons, to whome the ſame manors, landes, tenements or hereditaments, haue heretofore or hereafter ſhall deſcend, reuert or remaine, in fee ſimple or in fee taile, generall or ſpeciall, by from or after the death of anie his or their aunceſter, or aunceſters, as heire, or by gift of his aunceſters, whoſe heire he is, which ſaide aunceſter or aunceſters was is or ſhall be indetted to ẏ king, or to anie other perſon or perſons to his vſe, by iudgement recogniſance obligation or other ſpecialtie, the det whereof is or ſhall not be contented and paide: that then in euerie ſuch caſe the ſame manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions and hereditaments ſhall be and ſtand by authoritie of this act, from henceforth, charged and chargeable to and for the paiment of the ſame det, and of euerie part thereof. And that our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde his heires and ſucceſſors, at anie time hereafter ſhal not be barred, delayed forcloſed or excluded, to demaunde, haue and receiue his or their iuſt due and lawful dettes and dueties againſt any of his ſubiectes, as heire or heires to anie perſon or perſons endetted to his highnes, or to other perſons to his vſe, or which ſhall be indetted to his highnes, his heires or ſucceſſors, all be it this worde Heire be not or ſhall not be compriſed in ſuch recogniſance obligation or ſpecialtie, or that anie ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall ſay or alledge, that he or they haue not anie manors, landes, tenements or hereditaments to them deſcended, but onely ſuch manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, as be or ſhall be entailed, or giuen to them by anie their aunceſters, to whome they be heires, anie lawes, vſes, or cuſtomes before this time vſed or had to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

An act for the aduauncement of true religion and for the aboliſhment of the contrarie.

The firſt Chapter.

Where the kings moſt royall maieſtie, our gracious and naturall ſoueraigne liege lorde, ſupreme head of the church of England, and alſo of Ireland, and his honorable counſell, perceiueth the ignorance, fonde opinions, errors, and blindnes of diuers and ſundry his ſubiectes of this his realme, in abuſing, and not obſeruing, nor following the commaundements, precepts, and lawes of almightie God, nor the verie true and perfect religion of Chriſt, notwithſtanding ſuch wholeſome doctrines, and documentes as his maieſtie hath heretofore cauſed to be ſet foorth for that purpoſe beſide the great libertie granted to them in hauing them amongeſt them and in their handes the newe and olde teſtament, which notwithſtanding manie ſeditious people, arrogant and ignorant perſons, whereof ſome pretending to be learned, and to haue the perfite and true knowledge, vnderſtanding and iudgement of the ſacred and holie Scriptures, and ſome other of their peruerſe, frowarde and malicious mindes, willes and intentes, entending to ſubuert the verie true and perfect expoſition, doctrine, and declaration of the ſaid ſcripture, after their peruerſe fantaſies: haue taken vpon them, not onely to preache, teache, declare, and ſet foorth the ſame by wordes, ſermons, diſputations, & argumentes, but alſo by printed bookes, printed balades, playes, rymes, ſonges, and other phantaſies ſubtelly and craftely inſtructing his highneſſe people, and ſpecially the youth of this his realme vntruely, and otherwiſe than the Scripture ought or ſhoulde be taught, declared or expounded, and contrary to the verie ſincere, and godly meaning of the ſame. Whereupon diuerſitie of opinions, ſayinges, variances, argumentes, tumultes and ſciſmes haue béene ſprong and ariſen amongeſt his ſaide ſubiectes within this his realme, to the great inquietation of his ſaide people, and great diſpleaſure of his maieſtie, and contrary to his graces true meaning, good intention, and moſt godly purpoſe.

Bookes.

For reformation whereof, his maieſtie moſt vertuouſly, and prudently conſidereth, and thinketh that it is and ſhall be moſt requiſite, expedient and neceſſarie, not onely by lawes dreadfull, and penall, to take awaye, purge and cleanſe this his highnes realme, territories, confines, dominions, and countries, of all ſuch bookes, writings, ſermons, diſputations, arguments, balades, playes, rymes, ſonges, teachinges and inſtructions, as be peſtiferous, and noyſome, with all the cauſes, inſtrumentes, and meanes of the ſame: But alſo to ordeine and eſtabliſh a certaine forme of pure and ſincere teaching, agreable with Gods worde, and the true doctrine of the catholike and Apoſtolicall church whereunto men may haue recourſe for the true deciſion of ſome ſuch controuerſies as haue in times paſt and yet do happen and ariſe amongeſt them. And therefore be it enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, by our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde the king, the lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that all manner of bookes of the olde and newe teſtament in Engliſh, being of the craftie, falſe, and vntrue tranſlation of Tindall, and all other bookes and writinges in the Engliſh tongue, teaching or compriſing anie matters of chriſtian religion, articles of the faith, or holy ſcripture, or anie part of them, contrarie to that doctrine, which ſince the yéere of our Lorde M.D.xl. is, or anie time during the kings maieſties life, our ſaid ſoueraigne lord that now is king Henry the eyght which our Lord long preſerue, ſhall be ſet foorth by his highneſſe, with ſuch ſuperſcription and ſubſcription, as hereafter ſhall be declared, ſhall be by authoritie of this preſent act cleerely and vtterly aboliſhed, extinguiſhed, and forbidden, to be kept or vſed in this realme, or els where in anie the kings dominions.

Prouided alwayes, that the bibles and newe teſtament in Engliſh, not being of Tindalles tranſlations, ſhall ſtand in force, and not be compriſed in this abolicion or act. Neuertheleſſe, if there ſhall be found in anie ſuch bibles or newe teſtaments, anie annotations or preambles, That then euery perſon and perſons, hauing anie bibles or newe teſtaments, with anie ſuch annotations or preambles, ſhall before the ſaide firſt daie of October, cut or blot the ſame, in ſuch wiſe, as they cannot be perceiued nor read, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for euery bible & newe teſtament that anie perſon or perſons ſhall haue in their hands or cuſtodie, after ẏ ſaid firſt daie of October, with anie ſuch annotations or preambles as is aforeſaid, contrary to this act. xl.s.

Prouided alway, that this article next aboue ſpecified, do not extend to the blotting or cutting out of anie quotation or ſummaries of chapters expreſſed or conteined in anie ſuch bibles or new teſtaments, anie thing afore mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that all bookes in engliſh, printed before the yéere of our lord, M.D.xl. intituled, the kings highnes proclamations, iniunctions, tranſlations of the Pater noſter, the Aue Maria and the Creede, the Pſalters, Primers, prayers, ſtatutes and lawes of the realme, cronicles, Canterbury tales, Chaucers bookes, Gowers bookes, & ſtories of mens liues, ſhall not be comprehended in the prohibition of this act, vnleſſe the kings ſaid maieſtie ſhall hereafter make ſpeciall proclamation for the condemnation and reprouing of the ſame, or anie of them.

Bookes.

Prouided alway and be it enacted by authoritie aforeſaide, that all printers may lawfully print all ſuch books, conteining matters of religion as the kings maieſty ſhal by his bill aſſigned allowe and approue, whereunto the ſame printers, ſhall be bound to put the ſuperſcription & ſubſcription in this forme, that is to ſay, by the king and his cleargie, with addition in the ende of the printers name, his dwelling place, the daie and yéere of the printing of the ſame, which if the ſame printer do omitte, he ſhall incurre ſuch penalties as before is limitted for printing, ſelling, giuing, or deliuering of vnlawfull bookes.

Printers.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to all & euery perſon and perſons, to ſet foorth ſongs and playes and enterludes, to be vſed and exerciſed within this realme, and other the kings dominions, for the rebuking and reproching of vices, and the ſetting foorth of vertue: So alwayes the ſaid ſongs, playes or enterludes medle not with interpretations of ſcripture, contrary to the doctrine ſet foorth or to be ſet foorth by the kings maieſtie, our ſaid ſoueraigne lord that nowe is, king Henry the eighth in forme aforeſaid. Any thing conteined in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that no maner of perſon or perſons after the firſt daie of October next enſuing, ſhall take vpon him or them to read preach or teach openly to other, in anie church or open aſſembly, within any the kinges dominions, the bible, or any part of ſcripture in Engliſh, or by anie other perſon or perſons cauſe it or anie part thereof openly to be read, preached or taught to other, in any church, or open aſſemby, as is aforeſaid, vnleſſe he be ſo appointed thereunto by the kinges maieſtie, or by anie ordinarie, or by ſuch as haue rule, gouernement and authoritie , to make deputation or aſſignement for the ſame, vppon peine that euery ſuch offendour, being thereof conuicted as is aforeſaide, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of one moneth.

Perſons allowed to exhort.

Prouided alwayes, that the chauncellor of Englande, Capitaines of the warres, the kinges Juſtices, the recorders of anie citie, borough, or towne, the ſpeaker of the parliament, and all other Juſtices officers and miniſters, which heretofore haue béene accuſtomed to declare or teache anie good vertuous or godly exhortations, in anie aſſemblies, may vſe anie parte of the bible or holie ſcripture, as they were wont and haue béene accuſtomed ſo alwayes it be not contrarie to the doctrine ſet foorth or to be ſet foorth as is aforeſaid, anie thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

Reading allowed.

Prouided alſo that it ſhall be lawful to euery noble man and gentleman being a houſholder, to reade or cauſe to be read by anie of his familie ſeruants, in his houſe, orchardes or garden, & to his owne familie, anie text of the bible or new teſtament, ſo the ſame be done quietly and without diſturbance of good order. And alſo that it ſhall be lawful for euery marchant man being a houſeholder, and occupying the ſeat of marchandiſe, to read to himſelfe priuately, the bible and newe teſtament, anie thing in this act to the contrarie hereof notwithſtanding.

Reading forbidden.

And where the kings maieſtie , of his moſt gratious and bleſſed diſpoſition, hath heretofore cauſed to be ſet forth the bible and newe teſtament in the Engliſh tongue, to be read by his louing ſubiectes, to the intent that they might thereby the better knowe their duetie to almightie God, and to his maieſtie , and alſo increaſe in vertue , for the wealth of their ſoules. Albeit his maieſties ſaide moſt godly purpoſe and intent, hath taken good effect amongeſt a great multitude of his ſubiectes, and ſpecially amongeſt the higheſt and moſt honeſt ſort, according to his highneſſe good expectation thereof: yet for as much as his highnes perceiueth, that a great multitude of his ſaide ſubiectes, moſt ſpecially of the lower ſorte, haue ſo abuſed the ſame that they haue thereby growen and increaſed in diuers naughtie and erronious opinions , and by occaſion thereof fallen into great diuiſion and diſcention among themſelues, to the great vnquietnes of the realme, and other his maieſties dominions . For remedie whereof be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaide, that from and after the firſt daie of July next comming, no women, nor artificers, prentiſes, iorneymen, ſeruing men of the degrées of yomen or vnder, huſband men, nor labourers, ſhall read within this realme, or in anie other the kinges dominions , the bible or newe teſtament in Engliſh to himſelfe, or to anie other priuately or openly, vpon paine of one monethes impriſonment for euery time offending contrarie to this act, and being thereof conuict in ſuch manner & forme as is aforeſaide , vnleſſe the kings maieſtie, our ſaide ſoueraigne lorde king Henry the eyght, perceiuing ſuch reformation and amendement in their liues and behauiour , by the diligent and diſcréete reading, and imprinting in their hearts of the moſt bleſſed doctrine, ſet forth, or hereafter to be ſet forth by his ſaid maieſtie ſhall of his clemencie thinke good otherwiſe, to enlarge and to giue libertie for the reading of the ſame.

Prouided alway that all maner of perſons, other then women, artificers, prentiſes, iourneymen, ſeruingmen of the degrées of yomen or vnder, huſband men & labourers, may read to themſelues, and to none other, anie text of the bible and newe teſtament , for their owne edifying & increaſe of vertue, anie thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwayes, that euery noble woman and gentilwoman may read to themſelues alone and not to others, anie textes of the bible or newe teſtament any thing in this act to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Teaching.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons whatſoeuer, to read & teach in their houſes, and in the houſes of their huſbandes, parentes, or maiſters , all ſuch doctrine , as ſince the ſaide yéere of our lorde a thouſand fiue hundred and fourtie, is or ſhall be ſet foorth by the kinges maieſtie, our ſoueraigne lorde that nowe is, as is aforeſaide. And alſo the Pſalter, Primers, Pater noſter, Aue and Creede in Engliſh, and all ſuch bookes and writinges, which be aboue ſpecially named, to be reſerued and not to be aboliſhed and prohibited by this act : So they do the ſame quietly, and without diſturbance of good order, anie thing in this act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Diſputation.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons , other than be aboue limitted, ſhall take vpon him openly to diſpute or argue, to debate, diſcuſſe or expounde holy ſcripture, or anie part thereof, which with all reuerence ought to be communicated among chriſten men, vpon the peines of one monethes impriſonment.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by authoritie aforeſaide, that the one moitie of all the penalties and forfeitures of ſummes of money aboue ſpecified, ſhall be to the king our ſoueraigne lord, and the other moitie thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons as will detect and ſue for the conuiction of anie of the offenders contrary to this act , in ſuch forme as is aboue limitted by this act, and that the moitie of ſuch forfeitures limitted to the partie detecting and ſuing as is aforeſaide, ſhall be leuied of the offenders , that ſhall be conuict by authoritie of this act , as is aforeſaide , after ſuch forme faſhion and order of proceſſe, as ſhall be deuiſed by the Judge or Judges, afore whome anie ſuch conuiction ſhall be had : and the other moitie of ſuch forfeitures , limitted to bee to the kinges maieſtie , ſhall be eſtreated by writing into the kinges eſcheker, by the ſaid Judge or Judges, within xl. daies next after ſuch conuiction had : if it be in the terme time, and if it be out of the terme, then within xx. daies next after the beginning of the terme following after ſuch conuiction.

And be it further enacted, that if anie ſpirituall perſon or perſons ſhall after the firſt daie of July next comming, preache, teache, defende or maintaine anie matter or matters, thing or things contrarie to the godly inſtructions or determinations, which ſince the yeere of our Lorde aforeſaide, is or ſhall be ſet foorth by his Maieſtie, as is afore mencioned: that then euerie ſuch offender being thereof conuicted before the ordinarie of that dioceſſe within the which the ſaide offence ſhall be committed, and two Juſtices of peace, as is aforeſaide, or before two of the kings maieſties councell, or ſuch commiſſioners as his maieſtie ſhall appoint for that purpoſe: ſhall be for the firſt time admitted to recant and renounce his ſaide errors, after ſuch manner and forme as ſhall be appointed by the ordinary or Judges, afore whome ſuch offender ſhall be conuict. And if ſuch offender refuſe to recant, in ſuch forme as is aforeſaide, or if he recant, and after eftſoones offende: that then he ſhall for the ſecond time, or for refuſall to recant, abiure and beare a faggot, after ſuch manner and forme as ſhall be aſſigned by the ordinarie or Judge and two Juſtices of peace, as is aforeſaide, afore whome ſuch offender ſhall be conuict. And if ſuch offender refuſe to abiure and beare a faggot, as is aforeſaide, or if he abiure and beare a faggot, as is aforeſaide, and after offende the thirde time contrarie to this acte, and be thereof conuict in manner and forme as is aforeſaide: That then euery ſuch offender, for the thirde time, or for refuſall to abiure, ſhall be deemed and adiudged an heretike, and ſhall ſuffer therefore paynes of death by burning, and loſſe and forfeitures of all his goods and cattals. And if anie laye perſon or perſons, ſhall after the ſaide firſt daie of July nexte comming, teache, defende or maintaine anie matter or matters, thing or thinges, contrary to the godly inſtructions and determinations, which ſince the yéere of our lorde aforeſaide, is or ſhall be ſet foorth by his maieſtie, as is aforeſaide, euery ſuch offender, being thereof duely conuicted before the Ordinarie of the Dioceſſe, within the which the ſaide offence ſhall be committed, and two Juſtices of peace, as is aforeſaid, or before two of the kinges maieſties councell or ſuch Commiſſioners, as the kinges highneſſe ſhall appoint for that purpoſe, ſhall renounce and forſake his ſaide errour before the ſaide Ordinarie or Judges, before whome the ſaide offender ſhall be conuicted and ſuffer impriſonment in anie of the kinges priſons by the ſpace of twentie daies. And if ſuch offender refuſe to renounce and forſake his ſaide errours, or if he renounce and forſake his ſaide errours, and after eftſoones offende: That then he ſhall for the ſecond time, or refuſing to renounce, abiure and beare a faggot, in manner and forme, as by the Ordinarie or Judge before whome ſuch offender ſhall be ſo conuicted, ſhall be appointed, and if ſuch offender refuſe to abiure, and beare a faggot as is aforeſaide, or if he abiure and beare a faggot as is aforeſaide, and after offende the thirde time contrarie to this acte, or refuſe to abiure, and be thereof conuict in manner and forme that is aforeſaide: that then euery ſuch offender ſhall forfeit all his goods and cattals, and haue perpetuall impriſonment.

Prouided alwayes, that the offence of reading, preaching, teaching, defending, or mainteining matter, contrarie to the determination ſet forth or to be ſet forth by the kings maieſtie our ſaid ſoueraigne lorde king Henry the eight, be obiected againſt the offender, within one yéere next after ſuch offence committed and done, or elſe the offender therein to ſuffer no puniſhment by authoritie of this act.

Triall. Witneſſes.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that in triall by witnes of anie of the matters or offences aboue ſpecified in this acte, the perſon, or perſons, being detect or complained on, ſhall be admitted to purge and trye his or their innocencie by other witneſſe, as many or mo in number, and of as good honeſtie and credence as thoſe be which deposed againſt them or anie of them, in which caſe the ſaide Judge or Judges, which ſhall haue authoritie to examine, heare, and determine the offences abouesaide, by authoritie of this act, ſhall aduiſedly and deliberately ſuruey and conſider the witneſſe brought in by bothe partes, and their diſpoſitions and circumſtances thereof, and thereupon condemne or diſmiſſe from puniſhment and looſe the perſon detect or complained vpon, as to his own diſcretion ſhall ſeme beſt to agrée with conſcience & equitie.

Prouided alway that this act be vnderſtand, that no perſon or perſons ſhall incurre any paine or penaltie in this act, for offending of any doctrine hereafter to be ſet forth by the kings maieſtie, as is aforeſaide, till one moneth be paſt and expired next after ſuch doctrine ſhall be put in print, within which time of a moneth, next after ſuch doctrine imprinted, euery perſon may haue notice of the ſame.

Prouided alſo that this act concerning the ſixe articles, ſhall ſtill remaine and continue in the ſame force, ſtrength and effect, as it was before the making of this act, any thing in this act to the contrarie thereof notwithſtanding.

And be it further prouided by authoritie aforeſaide, that the kinges maieſtie our ſoueraigne lord that now is king Henry the viii. may at any time hereafter at his highnes libertie and pleaſure, change and alter this preſent act and prouiſions of the ſame, or anie clauſe or article therein conteined, as to his highnes moſt excellent wiſedome ſhall ſéeme conuenient, anie thing in this act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Ordinarie.

Prouided alwayes and be it enacted, that for the more ſpeedie execution of this act, euery ordinarie aforeſaid, ſhall haue full power and authoritie, by vertue of this act, to giue notice to two

Juſtices of peace,being vnder the degrée of barons,and being reſiant and inhabitant within ſuch ſhire where anie ſuch ordinarie ſhall ſit for the execution of this act, and require them to come to ſuch place, and at ſuch time as ſuch ordinarie ſhall name and aſſigne, to ioyne with the ſaide ordinarie in examination and determination of anie offence or offences committed or don againſt the tenor of this act. And in caſe anie ſuch Juſtices,being ſo required, as is aforeſaide, hauing conuenient and reaſonable warning and knowledge in writing from and at ſuch time of the date and place appointed,do not come to ſuch place & at ſuch time, as ſhall be appointed, hauing no lawfull and iuſt impediment to the contrary, ſhall forfeit and loſe to the kinges highnes, for euery ſuch offence xl.s.to be eſtreated,as is aforeſaid.

Juſtices of peace.
